6 Calls for Firemen In Another Busy Day

Wednesday of this week was another busy day for the Hicksville volunteer firemen with six calls for assistance. Most serious alarm came at 12:57 PM when a car was destroyed in the Hicksville Auto Radiator at 32 E. Barclay St. Thirty volunteers were on the scene for an hour and a half with four pieces of fire apparatus. Second Asst. Chief Cliff Davis was in command.

One of the five other calls was a false alarm. The balance were minor fires.

Special School Aid Will Seek Federal $

A new administrative position in Hicksville Public School system was created Friday night by the Board of Education upon the recommendation of School Superintendent Donald F. Abt. The position will be occupied when Federal Educational aid is received and will be continued only as long as the aid program continues.

The new post is that of administrative assistant to the Superintendent who has two administrative assistants, William McCarthy and Marvin Gibson.

Abt told the board the position was necessary to assist in the administration of Federal Educational Aid in the district. Under the new federal law, the Hicksville School Board will administer aid not only to public schools but to the three Catholic elementary schools, Lutheran elementary school and soon to be opened Catholic high school in Hicksville.

No further action on the proposed 1966-67 school budget was taken but School Board President Herbert R. Johnson indicated he would call special meetings after the first of the year to complete the budget at the earliest possible date.

There were few spectators at the meeting which concluded at 1:24 AM Saturday.

What Are These People Looking At?

A ROPE held them back but they were still interested in what was happening on Old Country Rd near the RR crossing bridge last Thursday afternoon when Frank D. Mallett got this exclusive photograph. For the subject of their interest, see page three in this issue.

Elderly Native Was Farmer Here

John Keller of 11 Cherry Lane, Hicksville, one of the community's oldest native residents, died on Monday, Dec. 20, at his home at the age of ninety-four and a half years. He had been born in the same house and he farmed the potato land around it until he retired about ten years ago.

Mr. Keller is reposing at the Wagner Funeral Home, Old Country Rd and Jerusalem Ave. The funeral will take place on Friday with services at Holy Family Church and burial at Plainlawn Cemetery, Hicksville. He is survived by his wife, Bernadine; sons Fred, John and Frank Keller and daughters Helen Miller and Gertrude Nolan. Also surviving are 17 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren. He had been ill for about a year and a half.

Civics to Aid Santa Christmas Eve

As it has for more than 10 years, the Twin Lawns Ave. Civic Assoc. of Hicksville will again sponsor and assist Santa Claus as he makes house to house visits on Twin Lawns Ave. and neighboring streets early Christmas eve. Patrick Dowling of 8 Hicks Circle is president of the Association.

New Ordinance On Garbage

Municipal and private sanitation services in the Town of Oyster Bay are hopeful that the new comprehensive ordinance will eliminate undesirable and sometimes dangerous private conditions by giving rules the force of law. It was announced by Councilman Edmund A. Ocker, Acting Town Board Majority Leader.

The new ordinance defines garbage and rubbish, which must be in separate containers; requires removal of doors from discarded refrigeration appliances; limits bulky refuse and chemicals; prohibits indiscriminate dumping

Spectacular Pictures of Warehouse Destruction

BEFORE THE INFERNO broke out into the open, early in the day. Volunteers were just beginning to lay hose lines.

Herald Story First About Warehouse

For the second time in less than a month's time Hicksville volunteer firemen, assisted by neighboring departments, battled a tough, destructive commercial fire during the week. The alarm was sounded for the burning McKeon Warehouse on Old Country Rd., adjacent to the LIRR, at 11:57 AM on Thursday and it was not considered conquered until 10 PM.

Flames roared thru the 300-foot long, one story corrugated structure which contained garden products and fertilizer. A law and insurance office occupies the end nearest Old Country Rd.

During the fire John McDonald injured his heel and was taken to Syosset Hospital and released after treatment.

The flames collapsed the roof and back wall. Highway traffic was routed around the intersection of Old Country Rd and Broadway and fire pumps were stationed a block or more from the scene. Assistant Chief Gus Cotsonas was in charge when the alarm was given, later relinquishing the command to Chief John Specht. Smoke was clearly visible from Bethpage which sent apparatus to the scene. Also assisting were Westbury and Plainview. Damage was extensive.

Just two weeks before the volunteers worked a night and day when flames gutted a printing plant at 12 Midland Ave. Four volunteers were hospitalized at that time.

The HERALD was the first newspaper to report last Thursday's fire with copies on the newsstands three hours after the alarm was given.

(Photo taken from NEWS plane by Gordon Rynders; pilot, Jim Christensen) Cars were delayed for some time on Old County Road, Hicksville, yesterday while firemen battled a smoky fire in a warehouse stored with fertilizer. Damage was reported considerable.

A UNIQUE PRESS PREVIEW of a DC-7 display airplane for Alcoa Aluminum in the TWA Hanger at this Queens airport recently was partly through the efforts of a Hicksville resident, Tom Trone, TWA's area director of passenger sales (right). The airplane, dubbed an aeronautical ambassador for aluminum, has been outfitted with displays of aluminum for world wide marketing. The TWA hanger at La Guardia has been completely refurnished for the inaugural showing of the gleaming airplane. Alcoa District Traffic Manager, Roland Miller (center) checks over the guest list with Tom Trone as Jim Ward TWA sales representative to Alcoa looks on.

Our Men in Service

Aviation Electrician's Mate Airman Dan Perotti Jr., USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dante Perotti of 26 Libby Ave., and Airman Vincent I. Quirk, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Quirk of 10 Rising Lane, both Hicksville, will always remember Dec. 2, 1965 - the day nuclear-powered warships were first used in armed combat against an enemy. They are serving aboard the nuclear-powered attack aircraft carrier USS Enterprise.

As the carrier Enterprise went into combat, launching air strikes against the Communist Viet Cong in South Viet Nam, the nuclear-powered guided missile frigate Bainbridge was again at the "Big E's" side, providing anti-air and anti-submarine defense for the world's largest aircraft carrier.

These two ships recently completed a 30-day, 16,000-mile transit from Norfolk, Va., to the Western Pacific to become the first nuclear-powered vessels to operate with the Seventh Fleet.

The movement of Enterprise and Bainbridge to the Seventh Fleet was the first step in transferring the Navy's four atomic powered surface warships to the Pacific Fleet. The nuclear-powered cruiser Long Beach and guided missile frigate Truxton will be transferred in early 1966.

Post No. 3211
by Eddie Klebing

Christmas is that time of year when our small fry looks forward to meeting their hero from the North Pole-Santa Claus. Last Sunday, as in years past, the children of post members had the opportunity to meet their hero face to face again, thus creating the happy atmosphere which is associated with this time of year. A well deserved "thank you" is in order to the Christmas Party committee, which consisted of: Jack Mulligan, Arnold Bashwiner and Ed Shannon.

The Ladies Auxiliary annual drawing held earlier this month for a case of good cheer was won by Suzie Senko of Levittown.

We are proud to announce that Miss Sandra Rosenblatt who won the Voice of Democracy contest at Post level was one of the three winners in the Nassau County competition.

When the 89th Congress meets in January for its second session the V.F.W. will bring to the lawmakers attention legislation urgently needed to complete unfinished business on hand. One piece of legislation that is getting serious attention by the veterans organizations is the 7 per cent Social Security increase. This increase is affecting many veterans who are receiving disability pensions as well as Social Security benefits and results in a cut back in their pensions by more than the Social Security increase.

For example: A veteran who was receiving $75 per month in veterans benefits has had that monthly stipend decreased to $43 per month because his social security benefits were increased by $7.10 per month.

Senator Miller of Iowa proposed an amendment not to count the seven percent Social Security increase for veterans pension purposes and while approved three times by the Senate, the House rejected it in each instance. The V.F.W. campaigned hard to have the Miller amendment approved, however, the House has given assurance the pension program will receive a fresh study of the situations with

Local Couple Recalls Christmas in Ecuador

This Christmas, like many others, will be filled with memories for a Hicksville family.

Mr. and Mrs. George Calisto of Holy Family parish, who came to the United States from their native Ecuador some 12 years ago, vividly recall the memories of past Christmases in their native land.

Their three children - George, Carlos and Maria, all born in this country - share in those memories.

"We had a chance several years ago to take the children to Ecuador," explained Mrs. Calisto.

"Christmas is celebrated in Ecuador the same as it has been celebrated for hundreds of years, but there's not much difference between there and the United States," she noted.

Christmas is just about the same all over, although I think it is more religious in Ecuador," added Mrs. Calisto, who works for the Meadow Brook National Bank in Hicksville. Her husband is an electrical engineer.

Each day for two weeks processions are held in the towns and villages, according to Mrs. Calisto.

A statue of the Infant Jesus is carried through the streets with little boys dressed as angels, while some older boys dress as the wise men.

As the men carry the Infant Jesus through the narrow, winding streets, the boys dressed as angels sing, the women, in dark shawls, carry lighted candles.

Nativity Displays

The image of the Infant Jesus is then carried into the church for Mass.

"After Mass," Mrs. Calisto pointed out, "the people return home where in the main part of their houses they have set up a Nativity scene."

"Christmas trees are also becoming as common in Ecuador as they are here," she added.

"The children write letters to the Infant Jesus and the letters are hidden by the children in the Nativity scene so that the Infant Jesus will receive them, she continued.

"In Ecuador," she said "Christmas is a time for joy and sorrow, for remembering and hoping, and for being grateful. But mainly it is a time for worship."

To Our Pastor Philip Nash

Pastor Nash please don't let us down
You know how we feel when your not around
The thought that you have gone away
Darkens even our brightest day.
It grieves us so to know you're sick
Won't you please get well and mighty quick!
Our hearts can't find no song to sing,
Cause without you life don't mean a thing.
In order that we may carry our hopes and plans thru
Now depends so much dear Pastor Nash on you.
Amid the busy day, we all pause
And say our special humble prayers,
May God who listens to each prayer
Protect and strengthen you with loving care
When your feeling lonesome and blue
Remember, your Congregation is rooting for you
Hoping you'll be out in a day or two,
Greeting the people who care so much for you.
Doing all the things you did before
And feeling on top of the world once more.

Our thoughts are with you

Telephone Installer Roger Field tells about his job.

"We try to be careful about the little things, too, when we install your phone."

"One of the ways people tend to judge the telephone company is by the kind of job we installers do for them. So, in addition to providing our customers with the best equipment and making it work well, we try to be careful about the little things, too. Like arriving at your house on time. And leaving the work area as clean as we find it. Or taking a moment to show an interested boy or girl the inside of a telephone, and how it works. When you think about it, the little things aren't so 'little' after all."
