The Propositions on the Ballot

Among the numerous questions to be decided by the voters next Tuesday, Nov. 2, besides the selection of public officials is a whole series of proposals which are usually ignored by about half of those who cast their ballots.

The propositions and amendments appear across the top of the voting machine. We urge support of the Pure Water Bond Issue which is state-wide. We suggest a negative vote on most of the other questions, largely because they are not thoroughly understood and have not been completely explained.

For local voters there are two County Propositions numbered 1 and 2. No. 1 will change the office of County Sheriff from an elective to appointive position. We see herein a trend toward the creation of more political appointments, taking the right of decision out of the hands of the voters.

County Proposition No. 2 calls for a revision of the Nassau County Charter — which, after all these years, probably requires revision. However, this particular proposal to change the composition of the County Board of Supervisors is only a small part of the total picture and the voters deserve the opportunity to see what other changes in the Charter are suggested before they vote on one small segment.

There are a lot of things wrong with this proposed change in the Board of Supervisors. Aside from the fact that trained legal minds see herein a trend toward the day when the County will be supreme and the townships, villages and special districts will vanish, there is a lot of foolish talk about cost and other factors.

Proponents of the change claim it will cost only two cents more on the tax rate to provide us with 15 supervisors instead of the present set up. We can recall the day when the Town Councilman set up of a Town Board was suggested. It was proposed that there be four councilmen with annual salaries of $700 each. The theory advanced was that with such little salary only the most dedicated people would be attracted to office. Well today in the Town of Oyster Bay there are six councilmen and the job pays $10,500 each. That is quite a jump from a measly $2800 in salaries to over $60,000 a year. We have the uncomfortable feeling the same thing is going to happen in the area of the proposed Board of Supervisors.

Nevertheless, it will not harm the efficiency of county government to wait a year until the voters are given the full picture of proposed County Charter Revisions. A NO vote on County Proposition No. 2 is not only suggested, it is a matter of urgency.

As for the Rest of the Ballot

We have previously stated our position in the very important selection of a Town Supervisor on Election Day. Democrat Michael Petito has had two years to produce and has not. He talks a great deal about what he might do, but —. The only logical choice is Assemblyman Edwin Fehrenbach even though we disagree with his position on County Proposition No. 2. (Both Petito and Fehrenbach are on record in favor of the enlarged Board of Supervisors).

The major county-wide contest is for the office of District Attorney and we believe William Cahn has done a workmanlike job. The efforts of the Democrats to smear the DA have been quite sophomoric and don't warrant serious consideration. We are electing a District Attorney to do a job for the people of Nassau, not a nice looking family group.

We urge the election of the Republican candidates for the Town Board — three councilmen — to keep the team intact and working together. We have seen the havoc that can be wrought by a sharply divided, headline-seeking governing body too closely at hand to wish that on any body of taxpayers.

Spectacular Fire

VOLUNTEER FIREMEN from many Nassau communities were still working today at the scene of the Columbia Corrugated Container Corp. on Aerial Way, Syosset, although Syosset Fire Dept. said the blaze was "under control" Monday night. The fire was discovered Sunday night at 5:30 in the area of a store room piled high with rolls of corrugated paper. On Wednesday a crane and payloads were pulling apart the heap of smoldering paper rolls and carting them out into open fields for dousing with water. Traffic on the Port Jefferson line of the LIRR and LI Expressway was for a time halted after the fire broke out. It was considered one of the most stubborn fires in this area in recent years.

Use Closed TV Circuit at Trinity

Reading was the topic of a recent Parent-Teachers-Friends Association meeting of Trinity Lutheran School, 46 W. Nicholas St., Hicksville. Making use of a closed circuit television hook-up, parents were able to view a class of fourth grade students being taught from the Basal Reader by Allan Maier, teacher.

Also, they were privileged to see a demonstration of the phonics program. Mrs. Zwergel, third grade teacher, showed how this area of phonics is used to supplement and fortify the reading program at Trinity. After the class presentation, Earl Genzel, sixth grade teacher, explained the reading enrichment program to the parents. He emphasized the importance of each child's involvement in this and how through the use of reading machines, reading laboratories, Reader's Digest materials, etc., this is being accomplished at Trinity.

Walter Muench, giving the parent's point of view, concluded the program by telling the group how a parent can help the child to develop reading interests. He stressed the fact that the parent plays a key role in helping the child to become a better reader.

It was announced that a reading seminar will be held for the parents. According to Weldon Endorf, principal of the school, this first attempt of utilizing closed circuit television for the educational program at Trinity was highly successful.

Hicksville Football League

By Bill Pryor

Our intermural program has progressed appreciably, thanks to the tremendous effort of League Director Gene Calabrese. The fine coaching the boys have received from the team coaches, and the help we've had from many parents are now showing in the team development. While watching the games last Saturday at Cantigue Park, who would have thought that just a short month ago our boys would be playing such headsup ball, with excellent ball handling, and running plays, and key blocks so much in evidence.

With any new organization, the foundation is the key to any good program. I feel that thanks are due to Dick Dufur, Ed Grams, Frank Kendall, Pete Morrissey, Art Terrallos, Warren Doolittle, John Maher, Frank Walsh and Al Masters.

Our League is well on its way to join at least 2 conference clubs next season. We are presently deciding whether to enroll our clubs in Pop Warner League, or IJMFQ, or perhaps both. When our Board of Directors meet at the close of the season, we will then determine which would be best for our boys.

We are still trying desperately to meet all our financial obligations which we incurred this season. Our town businessmen have really helped a great deal and the townspeople of Hicksville have supported our Association 100%. Asking the more than 150 members of our League to virtually attack all homes with raffle campaign was indeed a necessary evil. However, at this writing the sales are going along very nicely and we hope to meet most of our obligations by the end of the season. This week, we plan to give to all the boys who have sold their 10 books their respective team pictures. All members who have sold their 20 raffle books should be receiving their wool warm-up jackets by early November. However, it is important to tell your director your jacket size, so the proper jackets will be ordered. Last Saturday, Bob Pryor received his StingRay bicycle for selling his required 135 raffle books. I am glad that we had at least one winner to date, but I certainly wish that other boys could receive this same honor. A number of boys have passed their 50 book mark, and their transistor radio prizes are now being ordered.

Last Sunday, at Cantigue Park, our team met the League Leaders, the Valley Stream squad. These boys arrived with an impressive 5 wins and 0 loss record. After seeing this well managed, excellent-coached squad handle themselves on and off the fields, it certainly is no wonder why they are leading our League. They also arrived with an impressive record of not being scored on. However, thanks to the tremendous Hicksville team effort, especially Brian McAuley, and Steve Malone, this record was stopped, as we managed to score once anyway. Final Score: Valley Stream, 31 Hicksville 6.

A number of boys are still approaching us and requesting how they can join our League. As we have explained in the past, our Hicksville Football Association is open to any boy from the ages of 8 through 15 weighing no more than 150 lbs. Each division has its own weight and age requirements, but it is safe to say that any boy wishing to join our program, has an equal opportunity to make any of our teams or participate in our vast intermural program. If our League can raise an additional $6000 next season, we plan to field 10 teams instead of the 5 we had this season. If any readers have good ideas on how we can raise the extra revenue without taxing the towns people or towns businessmen too greatly, we would welcome your suggestions.

Our Hicksville Chargers has invited the Dorchester Massac team to come to Hicksville on the Nov. 12-14 weekend. Each team member will host a visitor as his guest during the teams stay in our town. Saturday evening, we will all attend a local movie and then have a snack at a local Hicksville shop. The boys will attend their respective House

Weldon Endorf was installed as Principal of Trinity Lutheran School and Director of Christian Education.

Mrs. Earl Genzel, Mrs. Allan Maier and Miss Karen Quaden were inducted as teachers in Trinity Lutheran School.

The Rev. Rudolph P.F. Reasmeyer, First Vice-President of the Atlantic District, Pastor of Our Redeemer, Seaford, delivered the sermon.

The Rev. Edward H. Stammel, pastor of Trinity was the celebrant.

of Worship together on Sunday, and then head for Cantiague Field where this trophy game is to be played. The Dorchester team will then embark for home after the game. We plan to have an exciting half time show for all who attend and we really welcome a large turnout of all our Hicksville residents.

In our Intermural Division, the last 2 League games are all that remain and it appears that next week's game, where the Eagles meet the Mustangs should decide the outcome of this division. If the Eagles are victorious, then they have clinched their conference title. However, if the Mustangs win, then a dead heat will result with both teams having a 3 wins 1 loss and 1 tie record.

We are indeed glad to see so many parents attend these games and we hope you will continue to do so. Our Intermural program will end on November 24, 1965 with the raffle drawing. An exciting half time show, a color Guard, surprise guests and a very special game which should begin at 8 pm will be the order of the day. Watch your local papers for more on this season closing program. We can promise a really good show. Saturday at 1 pm we will be at Cantiague for team practice. See you there and please bring in your raffle books. Mr. Trapp has more books if you need them. Please bother him, he loves it!

Douglas Seeks 1,500 Workers

The most ambitious industrial relocation project attempted by an American company in a single area of unemployment has been undertaken on Long Island by the Douglas Aircraft Co. with the cooperation of the New York State Division of Employment and the U.S. Department of Labor.

Goal of the program is to recruit and move 1,500 experienced aircraft assembly workers and their families 3,000 miles to Long Beach, Calif.

In the last year and a half several thousand skilled aircraft workers have been laid off in the Long Island area. Although some have found temporary or permanent jobs in other industries, a large pool of unemployed and under-employed remains in the area.

Douglas, which has been expanding its work force, has already exhausted the experienced airplane labor pool in southern California. Upon invitation of the New York Labor Mobility Project, a branch of the New York State Employment Service organized to assist in a U.S. Department of Labor pilot relocation program, Douglas set up recruiting facilities at 234 Old Country Road, Hicksville. Some 200 aircraft workers have already been hired and additional recruitments at the rate of 100 weekly are planned for the coming months.

EDITORIAL OPINION

Town Clerk William O'Keefe has done a sterling job in office and should be returned to office. If picking on differences of opinion about office procedure is the best his opponent can offer, we can only shake our head. Obviously even the opposition can find a little grounds for complaint.

The State Assembly contests are complicated this year for our readers. Under reapportionment, some are in the 9th District (part of Hicksville, Plainview, Old Bethpage), some are in the 10th District (most of Hicksville, Levittown, East Meadow) and some are in 11th District (north part of Jericho and the North Shore).

Julius Schwartz is eminently qualified in the new 10th District and well-known to all of us as Chamber of Commerce president, Alumni Assoc. president, etc. He has been experienced in Albany with three years as legal counsel to State Senator Henry Curran. Martin Ginsberg is also known to us as a public-spirited man of firm convictions for the best interests of the people of the community. Joseph Reilly, Mayor of Glen Cove, is the Republican candidate in the new 11th District which deserve our support.

Henry Curran has, with little publicity and fanfare, been doing a sensible job in the public interest as our State Senator and warrants re-election to enable him to continue his many constructive efforts in Albany.

Your vote on Tuesday, Nov. 2, is important. If you fail to vote you give two votes to the opposition. His and the fact that he does not have to equal yours. Remember the polls close at 9 PM.

One last item that I wish you would please print. During the fire, people who were present spoke to me. I cannot remember who spoke or what they said. If I ignored them it was only because I felt so shocked. I pray these people will not think me ignorant or rude and I ask their forgiveness.

TEACHERS COMMENT

To The Editor:
Although many consider the right to strike to be rooted in the freedom of man, limitation of this right with regard to public school teachers can be justified in fair channels for appeal from decisions of boards of education are guaranteed.

The Board of Directors of the Hicksville Classroom Teachers Assoc. is pleased to note the positions of the two major party candidates in the Tenth Assembly District in Nassau on this vital issue. Both Stanley Harwood and Julius Schwartz recommend legislation in the area of school board — teacher relationships.

They would require school boards and teacher groups to submit disputes to binding arbitration. The ideas expressed by Mr. Harwood and Mr. Schwartz would not undermine the Condon - Wadlin Act but would guarantee reasonable channels for the orderly settlement of school board — teacher disagreements.

The Hicksville Classroom Teachers Assoc. will soon present a proposal requesting advisory mediation to help settle any impasses which might arise in negotiations with the Hicksville Board of Education. This proposal will not be nearly as strong as the enlightened opinions put forth by Mr. Schwartz and Mr. Harwood. This is because of present legal implications in this state. However, teachers and the general public everywhere will be willing to support legislation which provides the foresight to prevent disruptions in the educational process.

Integrity

Integrity . . . Honesty . . . Trustworthiness . . . Qualities a District Attorney must have. If he doesn't, respect for justice and law enforcement in the community breaks down. The present District Attorney has destroyed that respect.

JUDGE DAVID T. GIBBONS has those qualities. Integrity, Honesty, Trustworthiness . . . as an experienced trial lawyer, as a judge, as a leader in the community, as a family man. He will restore respect and confidence in the Nassau County District Attorney's Office.

Dear Lynda

PAUL GERECH is scheduled to become the new owner of GEARY'S this weekend. Tom has had the place on North Broadway for the past ten years. Informal sources, totally unofficial, indicate that ED GIANELLI will not be the next Hicksville postmaster. Now indicated as the probable appointee is RALPH CAS-CARDO who is assistant superintendent of mails in line with a current department policy to seek out postal career personnel.

Former Fire Company Captain JOHN LARKIN and ex-chief CHARLES SAURER were in the hospital this week. Larkin at Plainview Hospital and Saurer in Syosset General. Service clubs and other organizations were invited to attend the dedication of the Police Boys Club clubhouse, the former water district office, on Bethpage Rd on Saturday. Hicksville Rotary Ladies Night has been changed to Friday, Nov. 12, at the Golden Meadowbrook in Jericho. Hicksville Kiwanis Club charter night is Oct. 30 at the Old Country Manor. The Hicksville Adult Education program is now known as "Continuing Education". There are 1700 registered for the current fall term courses. Daily press failed to mention this week that both Hicksville and Plainview fire departments put in many hours in fighting that stubborn fire at the Columbia Container plant in Syosset. Hicksville for example answered the call for help at 6 PM Sunday and the equipment did not roll back until 9 AM Tuesday. Volunteers took turns in spelling each other at the scene. Hicksville Chamber of Commerce luncheon meeting Tuesday at the Alibi was well-attended. During the week of Nov. 7 interested parents will have their children ring doorbells for Operation FANS. They will wear arm bands for identification. For information call ELEANOR TUCHPELD at WE 5-3004. The Youth Group of Congregation Shalom Zedek will meet with youth director MARVIN KLEINMAN on Wednesday night, Nov. 3 at 7:30 PM at the Temple, New South and Old County Roads. RALPH MARINO of East Norwich, Republican candidate for town councilman, had a survey made of voters and found the three "most important local problems" in the township are schools, zoning and taxes. Hard to believe how time flies. Mid Island Plasma is celebrating its ninth anniversary this weekend. The Greater New York Safety Council recommends the use of face makeup instead of masks for Halloween ragas. Most masks do not permit proper vision and some, especially those made of rubber, impede proper breathing, according to the Council. Monday, Nov. 1, being All Saints' Day, it is a holy day for Catholics who are required to attend Mass. Several parishes in this area will hold evening as well as morning masses. Mr. and Mrs. JOSEPH J. FYFE of 8 East Marie St., Hicksville, announce the engagement of their daughter, JUNE ARLENE to JOSEPH DONALD VECGLIE of 14 Jonathan Ave. A March wedding is planned. Lee Ave PTA of Hicksville will hold a home-baked cake sale on Election Day, Nov. 2, during voting hours. Mr. and Mrs. CALVIN GLECHER of 10 Prescott Pl., Old Bethpage are the parents of a son, Richard Francesco, born Oct. 13 at Mercy Hospital. The Westbury Chapter of Bränsleis University National Women's Committee will hold its fall meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 9, at 12:45 PM at the East Meadow Public Library. There will be jobs for Christmas Assistants at Post Offices at $2.29 an hour. Applications, available at any first or second class post office, will be accepted for examinations until Nov. 2. And that is Election Day. Don't forget to vote.

READER OPINION

RUINED BY FIRE

To the Editor:

On Saturday, Oct. 16, the house my family and I were residing was ruined by fire. I thank God that the only bodily harm that occurred was my wife's hair being singed as she was taking some of our children out of the house. (This evidence should clear a story that my wife was not at home).

Because of a 50 percent disability I receive from service in the Army I had great difficulty obtaining and holding a job. As a result I was forced to rely on public assistance from Nassau County.

Since I was on public welfare I did not have fire insurance on my furniture and belongings. As the fire was so sudden and fast nothing at all in the house was saved. At that time only what we were wearing became our only possessions. My wife and I saw what we had go up in smoke before our eyes.

Within a matter of minutes, Michael Petito and members of the Democratic Club had made arrangements for my entire family to be housed and fed.

I was asked not to mention the political club because of it being misinterpreted as an act of "politicking". I was told by Pat DeMartino and Fred Vervante that they were only acting as humans helping out and that it was definitely not a political act.

I feel so grateful for the help that I cannot continue without my appreciation being announced. During the hours that followed we received much clothing for our children from my friends, neighbors, different churches, fraternal organizations and people whom I had never met or known of.

All these people were so wonderful that I feel ashamed that I cannot personally show my thanks. However, it is impossible for me to reach all these fine

Legion Arranges Parade on Nov. 14

Representatives of the 56 American Legion Post's in Nassau County attending the Nassau County American Legion Executive Committee meeting held at the Hempstead Legion clubhouse on Friday, Oct. 22, unanimously endorsed plans recommended by their advisory committee to hold a mammoth parade in Hempstead on Sunday, Nov. 14, at 2:30 PM as an expression of confidence in President Johnson's Viet Nam policy and show us fighting men that the greater majority of Americans are behind them 100%.

Nassau County American Legion Commander Joseph J. Devine stated that the current peace demonstrations has a tendency to demoralize fighting men and has raised the ire of all patriotic Americans. He called upon the 10,000 Nassau Legionnaires to work for a goal of 50,000 participants and extended an invitation to participate to all veterans groups, fraternal groups, fire departments, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, church groups and others of their respective communities.

Since the initial announcement of the parade offers of assistance from non-Legion bands are pouring in from throughout the County. The County Staff has since been pressed for information from the general public to where and when they will be able to participate.

Groups interested in participating should contact their local American Legion Post Commander.

Robert Hirsh, Nassau County American Legion Americanism Chairman, will be parade chairman.

O'Keefe Sums Up Campaign

Town Clerk William B. O'Keefe in summing up the election campaign, said this week:

"I feel confident that my fellow townsmen will see through all of the inconsistencies circulated by my opponent and, regardless of political affiliation, vote for me.

"I am apprehensive," he said, "when a candidate for public office advocates abolition of the right of the people to vote for the official and urges that the position be made a political plum appointment, as has my opponent.

"The position of Town Clerk in Oyster Bay should be filled by the will of the people. It seems that my opponent was stirred by the fact that the Town Board adopted the Suburban Town Law and laid the groundwork to establish a Public Works Dept., including an appointive Superintendent of Highways. My opponent chose to advocate taking the choice of a Town Clerk and Receiver of Taxes from the people, and making them appointive also. Yet he became a candidate for one of the offices he thinks should be relegated to political patronage.

"My opponent is doing many things wrong and if he tried to carry them out in practice he would find himself up to his ears in needless but expensive litigation."

Resident Directs Parole in State

The New York State Board of Parole has appointed Milton B. Lewis of 24 Pewter Lane, Hicksville, to the position of Administrative Director of New York State Division of Parole, according to an announcement by Russell G. Oswald, Board Chairman.

Lewis, 51, succeeds L. Stanley Cleverger, who retired in September after more than 30 years service with the Division of Parole.

The new Administrative Director has been with the Division of Parole for 18 years having served as a parole officer and senior parole officer, and most recently, as area supervisor for the Division's Hempstead, area parole office.

Born in Newark, New Jersey, Lewis has resided in New York City most of his life, graduating from Fordham University with a B.S. in Social Science and attending post-graduate courses at City College in New York.

Upon completing college, he was employed as a research librarian in the Division of Curriculum for the New York City Board of Education. In 1939, he was assigned as Director of the Adolescent Program in the City Prison of the New York Department of Correction.

Following service in the European Theater with the U S Army Air Force, Lewis returned to the New York City Penitentiary on Riker's Island and in 1947, left that post to become a parole officer with the New York State Division of Parole.

He was promoted in 1957 to the position of senior parole officer and in 1962 was again promoted to the position of area supervisor of the Hempstead area parole office; a position he has held until his present appointment as Administrative Director of the New York State Division of Parole.

As Administrative Director, Lewis will have responsibility for statewide parole operations and programs carried on in nine area office locations and in sixteen state correctional institutions to which parole officers are assigned. He will be headquartered at the Parole Division's central office at 162 Washington Avenue, Albany.

Lewis is married, has two children. He is a member of the National Council on Crime and Delinquency, the Middle Atlantic States Conference on Corrections and is currently chairman of the Correctional Services Committee of the Nassau County Health and Welfare Council. He has participated in the Regional Meeting of the Governor's Conference on Youth and has been a lecturer at the Nassau County Police Training School as well as the Suffolk County Police Academy.

His appointment to the post of Administrative Director is effective Oct. 28. The post carries a salary range of $17,160 to $20,060.

Cable Splicer Erling Andersen enjoys bringing people together

"I guess you can say I'm an expert at bringing people together!"

"It's a good feeling to be part of a growing business, especially one that helps bring more people together. And there's plenty of excitement in my job, too. Especially when some disaster hits, and we have to work around the clock to get the cables back in shape. But what I enjoy most is splicing in cables for new service. I know I'm adding to the number of people who can be reached by phone. And that makes everyone's phone more useful."

WHERE DO YOU STAND ON THESE ISSUES?

Should Nassau County residents working in Manhattan, Queens, Brooklyn, the Bronx or Staten Island pay a "commuter tax" to New York City?

FACT

Democrats approved such a law this year. If passed again in '66 it could become law. It is not subject to the Governor's veto.

Democrats plan to make this final in Albany next year. The 3 Democrat legislators from Nassau County voted with the city Democrats.

Should your tax-supported Town, County and Village beaches, pools, parks, and golf courses be opened to New York City's 9,000,000 residents?

FACT

A bill to permit this was introduced by the Democrat leadership. All Republican legislators opposed it. The bill fell just 10 short of passing. The Democrats plan to re-introduce it in '66.

3.

Should your child be forced "bused" from your neighborhood school to distant schools?

FACT

Republican candidates don't consider "busing" a good answer to the problem of integrating our schools. They want "neighborhood schools" retained.

The answer to integrated schools lies in providing uniformly good schools in all areas - to provide uniformly good education to all children.

The Democrats approve of forced busing. Democrat Jerome McDougal gave as his reason: "I wasn't concerned with the contents of the bill. I was voting to support my committee chairman on the issue."
