AN EDITORIAL:

School Vandalism Cause for Concern

The degree of vandalism on the grounds of Hicksville School District and to the structures erected as considerable cost to the taxpayers can only be described as scandalous.

Hundreds of dollars worth of window glass are smashed monthly. We had last week the ruthless destruction of the Memorial Tower Clock on the Junior High School where gymnastic vandals removed all the hands and damaged the clock mechanism. Interior damage to buildings, when they are in use is outrageous. Hundreds of seats in auditoriums have been slashed and broken, lavatories have been attacked by tool-equipped vandals (in at least one case a sink was unbolted from the wall), and we would hate to have to pay the bill for rejuvenation of telephone booths.

Recently an East St. area parent appealed to the School Board to lock up the school yard at night to eliminate a local hangout for hoodlums terrorizing the neighborhood. The first night the gates were chained and locked the chains were snipped open with bolt cutters. One school official pointed out that the equipment used was heavy enough to cut a new opening in the chain-link fence.

We fear that such wanton destruction is probably experienced by other branches of community government. The annual loss to taxpayers conceivably runs into tens or even hundreds of thousands of dollars annually.

We do not know if the extent of vandalism in our community is any worse or less than in neighboring districts. (We did hear that the Levittown glass breakage bills are about double ours). However, we do feel there is genuine reason for serious concern by all parents. Obviously we are approaching a complete breakdown, in certain quarters, of all respect for the property of the public or other persons.

The Hicksville School District has experimented over the years with various forms of protection including the hire of private detectives, armed guard services and use of volunteers. Obviously the regular police force can do little unless there are specific complaints, usually after the damage is discovered.

It would seem that a possible solution would lie in the hire by the school district of competent private policemen with arrest authority of their own. After all, we have custodians, painters, electricians, groundsmen, etc. Why not a trained, uniformed school patrol police force to maintain and protect the taxpayers' property? It may even reach the point where the hire of trained police dogs, set loose on the fenced school grounds at night, may be necessary.

The senseless and wanton destruction of public property must be halted before it becomes a general, lawless attack on private property and individual dwellings.

Ends 34 Years Tenure as GOP Committeeman

JOHN (JACK) HERZOG of W. Marie St., Hicksville, at left, is retiring as Republican committeeman of the 3rd Election District after serving 34 years. The Hicksville GOP Committeemen honored him with a reception at the Old Country Manor on Aug. 6 when he was presented with a gold watch by sunny Clerk Francis Anderson, Hicksville Republican leader. Looking on with pride was Mrs. Herzog. Arrangements were made for the presentation by Anderson, Jay Schwartz and Ernest Dieterich, co-committeeman of the 3rd Dist. Mr. Herzog's successor will be Thomas Gallahue of Underhill Ave.

Mr. Herzog is a grandson of Frederick Herzog, pioneer merchant in Hicksville, and Herzog Place is named for the family. Mr. Herzog retired earlier this year after long service in the County government. He was a member of the Hicksville Board of Education for 23 years. When he first became a committeeman there were only eight (four districts). Today there are 52 committeemen. (Photo by J & J)

School Tax Rate Under Estimate

Because of an increase in assessed valuation of Hicksville School District, the school tax rate for 1963-64 will be two and a half cents less than the tax rate estimated when the budget was offered for adoption in May, it was disclosed this week by Anthony Gorczycki, business administrator.

The School Tax rate for 1963-64 has been set at $5.72 per $100 to which will be added 23.8 cents per $100 for the public library, making a total of $5.958 or a total increase of 34.6 cents over the current year. The rate was set at the Board of Education meeting, Friday night.

The total school budget is $10,913,869.25 with the net amount of $5,358,869.25 to be raised by local real estate taxes. The school district expects to receive $5,175,000 in state aid and $70,000 in federal aid. It is estimated that receipts from summer school, adult education, etc will provide $60,000 and a quarter million dollars will come from excess cash balance or surplus. The library tax levy is $223,274.81.

A son, Richard Thomas Jr., was born to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Casper of 147 Spindle Rd., Hicksville, July 31 at Mercy Hospital.

The Old Timer

"Let me put it this way—if your car were a horse, it would have to be shot."

Dear Lynda:

Hicksville Schools reopen on Sept. 4 and a new edition of that handy parents handbook, crammed with useful information about the school system, will be in the mail to all residents shortly. Now where can you get information sandwiches? But at Casey's Hall... GENE SCHILLINGER went further than Canada. We now find he made up a Kiwanis meeting in Indiana... MIP's JIM CUMMINGS has written several songs which friends are urging him to have published: "For the Rest of My Life", "Craziest Guy", "Somebody Else" etc., and there was another one that is not so well known: "I Caught you Looking over My Shoulder as I Put out the Shopper"... Two mid-Island Air Reservists assigned to the 8309th Air Force Reserve Recovery Group at Mitchell Air Force Base (and we thought it was closed) have been promoted to the rank of Lt. Colonel from Majors... They are MORTON B. KELMAN of Plainview and CHARLES MOSTOWITZ of Hicksville... St. Master Sgt. DALE A. DAVIS has arrived in Sembach AB, Germany, for assignment with a unit of the Air Force in Europe. His wife, Evelyn, is the daughter of Mrs. Amanda Callaghan of 35 W. Cabot Lane, Hicksville...

GARY WOLLENHAUPT, student at the Lutheran High School in Brookville, celebrated his birthday on Aug. 9... PETE LEBKUECHER, formerly of Hicksville, is doing well with his potato farm at Hightstown, New Jersey. His wife is the former Elsie Grant... Republican Recruits of Hicksville are sponsoring a dance on Saturday night, Aug. 17, at 8:30 P.M. at the Old Country Manor... FRED J. MOETH was in Syracuse the beginning of this week, attending the Institute for School District Clerks at the University... Mr. and Mrs. ERNEST GLINDLACH have sold their home on Thorman Avenue, Hicksville, and will be making their home in Fort Pierce, Fla., the end of the month... There is a growing colony of former local residents at Fort Pierce... JACK SANBORN will be teacher of a new course in the Adult Education program this fall in Hicksville. It is preparation for substitute teachers, . . .

Happy birthday greetings to MAUREEN FARLEY of Heather La., Plainview, who will be Sweet Sixteen on Friday, Aug. 16... Also Happy Birthday to another young lady, slightly younger, PATRICIA IRENE MALONE will celebrate her first birthday on the same day. She is the granddaughter of Pat and Irene Gichrist of Frances La., Hicksville. Wonder who she was named after?

Get well wishes to PAUL CARDINAL of Miller Circle, Hicksville who recently underwent surgery for gall bladder trouble. When the surgeons opened him up they found he had two gall bladders. We don't know if that is unusual or not but it's the first time we've heard of it. Paul is the owner of the Delsonma Restaurant in N.Y.C. near Madison Sq. Garden...

Believe it or not, but someone put a couple of live sandsharks in the Parkway Pool... NANCY JOHNSON, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Johnson of Myers Ave., Hicksville, will start her nursing career at Syosset Hospital on Sept. 15. In October she is scheduled to sail to Italy... That station wagon for the use of the Hicksville School Administration which has been in and out of the budget for about three years was scheduled for delivery this week on Wednesday... Send a get well card to HERMAN FRICKE, formerly of Hicksville, who was a patient at the Brunswick General Hospital in Amityville. His present residence is at 58 South Crescent Dr., Farmingdale... We notice the brackets are being attached to the Broadway parking meters for that colorful American flag display due on Labor Day and five other national holidays during the year. It is a project of the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce...

Hardly had the town finished a fine resurfacing on Lenox Ave. this week when LILCO was around the next morning digging out a big hole with airhammers. . . . MICKY (and you better believe it) reports that Shea's defeated the Rainbow, 9-7, last Sunday and the Shea team may face the Alpine this weekend. . . . When LARRY PAGANO was in the army he had more experiences than Sgt. Bilko; such as how he was the most popular musician in the band as far as the bandmaster was concerned. He never played a flat note — probably because for three years he tooted on an instrument without a reed. . . . Steel upright supports for the Barclaysville Rd. RR bridge were on the site this week. . . . That ancient Ford being advertised in the Want Ads this week is NOT a typographical error. . . .

Former Dwelling Is Bd Headache

The Hicksville School Board has the former Lumm house on Newbridge Rd and doesn't know how to get rid of it. The building has been found structurally unsound for use as an auxiliary administration building and all openings have been boarded shut. In the meantime, the old frame structure has become a source of concern in the neighborhood since some persons manage to get inside.

As a partial solution the School Board has authorized the expenditure of $6,536 to detract the cost of moving its six and twelve-foot chain link fence south to embrace the Lumm farmland which was acquired recently. Fencing will also be installed along Newbridge in front of the Lumm House.

Joseph Catalano, school attorney, has told the Board that the structure cannot be sold or demolished without a vote of the people since it is District property. While the law provides for the disposal of abandoned school buildings, the Lumm house was never acquired for or used as a school and does not fit under this section of the law.

Man is trying to reach the moon. But look what the old cow did.

Herald Classic Controversy:

Battle Over Causeway Toll Raged for Four Years

By Fred J. Noeth

This is the second installment recalling the classic controversy between the LI State Park Commission and the Town of Oyster Bay which had its beginning 30 years ago when the State Park Commission first imposed a 25-cent toll on the Wantagh Causeway to Jones Beach. Today it is 75 cents.

The controversy raged, thru the newspaper columns and in the courts, for four years and its leading participants were Robert Moses, then president of the Park Commission, and the late Elwood A. Curtis, DDS, of Hicksville, prominent civic leader.

A letter by Dr. Curtis to then Gov. Herbert Lehman written on Sept. 10, 1934, summarized the complaint against imposition of the Causeway Toll declaring that in the first place the State agreed to build and maintain a causeway from the mainland to the outer-beach and for five years this causeway was free public road. Second, in exchange for land decided by the Town of Oyster Bay to the State on the ocean-front on which to develop Jones Beach State Park, it was provided that the people of Oyster Bay would have access to the two miles of oceanfront (now Today) retained as town land.

The Curtis letter concluded: "The people of Nassau and Suffolk Counties are anxious to know whether this contract or any contract made with the State of New York is binding or is it to be ignored at the whim of a commissioner or whenever it becomes expedient to consider it non-existent."

"The State agreed to build a highway. In the popular mind a highway is a free road, just the opposite of a toll road. This meaning is also very clearly set forth in Webster's Dictionary, and has the support of many legal decisions.

"The right of entrance to one's own property as well as the sanctity of contract are fundamental principles recognized and protected by law and both the Federal and State Constitutions. It should not be necessary to resort to legal proceedings to have these principles upheld. They are self-evident upon which all good social and honest business relationships depend.

"Your commissioner frankly admits the contracts call for access to our town lands, but adds 'not necessarily free access'. Such an interpretation is mere quibbling. It is undignified and most unbecoming a representative of our State government.

"Our people would like to be assured of such quibbling has not your private or official approval, but rather that you feel that the State of New York should set an example in all its dealings with its citizens which for honest, straightforward conduct shall be above reproach and which shall avoid deception and circumlocution.

"Your commissioner states that the toll is necessary under the terms of the agreement by which the money was furnished by the Reconstruction Finance Corp. This is hard to believe. It is inconceivable that any Federal Commission should make the breaking of a contract or the destroying of the age-old privilege of free entry to ones property as a part of its requirement for a loan.

"Before your excellency signed the bill creating this toll on the Wantagh Causeway you were asked by the Oyster Bay Town Board and practically every civic and taxpayer organization in our township for a hearing. At that time you referred our request to Mr. Robert Moses, President of the Long Island State Park Commission. The only reply received from Mr. Moses was the inference that if the Town Board of Oyster Bay did not cease its opposition to this bill, every relief worker from Oyster Bay Town employed in any state park would lose his or her job.

"It is also worthy of note that at no time were the officials of the Township of Oyster Bay or Babylon given an opportunity to express an opinion of this bill and they were not invited to attend any of the conferences while the bill was being prepared.

"The people of Nassau and Suffolk Counties who are to be deprived of free access to their town lands appeal to your sense of fair play and honest dealing to instruct your commissioner to permit them to go to and from their lands on Jones Beach via Wantagh Causeway free from the proposed toll, especially since this can be accomplished without in any way impairing the efficiency of the bill.

"The people of Nassau and Suffolk Counties are perfectly willing to pay a toll on the new Meadowbrook Causeway, and to pay their proportionate share for the use of the facilities of Jones Beach State Park as they do now, but they insist upon their right to reach their own lands via the Wantagh Causeway free from any toll. You must recognize the reasonableness of their stand.

"The people of Nassau and Suffolk respectfully ask you to investigate this injustice and will eagerly await your reply.

"At your request I will gladly furnish proof of the statements made in this letter, and additional proof that the Wantagh Causeway was to be a free road.

"The disapproval of the proposed toll and the protest against its unfairness to the municipalities involved has been voiced in the editorial columns of many newspapers in the area.

"The proposed action on the part of the State is opposed by taxpayers' associations in the following communities: Oyster Bay, Glen Head, Locust Valley, Hicksville, Syosset, Central Park (now Bethpage) and Farmingdale, as well as the Oyster Bay Taxpayers' League, together with the Oyster Bay Chamber of Commerce, and the Oyster Bay Town Beach Committee whose membership includes representatives of the Citizens Beach Committee, Oyster Bay Taxpayers' Assoc., Non-partisan Civic Assoc. and the Massapequa Community Council.

"The above groups representing practically 100 percent of the population of the community are indignant when they contrast the present action of your commissioner after they have given their land to the State with the promise made when our people were being asked for their town lands. The townships have kept their agreements. Let the State also keep its agreements.

"We feel we have been deceived by your commissioner, our generosity betrayed and our confidence violated.

"Our people are looking to you to uphold the integrity of the State and to safeguard the rights of its citizens.

"Very respectfully yours,
"ELWOOD A. CURTIS"

Battle Takes Shape

The next spring on Apr. 11, 1935, Dr. Curtis, in an open statement to people of the township published in many newspapers said:

"It is a pleasure to announce to those interested in the welfare of our Township that papers have been served in the case of the Town of Oyster Bay against Robert Moses. . . . This summons and complaint which is very complete, consists of 36 pages and includes as exhibits the various deeds and contracts made between the Town and LI State Park Commission. Unless these contracts are to be considered as mere scraps of paper, The Town of Oyster Bay will win its case," he predicted optimistically.

ELWOOD A. CURTIS ROBERT MOSES

The argument got heated

"Our people are most fortunate in having secured the legal services of Eugene Hurley of Mineola. He has prepared our case with care and intelligence. Mr. Hurley furthermore, has offered to do this work without any charge of his own personal services. The $1500 which was placed in the budget for this case will be used for the printing of records and secretarial work. (Later the Hicksville Choral society donated a substantial amount to cover this cost. - Editor)

"Mr. Hurley is doing this work not because of his personal animosity for Mr. Moses, but because he has faith in our cause. Mr. Hurley has our everlasting thanks.

"On three occasions Mr. Moses asked the people of Oyster Bay to give him certain of our town lands and three times they granted that request. Our people assumed Mr. Moses to be an honorable man. Surely the people of Oyster Bay will hesitate a long, long time before entering into another proposition with Mr. Moses until such time as he has made good on his previous agreements.

"We, the people of Oyster Bay, thru Mr. Hurley have presented our case. Our cause is just and honorable. Our demands are reasonable. It will be interesting to watch how Mr. Moses will attempt to crawl out of his contracts.

"May I express my personal thanks, Curtis concluded, "to the other members of the committee, Supervisor Harry Tappen, Justice John Anderson and Councilman Jack Brandt for their cooperation. Also my gratitude to the press of our Township for their constructive, far-sighted editorial policy. Surely with such cooperation in a worthy cause, the people of Oyster Bay must ultimately be successful."

Moses Replies

Robert Moses was never one to write a one-page letter. If a four-page document would do as well, complete with some sharp and biting language. On Sept. 11, 1934, Moses wrote to Supervisor Tappen and the complete text of the four-page, single spaced letter was released to the press the same day.

Among other things, Moses charged: "The Town of Oyster Bay did not even own a large part of the land which they originally thought they were dedicating to the State, a fact later established by the so-called Seaman Gore case. The attorney who now proposes on your motion to champion a fight by Oyster Bay against tolls on the Causeway, is the same ingenious gentleman who tried to establish title in private individuals to the Seaman Gore, which included beach land, meadowland and land under water on and adjacent to Jones Beach which for about 250 years was openly and notoriously in public ownership. His claim included part of Jones Beach which had been conveyed to the State by Oyster Bay and Hempstead, and had been developed by the Long Island State Park Commission. This action first came up before Judge Humphrey at an extraordinary term of the Supreme Court ordered by Gov. Roosevelt, and was decided in favor of the State, barring private claimants and also determining that Oyster Bay, which was a party of the action, had no rights in any of this property.

On July 12 of this year the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, Second Dept., unanimously affirmed the decision of the Supreme Court. May I ask you to inform the public how much the Town of Oyster Bay owes its attorneys in connection with this action, and why the Town now proposes to hire for further futile litigation the attorney who caused all these unpaid bills in the previous action? The obligations of the Town are a matter of public record and they can be checked through the State Comptroller's office if they are not made available by you.

"The State," Moses continued, "in the development of a comprehensive system of state parks, never establishes special privileges for any individual, community, group or municipality. This would be inequitable and would result in dissatisfaction, confusion and disorder. We cannot give a special consideration and favors to the people of Oyster Bay not granted equally to the people of the Towns of Hempstead, Babylon and Islip, who have also dedicated land for the Jones Beach development. . . .

"In the construction of the Jones Beach Parkway employment has been furnished to over 3,100 men, 2,200 of which were taken from the work relief rolls of Nassau County. The County has profited in other ways from this work. Without a binding contract for tolls none of these and other benefits would have accrued to this part of Long Island.

"Your references and other of your mentors," Moses wrote Supervisor Tappen, "to hardships caused by tolls are sheer bunk. You know we are cutting the parking charges at Jones Beach in half. You know that tickets for the use of both causeway, good on all days except Sundays and holidays, will be sold at the rate of $1.00 per month, and that annual tickets at the rate of $5.00, good every day of the year, will be available so that local people and regular users of the state park will have

Who Was Dr Curtis?

Elwood Arnold Curtis, DDS, died nine years ago in 1954 at the age of 70 after a lingering illness. His former home at 100 W. Nicholas St. Hicksville, was a show place of the community and he maintained his professional office for 45 years on the second floor above a drug store at the corner of Broadway and Marie St. He had first opened his office there on Mar 1, 1909 as a young graduate of Columbia's Dental College.

His civic energy was boundless and he was an ardent supporter of Hicksville and its historic traditions. In his civic campaigns he took on many, won frequently, lost sometimes. He served as president of the Chamber of Commerce for many years, spurned all elective office except for his tenure as a member and then president of Hicksville Board of Education.

For more than 30 years he bred championship poultry and his birds entered in over 80 contests won 25 grand prizes, trophies and hundreds of ribbons. In 1929 a Curtis chicken was selected "the best bird in the world" during the Sesquicentennial Fair in Philadelphia which marked the nation's 150th anniversary. In December 1953 a white Wyandotte raised by Dr. Curtis won the grand championship award the Royal Agricultural Fair, Toronto, the first time the prize had been taken out of Canada.

During World War II he gave tireless of his time as chairman of Selective Service (Draft) Board 712 with headquarters in Hicksville.

He was active in business life of the community as a director of the former Bank of Hicksville and the LI National Bank. During the 30 years that the late Mrs. Curtis was director of the Hicksville Choral Society, more than $10,000 was raised thru a series of concerts and the beneficiaries included the Memorial Clock Tower at the high school dedicated to the men who lost their lives in World War I, the Hicksville Public Library where funds were provided for the first books obtained, and the project to raise funds for the installation of street signs in 1936.

In 1925 a referendum was held on the question of changing the name of Hicksville. The name change was defeated 944 to 317 and a celebration parade followed the decision. A newspaper account of that day said "Dr. Curtis was in the lead. The doctor was one of the hardest workers for retention of the name of the town."....

Poem As Lovely As A Tree

The curb tree plantings initiated by the Birchwood Civic Ass'n. some six years ago are presently showing their true beauty. Large, majestic, and abundant in growth, the trees have enhanced the appearance of our streets and their beauty is easily seen as one rides through our community.

In the past two weeks your writer has received numerous calls requesting that some note be placed in "THE VILLAGER" about the danger of low branches of some trees. A short walk down anyone's street will quickly attest to this. Lower tree branches on many trees are so low that pedestrians are forced to stoop or detour via the street in order to pass.

The cure for this simple. Homeowners! Please prune the lower branches. This can't possibly hurt the tree; on the contrary it should encourage top growth and additional fullness. A moment of your time now will preclude possible injury to someone later.

Let's all keep these trees in such a manner as to derive the maximum beauty for our effort.

EYE BANK LUNCHEON

Traditionally, the annual Eye Bank Luncheon tendered by the JERICHO CHAPTER OF HADASSAH, is played to a capacity house. This year, the stately Garden City Hotel will host our affair on Wednesday, September 11th, at 12 Noon.

The six course luncheon will be followed by a preview showing of the latest in fall and winter fashions staged by the well known "Celeste of Jamaica Estates." Models will be the finalist and three runner-ups of the "Miss No-Cal of 1964" contest.

Table favors for all - door prizes for many and, for one lucky couple, a two day stay at the Grant Hotel.

For a value filled afternoon, call in your early reservations too!

Car Accident Rate Ruled by Distance

What are a driver's chances of having an accident in his lifetime? It depends partly on the distance he drives, according to the National Safety Council.

A person who drives 12,000 miles a year has 1 chance in 3 of having some kind of an accident. There is 1 chance in 4 that damage will be limited to property, 1 in 35 that there will be at least one injury, and 1 in 1,300 for a fatality.

One who travels 8,000 miles a year stands 1 chance in 5 for any accident, 1 chance in 6 for a property damage accident, 1 in 55 for an injury accident, and 1 in 2,000 for a fatal one.

A driver who goes 4,000 miles a year has 1 chance in 10 for any accident, 1 in 11 that it will be property damage, 1 in 110 for injuries, and 1 in 4,000 for a fatality.

Boating Tips...

Each of the familiar buoys shown above has a story to tell. If you haven't been "getting their messages", here's what they mean: 1) Red, even-numbered nun buoys—keep them on your right entering a channel or going upstream (remember: red, right, returning). 2) Black, odd-numbered nun buoys—keep them on your left entering a channel from seaward or going upstream. 3) Black-and-white vertical stripes—mid-channel marker which can be passed on either side. 4) Black-and-red horizontal stripes—obstruction marker which should be passed on side indicated by topmost color. For example, if the top color is red, keep the buoy on the right entering a harbor. Clear all buoys by at least 50 feet, caution Mercury boating experts. Also, don't tie up to a buoy—it's a federal offense.

Syosset Tax Up, Jericho Down

Both the Jericho and Syosset School Boards released their tax rates for the year 1963-64.

In Jericho the tax rate is lower than the rate estimated when the budget was approved last May. The rate is $5.36 per $100.00 of assessed valuation 19 cents less than the previously estimated rate of $5.55 and FIVE CENTS lower than the 1962-63 rate of $5.61

In Syosset the picture is not bright. Once again the rate shows an increase. The increase over the estimate is blamed on the drop of state aid.

The new basic tax rate is $5.84, which includes the library tax of 9.6 cents. This increase is nine cents more than the rate estimated when the $8,732,453.00 budget was approved. The district received $165,719.00 less in state aid this year than they did for the 1962-63 school year.

Educator Joins Peace Corps

Lawrence J. O'Brien, 37 Rayham Dr., Syosset, received a staff appointment last week from Peace Corps Headquarters, Washington, D.C.

The Syosset educator received his two-year assignment from R. Sargeant Shriver, director of the Corps.

O'Brien, a graduate of Queens College and presently on a leave of absence from College of New Rochelle, has been assigned to French West Africa. He will direct various Peace Corps projects there.

His wife, Ilse, three children, Bill, 4 1/2, Chris 3 1/2 and Gretchen, 8 months, will accompany him on the tour of duty.

Larry has been politically active in this area for several years. He ran for New York State Senate in 1962 from the 3rd Senatorial District. He is a committeeman in 100th Election District; a vice chairman of the Syosset North Zone Democratic Organization and a former vice president in Syosset-Jericho Democratic Club.

The Fees Went Up

Thirteen years after the foregoing letter was written -- and by then the suit of the Town of Oyster Bay had lost in court -- Moses in a letter to Supervisor Donald E. Muncy of the Town of Babylon on Jan. 4, 1947 announced some drastic changes in tolls:

"The LI State Park Commission acting thru the Jones Beach State Parkway Authority will change the method of collecting toll and parking charges at Jones Beach State Park beginning May 24, 1947 for the convenience of the public and in order to effect economics to help meet the rise in labor, material and other costs of maintenance and operation. Instead of collecting one 25¢ toll fee on the causeways and a separate 25¢ parking charge at its parking fields, one 50¢ fee will be collected on the causeways leading to Jones Beach during the summer season."

(Editor's note -- As of two Sundays ago, the toll charge on the Wantagh Causeway to Jones Beach was 75¢ cents per car). In 1947, Moses said that 88 per cent of the cars using the causeways parked at Jones Beach State Park. Four percent were cruising with no stops, six percent went to locally operated beaches in the Town of Babylon and two percent to the Town of Oyster Bay Beach (Tobey).

End Of The Line

ment, on Mar. 24, 1937 (four years after the controversy began revealed that the State Court of Appeals, court of last resort in the State of New York, had decided "the toll case against the people of Oyster Bay Township in favor of the Park Commission. This is the third Court which has decided the case against us.

"This is exceedingly disappointing", he continued, "not only because our people must pay a toll to reach their own bathing beach at Tobey on the ocean which will make it impossible for many of our people under the present economic conditions to enjoy this recreational paradise but also because one does not like to lose faith in such fundamental principles as the sanctity and the binding force of a contract even though one of the contracting parties is the State of New York."

"Personally I did not believe that the highest court of this State would uphold the arguments of the RFC and Park Commission to the effect that 'Jones Beach Parkway as a whole is a new improvement for the use of which the State may properly take tolls..

"The State of New York may at any time disavow an agreement with its own political subdivisions pertaining to matters of public interest' . . . 'Had the State of New York covenanted to maintain the Wantagh Causeway as a free highway, the covenant still would not prohibit collection of tolls in order to reimburse the State for subsequent improvements."

"It is worth something for ourselves and for posterity to know what to expect from future contracts with the State Park Commission.

"But with all the disappointment the untiring efforts of Mr. Hurley stand out as an unselfish devotion to a principle and to a cause against great odds. Mr. Hurley has handled this case for the Township in a masterful manner without receiving any personal fee for his work. He has given freely of his time and of his experience and is a fine example of unselfishness and de-voiced without thought of personal gain.

"While we have lost the case," Curtis concluded, "this truth is self-evident; it eliminates the possibility of the Park Commission ever securing another foot of our Town Land on Jones Beach."

This was already evident two years before. In 1935 the Town Board adopted a resolution declining to grant any further lease for its bird sanctuary at Tobey to the State Park Commission.

LIVING UNDER LAW

Note: The New York State Bar Association offers this column as a public service.

EQUAL JUSTICE

You would really feel hurt, (wouldn't you?) for a court to decide your neighbor's case one way last week, and this week to settle yours—one just like it—another way? Especially as he won his case and you lost — on the same kind of facts.

You say: "If it was right to settle my neighbor's case last week one way, then, mine should be settled this week the same way."

And you would be right.

Justice is not just settling disputes, punishing guilty people, or protecting the innocent. That's an important part of it. But we also want laws to apply to all alike.

Well, then, you would want the judge to study similar cases before making up his mind about your case.

And that's exactly what judges do!

Precedent

That's why, when you look in on a trial, you will see and hear lawyers getting up and quoting other cases to the judge. They are, as they say, citing "precedent." They are saying, in cases like the present one—previous courts have held the law to be thus and so.

A judge does not have to agree with either lawyer. His job is to hear both sides and make up his own mind. The lawyers are stating what they think should guide him in making decisions.

Perhaps, after a trial, especially a trial where both parties have waived the jury, the judge will ask the lawyers to "submit briefs." To do so, a lawyer sets out the facts in his case to show how judges in like cases used rules of law favoring the lawyer's client.

Lawyers for both sides do this and exchange their briefs. Then the judge decides. In his decision he finds one or the other party had the most reasonable and pertinent cases cited on his side. The new case itself may be quoted in turn on future occasions in other trials.

LOVE THY NEIGHBOR BUT KNOW THE LAW

The home owners next door are known in law as adjoining landowners.

The law makes it your duty not to injure other persons or their property. For next door neighbors the law has wisely set up special rules.

For if one owner damages his neighbor's property or interferes with his use of it, the law has to settle the back fence dispute quickly. Better yet, let the parties know the law to keep the problem from arising.

Some common neighborly problems:

1. Suppose by mistake you build your home about three inches over on B's lot. You can be made to move your house off B's lot, sometimes at great cost and trouble. So before building, why not have a qualified surveyor locate your boundaries?

2. Mrs. Jones fights with her neighbor, Mrs. Smith. She claims that when she hangs the wash out, Mrs. Smith gives her dirty looks. She thinks Mrs. Smith spies on her. She wants

Mr. Jones to raise the back yard fence to 12 feet. Can he do this? No! In such a case the law calls a fence over a certain height a spite fence.

3. Friends Brown and White own lots next to each other. They plan to build houses. They like the idea of putting their garages in the back of the lots and sharing an eight foot driveway, half on Brown's lot and half on White's.

Is this wise? The common driveway may work fine. But what if Brown sells his lot and the new neighbor turns his garage into a work shop and then fences off his part of the driveway as part of his yard? You might need a law suit to find out if White can still use the driveway and have the fence taken down.

Where two people share part of each other's land, you should put this "easement" in writing and record it with the county clerk. This recording gives a buyer of either lot notice of the neighbor's rights and makes it binding.

Becomes Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. William Reimels of Uniondale have announced the engagement of their daughter Jerrie Gail to John Alan Kriz, also of Uniondale. The future bride is with INA Insurance Co. in Hempstead while Mr. Kriz is attending Hofstra University.

PAUL GIANNELLI of 133 Bay Ave. Hicksville, graduated from Archbishop Molloy High School, Jamaica on June 22, Entering Providence College, Rhode Island in Sept. 1963, he was awarded a Regents Scholarship and a Scholar Incentive Award Scholarship by Italian Charities of America; plaque and savings bond awarded by Grand Street Boys Foundation for Zeal in the Pursuit of Excellence; silver medal for being tenth in a class of 242.

Walter G. Stackler and Leonard L. Frank have led the field in building construction on Long Island. In the early days the potato fields of Hicksville and surrounding communities mushroomed into developments designed and built by this firm to give many young families a place in the sun. . . Stackler and Frank purchased the property on North Broadway, Hicksville and pioneered the first "Regional Shopping Center" on Long Island, at MID ISLAND PLAZA with its 5 story GERTZ plus 88 fine fashion and service stores. . . Since 1956 Stackler and Frank have expanded the shopping facilities at Mid Island with top national chain stores. . . Almost recent announcement tells of the "Twin-Theatre" with 2,000 seats plus an Automobile Accessory and Service Center to be built on the Plaza property this year. . . The firm is presently building close to 200 homes in the Hauppauge, L.I. in the $21,000 to $26,000 price range. . . The Urban Renewal project at Rockville Center, said to be a model for New York State, is another Stackler & Frank program in conjunction with Herbert Z. Gold. . . This week the firm announced that they will build at Islip a group of 2-story garden apt houses with over 338 suites. . . Both Stackler and Frank are recognized in the building trade throughout the country as experts.

Lenard L. Frank is immediate past president of the National Association of Home Builders and has consulted with President Kennedy and the Attorney General on many building problems on his trips around the country. . . Walter G. Stackler is a Vice-president of the New York State Home Builders Assn. and both are Past Presidents of the L.I. Home Builders Institute. . . On many occasions Stackler and Frank who are very active in the Hicksville community, have been approached by people who have said, "We bought our home from you over 10 years ago, and this is our growing family etc." . . . Speaking of construction here in the Town of Oyster Bay it rose during July according to Ed Gagnor, of the Town Building Dept. . . Additional new homes are rising on farm property between Myers and Burns Ave., some 25 homes are anticipated. . . Another Milk Store scheduled to open in Hicksville next month. . . Loretta Rissel, Miss Rheingold will appear in person next Tuesday evening, at Gertz for fashion show at 8 P.M. . . We hear that a "Miss Seven-Teen" will be selected to reign at Mid Island Plaza during their SEVENTH BIRTHDAY - more on this as School opens. . . The three candidates, seeking party designation in the Sept. 5 primary against three incumbent GOPers Arthur Levy of Syosset, George E. Bailey Jr., of Hicksville and William Musso of Plainview.

They have attacked the incumbent councilman as party hacks who take orders from political bosses and have vowed to return town government to the people. FAVOR OFF TRACK BET

To the Editor:
The three Republican insurgent candidates seeking councilman seats on the Oyster Bay Town Board today (Aug. 13) came out firmly in favor of a referendum on off-track betting.

In a joint statement, the three said: "There is no other moral or ethical solution than to let the people decide for themselves whether or not they want legalized betting as an aid to tax relief."

It is almost incredible that one man can set himself as deity, protector of the people against themselves and as an omnipotent legislator who knows the desires of the community without consulting the people."

Assembly Speaker Joseph

Carino, who also is leader of Nassau's Republican Party, has publicly scored off-track betting and the need for a referendum. He has said he knows best what is good for the people.

The Chamber of Commerce's new holiday plan to place flags on parking meters along Broadway will request participation from a non-veteran organization on Memorial Day — that being a busy day for the veterans.

The Military Pay Bill passed by the Senate includes additional pay for servicemen under fire such as Viet Nam. This was one of the proposals the V.F.W. was fighting for. Another interesting feature in the pay bill is an automatic increase for widows of veterans who died in service.

The latest V.F.W. magazine has an interesting article in it on how United States postage stamps are helping stamp out anti-Americanism all over the world.

The State of Maryland has issued license plates with the letters V.F.W. preceding the numbers. This is a unique idea for recruiting and publicity. Here's hoping other states adopt the idea.

In the field of entertainment, Official Films are releasing a series of films called "Battle Line." It is designed to show the public how World War II looked through the eyes of survivors on both side of important campaigns. They boast of newly found war footage never before available to the public.

If all the people come to the picnic that say they will, Mike Znachuk will probably spend his first night at peace with the world. Here is a guy who is putting everything in to it to assure its success.

The best buy aroundtown is the 3 year subscription to the Mid-Island HERALD. Along with the paper a 3 x 5 American Flag is given FREE with every subscription. A good buy any day.

WE WILL BE CALLING SUNDAY AUG 18

JERICHO FIRE DEPARTMENT

The 80 men of the Jericho Fire Department are All Volunteers.

These men are your neighbors, all local residents who are ready and willing, 24 hours a day throughout the year, to answer any fire or emergency call within the community.

Because they are volunteers, doing a competent job, the homeowners of the community are saved thousands of dollars in property taxes.

Because they are trained and efficient, the area enjoys favorable fire insurance rates.

As volunteer firemen, they neither receive nor ask any remuneration for their services. Their only compensation is the knowledge that their fellow residents and neighbors are behind them and appreciate their efforts.

A positive way in which all homeowners can express their appreciation is to be as generous as possible during the annual WELFARE FUND APPEAL which takes place SUNDAY, AUG. 18.

The funds received are used to cover expenses of the firemen that are not allowed by law to be covered by the annual Fire District tax budget.

A uniformed member of Jericho Fire Dept. will deliver important literature pertaining to the Fund Drive Sun. Aug. 18, 1963.
