PTA Council Guest of Honor

School Superintendent Abt

The Hicksville Council of PTA Units will hold its 11th Annual Founders Day Dinner on Feb. 27 at the Golden Meadowbrook Restaurant in Jericho.

The Council's honored guest this year will be Donald F. Abt, Superintendent of Schools. In his early years in Hicksville Abt, as Principal of Lee Ave. School, helped organize their first PTA and has remained one of PTA's ardent supporters. He has been instrumental in the shaping of the present educational policies in Hicksville and in forming many of the programs currently conducted in the District. Two examples are the Track System and the Foreign Language Program. Abt has contributed greatly to the welfare of the children and youth of Hicksville.

Chairman of the Dinner is Mrs. John McManus. Toastmaster at the dinner will be John McGovern.

Let's Spread Escalator Tax

The proposal is being advanced, presumably at Albany where legislation must be introduced before the current session has expired, to create an escalator taxing district to finance the installation of moving stairs (two sets, up only) at the new Hicksville RR terminal and station.

At a cost of four-tenths of a cent per $100 on tax bills it is said the installation could be financed. The tax bills will go to property owners in Hicksville and "parts of" Jericho, Syosset and Plainview.

We would like to raise a small voice and suggest that it would be unfair not to let Levittown also help pay for the moving stairs since a substantial number of commuters come from at least the northern portion of that community. Levittown commuters, without sharing the cost, have been loud enough about parking fields near the depot for their convenience.

Five members of the Hicksville Board of Education as a committee together with several District administrators and representatives of the press inspected the District receiving warehouse on Duffy Ave., Friday night.

Anthony J. Gorczycki, business administrator of the District, read a prepared statement explaining the purpose of the warehouse and comments upon its contents.

Commenting upon published charges that a dental chair in the warehouse has an estimated value of $8,000, Gorczycki noted that the cost of the chair, according to District records, was only $639.

Trustee William A. Bruno Jr who had authored various charges regarding the contents of the warehouse appeared annoyed to find press representatives had been invited.

The warehouse has been in use since Feb 1962 when the County Fire Marshal's office ordered the removal of certain items from school buildings. On Nov 23 the voters approved a bond issue for a combined administration centre and receiving warehouse which will be built next to the High School on Division Ave.

Regarding the contents of the warehouse, Gorczycki explained as follows:

Actually, that items are there in this warehouse? I think we can break them down into five categories: (1) Furniture, (2) Instructional Supplies and Equipment, (3) Textbooks, (4) Custodial Supplies, (5) Cafeteria Supplies.

"1. Furniture—We have approximately, in the warehouse, 112 units of used primary furniture. This means we have in reserve less than one unit per primary classroom. Since July 1, 1952 to June 30, 1963, approximately 58,000 children have gone through these grades. What does this mean in dollars and cents? If we place a high value of $10 per unit, the total value of these 112 units would be $1,120. From 1952 to 1963 this school district spent approximately $400,000 for purchase of school furniture. What percentage, after 13 years of use, do we have remaining? Is it waste or good business?"

"2. Instruction Supplies and Equipment—During the same period, 1952 to 1963, our school district purchased $1,320,000 of instructional and related equipment of various types—everything from film strips to tractors. What is in this warehouse right now in this area? I estimate the value of the items that are here, and most of them in the obsolete stage, no more than $5,000 if they were to be replaced NEW."

There followed reference to the actual cost of the dental chair which has been mentioned earlier.

Gorczycki continued on "3. Textbooks—During the period 1952-63 the district spent $917,000 for textbooks. This has served for this period of time approximately 130,000 children which cost is only $7.05 per child. You have to be an Einstein to actually assess a cost for the books presently in the warehouse. If we assume a residual value of $1.50 per book, I know of no vendor who would pay such a price, the aggregate cost would be around $15,000. This latter figure is about 1.6 percent of the original investment.

"These textbooks, why are they in the warehouse? Primarily for one of four reasons: (a) obsolete; (b) poor condition; (c) defective and (d) gifts that are also obsolete. * * *

As for "4. Paper Supplies—A good deal of publicity has been given to the 'mountains' of paper in the warehouse. Each year the school district purchases mimeograph, duplicator, and classroom and art papers on a bulk basis for economy. Hand-to-mouth purchasing is not an efficient operation—it is not good economics. Just to bring to your attention, in May of 1963, the business department opened bids for mimeograph and duplicator paper. The bids were analyzed. We came back and recommended to the Board of Education that all bids should be rejected, basically, because we felt the prices were too high. Following the paper market with close scrutiny, we found it advantageous to bid again in September and as a result saved the school district approximately $1,000. * * *

"In discussing paper supplies, it is to be noted that our school district has paper supplies marker '1958-59'. As stated at a Board meeting, a human error only had been committed here. The 'first-in-first-out' method of distribution was not followed when the supplies were at the schools. The significant question is whether our District is guilty or not guilty of waste. The paper in question is '69 newsprint'. This means paper 6 inches wide and 9 inches long which is commonly used as scrap paper. Our present inventory, which is our full inventory, indicates that we have 279 cartons on hand. This allows 3/4 of a sheet per day per child. The 1958-59 paper consists of 34 cartons. * * *

The report to the Board was preceded with a history of the background of the warehouse with Robert Hock as the current stores clerk and a listing of Board policies regarding maintaining of supplies for a three-month period at all times.

School Trustees are reviewing the complete warehouse inventory and action is anticipated at the next regular meeting on Friday night, Feb. 28, to discard obsolete items. Formal action of the Board in declaring items as obsolete or worthless is required before disposal.

REV. RICHARD H. WEISKOTTEN installed the new members of the Church Council during services on Sunday, Jan. 26. This was his last act as pastor of Redeemer Lutheran Church, Hicksville. He is going to resume studies in writing for two years. A tea was given in the afternoon for the Weiskotten family. The new members of the Council from left are: Clarence Olsen, John Thorsen, Arthur Toppin, Henry G. Koch, Leonard Urschel and Robert Casbran.

Robert F. Knoll, a sophomore at Assumption College, has been named to the Dean's List for the fall semester, 1963-64. It was announced by Rev. Georges L. Hissinger, A.A., Dean of Faculty.

Knoll was one of only two sophomores who received First Honors for having no mark lower than "B plus" for the period.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Knoll, Sr., 20 Garden Blvd., Hicksville.

PETER CONNORS
 HICKSVILLE - Peter Connors of 11 Rave St., here, died Feb. 6. He was the husband of Helen (nee Mann); the step-father of Harold Hawxhurst and the grandfather of Harold Jr., Joseph and Daniel Hawxhurst. He is also survived by a brother, five sisters and three great grandchildren.

Mr. Connors was a member of the American Legion Charles Wagner Post 421, which held services at the Henry J. Stock Funeral Home Sunday evening at 7:30. He was also a member of the Hempstead Lodge 1485 B. P. O. Elks, which held services at 8:00 p.m. Sunday. A Solemn Requiem Mass was offered at St. Ignatius Loyola R. C. Church Monday at 10 a.m. followed by burial at L.I. National Cemetery.

Kennedy Memorial Fund Grows

The formal endorsement by a leading Hicksville veterans' organization of the John F. Kennedy Memorial projected for the intersection of Broadway and Jerusalem Ave., north of the LIRR, and a group contribution from the children of a local school is anticipated within the coming week. The plan outlined last week to provide for recognition of local men who gave their lives in the service of the nation in World Wars I and II together with a substantial metal flag pole dedicated to the memory of the late President has won wide spread support during the week.

Contributions made payable to the John F. Kennedy Memorial Hicksville Fund may be made at the Main Office of the Long Island National Bank or sent to the HERALD at PO Box 95, Hicksville. All contributions of $1 or more will be listed unless donors indicate otherwise.

DAR Selects Carol Fernbach

Carol L. Fernbach

has announced that Carol L. Fernbach, of 33 Monroe Ave., Hicksville, has been chosen the 1964 Good Citizen of Hicksville High School. She will be honored with Good Citizens chosen from Jericho High School, Oyster Bay High School and Locust Valley High School at Raynham Hall on Feb. 21, at the annual Candlelight Tea.

Miss Fernbach is an accomplished flutist, and has studied for 8 years at the Julliard School of Music under a scholarship, where she also studied music theory and orchestra. At both the Hicksville Junior and Senior High Schools she has been a consistent high average student, and is graduating at the age of sixteen. She took four awards upon graduation for Junior High School in having the Highest Average for three consecutive years in History, Science, Mathematics, and for having the highest all-over average for 3 years.

Because of this outstanding record, Carol was able to pass from 9th grade to 11th grade. At the present time she is a member of the High School Math and Latin Clubs. She is a member of the Long Island Flute Club, and of the National Honor Society, an honor she achieved in her junior year. In 1963 she participated in the Dartmouth College congregation of the Arts during July and August. She has been awarded the Phi Beta Kappa Alumni of Long Island Award for outstanding scholarship. Carol is now taking Advanced Placement courses in English and Calculus, and hopes to enter Wellesley or Smith next year to prepare for a career as a college Latin teacher. Previous Hicksville High School Good Citizens were Miss Phoebe Oliver, Miss Victoria Rux and Miss Wendy Tobiasen. By being selected as Hicksville High School's Good Citizen, Miss Fernbach's records will be sent to the D.A.R. 10th Judicial District Chairman, and there will be judged for possible higher award. Miss Fernbach is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Fernbach, and Leon Galloway is her principal at Hicksville High School.

Looking Back to Early Days of Scouts As Revealed in Handbook from 1910-11

By Fred J. Noeth

The Boy Scouts of America are celebrating their 54th anniversary this week. Scouting has been an active force in the mid-island community since the immediate post World War I period. The exact date of the first troop is not known to us, but Girl Scouting was organized in Hicksville in 1917 with Mrs. Joanna Talafarro as captain and Boy Scouts must have come along shortly thereafter. Nassau County Council was organized in 1917.

Some interesting early day glimpses of Boy Scout which may provide an opportunity for comparison by today's members and adult leaders is one of the earliest Official Handbooks in the possession of the writer since 1940. It bears no date of publication, but the textual reference indicate it was probably the first and original edition issued in 1910 or 1911. There were 68,900 copies in the original edition. There have been 15 million copies in various editions printed since. The writer was a member of Boy Scout Troop 91, Hicksville, in the period around 1927 when there were two other troops in the community: William Hoffmann was scoutmaster of Troop 94, the first and oldest in the town; Louis Rehnacher was Scoutmaster of troop 91 and Wilbur Archibald was Scoutmaster of Troop 132.

In those days of the late 1920s there were no Cub Scouts, no Explorer Scouts, Boy Scouts wore knee britches or shorts with long socks and flat brimmed campaign hats.

E. A. Van Slyke was president of the Hicksville Scout District Committee. Dr. Bernard Webster and Arthur L. Crossley were vice presidents, Paul Staehle, secretary; and William Rennie, treasurer.

Dr. Webster, a prominent dentist, was chairman of the Board of Review with William T. Hade, secretary; Ward F. Hughes, E. Parker Yutzler, Anthony (Pop) Fasullo and Arthur Crossley.

40 YEARS AGO

Tucked away in that ancient 1910 handbook is a record of the first meeting regarding Troop 91 in the handwriting of Scoutmaster Rehnacher. It said in part: "Minutes of April 15, 1924: The next subject Father Wunsch spoke about was the Boy

Boy Scout Membership Growth

- ... Today 45,441 Scouts and Adult Volunteer Leaders are registered in the Nassau County Council.
- ... Over 136,000 Boys from ages 8 through 16 could be Scouts in the Nassau County Council.
- ... There are 908 Scout Units and 600 Sponsoring Institutions, Churches, Synagogues and Organizations.
- ... There are 24 Professional trained Scout Executives serving 15 Districts in Nassau County Council. These men are trained as Scout Executives and give full time in their work with 11,563 Volunteer Scouters.

Scout movement. He wanted men to help as Scoutmasters and any men who knew how to handle boys to volunteer to help this along. He also stated that Father Hack was going to headquarters to secure application blanks. "Later Father Hack addressed the meeting briefly and encouraged the Boy Scout movement. There also was a general discussion on this subject and all seemed to favor its fulfillment."

And he added: "There was a meeting on May 6, 1924 (just 40 years ago this year) in the School Hall. About eight or ten men were present and about 50 or 60 boys signed applications to join. It was thought that two troops could be started."

But to go back to the beginnings of the movement 54 years ago. Our ancient handbook was written by Ernest Thompson Seton and Lt. Gen. Sir Robert S. S. Baden-Powell KCB. Curiously the basic requirements for tenderfoot, second class scout and first class scout changed very little between 1910, 1927 and 1932.

The original book said a boy enjoining the Boy Scouts must be 12 years of age and pass a test on the following points "before taking the Oath" and being entitled to wear "The buttonhole badge": "Know the Scout's laws and signs and salute. Know the history of the Stars and Stripes. Tie four standard knots."

Seventeen years later in 1927

Herald Reader Opinions:

FAIR COVERAGE

To the Editor: I want to thank you for the fair coverage you have given my action against school board member Mr. George Kunz. You have one error in the article however, and that is that the "Mid Island Times" postal entry is Bethpage, N.Y., and it actually is Hicksville, N.Y.

Also it may not be clear to readers of your paper that our complaint is not Mr. Kunz's criticism of our editorial, but whether he has the right to use taxpayer's money to influence our editorial policy. We never asked him to withdraw any criticism of our editorial, but we did demand that he retract any statement which implied that he had the right to withdraw legal advertising because he did not like our editorial opinion.

REGARDING SUMPS

To the Editor: Your very informative article on drainage, carried in the January 16th issue of the Herald, has been called to my attention.

It was gratifying to see mention made of my recent proposal to lease air space over some of our County sumps. I am most appreciative of your interest in this idea because I think it has considerable potential.

PALMER D. FARRINGTON

the handbook said that to become a scout a boy must be 12 years of age and after completing these requirements could wear the official scout uniform:

1. Know the Scout laws, motto, sign, salute and significance of the badge.
2. Know the composition and history of the Flag of the United States of America and the customary forms of respect due it.
3. Tie the following knots: square or reef, sheet-bend, bow-line, Fisherman's knot, sheepshank, slip, clove hitch, timber hitch and two half hitches."

The requirement of four knots had been increased to nine.

The second class requirements in that period increased from 9 to 11, basically all the same with some modifications. Lighting a fire by not using more than two matches was unchanged. The modern handbook does not limit the number of matches.

First class requirements at the same time increased from 10 to 12, including the enlistment of another boy as a tenderfoot. (Today recruitment of another boy is not required.)

We found this early requirement (changed by 1927) a reflection of those earlier days: "go on foot, or row boat, alone to a point seven miles away and return again; or if conveyed by any vehicle or animal, go a distance of 15 minutes and back and write a short report on it. It is preferable that he should take two days over it. Apparently a trip of 15 miles by vehicle or animal was no longer a rare experience during the interval.

'THE WHOLE OBJECT'

Many of today's parents might find food for reflection in this "summing up" of the Scout program in 1910: "The whole object of our scheme is to seize the boy's character in its red-hot stage of enthusiasm and to weld it into the right shape and encourage and develop its individuality - so that the boy may become a good man and a valuable citizen of our country" in the immediate future, instead of being a waste of God's material.

"The nation is showing signs of illness. We can diagnose it as 'bad citizenship.' We know the kind of remedy to apply, namely, education of the rising generation in 'character'."

Early organizers of Scout troops had to "find themselves against critics who cried militarism. This is what the 1910 handbook said on that subject: "There is no military meaning attached to the name Scouting. Peace scouting comprises the attributes of colonial frontiersmen in the way of resourcefulness and self-reliance and the many other qualities which make them men among men. There is no intention of making the lads

THIS WELL KNOWN Boy Scout sign was described in the 1911 Official Handbook of the Boy Scouts of America (see text) as "the scout's salute and secret sign". It went on: "When a scout meets another for the first time in the day, whether he is a comrade or a stranger he salutes with the secret sign at half salute."

into soldiers or of teaching them blood thirstiness. But under patriotism they will be taught that a citizen must be prepared to take his fair share among his fellows in the defense of the homeland against aggression in return for the safety and freedom enjoyed by him as an inhabitant. He who leaves this duty to other to do for him is neither playing a plucky or fair part."

The list of merit badges in that first handbook was limited and some have disappeared from later editions. The first list of 14 follows: Ambulance Badge, Fireman, Cycling (owns a bicycle in good working order, which he is willing to use for service of the Government in case of emergency, such as national defense, carrying dispatches, etc), Clerk, Signaller, Pioneer, Seaman, Marksman, Master at Arms (boxing, jujitsu, wrestling, quarter staff and fencing), Stalkers, Gardener, Horseman, Electrician, and Musician.

The list was approaching 90 by 1927, reflecting the new inventions with Aviation, Automobileing (take off and put on pneumatic tires. How many acouts can do that today?), Chemistry, Conservation, Forestry, Foundry Practice, Journalism, Machinery, Photography, Plumbing, Mining, Printing, Radio, Salesmanship and many more.

The Cycling badge was retained but the requirements no longer spoke of Government service. The main requirement now was to ride a bicycle 50 miles in ten hours. (Probably better roads had something to do with this speed up.)

And now to take a look at a more modern handbook:

Our copy of the 1953 edition was edited by Ted S. Peritt and numbers 570 pages. By this time Scouts could become a tenderfoot at the age of 11, rather than 12. Requirements for tenderfoot, second class and first class have not been changed materially although there are categories and subdivisions such as "Scout Spirit", "Scout participation" and "Scoutcraft".

The number of merit badges have grown to 100 and many of them continue to reflect our changing world.

Library Corner

Tables piled with books? No room for an adult to put a magazine to read, even Reader's Digest? That's Saturday - all day at the Hicksville Library and weekday afternoons as well.

Eighty-two seats for teenagers in a new section will open the Reference Room for adults' use. Four study carrels for research purposes will give an atmosphere conducive to hard work. The teen-agers, to be sure, will find these the most desirable seats. The remaining tables and chairs will doubtless be filled in short order. The heavy school assignments guarantee permanent public library usage by teen-agers.

Magazine files are very important to teen-agers searching for subjects like Malaysia, discrimination in housing and employment, and other timely events. Bound magazines occupy a good deal of space, but they are often the only place you can find information about events of fleeting importance. If you subscribe to Life Magazine or the National Geographic Magazine, you have a good idea how much room back magazines take when you look at your cellar, closet or attic. The library has Life from 1955 and National Geographic from 1915, so you can see how over 200 magazines will require a great deal more space in a short time. Adults who find just the information they seek will tell how valuable magazine files are.

The amount of new books flowing from the publishers is rather overwhelming. The variety of subjects teen-agers pursue for school and recreation necessitates a large collection for teen-agers, and as these readers leave the schools and become adults, they will want to continue reading about these many subjects. Therefore, the adult collection must be expanded also. 40,000 volumes are what will be needed by the Library by the referendum.

The registration dates are February 26 and February 27th. The voting will take place March 7th. Working room for all will result from the passing of this referendum. Library service is really appreciated by all in these days of competition for marks for college admission, and in all fields of endeavor. Only by building up the book collection and the area in which to use the books will the community be able to advance and all citizens be enabled to use all their opportunities to the limit.

Library usage has increased to a remarkable degree since the second World War throughout the United States. In fact, if you visited a public library before the war and today, you would wonder what caused the revolution in library use. The great emphasis in the schools on homework assignments and the training in the schools that results in people knowing how to use the library has caused a great interest in reading or information as well as research.

People have discovered how many services the library has. Whether they want to finish a basement, find an exact quotation, or check the address of a magazine, they know they can come and find help at the Reference desk. They flock to the library to read for enjoyment, identify birds or plants, or to check a date of a news event they remember from many years ago.

Enough books to take home, enough books to use for research, and within a few minutes there is no room on the table to read. It seems necessary to spread out when one has a hard assignment, and there are always books you see that might be out next time, that you have to keep with you while you work.

Teen-agers crowd the Reference Room and soon not only teen-agers themselves are looking for a place to sit - but adults are lucky if there is a chair at the end of a stack for them to use.

A new section for teen-agers would not only provide adequate seating space for them, but will also give the adults a chance to be comfortable in the Reference Room.

The teen-agers will have their books in the new section and will be congregating there, so that adults will find the Reference Room a more restful reading area.

The teen-agers themselves will help publicize the referendum through the posters they are making for the Poster Contest. The posters will be displayed throughout the community after the judging of the contest on February 15th. The following students are already working on their posters: Leslie Auerbach, Barbara Beczler, Amy Brill, Sheila Cynowicz, Kathryn Drab, Dorothy Hage, June Loechel, Rolf Matzar, Marsha Mehr, Brian Moran, Lance Petrarca, Lisa Sachs, Jo Seltz, Shari Siegel, Wynne Spiselman, Robert Izzo and Scott Wafter.

Civic Assoc Earns Newspaper Praise

A full page article in Newsday, Jan. 31, gave an interesting insight in the working of Civic Associations and how many of them come and then fall by the way-side.

It was pointed out that our own Birchwood Park Civic Ass'n. at Jericho is an example of the few successful survivors. The article went on to mention some of the many activities taken on by the Assoc. such as a newspaper, dances, outings, plays youth programs, watchdog committees on education, zoning, gardening, recreational and many more to numerous to mention.

As a Birchwoodite, it should make you feel proud that our organization should be held in such high esteem. Certainly it speaks well of the many people who had a hand in its organization right on up to its present officers and Board of Directors.

The article should make you want to be a part of this organization, the strongest Civic Assoc., on Long Island. We urge you all to continue supporting us by sending in your dues for 1964. It is only $5.00 for the year and the returns are considerable. Make your check to B.C.A. at Jericho and mail to Norman Ney, 26 Favorite Lane, Jericho.

President's Corner

by HORACE BERNSTEIN

Within the next few days, you shall be receiving from the Corresponding Secretary a beautifully illustrated brochure on the Birchwood at Jericho Civic Assoc. A lot of hard work and effort has gone into this brochure, by Milton Bagley, our first Vice President. He, and he alone, wrote the copy, secured the pictures, and had it printed. The aerial view on the front cover is an actual picture of Birchwood and you can pick out your own home as it looks from the air.

The purpose of the literature is to show and illustrate to the residents of our community, just what our Civic Assoc. is doing and has done for the residents of this community. We felt that this would do a better job than any letter, or other form of request for membership. I am sure that you too will agree.

May I therefore be very brief and request that you read this brochure and while it is still fresh in your mind, either cut out the application on the back, or use the bill that has been sent to you, and mail your dues to our Financial Secretary.

I have received many inquiries as to what is being done with the entrance gates that have been so long promised. I am happy to inform you that they are now past the planning stages. All necessary arrangements have been made. The plans have been approved and paid for and it is hoped that as soon as the weather permits, work will be started.

I have also received several complaints, - with reference to the current water bill. In several cases it appeared that the bills were about double those of the same period last year. I suggest that you check your individual bills and if there are enough complaints to warrant it, we will proceed to see if anything is wrong. Your cooperation is requested.

Registration Set

The Robbins Lane School, Syosset, will hold registration for Kindergartens and other grades on Monday, Mar. 2 from 9 to 11 a.m. and Wednesday, Mar. 4, 9 to 11 a.m. and 1:30 to 3 p.m.

Cradle Roll

Temple Or-Elohem, Jericho, is having a Cradle Roll for preschool children on Monday, Feb. 24, 1:00 to 2:30 p.m. This session will explain the meaning of Purim. Refreshments will be served. For further information call Ruth Lynx, WA 1-0426.

comes once every four years. She was "leap year" baby.

Anniversary greetings to the Nat Fischers of Hazelwood Drive, Ruby Rebachs of Middle Lane and Robert Millers of Boumy Lane.

Happy birthday to Jordan Freed, Marcia Goldberg, Dennis Dockswell, Phyllis Schulman, Sylvia Newman, Muriel Kiviat, Florence Herz, David Battersman, Alice and Morris Garelick, Laurie Rosen and Helene Miller.

Please let's not forget ABE LINCOLN.

District Atty At Jericho PTA

The Jericho High School P.T.A. is pleased to announce that on Wednesday Evening, Feb. 19th, the guest speaker will be William Cahn, District Attorney of Nassau County. Mr. Cahn's subject will be "What Are The Problems of Youth Today?" This meeting is open to all parents of the community and to students of the Senior High School, and will be held in the High School Little Theatre, promptly at 8:45 p.m.

Come on down to an informative and most interesting evening.

Learn and Travel Go Together

Forty South Woods Junior High School students have had unusual field trips. Between Jan 7 and 30, groups of four girls from Mrs. Laura Enteen's home economics classes observed and participated in the program of Tobay Cooperative Nursery School. The purpose of the trip is to "incorporate meaningful experience with young children into the study of child care."

Mrs. Enteen and Mrs. Edith Blumenstein, Director of the cooperative school are enthusiastic about the results. A regular part of the junior high curriculum at South Woods, the Child Care Unit has transcended "theory" and the girls are able to see real children in action. The students are given careful preparation at school, not only as to effective ways of participating but also what to observe in areas of discipline, personal development, social, and creative development. Also included in the unit are discussions involving baby sitting techniques and responsibilities and problems with brothers and sisters. The students involved have profited so much from the experience that both Mrs. Enteen and Mrs. Blumenstein hope to make this kind of "learning through experience" a permanent part of the Child Care Unit at South Woods.

Essay Contest At Midway Point

In an article elsewhere in today's issue you will note that the District Attorney of Nassau County, William Cahn, is scheduled to speak at Jericho High PTA meeting Wed. Feb. 19, at 8:45 P.M. Mr. Cahn's topic will be "What are The Problems of Youth?"

It is interesting to note the similarity in Mr. Cahn's subject and the topic we chose for our essay contest namely "The Teenager's Role in our Community". If the Honorable Mr. Cahn feels it worthy to discuss, then we of the "VILLAGER" staff feel proud to offer it to our community at large.

Does our Youth have a definite role to play in our community? This contest seeks to find out from the teenagers themselves what they believe is their role in our community. We also want parents themselves to submit entries to offer their views on "The Teenager's Role in our Community" and to see if they co-incide with those of the teenager.

The contest is open to all residents of Birchwood Park at Jericho. Remember, you're not being tested in English or Grammar but rather on appropriateness, sincerity, freshness etc. as indicated in rule 5 of the contest. Your essays will serve as an exchange of views on this vital subject and will certainly enhance our community spirit and community image.

Did You Know.....

-That the Jericho Jewish Center was the first new House of Worship in Jericho in 150 years?

-That the J.J.C., started 8 short years ago in the home of one of its members, moved soon after to the "Old House on the Hill", and thence to the new and spacious Temple on Broadway?

-That the J.J.C. is one of the few Jewish Houses of Worship on Long Island serving the Community with morning and evening services every day of the year?

-That the J.J.C. has grown to over 500 member families with 400 children in its Religious Schools?

-That the first organizational meeting of the St. Paul the Apostle Catholic Church was held in the ballroom of the J.J.C. and was attended by 1100 Catholic Jericho residents?

-That your local religious institutions are constantly serving you and your community? Support them!

Ten Pin Talk

by Henry Dockswell

For the second time this year the Syosset Lanes were bombarded by our B.C.A. bowlers. Eight games of 200 or better were racked up. In fact the Lanes couldn't take it. About 10:00 P.M. the lights suddenly blew. The most astonished guy in the place was probably Marv Kahn. He had just released his ball and was intently watching it approach the pins. As the ball hit, darkness descended.

"Hey Marv," someone yelled. "What did you do to the lights?" "Never mind the lights," gasped Marv, "How many pins did I get?"

Just as suddenly the lights came on again. Marv took one look and moaned, "Put them out again!"

But the bombardment continued. Julie Gershen led the way as he threw two beauties, a 212 and an even 200. It was lucky for his teammates that Julie was hot, for Sid Simon and the rest of the Demons contributed only enough help to win 3 points from Leo Geyer's 5 Lions.

Sy Bruckner, well rested from his vacation, wasted no time and came up with a 212, his seventh of the year, and took the lead again in the race for most 200 games. His Cap't., Sam Springer, was right there with him. Sam bowled a 201, his third, and they both led the Unglicks to a 5-2 win over Milt Goldberg's Terros.

Mike Hauptman leaped the barrier for his second one, a 203, and helped Mort Levine's Spoilers beat Murray Gittleman's Cockamamies 5-2 and maintain their league lead.

For the second week in a row Gerry Reichgott hit the magic circle. His was the highest game of the night, a 223, and led the way for Morris Garelick's Spooks to conquer Al Minoff's Bubulas 3-2. The Spooks just missed shutting out the Bubulas when they lost the first game by only one pin.

Marty Kolen bowled a 203 and helped Herb Brody's Six Finks come from behind and eke out a 5-2 win over Murray Iskoc's Bulls. Lenny Walnick tried to beat the Finks back as he threw a 201, his third one in three weeks, but he got no help.

The Spoilers are last and the Unglicks are 2nd so its no more than fitting that they should meet. They do so this Monday for the first "crosshill" series of the 2nd half.

I've just had a genuine crisis that has thrown me into utter panic! I lost my little mouse and you know without him I can't write my columns. I know this sounds ridiculous, but he had a flair for words and a way of snooping around for news that was a great help to me. I am quite lost without him. I miss him very much, so I hope you will understand and forgive me for a very short column.

Jericho G.R.T. is having its annual card and Mah Jongg party on Tuesday evening, Feb. 25th at the Carleton Caterers, Walt Whitman Shopping Center at 7:30 p.m. A sumptuous menu is planned. Donation is $4.00, Call GE 3-9777 for further information.

Congratulations and lots of luck to Ralph Diamond on being made President of the "Presidents Club" of the Republican Party.

Anyone for canasta, bridge, hearts? Enjoy a pleasant evening at the Annual Card Party sponsored by the MARIAN GUILD of St. Paul the Apostle Parish of Jericho. Some of the beautiful prizes to be drawn are an autumn haze mink stole, a basket of cheer, and an autumn haze shawl collar.

Since this is one of the major fund-raising affairs of the parish, all of the women and their friends are urged to attend. Tickets are $1.50 and may be obtained from the Ticket Chairman, Mrs. Gilbert Romano, Wells 5-7537. Be sure to remember the date: Feb. 28 (Friday), at 8:30 p.m., at St. Edward's Auditorium, Syosset.

Jessica Pincus is finally celebrating her birthday with a party. She is a lucky gal as her birthday

Discusses Role of Catholic Mother

By Anne Nieminski

Sister Jean Clare, O.P., Diocesan supervisor and curriculum coordinator in the Dept. of Education, Diocese of Rockville Centre, was the guest speaker at the 100th meeting of the Our Lady of Mercy Rosary Altar Society, Hicksville on Monday, Feb. 3. She discussed the role of a Catholic mother as an educator of her child.

She said that although the Father is the head of the house, it is the Mother who is with the child far more than the Father; it is the Mother who watches the child at work and at play. Sister stated that a child must have implicit confidence in his Mother, bringing to her his failures and his successes knowing that they will be understood, expecting a hug and a smile.

Sister Jean Clare mentioned the necessity of creating a cultural environment for the child. She stressed the fact that when there are no books in the home, intelligent speech is apparent. "Books," she said, "are a symbol and a reality." A home in a poor settlement, with books is in reality richer than a Park Avenue penthouse without them. Sister Jean Clare mentioned the kinds of books that ought to be in every Catholic home in order that the child might experience some of the joys of the mind that come from reading.

"There should be books for every mood; they are wonderful companions," she stated. Among the books mentioned were the Bible, A Good Life of Christ, a book on Apologetics, Webster's Dictionary, a good Catholic dictionary, "New Lives of the Saints" by Butler, New Testament Reading Guide, a book of Etiquette, Encyclopedia, Almanac, Atlas, American History Book, Thesaurus, Anthology and any other books that "will make children want to read." Taking children to museums, public libraries and art galleries is also contributory to their cultural development.

If you were to encourage your child to study diligently in school you must not undermine that diligence at home. You cannot speak in a debunking manner about learning, educated people, classical music and culture in general. You cannot be a status seeker who places undue stress on social prestige or encourage vanity and excessive attention to style, she pointed out.

Sister Jean Clare said that the parent has a responsibility not only to create an environment for learning but also to create in the home an atmosphere of security and manifested love for the child. She said it didn't matter whether the discipline in a home was strict or lenient; what was the important thing was that it was consistent and that it led to the development of habits of self-discipline. One of the trends Sister emphasized was that

Our By-Laws Revisions Committee must have done a good job overall considering the very, very few questions raised at the last meeting after the reading of the proposed new changes. . . Many were the changes, some great, some minor, but all designed to building the basic structure of the best Post in Nassau County for years to come. . . Chairman Pete Muller should be proud. . . Post Activities Chairman Joe Slattery had a word or two to say about the coming St. Patrick's Dance on March 14th. . . A hot Corned Beef and Cabbage Dinner is included this year at only $5.00 per person! Get your tickets early and get a seat, it's no fun standing up to eat. . . Our Commander, Dick Hochbrueckner and his missus, along with Jr. Past Commander Dick O'Neill were voted tickets to the annual Jr. Past County Commander's Dinner at the Platt Deutsche Hall in Elmont in the merry month of March. . . directly associated with courtesy and respect for every person. "We and Our Children" by Mary Reid Newland is a book she recommended, every parent should read.

A child will imitate his parents, more than we realize. As Emerson said, "what you are bellows so loud, I can't hear what you say." "Set a good example," Sister said, "Don't preach."

"Parents," she stated, "are the key to the religious education of the child. They are, for the child, a type of god." She stated, "If you want your child to be honest, you cannot lie before him; if you want them to respect the name of God, you cannot use profane language before them; if you want them to develop spiritual outlooks on life, you cannot be constantly arguing about money matters in their presence. Preaching never accomplishes much. Good example is the all important thing. Pray with them at their meals, at bedtime, celebrate their birthdays; recreate with them; receive Holy Communion with them; help them to decide upon a vocation in life.

The winner of our Dark Horse Drawing was George Gros. . . And he didn't even pay for the ticket! What generous soul donated it??? . . . Don't look now but our next annual visit to Kings Park State Hospital to bring a bit of cheer to the veterans and kids is set for November 8. . . I'm still in need of several photographs to complete our Past Commanders' Roges Gallery at the Post. . . Operation VFW

William M. Gouse Jr. Post No. 3211
by Eddie Klebing

VFW members who failed to take advantage of the special Reunion Party at the last meeting missed a good thing. Bill Kummer and his committee which consisted of George Walden and Joe Gilligan staged a successful get-together which was highly favored by all who attended.

Past Commander George Walden enlightened members with a talk on Post Activities. His subjects concerning VFW membership, finances, business and social activities covered a multitude of hard work by the active membership. Comrade Walden is well versed in VFW activities and his opinions are respected by his fellow members.

Commander William Kaiser, our distinguished guest, then spoke on the need of a Navy. It was quite evident by the attention given to the commander, VFWers, and guests enjoyed his talk about the Navy during World War II and its present functions which came about due to technological changes, automation and missiles.

Country Commander Bill Meyer surprised us with a visit and made a brief talk on VFW goals for 1964 in the county. In addition, the commander brought with him films of the VFW National Home at Easton Rapids Michigan which he took during a recent trip there. These added to the interest of the men that evening along with the enjoyable narration by the Country Commander.

A raffle held in conjunction with the party was won by Senior Vice Commander Artie Puelling and our guest, Commander Kaiser.

After the meeting was closed, an attractive buffet was set out for the benefit of hungry appetites. It was nice to see some strange faces and at the same time familiar ones that haven't been in the Post for a long time. So if you missed this one, be patient, another one is planned.

Picnic lovers have a choice between Salisbury Park and Roosevelt Memorial Park this summer for the annual VFW outing. Elimination of one should take place at the next meeting. Your vote will decide it. Dance Chairman, Frank Blessit would like to hear from the member immediately or sooner, if they plan coming to the annual dinner and dance on Feb. 22. Quick action is urged as seating arrangements must be made.

Members of the Post I spoke to, like myself, failed to receive their January issue of the VFW Magazine. During a recent lunch hour I was fortunate enough to be able to look at a copy of the magazine in the New York Public Library on Fifth Avenue. The issue included an interesting story about Congressman Carl Vinson by General J. D. Hixie in his column, "VFW and National Security." Abridged it goes somewhat like this:

Government efficiency experts and budget slashers in early 1957 decided that horses and caissons were old fashioned, that they had no place in modern funeral establishment - even for funerals at hallowed Arlington Cemetery. They failed to reckon with Congressman Carl Vinson of Georgia, chairman of House Armed Services Committee, in making their suggestion.

Were it not for this venerable and honorable man there would have been no horses or caisson to carry the late President John F. Kennedy with valorous dignity to the final steep of all warriors. The dignity and solemnity of the final farewell to the late President would not be recorded in such noble fashion, Congressman Vinson wrote to the Secretary of the Army:

"In these times of super-sonic speed, guided missiles, nuclear submarines, I can understand the seeming incongruity of a horse drawn funeral cortege, but had hoped that the peace of modern living might be at least retarded

"Can we not retain the 17 horses now serving at Fort Meyer and let the world observe in our great zest for speed and efficiency and accomplishments, we can still find time to use and give proper tribute to some of our honored dead?"

The Pentagon action to Chairman Vinson's letter was quick. The funeral horses were kept.

Petito Speaker At Democratic Club

The Hicksville Regular Democratic Club will hold its next monthly meeting on Thursday, Feb. 20, at 8:30 p.m. at Old Country Manor, Hicksville.

Michael N. Petito, Town of Oyster Bay Supervisor, will be the guest speaker. It is anticipated Petito will have some interesting observations and comments to convey in connection with his office of Town Supervisor.

Reservations for the club's St. Valentine's Dinner-Dance to be held Feb. 29, at Old Country Manor, may be obtained at the meeting or by contacting Chairman Dan Carey at WE 5-5177.

Close on Feb 22

Washington's birthday, Feb. 22nd, which falls on a Saturday this year will be observed as a legal holiday in the Hicksville Post Office and its Plainview Branch, according to Acting Postmaster Irene L. Murphy. There will be no delivery service on that day except for Special Delivery. There will be no window service provided in the Main Post Office or any of its branches.

Jericho Death Draws Attention

Jericho and Plainview made all the major newspapers, radio and TV news programs this week when Edmond Nugent, 49, of Nixon Dr., Plainview, was found dead in his sedan parked on Aberdeen Rd. off Jericho Tpke., Jericho, Nassau Dist. Atty. Wm. Cahn revealed that Nugent had been a witness in a recently disclosed vice ring on Long Island.

A Jericho resident walking his dog early Tuesday morning found the sedan smoldering and Jericho Fire Dept was called. Nugent was found dead behind the driving wheel. Because of his recent testimony, police investigated the death to determine whether of not there had been foul play. He was part owner of a bar near the spot where the car burned.

Aberdeen Rd runs south of Jericho Tpke and is in the western section of Jericho.

Funeral services for Nugent are scheduled for 9:30 a.m. this Saturday. Burial will be under the direction of the Thomas F. Dalton Funeral Home. The site of interment was unavailable at this press time.

Mr. Nugent is survived by his wife, Ellen and four sons, Edmond Jr., John P., Christopher B. and Kevin T.

Rosalie Bavero Becomes Bride

Our Lady of Mercy R.C. Church, Hicksville, was the scene of the marriage of Miss Rosalie Bavero to Blas Brual on Saturday afternoon, Feb. 1. Rev. Charles McGowan administered the sacrament at the three o'clock ceremony. The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bavero of 2 Northampton Gate, Bethpage, wore a gown of white delustered satin, fashioned in a bell skirt with a chapel train and trimmed with lace appliqued with crystals. She wore a short veil and carried white roses. The bride's sister, Joyce Ann Bavero was maid of honor and wore a red-delustered satin gown featuring a bell skirt and velvet jacket. She wore a fur hat and a fur muff with a complimenting floral arrangement. The bridesmaids, Joan Orworth of Hicksville, Norma Mendola of Cedarhurst, Maureen McCoy of Plainview and a cousin of the bride, Pam Brucato of Westbury wore similar ensembles. The groom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Blas B. Brual of Jacob St., Elmont had Donald R. Smith of Elmont as best man. Ushers were Paul C. Smith of Commack, Joseph Gentile of Hicksville, Sal Lo Bianco of Massapequa Park and a brother of the bride, Francis M. Bavero.

After a reception at the Golden Meadowbrook Restaurant, Jericho, the newly-weds left for a six week tour of the U.S.A. Mrs. Brual is head bookkeeper at the Bank of Westbury. Mr. Brual who attended Hof-

NOTICE OF SPECIAL DISTRICT MEETING
UNION FREE SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 17 OF THE TOWN OF OYSTER BAY, NEW YORK
MARCH 7, 1964

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Board of Education of Union Free School District No. 17 of the Town of Oyster Bay, in the County of Nassau, New York, on February 1, 1964, a Special District Meeting of the qualified voters of said School District will be held on MARCH 7, 1964, at 9:00 o'clock A.M. (E.S.T.), in the seven Election Districts stated below, for the purpose of voting upon the following Proposition:

PROPOSITION

RESOLVED:
(a) That the Board of Education of Union Free School District No. 17 of the Town of Oyster Bay, in the County of Nassau, New York, is hereby authorized to:
1. acquire by purchase or condemnation the certain piece of parcel of land situate on the east side of Jerusalem Avenue, Hicksville, in said School District, and adjacent to the north side of the site of the existing Hicksville Free Public Library Building, described on the Land and Tax Map of the County of Nassau

as Section 46, Block 263, Lots 14 and 15, heretofore designated as an addition to the site of said Library Building pursuant to resolution adopted by said Board of Education on February 1, 1964, and more particularly described therein by metes and bounds and to expend therefor, including preliminary costs of maps, plans, surveys, estimates and hearings, an amount not to exceed the estimated maximum cost of $6,000;
2. construct a new building to be attached to the 1956 Wing of said Hicksville Free Public Library Building, in said School District, on a part of the site of said existing Library Building, including the addition to said site hereinabove authorized to be acquired to grade and improve the site of said new building and purchase the original furnishings, equipment, machinery and apparatus required for the purpose for which said new building is to be used and to expend therefor, including preliminary costs and costs incidental thereto and the financing thereof, in an amount not to exceed the estimated maximum cost of $256,500;

(b) that the estimated total cost of said foregoing specific objects or purposes, including preliminary costs and costs incidental thereto and the financing thereof, is $262,500, and a tax is hereby voted therefor in the aggregate amount of not exceeding $262,500, to be levied and collected in installments in such years and in such amounts as may be determined by the Board of Education; and
(c) that in anticipation of said tax, bonds of the School District are hereby authorized to be issued in the aggregate principal amount of not exceeding $262,500, and that the tax is hereby voted to pay the interest on the said bonds as the same shall become due and payable.

AND TALKING ABOUT INDIANS — Here's a few smoke signals from the wigwam of Comet Lacrosse coach Bill Meyer. Meyer's Varsity Braves are getting ready for the season by banging tomahawks in the "Recreation Box Lacrosse League". Capt. Joe Sarno's Apaches are leading the pack 2-0 followed by Pete Martin's Irguts 1-1, Dave Hoosack's Mohawks 1-1 and the Stoux 0-2 captained by Paul Wolkiewicz. Paul Rondone is top scorer with 7 goals. Tom Cara and Robin Winkle have 5 and Dave Hoosack, Gus Medina and Jerry Kanawada have 4. The Comets will be playing in the Division II League this season. They square off against New Hyde Park on Mar. 26. "It should be a banner year" Meyer enthused "Over 50 boys are out for the Varsity and 45 for the Jayvees. They might surprise again" he concluded with a note of optimism. As well remembered the Comets (a first year club last season) upset the experts by finishing 3rd in a strong Section I League. They rate another long shot bet this time around. Meyer is also mentoring the Hicksville Recreation Basketball League. The Frogs, Rams and Marauders hold identical 2-0 records. Top scorers are Latimore 47, Cleraki 39, Cahagher 32 and Dorenbecker 29 pts.

MAT FACTS -- J.V. wrestling coach Fred Recher's squad is headlocking along with a 7-2 record this year. Most of his grapplers are sophs and according to him the following ones are outstanding -- Ken Ribarich (103 lbs.), Pete Ingvaldstad (114), Bill Brough (129), Russ Mahler and Bill Kraft (140) and Jim Dyckman and Barry Damm at 147 lbs. Other Sophs Ralph Sontag (hwy) and Howie Berkowitz (103) are members of the Varsity squad.

RIGER'S RAIDERS -- Chalk up a 6-1 record for the Jr. High 7th and 8th grade basketball squad coached by Marty Riger and Ken Kingsley. The outstanding boys according to both are Dwight Erich (high scorer), Charles Levine (all around ability - excellent potential), Dave Fyffe (rebounder), Jim Cara and John Mangani (playmakers) and Roger Germain and Bob Gotlieb (able reserves). Look for these up and coming youngsters to provide the C.R.F. action in the years ahead.

COMET COURTSMEN 6-4 -- A Senior Prom upset the schedule this past week, but the locals will be back on the beam when they face Syosset this Friday nite at home. Hicksville 6-4 over all and 4-2 league, is expected to run into trouble with the league leading Braves. Clarke away on the Tuesday prior to this issue should go to Hicksville by 10 points (or so says the crystal ball). Leading scorers for the Comets (averaging double figures every game) are Tom Kumiga, Paul Colosana and Bill Corrigan. Corrigan is also the leading rebounder. Rich Medina holds the "assistis" record.

SULLIVAN 3rd IN 2 MILE RUN -- Chalk up another fine showing for top L.I. and County runner Pete "Silky" Sullivan of Hicksville High. Sullivan had a fine clocking of 9:38.5 in the open 2 mile indoor run held recently at the L. I. Arena in Commack. This run open to over 40 Nassau and Suffolk schools saw Ron Gustafson of Wantagh win the event with a tremendous clocking of 9:31.5-7 seconds faster than Sullivan. Other Comets making a fine showing at the meet were Tom Scanlon (4th) and Ray Gutoski in the Novice Mile.

SYOSSET MATMENT STOP COMETS -- High School wrestling's the sort of competitive sport that has no peers in the valuable lesson it teaches -- It's a game of schoolboy table stakes -- put up or shut up -- with no time out or substitutions. You're on your own and you sort of grow up in one big hurry when you suddenly find out the other guy are more Wheaties than you did -- and as a result has a bit more bounce to the ounce. These things happen and are to be expected if the season's expected to be successful -- You can't win them all say the experts. And the grand masters of Comets and in this case are Coach Bill Roberts and his Varsity grapplers. They are barreling along with an impressive 8-2 record, but then came Clarke and Syosset in that order -- Both turned back the Comets. Syosset did it last Friday afternoon 22-15. Winners for Hicksville were Dave Trudi and Robin Winkle (undefeated), Santo Cafore, Bill Justman and Ralph Sontag. The Comets (9-5) face Great Neck North this Friday afternoon, away.

DOWN MEMORY LANE -- The year was 1941 -- and there were enough football players around to call for an extra in the Budget. Hicksville had a 3-3-1 record that year. They opened with a 9-9 tie against Chaminade and closed with an 18-0 shutout over Farmingdale. The sonic boom of the season was a 24-0 rout over Roslyn. Team members that received Varsity letters were -- Bob Ambron, Charles Arnone, George Betcha, Bob Bevan, John Biggers, Walt Blessee, Ed Cheslock, Neal Costello, John Deci, Bob Genova, Ray Halleran, Jim Hall, Mike Greggo, Jim Herket, Ernie Maxey, Bill Mayer, Ernie Emergency!

The outside temperature is in the teens... and your heating unit just conked out! Maybe it's out of fuel, or one of the many moving parts broke down, or perhaps the sticky fuel itself gummed up the mechanism. Ordinary heating unit failures can be caused by a lot of things that just can't happen when you heat with clean, dependable Gas.

A Gas heating unit has fewer moving parts than ordinary units, so there are fewer break-downs and fewer costly repairs. No delivery problems with Gas, either. It's piped directly to your home. And Gas Heat is clean... clean before you use it, clean after you use it. Never throws off an oily residue that coats walls, ceilings, furniture with a thin film of soot.

Why take chances on ordinary fuels -- converting to Gas Heat is often just a 9 to 5 job. Call these numbers today for further information: in NASSAU PI 7-1041, in SUFFOLK MO 5-5300 or HA 3-3600. Or mail the coupon below.

Midland Civics Dance April 18

Bob Brook, President of the Midland Civic Assoc. of Hicksville, has announced that they will hold a Tenth Anniversary Dinner-Dance on April 18th at the Holiday Manor in Bethpage. Greg Verga and his Orchestra will play for dancing from 9 P.M. to 2 A.M., following a Cocktail Party from 8 to 9. Tickets will be available from any of the past presidents of the organization. Last year's dinner-dance was a sell-out and many members and friends of the association were not able to attend. Unlike other civic associations which have become inactive after a few years, the Midland Civic Association has expanded and remains active in civic and community affairs having participated in many important projects during their ten years. Current membership is at an all time high.

The next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, Feb. 19th at the Willet Ave. School.

The Long Island Chapter of Civil Service Employees will hold their Annual Installation Dance and Buffet at the Hicksville Jewish Center, Jerusalem Ave. and Maglie Dr., Hicksville, on Saturday evening, Feb. 22 at 8:30 p.m.

STUDYING BLUE PRINTS of the new Twin Town and Country Theaters under construction at Mid-Island Plaza are Chamber President Lawrence McCaffrey, Jules Schwartz, Rudolf Bouse, Chairman; Jirah Cole and Chester Spinek, all members of the Hicksville Business and Industry Committee of The March of Dimes. The theater opening - for the benefit of the National Foundation - is expected in May as a gala premier. Bouse, stressed the need for continued support for local business men. "When you realize how lucky we are with our normal, healthy families - we should stop to realize that one in sixteen children born with a significant birth defect and they are the concern of all people. Please don't forget to send in your donations so that we can aid these babies." (Photo by Drennan)

Veritones Make Hit at Ball

The Hicksville Police Boys Club Nautical Cadets held their second Military Ball at the Hicksville Jr. High School on Feb. 7. The evening's festivities got off to a wonderful start as the band played the Grand March in which the officers of the Nautical Cadets and their wives took lead.

The band consisted of five young men called the Veritones. Jack Breschard and Leon Gary Epstein played the guitars, Tom Maloney, drums; Johnny Norris, piano and vocalist, Bob Crothers. These boys are teenagers and play extremely well. If they continue in this field they could make quite a name for themselves. They deserve a lot of credit and the Hicksville P.B.C. Nautical Cadets were grateful that they played for them at their Ball.

A Queen of the Ball was selected and the lucky little girl who won was pretty Paula Hamma of Hicksville. She was escorted by Seaman Recruit Frank Petrone of Hicksville. The Queen was presented with a crown and a bouquet of flowers.

Some of the guests who attended were Captain Charles Gemuendet, Regimental Commander of the Nassau County Police Boys Club Nautical Cadets; Patrolman Director Frank Darcy, George Moore, President of the Hicksville P.B.C. Mens Club.
