Our Girl At Button Bay, Vt.

KATHLEEN MILL of Hicksville, at the right, will provide HERALD readers with first hand reports on the Senior Girl Scout Roundup July 18 to 31 at Button Bay State Park, Vermont. Thirty-two girls from Mid Island Council will be among the 10,000 members from every part of the Nation and countries around the world at the roundup. These girls (Annette Dempsey and Louise Erickson of Wantagh and Kathleen Mill) are preparing Minnie Man Mulligan, a meat ball stew, during a pre-encampment training at Camp Edey, Bayport. The sauce base of the dish is condensed cream of celery soup. Pickle relish gives it tang. The BBB on the cooking ware stands for Button Bay Buddies. (Art Green Photo).

First Robbery Of Local Bank

It was not much of a bank robbery in terms of dollars as bank robberies go, but the note-passing handed at the South Broadway office of the Long Island National Bank of Hicksville on Friday, July 13, did set a local record. It was the first bank robbery in the history of Hicksville and there have been banks in the community since 1903.

"Place $2,500 in an envelope and pass it to me. Do not call anyone. My partner has a gun pointed at you" was what the note said and teller George Rubley did as directed.

The robber left by the front door at 550 South Broadway shortly after 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The teller then let out a yell. It was reported that witnesses saw the thief jump into a 1957 two-tone blue Mercury that headed south on Broadway.

Police said the thug was described as about 33, 5 foot 9 inches, 170 lbs., white with brown curly hair, wearing brown slacks and red check shirt. They said he had two partners in the car.

The regular monthly meeting of the Hicksville Public Library Board of Trustees scheduled for July 18th will be held July 26.

Girl Reporter At Button Bay

Katherine Mill, member of Senior Girl Scout Troop 19 of Hicksville, is at the Girl Scout Roundup at Button Bay, Vermont, and will provide readers of the MID ISLAND HERALD with weekly reports on this gathering of over 10,000 girls and adult leaders from all over the nation and foreign countries.

Miss Mill was born in Hicksville, attended Trinity Lutheran Elementary School and graduated with highest honors. She is now a Junior and honor student at the L.I. Lutheran High School in Brookville. She has been a member of the Girl Scouts for six years.

Other girls from Hicksville attending the Roundup are Lorraine Moynihan, Ann Ellen Schwartz and Irene Sakal.

Counter Petition in Works :

Appeals to Albany To Upset Prayer

A flood of mail this week continued to reach the Hicksville Board of Education, the vast majority of it complimentary, regarding the adoption of a stanza of the National Anthem as a prayer which may be used in Hicksville School. Meanwhile, a Hicksville resident sought to upset the adoption of a prayer by way of an appeal to the State Education Commissioner charging the seven-man School Board intended to disobey the mandate of the Supreme Court and the violate the Constitution.

Among letters from local individuals and organizations was one from the Joseph Barry Council, Knights of Columbus, and another citing a resolution adopted by the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce at a director's meeting on Friday, July 13.

Lawrence McCaffrey, Chamber president, signed the following letter to Jerome Zettler, president of the school Board:

"This is to register approval and appreciation for the manner in which your Board handled the Supreme Court banning of the New York State Regents prayer.

"Actually, the decision of the judges was narrow in its scope - they said, 'It is no part of the business of government to compose prayers for any group of the American people to recite as part of a religious program carried out by governments.'"

"The majority opinion certainly did not state all of the clear mandates claimed by the bigots and atheists. Certainly, the right of a majority to have a prayer said in school is just as much guaranteed as the right of the atheists not to participate.

"Your own Board's decision to adopt the reciting of the fourth stanza of the Star-Spangled Banner reaffirms our historical trust in God and reminds us that we must fight when the cause is just.

"Your calm appraisal and solution deserves the commendation of everyone in the community."

In the face of a notice of appeal to the Commissioner of Education by a Hicksville resident, protesting the action of the School Board in adopting a "prayer", a group has begun the formation of a local citizens' committee to support the School Board's decision.

It is understood a massive petition will be circulated to demonstrate community-wide support on the prayer issue.

Alfred Rubinstein of 129 8th St., Hicksville, who had argued somewhat heatedly with former Board President Robert D.P. Eaton, Trustee William A. Bruno Jr. and School Attorney Joseph Catalano at the Board meeting of June 29 when the prayer was adopted, served papers on District officials at the meeting on July 13.

One document is an appeal of Miriam Rubinstein from the action of the School Board in adopting a school prayer. The other is a petition of Miriam Rubinstein for the removal of Bruno as a member of

Attention All New Residents

New residents of Hicksville who have children who will be entering the Junior or Senior High School in September are urged to contact the School District Guidance office.

Counselors will be at the Junior High School Aug. 13-24 and at the Senior High Aug. 15-22 to program new pupils. By calling WE 5-9000 and making an appointment, parents will be seen promptly.

It is important that programs of study and a schedule of classes be prepared before the opening of school on Sept. 6.

Botcha Champion Issues Challenge

John DePaoli of E. Marie St., Hicksville, 86-year-old Botcha champion, challenges all comers at the Post House Botcha Courts, 39 Post Ave., Westbury, this Sunday, July 22 at 2:30 p.m.

Jack Botchi, proprietor of the Post House, invites all challengers and spectators to visit the Post House and refreshments and good food at reasonable prices.

Douglas D. Davies of 28 Balsam Dr., Hicksville, has been appointed assistant advertising manager of the Continental Baking Co. He was formerly associated with Compton Advertising Inc. for 20 years. Mr. and Mrs. Davies have three children: Barbara 13, Virginia 11, and Kenneth 8.

Scouts Hiking 160-Mile Route

Five members of Explorer Boy Scout Post 358 of Hicksville will step off at 4:00 tomorrow (Friday) morning, July 20, from the Nassau County Scout Headquarters in Roslyn to begin a 160-mile hike upstate to Camp Outdoors at Livingstone Manor. They will be accompanied by their advisor, Arthur Owens. Toting 30-lb packs including their food and shelter, they expect to reach their destination in 12 to 14 days.

The boys are Paul Chermanskas of 42 Texas St., Richard Garcia of 63 Nevada St., Dominick Guida of 21 Byron Pl., Michael Gregg of 7 California St., all Hicksville; and Michael Owen of 38 Yeoman Dr., East Northport.

During their trip the boys will be seeking to qualify for two National Scout awards; 50-mile hike and historic trails; as well as Hiking, Cooking and Camping merit badges.

Most of their trip will be along alternates of Route 17.

Teen Theatre On Stage

On August 9, at 8:15 p.m., the Hicksville High School Teen Theater will present "The Heels of Euripides" and "The Laff Revue". This performance will take place in the auditorium of the High School and admission will be 25 cents. All who wish to attend are welcome.

Hayes to Attend Friends University

William Ames Hayes, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Hayes, 12 Schiller St., Hicksville, has been admitted by Friends University in Wichita, Kansas.

A 1962 graduate of Hicksville High School, Hayes plans to enter Friends in September, according to Merle L. Bender, director of admissions at the university. While in high school, Hayes was active in music and drama productions. He plans to study biology at Friends and hopes to enter the medical profession after graduation from Friends.

Friends university is a Christian liberal arts college owned and operated by the Religious Society of Friends, commonly known as Quakers.

LEE GILBERT, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur N. Gilbert of 41 Brittle Lane, Hicksville, has been chosen to receive the Dutch Lane PTA Science Scholarship Award to the Biological Laboratory of the Long Island Biological Assoc., Cold Spring Harbor.

The L. I. Biological Assoc., founded in 1890 is one of the oldest organizations of its kind in the United States. Its research and publications are known to scientists throughout the world. The several buildings of the Biological Assoc. lie on the western edge of the Inner Harbor. There are unusual conditions there where sea life breeds. The sandbars of the harbor have been the site of cancer research and various other experiments for 70 years. Lee is following the tradition of his family. His sister, Shari, was the 1961 recipient of the Bausch and Lomb Science Award when she graduated from Hicksville High School.

Pfc. Victor J. Ferrara, USMC, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ferrara of 37 Myers Ave., Hicksville, is serving with the First Battalion of the Sixth Marine Regiment in the Caribbean.

Dear Jean:

Congratulations to MR. and MRS. DENNIS CALLAHAN, of 20 E. Marie St., Hicksville, who will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary Sun., July 22.....Longtime Hicksville residents the COSTELLO's of 59 McKinley Ave., Hicksville, are moving to Northport. They have been in Hicksville since 1925.....

The Lighting Co is getting a high speed magnetic tape electronic computer system, a complicated IBM 7074, which will be installed in a specially reconstructed section of LILOCO operations centre on Old Country Rd., Hicksville.....You know the new platform and temporary station for the RR at Hicksville looks better than the old one..... We would not have believed it if told, but we actually SAW a State Dept. of Public Works tractor CUTTING THE GRASS at the Traffic Circle where John St and Broadway come together.....Now if they would only do it regularly and go all the way up Broadway toward Jericho we would be happier.....We get a real charge out of non-residents who pose as experts on local conditions and then hide behind a typewriter.....Just goes to show how to get a scoop; Reporter for Newsday was at the school board meeting last Friday night and left when it appeared the agenda offered little in the way of big news. Minutes after the scribe left, AL RUBENSTEIN walked in and served the President and District Clerk with the notice of appeal to the Commissioner regarding the school prayer. LI Press reporter GENE TURNER then came in for a cup of coffee and got the story, scooping NEWSDAY. Coffee is provided at Board meetings with funds donated by individual Board members and administrators. Sometimes when there is a crowd in the audience the coffee disappears before the fund donors get a crack at the urn. We think there should be a kiddy maintained right next to the cream and sugar.....

The Nassau County Democratic Committee will have formal opening of its new headquarters at 240 Mineola Blvd., Mineola, on Tuesday, July 24 from 5 to 8 PM. We got an invite.....Miss PAT TREIBER of 3821 Hahn Ave., Bethpage, won a 1962 Chrysler Newport sedan and a bonus of 30,000 trading stamps in Food Fair's 42nd anniversary contest.....WALTER TAYLOR of Tennessee was a visiting Rotarian at the Hicksville flag presented by MOE SCHNEIER, Fellowship Chairman.....Don't quote us but there is a current report that sponsors of that swimming pool attached to the High School are seeking to revive interest in a new vote on the question at an early date.....

We have a post card from CLARICE and HERB JOHNSON of Meyers Ave. enjoying a peaceful, relaxed week at New Hampshire.....School Attorney JOSEPH CATALANO was in Albany, Tuesday, representing the school district in the matter of an appeal taken by a parent seeking district payment of tuition to a private school.....Gov. ROCKEFELLER covered a lot of ground during his three days on Long Island but made no stops in Hicksville. He probably did go thru on the LIRR around 1 o'clock today (Thursday) enroute from Brookhaven to Mineola..... It is being reported that a slate of three candidates is being organized to run in the Hicksville School Board elections NEXT MAY. Nothing like an early start.....Sounds like the contest for a vacancy on the Board of Fire Commissioners next December has narrowed down to a race between CHARLES SAURER and CONO BRIGANDI. The incumbent, HARRY GLECKLER, it is reported will not seek re-election.....

HOLDEN'S is moving across Broadway and up a block nearer the RR.....Get well wishes to DENISE YATRAS of Twinlawn Ave. We're sure her playmates and school chums would love to send her a card now while she recovers from a broken leg..... Apologies to Mrs. Vincent Braun, vice president of Glen Cove-Hicksville Mercy League, and Mrs. Mary Bean whose names were left out of the picture caption in last week's issue. Proof reader must have been vacationing.....Received an air-mailed post card from a very dear friend of ours, GERTRUDE WETTERAUER of Herman St., who is making a trip around the world. The card was postmarked Japan.....We were indeed sorry to hear of the death this week of a good friend, EDWARD KARRAN of Grove St. We've known his son, WOODIE, of Seymour Lane, since those dear old days when we gossiped "Over the Back Fence". Our deepest sympathy to the entire KARRAN family.....

BILL BRUNO brought his boat around from Babylon to Glen Cove, Wednesday, and it took six hours with plenty of cold and fog while passing New York City.....The youngsters all enjoyed the preview opening of Jack's Courtroom and Delicatessen at Mid Island Plaza, next to First National, Wednesday night. He stood treat for soda and sandwiches for a goodly crowd.....

Library Corner

Few people are aware of the extent and variety of business material and information available to them in their public library. The Hicksville Public Library, for instance, has a large circulating collection of books on all aspects of business, including accounting, budgeting, personnel management, marketing and so forth. There are also numerous works on various types of business, from discussions of giant enterprises, such as banking, insurance and public utilities, to material on how to establish and operate a small retail business. These are designed to answer the questions of business men, students, employees, investors and even consumers.

The library has, in addition to the above collection, a large number of directories, including Thomas' Register of American Manufacturers, Poor's Register of Directors and regional directories for New England, New Jersey, New York City and State and Long Island. We also have telephone directories for all cities in the U.S. with a population of 300,000 or more. These will be found in the reference section.

The reference department also has marketing and statistical information, including the Economic Almanac, Editor and Publisher's Market Guide, the Federal Reserve Bulletin, the Rand McNally Commercial Atlas, the Census of Business and the Census of Manufactures and other publications of the U.S. Census Bureau, to name but a few.

For those interested in securities and investment information, the library has the Moody's Manuals and also subscribes to various financial periodicals including the Wall Street Journal, Forbes, Barron's, Business Week, Nation's Business and the Harvard Business Review.

Prentice Hall's Federal Tax Guide and New York Taxes are examples of reference aids available to accountants and businessmen for the solution of tax problems. These are supplemented by various publications of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and the New York Department of Commerce.

The library's pamphlet file also contains useful material on the above subjects, most of which is available for home use.

If you haven't already used the business collection of the library, come in and familiarize yourself with it, and discover how it can be of use to you.

Herald Editorial Comment:

Vast Majority Supports School Board on Prayer

Few issues have so stirred people locally as well as across the Nation as the recent Supreme Court decision regarding the New York State Regents prayer. The supplemental action of the Hicksville School Board in adopting a stanza of the National Anthem as a prayer which may be used in the public schools, here, has brought forth a deluge of messages from north, south, east and west. The Board's action was unanimous with no dissent voiced by any trustee.

While tens of thousands of words have already been written and published on the subject, there probably will be millions more in the months and years ahead.

A natural outcome of the School Board's action was the anticipated filing of an appeal with the State Commissioner of Education. Now the taking of an appeal to Albany is a relatively simple matter involving the expenditure of four cents for a stamp and the compliance with certain technical rules of the Education Dept as to dates, etc.

We shall probably never see a return to those appeal-happy days back around 1955 when there were as many as four appeals pending before the Commissioner involving the Hicksville Schools, but the taking of an appeal is a far cry from actually winning the appeal. If the appeals are in order, the Commissioner will probably set a date for oral argument at Albany, then allow time for the filing of briefs prior to rendering a verdict. All this takes time and money. Someone wondered aloud the other day how much of the taxpayers' money was spent up to the date of the Supreme Court decision, tracing it back to the initial action in state courts.

There are probably as many interpretations of the Supreme Court ruling as there are individuals expressing opinions, both pro and con. We suspect that few have actually read the full decisions, both majority and minority. But then there is a little bit of lawyer in most all of us.

Something less than one per cent of the vast amount of comment reaching the School Board regarding its action is in opposition. Plans to circulate a petition in support of the School Board decision should give all citizens an opportunity to voice their opinion on a massive scale.

Hicksville Had Only 900 Population 23 Years After End Of Civil War

By Frank Marrs

Hicksville is a pretty little village of about 900 people, principally German, and is situated at the junction of the Main Line and the Port Jefferson branch of the Long Island Rail Road, 25 miles from Brooklyn. The village is 126 feet above sea level, free from malaria and mosquitoes and there is always a breeze blowing here. Always healthy, it presents to those wishing a quiet retreat in which to spend the summer numerous attractions, and the many New York and Brooklyn people that spend their summers here shows that the village is very popular among the German class as a summer home.

There are several hotels and a score of farm houses scattered through the village, whose rates are reasonable, and where is served pure milk, fresh eggs, butter and vegetables, for which Long Island is noted. Hicksville is situated in one of the finest farming sections on the island, and the well-kept farms and pretty farm houses show that the farmers are an industrious class. The principal crops are rye, corn, potatoes, cabbage and cucumbers. Nearly all the produce raised in this vicinity is carted to Brooklyn with teams, the farmers leaving in the night so as to be at the markets early in the morning.

Hicksville was named in honor of Elias Hicks, the founder of the Hicksville branch of the Society of Friends. About 1837 Elias Hicks and others bought up a large tract of land in the vicinity and after laying it out into streets and building lots disposed of a large number.

(Editor's Note - This statement is not historically correct. Elias Hicks did live in Jericho but died in 1830. The Hicksville Land Assoc. was formed by his son in law, Valentine Hicks, who was first vice president of the Long Island Rail Road. Historians now assert that Hicksville was named for Valentine Hicks, not Elias.

A Mr. Jackson built the Grand Central Hotel in that year (1837) and leased it to George Powell who was the genial host and in connection with the hotel ran two stage lanes, one to Brooklyn and one to Huntington.

By 1842 the Long Island Rail Road had erected a two story and basement depot and freight house combined at Hicksville. Hicksville began to put on the appearance of a village with 15 houses raised in 1842.

The first station agent in Hicksville was David Seaman. Stage lines were run from Hicksville to Oyster Bay, Cold Spring and Huntington. In 1852 horse cars were run to Syosset by a Mr Van Sise. In 1864 the first fire of any importance occurred. The depot burned down.

Henry Gold was the station agent and on the evening of the Fourth of July he closed up the office and went to a party at Syosset. About 1 o'clock the depot was in flames. The fire was supposed to have been caused by the explosion of a lamp which was left burning. The depot stood further west than the present one.

In 1849 Frederick Heyne bought about 1,000 acres of land in the vicinity of Hicksville, and then the village had its first real estate boom. Lots were disposed of without any trouble and now hundreds of lots lie in the village with owners unknown. They were sold, but to whom is a mystery, but every once in a while parties come to the village looking up property bought years ago.

After the Heyne land boom a large number of houses were erected, ground was broken, trees set out and other improvements made and there seemed to be a bright future for the village.

Mr J. F. Heltz, deceased, one of the old settlers, was very fond of trees, shrubs and flowers of all kinds and so him the village owes its well shaded avenues and streets.

The first store was run by William Brothers and Co. The brothers' names were William and Philip. They were not very suc-

THE CORNER of Broadway and West Marie St., Hicksville, where Bahrenburg's Bakery now stands looked like this 75 years ago at about the time Frank Marrs was writing the accompanying article. This was the Freight Building in 1884. It later became Huetner's Dept Store and was eventually levelled by fire in the 1930's.

A Word About Our Heritage

A ten-year resident of Hicksville remarked the other day that he likes it here, that our town reminds him of the Pennsylvania community where he was a boy, but that he feels it apparently has no local legend or heritage. Actually, Hicksville has a rich and colorful background which can be traced 314 years into the past to Robert Williams and his historic land purchase. However, the real history of the community dates back to 1837 and the building of the LI Rail Road from Jamaica out to Hicksville.

A century and a quarter of history as a community, a place of houses, stores, hotels, churches with streets and avenues is a substantial period even for historic Long Island. Many big population centers surrounding Hicksville were only open farm lands less than 15 years ago.

While a great deal of material has been left behind by those who lived and worked in Hicksville during that century and a quarter, providing a glimpse of life and people, such data is difficult to locate and is not collected in one place.

The HERALD feels that many of the present day residents of Hicksville and vicinity would be interested in some of our background and with this in mind plans the publication of a running series of special articles.

To set the mood and tempo, the first offering is from the writings of Frank Marrs more than three score and ten years ago. Mr. Marrs was the correspondent for a number of newspapers including the Long Islander in Huntington and the Brooklyn Times. He was well known and active in the community. He served as District Clerk of the school district before and long after it became a Union Free District 65 years ago.

"Hicksville's Attractions" was the headline of a lengthy article Mr. Marrs wrote for the Times in 1888.

cessful and sold out their business to Jacob Christ. The first blacksmith was Jacob Christ, who still works at his trade. His son-in-law, David Christ, was one of the first wheelwrights, he having been working at his trade many years. (To be continued)

President's Corner

by Herb Platt

I received a letter this week from a member of our Civic Assoc. who commented on the obstacle sidewalk travel presented by the lower branches of our curb trees.

The Civic Assoc. was instrumental in the purchase and planting of these trees, and the entire community has enjoyed watching them flourish and enhance the appearance of our streets.

While it is a pleasure to drive down our tree-lined streets, it does become hazardous to walk down the sidewalks of these same streets. The lower branches of these trees are, in some cases, so low that pedestrians cannot pass underneath them, and are forced to stoop, or detour via the roadway.

The cure for this situation is simplicity itself: prune the lower branches! Not only will this remove the hazard, but, as we have been informed by nurserymen, it is actually beneficial to the tree in that it encourages growth of the upper branches, and tends to increase the height of the tree. As our correspondent says, "Please don't wait until someone has his eye poked out!"

I must with regret a short article in last week's issue of THE WEST BIRCHWOOD NEWS reporting an accident involving a motorist and a boy on a bicycle. Fortunately, the injury to the cyclist was limited to a broken leg. This incident illustrates the danger to which our children are constantly exposed, and to which this column is devoted only last week. I sincerely hope that all our residents will take heed!

"The quickest way now-a-days to get a doctor is to turn on your TV set."

Hi, Neighbors

MURIEL SUGARMAN

There isn't too much news around Birchwood these days. If you know anything of interest, please phone OV 1-5911 and let me know.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY to Joe Mattes of Merry Lane, and Dorene Cohen of Hedgerow. Glad that Morris Hirsch of Middle Lane is feeling better.

Are you going to the Hadassah Champagne Dinner Dance on Saturday night, Aug. 4th? For only $15.75 per couple they are having a cocktail party, with all the champagne you can drink, plus a delicious dinner including liquor. The cocktail party will take place under the stars, and then the dinner and dining will be held inside in the beautiful Cinderella Room of the Thatched Cottage in Centerport. It's really a bargain and reservations are limited, so call early for your tickets. Call me at OV 1-5911, or Harriet Liebowitz at WE 1-5351.

The Jericho Players of the Birchwood Civic Assoc. will provide an evening of entertainment for any charitable or civic organization that may desire to use their services during the coming season.

The entertainment will be in the form of a one-act play, a reading, or scenes from best known plays. The Jericho Players will not charge for their services. All organization presidents or program chairmen are invited to call either Jerry Neuhaus, OV 1-3623 or Mimi Gruber, WE 8-8048 for further information. Open dates are limited so please make contact early.

A fun filled evening of food and frolic is in store for you at the SUMMER BAR-B-Q, Saturday, July 21 9 P.M. at the residence of Herb and Anita Platt 29 Craig St. Jericho. There will be food, dancing and set-ups. Best of all, informal attire, with all the fixings to make an old fashioned BAR-B-Q a whopping success.

For tickets call RHODA GOLDMAN at WE 8-9674 or ANITA PLATT at OV 1-0591.

"A Night at Roosevelt Raceway" is being sponsored by the Westbury-Jericho Council of Waldemar Cancer Research on Friday Aug. 24. Admission is $25 per couple which includes dinner, tips and entrance fees to the Cloud Casino. For reservations contact: Lila Blum OV 1-7769.

An authentic Hawaiian Luau, catered by Koral and Island, will be held in the gardens of the Cherry-Tannenbaum homes in Westbury on Sunday evening, Aug. 5. Besides the palm trees, torches, leis and orchids; there will be Hawaiian entertainers and a live band.

This Luau is being sponsored by the Westbury-Jericho Council of Waldemar Cancer Research. All proceeds will benefit the Research Foundation.

Sisterhood Plans Theatre Benefit

The Sisterhood of Temple Or-Elohim invites you to see Felicia Sanders in "THE THREE PENNY OPERA" with Gene Ruppert and Nancy Andrews, on Sunday, Aug. 5. This wonderful musical ran for six years in New York City, and now you can enjoy it here on Long Island, presented "in-the-round". During intermission, you will have the opportunity to meet the cast, as they serve you refreshments.

This is being shown at the Red Barn Theatre, on Route 25A, Northport. Curtain time is 8:40, and admission is only $3. Don't miss out on this enjoyable, but inexpensive evening. Tickets must be purchased before July 25. For further information, call Edythe Richter - OV 1-7596.

WANTED WANTED

WRITERS FOR THE VILLAGER

(No talent required)

The Editorial Board of THE VILLAGER has grown anemic of ideas, subjects, etc. They need a transfusion of NEW BLOOD! (To be compatible, it must be devoid of talent!)

All would-be donors please contact the Editor, Horace Bernstein, at OV 1-2718!

Jericho UJA Raises $3,800

The first independent Jericho U.J.A. campaign proved to be a tremendous success. More than $3,800.00 was donated by the residents of Jericho, with more money still coming in.

Aiding the U.J.A. drive was, Congressman Steven Derouman, Supervisor of the Town of Oyster Bay John J. Burns and Councilman Carl Grunewald, Rabbi Stanley Steinhart of the Jericho Jewish Center and Rabbi Earl Jordan of Temple Or Elohim, spearheaded the drive in Jericho.

At the buffet dance held on July 1st., Chairman Ralph Diamond, emphasized the tremendous support and cooperation of the various Jericho organizations. Participating organizations were Jerich Jewish Center, this year's host, Temple Or Elohim, Pioneer Women, Hadassah, and handling the cocktail hour, Jericho B'nai B'rith.

The U.J.A. affair was highlighted by the beautiful singing of the Jericho United Jewish Choral Group, representing the various Jericho organizations. The Choral Group consisted of Ruth Burns, Blanche Karpel, Molly Sobel, Joan Metzger, Grace Herskowitz, Harold Kiviat, Dave Mark, Al Forman and Lou Cohen. Cantor Israel Goldstein of Jericho Jewish Center performed magnificently with the Choral Group backing.

Many donations were made by the residents of Jericho to the U.J.A. campaign. However, the most heartwarming was a $250.00 donation made by the children attending the Hebrew School of Temple Or Elohim. The generosity of the Jericho residents in its first U.J.A. campaign certainly is an indication that Jericho in future years will play its part in helping the important work being performed daily by the United Jewish Appeal.

Softball League

In the most exciting game of the day, the White Birch Rockets defeated the Knights of Pythias 6-5. Bob Miller completed a double play by cutting down the tying run at the plate in the last inning.

The West Birchwood Robbins clinched the National League title by defeating the B'nai B'rith Bear 9-4. With the Bombers clinching first place in the American League last week, both leagues now have second place to fight over.

Behind the excellent pitching of Herb Simmons, the West Birchwood Tigers defeated the Princeton Park team 10-3.

B'nai B'rith Bombers, American League Champs continued their winning way by defeating the Westbury Darts 13-2.

Civics Studying Downzoning Plan

by Horace Bernstein

The Oyster Bay Town Board has announced a plan to improve its Comprehensive zoning plan and to guarantee a more stable economy for Central School District No. 2 (Syosset-Locust Grove).

A public hearing will be held on Tuesday, July 31, at 10 A.M. at Town Hall to consider revisions of the existing zoning on 325 acres of land known as the Woodbury Farm, the Froehlich Farms and several adjacent parcels.

The major features of the plan under consideration is to provide a possible additional school site and create an outstanding major park and recreational area and balance the residential land use by:

1. Acquire by gift or purchase 46 acres of wooded land valued at $5,000 an acre easily accessible to Syosset, Woodbury, and Locust Grove (Ed Note: Us), bounded on the North by Jericho Tpk.
2. Create a 137 acre industrial park fronting the Wantagh-Oyster Bay Expressway on the West.
3. Acquire by gift or purchase a 10 acre school site on Woodbury Rd.
4. Create an 80 acre industrial park in the south side of Woodbury Rd bordered by the L.I. Expressway and on the east 33 acres owned by the Diocese of Rockville Centre for a school and Church.
5. Reduce the number of homes that could be built under existing zoning.

Land fronting on Jericho Tpk within the proposed 46 acre park site is being set aside for a new Nassau County Police Precinct headquarters.

The plan on the surface would bring more industry into Syosset District, put more homes in the area, and provide the people with a park and swimming pool. Residents living in the Syosset section of Birchwood would be eligible for this park and pool.

Your Education Committee as well as a special Committee of the Civic Association will look into the details, and make recommendations to the Board before the July 31st meeting so that the Civic Association will know what stand to take, to either approve the plan or fight it if the Committee feels that the plan will serve no purpose and add to our taxes.

Postal Warning On Propaganda

Unsolicited communist propaganda from the Soviet Union, from Soviet satellites, from Cuba and from other places outside the United States is being sent to persons in this country, according to acting Postmaster Irene L. Murphy. This propaganda attempts to promote the objectives of the international Communist Movement. It often appears, on the surface, to be innocent and unimportant. But, the communists regard propaganda as an important and necessary means for subversion of our nation and the free world, in order to achieve the maximum impact, this propaganda often comes to unsuspecting addressees who are not associated with or in sympathy with, communist objectives.

This propaganda is not labeled to reveal its origin or content and is not always easy to identify. If you have unsolicited mail from abroad, it may contain such propaganda. If you wish, you may mark it "refused" and return it to your local post office.

The privacy of your mail continues to be respected by your Government and by the Postal Service.

Seek Higher Grade

The Long Island State Parkway Police Benevolent Association has written to Chief Nicholas T. Landers, asking his support in the PBA appeal to state officials for reclassification to a higher grade.

PBA President Barney Aversano of Hicksville said the parkway police are now classified Grade R-12, with a starting salary of $5,020. After six years the top pay is $6,150. Reclassification to Grade R-14 would mean a starting salary of $5,620 and a top salary of $6,850 after six years.

Fabacords Give Open Air Concert

One hundred and twenty five guests attended an open air concert by "The Fabacords", a 25 piece all accordion orchestra conducted by F. Arden Burt of the F. Arden Burt School of Music, Hicksville.

The concert was held on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. James Carter of Bethpage, whose son James is a member of the Fabacords.

The program opened with the Star Spangled Banner and included Pagliacci by Leon Cavello, Beethoven's 5th Symphony, marches, band selections, Dixieland, and popular arrangements. Schubert's Symphony 2nd movement was the concluding number. All arrangements were by Mr. Burt.

The Fabacords range in age from 12 to 17 years of age and have won many championships and awards. They perform without charge for any worthwhile cause including Churches, Temples, Civic, Fraternal, County or local park concerts.

For further particulars write to James G. Carter, 27 Barnum Ave., Bethpage.

OBITUARY

ROGER WOLFE KAHN

Roger Wolfe Kahn, of Syosset, one of the nation's best known aviation executives, died on July 12, at Presbyterian Hospital N.Y.C. after a brief illness. He was 54.

He learned to fly in 1927, making his initial flights out of Roosevelt Field, Mineola. At that time, he was associated with many aviation greats such as Charles A. Lindbergh, Bert Acosta, Jimmy Doolittle, and Al Williams. He was an active pilot until the time of his death, having logged 7000 hours, and held Commercial Pilot's License #104.

Kahn did considerable test and research flying during 1930 to 1940, including the tests and official demonstration of the Cabot Air Mail Pick-up Device, and the Burnell entry in the Guggenheim safe-plane competition. In addition, he has served as the Chief Timer for all major air meets and air races since the early 1930's.

In 1941, he joined the Grumman Aircraft Engineering Corp. at Bethpage test pilot and to organize and manage a Service Department. He tested the Grumman Wildcat and the Hellcat, two of the most famous fighter planes of World War II, and was currently Director of Service and Product Support.

Chapel Choir Here Sunday

On Sunday morning, July 22, the Chapel Choir of Valparaiso University, Indiana will present Music of the Liturgy at Trinity Lutheran Church, W. Nicholas St., Hicksville, at the 8:30, 9:45, and 11:15 services.

While the specific purpose of the Choir is to sing at the services for the daily chapel and occasional services held at the University, the Choir has during its 12 year history presented programs in other cities. Following their performance at Trinity Lutheran Church, Hicksville, the Choir will leave for a European tour.

The Choir members are drawn from every area of University life among the student body and the prime requisite for membership is a degree of musicianship which enables the group to learn the music rapidly and well.

The characteristic feature of the choir is that great emphasis is placed on the devotional and worship aspect of music rather than a mere artistic rendition of the music. The desire of the Choir and its choirmaster is to present the music of the Liturgy as worship whether it be in concert hall or church. Repertoire covered by the choir has run the gamut from Gregorian Chant to the boldest of contemporary composers.

Grumman will build new Space & Missile Engineering Center

Company President Clint Towl has announced that Grumman plans to build an ultra-modern $5 million Space & Missile Engineering Center. The Space & Missile Engineering Center is currently in the design stage in the Plant Engineering department. Meanwhile ground has already been broken for the first wing of a new Research Center.

"The intent of these two buildings is to consolidate our existing and planned activities in the field of aerospace systems. In addition, the new Space & Missile Engineering Center will facilitate the future expansion of aerospace activities by providing accommodations for a larger scientific, engineering, and support staff," President Towl stated. He added that the new Space & Missile facility and the Research Center "will greatly improve our capabilities. This is our second step in a long-range program designed to make us more competitive in the aerospace and missile business."

As a first step in the long-range expansion program, Grumman recently completed work on new Space testing and manufacturing facilities in Plant 5, and fully staffed the Electronic Systems Center. Included in the new Space facilities are a huge Space Environmental Chamber, the largest privately owned centrifuge on the East Coast, a sine-random structural shaker, and Clean Room assembly and testing facilities.

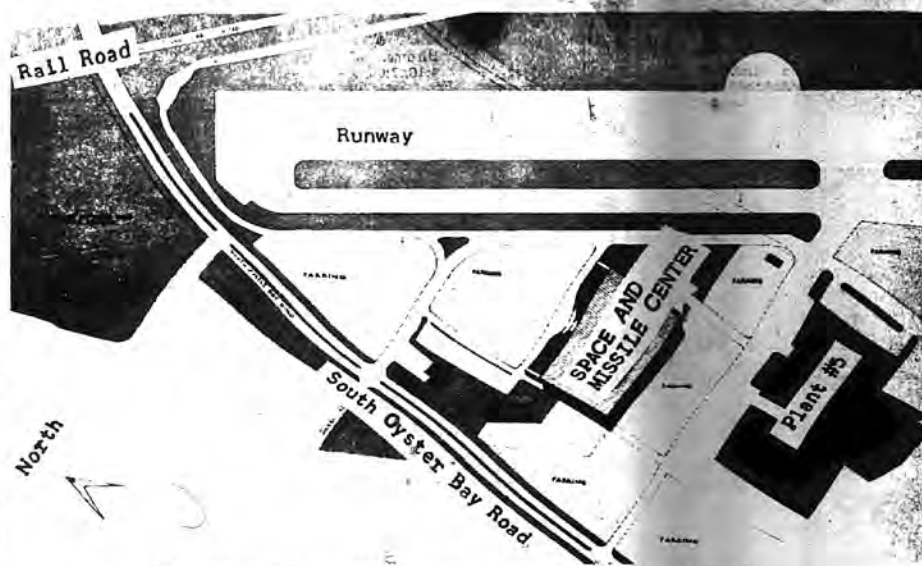

These facilities are currently contributing to Grumman's Space programs, including the Orbiting Astronomical Observatory and the Echo II canister.

Target date for completion of the new Space & Missile Center is late spring or early summer of 1963. Joseph G. Gavin, Jr., Chief Space & Missile Engineer, has been assigned the task of consolidating the current and planned Grumman activities in Space and missiles, and of establishing a separate organizational entity. The move to centralize these efforts in the new building highlights the increased emphasis assigned by Grumman to these areas of interest.

Gavin has been associated with Grumman since 1946. He participated in the design of the XF9F-2 and the S2F-1 and served as Project Engineer on the F9F-6 and the F11F-1. He became

Joseph G. Gavin, Jr.

New Space & Missile Engineering Center will be adjacent to Plant 5, Bethpage.

Chief Experimental Project Engineer in 1955, and was assigned to the position of Chief Missile Engineer in 1957.

As Chief Space & Missile Engineer, Gavin directed the engineering administration of a varied group of Space and missile studies as well as such contracts as Eagle, Echo II, and the Orbiting Astronomical Observatory.

Gavin is an honor graduate of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, where he received his Master's degree in Aeronautical Engineering in 1942. He studied under, and was associated with, Dr. C. S. Draper.

As an officer in the Naval Reserve, Gavin was once assigned to the Engineering Division of the Bureau of Aeronautics, where he was engaged in the administrative and engineering efforts associated with fighter aircraft, particularly with early jet designs, from 1942 to 1946.

Site near Plant 5

The $5 million, three-story Space & Missile Center will occupy the area between Plant 5 and the Hazel Street entrance road, directly north of and adjacent to, Plant 5, in Bethpage.

Plans call for a structure of 210,000 sq. ft. of contemporary design, with steel frame and deck flooring and precast concrete panels. The three floors of the Space & Missile Engineering Center are laid out on a modular plan, with provision for individual offices to surround a central engineering core on each level. Cellular floor construction can accommodate all necessary electrical and air conditioning lines and wiring.

The Austin Company, engineering and building firm of Cleveland, O., is working with the Grumman Plant Engineering department, headed by William E. McKay.

Plans are being formulated for moving the Plant 15 engineers and their clerical staffs back to the Space and Engineering complex, with Accounting and Purchasing departments scheduled to move into the vacated space in Plant 15. Marine Engineering will also be relocated, possibly in Plant 5.

Research Center

Design of a $1 million wing of the new Research Center has already been completed and ground has been broken for it. Two other wings, however, are being planned for future expansion.

The wing under construction will house the company's Physics Laboratories—general, nuclear, solid state, and molecular—and will provide a total of 14,000 sq. ft. of usable floor space. Among the new equipment to be installed in the wing is a 3-million volt positive ion and electron Van de Graaff

Accelerator to be used for the investigation of radiation effects on Space materials and vehicles; and a 40-ton steady state electro-magnet—one of the largest in the industry—which will be used in magnetohydrodynamic studies relating to improving power generation for Space vehicles. The magnet has a field strength of 20,000 Gauss, the maximum for this size tool, and has an extremely large test section. A newly enlarged jet, capable of generating supersonic mach numbers up to Mach

4, in temperatures ranging beyond 30,000 degrees F., will be transferred from Plant 2.

Target date for completion of this wing is December of 1962. The wing, however, is only one portion of a Research Center which will ultimately provide a total of 54,000 square feet of usable floor space for the consolidation of existing and planned research activities at Grumman.

The Research Center will be located east of the Electronic Systems Center between South Oyster Bay Road and Stewart Avenue, Bethpage. Richard A. Scheuing of Research is coordinating building plans with Plant Engineering.

The contractor is Franz T. Schick, Inc., of East Northport.

The new Research Center will come under the jurisdiction of Dr. Charles E. Mack, Jr., Grumman Director of Research. Dr. Mack has been Chief of Grumman Research since 1948. From 1942 to 1948 he was a research engineer.

Dr. Mack took his Bachelor of Science degree in mathematics from Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1934, his Master's degree in engineering from Stevens Institute of Technology in 1944, and his doctorate in Aeronautical Engineering from New York University in 1948.

New Showcase

"Bird Man of Alcatraz," starring Burt Lancaster, opened as the "Premiere Showcase" attraction on Wednesday, July 18, at the Plainview Theatre. The "Premiere Showcase" system brings first-run motion pictures to the people of Hicksville and Plainview at the same time that they play on Broadway.

A Harold Hecht presentation, "Bird Man of Alcatraz" stars Lancaster as Robert Stroud, 72-year-old convict, who spent 53 years in prison, of which 43 years were in solitary, when he became a world-famous authority on the diseases of birds. Stuart Miller and Guy Trosper produced "Bird Man of Alcatraz." Trosper wrote the screenplay based on the book by Thomas E. Gaddis. Karl Malden portrays a Federal Prison official, Thelma Ritter plays Stroud's mother and Neville Brand is a prison guard. Edmond O'Brien portrays Gaddis. Betty Field and Telly Savalas are also starred, the former as a bird lover, whom Stroud married while he was in prison, and the latter as a prisoner.

Perkins Triumphs Over Bankers

In a cliff hanging finale of a three game playoff for the championship of the Hicksville International Little League, Perkins Trucking defeated the L.I. Nat'l Bank team by a score of 3 to 2.

The two previous games had been split between the teams, the Bankers winning 11 to 6 and Perkins winning 14 to 6. In the third game, both teams started pitchers who had not been used too often during the season, but Casertano for Perkins and Egan for the Bank turned in sterling performances. For five innings, Casertano pitched 1 hit ball and gave up 1 run. Egan gave up 3 hits and 2 runs in the first five innings. In the 6th inning, Kenny Schimek replaced Bobby Casertano for Perkins on the mound. The Bankers scored a run in the top of the 6th to tie the game on Youngmans single, a sacrifice and Egan's double to left. Schimek bore down to retire the side without further damage. In the bottom of the 6th with two out and one on, Egan walked Tommy Reiter hanging on every pitch. Steve Van Routsen promptly belted the first pitch into right field for a double to drive in Reiter with a winning run. Both teams played outstanding team play and there were heroes on both sides. To single out any one individual as outstanding for either team cannot be done, as this was probably the best team effort by both Perkins and the Bank during the entire season. This was truly a tough game for either team to lose.

Congratulations should go to both teams and their managerial and coaching staff. Perkins is managed by George Jackson with Jack Sharp and Hank Reiter as coaches. George Nathan is the manager of the Bank team with Adam Skowronski and Mr. Ulrich serving as coaches.

MAJOR DIVISION ALL STAR TEAM NAMED: Players are: Dave Skowronski, Marty Youngmans, Jim Egan, Bob Ulrich, Ronnie Casertano, Bob Casertano, Thomas Callari, John Kirach, Bob Musick, Doug Fullerton, Dennis McLoughlin, Bill Link, Bob Farrington, John Harburger. Two alternates named are: Ralph Asaph, and Bill Murphy.

A reminder, first game will take place July 21 at Westbury Field, 10:00 a.m. sharp. FIELD IS OFF POST AVE., SOUTH OF NORTHERN STATE PKWY NEAR THE JR. HIGH SCHOOL. ALL FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS ARE WELCOMED. COME AND CHEER OUR TEAM TO VICTORY.

It seems a letter, postmarked in Nassau County, arrived at Hempstead General Hospital—simply addressed as: "Hempstead General Hospital." (No name.) The nurse in charge glanced at it and promptly forwarded the letter to "The Big Wheel." Needless to say, the letter was intended for Joseph Beltrami. Joseph is holding his own. His parents, and family wish to thank his many friends who have forwarded him well-wishing cards.

John M. O'Hanley Jr., airman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. O'Hanley Sr., of 1 Savoy Pl., Hicksville, is to be graduated this month from Parachute Rigger School at the Naval Air Technical Training Unit, Lakehurst, N.J.

OVER 400 PERSONS attended the annual picnic of the Hicksville Regular Democratic Club at Salisbury Park Sunday, July 15. There was baseball for both the adults and the kids, games for the kids, and food for everyone. All of the local candidates in the November election were present. This photo made at the baseball diamond shows George Soil of Roslyn, center at bat. He is running for Congress on the Democratic ticket. On the left is Vincent P. Hilly of Hicksville, candidate for Councilman, while on the right, in the pitchers mound is County Executive Eugene H. Nickerson.

Operation VFW Scouts Of Troop 421 At Camp Wauwepex

William M. Gause Jr., Post No. 3211 By Eddie Klabing

POST NOTES: Vacationists and humid weather kept things pretty much to a minimum at the last meeting. This resulted in what could have been one of the shortest meetings on record. Business on hand included the picnic committee report as showing progress. Remember, July 23 is the night of the Award. All books must be in by then. At the same time advise the picnic committee as to how many of you and your friends plan to attend. The list grows but time grows short. Don't be left out.

IN THE NEWS: The state convention of the V.F.W. elected J. Mallory Loos of Rochester to the post of State commander of Veterans of Foreign Wars. This Post wishes him good luck and success in the coming term. Taking the spotlight in news soon will be the World War I veterans. They are forcing Congress to take up the pension bill that would provide pension of more than $100 to all such veterans within certain income categories. The cost for the first year would be $1,000,000,000.

G.I. INSURANCE: If you read the July 15 issue of the V.F.W. magazine, you are aware of the Veterans Administration's concern over Veterans converting their G.I. term insurance to ordinary insurance. One of the reasons is the fact that most of the World War II veterans are close to the age of 40 or over. This is the age when term insurance costs begin to rise. A Veteran who is now forty and has a $10,000 policy pays $100.60 on his term policy. If he converts to ordinary life the annual premium is $251. The annual premium term insurance rises each five years so that the age of 65 it will be $470 as compared to $251 for ordinary life. A G.I. ordinary life policy's annual premium depends on the age at the time of conversion but stays the same each year. Keep in mind, term insurance is still considered a temporary measure and must be extended from time to time by Congress to continue in force. Incidentally, things appear favorable for the passage of a law which will permit millions of World War II and Korean War veterans to re-instate their G.I. policies they had allowed to lapse.

Nineteen Boy Scouts of Troop 421 of Hicksville, with the supervision of Scout Master Ken Marvin and Ass't. Scout Master Teddy Urban spent two weeks at Manhasset Campsite, Camp Wauwepex, Wading River, July 14th. The scouts were kept busy passing tests and having fun. The boys were initiated to OK Campers, retreat, taking swimming tests, white, red or blue tag and physical fitness. The physical fitness program was started by Teddy Urban, Ass't. Scout Master and Neighborhood Commissioner.

The Campsite was held June 2nd and 3rd, at Sagamore Hill. Troop 421 scouts came in 2nd place in the competition, competing in boy scout activities.

APPEALS TO ALBANY

the School Board.

Bruno was not at the meeting. The document was served upon him at his home, 53 Hunter Lane, Saturday.

The petition to oust Bruno con- tends that he "publicly declared he would not obey the mandate of the highest court in the land, and publicly advocated disobedience by others to such mandate."

It is also charged what while he took an oath of office, starting his three-year term on July 3, it "was taken with a mental res- ervation."

The appeal to Commissioner James Allen protesting the pray- er adopted states in part "the prayer chosen by the Board of Education, and consisting of a stanza of the National Anthem, has been promulgated by the Congress of the United States. Instead of the New York State Board of Re- gents does not render such pray- er any less objectionable to pe- titioner's conscience, and if it were possible, would render the prayer most objectionable, as being literally within the pro- scription of Article I of the Amend- ments to the Constitution of the United States: 'Congress shall make no law respecting an estab- lishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof * * *'.

Dr. Charles Brind, counsel to the State Education Dept., was quoted in the daily press on July 1 regarding the Hicksville Board's action: "I don't see any problem because you are dealing with one of the great American documents and not with a prayer written by State officials.

Catalano will recommend to the School Board regarding their future action on the appeals filed. Normally there is a stipulated period of time within which an answer must be filed.

INSIDE GROUND STATION "RADOME" AT ANDOVER, MAINE. Giant antenna (note man near rim of horn) concentrates sig- nals to Telstar in a narrow, powerful beam. In the same antenna a receiver amplifies signals coming from Telstar ten billion times.

New "TELSTAR" relays phone calls and TV pictures for first time!

Bell System microwave-in-sky satellite is latest communications triumph for America arising from telephone research

The world's first private enterprise commu- nications satellite is now being used for dramatic experiments in relaying telephone calls and tele- vision internationally.

Its name: Telstar. It was launched from Cape Canaveral at Bell System expense by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

Telstar receives signals beamed to it from a ground station, amplifies them and transmits them to another station on the ground below—perhaps an ocean away from the first one. The new satellite thus acts as a microwave relay station in the sky, enabling voices, TV pictures and data messages to leap thousands of miles in a new and exciting way.

The ground stations in the U.S. now being used for Telstar were built by the Bell System at Andover, Maine, and Holmdel, New Jersey. Or- ganizations abroad have built stations in England and France. The latter, a near replica of the station in Maine, is being assembled with Bell System coopera- tion. A receiving station in Italy will be ready late this year, and another in West Germany next year.

Telstar is a first major experimental step toward a world-wide satellite communications system that was first proposed as a practical venture at Bell Telephone Laboratories. Progress toward such a system would not have reached its present state without continuing research and development by the private communications industry, including six fundamental Bell System contributions—the trans- istor, the solar battery, the traveling wave tube, ruby masers, the waveguide, and new antennas for the ground stations with innovations in circuitry.

Above all else, Telstar is the latest achievement in an unending Bell System quest—the search for ways to make your telephone service still better, more economical, and more useful.
