Make Further Changes In Nov 23 Referendum

Further revisions in the technical details of the scheduled Nov. 23 referendum of Hicksville School District upon a series of questions including an addition of rooms to the Senior High School appeared eminent this week. The school board has set Nov. 12 for a public hearing on the proposition and voter registration days on Nov. 13 and 16.

Since Aug. 30 when the referendum date was established, there have been several variations in the total package. The five questions have been reduced to four, eliminating the proposed purchase of three-quarters of an acre known as the Koutensky property next to the high school grounds on Division Ave. Upon receipt of expert appraisals of the land, the Board members appeared to feel the cost would be excessive.

Question no. 1 remains the proposal to add 22 permanent classrooms, although at least one board member feels this might be altered when more conclusive enrollment data for the current term becomes available some time this month.

Question no. 2 has been reduced from $595,000 to $495,000 by reducing the square footage from 16,000 for storage and 16,000 for administrative use, to 14,000 in each area. The location of this structure has been shifted a couple of times but now appears destined to be attached to the high school, fronting on Division Ave. to become eligible for a state financial grant which will substantially reduce the cost to the District.

Question no. 3 (formerly no. 5) provides for the demolition of buildings and structures on the so-called Lumin property which is part of the high school site.

Question no. 4 remains the acquisition of about three acres adjacent to the Willet Ave. School. A new complication was outlined at the Board of Education meeting last Thursday by Superintendent Donald F. Abt. Details have not been worked out, but it involves some kind of alternate voting arrangement between the first two questions to make both or either project eligible for state financial grant.

On or about Nov. 4, all residents are scheduled to receive in the mails an eight-page brochure giving full details of the various proposals, need, anticipated cost, etc.

This week the Taxpayers Educational Assoc. for the Children of Hicksville, which calls itself TEACH, announced its executive committee had decided the proposed addition to the High School is inadequate and listed a series of questions it plans to ask Superintendent Abt and Board President George A. Jackson at an open meeting on Oct. 17 at Levittown Hall, Hicksville.

Three of the seven members of the School Board were elected under the sponsorship of TEACH: Jackson and F. Dominic Sabatella in 1961, defeating Allen Carpenter and Walter Schreiber, and Irving Lawrence earlier this year, defeating Jerome Zettler. A TEACH candidate in 1962, Phyllis Neuberger, was defeated by William A. Bruno Jr.

Oldest Orthodox Temple to Expand

Construction on the first phase of the new Synagogue for Congregation Shaare Zedek of Hicksville is scheduled to start in the latter part of October. The site consists of approximately two acres located on New South Road between Old Country Road and Plainview Road. Shaare Zedek (Gates of Righteousness) is noted for its fine religious school, under the leadership of Rabbi Eli Skatist. The Congregation which was organized in 1919 with a membership of 20 families, has been located on East Barclay St. in Hicksville, since 1925. The new expansion program can serve an ultimate membership of 400 families.

An unusual design is planned for the Synagogue, included in the 10,000 square foot first phase of construction is a permanent Sanctuary, whose arches utilize the structural shape of the Star of David. Two hundred permanent seats are provided with expansion facilities to seat an additional 600 persons. Other facilities are a large social hall with a dining capacity of 300, classrooms, youth facilities, meeting rooms, equipment and recreational areas. The building is planned around a large open garden court to afford privacy from the adjacent residential areas.

The first stage of construction is budgeted at $170,000 with an ultimate budget of $500,000. Harold Gottlieb, President of the Congregation, anticipates dedication of the building in Spring of 1964. The Architectural and Engineering contract for the Synagogue was awarded to Keith I. Himer, Associated, architects of Hicksville, specialists in the field of religious and community center design.

Characters Well Remembered

By Fred J. Noeth

The curious thing about local history is the fact that the "character" is often better remembered than many of the most worthy citizens. We offer today the stories about two odd gentlemen of other days and in this respect Hicksville does not stand alone. For example to cite one example Farmingdale had a resident who achieved fame by claiming he could convert ordinary tap water into gasoline.

Social scientists can probably explain why quaint personalities are better remembered than the less colorful businessmen, educators, businessmen and manufacturers of earlier days in the community history.

We offer a little review of Peter Blydenburg, better and more affectionately known in his day as "Nigger Pete", and one "Yockup". Both, upon their passing, were publicly mourned. Yockup became the subject of an oil painting which was publicly exhibited and there are many present day Hicksville residents who can recite little items about him and his activities.

While Hicksville has grown from the small town status where the town character thrives there are currently a number of likely candidates for historic remembrance. However, to mention the present day personalities by name would be to encourage a possible libel suit. We'll leave it for another generation to record their popularity.

UNCLE PETE

The story of Nigger Pete must, of necessity, be rather sketchy. While editing another newspaper, we wrote a rather full story about him a decade ago. However, those files are not available to us and we doubt if they are available to anyone else.

To call a man a "nigger" today is to invite all kinds of civil rights expressions. Peter Blydenburg was a non-white but his title was given with affection. Upon his passing the community subscribed to the purchase of a cemetery plot and a headstone and he may be the only non-white buried in Hicksville's only cemetery.

Pete was a bootblack and plied his trade in the community. On weekends he dressed in his finest which included a top hat.

A community newspaper of the era, reporting upon the demonstration of a fire extinguisher being given for the volunteer firemen, duly recorded a number of leading citizens in the audience, including "Nigger Pete".

Curiously, both lived to advanced age. Pete died at the age of 74 and thirty five years later Yockup died when he was 73.

Peter Blydenburg, also known as Uncle Peter, died in 1903. A historian of the period writes "he was known far and wide for his peculiarities". The Grand Central Hotel located in its day on about the present day site of the Professional Building, north of the RR crossing, was a show place and center of community social activity. Uncle Peter worked at the Grand Central.

In addition to the main Hotel building with a semi-circular entrance driveway and a flag pole in a flower bed also included a two story building which has just recently been demolished to make way for the RR crossing elimination. In recent times it was the location of Aetna Electric.

Back in the days of Uncle Peter, this building was a hall 108 by 80 feet with bowling alleys on the first floor and a large hall with a stage and dressing rooms on the second floor, providing seating for 600.

When Peter Blydenburg died

the whole town contributed to finance his funeral and a headstone which can be seen to this day along the west fence in Plain-lawn Cemetery on Old Country Rd., was provided. The wake was held in that second floor ballroom of the Grand Central Hotel.

STORY OF YOCKUP

H. Hubert Offenloch wrote the following about the passing of Yockup in 1937: He described Jacob Konrad Schwab (his right name) as one of Hicksville's most unique and mysterious characters.

"Only the memory of this bearded character remains. And perhaps the most readily conjured picture of him is that of a klondike-booted, straw-hatted, multi-coated gent energetically pushing a clothes laden wheelbarrow down any of Hicksville's streets.

"Yockup, that being the English spelling for the German pronunciation of his name, was a hardy adventurer and the blood of the wanderer flowed in his veins. He resided sporadically where several kind hearted villagers extended him shelter.

"He was a mysterious character because it was never (Continued on Page 11)

THE PORTRAIT of "Yockup", a copy of which is herewith reproduced, by a strange coincidence was completed by W. Chester Hagan shortly before Jacob Konrad Schwab passed away in 1937. Mr. Hagan, who resides at 106 W. Marie St., Hicksville, declined an offer of $150 for it from a prominent merchant. Since "Yockup" could not be made to pose for the oil painting, the artist made sketches from time to time as their paths crossed on the streets of Hicksville.

Dear Lynda:

Next Tuesday is the anniversary of the great Chicago fire of 1871....We shall all miss CHARLES G. VOIGT who passed away earlier this week after a brief illness. We met him almost daily in Hicksville Post Office and we don't believe we ever saw him wear an overcoat or a hat. He and his father and grandfather had a part in the building of many substantial homes in Hicksville and vicinity over the years. The Voigt sawmill stood on E. Nicholas St. in the area between the Legion Hall and stores which is now a parking field. Twenty or thirty years ago, whenever there was a fire call, several of his men were always permitted to leave their jobs and answered the daytime alarms. It didn't help mill production but probably saved many homes and lives....This Saturday the 6th annual Homecoming Day for Hicksville High Alumni Assoc. LOU MILLEVOLTE is chairman....Present thinking on escalator which may some day be installed at the Hicksville RR station is to have it operate "up" only, probably for reason of cost....TEACH, which has not been heard of since the school board elections, is back in the news regarding the Nov. 23 referendum on an addition to the high school. The group is unhappy because they feel a 72-room addition is inadequate. And there are some on the school board who think it is too much....

Get well wishes to ADELAIDE LYNCH of Cedar St., recuperating from surgery at Mercy Hospital....Birthday greetings to RONALD McCORMACK of Pine st. who celebrated his natal day on Monday of this week....MRS. RICHARD (HOPE) CROCE was given a surprise baby shower at the Hi-Way Tavern dining room last Sunday by her sister, DOLORES MATINEZ....

HENRY G. EISEMANN, well-known Hicksville insurance executive, is co-chairman for the $100-a-plate black-tie dinner of Long Island civic and business leaders at Garden City Hotel on Oct. 24 honoring banker AUGUSTUS B. WELLER....WILLIAM A. FORCE & Co. of Plainview received an award from the Long Island Assoc. this week for an industrial building under 25,000 square feet. IRVING J. HIRSHMAN was architect. ELSTON H. SWANSON, president of Instruments for Industry Inc., Hicksville, has been elected a vice president for Nassau of the Long Island Assoc....WERNER LANSING is no longer head of the Arrowhead Boy Scout District. He has moved to Syosset....

We were sorry to hear that HENRY K. MAGILL, formerly of Old Country Rd., Hicksville, passed away in August.... Also to hear that JOHN J. MCNEIL, father of John V. McNeil of 53 Bridal La., Hicksville died at Fort Lauderdale, Fla. on Sept. 26. Our condolences to both families....

CHARLES G. VOIGT

Religious services were held at the Henry J. Stock Funeral Home on Wednesday evening at 8:30 p.m. for Charles G. Voigt of 121 W. Marie St., Hicksville, who died Sept. 29. The Rev. Cranston Clayton officiated. The funeral took place Thursday morning at 10 o'clock with interment at L.I. National Cemetery. Mr. Voigt, a retired business man, died Sunday, Sept. 29, in Nassau Hospital, Mineola, after a brief illness.

Mr. Voigt was born Sept. 28, 1896 in Oyster Bay. His family had lived in Hicksville for more than 100 years. His grandfather, Charles Voigt, came to Hicksville when there were only three houses in town and built a shop and began manufacturing window sashes and doors. Charles G. Voigt operated the mill until his retirement.

He was a director of the Bank of Hicksville and the Hicksville Savings & Loan Association. He was a World War I veteran, a member of the American Legion,

MICHAEL MATTES

HICKSVILLE--Michael Mattes of 223 Duffy Ave., here, died Sept. 27. He was the husband of Catherine (nee Donoghue) and the father of Joseph, Michael, Raymond Mattes and Catherine Fryer and Gertrude Remsen. He is also survived by his sisters, Bertha Druhl, Mary Hoffman and Rose Schonborn, 14 grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

Mr. Mattes resided at the Henry J. Stock Funeral Home until Tuesday when a Solemn Requiem Mass was offered at St. Ignace Loyola R. C. Church at 10 o'clock. Burial followed at Holy Rood Cemetery.

Charles G. Voigt

Wagner Post, of the Long Island Horticultural Society, the Royal Arcanum and the New York Lumber Trade Association.

Truly an ambassador of good will, he was ever ready to perform any task for the betterment of the community. All who knew him have lost a loyal friend. There is no greater praise than this.

He is survived by his wife, Rose, his cousin, Edna Voigt, his niece, Mrs. Ann Antia Sheehan; two nephews Elwood and Henry Curtis.

American Legion services were held at 8:00 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 2 followed by religious services at 8:30 p.m. in the Stock Funeral Home, Hicksville. Burial was Thursday in Long Island National Cemetery, Pine Lawn.

Christian Mothers Start New Term

By Kathleen M. Hecker

The St. Ignatius Loyola Auxiliary of Christian Mothers, Hicksville, held their first meeting of the school year on Sept. 23.

Mrs. George L. Ryan, President, opened the meeting promptly at 8:15 P.M. and extended a hearty welcome to all the members. She then introduced the members of the Executive Board and the chairmen of the standing committees for the year; Mrs. Paul J. Connor, Vice President; Mrs. Lawrence McCaffrey, Recording Secretary; Mrs. John J. Brennan, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. James E. Wright, Treasurer; Mrs. Patrick McGee, Program; Mrs. Joseph J. Hecker, Publicity; Mrs. Frank Meiner, Typing; Mrs. Thomas Groody, and Mrs. John Seery, Mimeograph; Mrs. Joseph Gough, Membership; Mrs. Arthur Murphy, Hospitality; Mrs. John Petrone, Transportation; Mrs. Joseph Terlikosky, Medical; Mrs. Richard McNeely, Dark Horse; Mrs. John S. Horney Refreshments; Mrs. Edward L. Brimlow, Candy; Mrs. Peter O'Reilly, Ice-Cream; Mrs. Andrew Novellino, Milk; Mrs. John Mulholland and Mrs. Frank Dammhauser, Uniforms; Mrs. Robert J. Needer, First Aid.

In order to have the organization run smoothly, it was explained by Mrs. Ryan, it is necessary to have the cooperation of all the mothers in extending every possible help to the committee chairmen. A list was handed out to all members present, giving a resume of each committee's work in the hope that more of the mothers will volunteer their services and thereby better serve our children.

The Principal, Sr. M. Venard, O.P., welcomed the Mothers to the first meeting and introduced six new teaching sisters. They are Sisters Melita, Jude, Martha, Bridget Mary, Mary Floretta, David Marie, and Ellen Therese. Sister pointed out that the very best available books had been purchased for the pupils this year at a great expense to the school. Volunteers are needed for the Milk Program, the Cafeteria and the Library, and Sister expressed her appreciation for the help already extended these committees by some of the members.

Coaches are needed for the girl's basketball team in the CVO, as are Den Mothers to help our girls in the Girl Scouts and Brownies. Instead of meeting the teachers each month before the business meeting, there will be an "Open School Week" starting Wednesday, Nov. 13th, when parents can meet the teachers and discuss at greater length any problems that may have come up. On Monday, Oct. 14th and Tuesday, Oct. 15th there will be SRA testing of each pupil of grades 4, 6 and 7. This will give a comparison rating to every other student in the United States. An Art Exhibit is in the planning stage and the rules will be given later. A reading clinic will be established as an annex to the one now at Molloy College. This is not just for problem readers but to improve the comprehension, increase reading speed and vocabulary. It will not be limited to pupils of St. Ignatius School, but will be for all children in the area who are interested. Applications for the cooperative high school tests must be in the office by Sept. 24th. Starting Sept. 25th, released time will begin with dismissal each Wednesday afternoon from 12 o'clock to 12:15. In order not to tie up traffic, 14 buses will leave from Cherry St. and 14, as usual, from Nicholas St. Sister again expressed her appreciation for the cooperation given by the mothers.

On Sunday, Nov. 17th, after all the masses, a Cake Sale will be held in the School basement. The Chairmen for this affair will be Mrs. Benjamin Benaimino and Mrs. Thomas Riley.

The Executive Board recommended that a skating party be included in January's social events and that the Book of the Month Club for the children be continued again this year.

The Rev. Leo J. Goggin, moderator, welcomed the members and congratulated them on the good attendance at the first meeting. He reminded them of their serious obligation to attend these meetings in order to show an interest in the children and because the teachers need the cooperation of the mothers. Father pointed out that our children are attending school not only for a formal education but also to receive training in moral habits. He said that as mothers, our job is not only cooking, nursing and helping with the lessons, but also to give powerful example to our children in practicing virtue in all that we do. All were urged to attend the mission starting on Oct. 6.

Father Goggin also mentioned the start of the fund-raising campaign for the new Diocesan High Schools. Because the critical adolescent years are in such need of good training and guidance the success of this campaign is very important to all of us. The Very Rev. Msgr. Timothy J. Flynn, Director of Radio and T.V. Communications for the Archdiocese of New York, was the guest speaker. Msgr. Flynn also directs the Bureau of Information, is Director of the Vatican Pavilion at the 1964 World's Fair and Observer at the United Nations. A very interesting film was shown of the ground-breaking ceremonies of the Vatican Pavilion. Monsignor explained that the Church welcomed this opportunity to speak to those outside the fold. That the Pavilion will be more than a museum in which to view the Pietà, but will be the means of modern day apostolate. The theme of the Pavilion will be that the Church as Christ still living in the world, Christ teaching, Christ loving and Christ sanctified.

Mrs. Patrick McGee, program chairman, thanked Msgr.

Flynn for a most interesting and informative evening. She announced the program for next month will be a "Hat Show", sponsored by the S.J.H. Green Stamp Co. A prize will be awarded to women who can bring in hats dating prior to 1920. Ten other prizes will be awarded to the audience.

Mrs. Eugene Dämmer won the Dark Horse prize for this month.

Letter to Editor

What Of McCormick?

To the Editor:

For more than a decade the people of Hicksville have been told by various, successive School Boards of wisdom of Dr. Felix McCormick of Columbia Teachers College, Institute of Field Studies, in regard to the school building needs of this District. From time to time the School District has re-employed Dr. McCormick and his staff to update his projections the most recent being only last year with a report rendered at a cost of about eight thousand dollars at the beginning of this year.

HAPPY HARPASTON...The ancient Greeks had a word for it... They called it "Harpaston". The Romans, not to be outdone, added a few goals and referred to it as "Follis". Ball kicking and running games are also mentioned in Biblical literature. Fact is, the Japanese also indulged in their own version of this "fall fantasy," over 2000 years ago. They dressed gaily for the occasions and the rulebook stated clearly... "For Nobility only". Probably because only the nobled hierarchy could afford the monthly premiums, shelled out for Blue Cross, H.I.R. and G. H.L. This was in the 3rd century B.C. In the 13th century, the T.V. sets of England were blacked out by Louie's invasion fleet but utter chaos was probably averted when "Futebale", was dishied up by the House of Commons. It was played in the streets of merrie old London by groups of men, women, girls, boys...and even cats and dogs. The game had no rules and very often, over 2 to 300 people, of all ages, indulged in this "Block Party, Dimeybrook" game. Besides today's game of "football", there were no bleachers to seat the fans. To be an onlooker, meant participation, whether a guy liked it or not. It was as wild and as woolly as dealers' choice poker and unquestionably brought about the first discussions of a government, health plan. But like it or not, the kings of the time finally had to put the black spot on the action, for it interfered with archery practice...Then came the 15th century...The Italian version was called "Calcio." Teams were set up at each end of the town square and a great deal of pomp and ceremony took place. The teams were later used by the bruised battered players, who were forced on occasion to seek solace, in a few cups of "Chianti" and a deep dish of sweetmeats and pizza. Then came Rugby, Soccer and finally "Early American Football." This without a doubt was the wildest invention of them all, and an eleven, often meant at least 25 men on a side. (Refer to the first Principles of Rugby game in 1869.)

After the first tackle, the red swallowed his whistle, string and all and the result was a fray, only enjoyed by those with maniacal tendencies. The weak fainted and the strong went on to rear ancestors, who eventually became the loyal members of the Comet Rootin' Fraternity. So here we are, again, at the year '63 and the C.R.F. is all set to fade the action with Homecoming Harpiston, of their own. Here's the opening lineup, that will probably be kicking off the Island Trees, this Sat. at 2 p.m. (Home) L.E. Grace Cerone, L.T. Bill Miltenberg, L.G. Joe Sarpo, Center, Pete Martin, R.G. Sam Carfora, R.T. Cliff Giles, R.E. Paul Rondone, Q.B. Bruce Damm, L.H. Steve Schuster, F.B. Larry Wesolko, and R. H. Charley Triola.

TOMORROW'S VARSITY...Jr. Varsity football coaches Bob Tricka, Bill Meyer and Ken Kiosley, report in with a Jayvee team, featuring more depth and balance than last year's squad. "Greater overall speed, especially in the backfield, will be the key, this season", Tricka said. "We have four breakaway runners in halfbacks, Pat Argento, John Molloy, Bill Kraft and Tom Cara." "The fullback slot is still a question mark", he added...It's between Neil Zeigler, Leon Kaprinski and Sal Pascarella...Glenn Olsen will be the quarterback. Other boys mentioned, included a well balanced line, centered by Bob Hill, Barry Damm and Len Casalino, Guards, Ralph Sonntag and Bill Brock, tackles and Bill Pyffe, a converted quarterback at left end, with Mark Corone at right. Look for these youngsters to open against Island Trees at 10:30 am (away). Last week they looked good in bouncing Baldwin High School in the first scrimmage of the season...3 touchdowns to 1.

Varsity Booters, SPLIT PAIR...Chalk up a 1-1 season for the Comet Soccer team, thus far. At the beginning of last week, they plundered, Plainedge 4-1, behind the fine shoemanship displayed by scorers, Neil Borrocas (2 goals) Rich Medina and John Walker. In the latter part of the week, they dropped a 2-1 decision to the Clarke, Rams, Rich Medina accounted for the lone Comet marker in this fray.

THE GOLDEN YEARS (CONTINUED) 1930-31 were so-so years for the Hicksville grid-men. In '30, they knocked off a 500 season with a 4-4 record; losing the first 4 games to Mount Vernon, Port Washington, Great Neck and Patchogue. After that, they caught fire and pulled off 4 straight wins over Roslyn, Manhasset, Glen Cove and Huntington. The following boys received Varsity letters: George Hartmiller (Capt.), Charles Stoltz, Frank Morselli, Fred Kuhne, Ray Crossley, Frank Roettinger, Bob Westby, Nat Kanter, Jim Hall, Louis Kappstatter, Bill McCabe, Stan Slovenick, Dom Sabatella (Capt. Elect) Frank Abramovsky, George Hartmiller, Larry Reinhard, Joe Israelowicz and Bob Friedman (Mgr.). Then came '31 with a 3-4-2 record. Present School Board member Dominick Sabatella had the distinction of captaining this team, which rang up a high scoring record for Hicksville High. The win was a 77-6 affair over Long Beach and the record still stands today. Other members of the team winning Varsity letters were Frank Abramovsky, Paul Hill, Jim Hall, Louis Kappstatter, Bill McCabe, Larry Reinhard, Frank Roettinger, Stan Slovenick, Bob Westby, Bill Brown, Ralph McCabe, Myron Darmohray, Harry Guckenberger, Glen Kerbs, Phil Kessler, Paul Lum, George Miller, John Proctor, Jack Quinlan, Wally Deisher, Bill Christenson and George Schlauch (Mgr.).

Next week, the 32nd season. This was the year that the Board of Education passed a ruling, that no Post Graduates would be allowed to represent the High School in any sport. The ruling was made public two days before the start of the season. Boys excluded by this ruling were Dom Sabatella, Glen Kerbs, Alec Romie and Louis Kappstatter.

To The Editor
West Birchwood News
Jericho, New York

Dear Sir:

I was shocked to read the letter of Mrs. Rhoda Ludwig, of the East Birchwood Education Committee, which appeared in The Villager of September 12, 1963, and which revealed that the East Birchwood Civic Association has been behaving in an arbitrary manner with respect to matters affecting education in Jericho.

Mrs. Ludwig's letter showed that the East Birchwood Board of Directors not only ignored the recommendations as to the pool and bus garage, of its own Education Committee, which spent many hours investigating and studying these issues on which Jericho residents were to vote, but that it took it upon itself to make directly contrary recommendations without offering any reasons to the committee without informing the community that it was overruling its own committee, and without even giving the residents of Jericho any basis for the Board's position, except the unexplained words "that the situation had not changed". We are still unaware of what "situation" they were talking about.

This behavior of East Birchwood's Board of Directors appears wholly irresponsible. West Birchwood residents are, unfortunately, deeply involved because it is education throughout Jericho which is threatened.

In view of the seriousness of Mrs. Ludwig's charges, and the statement of The Villager's editor that he had referred the letter "to the executive branch of the civic association for their answer", I cannot understand why there was no response from this executive branch in the Villager of September 26, 1963. Surely, all of Jericho is entitled to an explanation of why the East Birchwood Board has ignored and insulted its Education Committee, the best informed individuals, as to Jericho school matters, and choose to ask people to vote against that committee's recommendations. Despite the pious words of The Villager's editor, it seems that the East Birchwood Directors, probably because so many of them live in Syosset, have very little interest in improving the Jericho School system.

I respectfully submit that in these circumstances people who do not live in the Jericho school district should not vote on or determine how Jericho people should vote and spend their school dollars.

I sincerely hope that our East Birchwood neighbors will correct any past differences so that together with all residents of Jericho, everything necessary will be done to protect and better our school system.

Sincerely,
DONALD S. HIRSCHORN

REPAIR OF SIDEWALKS, APRONS GETS UNDERWAY IN AREA

Blood Bank Coming Oct 22

By Myron A. Kanter

On Tuesday, Oct. 22nd, the Jericho Community Blood Bank will again conduct its annual blood drive at the Jericho Jewish Center. Blood donations will be accepted between the hours of 3 to 9 PM. The Jericho Blood Bank is a non-sectarian community service.

A donation of 1 pint of blood annually per family will insure an unlimited supply of the blood that your immediate family may need during the year.

All residents of Jericho and all residents of School District #15 are eligible for this plan. This is a very remarkable and very unusual opportunity to assure your family a full supply of blood for whatever medical contingency.

As a special note, it is no longer necessary to fast before giving blood. Experience has proven that this regulation could be modified. Donors may now eat a normal breakfast, lunch or dinner. Just try to avoid heavy fats, salad dressing or cream.

If for any reason (pregnancy, a cold, other illness or weakness) your blood is not suitable, then you will become covered and your immediate family may be entitled to the blood it may need as a reward for coming down and offering to donate.

Repairs on sidewalks and driveway aprons, a point of irritation to many West Birchwood residents, got underway on Tuesday of this week confirming a promise of Alfred J. Hicks, Deputy Director of the Nassau County Planning Commission, made at a well-attended meeting of the West Birchwood Civic Assoc. Board of Directors on Wednesday night, Sept. 25, in Cantigue School.

Hicks told the Board of Directors that $19,000 had already been committed to reconstruction, one third each by Sossnow and Schwartz, Residential and S & S Contractors. The corrective work will be performed in Sections 10 thru 13. He indicated that work will definitely be performed in sections 14 thru 16 next spring as he already has commitments for it.

Hicks reiterated that any work to be performed will be at his discretion and he will determine whether a condition will be repaired or not. However, he stressed that he will be as fair as possible.

Work will commence on all east and west streets to be followed by reconstruction on north-south streets. Hicks cautioned all homeowners that the use of rock salt on walks and driveways less than five years old should be avoided as it has a detrimental effect on cement.

Hicks also confirmed that Sossnow and Schwartz is putting up a new model home adjacent to the Long Island Expressway and that there will be a new roadway running adjacent to the Expressway.

Bowling League

by Maurice B. Torgove

This year's quest for the championship promises to be the toughest yet despite the fact that it wasn't decided until the final week the last two seasons. The teams appear to be well balanced with just about every one of them in good position to move up front with a hot week. Right now Sam Goldstein's Steelers and Jack Rubenstein's Redskins are leading the pack but can find themselves in seventh or eighth place next week if they let up. Newcomer Frank Fiore paced the league with an eye-catching 220, followed by Carl Zydny 213, Vinnie Greco 209, Hank Halberstadt 205 and Harold Gaines 205.

In team efforts, the Eagles composed of Vinnie Greco, Neil DeLuca, Frank Fiore, Bill Bartman and Seymour Berkman banged out an 884, high game for the year. About three minutes the later the Cowboys made up of Hank Halberstadt, Maurice Torgove, Irv Reinhardt, Jerry Messerman and Al Werthman knocked out an 842, just two pins off the pacesetters.

JERICHO JIBES: Carl Zydny throws one of the most devastating balls in the league. Ed Greenberger one of the most improved bowlers in the league finishing last year with a 129 and now sporting a healthy 150. Herb (Radar) Nussbaum still mysterious everyone with his uncanny approach.

by visiting the troop. The Scout troop meets every Thursday evening, 7:30 P.M. at the Jericho School.

School Board Approves Study

By Selma Constant

At the regular Jericho Board of Education meeting Sept. 26 many items of vital interest to Jericho school district residents were discussed and voted upon. The Board voted to approve a pilot study in modern mathematics for the elementary grades. The elementary principals and Dr. Westfall have been studying modern mathematics methods for two years and have decided on three possible programs. They will be used this year to determine which holds most promise for Jericho students. Some Grade 1 classes will have one method, Grades 2-6 will have traditional math but supplemented with another modern math method and Kindergarten and some classes in Grades 1-3 will have a third method. The teachers involved have had good preparation in teaching modern math and a key teacher will conduct field tests which will help in the final determination as to which method to use.

A chemistry teacher at Jericho High School has received a grant from the National Science Foundation to conduct graduate level research. The Board tentatively approved this research to be conducted at the High School and students would be involved in the project. This is an accordance with an improved academic policy, common in other districts, which the Board wishes to encourage in Jericho. Dr. Thomas Carey, Superintendent of Schools, reported to the Board that Department heads will be appointed annually and will be given additional remuneration. Dr. Carey also will prepare a list of the duties of key personnel for the Board.

The Board adopted a policy entitled Grievance Procedures for Personnel of the Jericho Schools. The Board held many meetings with the faculty in order to arrive at this policy and now any teacher can follow a definite procedure on grievances. As a result of the Teacher Grievance meetings a Professional Advancement Council was established for the purpose of capitalizing on the intellectual resources of the teaching staff in policy making decisions involving the Jericho Schools. The Council will consist of 7 faculty members who will express their opinions to Dr. Carey who will relay them to the Board of Education.

The part-time school treasurer has resigned and the Board will be sending notices to all civic associations asking interested people to apply to the Board for the part-time position.

The entire Board of Education will attend the New York State School Boards Association meeting in Syracuse, Oct. 27-29.

Radio Appeal Locates Missing Boy

A 12-year-old boy who had been missing for almost 24 hours from his home in Hicksville, was found by a neighbor who heard the missing persons appeal over station WHLI on his car radio.

Friends of the family said young Stephen Woerful had spent most of the night and following morning wandering around the sprawling Farmer's Market in Hicksville.

He was spotted in nearby Plainview-15 minutes after a neighbor, Howard Anderson, had heard WHLI's missing persons appeal. The appeal had been broadcast at the request of the boy's father Frank, after a search directed quietly by the police at Mr. Woerful's request had failed to produce results.

The Woerfuls live at 33 Smith St. in Hicksville and Anderson lives nearby at 503 South Oyster Bay Road.

Young Stephen appeared unharmed, despite his 24-hour adventure.

The Women's League of Trinity Lutheran Church, Hicksville, held a luncheon and fashion show on Wednesday at the Westbury Manor. Members of the league were models.

Education Group Plans Debate

Freedom in Education, Woodland Ave. Chapter, announces its first regular monthly meeting to be held in the cafeteria of the Woodland Ave. School in Hicksville on Tuesday evening, Oct. 6, at 8 o'clock p.m.

The chairman, George Martin, says "that currently active local organizations all appear to represent the same singular point of view. If these organizations truly represent the viewpoint of the citizens of Hicksville", he continued, "then we have a remarkably harmonious community which thinks alike on all matters. But, he concluded, such is not the true state of affairs. We will always have at least two opposing viewpoints on all issues, and thus it becomes imperative that the people of this town be afforded the opportunity to hear and to evaluate all prevailing opinions, rather than just a single viewpoint."

Freedom in Education hopes to present, at its initial meeting a debate between Edward Werner, a member of the John Birch Society, and Mel Brenner, a member of the American Civil Liberties Union. The topic of discussion is "Censorship".

Ten Pin Talk

By Henri Dockswell

As the evening's bowling ended, small groups were spotted here and there in earnest conversation. The topic? "Will Murray Iscoe's Bulls win a game before the first half is over?"

"Chances are we will," moaned Murray, "but when?" The Bulls have lost 9 out of 9 and are resting comfortably in last place. The pressure will be on any team that opposes them. The shame of losing to the Bulls should scare the pants off anybody. Sid Simon's #9 team is next on the Bulls' schedule and we can just see Sid quaking with anticipation.

Meanwhile, back with the real bowlers, Mort Levine threw a 203 to up his average to a league leading 177 but the rest of his #6 team let him down and they lost to Morris Garlick's #7 crew, 5 to 2. Ralph Diamond, who never bowled before this year and could turn out to be one of Morris' secret weapons, is getting the hang of it. He raised his average 13 points and this helped his team greatly in their victory.

Sam Springer led his #4 team to a 6 to 1 win over Sol Rabinowitz's #11's as he bowled a 204, and teammate Sy Bruckner helped with a 201. This puts Sam's boys in a tie for 1st place with Mort Levine's men.

Herb Brody and his #10 men tamed Leo Geyer's Lions with a 7-0 sweep and it was no wonder for every one of Herb's men bowled over their average. Marty Kolen raised his average 9 points, Sid Lang raised his 8 points and Irv West and here himself came up with 7 point increases. All this combined to make for a new record for Team Series High Scratch of 2367. Ely Fisher didn't bowl any 200's but he led his cap't. Al Monoff, and his #5 teammates to a 7-0 victory over Milt Goldberg's #12's, as he threw a very strong series and upped his average 19 points. Milt tried his best to avert this defeat as he raised his average 12 points but he had no help.

This week Herb's #10's clash with Sam Springer's #4's in what shapes up to be the first real battle for the League lead.

Appointments of several chairmen were on the bill of fare served up at our last meeting. Commander Jim Klug made the following assignments:

This year's "Journal" committee will be headed up by SVC Arthur Fuelling, JVC Frank Blesis is this year's "Dinner and Dance" chairman. That ever popular favorite with kiddies, our Christmas Party, will have Arnold Bashwiner playing host to both them and Santa Claus. Community Service, a new post, goes to George Kramer. Finally, yours truly is chairman of our annual visit to Northport Hospital. This year's date is Dec. 18th.

Members and their best girls who attended the Mortgage Burning Ceremony had a good time. Tony's Restaurant on Herzog Place supplied the food with Tony himself catering the affair.

President of the Ladies Auxiliary, Mary Sadowski and her girls are responsible for the drapes that adorn the Post's windows. The members appreciate it and thank the girls. It adds to both beauty and atmosphere.

Esther Palladini has promised me the reekshaw concession at the Ladies Auxiliary "Oriental Night Affair" on Oct. 26.

Hicksville Chamber of Commerce has named the VFW to install their 100 flags on the town's parking meters on all future Labor Days.

The Department of New York has mailed Christmas Greeting cards to all members of the VFW again this year. The price of $1.25 is a reasonable one when you think of the cause the money from the sale of these cards go to. Your donation will enable the VFW to continue in the necessary projects to benefit the sick, disabled and needy veterans, their widows and orphans.

Korean War Veterans are advised that this will be their last full year of schooling under the Korean G.I. Bill. Those veterans with service connected disabilities are exempt from this cut-off period by Congress.

Bill Froehndorfer won the raffle at the last meeting. The next one is Oct. 14. See you then.

Get on Ground Floor This Time

The ever-growing West Birchwood Little Theatre Group of Jericho is now busily engaged in laying the groundwork for its Spring Production. The excavator has not yet been determined but committees are now being formed to handle this and other equally important tasks. Here is your chance to get in on the ground floor of an exciting stage production.

Call WE 5-6823 for information regarding our next general meeting to be held on Oct. 21, or our Actors Workshop, for which one or two openings still remain. If you seek an interesting, constructive activity to occupy your leisure time, then we're your answer. Don't hesitate to call this number for any information about our group.

opened the festivities by calling for the advancement of The Colors and promptly thereafter turned the meeting over to the county installing officers... Kay Mazzoli of Bethpage, 10th District Auxiliary Chairman, and Michael Cialdella, Nassau County Treasurer, did the honors... An amusing incident occurred as the background music supplied inadvertently from a wedding in our lower hall drifted to everyone's ears during a rather serious speech by one of the installing officials... Oh well, live and learn, and that we did... Jr. Past Commander Dick O'Neill was presented with his diamond studded past commander's pin by Mike Cialdella... Commander Dick Hochbruckner strayed from the cold and dried installation formula by introducing to everyone's members of his staff who also were installed that evening... This was a pleasant departure and was fully appreciated by all... The Post Activities Committee headed by Joe Slattery and aided and abetted by George Morris and Lou Cesta turned out a marvelous buffet that was well put away by all of us present... Keep up the swell work fellows, you are showing the way (thru our stomachs)!

Bill Combe, our new demon Reporter for our Post newspaper spent a busy evening jotting down notes for the next issue... Keep it up Bill, your efforts are fully appreciated... Sorry to say that we have lost two of our older members during the past week, Samuel Greco and Charles Volight, may their souls rest in peace... Now is the time for you to bring in new members and I am happy to say that I have brought three more new members into our Post since the last column... How about YOU? See that neighbor now and sign him up.

Questions Nov 23 Project

On Thursday, Sept. 26, the Executive Board of the Taxpayers Educational Assoc. for the Children of Hicksville adopted the following resolution:

"The Executive Board of TEACH recommends to its membership that since the School Board proposal only partially meets the educational needs of the children of the district, we therefore demand additional classroom facilities beyond the present School Board proposal."

The following statement was issued:

"Under the proposed building program of 22 rooms to be added to the Senior High School and according to Dr. McCormick's survey of our district's school plant needs, our high school will still be overcrowded for at least another 15 years. The 22 rooms will increase capacity to about 2190 pupils from its present capacity of approximately 1600 pupils. Present enrollment is nearly 3000 students. In the year 1980 facilities at the Senior High may then be adequate to meet the pupil enrollment at that time.
Consequently, for the next 15 years our teachers will be servously hampered because of excessively large class-size, our much-praised curriculum achievements will necessarily suffer, and the result will be third and fourth-rate education. This also means that any child entering high school at any time during the next 15 years will be cheated by inferior education.

"On Oct. 17th at Levittown Hall (8:30 PM) TEACH has scheduled a public meeting with Superintendent of Schools Donald F. Abr and School Board President George A. Jackson as guests.
At this meeting TEACH will seek to clarify the objectives of the building program sought by the Superintendent and Board of Education in order to permit its members and the entire community to vote intelligently.

"Some of the questions TEACH wants answered are:

"1. Does the 22-room proposal take into consideration the need for different class sizes demanded by different subjects?

"2. Will the 22 rooms end overcrowding at the Senior High School?

"3. After the 22 rooms have been built, will some classes still consist of 40 or more pupils?

"4. Does the present proposal take into consideration future expansion of the curriculum into new subject areas?

"5. Does this proposal take into consideration the urgent needs of the Junior High School as part of the secondary level of education?

"Depending upon the answers to these and other questions TEACH considers the present building proposals to be a continuance of the patchwork approach from which our educational system has suffered the past 15 years," the statement concludes.

Fund Raising For Boy Scouts

On Oct. 12, the Nassau County Council of Boy Scouts will again hold its annual Budget Fund Raising campaign. This year the Council goal is $485,000, an amount that is needed to keep Boy Scouting at its present high level.

Volunteers from the Arrowhead District covering, Hicksville, Plainview and Old Beth-page, will be ringing door bells on this day soliciting contributions to the Boy Scouts of America.

Francis Loevi is serving as the Arrowhead District Campaign chairman, Edmund Ocker, Francis Anderson, and Adam Merle are community chairmen for Plainview, Hicksville and Old Bethpage respectively, with supporting General Solicitation chairmen John Nees and Adam Merle.

"Many conflicting stories have grown up around him. He is said to have dropped hints that he had been a high officer in the German army. Another story said he became slightly unbalanced from overstudy while another claims great tragedy caused his mental condition.

HERALD BOX 95 HICKSVILLE

Peter Blydenburg

"He was often sheltered by William Herzog, Phillip Offenloch, Mrs. Jacob Boslet and Joseph McGinnigle. For these favors he performed odd jobs, especially sawing wood. He is known to have cut an entire cord of wood in one day."

About a year before his death he was involved in an automobile accident and was removed to Mineola (now Nassau) Hospital. He contrived to secure his clothes and was back in Hicksville shortly thereafter.

After his final collapse was taken to Meadowbrook Hospital and then transferred to Central Islip where he died. He was brought back to Hicksville and buried without charge by Henry J. Stock Funeral Home. He was buried in Wantagh.

Hubert Offenloch made this concluding comment: "Jacob Schwab, though he was looked upon with some distaste during life was nevertheless given a handsome burial."
