LOOK MA, NO HANDS

The historic clock in a tower high over Hicksville Junior High School which was recently restored to service at considerable expense to the district taxpayers, this week lost its fourth and final pair of hands.

A week ago the hands from three faces of the clock were removed by vandals. Over the past weekend the remain hands were snatched and in the process some damage to the mechanism of the clock resulted.

The clock and its tower is dedicated to the memory of three Hicksville men who died in World War I: Charles Wagner, Joseph Barry and Walter Wheeler. Funds for the clock tower were contributed in a campaign in the 1920s sponsored by the Hicksville Choral Society.

School officials are at a loss to explain how the theft took place without great risk to personal safety. Several roofing tiles have been damaged by the vandals also.

Some months ago, the clapper from the clock tower disappeared and was returned almost as mysteriously.

Weddings Gain In Township

The old fashioned tradition of June brides out-numbering any other month is still in vogue in Oyster Bay.

Town Clerk William B. O'Keefe reports that of the 278 marriage licenses recorded in the first six months of 1963, 81 were in June; in all of 1962 out of 484, 61 were in August and in 1961 out of 481, 64 were filed in June.

O'Keefe said that the next popular month in 1963 was April with 63. In 1962, June was second best with 58, and in 1961, September was second best with 51.

Lumber Supply Damage $40,000

Damage estimated at $40,000 was the result of a fire at the Newbridge Lumber Supply at 197 Old Country Rd., near Newbridge Rd., Hicksville, on Friday afternoon. The Nassau County Fire Marshal was asked to investigate the wind stirred blaze which for a time threatened the home of former Town Councilman Henry McInnes and other residents on First St which back on the Lumber concern property.

The first alarm was sounded at 3:10 PM and all equipment responded. There were a total of 120 volunteers on the scene under the direction of Chief Walter Telender whose home is a block away on Second St.

Westbury Fire Dept responded to a call for mutual aid with a pumper and volunteers. All equipment returned to headquarters at 7:19 PM.

The owners of the property were listed as Alexander Morrel of Woodmere and Albert Hartvech of Bayside. Damage was confined to the rear of the store and lumber supply warehouse.

CLASSIC CONTROVERSIES:

Causeway Toll to Jones Beach

There are people in the public-influence cadre today who would canonize Robert Moses even before the World's Fair opens its doors next year. But 30 years ago, the late Elwood A. Curtis, fighting civic-minded dentist of Hicksville, spearheaded a determined but futile effort which, if successful, would have swamped Moses in the bull rushes off Jones Beach on the first high tide. A determined, eloquent fighter, Curtis was steaming mad in 1933 when Moses announced a toll on the Wantagh Causeway five years after it had opened.

Moses a year ago in a by-line article in the L.I. Press said "Today no one can be found who admits to having been in the opposition which had charged us with mis and malfeasance in office and demanded our removal have told us with unshelved effrontery that they helped the program

14 Presidents Endorse Slate

Edward (Ted) Knighton, President of the 14-member Oyster Bay Town Republican Clubs' Presidents' Council, announces the Council has voted unanimously to endorse Supervisor Thomas R. Pynchon, Councilman Edmund A. Ocker, Edward J. Poulos and A. Carl Grunewald, Town Clerk William B. O'Keefe, Receiver of Taxes Frank Hynes and Superintendent of Highways Norman T. "Supervisor Pynchon, the members of the Town Board and other Town officials have effectively demonstrated by their past actions that they are most responsive to the needs of the homeowners and taxpayers of our Town," said Knighton.

He added: "They are maintaining the true concept of keeping local government close to the people. It is the unanimous opinion of the Club Presidents' Council that these hard working officials are best qualified to continue their fine work of maintaining the Town of Oyster Bay's outstanding reputation as a progressive and forward-looking Town under the able direction and administration of Supervisor Thomas R. Pynchon."

Speaking of Europe, LOIS SMITH, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Smith of Heitz Pl., Hicksville, is enjoying a sojourn to the Continent. Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. GEORGE POWER, and their daughters, Eileen and Marie, who recently moved to Hicksville from Elwood. Good Luck to BOB REDMOND, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. ARTHUR LYONS of Miller Circle, Hicksville, who left this week for the U.S.M.C. boot training camp at Parris Island. GOLDMAN BROS. (Everything for Men and Boys), Broadway, Hicksville, is open every night except Saturday until 9 p.m. Saturday the store closes at 6 p.m. so do your Saturday shopping early.

More birthdays: CLIFF FREITAG of Hicksville Firestone on Wednesday of this week and LILLIAN celebrates at her Little Inn this Sunday. ANNE GRUNEWALD, daughter of Town Councilman and Mrs. Grunewald, becomes the bride of James Greer Valentine of Farmingdale this Saturday. We enjoyed the opening "How the West Was Won" on Tuesday evening at the Syosset Theatre. It is very colorful with some very thrilling scenes but a kind of loose continuity. Contests for GOP Committeemen, appear certain in the 39th and 80th election Districts, Hicksville. The 39th is PHIL ROBINSON's home district and the 80th is WILLIAM BRUNO's. St. Luke League Pitcher JERRY HARDING struck out 12 men last Saturday. The Joseph Barry Council, K of C, ball team was leading 2-0 over Our Lady of Fatima going into the 9th and then lost the game, 9-2. On the other hand Shady Maple score 17 runs in the first two innings over Shea's and held on to win 17-13.

JACK KENNEDY (with 2 Da) is going on vacation with his family to Green Lake, upstate, next week. During his absence from behind the Little Inn stick JERRY KIESEL will reign in his playpen. Postmaster IRENE MURPHY told the Chamber at a recent meeting that there should be an approved bidder for the new PO building by Sept 25. Two of those six patrolmen accused of looting appliance warehouses of up to $10,000 in goods 2 are residents of Hicksville and 2 are from Jericho. The other two are from Levittown and Floral Park and all were assigned to the Third Precinct in Mineola. MARGARET TRAVERS of Hicksville is among five young women from Long Island participating in the special summer program on the study of Chinese language and culture at St. John's University, Jamaica. Town Supervisor TOM PYNCHON has appointed RICHARD C. KAISER of 12 Abbey St., Massapequa Park, as personnel officer for the Town of Oyster Bay. He will be responsible for maintaining close liaison with the Civil Service Commission in addition to handling all Town personnel problems. Town Democratic Leader ED MORRIS and his family are home from a vacation stay out East. On vacation this week, the list includes B. F. MCGUNNIGLE and FREDDIE SCHLITZ. How does the PO get along without them? Regular meeting of Hicksville School Board this Friday night. Quote of the week from MICKEY McDONOUGH: "and you better believe it" Uncle JOHN injured his right shoulder in a recent fall. It was happy birthday on Monday, Aug 5 for both FRANK MANGAN and Father HARRY WOODS. "The King" gets wed on Sunday and only the elect received invitations.

Belated best wishes on their 18th wedding anniversary, Aug. 4, to MARTY and GLORIA DONLAN. Hicksville Fire Dept. took second place for best appearing unit at the Floral Park drill last Saturday. They also won second in bucket while Plainview took first in motor hose class B, fifth in class C and first in a motor pump. JACK HERZOG, after 34 years, has retired as a Republican Committeeman of the 3rd Election District. His successor is TOM GALLAHUE. Our photographer FRANK MALLET got some fine shots of the Newbridge Lumber fire and then went on vacation, so their publication will be delayed. The BILL STAKES have set up a giant 24-foot pool. A new paperback book "B-29: The Plane That Won the War", just issued, mentions CHARLES FROST of Plainview who was with the 20th Air Force. Post card from Paris and the Charbonnets says "the usual 'having a wonderful time'. Saw all of Paris, surrounding castles, a few for sale - interested? The old world charm is the most pleasant".

Sincerest sympathy to Councilman GRUNEWALD upon the death last Friday of his dad, ALFRED GRUNEWALD, of Suffern, NY. Hicksville School Board this week is required, by law, to set the tax rate for 1963-64. It is expected to be $5.73 per $100 with 23.8 cents for the library or a total of $5.958. The current rate is $4.379 for school, 23.3 cents for library or a total of $4.612 per $100. Now, who said it was going to be "well over" six dollars?

Wantagh Causeway Toll to Jones Beach State Park

By Fred J. Noeth

Thirty years ago the opening gun in a four-year classic controversy was fired at a special meeting of Oyster Bay Town Board held in Hicksville High School on Feb. 21, 1963. It was the start of the legalistic and newspaper headline battle between the late Elwood A. Curtis, DDS, renowned civic champion of Hicksville, and Robert Moses, president of the Long Island State Park Commission.

For the next four years or more you could get a good argument going by asking almost any resident of Oyster Bay Township and Dr. Curtis in particular what they thought of Bob Moses.

Allied to some degree with the Town of Oyster Bay, at least in certain phases of the battle, were the Townships of Hempstead and Babylon.

At times the barrage of news releases and the correspondence between Moses and Curtis, all of which was dutifully released to the press, became incendiary. It came to pass that the Amityville Record on July 12, was moved to comment editorially:

"Who are you, anyhow!
"We have long been hoping that the person who issues press statements for the Long Island State Park Commission would mellow under the influence of our gentle or ungente rallyery but we guess we did not catch him in his plastic age. He sent out this week one which we shall reprint here in full, with a few remarks of our own about his un-Emily Post style of etiquette.
"The case in point is an action at law which the Town of Oyster Bay brought to determine

Classic Controversies

The public memory is amazingly short - or, the in-go and out-go of population is so great that few remain to remember issues which, at the time, seemed so very important. The HERALD is planning to publish an occasional series on controversies and civic endeavors of the past score of years which at the time seemed so vital but which, today, are barely recalled by all but the intimate participants. Actually we began with the 10th anniversary of the Hicksville incorporation effort in last week's edition.

whether the Park Commission, an agency of the State, violated rights of the town and its people inherent in an expressed or implied contract between the town and the State, represented by its agent, which contract was entered into when the town conveyed to the State areas of land on which subsequently the State constructed a boulevard and other recreational devices ****

THE BEGINNING

The seeds of the eventual controversy and court litigation were to be found in a proposition submitted to the people of the Town of Oyster Bay and City of Glen Cove on Nov. 8, 1927. It was officially entitled: "Proposition for the development of certain town lands at Jones Beach and for the connection of such lands with the State Causeway, for the construction of an Ocean Boulevard, and for conveyance of certain lands for State Park purposes, submitted to the voters by the Town Board of Oyster Bay and the City of Glen Cove, to be voted on at the General Election."

The Non-Partisan Taxpayers' Committee of the Township, "created for the purpose of supporting the improvement of certain Town Lands of Oyster Bay and Jones Beach by the development of a State Park and an Ocean Highway at the expense of the State of New York", recommended the proposition to the voters. We will specify the reasons for support in a moment.

The outerbeach, today the world-famous Jones Beach, was public lands of the Towns of Hempstead and Oyster Bay (in the Nassau Section). It could only be reached from the mainland by boat by treading thru the marshes and small bay islands. As of 1938 there were 70 cottages at High Hill Beach on property leased from the Town of Oyster Bay.

When the proposition of 1927 was approved, a slice of town land on the outerbeach was given to the State of New York by the Township. Oyster Bay retained about two miles of oceanfront, ending at the County line (Town of Babylon) on the east. Thereafter, High Hill residents (which included Dr. Curtis) paid the State of New York $150 a year. The leases with the state ended on Mar. 1, 1940 and thereafter all the dwellings were picked up and moved inland east on the highway for the free use of the highway by the residents of the Township. Dr. Leavitt was advised that no such provision was contained in the deed. Dr. Elwood A. Curtis stated that while the deed did not contain such a provision, part of the consideration for the granting of the Town lands to the State was the construction of a causeway over which the residents of the Town would have free access to the remaining portion of Town lands. Mr. Leavitt questioned the authority of the Long Island State Park Commission to collect such toll. After a general discussion, the following Resolution was offered by Tom Clark Adams, seconded by Justice Flanagan:

WHEREAS the People of the Town of Oyster Bay and the City of Glen Cove have dedicated valuable lands on Jones Beach to the State for park purposes;

WHEREAS, one of the reasons for the granting of such lands to the State was to make the remaining portions of the Town lands freely accessible to the People of the Town of Oyster Bay and the City of Glen Cove through the construction of a causeway;

WHEREAS, it has been called to the attention of the Town Board that legislation is contemplated which will provide that all automobiles using the causeway to Jones Beach State Park shall pay a toll of twenty-five (25) cents per car, and

WHEREAS such payment of toll would provide a hardship on the People of the Town of Oyster Bay and the City of Glen Cove and prevent many of the residents of such Town and City from using the common lands of said Town;

THEY THEREFORE DO HEREBY RESOLVE that the Town Board of the Town of Oyster Bay petition against any legislation or regulation of the Long Island State Park Commission, which provides for any resident of the Town of Oyster Bay or the City of Glen Cove, paying a toll for the use of the Jones Beach Causeway, and be it FURTHER RESOLVED that the representatives of Nassau County in the State Legislature be requested to oppose such legislation, and that a copy of the foregoing Resolution be forwarded to the Long Island State Park Commission.

RESOLUTION ADOPTED, ALL MEMBERS OF THE TOWN BOARD AND ALL CITIZENS PRESENT VOTING IN FAVOR OF THE RESOLUTION.

There being no further business, a motion before the Board, the meeting adjourned.

JOHNNY HAYMER of West Birchwood in the role of a French judge in "Irma La Douce" with Juliet Prowse, star. (Thompson studio photo.)

Johnny Haymer Excels In 'Irma La Douce'

"Irma La Douce" played to capacity audiences at the Westbury Music Fair last week. We went to the Friday night performance, not so much to see Juliet Prowse, but quite frankly to watch our neighbor, Johnny Haymer of 15 Orange Drive, who had the second lead.

Well, dad, for our money, Johnny Haymer, walked off with the honors. Oh yes, Juliet was good. She's a magnificent dancer and she can sing. She has a stunning figure and in appearance she's a combination of Lucille Ball and Owen Verdon. But Johnny Haymer had a more demanding role and he put it across like an old pro.

Playing the part of the bartender in this story of French

Demon Runyon characters, Johnny not only had to be the narrator of the plot but had to act, sing, dance and mime. His mimes were so faultless he had the audience eating out of his hand. In the second act, he doubled in the role of a French judge and his burlesque of this character was hilarious.

Newsday praised his performance and declared that he brought down the house one evening with an ad lib during the court scene.

Since "Irma La Douce" has no catchy tunes the enjoyment is all in the acting and the dancing. Juliet Prowse took care of the dancing all right but Johnny Haymer ran away with the acting honors. SE

BY MC KINLEY EBBITZ

Summer is flitting by and in less than one month the kids will be back at school. The community will be voting again on the High School swimming pool Aug. 13th and it makes good sense to vote "yes" because of the dividends we will get, not only for our children but for ourselves as well. The cost is negligible and the advantages are numerous, so vote yes on August 13th. The polls are open from 2-10 p.m. in Jericho High School.

Social and otherwise from all over! Dr. Irwin Mendelson of upper Orange Drive has opened an office on Broadway, Hicksville. He will be practicing psychiatry. Speaking of psychiatrists, we ran into Dr. Harold Pike of lower Orange Drive at a local auto showroom. He was picking up a station wagon to accommodate his and Evelyn's four children. ... Duncan the Duck, an erstwhile star boarder at Arnold Winant's home, has flown the coop. Ginger Winant, Arnold's wife, took care of Duncan for all of eight months. She built a special coop for him and trained him to co-exist with their French poodle, Camille. Duncan was a favorite of the kids in the neighborhood. And now he is gone.

Stan Furness threw a big party over at his pad Saturday night. ... Cantigue Road was jammed with cars the night of the Liston-Patterson fight. The fences surrounding the theatre on Cantigue Road were ripped down so that free-loaders could hear and see the fight better. The street began filling up at 6 p.m. and people waited until 10:30 to see a fight that lasted less than three minutes!

We hasten to add our congratulations to "The Villager" of Birchwood Park at Jericho (erroneously called East Birchwood) on the occasion of their sixth anniversary. Noting that their last issue devoted half a page to this momentous occasion would we be too presumptuous to ask why couldn't an important matter of the School vote on Aug. 13 received just a smidgen of space? (Seriously fellows, we know what a job it is to put out a paper 26 times a year. You gotta have guts.)

In case you didn't know, Howard Johnson Restaurant is going to open on Jericho Turnpike near Brush Hollow Road. With the usual quick service. Newest kick for locals is to take swimming lessons from that handsome lifeguard down at To Bay Beach ... on the Bay Side.

Pity the gals of ORT. Everytime they plan a summer soiree, the weather fails to cooperate. Last year's cookout at the Platt's was broken up by unruly thunderstorms and this year's boatrike at Captree scheduled for last Saturday night had to be called off because of a weather forecast of rain, hail, thunder, lightning, mayhem, none of which materialized. ...

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Freiberg of 15 Ulster Dr., Jericho, welcomed a son, Michael Keith, on July 12. They also have a daughter, Debra.

Only four United States Presidents failed to make inaugural addresses—John Tyler, Millard Fillmore, Andrew Johnson and Chester A. Arthur ...

Vote on Tuesday

A special vote will be held this Tuesday, Aug. 13, from 2 to 10 p.m., at the Jericho High School Gym.

The propositions to be voted on are:

1. The substituting of a swimming pool in lieu of a gymnasium in the planned addition to the High School.
2. The construction of a bus maintenance shop.

Set Open House

Residents of Birchwood, old and new will have an opportunity to meet new neighbors and revisit old friends at a open house get-together being sponsored by Temple Beth Torah on Wednesday Aug. 14, at 8:30 p.m. The Temple is located on Cantigue Road just south of Northern State Parkway.

Bring your friends. Refreshments will be served and a good time will be had by all.

Civics Endorse Two Questions

A special meeting of the East Birchwood Civic Assoc. Education Committee, called to discuss the coming vote on the two propositions of the Jericho School Board, resulted in a unanimous endorsement support of the inclusion of the swimming pool and for the construction of a bus maintenance shop.

The committee felt that the slight increase in taxes to support these two items would be more than offset by the many benefits that may be derived from their addition.

Tentative plans were also made for the topics and programs that the committee would follow in the fall when it started its regular meetings. Among the subjects to be investigated are: state aid to the school district, teacher recruitment, examination of school expenditures and higher standards of education for the community.

Appoint Schleicher

The appointment of Raymond M. Schleicher of Jericho as assistant secretary and assistant treasurer has been announced by Charles of the Ritz, Inc. Schleicher, a certified public accountant, has been with Charles of the Ritz since 1960. Prior to that he was associated with the accounting firm Jablow & Jablow.

He is a graduate of The New York University School of Commerce and of The Graduate School of Business Administration. He is a member of the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants.

Pynchon, GOP Jericho Zone Leader Ralph Diamond, Family Court Judges Elizabeth Bass Golding and William Dempsey, and District Court Judge Benjamin Zipper. The Club's annual affair was a huge success, with several hundred Jericho residents in attendance, to dance under the stars at Theodore Roosevelt Memorial Park.

Curran Pledges Full Support

Pledging his full support to Supervisor Thomas R. Pynchon's plan to hold a Vocational Educational Conference, Senator Henry M. Curran this week called the Town's Vocational Conference program a "major step to forcibly bring to the attention of the public the increasing need for vocational training programs."

Pynchon has scheduled a Vocational Educational Conference for Sept. 25 at Oyster Bay Town Hall. Educators, businessmen, industrialists and labor leaders are scheduled to be in attendance at the meeting, which is the first of its kind in Nassau County.

"The major objective in this area of the public sector," said Curran, "is to do everything we can to insure that our non-college bound youth are prepared for the skills necessary so that they can make their way in the future. While the number of academically gifted children who continue on to higher education is still increasing, there is no indication of any reduction in the number of high school drop-outs or those who finished school without marketable skills. This is an important area to which our full attention must be directed."

Building Gains In Township

One-family dwellings, alterations and additions to existing homes and industrial and commercial development were responsible for a marked gain in building activities in the Town of Oyster Bay in July as compared with a year ago, it is announced by Supervisor Thomas R. Pynchon.

The report of the Building Dept. made to Supervisor Pynchon by Manager Edward J. Gaynor, showed permits filed for the past month representing an estimated construction cost of $1,762,845. In 1962 the comparable cost was $974,020.

There were 106 permits for one-family dwellings last month; 71 in July, 1962. Alteration and addition permits last month totaled 96 as compared with 74 in the corresponding month a year ago. Estimated costs of alterations and additions last month amounted to $298,770, and for July 1962 totaled $184,865. Two churches were on the July 1963 list and one on the 1962 report.

Eight industrial plants valued at $774,559 were in the 1963 report for July compared with four in July of 1962.

Protest Switch In Street Signs

The latest in the malicious mischief category is the very funny switching of entire street signs, where the whole upper structure of the sign pole is pried loose and switched with another some blocks away, or just done away with completely. The complete irresponsibility of such an act seems to have escaped the perpetrators and we would like to think that our own youngsters are not the guilty ones. Councilman Ed Poulos said to the Board of Directors of the Birchwood Civic Assoc. that he would use his influence to have the signs restored to their proper locations if it would see to it that our youth would not be responsible for such goings on.

Repeat Request For 'No' Vote

On Tuesday, Aug. 13, the residents of the Jericho-School District will once again vote on two propositions that were defeated in May. Proposition No. 1 is for the building of a swimming pool attached to the present High School at a cost not to exceed $100,000.00 and proposition No. 2 is to erect a building to be used as a maintenance shop at a cost not to exceed $30,000.00. Your Board of Directors prior to the May vote, came out with a NO VOTE. The Board of Directors at its last monthly meeting, reviewed the vote and felt that the situation has not changed and once again voted for a NO VOTE.

Voting on these two propositions will be held at the gym of the High School. Voting hours are between the hours of 2:00 P.M. and 10:00 P.M. or as long as may be necessary for the voters PRESENT to vote.

We urge all residents and members of the Jericho Civic Association to vote on Tuesday Aug. 13. Our recommendation once again is NO to both propositions.

2 Host Teams Out of Running

The first and second elimination games of the Fourth Annual Monsignor George M. Bittermann Baseball Tournament sponsored by St. Ignatius Loyola of Hicksville finds the host teams, the St. Ignatius Golds and Blues, out of the running. Paired off for the final Championship Game are Sacred Heart of North Merrick and St. Edwards of Syosset.

Tom Frey's Gold team, strong second place winners of the Diocesan League whose season was just completed two weeks before, was considered a top contender along with Dick Malar's Massapequa Park Athletic Club and the Diocesan League Champs, Sacred Heart of North Merrick under Charles Atkins.

But the first elimination saw the St. Ignatius Gold Team stepped cold by St. Edwards' Bob McGurk, 1 hit, 2-0 win with the Blue Team trounced by Massapequa 12 to 2, who, however, found more than their match in losing to St. Edwards overpowering attack in the second elimination round and held in check by the same Bob McGurk's superb relief hurling giving St. Edwards an 11 to 5 win. Jim Lichtenberg was the batting star for St. Edwards with 2 doubles and a home run with 2 on in the fifth. Walter Cominsky, their catcher had 2 for 3 and again Bob McGurk, 2 for 4.

Sacred Heart in the meantime was making short work of its opponents with an easy victory over St. Williams Team in the first elimination game followed by a smashing 16 to 1 victory over St. Vincents in their second contest.

In this game Bobby Keyes went all the way for Sacred Heart, giving up one hit, a triple by Egan in the sixth inning. He struck out 11 batters through the seven innings, Bobby also helped his team by getting 3 singles in 5 times at bat, Glenn Dowd and Rory Baruth both hit home runs in the 3rd inning.

Bob McKillop went 3 for 4, 2 singles and a double, plus a walk. The big inning for Sacred Heart came in the fourth, leading by a score of 6 to 0, Galligan and Baruth led off with singles, and Kevin Rogan tripled to clear the bases. Singles by McKillop, Dowd and Houlihan and a double by Mike Foley put Sacred Heart out in front by 12 to 0. The big wind-up next week therefore, finds the Diocesan League Champs, Sacred Heart in true form as a top Team facing what appears to be a revitalized St. Edwards who made only a fair showing in the Diocesan League, in the final contest for the Monsignor George M. Bittermann Trophy given in honor of the Pastor of the host parish, St. Ignatius Loyola of Hicksville. However, whatever the outcome, neither team can feel too badly as a second place consolation award is given in honor of the moderator of the St. Ignatius Baseball Program, Father Lawrence Ballweg.

Ignatius Cadets to Canada

By Jim Cummings

The award winning St. Ignatius All-Girl Cadet Corps of Hicksville will tour Canada and Upstate New York the latter part of August.

This precision drill and marching group is comprised of girls from St. Ignatius R.C. Church, Hicksville, of which the Rt. Rev. Msgr. George M. Bittermann, V.V., is pastor.

The Corps has won many honors and caps during the past four years including championship in New York State. This invitation to Canada will find the corps at its very best. The group is under the direction of Tom Costa.

Wherever the Cadets appear in their smartly-styled uniforms you are sure to find Agnes and Bill Minihan, who have given so much of their time, day in-week out all these years to guide these young ladies - whether it be a rehearsal on Mondays or a bus trip out-of-town. We feel that the tireless efforts of Agnes and

Bill Minihan deserve a rising vote of thanks from the community. When the HICKSVILLE FIRE DEPT. hosts the 35th Annual Labor Parade and Drill the St. Ignatius Cadet Corp will lead the way again this year. Steve's ISLAND STAR Restaurant opens this weekend at 77 North Broadway, (opp. Hicksville Post Office) family - style meals in air-conditioned comfort. ## CONTROVERSY

Among the members of the 'Non-Partisan Taxpayers' Committee were many distinguished names. Walbridge Taft was chairman and Judge Townsend Scudder was vice chairman. The group included Dr. Curtis, David Dows, F. Trubee Davidson, Judge Harry Ludlam, Louis Montico, Sterling W. Mudge, Col. Theodore Roosevelt, William H. Seaman, Mrs. Johanna Tallaferro, B. F. Yeakum and others totaling 35.

In giving the reasons for support of the plan to turn over the outerbeach oceanfront to create Jones Beach State Park, it was stated: "the town could not build a causeway (from the mainland) of its own excepting at great expense to the taxpayers and a separate toll causeway to the town land paralleling the State Causeway could not possibly be financed. THE STATE CAUSEWAY WILL BE FREE OF TOLLS (capitals supplied - ed)".

JONES BEACH OPENS

Our file on the controversy, which has rested unopened for about 25 years, does not disclose the exact vote on the proposition submitted to the voters of Oyster Bay and City of Glen Cove, but obviously it passed and it was Aug. 4, 1929 when Jones Beach opened to the public as a state park.

A history of the L.I. State Park recalls that Robert Moses was president of the L.I. State Park Commission in 1925 when the first overtures to the Town of Hempstead for its interest in the outerbeach with a right of way across the bay for a parkway were made.

Apparently all was quiet until that Town Board meeting held in Hicksville High School in 1933 when it became known that legislation was contemplated to charge all automobiles using the causeway to Jones Beach State Park a toll of 25 cents per car.

The purpose of the meeting on Feb. 21, it was explained by Supervisor Harry Tappen, was for the purpose of discussing the construction of a Parking Field on Jones Beach for the use of the people of the Town of Oyster Bay.

A motion was made by the late Howard C. Smith (later to become a Town Councilman), seconded by the late Arthur C. Crossley of Hicksville and those present went on record "as being in favor of the construction of a parking space on Jones Beach for the sole use of the people of the Town of Oyster Bay and the City of Glen Cove, upon condition that the Town Board enact proper rules in connection with such parking and protect the Town against liability, and upon further condition that the project be self-sustaining as far as possible."

Among those present, according to the Town Board minutes, were Supervisor Tappen, Justice Morey, Justice Heberer, Justice Flanagan and Town Clerk Ransom. Justice Anderson was absent. (All are now deceased except Tappen and Ransom.)

Also present were Howard C. Smith, David Dows, Arthur L. Crossley, Albert Lang (of Central Park, later Bethpage),

Charles B. Devenport, Dr. Elwood A. Curtis and James Redfern, also of Hicksville. Benjamin W. Moore was the only one present who voted against what was to eventually become Tobay Beach.

The crucial question of "free use of the causeway" by Town residents in exchange for the oceanfront given the State was raised at this meeting.

This is what the record says: "Dr. Curtis stated that while the deed did not contain such a provision (free causeway use), part of the consideration for the granting of the Town lands to the State was the construction of a causeway over which the residents of the Town would have free access to the remaining portion of town lands. Mr. Redfern questioned the authority of the Long Island State Park Commission to collect such toll."

When it came to the resolution opposing the proposed toll all present town board members and all citizens present voted in favor.

The Town was eventually to lose, as any resident who has been to Jones Beach in recent days can testify. The toll is now 75 cents and includes parking at the State Park.

But there were to be some hitting exchanges between the L.I. Park Commission and spokesmen for various, united citizen groups in the township. Some of the correspondence which got into public print made the recent furor over a proposed highway along Fire Island, by comparison, appear to be a Sunday School picnic. These will be detailed in the second part of this feature.

The following is the text of a letter Dr. Curtis wrote to Gov. Herbert H. Lehman on Sept. 10, 1934 which puts in capsule form the bone of contention:

"Three municipalities of Nassau and Suffolk Counties are about to bring suit against the State of New York for the purpose of compelling the State to keep the covenants of the several agreements made between these municipalities and the State of New York. Before any action is taken, it seems only right that you as chief executive of the State be informed of their purpose and the justice of their contention.

"The facts in the case are briefly as follows:

"A few years ago at the earnest solicitation of the State the three townships of Hempstead, Oyster Bay and Babylon, together with the City of Glen Cove, by a vote of their people, dedicated very valuable land on Jones Beach to the Long Island State Park Commission representing the State of New York, to enable the State to build Jones Beach State Park.

"In exchange for these several grants of land the State covenanted to do certain things which are definitely and clearly stated in the contracts and deeds of dedication. Among the covenants are the following:

"1 - The State of New York shall build and MAINTAIN at the sole expense of the State of New York, a causeway (known as the Wantagh Causeway) from the mainland of Long Island from Wantagh, across the Great South Bay, to the outerbeach. This Causeway when built was to furnish a free continuous passage from Wantagh to the outerbeach.

For five years this Causeway has been a free public road. The State now proposes to disregard this covenant by charging a toll on this Causeway which is the only road leading to the lands retained by the Townships.

"2 - In exchange for the land given by the Town of Oyster Bay, the State agreed to build a highway along the oceanfront from Jones Beach for a distance of about four miles (east). Two miles of this highway passes thru lands retained by the Town of Oyster Bay. It is provided in the contract incorporated in the deed that the people of Oyster Bay are to have access to the lands retained by the township through entrances located approximately every 500 feet along this highway. In fact one of the main reasons for the dedication of the lands by the several towns to the State was to make the retained lands accessible by a convenient mode of travel. The State now proposes to make this promise of access to town lands from its highway contingent upon the payment of a toll.

"He takes his bottle like an angel. And wait 'til you see how he's grown." A baby is the world's nicest reason for staying home. But staying home for any reason doesn't mean you have to stay out of things. A phone call will keep you in touch with family, with friends, with your favorite stores.
