Cadet Corps Parents Hear Speaker

The January meeting of the St. Ignatius Girls Cadet Corps Parents Group had as guest speaker, Carmen Chua, Drill Master of the first corps.

Chua told the parents of his pride in the girls' accomplishments since entering the Marching and Maneuvering Circuit last January. The only all-girl drum and bugle corps within 100 miles, they compete in a circuit which has mixed corps and all-boy corps.

He encouraged the parents to continue their financial support and to especially renew enthusiasm in supporting the girls with their presence at Corps functions and events.

Phillip Gletschler, Business Manager of the corps, answered questions and gave a short history of the corps start and seven years of existence. Gletschler introduced Mr. Esposito and Mr. Wallace, Quarter Masters of the corps, Veronica Willard, Recording Secretary, and Mrs. Gomez, who works with both the Quarter Masters and Miss Willard.

Plans were discussed for a dance to be given April 23, committees were appointed. It was announced that Saturday, July 23, will be the date of the "Pageantry in Brass" contest.

The meeting closed with refreshments served by corps members.

Unsung Hero Back in Hospital:

Ailing Neighbor Tried To Rescue Baker Girl

Thomas Theiss of 16 California St., Hicksville, a truck mechanic with five children of his own, was feeling pretty miserable about 10 o'clock Saturday night. He had just returned home on Wednesday from the hospital for treatment of an ulcer condition, his first major illness in a health life. Someone yelled that the house butting on the backyard, at 10 Lowell Place, was on fire and three small children were trapped. Theiss dashed out in pajamas and a pair of socks. Forgetting for a moment that 6-foot cyclone fence in his rear yard, he gashed his left arm as he clambered over the barrier. His blonde wife put in the alarm to the police dept. He is back in the hospital today at Plainview Central General, the victim of smoke asphyxiation and recurrence of his ulcer condition.

His son, Thomas Jr., aged 15, broke in some of the rear windows of the Baker home and attempted to enter the structure. The whole incident took about 10 minutes, but to the participants it seemed like hours. There were reports current at the moment that three children were trapped in the house. There was a story that Anne Marie Baker, 9, was only three years old.

Theiss broke into the bedroom thru a window. When the door frame of the room ignited, he could see there was no one in the room.

While 14-year residents of Hicksville, the Theiss family moved to 16 California only a year and a half ago. They did not know their neighbors on backyard Lowell St.

It was only after the police cars and then the Hicksville volunteer firemen under Chief John Specht arrived that Theiss and his son began to feel a bit of the sub-freezing temperature and they were brought jackets to wear.

Another neighbor, Raymond Malsatti of 8 Lowell Place, was treated at Syosset General Hospital for cuts and bruises. He tried to get into the house without success. Bernard Baker, father of Anne Marie, was treated at the scene for smoke inhalation. Mrs. Baker, clad only in a nightgown, was taken to Syosset General and treated for cuts and bruises.

A solemn mass of requiem was sung at St. Ignatius Loyola RC Church, Hicksville, Wednesday morning for Anne Marie Baker, 9, of 10 Lowell Pl who perished in a fire, which gutted her home, Saturday night. She was buried at Long Island National Cemetery, Flushing.

The youngest of the five Baker children, she is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Baker, brothers Edwin, who is a member of Emergency Fire Co. 5 of the fire dept and recently entered the Navy; James and Bernard Jr., and a sister, Catherine Felton.

The funeral arrangements were under the direction of Henry J. Stock of Newbridge Rd. Company Five held funeral services there, Tuesday evening.

A student of Burns Ave. school, she was a member of the fourth grade with Mrs. Constance Goldberg as her teacher. She was a member of the Girl Scouts, sang in the Burns Ave School chorus and participated with the school recorder group.

The student body has collected a purse which will be presented to the family of Ann Marie.

The body of Anne Marie Baker was found, police reported, in the bathroom of her fire gutted home after an apparent attempt to escape. About 50 volunteer firemen were on the scene at about 10 PM and left at about midnight. Today the yellow and white trimmed house on Lowell Pl is a charred hulk. All the windows are broken, the doors are gone. Burnt and broken furniture litters the front yard and tarnishes the snow.

The temperature at the time of the alarm was between 10 and 15 degrees.

Thomas Theiss of 16 California St., who attempted to enter the dwelling from the rear was in further contact with the fire dept later in the night. At 4 AM Sunday, the fire dept ambulance was called to transport him to Plainview Central General Hospital where he is still a patient.

High winds and freezing temperatures hampered the volunteer firemen under chief John Specht in their efforts to confine the blaze. Mr. and Mrs. Baker were given temporary shelter by neighbors.

The four other Baker children were not at home at the time of the tragedy.

CLERGYMEN FROM HICKSVILLE AND EAST MEADOW met with guidance counselors from local schools at Trinity Lutheran Church in Hicksville. The meeting, the first of its kind in the area, heard Arthur G. Berger, co-chairman of the East Meadow Schools guidance dept. (standing, left) on Jan. 26. Seated from the left are Pastor Robert H. Guthrie, Father Francis C. Taten, Marvin E. Gibson, administrative assistant to the Hicksville Superintendent of Schools; and Pastor Edward H. Stammel of Trinity Lutheran. A clergy-counselor committee has been established as a result of the session. (Photo by Nicholas Minervina)

Dear Lynda

Send a get well card to HARVEY SCHLUTER, a Hicksville Republican leader and well-known personality at the State Legislature, who has undergone surgery at North Community Hospital in Glen Cove. He is in room 167 and has not been able to receive visitors. Recently named to membership in the NY State Society of Certified Public Accountants have been HARVIND KRAKOWER, CPA, of 105 Lincoln Road South, Jericho, and JACK M. KRAKOWER, CPA, of 105 Lincoln Road South, Jericho, and VAUGHAN READ of 26 Edison Dr., both Plainview. TOM JUDGE of Hicksville wrestles on the Yankton College, S. Dak., team at 177 lbs. EUGENE MURPHY has been nominated for president of the Syosset-Jericho Democratic Club to succeed AARON D. MANSBACH. Officer installation will take place Feb. 26 with Congressman WOLFF presiding. HENRY PLATT who was postal service officer in charge of Hicksville Post Office until RALPH CASCARDO was recently inducted as Acting Postmaster, was guest speaker at the LI Association Executives Breakfast in Plainview, Jan. 26. He is confident that ZIP code is going to put the zip in postal service. Regret to report that TONY STRICK has been a patient at Plainview Central General Hospital for more than a week and is not allowed visitors. He was named the winner, over the weekend, of a fine fishing rod given away at PAUL GEARY's Tavern. A front window of Botto Bros. Hardware was shattered by the high winds over the weekend. FRANK D'ANDRIA of Bethpage, formerly assistant manager of Hempstead Bank in East Meadow and associated with the LI National Bank of Hicksville for 10 years, has been named manager of the Bethpage office of the Hempstead Bank. The Hicksville Board of Education will hold its next regular-special meeting at Lee Ave. School on Friday night, Feb. 18, and its first official meeting in the new meeting room in the Administration Building on Division Ave on Friday night, Feb. 25. It features soft carpets, special sound arrangements, special spectator area and special lighting. There is even special seating for the Board members and spectators. The Public Relations Advisory Committee of the school district is scheduling a meeting for Tuesday night of this week. KATHLEEN JANCA is chairman. Every once in a while it is worth reminding our readers that we DO NOT CHARGE to publish news of general interest to the community. Just send it to the HERALD at PO box 95, Hicksville, giving the name and address of the source or author. Closed circuit television is being suggested by the administration for inclusion in the 1966-67 district budget, we have learned on good authority.

Schools were closed Monday due to the heavy weekend snow. Hicksville Chamber of Commerce will introduce its new executive director, STANLEY F. TURNER of Baldwin, at a general membership luncheon meeting at the Milleridge Inn, Jericho, on Tuesday, Feb. 8, at 12:30 PM. Guests of membership will be welcome. Hicksville Rotary Club will continue to provide license plate service since the expiration date has been extended to Feb. 15. FRANK MALLETT came home from Plainview Hospital on Sunday but will be confined to his bed for a time. A daughter, Debra Ann, was born to Mr. and Mrs. ROBERT BOVE of 85 Lenox Ave., Hicksville, at Mercy Hospital on Jan. 22. Mallett Lodge, F & AM, received an official visit of District Deputy Grand Master LOUIS K. BURSTON on Feb. 1. The Lodge will hold a dance at the Temple on Feb. 12 marking St. Valentine's Day. St. Ignace Loyola Auxiliary of Christian Mothers who used to be quite expressive about their activities will hold a social Feb. 18 at the school auditorium. There will be a Mid Winter Frolf featuring the music of ARTHUR SWANSON.

Nice to hear that Mrs. HENRY J. STOCK has returned to her home from the hospital. MOE DYCKMAN was hospitalized at the result of a hip injury suffered in a fall on the white wet. MEL VOORHIES can sleep more easily nights. There will apparently be no opposition to his candidacy in April for the position of second assistant fire chief. Our sympathy to TOM COLWELL upon the sudden death of his sister-in-law who was buried on Wednesday of this week. The mother of Hicksville Senior High Principal LEON GALLOWAY was taken to Syosset Hospital by the fire dept. on Monday of this week. We overheard a wholesale liquor salesman telling a bartender this week that apertic sour is all the rage. He didn't know why, could not understand it. The Nassau County Police Narcotics Squad announces that its display trailer on narcotics will be at Old Bethpage Rd. and Haypath Rd. on Feb. 10 from 12 noon to 8 PM. It is a pleasure to report that JACK L. EHMANN and CLIFFORD FREITAG of Hicksville were presented with 20-year awards at a December ceremony honoring tire dealers with 10 or more years association with The Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. There were 48 tire dealers honored at Akron, Ohio. Curiously, A.C. DUNN of Plainview, Nebraska, earned an award for 25 years of association with Firestone. The candidates for Third Assistant Chief of Hicksville Fire Dept. in April are LEWIS RED MERTZ, JAMES TAXTER, BOB HAMMOND and MARY DONNEL.

County Study Proves:

Industrial Acreage Can Reduce Taxes

About 20 percent of all the land in the unincorporated area of the Town of Oyster Bay zone for industry lies in Hicksville and another 20 percent of the total is in Plainview-Old Bethpage, according to a recent report of the Nassau County Planning Commission. Up to 50 percent of the marketable industrial acreage vacant in the county lies in the Mid-Island area.

There were 2757.22 acres in the township zoned for industrial use in 1962. This rose to 2968.65 in 1965. The following details for the local area are reported:

Community	1962	1965
Hicksville
(Zoned)	557.02	562.22
(Used)	382.00	412.95
(Vacant)	89.08	64.66
Jericho
(Zoned)	162.09	172.38
(Used)	93.37	100.02
(Vacant)	24.20	27.01
Old Bethpage
(Zoned)	224.07	235.59
(Used)	104.95	102.35
(Vacant)	69.57	47.35
Plainview
(Zoned)	351.48	357.54
(Used)	148.11	205.01
(Vacant)	160.09	98.85

Thus there are 237.87 acres of vacant industrial zoned land in the mid-Island communities. In the entire county, according to the study, there are 1,633 acres of vacant land for industry of which only about 500 acres are considered marketable. The report says: "Problems with access, need for fill or unrealistic prices make the remaining 1,100 (county-wide) acres zoned for industry unmarketable."

The County Planning Commission also made a study of Plainview-Old Bethpage School District to determine the effect of industrial zoning on an area's tax base. If all the remaining vacant industrial land in the School District were used by industry, the report concludes, the 1965 school tax rate could have been reduced to $7.185, a reduction on the average home in the district of from $597 to $574 per year in taxes. If, on the other hand, the vacant land were used for complete residential development, the tax cost on the average home would rise from $597 to $725 per year. At the same time total 1965 school cost would increase from $5,709,766 to $7,068,010. An average valuation of $7,990 per home was taken in computation.

Pageantry in Brass

By the St. Ignatius Girls Cadet Corps

We, the girls of the St. Ignatius Girls Cadet Corps, would like to share with the people of Hicksville and the surrounding areas the many joys and experiences we have had and those that are to come. We felt the best way to do this was to start the weekly report so that all would know who we are, what we are doing -- and when the opportunity presents itself, we hope you will come out to see us.

It all started seven years ago, on Nov. 29, 1958, when about 120 girls got together in the St. Ignatius School auditorium. We were all a little green and none of us knew the difference between our left and right foot, no less the difference between a drum and bugle. But in no time we were marching around the school yard and we were almost in step.

Well -- Memorial Day came around and so did brand new red, white, and blue uniforms. What a beautiful picture we made -- but wait something's missing -- Oh yes, the instruments, they come later.

Soon we completed a little more of the picture and marched and played with shiny brass army bugles. Yet we were not satisfied with playing "You're in the Army Now" so we worked just as hard as we could and in a few years we had brand new piston bugles. Now we played more complicated and enjoyable music, with this new asset many exciting trips followed, Rochester, Albany, Niagara Falls and Canada.

1965 was our biggest, most exciting and most rewarding year. On June 5, we stood on the starting line of our first marching and maneuvering contest. This was the moment we had long been waiting for. As we stood there under bright red cowgirl hats and even brighter lights, we wondered if all those years of practice and hard work really show, how would the music sound, would the drill fall into place the way it should? BANG! At the sound of the gun 60 girls stretched across a football field doing a drill that required the precision of West Point, playing music that sounded like a Broadway Show.

We were half way through our show -- does the crowd like us, will the solo players be effective? -- The solos were over and we were on our way to the finish line -- Was this a dream or did we hear cheers -- Yes we did, the crowd liked us!

A group of girls gave a terrific show according to the applause. We really worked hard for this, but now we know what team work can accomplish.

Over the years we have represented Hicksville in many parts

EDITORIAL OPINION

The Broadway Widening

The first "official" word we have seen printed anywhere regarding the widening of Broadway project was revealed in a list of publicly-financed road and highway projects published recently in the Commercial Review. Bids for the widening of Broadway will be opened by the State Dept. of Public Works in 1967. The job is described as "west side of Broadway, Hicksville, demolition and widening" and the engineering estimate of the cost is $1,300,000.

The same list also reveals under Nassau County projects, the widening of Old Country Rd. from Wantagh State Parkway to just east of Broadway, will cost $1,865,000. The contract has been awarded to Zara and work is now underway. No competitive bid date has been established.

Under the list of State Public Works projects we find reconstruction of route 107 (which we know as Broadway or Hicksville Rd.) from Hempstead Tpke. north to Hicksville will cost $3,300,000. The bid opening date has not been established. The reconstruction of Newbridge Rd. (route 106) from Jerusalem Rd. (105) north to North Broadway in Hicksville (also 107) is listed as a $6,500,000 project with no bid opening date established.

And while we are discussing the widening of Broadway by the demolition of buildings on the west side, we sincerely trust the planners are calling for the burial of utility wires beneath the street surface. If we don't get it done now, it may never happen for generations to come. This would appear a logical project to interest the Chamber of Commerce.

Keep Hydrants Clear

There has not been enough snow fall in recent winters to make this reminder necessary. However, with the record fall in the past few days, please remember to dig out the fire hydrant nearest your home when you are doing the front walk. Sometimes the road plows unintentionally cover curbside hydrants.

A hydrant buried in the deep snow can be a real time loser when the volunteer firemen arrive in response to an emergency call. If the snow has caked and iced, the problem is even more serious when the temperature is hovering around 10 degrees.

Chosen for All-Star

Ellen Ryan and Joyce Lawrence have been selected to participate in the Tyro C.Y.O. All Star Game of Our Lady of Mercy R.C. Church.

Ellen and Joyce have been active in sports with Our Lady of Mercy in the C.Y.O. program for the last five years, and have participated in softball, track and swimming, as well as basketball.

These two girls are tough competitors, as well as good sports, which is one of the prime factors for participating in our C.Y.O. program. Our Lady of Mercy wishes to congratulate Joyce Lawrence and Ellen Ryan on their contribution to Our Lady of Mercy Parish activities.

Our Lady of Mercy Bantam A Boys basketball team lost to Holy Family, who are undefeated, in a hard fought game, 34-28. Ray Barretts boys gave it all, right to the end before giving way to the taller Holy Family team.

WHO REMEMBERS WHEN

Hollywood was a section of Hicksville.

The area south of Ninth St. on Jerusalem Ave. was then known as Hollywood. To our horror we learned this week, after all these years, why it was known as such.

And there was a Jack Ass Lane. That, according to legend, was the name at one time of Leo Ave.

Hicksville School District has had a thing about naming elementary schools according to the original name of the street it fronts. For example, Woodland Ave. (on Ketcham Rd); Dutch Lane School (on Hempstead Ave. which eventually became Stewart Ave) and Lee Ave. School (which really can only be entered by Seventh or Eighth St.) The last name to maintain the true traditions should therefore be re-named.

It is Boy Scout week from Feb. 7 to Feb. 13.

Operation VFW

William M. Gouse Jr.
Post No. 3211
by Eddie Klebing

Earlier this year we mentioned here the Veterans of Foreign Wars support for a cold war bill of rights. Since that time the administration presented their version of a GI Bill to Congress.
The VFW, in a memorandum to National Officers and members of the national legislative committee, went on record to oppose this cut-rate G.I. Bill. The memorandum reads as follows:

"For the first time the administration is supporting a cold war GI bill. Being called the administration GI bill is H.R.
11985 - cost $100 million. This hodgepodge bill is a hybridized proposal. It would scatter the training of cold war veterans by dividing those entitled in two groups. It is a cut-rate bill. It is a radical departure from the philosophy of previous GI bills.
Only those who have served in the Armed Forces since October 1, 1963, would be entitled.
There are no home or farm loan provisions in the bill. There are no on-the-job or on-the-farm training provisions in the bill.
Only institutional type training would be authorized at or above the high school level.

Two agencies will administer the provisions - VA and HEW.
If the veteran received a badge or medal and has served two or more years, or has a service connected disability, he will be entitled to $130 to a maximum of 36 months. An estimated 6,000 veterans would be entitled under this section. This is the VA part of the bill.

If the veteran does not qualify for a medal, he will be entitled to a 1-year scholarship of $800 if he has served at least two years. If he has served two to three years, he will be entitled to 18 months; three to four years, 27 months. If he has served over 4 or more years, he will be entitled to a maximum of 36 months.

An estimated 120,000 would be entitled under this section. This is the HEW part of the bill.

The Bureau of the Budget must have had its hand in this proposal.
It is another bold attempt to dis-member the VA.
Where readjustment of the veteran to civil life was the underlying philosophy on previous GI bills, this one seems to have departed from that philosophy by offering a bonus or reward for having served since October 1, 1963.

Minimum service of two years is another defect in the bill, since there will be many with lesser service who will be excluded - including those who even received a medal.
By national mandate, approved at Chicago, VFW is supporting S-9 and similar proposals which will provide readjustment assistance to all those who have worn the uniform since the end of the Korean conflict and are carrying out American commitments all over the world.
H.R. 11985 should be rejected by the Veterans Affairs Committee.
Francis W. Stover
Director.

In The Wind

By Dan Carroll

It's been a cold, bitter week with the wind howling through our streets intermingled with the howl of tires spinning out of snow banks. Walking against the wind up Broadway was an arduous task, and Old Country Road was just as depressing. The street was flanked by piles of snow mixed with freshly dug sand as the construction crews moved onward against the wind. At regular intervals through the snow-sand mixture could be seen the bare stumps of trees freshly cut.

But it wasn't all bad. The cold weather made that second cup of coffee taste extra good. In the Maplewood Shopping Center we found Bernie, of Maplewood Stationery, serving it as fast as he could. He barely kept up with the demand. Even in pleasant weather Bernie's coffee is noted as being somewhat special.

The cold weather also gave us a big, hearty appetite. There's nothing like sitting down to a juicy steak dinner after coming in from the cruelty of winter! Apparently a lot of people did just that. Bill's Meat Market featured a steak sale which had an overwhelming appeal. As a matter of fact people have been pouring in since the day Bill opened two months ago. We know from delightful experience that all his meats are among the finest around. Bill is located in the A & P Shopping Center on West Old Country Road.

One of the things people sometimes forget is the old fashioned winter. The snow plow makes us forget the snowed-in family sitting around the fireside, singing songs to wile away the hours. The harmony of these thoughts ties in with Valentine's Day which is nearing quickly. D'Vie Florist on Broadway will be bringing back the Valentine's Day of old with special old fashioned valentine bouquets trimmed with beautiful violets. It's something out of the ordinary for that special sweetheart of yours.

The sweethearts themselves will be interested in K & J Fabrics across the street from D'Vie. Mrs. Jungman has been holding a very successful sale and people have been flocking in to admire her fine assortment of fabrics, in spite of the weather. The sale ends Saturday, so there's not much time left to get in on the terrific buys.

Speaking of time, Emery, of Sterling Sewing and Vacuum on West Marie Street, says that time has caught up with many of the sewing machines and vacuum cleaners around town. His repair department has been extraordinarily busy for the past couple of weeks.

Have you noticed all those new ties that have been sported by our men lately? They are obtained free of charge at Russell's Cleaners on Woodbury Road. All you have to do is bring over five dollars worth of cleaning and a new tie is yours.

One of the major topics of interest along Broadway these days is the road widening. Some of the stores will be moving, such as East Isle Stationery, and others have different plans. Dan Persampieri of East Isle says that he will be expanding to a much larger building in the area. His son, Anthony, is coming down from Connecticut to join Dan in the business and to help accomplish the move.

Chroma paint, on the other hand, has decided to stay right where it is on Broadway. Although the road will take off quite a bit of the building, Al and Bill mentioned they have plenty of room to expand in the rear. They have already done some internal expansion by doubling the size of their art department.

Olga Specialty Shop is going to play it by ear. For the time being Olga is content to remain at 134 Broadway selling her large line of merchandise. Olga is especially proud of her line of Vanity Fair underwear because her customers tell her that she has more of a selection than some of the large department stores.

Let us close by congratulating Airman 3rd Class Thomas McCarthy who was just engaged in Rome, N.Y. Tom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy, owners of Mary Carter Discount Mart at 184 South Broadway.

Senator Henry M. Curran, Chairman of the Senate Banking Committee, has announced the appointment of John F. Coffey of Syosset, Counsel to the committee.

Card of Thanks

I wish to thank all those who called and sent cards during my recent hospitalization, particularly the members of the Hicksville Rotary Club, LI National Bank President William E. Koutensky, Eddie Teverini, Central Federal Savings and Loan Assoc., Bob-Ken Ford and Jules Mirel and his travel agency.

Today, there are two and only two ideal modern energy
sources for heating...
Gas and Electricity.

Over the years, various fuels were sources of energy for heating. As man progressed, he moved forward from crude wood fires to coal- and then oil-burning stoves and furnaces.

Today, the two ideal sources of energy for heat are the two modern ones, gas and electricity. Both are superbly efficient, both are clean and quiet. Neither has to be delivered or stored; they are both on tap, ready to be used the instant you need them. And you only pay for exactly the amount you use, after you have used it.

So if you're planning to buy, or build a new home, call LILCO and let them help you decide which of the two modern fuels is best for you. Either system will stay modern for the life of your house.

It's surprisingly easy to convert your present house, too. So why not join the "Comfortables" now. Move up to one of the two ideal energy sources for heat—electricity or gas—and start to live better immediately.
