Start Construction Soon:

Reveal New Bank Main Office Site

William E. Koutensky, president of the Long Island National Bank with ten offices in Nassau and Suffolk Counties, confirmed this week that the bank will occupy as its new main office a modern banking structure to be built at the south-east corner of East John St. and Broadway, Hicksville. Construction is expected to start "before the summer" on the property with frontage on three streets.

Two or more structures on the property owned by George C. Karlson, including the former Mowen Funeral Home, will be demolished in the process. The new main office location has frontage on Broadway, John St. and E. Barclay St.

The decision to move to a new location was reported by Koutensky to the shareholders in his annual report when he announced that a committee of the Board of Directors had considered several sites for a year. The move is being necessitated by the State Dept. of Public Works plans to widen Broadway by slicing off 40 feet on the west side of the state highway.

Architects Scheiner and Swit of Massapequa who have designed several of the LI National Bank Branch offices in Hicksville, Plainview and Suffolk as well as banking facilities for Meadow Brook National and Security are currently preparing plans for the new LI National main office. The prime corner of the property is now occupied by an abandoned service station. The inverted L-shaped property will not affect the premises of Jabby's Tavern on Broadway near Barclay St.

No estimates of construction cost are available at this time until the plans are completed. Koutensky said that ample off street parking and full auto bank parking facilities will be provided.

The new main office will be the third for the Long Island National which began at the northeast corner of Broadway and Marie St., later moving to its present stone structure at Broadway and Herzog Pl.

Koutensky who started with the LI National as a teller and rose to the presidency will celebrate his 47th anniversary with the bank on July 1.

The bank has branch offices at Mid Island Shopping Plaza, 350 South Broadway and 196 Old Country Rd (Center Shop) in Hicksville; 445 South Oyster Bay Rd., 1100 Old Country Rd and 651 Old Country Rd, Plainview; 1850 New York Ave., South Huntington; 365 Broadway, Bethpage; and Heatherwood shopping Center, Commack.

School Budget Reflects Flanagan Suggestions

There has been a "decided decline" in the drop out rate in Hicksville schools.

The present track three curriculum in the district is "just a watered down track two" and needs examination. Students surveyed said they spent an hour a day on homework, considerably less than the national average and private school students (not necessarily Hicksville) find they need two or three hours a day for their assignments.

Sixty percent of the Hicksville graduates are entering college which is above the national average of 50 percent of high school graduates. Nationally, 40 to 50 percent of those who enter college drop out.

The average IQ in Hicksville schools is 114 compared with the national IQ of 100.

These were among the revelations of Dr. John Flanagan, director of the American Institute of Research, in discussing and answering questions regarding the AIR study of the school system recently completed. About 200 persons, the majority school administrators and supervisors, attended the open meeting of the School Board on the subject in the High School student cafeteria, Friday night.

The session started at 8:20 and concluded at 10:45 PM.

Other comments and points were these:

Seventy five percent of the boy graduates and 50 percent of the girl graduates go to college.

The motivation for learning declines thru the grades in Hicksville school due to some lack of interest in certain courses.

Track one in Hicksville schools is "very helpful to students".

The following morning, Saturday, the Board met in the new administration building for the purpose of working on the proposed budget. Shortly after the meeting began the trustees went into executive session with Superintendent Donald F. Abt, sent out for sandwiches and resumed in public session at 2:28 PM.

In line with some of the Flanagan report recommendations the Board included $18,600 in the coming budget for the salary of a new third administrative assistant to the superintendent position for the areas of vocational subjects, adult education, summer school, fine arts and business.

The Board expressed opposition to a plan to teach Mandarin (North China dialect) as a foreign language course in the district next year and another proposal to offer Russian to Junior High students.

Upon the recommendation of President Johnsen, Abt recommended the deletion of a proposed $100,000 item for educational TV, replacing it with the sum of $1500 to cover the cost of acquiring a TV channel rights and to finance study of the proposal with a report to be presented by Jan 1, 1967.

All funds in the proposed budget to provide merit pay for non-professional staff members were deleted with all voting in favor.

The sum of $10,000 was provided for the employment of consultants and $10,000 for the examination of curriculum needs, both in accordance with Flanagan recommendations.

The meeting concluded at 5:35 PM with another budget making session scheduled for this Friday night, April 1, in the new Administration building, continuing at 10 AM Saturday.

Not all seven trustees were present for the entire session. Irving Lawrence was absent both Friday night and Saturday.

Legion Post Awards Medals on Birthday

The Charles Wagner Post, American Legion, with an all-time high in membership of 406 under Commander George Johnston, held an impressive awards and ceremonial night, Saturday, when among special honors for outstanding community activities by non-Legionnaires were presented.

Presentations were made by Anthony F. Correrri. A gold citizenship medal was presented to William E. Koutensky, president of the Long Island National Bank, "for outstanding activities as an individual, as a representative of the LI National Bank, as a representative of all the service organizations in advancing and promoting the social, moral, physical and financial well-being of the citizens of Hicksville."

Fred J. Noeth, editor and publisher of the Mid Island Herald, was honored "for outstanding activities in the dissemination of all the news fit and proper to be brought into the homes of the citizens and people of Hicksville, Oaks Blvd., Steven Goldberg of 26 Stratford Rd. and Mark B. Portnoy of 182 Morton Blvd., all Plainview.

Republican Teens Elect Officials

The Hicksville Teenage Republican Club elected a new set of officers at its annual meeting in March. Stephen Sanetti, 121 Kuhl Ave., was elected President, succeeding Thomas Hoffmann who had held the post since the club's founding in August, 1964. Other officers are: John Coffey, Vice-President; Gary Hubbs, re-elected Treasurer; Sandra Schwartz, Recording Secretary; and Joyce Anderson; Corresponding Secretary.

The TARS also chose five delegates to the Nassau County Council of Teenage Republicans. They are: John Coffey, Gary Hubbs, Steve Sanetti, Sandie Schwartz, and Doug Spadaro. Elected alternate was Jim Samuelson.

President Sanetti said that he would announce his committee appointments at the April meeting. He hinted that there probably would be some changes from the present setup.

The new officers will be installed by Hicksville Republican Leader Julius Schwartz on Friday, April 15. The installation will take place at the Old Country Manor at 9pm, directly following the April meeting of the TARS at 8pm in the same building.

Chamber Will Invite Exchange

Hicksville Chamber of Commerce became another of a growing list of communities in several states to propose that the Stock Exchange relocate in Hicksville. President Leland Badler, re-elected this week at the annual meeting of the Chamber, said he will seek to enlist "leading Republican and Democratic public officials in its attempt to obtain the Exchange, with special regard to the whole problem of taxation."

"There is little question," he continued, "that in Hicksville the Stock Exchange and the community would all greatly benefit by movement of the Exchange to Hicksville."

Memorial Parade Committee Elects

Bethpage Memorial Parade Committee met at the Bethpage firehouse on Friday, March 26th. The officers for the 1966-67 year were elected as follows:

President - Charles Schwarz; Vice President, Everett Baldwin; Secretary - Kay Metz; Treasurer - Vincent Catalano. The President appointed Peggy Strong chairman in charge of Gold Star Mothers, Lillian Sullivan, publicity chairman and Dot Rabas, chairman in charge of programs.

Dear Lynda

Now that the State Court of Appeals has confirmed the right of the Town of Huntington to require the LI Lighting Co to bury three miles of high voltage power lines, we fail to see why the Town of Oyster Bay can not insist -- at least -- that the power lines on Broadway thru Hicksville be sunk under the streets. Especially since the wires and poles will have to be moved in connection with the widening of Broadway. In the opinion of some, this may be the last opportunity to make this improvement for the next 50 years or more.....Speculation about the new location for the main office of LI National Bank ended this week with the official site selection report. At least seven sites were mentioned in local gossip during the past two or more years. On one occasion a reporter asked WILLIAM E. KOUTENSKY about a reported "inside story" decision. The banker said "that's interesting I had not heard that one before. I've heard of four so far and none of them are correct".....A few lady spectators in the new School Board meeting room have been heard to grumble that the new molded plastic seats are "too hard".....A local merchant used to advertise his location as "opposite the A&P". When that moved away, he changed it to "near to the Bank". Now what is he going to say? South of the tracks?.....

Town Councilman A CARL GRUNEWALD has told friends, in answer to rumors, that he will most definitely be a candidate for re-election when his current term expires....Happy birthday to Deputy Town Supervisor GEORGE V. O'BAIRE who celebrated last Sunday. Photographer FRANK DON MALLETT notes that everyone will be going to church on his birthday, Easter Sunday this year....Hicksville contractor JOE DOBSON was the subject of a write up in the February issue of Construction Methods and Equipment regarding equipment designed by his company in connection with pouring steeply sloped walls of a three-acre, concrete-lined reservoir now under construction at Port Washington. The January-February issue of Compass, publication of the Hercules Div of American Cement Corp., features JOE DOBSON, professional engineer, and discusses work his company is doing at Cantigue County Park here....We are not sorry to learn that CHARLES STONIER has resigned as secretary of the Nassau Planning Commission to accept a new job at Hofstra. His plans for the solution of transportation problems all seems to avoid benefit to Hicksville which is the logical rail-bus center for this part of the Island.....

Hicksville High School Distributive Education Students who won top honors in New York state recently were presented to the Board of Education at its meeting Thursday night. The students will be going to Chicago next month to participate in National competition where they were the only state winners last year....

KATHLEEN KAPSOL, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kapsol of 38 Seymour Lane, Hicksville, was married March 26, to Sven A. Tullberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kjellake Tullberg of Helsingborg, Sweden.

The candlelight ceremony was performed in Hendricks Chapel at Syracuse University by the Dean of the Chapel, Charles C. Noble.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a long formal wedding gown made by her mother of antique satin, falling into a self-train. In the Swedish tradition, the bride's full-length illusion veil was held by a crown of myrtle leaves. She carried a cascading bouquet of phalaenopsis orchids, stephanotis and ivy strands.

Miss Janet Kapsol, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Karen Ericsson of Warren, Pa. and Mrs. Frank Dimella of Syracuse, Pa. The attendants wore long white formal gowns of white shantung and matching headpieces of flat bows with short veils. They carried cascading bouquets of yellow and bronze cymbidium orchids, stephanotis and ivy strands.

Frank Dimella of Syracuse, was best man. Ushers were Kjell Tullberg, brother of the groom, of Helsingborg, Sweden and Arnold Miller, uncle of the bride, of Kew Gardens.

A wedding reception followed the ceremony at the University Club of Syracuse.

Mrs. Tullberg is a 1965 graduate of Syracuse University where she was president of Eta Pi Upsilon, senior women's honorary, and a member of Lambda Sigma Sigma, Pi Sigma Alpha and Theta Beta Phi. She is a sister of Kappa Alpha Theta, social sorority. She is now doing graduate study at the Maxwell Graduating School of Citizenship and Public Affairs of Syracuse University.

Mr. Tullberg is a senior at the State University College of Forestry at Syracuse University. Before matriculating at Syracuse, he served in the Royal Swedish Army. The couple will make their home in Syracuse.

Name Trotta

Gerard Trotta has been named Superintendent of Parks, Town Board Majority Leader Edward J. Poulos announces.

Trotta, who began his service with the Park Dept in 1958, working his way up through various positions, was appointed Assistant Supt. of Parks in January 1965 after he passed a civil service examination for that post.

"The Board's action was unanimous," Poulos said, and we have appointed a man who is thoroughly conversant with every phase of Park Department operations. He has played a very important role in the development of the Town Board's Park Program over the past eight years which has brought about the construction of comprehensive recreation facilities in every community in our Town. The Town Board is pleased to recognize and reward Trotta for his excellent performance with this appointment."

A marine corps veteran, Trotta's appointment to the $15,500 a year post becomes effective immediately. A resident of Hicksville, he lives at 46 Walnut Lane with his wife and two children, Gary, 12, and Paul, 8.

As winter draws near its end and the Crocuses poke their heads through the partially thawed ground, the St. Ignatius Cadet Corps also fields its petals and turns to the sun. Hibernation is over (not that the past few months have been a time of inactivity though). As a matter of fact nothing is farther from the truth. The main difference between winter and summer practices is that we share the latter with our neighbors. Right about now we start getting a little anxious to pound the grass and to show off our new repertoire and the improvements we've made in our marching. The coming of spring means the start of a brand new season and a corps full of fun and excitement.

This year our first appearance was made on March 13, in the annual St. Patrick's Day parade held in Hempstead. What a feeling to be out in the open again, stepping briskly to the music we worked so hard to perfect! That feeling of elation was boosted a little bit higher when we were invited to the Irish American last Sunday, March 29, to be presented with a first place trophy. To add a little to that joy, the girls we march with, Queen of the Rosary Academy, Amityville, also took first place in their category. This was a source of great satisfaction because some of the girls in the corps are members of the student body of Q.R.A.

With the coming of Spring, so comes a new drill and much practice. For the past two Sundays and many more to follow we'll be practicing at Cantique Park, where our biggest competition is Old Man Winter, who is by no means bowing out graciously for Lady Spring's grand entrance. As a matter of fact he's so determined to stay that his temperature has dropped and his velocity has increased con-

In The Wind

By Dan Carroll

The season for flowers is here and we know where to get the finest, freshest, and most beautiful Easter plants imaginable. At Giese Florist on Lee Avenue in Hicksville, the flowers are planted, grown and purchased right on the same spot so that extra handling and transportation are avoided, making the flowers you buy as perfect as possible. Ten high greenhouses on almost seven acres of land are devoted to such beautiful specimens as carnations, tulips, roses and begonias. Much planning is involved to bring you the flower you want at the right time. Two weeks before last Christmas Wesley Giese planned almost two thousand lily bulbs and now these gorgeous plants are ready just in time for the Easter season. Even more planning is necessary for the other popular plants of Eastertime. It's been a year since Giese's hydrangea plants started growing and it was back in the middle of 1963 that this year's beautiful azalea plants were started. The residents of our whole area have been served by Giese Florist for over forty-one years.

We would like to announce the new manager of the Central Employment Agency at 90 Broadway, Hicksville. She is Mildred Hartig who has been with the agency for over three years before this promotion. Mrs. Hartig is remembered as treasurer of the PTA in Hicksville for several years. The agency is noted for having found many secure jobs for the people of our area.

Several weeks ago we mentioned the arrival of a new business in town, Lifespan Products, situated across from Grumman at 126 Quality Plaza. Since then we have become quite convinced of the value this company has for every pet owner. Its products have far-reaching effects on the health and welfare of your animal and should be looked into to assure yourself that you're doing the most for your pet. The most important service that Lifespan has been offering for the past twenty-eight years (Lifespan was previously located in Merrick) has been in manufacturing result-producing balanced diets. Realizing how important an adjunct in disease treatment the proper diet can be, intensive research was begun several years ago, with invaluable veterinary and nutritionist assistance, to develop the "Lifespan Formula Diets." Exhaustive study of all the latest scientific data on canine and feline nutrition was made as well as laboratory and field testing. These Lifespan diets are not only carefully and exactly formulated in terms of highest nutritive values with the highest available quality ingredients, but each has been developed to serve a definite and special purpose for a specific therapeutic need. The diets are palatable, nutritious, highly digestible and easily assimilated.

Operation VFW

William M. Gouse, Jr.
Post No. 3211
by Eddie Klebing

This week we would like to devote this space to news of interest to our community's young men going into service, our future veterans. While the "cold war" GI bill may not be foremost in their minds now, it still remains the big news in rehabilitation of the veteran. Action under the new bill got underway with the U.S. Employment Service ordering all their state agencies to give priority for job and training opportunities to veterans with military service since the Korean Conflict. The service's employment security manuals concerning veterans are being rewritten to include information on "cold war" veterans.

Another item that should interest the future veteran is the possibility of a hike in military pay. Defense Secretary McNamara reversed his negative stand on a military pay raise and now is willing to go along with Congressional plans to give military men the same pay raise that federal civilian servants will get. The increase will be somewhere in the vicinity of 3.2% and will be granted only if federal civilian employees are provided an increase in salary. If so, then the military pay hike becomes automatic and retroactive one month from the date it is granted.

The thought of all young men going into service revolves around the possibility of service in Vietnam. These young men chosen to go will take some consolation in the fact that Defense Secretary McNamara recently stated that no plans are in the near future to change the length of the 12 month Vietnam tour.

While it may be a little too early yet, the young man headed for Vietnam may be wondering about some of the non-combat uncertainties of his tour of duty. The United States Army Vietnam has complete answers to practical questions on the subject and they are being distributed by command information officials.

A soldier asks, "How much money should I take overseas to meet expenses until next payday?" The USARV answers, "Approximately $75 will be needed to tide you over until payday."

Other tips offered by the Army are: The wearing of civies off duty is encouraged and the Army suggests that sport shirts be on the conservative side. All clothing should be washable--Hold baggage requires 60 days or more to arrive in Vietnam....On arrival in Vietnam all U.S. currency must be changed into MPCs....Normal airmail time varies from three to seven days depending upon Viet duty stations. Parcels moving by ship take 45 to 60 days....Two seven days leaves are authorized....Those are a few of the tips given by the Army on questions about what to do when in Vietnam.

Another tip to men who will serve in Vietnam is the fact that your tour of duty qualifies you to membership in the Veterans of Foreign Wars. We hope you give that some consideration as the VFW is proud of its members now serving in Vietnam and looks forward to them joining this exclusive veterans organization made up of overseas combat men.

I was going to the bank, but it was raining.

Save money? I can't even save string.

I forgot my bankbook.

I don't have a cent at the end of the month.

I just forgot. My mother had a terrible memory, too.

No will power, I guess.

With our system, you don't have any excuses for not saving money.

There are 3,728 excuses for not getting around to putting money in a savings account, where it can do you some good. We've heard every one of them.

The truth is - some people (maybe you're one) will never be any good at do-it-yourself saving.

So we've figured out a system, at First National City, that lets you save money without even thinking about it.

You just tell us how much you want to put aside each month (as little as $10). We'll transfer this amount from your First National City checking account to your savings account. Automatically.

You never have to remember to make deposits. We'll remember for you. You get full interest as usual, compounded quarterly. Your account just grows and grows.

And the service doesn't cost you a cent.

See? All you need is the desire to save. We'll supply the will power. (You don't have a checking account with us? Come in to any branch, and we'll fix that, too. Only takes a few minutes.)
