Gala Greets Train

Everyone in the community is invited to participate in the historic ceremonies on Saturday morning, Sept. 12, starting at about 9 AM and celebrating the complete switch-over of all Long Island Rail Road service to the multi-million dollar overhead viaduct. The Hicksville school band will be on hand to provide inspiring music.

As the HERALD went to press, the exact time of arrival of the first train eastbound from Jamalca on the Port Jefferson branch was set at 9:46 AM. Trains have been running overhead on the Main Line to Ronkonkoma for several weeks.

The Hicksville Chamber of Commerce and individuals actively identified with the progress of the LIRR grade crossing elimination program, the largest of its kind in the entire state, will be featured at the ceremonies when the first train pulls up to the spanking twin-platform, three-track depot. Several special and spectacular activities are planned in connection with the historic event.

Since this year is approximately 125 years from the day the first LIRR train ran out from Jamaica to Hicksville, there is talk of participation by costumed personalities. There is also planning for refreshments for spectators and a "breakfast dance" swing in the new ground-level passenger waiting room to the music of a live well-known combo.

AROUND AND AROUND they went, Monday night, when the election of a Hicksville Water Commissioner was held at the Hicksville Courthouse. Above is the doubled back crowd along Heitz Pl. at about 9 PM. Below is the view from the second floor of the courthouse as voters entered.

Three Out of State Entries for Labor Day

There are 48 entries for the 36th annual Labor Day parade and tournament of Hicksville Fire Dept. including volunteer units from three other states, it was disclosed today by B. Medard Ofenloch, general chairman and grand marshal of the parade on Sept. 7.

The parade on Labor Day will start promptly at 9:30 AM, rain or shine, with the sounding of the fire sirens. In the event of severe inclement weather the competitions, scheduled for 1 o'clock, will be postponed until the following Saturday.

The Wm Gause Jr. Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will put up the American flags early in the morning. The flags are owned by the Chamber of Commerce and will be seated in the special holders on parking meter posts along Broadway, and Marie St.

Among the out-of-state volunteers in the parade will be units from Levittown, Pa.; Unionville, Conn.; and New Hampshire.

Ex-Chiefs of the fire dept will be marshals of the six divisions. The line of march will be, as last year, from Hicksville Firehouse on E. Marie St., north on Bway to Herzog Pl., south on Jerusalem Ave to Old Country, east on Old Country to Broadway via Carl St., north on Bway to Mid Island Plaza and thence west to the racing course which is behind the Burns Ave School.

The parade marshals, besides Ofenloch as Grand Marshal, and their units are as follows:
1st Walter Telender - Oyster, Bethpage, Floral Park, Freeport, West Hempstead, Hempstead, Bellmore, Uniondale.

2nd - George A. Kunz - Plainview, Wantagh, Manhasset-Lakeville, Levittown, Wm Penn Lev-

Re-Elect Kunz 738 to 394

A record-breaking 1140 votes were cast in a two-hour period, Monday night, as George A. Kunz was re-elected commissioner of Hicksville Water District defeating Joseph Ferrandino, 738 to 394.

At 6:30, a half hour before the polls opened, the line of voters extended from the front door of the Hicksville District Courthouse out to the street on Heitz Pl. By the time the polls officially closed at 9 PM, the line had doubled back along Heitz Pl to the rear of the clubhouse. A policeman took up a position on the end of the line and all those in the line were permitted to vote. The voting concluded at about quarter to ten.

Following the announcement of the official tally on the voting machines, used for the first time in a water election, by Oyster Bay Town Clerk Wm Buddy O'Keefe, Commissioner Kunz said he was deeply grateful to all who supported his candidacy and hoped to be worthy of their interest.

FRIEDA MURPHY

HICKSVILLE - Religious services were held at the Hicksville Methodist Church Saturday morning at 10 o'clock for Frieda Murphy of Brooklyn who died Aug. 27. Cremation followed at Fresh Pond Crematory. Arrangements were under the direction of the Wagner Funeral Home.

Mrs. Murphy is survived by her daughter, Mildred Davidson of Ohio St., here.

EDWARD LANDGROVER

HICKSVILLE -- A Solemn Requiem Mass was offered at St. Rose of Lima R.C. Church on Friday, Aug. 21 for Edward Landgrover, Sales Manager of the Hicksville Firestone Store on South Broadway. Mr. Landgrover who had been with Firestone for the past 14 years and was well known locally. He died suddenly Aug. 18 in a doctor's office at the age of 47.

Mr. Landgrover, who lived in Massapequa Park is survived by his widow, Cynthia; two sons, Edward and Robert and a daughter, Linda.

Burial followed at L.I. National Cemetery, under the direction of the James Funeral Home.

Dear Lynda:

During a certain election campaign in the past decade or so ago they talked about grass growing in the streets. Well, someone should look into the grass growing in the sidewalks of Broadway particularly opposite the Catholic Church. Pollen sufferers will not appreciate the rag week, etc., blossoming on the site of the former Kantor fire works. . . . JOMN J. BURNS will be the featured speaker at the meeting of the Ernest F. Francke Republican Club of Hicksville on Friday night, Sept. 11, at the Old Country Manor, according to ALEX PANKOFF, program chairman. . . . And, just why is ELLIE reducing? Opphs, we mean what Bar Malt is reducing and for what reason? . . . Sorry ELLIE. . . . It was the TIGER'S birthday last Sunday. Many past happies, JOE guy. . . . Scheduled to appear at the Hicksville Firemen's parade on Labor Day are units from New Hampshire, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, as well as upstate New York and Long Island. . . . PETE, the man with the handsome store teeth, says he has talked to his lawyer and we will be sued shortly along with TOM GEARY. . . . If so, then we tell the story about him and Levittown. . . . The water commissioner election on Monday night was a joy to many longer residents. The wait was worthwhile to exchange hellos with many long time friends we have not seen too much of late. . . . The results were alright, too. . . .

Happy birthday greetings to PAT DURCAN of Virginia Ave., Plainview who celebrated his 15th birthday on Aug. 27. . . .

That TOMMY OFENLOCH is a real egg eater if we ever saw one. . . . On our sixth visit to the NY World's Fair we noticed that in the Belgium Village there is a Hungarian restaurant that sells German and French (?) beer. . . . The word was out late Monday night that the foes of the incumbent water commissioner have now set their sights on the upcoming fire commissioner election. . . . We saw the bill board plastered on the Broadway RR crossing bridge Tuesday supporting the election of an incumbent. Knowing that the project has not been completed (meaning that the contractor has NOT turned over the job to the LIRR or someone else) we did a little checking. We found the LIRR knew nothing about the sign, that Transportation Displays (they sell advertising on timetables, rail road ties, etc) had signed contracts on this project last June (optimists), and that the opposition has rented the other side of the span. Oh well. . . .

78 Children In Reading Game

Seventy-eight children of Hicksville who participated in the reading game, "Reading Bears Fruit", read and reported on a total of 313 books, with 54 completing six or more books in a period of six weeks. The books read were from six categories: fiction, history and travel, literature, science, biography, and arts and recreation.

Although many books were read from each category, there seemed to be a particular interest in history and travel. A selection has been made from the reviews written by the children and will shortly be published. The program was climaxed by a trip to the Brooklyn Botanical Gardens and Prospect Park on Aug. 13.

"The Red Balloon", award winning production by Albert Lamorisse, was named the favorite in a series of children's films shown at the Hicksville Public Library the week of Aug. 17 to 21. This film festival entitled "Faraway Places" was presented by children's librarian Mary Lois Nicholls and most of the films were supplied by the Nassau Library system. In order of their popularity, the other films shown were: "Eruption of Kilauea" (Hawaii), "Japanese Boy", "The Ugly Duckling" (Denmark), "Jack and the Beanstalk" (England), "Madeline" (France), "Five Chinese Brothers", "Lentil" (USA), "This Is Israel" and the "Tale of the Florida" (Norway). Sixty children who attended all performances voted on the final day: the total attendance numbered over 500 children.

More than 35,000 residents of Clifton, N.J. had their electric power cut off by a squirrel. The tiny animal brushed against a disconnect button atop a steel tower controlling a 26,000 volt line. In addition to householders many industrial plants were stilled during the 45 minutes it took to discover the source of the trouble.

BAD MOVE—Urban renewal activities by the federal government in St. Louis, Mo., and Kansas City, Kan., have come under the fire of the General Accounting Office. It reported that families displaced by new building projects were relocated in substandard housing.

HIDDEN COST — Although it was only casually mentioned in the federal pay raise debate, the new rates will put the federal retirement fund another $1.25 billion in the red. The overall deficiency is $35 billion.

CAPITAL BRIEFS

GUESSES—If the new federal budget winds up with a bigger deficit than planned, say Washington observers, it will probably be due, in part, to the fact that spending on farm programs has bulged; that the government could not find buyers for as many mortgages as it planned to sell.

SAFEGUARD—An amendment proposed by Rep. Walter Rogers (D., Tex.) that would make it possible for Congress to overturn some Supreme Court acts by a two-thirds vote is said to be gaining favor among members of both houses.

GROUND—The General Accounting Office reports that many important training courses at the Aviation School, Fort Rucker, Alabama had to be cancelled or curtailed because the U.S. Army Aviation Command failed to provide contractors with the parts needed to overhaul the engines of the training planes.

SIMPLE? — Sen. Wallace F. Bennett (R.—Utah) reports that the President's Committee on Consumer Interest had the Department of Agriculture prepare tables on simple interest. Distribution of 100,000 copies began, he said, before it was discovered they were wrong.

CREATING WEALTH — Pointing out that while the United States has only 6 per cent of the world's population it produces one-third of the goods and services, Rep. Wm. H. Harrison (R.—Wyo.), asserted that our system has already proved that the way to reduce poverty is not by redistributing wealth, D'Auria appointed Chairman of the Key Clubs for the N.Y.S. Kiwanis District - it will be his task to advise the entire Key Club organization in the State - our personal congratulations to a long-time friend. . . . Car dealers interested in displaying their 1965 models - call WElls 5-9700 - show set for latter part of October at the Plaza - you can't afford to miss this. . . .

STANDS ON WAY UP: Members of the Hicksville Fire Dept. have begun construction of the grandstands for the 36th annual Labor Day Parade next Monday, Sept. 7th at the Plaza. . . . Chairman B. Medard Olenoch and his hard working committee plan to make this year's event the biggest ever - plan to come early - bring the entire family and see in the line of march Hicksville's smartly dressed Ladies Auxiliary who won First Place for the best appearing Ladies Auxiliary at Annual State Volunteer Firemen's State Convention for the third time. . . .

FROM THE MAILBAG: Hicksville Kiwanis has named Tony Plonski to edit weekly bulletin - he will serve as Recording Sec'y replacing Gene (Indiana) Schillinger who did an excellent but by creating it. The solid and progressive remedy for poverty lies in fiscal responsibility and economic freedom, he added.

REAL TAX POCKET—"I would like to submit," said Rep. Katherine St. George (Rep.—N.Y.) "that a woman's handbag is not a luxury. It is a necessity. If you want to tax handbags for women you should tax pockets for men."

Operation VFW

William M. Gouse Jr.
Post No. 3211
by Eddie Klebing

Commander Art Fuelling showed good judgement when he appointed Jim Klueg Voice of Democracy chairman for this year. The first "Voice" contest held in Hicksville last year was launched because of Jim's interest in the big VFW project when he was commander. Jim will get an assist from Frank Aug and yours truly.

A Post dance will be held at the VFW Hall on Saturday evening, Sept. 19th. We admit this is short notice so anyone interested should contact Andy Sadowski at WE 5-4176 as soon as possible for reservations and particulars.

Sometime during this month members will receive a letter from the Post reminding them that payment of their 1965 dues will be in order starting Oct. 1st.

Legislative action affecting veterans was quiet in Washington last week because of the Democratic Convention in Atlantic City. In Cleveland however, interest in veterans affairs were just the opposite. The Veterans of Foreign Wars annual convention with 11,000 delegates met to elect a new national commander in chief and to busy themselves with resolutions proposed by VFW Posts throughout the country.

Two of those resolutions dealt with religious affairs and the Veterans of Foreign Wars went on record favoring constitutional amendment restoring prayer and bible reading in school.

Elected to national commander-in-chief for this year was John A. Jenkins of Birmingham, Alabama. More detailed proceedings of the convention should be available to the members in the October issue of VFW magazine. Copies of the Hicksville Veterans Association's by-laws have been reproduced for the board of directors with some additional copies for interested Post members.

Remember this Monday is Labor Day. VFWers are reminded it is a designated day to fly our flag. Members of the Post will meet at the Chamber of Commerce building on East Marie St. at 7 AM that day to install flags on the parking meters along Broadway. Any member who wishes to help is welcome.

After three years of membership Frank Aug won his first Post Raffle at the last meeting. Members get together again on Sept. 14th. See you then.

President's Corner

by Arnold F. Winant

The date has been set for the gala Civic Assoc. election dance. It was not a date of choice but more a matter of what was available which could fit into a sensible budget and guarantee that everyone would have a real rip roaring time. Much to our chagrin we found that our date of Dec. 5th conflicted with the Saturday night presentation of the Jericho Scholarship fund. We contacted the scholarship fund people and asked if it was possible for them to hold their affair on another date. Quite naturally, it would be fairly easy for the scholarship show to amend their plans for the reason that their affair will be held in the high school which will be available at other times while our affair will be held in the Americana Country Club which is not available any other time.

Negotiations are still in progress and we expect to hear from them within a short time. However, the scholarship show is an important event in the community and we urge each and every one of you to obtain your scholarship show tickets for the Friday or Sunday evening performances and well in advance so that you can attend both affairs.

Joel Zimmerman has planned an evening of sufficient food and more than adequate entertainment. We have planned on having an attendance of 500 people. There will be 3000 hors d'oeuvres, bagels and cream cheese, coffee and Danish. The food will be served and the bar will be open. Besides the usual dance band, Joel plans to have a show. The planner is excellent and, therefore, we are sure that the plans he is making will also be excellent.

In the last edition of the VILLAGER, we noted the reference to vandalism directed against the gleaming white marble entrance gates to East Birchwood. I had occasion to view the evidence of this terrible act. In addition, to this act of vandalism another was called to my attention. Three words sprayed onto the walkway to the Seaman School refers to a religious group in terms of a four letter word.

Such acts reflect upon this community and the up bringing of our children. It is the duty of all parents to teach their children that such acts should not be committed that they are punishable and despicable. It also calls to attention the duty of every citizen who happens to witness such acts or knows the identity of the wrongdoers, to stop their further commission and to report them to the proper authorities. Such happenings must be prevented in the future. They do not speak well of our community or of us as members of the community. They certainly do not provide good training for our youngsters if we allow them to roam, free to commit these acts, without consequence. Let's not allow Jericho to fall prey to this type of crime.

"Even moderation should not be practised to excess."

The Jericho Water Supply

By Hy Strell

(This article is the fifth in a series on the Jericho Water supply. Today's article describes the meter installation, discusses the water leakage problem, and explains the special services available from the Jericho Water District. The writer notes with regret that it was necessary for the Water District to send around a sound truck during the past week to remind the community of its civic responsibilities with respect to the sprinkling regulations. For the benefit of those who have forgotten the regulations, or who never knew them in the first place, we will print a summary in our next and concluding article.)

Each user in the Jericho Water District is supplied with an underground meter which continuously records the amount of water consumed, and serves as a basis for billing. The meter is installed by the District and is paid for by the builder. The builder's cost of $88 for installation, materials, pit, cover, and meter is usually included in the cost of the house. All tubing is supplied by the builder.

The meter pipes are of three-quarter inch tubing, and are located four feet underground. The meter itself is required to be four inches deep, and the cover must be flush with the ground. If the meter is too deep, it may be inaccessible. If it is too high, the pipes are exposed to the danger of freezing. In the event that the installation is improper, the District has the right to make corrections and bill the responsible party. During the first year of occupancy, the responsible party is the builder. Thereafter, the homeowner assumes the responsibility.

One of the advantages of a meter is that it provides a ready means for checking leaks. With all faucets turned off, the meter shows the rate at which water is being wasted through spurious orifices. To check the extent of such wastage, the Jericho Water District performed a statistical survey of service calls to the first 148 consumers in its file of Birchwood accounts. It was found that a total of 158 service calls were made to these accounts between 1957 and 1964. Over 62 percent of the calls revealed leaks that were the owner's responsibility. These included 22 toilet tank leaks and 76 miscellaneous leaks covering ring-style valves, curb boxes, automatic lawn sprinklers, and faucets.

To provide an appreciation of the possible financial toll of water leakage, we cite some figures published by the Water District. A leak through a half-inch diameter orifice at forty pounds pressure is estimated to consume 1,350 gallons per hour. Such leak might occur, for example, in a continuously running toilet. The cost to the consumer in this case is $298 per month! Data on leaks of lesser magnitude are tabulated below:

Orifice Diameter (inches)	Gallons per Hour	Cost per Month
1/4	375	$81.00
1/8	150	$32.40
1/16	30	6.48
1/32	7 1/2	1.62

The Jericho Water District will perform a meter check for a fee of two dollars. It is interesting to note that other water districts charge a minimum of four dollars, and increase the fee in accordance with the size of the meter - sometimes as high as thirty dollars! Other services provided by the Jericho Water District include the discontinuation and resumption of the water service free of charge. Other districts charge four dollars per call, or no charge for discontinuation and ten dollars for resumption. Unpaid water bills are filed with the Town Board only once a year - September 15. Once filed, unpaid bills are subject to interest charges at the rate of six percent. Other districts charge up to ten percent on bills that are not paid within thirty days, shut off the water service immediately, levy fees for discontinuation and resumption, and require payment in cash. If a Jericho District meter is found to be out of order, the owner is charged a three dollar fee for the quarterly billing period. Other districts charge in accordance with the previous year's consumption over the same period.

The man in charge of outside services for the Jericho Water District is Superintendent William Hoaglund. Mr. Hoaglund has been with the District for thirty-three years, and had considerable professional experience in plumbing prior to joining. He may be reached by calling the Jericho Water District at WA 1-8250. The writer has been assured that Mr. Hoaglund has a deep interest in the service problems of the consumers, and that he would be pleased to discuss these problems and take any actions that may be necessary.

Mrs. Rothchild Makes Donation

The residents of Central School District No. 2, Syosset through their Board of Education, were the recipients of a generous gift donated to the District by Mrs. Carola W. Rothchild.

The gift is a four-acre parcel of land located north of Cold Spring Harbor Road and east of the Berry Hill School. The land is separated from the Berry Hill School site by a driveway on which a perpetual easement exists, thus making it accessible for school use. Plans will be developed to use the land for nature study purposes. The parcel lies in the path of the proposed extension of the Wadsworth-Oyster Bay Expressway, thus it will become a financial asset to the district when the State begins to purchase land to proceed with the road extension.

Russell R. Roetger, Board of Education accepted the gift for the district and expressed his pleasure and appreciation of Mrs. Rothchild's generosity and thoughtfulness in giving the land to the School District.

LETTER TO EDITOR

Dear Mr. Lubitz:

I am writing to you in your capacity as Editor of the VILLAGER, the portion of the MID-ISLAND HERALD which reports news of interest to residents of Birchwood-at-Jericho.

We feel that the residents of this area will be vitally interested in the work undertaken by the Jericho Public Library Committee to determine the extent of our School District's interest in a Public Library for Jericho.

In July, we held a highly successful "worker member" meeting. In August, we sent out a community-wide Bulletin to explain the need for a Public Library service in Jericho. We have also set in motion a community-wide "library use and need" survey which is now being conducted by almost 120 volunteers.

Library Survey Is Underway

The Jericho Public Library Committee began its community-wide Library Survey Aug. 14th, and plans to reach every Jericho Household by Sept. 12th. Over the four-week period indicated, all Jericho residents will have been asked 8 questions by the 120 volunteers from the Committee. The questions are:

1. Did you use a Public Library facility in the community or city where you lived before coming to Jericho?
2. Was the facility used for recreational reading?
3. Was the facility used for school assignments or research?
4. Have you joined a public library since moving to Jericho?
5. Do you have children in your household? At what school level?
6. How frequently does your child spend a block of time at a library? (About an hour or more devoted to "browsing or in research")
7. Would this time be increased if a Public Library were within easy walking or bicycling distance?
8. If a Jericho Public Library could be established without easy walking or driving distance from your home, at a cost that would be less than the present Hicksville non-resident fee of $15.00 per year, would you be in favor of having such a Jericho Public Library?

The Jericho Public Library Committee is making the Survey to assess the level of interest that now exists in Jericho for a Public Library. It is hoped by the Committee that the expected total of over 2000 replies will give a realistic picture of Jericho's library requirements. It would substantiate the need for a referendum to give residents the chance to vote for a Jericho Library. Since the Survey asks only for a simple and direct statement of library needs and wishes, the community is urged to cooperate fully with the volunteers who will be continuing to ring Jericho's doorbells this month.

SCHOOL'S OPEN - Will you be carpooling the youngsters this fall? Avoid this mother's dangerous errors, cautions Carol Lane, women's travel director for Shell Oil Co. Keep children seated until the car is fully stopped. Park close to the curb. Have children exit from the right side only -- directly onto the sidewalk. And don't let that back-seat rough-housing distract you from your other precious charges.

LIVING UNDER LAW

Insurance Contracts

Hundreds of years ago, insurance was often a one-man business. One man would insure a ship's cargo, say, and in doing so he might lose his fortune.

But in 1825, the British House of Commons looked into England's insurance business, and said this:

When there is a risk, the best way to guard against it is to join with others, so that each man might lose a little, but no man can lose a lot. Spread the risk. As a result, insurance today is a big business. We have millions of policies worth billions of dollars in force.

An insurance policy is a contract. The company promises to pay you a certain sum for loss or damage of the things you insure -- your life, your home, your health and the like, and you promise to pay a premium for this protection. Your policy sets out what you have both agreed to.

There are many types of policies, and individual policies may vary. Check each clause carefully. Then have the insurance man explain it. Be sure all details of the agreement are written into the policy. You and the company are, in general, bound by the written word.

As a home owner you have many risks, like fire, against which you can insure yourself. Other insurable risks are theft, windstorm, hail, glass breakage, cloudbursts, explosion, and the like.

In today's world, insurance contracts serve as extremely useful devices for millions of people. But, you should never forget that they are contracts, and you will get what you contract for and no more.

Around the District

with Joe Koerner

WORKING WORLD OF SCHOOL CUSTODIAN. . . Who is he. . . this man that wears the raiment of two professions? Is he as some surmise. . . an employee in the twilight of his working career. . . or is he an important and integral part of the school system? Why is he referred to as a Janitor by some and a Custodian by others? What makes him tick? What are his ideals. . . his aims. . . his duties?

The answer to these questions can best be summed up in a short paragraph written by a noted Schoolman with 40 years in the field of education. He agrees. . . "A School Custodian then is not only versatile but is intelligent, conscientious, industrious and agreeable as well. . . It bears repeating that he is an important employee". So with this thought in mind. . . let's delve into the background of a typical School Custodian. We'll call him "Dan Druff" for want of a better name. Most often he's a homeowner and taxpayer in the community he works in. He's a neat clean individual and very much unlike the dungaree clad, pipe smoking gent usually depicted in cartoonists strips. He works days, afternoons or the mid-night shift. . . and his main purpose in life other than the welfare of his wife and children is to keep his individual school station as clean and sanitary as possible. This applies to the afternoon or mid-night custodian during the regular school term.

His station as it is commonly called usually amounts to approximately 13 to 16,000 sq. ft. . . or in numbers better understood . . . 13 classrooms, two long rest rooms, 3 or 4 small offices and the corresponding hallway. This is his station each and every school day of the year. He sweeps cleans and dusts these areas nightly and in general performs all the other tasks of sanitation necessary. If there are adult or recreation programs in the building the night custodian also attends to the details involved. His tasks in general are multiple in nature and if he's a good custodian the greater part of his eight hour tour of duty is spent to good advantage. He's a boon to the taxpayer for the simple reason that a good School Custodian is a careful frugal one. He effects minor repairs before they become major. . . He's miserly with the use of supplies and materials and he wastes nothing be it light water or heat. In short. . . he's an asset to the taxpaying public. If he's contented, recognized and adequately compensated the School District becomes the beneficiary. So in short again. . . A good School Custodian is born to his trade. . . He's not made. And if the consensus of opinion of all Custodians are taken as the rule. . . No amount of in-service training can turn a bad Custodian into a good one. For this is usually a quiet unheralded employee and the daily tasks he performs is very rarely understood or fully appreciated. It's a monotonous grind that involves cleaning. . . cleaning and more cleaning. . .

and the end result is seldom ever fully understood by the outsider.

Only the School Principal knows the true worth of a sound well organized Custodial staff for it is he who bears the full responsibility for the operation of his school. If the school plant is clean and well maintained the School Principal can by-pass this area of school life and concentrate on the many other tasks that involve him daily. He's in the business of educating the young and his assistants and various members of the faculty find students much more susceptible to education if a high degree of cleanliness is constantly maintained. This is the job of the Custodial Staff and for this reason only the born Custodian and the School Principal (his assts. Faculty members and all others working in the building on a non-teaching level) remove it from the class of the relatively simple.

THE DAY CUSTODIAN, MAINTENANCE STAFF, GROUNDSMEN AND THE HEAD CUSTODIAN. . . These are the men that who through aptitude and experience become the Jack's of all Trades in a modern School Building. They are the strong right arm of the Buildings and Grounds Dept. Their daily duties are legion and while not necessarily being masters of all trades they must possess a high degree of mechanical ability in the trades they represent or perform. A maintenance Electrician, for example, trouble shoots electrical problems throughout the entire School District. School Carpenters, Plumbers and Painters follow suit in all areas that pertain to their trades. Groundsmen work in a similar fashion on all the grounds throughout a modern School District. Their duties are many and varied and the good Groundsman is capable of performing just about every job he is called on to do. His accomplishments (including groundskeeping which usually takes top priority) might include masonry, roofing, or truck or equipment repairs or any other general service in the realm of Bldgs and Grounds. And like the Custodial end of the action the Groundsmen's lot in life is rarely understood or fully appreciated. He too goes his quiet way often unheralded and unsung. So with this thought in mind let's conclude this article with a paragraph lifted from the same source as before. We'll insert the word Bldgs. & Grounds employee in place of Custodian. . . "The Bldgs. and Grounds employee has an important educational influence in the school. The pupils hobnob with him at recess and at other school intermissions. Unless he is intelligent and is clean in mind and body, his influence upon the pupils is not likely to be the best. Moreover, the Bldgs. and Grounds employee hears much, sees much and often says much regarding the school and all of this makes him an important public-relations agent; he can create good will for the school or he can thoughtlessly develop ill will for it". (End of Quote)

REUNIONS: The 94th Signal Bn. will hold their gathering on Sept. 4-6, at the Hotel Robert Treat, 50 Park Place, Newark, New Jersey. For further information contact GENE COOK, 469 West Lake Ave., Rahway, N. J. Members of the 74th and 174th Infantry Regts. will convene on Sept. 19th, at the Connecticut Street Armory, Buffalo, N. Y. Reservations of $13.00 must be sent to Henry Peterson, Chr. DIX-JA-KNOW...More than 164,000 American flags used to drape the caskets of deceased veterans were issued in 1963. That was 11,000 more than in the previous year when 153,183 were given out.

That during WW 2 the Germans built 1,150 U-Boats of which 781 were lost, 215 were scuttled and 154 surrendered. Of the U-Boat personnel...40,000 were members and of these 28,000 lost their lives and about 5,000 were taken prisoners. That in 11 years almost 10 per cent of our WW 2 veterans will enter the age bracket of 65.

REGIMENTAL SHIELDS: The Falcon on the shield of the 313th Inf. Regt. represents Mont-Falcon (Mt. Falcon) where the Regt. fought its principal engagement in World War I. The upper half of the shield is adapted from the Arms of Maryland and symbol-

CUM LAUDE GRAD

Linda Sue Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard P. Gray of 45 College Lane, Westbury, was graduated cum laude from Hofstra University on August 27, 1964.

A 1961 graduate of Hicksville High School, Linda received her BA in psychology and, in January, will receive her permanent teaching certification. She plans to teach emotionally disturbed children and will be working with a special class of second graders in September while working toward her Master's Degree.

izes the Regts. original area. The lower half is adapted from the arms of the Franche-Comte and recalls the 313th WW I training area in France. On the Shield of the 142nd Infantry Regt. (Seventh Texas) is a church representing St. Etienne, France, where the 142nd. received its World War I Baptism of fire, and the red band symbolic of the Red River separating Texas and Oklahoma the states from which the regt. units were drawn. To commemorate its honorable civil war service, the 156th. Regt. (First Louisiana) has emblazoned the St. Andrews Cross of the Confederate Battle flag, the Leopard taken from the arms of Normandy denotes the 156th. World War II Campaigns in Northern France.

MAINLY ABOUT VETERANS 1 KNOW...J.L. FRAGER, members of AMVETS, Post #4, took the fatal plunge and tells me that there is nothing like it. Very nice to know that all is well, Bill...seems everyone is doing it these days. Catch a glimpse of TONY SCHUMACHER over Bethpage way every once in awhile. Just found out that JOHNNY KER-SHOW who was a member of our high school class years ago chose to make the Army his career. Always wondered what happened. His brother is a member of the old Levittown AmVets post, REMEMBER WHEN...You pulled K. P. and it was your turn to clean the "Grease Traps?" The "Nite Problems" and Forced Marches? The "lump of starch" with onions and tomatoes that they called Spaghetti? The empty mess-halls on pay-day when we all went out to eat? Now before I close many veterans complain that they never hear about claims they make to the VA offices. It has been said that many of you veterans are forgetting to send your correct address when you are sending in any forms or papers. The VA has served notice that if your correct address is not given it is not their fault. If you have any business with the VA and hear nothing after a few weeks, write again. It's possible that you have fouled up some where. Remember also to note your C-(Claim) Number. See you all next week.
