LIFE SIZE statue of St. John Bosco, patron Saint of homeless boys, will be erected at St. Mary's of Angels Home in Syosset as a memorial to the late William Danda. His friends are being invited to contribute to the fund.

Suggests Leaf Disposal Plans

This is the season of problems for homeowners and municipal officials over the abundant fall of leaves in streets and yards according to Oyster Bay Town Highway Superintendent Norman T. Wolf.

Wolf said that the greater volume of fallen leaves is disposed of in two ways:

1. Placed in disposable containers and left at the curbside for pickup by garbage and refuse collectors, on regular collection days.

2. Raked into piles and left in the gutters for collection by highway department vacuum leaf collectors. These will be picked up as soon as crews can make the rounds. The Town is using 11 leaf collectors this year but it may be a week or more between collections of loose leaves from the Town's nearly 700 miles of road.

Burning leaves on roadways is frowned upon because the heat destroys asphalt surfacing, and the smoke irritates neighbors and is harmful to those with lung weaknesses.

Wolf said that homeowners are invited to use the approved and safe method most convenient to them.

See New Role For Jones Institute

Some hope for what experts have estimated as 70,000 alcoholics in Nassau County was contained in a resolution passed by the Nassau County Board of Supervisors Monday, calling for the establishment of a "half-way house", possibly at Jones Institute in Hicksville.

The resolution, introduced by Presiding Supervisor Ralph G. Caso of the Town of Hempstead as a result of his last April 22 all-day public hearings on alcoholism in Nassau County, was passed unanimously by the Board of Supervisors and calls for the "half-way house" as an "integral part of a total alcoholic treatment program which is an immediate necessity in Nassau County."

Called by Supervisor Caso, "the secret sorrow of the suburbs", alcoholism is presently treated in a very limited way at Meadowbrook Hospital. The establishment of an in-patient treatment center with a thorough rehabilitation program in cooperation with the Long Island Council on Alcoholism and Alcoholics Anonymous, labor unions and management, will be the first governmental effort on the part of Nassau County to provide meaningful treatment for its alcoholics, according to Supervisor Caso.

"Alcoholism in Nassau County is a serious matter", Supervisor Caso told the Board of Supervisors.

Seek Contributions: Bill Danda Friends To Raise Memorial

Friends of the late William Danda were today invited to contribute to a fund to provide a memorial to him at St. Mary's of Angels Home in Syosset. About a quarter of the goal of $800 has been achieved.

Bill Danda was the victim of a fatal automobile accident a year ago June 30. The Home in Syosset was for more than 10 years his favorite charity. Contributions are being sent to the Plainview office of the Long Island National Bank, attention of Arthur Mangano.

The funds will be used to provide a life-size statue of St. John Bosco, patron Saint of homeless boys, at the 75-acre institution on Convent Road, Syosset. In 72 years the home operated by the Catholic Sisters of Mercy has cared for about 10,000 homeless boys.

James Matlenzo is chairman of the committee which is raising the fund assisted by Dan Allen, Edward Emmel, Pat Ryan and Rudy Goldmann. They are appealing to all of Bill Danda's friends to help in this project. All contributions will be acknowledged. For information call Ryan at WE 1-9785.

During 14 years residence in Hicksville, Danda worked diligently in behalf of the Hicksville Fire Dept. and the Levittown-Hicksville Lodge of Elks. Although a non-Catholic, St. Mary's Home was his favorite charity and he frequently arranged special events to entertain the boys.

Thank Robert Mangels

The 4H Club Chippies of Hicksville, wish to express their thanks to Legionnaire Robert Mangels and his son, Robert, for giving their time and effort in instructing five members of the Chippies in the proper presentation of the Colors. Mangels has been a Sergeant of the Color Guard of the Charles Wagner Legion Post of Hicksville for a number of years. His son is also active in the Sons of the American Legion. The five members of the Chippies who will present the Colors at Officers Training on Oct. 23 are: Sergeant, Lorraine Jurgens; U.S. Flag Bearer, Diane Kopp; 4 H Flag Bearer, Debbie Zeek; Honor Guards Ann Marrone and Mari- anne Figliuolo.

Four Candidates Share Platform

Four candidates for state assembly will be featured Monday night, Oct. 25, at a meeting of the Sisterhood of Congregation Shaare Zedek at New South Rd. and Old Country Rd., Hicksville. Invited speakers include Martin Ginsberg and Murray Rosenthal, seeking election from the 9th Assembly District, and Julius Schwartz and Stanley Harwood in the 10th Assembly District. Husbands, friends and neighbors of members are being invited to attend.

Arrange Debate For Chamber

Two candidates for Oyster Bay Town Board will be heard at the general meeting of the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce next Tuesday, Oct. 26, at 12:30 at Frank's Alibi Restaurant on Old Country Rd. They are Angelo Roncallo, Republican, and Myron Steinberg, Democrat. President Leland Badler announced the luncheon meeting. Reservations are being made with him at 111 West Old Country Rd.

Progress Work

The contractor doing the improvement work on Clarissa Drive, Hicksville, has been directed to complete the job on or before Nov. 25, it was announced by Councilman Edward J. Poulos, town board majority leader.

Councilman A. Carl Grunewald who advocated the project on the board said that bids were taken at Town Hall on Sept. 2 and that the board awarded the contract to George B. Clarke & Son of Westbury at its low bid price of $20,586. The project was recommended by Highway Superintendent Norman T. Wolf.

JUNIOR MEMBERS of the Nassau County Multiple Sclerosis North Shore Auxiliary pitch in to help prepare gifts for the Christmas Boutique to be held during intermissions of "Magic Moments of Ballet" MS benefit starring Maria Tallchief and the Eglevsky Ballet Company of Long Island, November 7 in Matinee, and 8 P.M. evening. Working on Christmas decorations here are, from left to right: Suzanne Beam, Glen Head; Mary Beth Hudak, Hicksville; Barbara Beam, Glen Head; Deborah DeStaebler, Manhasset.

Plans Council On Education

Assemblyman Edwin J. Feherbach, Republican candidate for Oyster Bay Town Supervisor, today pledged to give "top priority" to the development of an Educational Coordinating Council.

Feherbach said that if he is elected, one of his first projects would be to set up such a council to coordinate the efforts of the various local school districts with the Town government.

He said that education is a concern of the residents of Oyster Bay and it is essential to provide the leaders in all schools with the information they must have in mapping plans for future growth and development. The Council would seek to achieve this goal without intruding on the independence and integrity of the schools, Feherbach said.

The function of the Council would be to serve as a clearing house for information, thereby enabling each school district to have complete data as to tax needs and projects. Moreover, the group would seek to avoid any duplication in the planning of physical facilities.

SOUTHAMPTON DIXIE RACING and Clambake Society, a 6-man jumping aggregation, will be on tap for the Nassau County Young Republicans Cocktail Party, Bash, Hoedown and Hootenanny for first voters Oct. 24th at the Levittown Arena starting at 7 P.M. Also scheduled to entertain the more than 5,000 first voters expected to the wingding will be the nationally popular quintet of folk singers, "The Womenfolk." Phil Leeds Band will play for continuous dancing.

Feherbach said that under his plan the Council would be comprised of representatives of each school district and the Town government. They would meet regularly and distribute informational bulletins throughout the area.

Dear Lynda

We will be seeing a lot of DAN CARROLL as our advertising representative. His dad, BILL, may be remembered as the editor of another newspaper in the community some years ago. . . . We see that ground has been broken for the BOB KEN FORD establishment on Bethpage Rd. near North Broadway. . . . And we also notice that the ED FEHERBACH sign on the Bethpage Rd. RR bridge (north side) is looking a little sick. Ed's smiling face has disappeared. . . . BILL KREMP, a long time local resident who now resides in Alpine, NY, was a recent attendant at a meeting of the Hicksville Kiwanis Club. HANK WILLIAMS, a former member who had transferred to a New York Club about a year ago, has been reinstated in the Hicksville group. The Kiwanians will hold Charter Night at the Old Country Manor on Oct. 30. . . . The Hicksville Rotary ladies night is Nov. 13 at the Hicksville Legion Hall, catered by their own RUDY BOUSE. . . . Can you imagine? F. DON MALLET forget his camera when the Rotary District Governor visited the club recently. Frank is now treasurer of the Rotarians and we guess the check book is mightier than the flash bulb. . . . Hicksville Police Boys Club has arranged an open house for this Saturday at their repainted headquarters in the former water works building on Bethpage Rd. We did not get a press release on this, JERRY ZETTLER. The notice came to us over WFYL. . . . Can you imagine CHARLIE DASHAW as a grandfather? It's true as reported elsewhere in this issue. . . . SHEILA HOEGEL of the Beacon newspapers received a special tribute from the East Meadow Kiwanis Club this week in recognition of her community service. . . . ANTHONY PETRONE, son of Mr. and Mrs. JOHN PETRONE of 95 E. John St., HICKSVILLE, is on the soccer team at the State University College at Oneonta. He is a graduate of Hicksville High. . . . CARY RICHARD GOLD, son of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Gold of 16 Amherst Rd., Hicksville, is on the dean's list at Amherst College in Massachusetts. . . . Which reminds us, why do we have to put up with two local streets named Hunter? We thought EILEY BEAN and the Civic Assoc. got rid of all those duplications years ago. . . . There will be a rummage sale at Temple Beth Elohim at 926 Round Swamp Rd., Old Bethpage, Nov. 2 and 3 from 10 AM to 4 PM. . . . Freshmen at Brown University this term include MARK ROBERT FELMAN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Felman of 8 Peter Rd. and LAWRENCE CRAIG GOTTILIEB, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb of 4 Boulevard Dr., both Hicksville. Both young men are graduates of Hicksville High. . . . When the East Nassau Chapter of the Catholic Nurses Assoc. meets on Monday, Oct. 25, at Our Lady of Mercy School the guest speaker will be Dr. IRVING OLSHIN, director of pediatrics at Meadowbrook Hospital. "Time of Your Life" will be presented by the Hofstra University drama dept. on Oct. 29, 30 and 31 at the Hofstra Playhouse. The cast includes DANIEL ROBERT of 31 Glow Lane, Hicksville, and MARK LIEBMAN of 15 Kenneth St., Plainview. . . . Mr. and Mrs. CONRAD WEYER of 15 Heather Lane, Plainview, are the parents of a son, William Curt, born Oct. 4 at Mercy Hospital. . . .

GEORGE D. WEINSTEIN, newly appointed Regent of the State University of New York, will be guest of honor at a testimonial dinner tonight (Thursday) at the Salisbury Park Club. The dinner is being sponsored by the West Hempstead School Community League.

William Cahn (left), Nassau County District Attorney, was honored by his friends and supporters with a Salute to William Cahn Testimonial Dinner at the Garden City Hotel. Over 800 guests attended. District Attorney Bill Cahn was honored by Democrats as well as Republicans. Paying tribute were Richard Gerstein (center), District Attorney of Dade County, Florida, President-Elect of the National District Attorneys Assn, and Norman Green (right), District Attorney of Tucson, Arizona, Vice President of the National District Attorneys Association, both of whom are Democrats.

Operation VFW

William M. Gouse Jr.
Post No. 3211
by Eddie Klebing

Jack Mulligan, Ed Shannon and Arnold Bashwiler will be this year's committee for the annual VFW Christmas Party to be held Sunday afternoon December 19 at VFW Hall. Commander Art Fuelling won the raffle at our last meeting.

It did nothing to aid THEIR cause, this disgraceful, traitorous display of un-Americanism by the anti-war demonstrators across the nation last week. It did aid the communist cause all over the world though. They were there; the beatniks, the draft dodgers, the communists, they were there and did their best to kill Democracy. This kind of news we can do without.

More impressive is the news from Hawaii and its recruiting boards that our older combat veterans, who, on one or more occasions, risked their lives are volunteering "to get into the fight" in Southeast Asia - but because of age these "retreads" are being turned down to re-enlist cannot be over 35. Veterans can claim credit for up to 5 years of service. If they are over 40 or have more than 5 years service and are over 35 years old, they cannot re-up. The rule is that their years of service plus 35 do not add up to 40 before their next birthday.

From Viet Nam, a corporal named Lanny Johnson, wrote a letter back home expressing his feelings about being in Southeast Asia. He also expressed in his letter the desire for anti-war demonstrating students to write him. Wrote Corporal Johnson "You say we shouldn't be here. I want you, the students to write me and tell me why I shouldn't be here, because I believe I should and I am staying until I am discharged." Other published letters indicate the desire of the GI to remain in Viet Nam because it is his patriotic duty. The President of the United States is constantly receiving letters from these young men on the front lines who understand the ideals for which we are fighting.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars has backed up the President's decision right from the beginning and will continue to support the government in any action required to win the war in South Vietnam. Matters of national security are a deep concern of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the incidents involving our Democratic prestige last week will be another good reason to help eliminate. We, in the Veterans of Foreign Wars, believe National Security is Family Security and that is a hard security to ignore.

Reconciliation Day

Court Queen of Angels #869, Catholic Daughters of America, will sponsor a Day of Reconciliation on Sunday, Oct. 24th, 2:00 P.M. to 5:00 P.M., at the old St. Ignatius Loyola School, East Nicholas St., Hicksville. A Passionist Priest will give the sermon.

All ladies are welcome to attend. For further information, please call co-chairladies Mrs. Donald Brown, WE 5-2568, or Mrs. Charles Crofts, WE 5-1406.

Urges Town Counter Moses

Characterizing the Bayville to energy stimulating community Rye bridge proposal of Robert resistance must be channeled to Moses as an "ill-conceived" developing a positive alternative. project, attorney Ralph J. Marino, "Being against something is negative and can have only limited and temporary success," Marino said. The Republican candidate for Town councilman, Town of Oyster Bay, made his comments in a formal statement to the Action Committee Against the Bridge which had asked his views.

Marino said that a crusade can't keep up steam forever, and he was concerned that Moses and his associates were prepared to wait for public apathy to set in, having been quoted as saying it might take as long as eight years.

"To effectively combat such arbitrary schemes requires," Marino said, "a plan tailored to the distinctive characteristics of Nassau and Suffolk counties. We must out-plan the master-planner with a better, sounder concept than the one he is trying to impose on us and our children," Marino added.

He said that it was obvious as far back as March of 1964 that an ultimate objective of the Wantagh-Oyster Bay Expressway could be a bridge of some kind. "I was against it then and went on record to this effect. In January of this year when it became clear that a bridge was the target, I opposed it formally as a member of the Board of Directors of the Oyster Bay Chamber of Com-

EDITORIAL OPINION

We Need a Doer in Town Hall

Two years ago the majority of the voters casting their ballots in the general election decided they wanted Michael Petito, a Democrat, as their town supervisor. The margin was close but it takes only one vote to win an election.

Now two years later Mr. Petito is up for re-election, opposed by the very personable Assemblyman Edwin Fehrenbach. As supervisor -- chief administrative official of the township -- Mr. Petito has had two years in which to prove himself. There is only one way in which to describe his tenure --- dismal.

Instead of a record of achievement to which he should be able to point with pride, he complains that the Town Board composed of six Republicans has prevented him from doing anything. Two years ago he declared without qualification that if elected he would do so and so. There were no reservations expressed in his campaign material. But now, two years later, he complains that he was outnumbered.

When he took office, this newspaper asked Mr. Petito for a clearcut statement of his goals and objectives upon assumption of this high office. We never received the courtesy of a reply from the Supervisor although an aide answered our letter and promised something would be forthcoming. We have waited patiently for two years and now the reason is clear -- nothing was done because nothing was planned to be done.

Ed Fehrenbach makes it plain what he expects to do if elected and knowing his past record in town government and in the state legislature, we can anticipate that things will get done. The choice on Nov. 2 is obvious. Let's put a doer in the Town Supervisor's office.

MARINE PRIVATE Barry Koch, son of Mr. and Mrs. McKinley Koch of 9 David Ave., Hicksville, was graduated Sept. 29 from Marine recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot at Parris Island, S.C.

During his eight weeks of intensified recruit training under veteran non-commissioned officer Drill Instructors, he learned small arms marksmanship, bayonet fighting, and methods of self-protection, as well as receiving instruction in military drill, history and traditions of the Marine Corps, and other academic subjects.

Dartmouth Club Elects Schwartz

Lawrence H. Schwartz of Plainview, an engineer with Airborne Instruments Laboratory of Melville, has been elected to the executive committee of the Dartmouth Club Officers Assoc.

Schwartz, Dartmouth Class of 1958, has been named to his position at a recent club officers meeting in Hanover. He is president of the Dartmouth Alumni Association of Long Island and served for two years as club secretary.

Schwartz received a master's degree in electrical engineering at Dartmouth's Thayer School of Engineering in 1959 and has been with Airborne Instruments Laboratory since then.

Our Men in Service

Richard D. Powers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank V. Meyer of 163 Princess St., Hicksville, has been promoted to airman second class in the U.S. Air Force.

Airman Powers is a jet aircraft mechanic at Seymour Johnson AFB, N.C. He is a member of the Strategic Air Command, America's long-range nuclear bomber and missile force.

The airman is a graduate of Hicksville High School. His wife, Joanne, is the daughter of Mrs. Ginny Varca of 41 Broadway St., Hicksville.

AIRMAN Robert Cossin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cossin of 91-Princess St., Hicksville, has been selected for training at Chanute AFB, Ill., as an Air Force aircraft equipment repairman. The airman, a 1965 graduate of Hicksville High School, recently completed basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex.

Take Home Pay

The Town Board has unanimously approved a resolution, which was offered by Town Board Majority Leader Edward J. Poulos, providing for an increase in take-home pay for employees by suspending their retirement contributions.

The program, which will affect Highway and Special District employees on Oct. 9 and General Fund employees on Oct. 16, will eliminate the employees' contributions to the retirement system. The take-home pay in most instances will be over two per cent depending on the employees' retirement rate, length of service and period of time required before retirement.

Prior to this resolution the Town contributed up to eight per cent of the employees' share. The present resolution means that the Town will contribute the full share. "This move", Poulos said, "was done to improve working conditions of the employees and to conform to State practices."

Always be alert for school buses when they stop to pick up or discharge children, the Allstate Motor Club points out. When you stop, make it gradual if possible to give adequate warning to following traffic.

When it's necessary to stop on a slippery road, pumping the brakes will enable you to maintain better control of your car by preventing skidding and usually will stop the car in a shorter distance than when continuous, full brake pressure is applied.

Darkness doubles traffic troubles, says the Allstate Motor Club. From dusk to dawn the traffic accident rate goes up. Drop your speed 10 miles an hour and give yourself more time to avoid an accident in case of an emergency. Slow down at sundown.

Concurrent with the Science Inservice Course, a workshop in Modern Math will also be conducted. Both programs are being coordinated by Rodney T. Schabel, Principal of Good Shepherd Lutheran Day School, Plainview.

Business Form Concern Held in Contempt

In one of the first cases of its kind in a decade, Federal Judge Joseph C. Zavatt of the U.S. District Court, Eastern District of New York, has issued an order holding All-State Business Products and Arthur Kunzweiler, in civil contempt of court by reason of the firm's failure to obey the judgment of the Federal District Court which permanently enjoined the firm from violating the overtime and record keeping provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act. The respondent, All-State Business Products Corp., is engaged in the manufacture of business forms at 137 Cantigue Road, Hicksville. The respondent, Arthur Kunzweiler, former President of the company, resides at Lake Grove.

According to Frank B. Mercurio, Regional Director of the U.S. Labor Department's Wage-Hour and Public Contracts Divisions, the civil contempt was ordered by the court because of the firm's refusal to comply with a civil injunction granted on July 14, 1959. The court found that there was proof that during the year 1962, the respondents failed to pay employees time and one-half the regular rate of pay for all hours worked over 40 in the work week, and failed to make, keep and preserve adequate and accurate records as prescribed by the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act.

Mercurio stated that this was the first time in over ten years that a contempt ruling involving wage and hour violations had been handed down by a Federal court in this region (New York and New Jersey). "Once an injunction has been issued, enjoining a firm from violating the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act," Mercurio said, "it is rare that the firm does not come into permanent compliance."

The court's contempt order also imposes upon the respondents compensatory fines totaling $2,450.85, which sum constitutes restitution of unpaid wages to the firm's employees, the compensatory fine to be paid to the Secretary of Labor for distribution in accordance with the findings of the court to the employees entitled thereto under the provisions of the injunction entered July 14, 1959.

There was further imposed upon the respondents a compensatory fine in the sum of $964.25 to be paid to the Secretary of Labor to reimburse him for the cost of expenses of investigating, instituting and maintaining this proceeding.

The respondents were also ordered to pay Masters disbursements in the sum of $515.45 and a further sum of $1,000 fixed as his fee by the court.

The contempt may be purged by the payment of the fines and disbursements as provided within 30 days.

The motion for the contempt action was brought for the Secretary of Labor by Solicitor of Labor Charles Donahoe. The original investigation was conducted by the Long Island Field Office of the Labor Department's Wage-Hour and Public Contracts Divisions. The office is located at 159 No. Franklin Street, Hempstead, and is under the supervision of Field Office Supervisor Joseph P. Gorga.

Interviews Set

Catholic young men in fourth year high school, public or parochial, who wish to study for the priesthood in the Diocese of Rockville Centre, should take the December or January College Board Examinations and have their scores reported to St. Pius X Preparatory Seminary, College Department.

After taking the College Boards, each candidate should write for an interview with the dean of St. Pius X, 1220 Front Street, Uniondale, 11553. A letter of recommendation from his pastor should be submitted at the time of the interview.

Off With Their Heads!!!

Don't you think it's rather strange that the Democratic Candidates for Town Board are running against 3 new faces? Strange in that the 3 spots open this year are currently held by Republicans? What has happened to these incumbents? Why aren't they running for reelection? Are the new faces meant to cover up the Republican record on the Board?

It's all rather confusing. On the one hand, our opponents claim to be running on that record, while on the other, they have dumped 3 of the people responsible for the record. Just a short time ago the 3 were played up as the answers to a voter's prayer. Yet today you are being asked to forget their names.

Of course, this type of head hunting smells faintly reminiscent. Lest we forget—you have also been asked to erase from memory some of the opposition's other standard bearers.

In case you've forgotten—allow us to refresh your memory. You must remember Horace McAllister, erstwhile Town Engineer. Then of course, there was George Schmidt, one time Superintendent of the Sign Division, and finally we come to Peter S. Hussey, sometime Superintendent of Parks. Mistakes, all of them, as even our opponents finally had to concede. These three were dumped, hard and fast, for what were generously labeled as "Irregularities".

The axe was wielded then by the same Republican bosses who are behind the mystery of the missing incumbent Councilmen. Draw your own conclusions, always remembering: The names have been changed, but the party and the policies behind the names always stay the same.

Actually, we have to accept a major portion of the credit for so much intra-party blood-letting. We must admit that Democratic Supervisor Michael Petito's cleanup and safeguarding tactics are the big reasons for all this head rolling. He still stands alert, guarding your interests and weeding out corruption. Keep him serving you... Continue Michael Petito as Town Supervisor, and this time install his running mates to help him help you. You'll get clean and honest town government.

Don't you deserve the best?

Price Increase At Post Office

New prices for stamped envelopes are now in effect at all post offices. Postal Inspector in Charge of the Hicksville Post Office H. E. Platt, announces. The price of a 5-cent stamped envelope, for example, is now 7-cents when purchased singly or in quantities less than 500. This is an increase of one cent above the previous single purchase price.

"Price increases are necessary to meet the legal requirement that stamped envelopes shall not be sold for less than cost," Inspector Platt explained. "At present contract prices, the stamped envelope service was incurring a loss exceeding $3 million annually." This is in spite of the fact that the new contract for stamped envelopes, which became effective January 1, 1965 resulted in lowered costs of $1.5 million per year compared with the previous contract.

"The new envelope, which exceeds all required specifications as to opacity, bursting strength, and adhesive quality, looks slightly different," he continued. "The major changes are in the design of the flap and the shade of the paper." The flap is now pointed rather than rounded and the paper used is of a brighter shade.

Prices for quantities of 500 envelopes or more can be obtained from the post office. A limited number of envelope price lists are available to those customers who purchase printed stamped envelopes in quantities.

Start First Aid Course Oct 25

Immediate registration for a Red Cross course in Standard First Aid, open to Nassau residents 14 years of age or older, was urged today by Henry Hartmann, Director of Safety Services for the Nassau County Chapter, American Red Cross.

Standard First Aid instruction will be offered at the Chapter House Annex, 268 Old Country Road, Mineola, for six two-hour Monday night sessions from 8:00 P.M. to 10:00 P.M. beginning Monday, Oct. 25 and concluding Monday, Nov. 29.

A $1.50 equipment fee will be charged. At the completion of instruction and examination, official certificates will be issued. Registration, in advance, is required and can be telephoned to Pioneer 7-3500, EXT. 15.

Install Officers Of Womens' Auxiliary

The Women's Auxiliary of the Hicksville Baseball Assoc., Inc. is holding an installation of Officers meeting on Wednesday, Oct. 27, at 8:30 P.M. in Levittown Hall. The new officers will be installed and following the meeting there will be an informal Buffet.

Each person attending brings along their specialty in food— which usually adds up to a scrumptious array on the table.

FALL RITUALS for grownups are the elections, for youngsters, Halloween, so Ralph Marino combines both. Republican aspirant for Oyster Bay Town Board he hopes Tracy 4 and Jonathan Budd 7, will tell their parents of his good deed.

WHERE DO YOU STAND ON THESE ISSUES?

Should Nassau County residents working in Manhattan, Queens, Brooklyn, the Bronx or Staten Island pay a "commuter tax" to New York City?

FACT

Democrats approved such a law this year. If passed again in '66 it could become law. It is not subject to the Governor's veto.

Democrats plan to make this final in Albany next year. The 3 Democrat legislators from Nassau County voted with the city Democrats.

Should your tax-supported Town, County and Village beaches, parks, and golf courses be opened to New York City's 9,000,000 residents?

FACT

A bill to permit this was introduced by the Democrat leadership. All Republican legislators opposed it. The bill fell just 10 short of passing. The Democrats plan to re-introduce it in '66.

3.

Should your child be forced "bused" from your neighborhood school to distant schools?

FACT

Republican candidates don't consider "busing" a good answer to the problem of integrating our schools. They want "neighborhood schools" retained.

The answer to integrated schools lies in providing uniformly good schools in all areas—to provide uniformly good education to all children.

The Democrats approve of forced busing. Democrat Jerome McDougal gave as his reason: "I wasn't concerned with the contents of the bill. I was voting to support my committee chairman on the issue."

EDITORIAL FROM

Long Island Sunday Press Hackneyed Expediency

That "Repeal the Sales Tax" chorus by a gaggle of office-seeking Long Islanders may be a good issue for the short-sighted. But for anyone who listens carefully, it's nothing but a sorry mess of sour notes.

Democrats all over the island are shouting their opposition to the tax by blaming the Republicans for it. (The issue is explored by John Greene in his column on Page 14 today.)

No one likes a tax, sales or otherwise. But no one—including the best brains in the state in both parties—was able to come up with a better, viable alternative to the sales tax and the other revenue raising measures passed by the Legislature.

To "blame" this unpopular tax on any one party is political irresponsibility. The tax is bi-partisan. It was suggested by Republican Gov. Rockefeller, but it was passed by the Democratic-controlled Legislature, with Republicans joining in the vote.

There was a concerted effort to find an alternative. None of those legislators were happy about running on a record which included the passing of a tax increase. Their decision, therefore, took political courage and a deep sense of public responsibility.

The reason for these tax increases is obvious to all who are willing to face reality and necessity. And the biggest necessity is education, with costs soaring—especially on Long Island—to meet the demands of our rising population of youngsters.

State funds for public schools and colleges don't come out of the blue. The money comes out of our pockets. And our schools are worth every penny. But our local real estate tax, the source of school revenue, was soaring beyond all reasonable levels. The sales tax was clearly a method of relief for this onerous burden, a way of spreading that burden around to all citizens.

This is why, for instance, Republican Assemblyman Edwin Fehrenbach of Bethpage, a champion of Long Island's hard-pressed school boards, fought for the sales tax. And now, his public service—and that's what it was—is being rewarded by demagogic attacks from his political opponents.

Would these brave repealers suggest that local school taxes be raised? That the state income tax go up 50%? That we do away with the $120 million increase in state aid to public schools and the extra $10.7 million for community colleges?

Of course not.

It is, therefore, simply a hackneyed political expedient to attack legislators who so clearly acted in Long Island's best interest when they voted for a tax they knew would be unpopular.

Mid Island Friends of Fehrenbach
