Three Candidate Teams State Formal Positions

The "platforms" or position papers of three slates of candidates in the Hicksville School Board election set for next Wednesday, May 4, are presented by the HERALD as received without comment. With four vacancies to be filled, UNITED has a team of four candidates, GEET has a slate of three and TEACH is offering two candidates.

Slates of candidates are not recognized in the State Education Law regarding the conduct of school elections and each candidate must be listed on the ballot in alphabetical order under the name of the position for which their name has been filed.

Elsewhere on this page is a reproduction of the form of ballot on May 4 indicating the relative position of each candidate. To the ballot-form has been added the name of the candidate sponsor. This information will not appear on voting machines. Peter Scintino is apparently not aligned with any team of candidates.

The platforms follow:

UNITED

The four UNITED Candidates for the Hicksville Board of Education on Wednesday, May 4, today reminded all voters to be sure they are registered as the only complete slate of candidates they publicly pledged themselves to work together in conducting school board business with harmony, efficiency and dignity.

Cornelius J. McCormack of Boxwood Lane and John J. McManus of Lehigh Lane are seeking re-election to the Board. McCormack is completing six years on the Board and McManus was appointed to fill a vacancy last June. Teamed with them are Harold Sternberger of Princess St. and Conrad Kreyling.

Advanced Chorus Wins Medallion

On June 3 the Hicksville Senior High School Advanced Chorus under the direction of Charles Arnold will present part of a Town Hall concert in New York City.

As finalists, and Silver Medallion Award winners in the Milano Awards contest, the chorus will perform in competition with three other high school choruses from Nassau County. The Gold Medallion will be presented to the winning chorus that evening.

The contest, sponsored by Milano Award Productions, is designed to find the most outstanding chorus in Nassau County. Audition tapes were submitted in January, ten semi-finalists were chosen in March, and the four finalists have just recently been announced. Honorary sponsors of the contest are: Mme. Serge Koussevitsky, Deems Taylor, and Rosa Ponselle. The presiding judge at the contest in 1965 was conductor Hugh Ross of the Schola Cantorum.

A limited number of tickets will be made available in May and they may be purchased from members of the Hicksville Advanced Chorus.

ling of Tanager Lane, all Hicksville.

Voters will have until 4:30 PM this Friday to register at the School Administration Building, Division Ave., Hicksville. It will be the ninth day offered as permanent voter registration goes into effect.

The UNITED candidates are pledged to:

- Work with the School Administration in its continuing efforts to develop and improve the public school program in Hicksville.
- Logically apply the Flanagan Report recommendations as a guideline to such development and improvement.

Carry forward steps that have been initiated by the Board to further implement vocational, technical and educational programs in special areas.

Vigorously pursue methods to increase the community's rightful share of State and Federal financial assistance to relieve, wherever possible, the burden of taxation.

Continue current policies of inventory control and economy on all levels.

Seek to improve communications with the entire community regarding school district problems and decisions.

Work together in UNITED effort to conduct school board business with efficiency and dignity. Each and every man will endeavor to complement the effort of all.

The UNITED candidates are also urging support of the budget.

TEACH

Most effective use of guidance psychological, and other pupil personnel services.

Recognition of the legitimate role of the teaching staff as co-operating partners in developing educational policy.

Practical measures for easing school tax burdens of local property owners.

Expanded use of citizens' advisory committees.

Support of the School and Library budgets.

Add 1,000 Voters To Eligible List

More than 1,000 names were added during the week to the list of voters qualified to vote next Wednesday, May 4, upon the school and library budgets and to fill four vacancies on the Hicksville Board of Education.

A total of 196 registered on Saturday and another 757 signed up on Wednesday. During the seven day period of central registration at the new administration building on Division Ave next to the Senior High School, the average daily sign-up has been about 12.

With more than 5100 voters registered last May plus those who added their names for the special library budget re-run in June, there are now more than 6,000 voters enrolled and qualified to vote for the elections of next week.

Voter Tailor In Jericho

The Nassau County Board of Elections mobile registration trailer will visit Jericho this weekend.

Commissioners William D. Meisser, and Marvin D. Cristenfeld, said the trailer would be at the Birchwood shopping center on Broadway on Friday and Saturday, April 29th and 30th.

This marks the third time in the last three years that the registration trailer has been in the Jericho area.

The commissioners advised qualified voters that they must register if they have failed to vote in the last two elections, moved since they last voted or are voting for the first time.

Alumni Deadline is Apr 30

Time is getting short if you have not already purchased your tickets for Hicksville High School Alumni's 7th Annual Spring Dance at the Holiday Manor, Bethpage, on May 13th. Music will be by Art Swanson's orchestra. Because this year's event will include a midnight buffet, reservations must be made in advance and the committee has extended the deadline for such reservations to April 30th. Tickets are $5.00 each and may be obtained by calling Chairman Etta Cramer at GE 3-0264.

Cascardo Sees Big Savings

Residents of Hicksville would save thousands of dollars annually on heavier packages under parcel post reform legislation pending in Congress, Acting Postmaster Ralph G. Cascardo said today.

The saving could be $2 to $3 a parcel, or more, he explained.

Equally significant, Postmaster Cascardo said, there are many instances where mailers decide not to send such parcels at all, with resulting losses of much business by the Hicksville, Plainview and Old Bethpage Post Offices.

Postmaster Cascardo's report was based on a new analysis of parcel post reform legislation, H. R. 12367, sent to him from Washington, D. C., by President James O'Toole of the National Association of Postmasters.

At the same time, the postmaster reported the parcel post reform measure would help the Post Office Department reduce the postal fund deficiency to its lowest level since enactment of the Postal Policy Act in 1958 -- from the present $376 million deficit to $187 million.

On behalf of the Postmasters Association, which has thrown its support behind legislation introduced at the request of Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien, Postmaster Cascardo made these points of particular interest to residents of Hicksville, Plainview and Old Bethpage:

As a first class post office, the Hicksville office cannot accept most parcels of more than 20 pounds or more than 72 inches dimensions if they are going to another first class post office 150 miles or more away.

Such parcels sent by private express, at much higher charges, often cost several dollars more than by parcel post.

However, H. R. 12367 would provide new parcel post limits of 40 pounds and 100 inches, with resulting savings for mailers at the Hicksville, Plainview and Old Bethpage Post Offices.

An increase of 14 cents a parcel would be needed to offset the parcel post deficit, but, if H. R. 12367 is enacted into law, a much more moderate increase averaging 3 cents a parcel would be provided, Postmaster Cascardo said.

More than 100 smaller size post offices are raised each year from the second class to first class. When they are raised, parcel mailers under the present restrictions must often suffer added costs involved in private express company handling of the heavier parcels.

Residents of smaller post offices enjoy limits of 70 pounds and 100 inches for parcel post packages.

In a recent typical example, Roanoke, Alabama, a second class office, was raised to first class. A parcel of 21 pounds was formerly sent to Bainbridge, Ga., about 155 miles away, for $1.59. Now, if it is sent at all, it is sent by a more expensive means. In the case of the Railway Express Agency, it would be $4.70.

Residents of small communities who do not have the limitations imposed on first class post office mailers suffer nevertheless as a result of the limitations on parcel post, provided 14 years ago under a law favoring REA, the NAPUS report indicated.

Because of lost volume in first class offices -- which today serve 140 million Americans -- parcel post rates (or taxes) for everyone have been raised about $500 million since 1951. Overall increases in parcel rates have totaled about 130 per cent.

The parcel post reform legislation would go a long way toward correcting parcel mailing problems and reducing expenses, the Postmaster noted.

248 Attend First Breakfast

On April 24th, Our Lady of Mercy held their First Communion Breakfast. It was a huge success, as 248 boys and girls and coaches attended. The group was addressed by Father Schewbius, Pastor of Our Lady of Mercy and by the C. Y. Q. moderator, Father Stanuch. Father Schewbius thanked the coaches and commended them for a job well done. Father Stanuch spoke to the group on obedience and its associated aspects.

The Breakfast was also attended by Larry Jordon and Marge McGorry, who are the coordinators of Boys and Girls Sports Activities for the Diocese of Rockville Centre in Nassau County.

Our Lady of Mercy, boys baseball and girls softball season got underway on April 23rd, with all six teams competing. The boys and girls took it on the chin as they dropped five out of six games; however, they were in contention in all their games.

The Girls Bantam White Team was our only winner, as they defeated St. Anthony's 18-3. This team is a veteran team, as they have been playing together for the last three years with one championship already in their pocket. St. Ladislaus A defeated the Boys Green Team - 8-1; St. Agnes defeated the Boys Grammar Team - 8-4 and St. Gertrude defeated the Boys Gold Team - 5-3. The Girls Tyro Team lost 5-3 to Blessed Sacrament and Holy Family defeated the Bantam Girls Blue Team 15-11.

Olga Hoebel Is President

Olga Hoebel, Hicksville, has been elected president of the Long Island Branch of the National League of American Pen Women, Inc., at a recent meeting of the Branch at the home of Helen Kissinger, Baldwin.

Rose Wenck, Jericho, has been elected vice president; Grace Johnston, No. Bellmore, recording secretary; Jean Stanley, Great Neck, treasurer; Helen Kissinger, Baldwin, corresponding secretary; Almina Di Tommaso, New Hyde Park, will be the historian and Dorothy Bedell and Dorothy Bryan both of Freeport, will be art chairman and co-art chairman.

The installation of officers will be held at a luncheon at the Garden Club Hotel on Wednesday, May 4. Pauline Bloom, a member of the Manhattan Branch and former State president for the NLPW, will install the new officers. The membership of the League is composed of professional writers, editors, poets, artists and composers. The League was founded in 1897 by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow's niece and other women active in creative pursuits. Its headquarters are the Pen-Arts Building in Washington, D. C.

An art exhibit by the artist members of the Long Island Branch is being held in the Palm Room of the hotel in conjunction with the luncheon and installation from May 3rd until May 6th.

My Neighbors

LIVING UNDER LAW

CITY BEAUTIFUL

Not long ago an eastern city banned the use of clotheslines in the front of houses. Although a rebellious homeowner challenged the validity of the law, it was upheld in court.

Legal experts reacted vehemently, both pro and con. For the clothesline case touched on a sensitive issue — may a city restrict the use of private property for the purpose of beautifying the community?

The issue arises in countless ways. May the owners of roadside property be forbidden to erect billboards? May the owner of an unsightly junk yard be forced to enclose it with a fence? May a homeowner be required to keep his premises from becoming an eyesore to the neighborhood?

Clearly the city may act for reasons of safety or health. It may insist, out of regard for your neighbors' welfare, that your home must not become a firetrap or a source of disease.

Note: The New York State Bar Association offers this column as a public service.

But the law long looked askance at regulations that were even partly motivated by considerations of beauty. Safety and health were considered matters of necessity, but beauty only a matter of luxury—not urgent enough to justify government tampering with private property rights.

Besides, it is relatively easy to agree on what is safe and what is healthful. But what is beautiful? If the city could regulate in the name of beauty, couldn't it—for example—tell a homeowner what color to paint his house? Where to plant his shrubbery?

As one judge put it: "Individual taste, good or bad, should ordinarily be let alone by government."

Nevertheless, there has been a gradual trend toward letting aesthetics play a larger role in municipal regulation. Beauty, if not yet as necessary as safety or health, is at least considered more necessary than it used to be.

States differ as to just how large the role of beautification may be but they do agree that it may carry some weight.

Town Road Below County Costs

A five-year analysis of road maintenance and construction costs shows that the Town of Oyster Bay Highway Department is spending an estimated $4,331 per mile as compared with $6,941 per mile spent by Nassau County, Highway Superintendent Norman T. Wolf reports.

The study of the Town and County maintenance costs covered the period from 1961 through 1965. It analyzes costs to maintain the 460 miles under the jurisdiction of Nassau County against the 675 miles maintained by the Highway Department in the Town of Oyster Bay. The figures were obtained from Town and County highway budgets covering the entire five-year period in order to effect a comparison of maintenance costs per mile.

Town Highway Superintendent Wolf said his department is constantly reviewing new engineering methods and techniques to reduce, wherever possible, road maintenance expenses. Recently the Town Highway Department was attacked by the Town Supervisor, charging that the Town spent $7,400 annually per mile for Town road maintenance as opposed to Nassau County's expenditure of $4,700 annually per mile over the last five-year period.

"Under the circumstances," Superintendent Wolf declared, "I ordered an immediate analysis of the County and Town highway maintenance budgets to determine the validity of the charge made by the Supervisor."

"Our study of the five-year period, 1961 through 1965, showed the Town utilizes 266 employees to maintain 675 miles of road while the County employs 430 persons to maintain 460 miles of road. Budgetary maintenance appropriations show that the County's average maintenance costs per mile over the five-year period 1961 through 1965 were $6,942 as compared with the Town's annual maintenance costs of $4,331. The 1965 cost per mile in the County was $7,611 as compared with $4,170 for the Town."

"This factual comparison of Town and County Highway Department maintenance costs is taken from the actual budget appropriations," Wolf said.

William Casey of Roslyn Harbor yesterday picked Viet Nam as the chief issue in his primary campaign against former Rep. Steven B. Derounian for the Republican nomination for Congress in north Nassau.

Casey said Derounian's opposition to immediate peace negotiations in Viet Nam is "incredible and irresponsible."

Let's escalate the war.
—don't negotiate now.

Let's fight—don't escalate —do negotiate now.

The Republican Primary Election on June 28th is no tweedle-dee vs. tweedle-dum contest. There are serious and vital differences between the two contenders for this Congressional nomination.

There is probably no single issue that more convincingly demonstrates these differences than Derouin's current "solution" to the Viet Nam problem. Just a few short weeks ago, he told reporters that he advocated escalation of the war in Viet Nam—sinking ships at Haiphong, and he opposed any negotiation talks now.

Just days ago he went even further into his reckless to-hell-with-the-consequences thinking when he stated in Port Washington that he would favor keeping our troops in Viet Nam even against South Vietnam's wishes if the Red Chinese were about to move down. This Derouian policy would have men engaged in a land war in Asia fighting the Chinese army in the front and an unfriendly government's army at the rear.

If Derounian runs again — he stands to lose again . . . if only because of his hopeless views on Viet Nam.

A distinguished Republican has come to the fore who can win. That man is William J. Casey of Roslyn Harbor, a man with an outstanding background of public service and statesmanship. Casey is deeply concerned about our mounting casualties in Viet Nam, and sees a Derounian policy of escalating and sinking ships as incurring the great risk of involving Red China and Russia in the war. And from this rash act there would be no lasting benefit because the Communists would merely bring the same supplies down overland. Casey proposes that we continue to knock out Communist road and rail lines to South Viet Nam, but at the same time urges a strong pursuit of negotiations that could bring this conflict to a just and peaceful conclusion.

Casey is a former advisor to President Eisenhower, tax and fiscal policy advisor to Governor Dewey, and Chief of the OSS Intelligence Operations under Eisenhower. A lawyer with a national and international reputation, Casey was called upon to serve as Associate General Counsel for setting up the Marshall Plan. Casey is a director of the International Rescue Committee which helped save victims of Stalinism, Hitlerism — and is saving precious lives today in South Viet Nam. In 1962 Casey directed Senator Javits' campaign in Nassau County. Casey is a progressive, qualified and experienced Republican capable of serving the best interests of our District and our Nation. If you want to see the Republican Party put its best candidate forward—and if you want an outstanding representative to speak for you in Congress—get in and work with Bill Casey in this important ad. Can Casey count on you? Then call him at 4-04.

Makeup artists are now turning to the knee for inspiration. Feet and ankles are already being done. And not too long ago ear and neck make-up began taking the play away from the face. The plans of one make-up man named Gil from a leading American cosmetic salon include simple frivolities for the knees like shadowing to accent the hollows and dimples, decorations above and below the knee which will stretch out the knee line and attachments like Western garters. As skirts get shorter going to the mid-thigh more women of all ages will become knee conscious, he believes. The reason for this, Gil said, is "exposing the knee (which is terribly ugly) is the most daring thing a woman can do." Short dresses, he believes also make her "feel young," like "fake eyelashes." So, he foresees the day when knee make-up will be as non-revolutionary as fake lashes are today.

lowing it, the Egyptian. In Old Testament days cheese was considered as much a sweet as honey, almonds and wine. The ancient Greeks gave themselves a god of cheese — Aristaeus. Homer sang of cheese in the Odyssey — Ulysses' war-torn men discovered cheese on racks and devoured them. The Olympic athletes of ancient Greece trained on a cheese diet. The Greeks were so fond of cheese that they rewarded their children with it as a candy. Cheese was so esteemed by the people of the Greek island of Delos that they engraved cheese likenesses on their coins. The island of Samos was noted for its cheese cakes. Wedding cakes of the day were usually cheesecakes, and at Argos it was customary for the bride to bring little cakes that were roasted, covered with honey—and served to the bridegroom's friends.

In ancient Rome, cheese played such an important part in the diet that the wealthy had special kitchens for cheesemaking, while the rest of the people brought cheese to public smokehouses for curing. A favorite Roman dish was cheese with fruit. Cheese has sustained fighting men—from Caesar's legions to the forces of Genghis Khan—and armies thereafter. The monks of the Middle Ages made their mark with the elaborate soft-ripening cheese for which France is noted today.

EDITORIAL OPINION

The Budget and Austerity

The qualified voters of area school districts next Wednesday, May 4, will vote upon the expenditure of money to operate the public schools during the fiscal year commencing July 1st. It is unfortunate, but some voters charge they are being "threatened" when told of the alternate to budget approval at the polls.

Defeating the budget does not necessarily mean a saving in tax dollars but can mean a definite reducing in facilities and services. The School Board which prepared a budget rejected at the voting booths must either re-submit the budget in its original or amended form or proceed to levy taxes on the basis of an austerity budget. The latter is the state law allowed expenditure for certain fundamental costs (salaries, etc) without further voter approval. One neighboring district after re-submitting revised budgets four or five times in one year, went to austerity and cut out cafeterias, recreation, adult education, inter-scholastic athletics and prohibited the community use of buildings and playgrounds. The people subsequently petitioned to have these services restored and on a vote on individual activities and services restored almost everything that had been deleted.

Here is a capsule comment from a school district spokesman in Lawrence-Cedarhurst: "Defeat of the budget would result in an austerity program under which parents would have to pay for elementary school textbooks."

The well-publicized Hicksville budget was the subject of a public hearing last Friday night. Less than 75 attended and fewer asked questions. No objections to portions of the budget were raised and the questions were reasonable and objective, in the view of those who have attended many local budget reviews. Long hours, spread over months, went into preparation of the budget with the lowest possible anticipated tax rate. The bulk of the school staff participated in some if not every phase of budget preparation.

Of the total, more than $8,000,000 is for the salaries of teachers. Another substantial portion of the total is for the salaries of non-teaching personnel, all essential to the efficient operation of the school plant. More than one million dollars is required to meet due payments on bond issues authorized over the year for structures.

The budget is a complex fiscal document which cannot be substantially altered by a flat rejection. The children must be educated, the facilities for education maintained, the tools of education provided. Everything costs more, as any housewife can verify. Approval of the school budget is to be desired.

Community Youth Centers

We may be missing something, but current proposals on a township level to open a string of community youth centers (two in Hicksville) one each in Plainview, Bethpage, etc., sounds like an expensive duplication of existing facilities.

In Hicksville, for example, the use of school buildings, play areas, ball fields, etc., for after school, week end and summer activities has been carried on successfully and at some expense to the taxpayers of the school district. The expense factor includes extra power, heat, custodial services, etc., not to mention recreation direction.

The people of Hicksville and its Board of Education are willing to do this and it would seem that other districts do no less.

The opening announcement about the town-managed youth centers contemplates a $500,000 bond issue to provide something in Plainville. At that rate the Supervisor Pettit proposal could easily run into millions in capital outlay for structures alone. To this cost would have to be added the salaries of directors and administrators, year in and year out.

It would appear, without the full plan placed before us, that the youth-community center idea could be a needless expenditure of taxpayers' money which could be more profitably utilized for other purposes.

Reader Opinion

RIGHT TO OPINION, BUT...

To the Editor:
Although I support an editor's right to express his opinion freely and openly on the editorial page of his newspaper, I wish to call attention to the tremendous responsibility inherent in that right. When an editorial contains innuendos as well as irresponsible and misleading information, the editor has failed in his responsibility to the public.

In an editorial on April 21, 1966 in the Mid-Island Herald, a reference is made by you to school board candidates, other than those you have endorsed, as people who "have failed to alert the community as to their backgrounds and intentions within a reasonable period for evaluation." As you well know, this is false! Both Evelyn Silver and I issued a statement through T.E.A.C.H. several weeks ago indicating our intentions to seek positions on the school board which appeared on page one of your newspaper in the issue dated April 7, 1966. Prior to that, on April 1, 1966, our candidacies were announced at a public event held at Levittown Hall which 200 Hicksville citizens attended, a fact of which you were informed. Your editorial ignores these facts as well as the fact that your candidate, Mr. C. Kreyling, did not announce his intentions until the final hours of the last filing date, April 20, 1966.

Furthermore, I was confused by your statement recommending the selection of candidates who have become known in the community through their "demonstration of interest" in education, especially since you then admit in that same editorial that Mr. C. Kreyling "is not as well known to us". To ignore completely the long background of service and accomplishment evident in the printed biographies of the T.E.A.C.H. candidates whom you are not endorsing is an obvious contradiction and distortion of facts. What, then, do you mean by a "demonstration of interest"?

In addition, you also refer to Mr. J. McManus as a "proven" member of the School Board. What specifically are Mr. McManus' "proven" accomplishments during his six months tenure on the Board? As a reporter, you have an obligation to provide the public with accurate information. As an editor, your opinions should be based on facts especially in so important a matter as recommending candidates for public office. Your failure to do this leads to the inescapable conclusion that your choice of candidates may be colored by your desire to protect your appointment as School District clerk.

TEACHERS TAKEN CARE OF

To the Editor:
I have just received some literature which was left at my door (no address given in letter - editor). It was put out by an organization by the name of TEACH. Their platform is very impressive. However, it's the same platform used by another organization last year. One of their candidates is a school teacher. Last year we elected a school teacher to the Board. Teachers belong in the classrooms, not on school boards. The last thing we need on our school board is members who will cater to one particular group. Our teachers are very well taken care of. Our children are suffering only 25% of our children are getting a fine education (sic). Our present budget is 12 1/2 million dollars. For that kind of money we are entitled to better than 25%. At the budget hearing Mr. Goldberg threatened the taxpayers miserably. Considering that our new budget is one million dollars higher, I seriously question whether we should elect any more teachers or relatives of teachers to sit on our school Board.

(Signed)
Mrs. ANN WINTER
Apr. 25, 1966
no address

(Editor's Note - - The budget for the coming year is over $13 million, not $12 1/2 million. The increase in the budget, however, is less than one million, if carried to its extreme, and Mrs. Winter's reasoning, we would not permit stenographers, typists, bookkeepers, grounds-men, custodians, maintenance men, etc. or the relatives of such people to be on the board.)

"We always like these off-year elections. No matter how they turn out, both parties can always find something in them to be pleased about." Richard Mayer, Jr., The North Vernon (Ind.) Sun.

Around Town

Hicksville resident Daniel Robert, a student at Hofstra University, will take part in the University's seventh annual Festival of the Arts to be held this year from May 6 to 15. Robert, 14 Glen Lane, will portray Tom in "Huckleberry Finn," a satire by Tennessee Williams. "Huckleberry Finn" is being presented along with Glen Carlo Menotti's short opera, "The Medium." The double bill will be performed at 8:30 PM Friday, Saturday and Sunday, May 6-8 at the Hofstra Playhouse, Hempstead. Tickets at $1.50 each are available at the Playhouse box office, IVanline 9-7755.

A sophomore majoring in theater arts in New College, at Hofstra, Robert previously attended the University of California at Berkeley, and appeared in "Antigone" there. Daniel's father is a set decorator in television and films, and his mother is affiliated with the Hicksville school district.

At a Special Term Part I of the Supreme Court of the State of New York held in and for the County of Nassau at the Court-house thereof at 33 Willis Ave. Mineola, New York on the 19 day of April, 1965.

PRESENT:
HON. WILLIAM R. BRENNAN JR.
Justice of the Supreme Court

In the Matter of the Application of Christie George Philippopoulos and Claire Philippopoulos, for themselves and in behalf of: Christie George Philippopoulos Jr., Guy Louis Philippopoulos and Craig John Philippopoulos, in-fants, asking for leave to change their names to: Christie Phillips, Claire Phillips, Christie Phillips Jr., Guy Phillips, and Craig Phillips.

Upon reading and filing the joint petition of Christie George Philippopoulos and Claire Philippopoulos, duly verified the 14 day of April, 1966, praying for leave to assume the names of Christie Phillips, Claire Phillips, and for their children Christie George Philippopoulos Jr., Guy Louis Philippopoulos and Craig John Philippopoulos to assume the names of Christie Phillips, Jr., Guy Phillips, and Craig Phillips, respectively, in the place and stead of their present names, and it is duly appearing that the said petitioner Christie George Philippopoulos was born on January 19, 1929 at New York City, New York, and that the certificate of his birth issued by the City of New York Department of Health bears No. 2033; and that said petitioner, Claire Philippopoulos was born on February 27, 1935 at City Hospital, New York City, New York and that the certificate of her birth issued by the City of New York Department of Health bears No. 5947; and that the child Christie George Philippopoulos Jr., was born on February 8, 1959 at Forest Hills General Hospital, Queens County, New York and that the certificate of his birth issued by the City of New York Department of Health bears No. 156-61-419863; and that the child Craig John Philippopoulos was born on September 17, 1963 at Forest Hills General Hospital, Queens County, New York and that the certificate of his birth issued by the City of New York Department of Health bears No. 156-63-422815, and the Court being satisfied that said petition is true, that there is no reasonable objection to the change of the names proposed that it is the interest for the children.

NOW, on the motion of ERNEST J. PEACE, attorney for said petitioners, it is ORDERED that the said Christie George Philippopoulos born on January 19, 1929 at New York City, New York with certificate No. 2033 issued by the Department of Health of the City of New York and Claire Philippopoulos born on February 27, 1935 at City Hospital, New York City, New York, with birth certificate No. 5947 issued by the Department of Health of the City of New York and their children Christie George Philippopoulos Jr., Guy Louis Philippopoulos and Craig John Philippopoulos all being born at Forest Hills General Hospital, Queens County, New York and respectively February 8, 1959, with birth certificate No. 156-61-419863 issued by the City of New York Department of Health, August 17, 1961 with birth certificate No. 156-61-419862 issued by the City of New York Department of Health, and September 17, 1963 with birth certificate No. 156-63-422815 issued by the City of New York Department of Health, all residing at 24 David Avenue, Hicksville, County of Nassau, New York, be, and they are hereby authorized to respectively assume the names of Christie Phillips, Claire Phillips, Christie Phillips Jr., Guy Phillips, and Craig Phillips, on the 20 day of April 1966, upon condition, however, that the further provisions of this Order shall be complied with; and it is further

ORDERED that this Order be entered, and the petition upon which it is granted, be filed within ten (10) days from the day hereof in the Office of the Clerk of this Court in the County of Nassau, and that within twenty (20) days after the entry hereof, a copy of this Order shall be published in the Mid Island Herald and that the date of publication thereof to be filed in the Office of the Clerk of this Court in the County of Nassau, within forty (40) days after the date hereof; and it is further

ORDERED that upon compliance with the above provisions herein contained, the said petitioner Christie George Philippopoulos and Claire Philippopoulos

WILLIAM J. CASEY, Roslyn Harbor candidate for Congress in the Republican June 28th Primary Election, enthusiastically accepts the endorsement of Mrs. Virginia Low Bacon whose husband served as the area's Congressman from 1922 to 1938, and of Leonard W. Hall, Representative from 1938 to 1952 until he became Republican National Chairman. The joint endorsement took place on April 18th at a Washington D.C. press conference.

and their children shall, on and after the 20 day of April, 1966 be respectively known as and by the names Christie Phillips, Claire Phillips, Christie George Phillips Jr., Guy Phillips, and Craig Phillips, which they are hereby authorized to assume and, by not other names.

The Blank Ballot

The Associated Industries of New York State has focused attention upon the substantial number of blank ballots cast across the state last November. In 11 of 65 Senate districts in the state, the total number of people who entered the voting booth and failed to cast a ballot for any Senate candidate exceeded the total who voted for the runner-up. In six Senate and 36 Assembly districts the total of blanks exceeded the total of votes given the winning candidate.

In three Assembly districts where contests were decided by less than 90 votes the number of blanks exceeded the winner's plurality by as much as 35 times.

Aside from the reaction of shock, there has been some speculation as to why voters behave that way. The confusion for voters in the repeated reapportionment, resulting in strangers appearing on local ballots, has been given some of the blame for voter failure to record a decision. The League of Women Voters has found, for example, in demonstrations of the use of voting machines that many voters with good intentions actually erase their own vote. Erasures occur, sometimes, when voters pull the lever down, but then return it to the original position. Others pull only the first lever on a party line in order to (mistakenly) cast a single ballot for the entire slate. Some voters actually go into the voting booth to satisfy their obligation, but fail to record a single vote!

The correct understanding of voting machine operation is especially important at this time of year when many will be voting during the first of week upon local school board, and library trustee candidates as well as upon school and library budgets.

Around Town Hall

Presiding Hempstead Town Supervisor Ralph G. Caso had something to say on a number of topics this week:

A proposal to haul commuters from points near their homes to LIRR stations in Mini-Buses (19 passenger capacity, maneuverable as a family car) has the town's official blessing. The plan would be launched in Merrick on a two year demonstration program with federal financial assistance of $115,000.

The supervisor wants to know when the government surplus property at Mitchel Field will be released for sale.

Champagne Dance

The Nassau County Young Dems will hold their 4th Annual Spring Champagne Dance on Apr 29 at the Nassau Inn in New Hyde Park. For tickets, call Paul Hessel at WE 5-7883.

The County Seat

County Executive Eugene Nickerson announced the Dept of Public Works Division of Recreation and Parks will conduct a Performing Arts Workshop this summer (July 5 to Aug 26) at Tanglewood Preserve in Lynbrook. A fee of $80 will be charged for youngsters 12 to 18. For information call IV 9-9600, ext. 18.

The magic of the modern fuels is so many things.

Flick a switch and a beautiful room comes aglow with light. Touch a thermostat setting and comforting heat makes your house and the people in it snug and secure.

A baby plays on the floor, but no icy fingers of air touch her. Bare teenage feet paddle through the house with nary a frosty toe.

A roast comes to the dinner table piping hot. Milk arrives refreshingly cold. Music plays softly. Toast pops up. Coffee stays hot.

After dinner, a TV tube glows and pictures and words carry your family to other worlds. Water heats for the baby's bath. Blankets get warm as the night air gets cold.

Because of those two modern fuel partners—gas and electricity—a home and the family it embraces move through the measures of time cheerfully, efficiently, securely.

Kathleen Mill of Hicksville is a member of the 57-voice Concordia Choir which will appear in concert at Carnegie Hall, New York, on Sunday, May 15, 8:30 PM. The choir, composed of students of Concordia Junior College, Bronxville, New York, is under the direction of Prof. Ralph C. Shultz.

This past Christmas season the choir was heard across the country on the NBC-Radio program "Voices of Christmas." It is now under contract to tape a series of four to six programs for the same network's Sunday morning "Great Choirs of America" program for release late spring or summer.

During the last week in March the choir was on tour throughout the states of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Maryland, Delaware and New Jersey. Concordia is a junior college owned and operated by The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod for the purpose of training young people for full time church work as ministers, teachers, deaconesses, and parish workers.

Kathleen Mill is a Sophomore student in the Teacher Education program. She lives at 157 W. Nicholas St., Hicksville.

HI-NEIGHBOR!

If you are a newcomer in the Jericho or Plainview area you may look forward to being greeted by our local "Hi Neighbor" representative. She will come bearing gifts and messages of welcome from civic and religious leaders, as well as prominent business men of our community. She will acquaint you with various local activities and make your arrival a happier and warmer event.

Should you have a brand new neighbor in these areas, be sure to phone Mrs. Anne Golden WE 1-4535.

Finian's Rainbow On Stage 4 Nights

May 11, 12, 13 and 14 are the nights of Hicksville High's musical Finian's Rainbow. Under the direction of Joseph Crucilla the cast has worked out an enjoyable evening for everyone attending. Not to be forgotten is the expert assistance coming from Charles Arnold, Choral Director, and Thomas Buttice, Orchestra Director.

The performance of Wednesday May 11 will be sponsored by the PTA. Proceeds will go to the PTA Scholarship Fund. Tickets go on sale a week before the show at the High School ticket booth. Prices are $1, $1.25, $1.50 for the evenings of Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday respectively. Curtain time is at 8:15.

YOUNGER SET of Hicksville expressed their full support of former Congressman Steven B. Derounian in his efforts to recapture the congressional seat he held for 12 years. In the picture are, from left: William Evans, advisor to teenage Republicans; Andrew Rosenblatt, vice chairman of the "Young Citizens for Derounian;" Thomas Hoffmann, president of the Hicksville Teenage Republicans; Derounian, and Steve Sanetti, delegate to the County Teenage Republican Council. How would you like to have a fleet of trucks go around town paying your bills?

It's easy to arrange. All you have to do is open a Special Checking Account at First National City. Come bill-paying day, you write your checks, stick them in the mailbox and sit home with your feet up. The service charge is 50¢ a month, and it's a bargain. For it, you get a fully itemized statement every month, listing deposits you've made in the account, all the checks you've written that have come through the bank, and how much is left after each day's transactions. Your cancelled checks are proof of payment. And, with a checking account, you know you're handling your money in a businesslike, no-nonsense way.

What else? Oh, yes. We give you a supply of checks free, and then you pay 10¢ for each check you use. (Some banks charge you 10¢ for every check you get, use it or not. Not us. You're not out a penny if you happen to ruin one of ours.)

You don't have to keep any set amount of money in your First National City Special Checking Account. Open one at any branch of First National City and live a little.

Ashtrays Should Be Kept in Every Room of the Home

As part of the 1966 Spring Clean-Up drive, householders throughout the nation were asked by the American Insurance Association to check the home ash tray situation.

If there are smokers in your house, the Association suggests you should have ash trays, and big ones, in every room.

Ash trays should be made of metal or glass, or some other fireproof material, and they should be emptied often. When emptying an ash tray, make sure the fire is out.

Every fifth fire in the United States is caused by matches and smoking. By taking care where ever smoking is involved, the nation's fire loss can be reduced, says the American Insurance Association.

MEMORIAL DAY COMMITTEE MEETS

There will be a meeting on Friday, April 29th for the members of the Bethpage Memorial Day committee at the Bethpage firehouse. Charles Schwarz, president of the committee stated that final arrangements for the Bethpage Memorial Day Parade will be made at that time.

An open meeting will be held at the Archie McCord American Legion Hall on Tuesday, May 11th for representatives of those groups who wish to participate in the Memorial Day Parade.

The Purple Land by Kaye

A LAST OUTPOST of adventure in a modern world is Machu Picchu, the lost Inca city rediscovered to the world by Hiram Bingham of Yale in 1911. A marvel of engineering and stone masonry, Machu Picchu straddles an 8,000 foot mountain saddle. When you stand in the ruins of this once superb city, you are surrounded by purple mountain peaks, drifting white clouds and a turquoise sky.

THE CITY OF LIMA, while totally Spanish, combines the modern with graceful antiquity in a way that fascinates. Lima was founded in 1535 by Pizarro; his remains rest in a glass casket in the Plaza de Armas.

THE COLOR OF PERU is a haunting purple. To reach this mysterious country, sail on the new liner Santa Mariana, one of her 3 sisters that entered the Grace Line service last year. Of unique and graceful design, the Santa Mariana is the lazy, leisurely, restful way to voyage to South America.

Brighten Closets with Wallpaper

Probably the most neglected portions of the house are the closets. We close the doors on them and go merrily on our way.

Lately closets have been getting more and more attention, especially from interior stylists. In fact, dressing up closets is considered in many quarters to be the fashionable thing to do.

Smart cliff dwellers, for instance, with small apartments look upon their walk-in closets as an opportunity to become really creative.

Sliding door closets, common to the newer homes, offer similar decorating opportunities. But whether the house is new or old, there's certain to be a hall closet or linen closet which can be made more attractive.

Pre-pasted, plasticized wallpapers have become the favorite means for imparting taste and decor into closets.

The United Wallpaper Company of Chicago suggests that the traditional chintzes, crevels and floral designs need not always be used in such decorating. It recommends that the homemaker consider stripes, rich metallic patterns, damasks, gingham checks and stylized textures for a fresh approach to the storage area. Or you might even want to try a gay polka-dot pattern.

Pre-pasted, factory trimmed papers are very easy to handle, and make the decorating effort a pleasant afternoon's endeavor which can be shown proudly for many years to come. After being cut to size, the paper is dipped in cool, clean water and applied to the wall. Thus, the whole pasting step is eliminated. After you have done the interior walls, be sure you have enough leftover paper to cover your hat boxes and other storage containers. If you will tell your needs to a wallpaper dealer, he will make certain that you get the correct amount. United's PDQ, Dip 'N Do, and Trimz collections offer a wide variety of pre-pasted patterns for your new closet decor.

People-Sized Beds Ease Nocturnal Strains

Pilgrims may have looked big to the Indians, but to the average American male today they would appear to be shrimps.

At Pilmoth Plantation in Plymouth, Mass., there is dramatic evidence that these 17th century stalwarts were about 5 feet 4 inches tall and rather narrow across the chest and shoulders.

It is not surprising that the size of their furniture was smaller than those we use now. The average chair was comparable to the modern typewriter chair and the average double bed measured only four feet in width.

Compare those statistics with that of government and private agencies which indicate that the average height of the American male today is five feet 10 inches.

In 1900 one out of 25 males between the ages of 20 and 30 grew to six feet or more in height. Within the same age group, figures for 1960 show that one out of five males reached 6' or more—an increase of 60%. Statistics for women indicate four per cent grew to 5'7" in 1900 as opposed to 18% who reached this height in 1960.

The bedding industry, recognizing the increasing rate of human growth, has provided modern man with proportionally larger sleeping surfaces through super-size bedding.

Doctors and psychologists claim that cramped sleeping quarters can result in not only backache and muscle cramp but give vent to many psychological disorders as well.

Therefore, it is recommended that a bed be 10" longer than its tallest occupant to ensure a sound, restful sleep. A man as short as 5'6" is not getting proper rest without super-size bedding, much less a man who has reached the height of 5'10" and above.

Even the old size double bed at 72" in length and 54" wide provides each occupant with the same sleeping space as a baby's crib, depriving the individual of sufficient room to turn and move without constriction in the normal course of his sleep. "People size" bedding alleviates this condition, however.

Queen size bedding is 80" long and 60" wide. King size bedding ranges from 80" long and 72" wide to 84" long and 78" wide.

Red, white, and blue green-stuff

Uncle Sam has a couple of plans to make your money as easy to save as it is to spend. There's the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. And the Bond-a-Month Plan where you bank.

Easy as pie, but the best part of the idea is that there's a bigger cut of the pie for you, the longer you hold onto your Bonds. When they mature, you get $4 for every $3 you invest.

There's no state or local income tax on Series E Savings Bonds. And you may defer payment of the federal income tax until your Bonds are cashed.

While your bankroll grows, freedom throughout the world grows a bit, too. And your Bonds are helping this cause more than a little.

Get in the U. S. Savings Bonds habit, and before you know it, you'll have a pocketful of red, white and blue green-stuff that'll come in mighty handy just when you need it most.

In The Car

A long automobile trip or a short shopping excursion can bring some problems to dog owners. Naturally there are many dogs that find the excitement of riding in a car a pleasure. But other dogs just don't like it and others get car sick.

Both conditions may be caused by static electricity and a static belt hung from the axle and touching the pavement has cured many dogs of car sickness.

If your dog suffers from motion sickness, consult your veterinarian. There are now new drugs that can calm excitable dogs and prevent motion sickness for as much as eight hours.

The dog experts at the Purina Pet Care Center in St. Louis emphasize that you should not permit your dog to hang his head out of the window. Bits of grit may be driven into his eyes. In any case, the dog may get nasal and eye passage inflammation just from the wind. Make Rover keep his place in the car or else just close the window most of the way.

TAPE A CURL

The newest wrinkle in hair care is to use tape to set ragged bangs, keep stray ends flat at the neckline and to put the professional touch back into a set. Princess Hair Care Tape by LePage sticks even when wet.

ODDLY ENOUGH

FIRE PROTECTION

IN THE draft riots of July, 1863, in New York City, mobs cut telegraph wires and fired entire sections of the city on Third Avenue, 42nd Street, the docks, orphanages and hotels. Firemen hauling hose carts and pumps had to fight the mob as well as the fires.

BUT THIS only paralleled the hotel fires of November 25, 1864, when Confederate agents fired hotels all over New York City and Barnum's Museum as well. It was all part of a Confederate plot to burn the entire city and throw Northerners into terror. Fortunately, detectives were tipped off and although the hotel fires raged, the city itself was saved.

TODAY, these fires could have been brought under control readily by steel pipe sprinklers and standpipe systems. These sprinklers are fed by butt-welded steel pipe and automatically spray water on burning areas of commercial buildings, schools, apartments and warehouses. Such systems protect life and property, and lower fire insurance rates.

Committee of Steel Pipe Producers, A.I.S.I.

4 O'CLOCK SLUMP

To combat that four o'clock slump, stir a tablespoon of chocolate syrup into an 8-ounce glass of skim milk. Quick energy and a mere 100 calories. Should you care to go up to 150 calories, nibble your way through a one-ounce bar of milk chocolate. Compare either with a medium-size boiled potato (118 calories) and savor the chocolate with pleasure.

Colorful Vegetables

Polka Dot Potatoes create a pretty fall vegetable dish. Simply dice 2 medium potatoes and 4 large carrots. Boil together until tender, about 10 or 15 minutes. Drain. Place 1/2 cup Reamon bottled lemon juice, 2 tablespoons butter and 1 tablespoon brown sugar in small saucepan. Heat just until sugar dissolves. Stir sauce into vegetables and serve.

New Designs in Home Heating

Paris and Rome may be the fashion centers for women's and men's clothing. When it comes to home heating, though, you'll find the best styles right here in America, observes the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association (GAMA).

Just imagine: a room heater that looks like a television console, gas-fired simulated logs that set into a fireplace, a low profile baseboard heater, a window unit that can heat or cool with the flick of a switch, a vented through-the-wall heater that doesn't draw on indoor air for combustion. And these are only a few of the different models from which you can select today.

If you're enlarging or remodeling your home, one or more of these heaters is tailored to your special needs, budget and taste, GAMA says. They're ideal for warming converted attics, breezeways, basements, vacation cottages and other hard-to-heat areas. They work equally well on natural gas, if you have city gas service available, or LP gas that's delivered to your home in tanks or bottles, if you live beyond the city mains. In the event of electric power failure, GAMA points out, your gas heater will continue to operate and your home will remain comfortable. Most of the 34 million gas room heaters in use across the U.S. today are automatically controlled by thermostats. Some even have remote controls that can be activated from your easy chair.

However you look at it—on the floor or in it, in the wall or through the window—gas heaters are the smart way to drape your home in warmth.

The types of heaters shown above are: (1) through-a-window, (2) gas "log" fireplace insert, (3) vented console, (4) vented baseboard unit, and (5) vented wall furnace.

In The Wind

By Dan Carroll

For many years the handymen of this area have been making trails to a little hardware store nestled in the Plainview Shopping Center on Woodbury and South Oyster Bay Roads. Since Fairway Hardware opened back in November 1954, more than just the inhabitants of Plainview have discovered it. People from Hicksville, Jericho, Bethpage, Levittown and some even further away have heard that Fairway Hardware is head and shoulders over every other hardware shop in the area. The other day we set out to find why it's had such a reputation over the years. The proprietor, Gene Madoff, put it quite simply. He said, "We say this is the place that has everything and we mean it. A while back people started calling us the one-stop hardware shop, and we live up to the name." And from just one visit to Fairway Hardware you will see that they really do live up to the name. You'll be able to find anything from shovels to swivel hangers, from paint to putty steel, from fertilizer to fan belts, and from clamps to coffee filters. Fairway Hardware is right near the A & P in the Plainview Center.

We understand that the United States Air Force is in great need for ex-servicemen. The number of jobs in the Air Force available to former servicemen of all branches has more than doubled. Enlistment grade is based upon previous grade, job skill, training and date of separation. You may have a chance of determining whether you'll stay in the states or go overseas, and all your previous service will count towards longevity and retirement. The person to contact, if you are interested, is TSGT Vincent J. Ferraro, U.S. Air Force Recruiting Office, Hempstead Turnpike, Levittown. Or call PE 5-8228.

Pageantry in Brass

By the St. Ignatius Girls Cadet Corps

Here I am warm and snug among all my friends, then the door opens. He comes in and closes around for the light switch. Which one of us will leave today? Uh-Oh, he's moving near my rack, before I realize it, he's grabbing me off the shelf. THUD! He bangs me on the table. Hey, Buddy not so rough, I've got feelings too. A kindly man with dark hair and glasses gives him some money and gently picks me up in his arms - Brrrrrr! What a cold, windy night it is. He's putting me into a large truck. Bang, the doors are shut and we're off. Please, I'm getting seasick rolling side to side back here. Please, mister slow down or find a smoother road. At last, he seems to be stopping. Now he's taking me out. Oh! It's cold, in fact it's freezing out here. In to the house I go and he drops me right on the rug by the door, some people have no considerations. Excitedly, two girls start to tear off my wrapping paper. (Oh, girls you're tickling me!) and exclaim: "Isn't it beautiful! Wouldn't it look nice this way?" Now I'm scared, what will they do now? Now they're rolling me across the floor, and even tramping all over me! The only friend I have tonight is this little puppy, such a tiny ball of warm fur, who snuggles up next to me. But suddenly I feel a sharp pain in my side, another and still another. What is this? Two girls are sticking me with little needles. Snip, snip, snip. How outrageous! They've cut me into two triangles. I'll never be the same. One girl has something white she's attaching to me. Prick, prick, prick . . . she's weaving something right through my fibers to hold it there. I never thought my life would come to this. What cruel people they are: the more I'm tossed about and cut up, the happier they get. I feel something cold and hard sliding up my side. They're screaming with joy, these girls are barbarous! Now one of them is waving me through the air. Oh, stop, stop! I'm dizzy. She must have heard me for she's rolling me up and slipping me into a long leather case. It's cold, dark and not so cozy in here, but at least it's safe, I really need that. Here I am moving again, but I don't know where. Early this morning my case was moved to the trunk of a car, and I've been here since. The car stopped, the trunk opened, and a heavy black box landed on me. Oh! I can't breathe, get off me! How long will this inconsideration go on? We're stopping. The trunk door flies up and excited girls grab the black box and me. What a relief! My case is sliding off me and whoops one girl is holding me high into the air. Now she's twirling me like a pinwheel. Stop that, stop that, everything is spinning. Can't you hear me? Now she bangs the pole into the ground - what a jolt! All the girls are forming a line there must be at least sixty of them - that line stretches across the football field. Someone is taking a drum out of that black box. No wonder it was so heavy. They must be up to something. Suddenly they all start marching across the field. My beaver flips me down, snaps his up and turns me around. I hope they stop soon, this wearing me out. Oh no! down I go again. After two hours of this action she rolled me up and laid me to rest in my case. The drum and I are back in the trunk with me on the bottom again. This time the car comes to a halt outside a large building. Everything in the trunk goes downstairs, including me. A girl stands me in a dark closet, shuts the door and clicks the lock. I'm trapped. Will I ever get out again?

Lonely and afraid, I've been here for a week now. Wait . . . I think I hear someone coming to rescue me. Yes, she's opening the door and taking me out. Upstairs I go, back into the trunk, and off for another ride. I'm at the football field again, not another hectic night. Well, anything is better than that closet. Suddenly a chill breeze is whipping me around and the sky is darkening. I feel a drop of rain, and another. Here it comes! Everyone is running. Please cover me up. Someone quickly slides me into my case and lays me down on a bench. They're all rushing away and forgetting about me. Please come back!! Don't leave me! Patter, patter, the rain is bouncing on my leather case, by tomorrow morning I'll be soaked.

Today is the marching and maneuvering contest. The girls are happy, but very nervous. I'm so glad to be back with them. I really thought they had forgotten me. Yesterday, the man with the curly hair and glasses came to the shack in the park asking for me. I had been anxiously waiting there all week. Then he brought me back to the girls. Boy! Were they happy to see me! But what an ordeal they put me through. First they plunged me into a sink of sudsy water, next I tumbled through a hot dryer. Then they had the nerve to scald me with a hot iron to smooth out my wrinkles.

However, today I look beautiful as I wave above their heads in the sunlight. What a wonderful sight they are on the starting line with pure white boots against the green grass and new red hats against the blue sky. At the sound of a gun everything goes into motion . . . I'm dipping, twirling and snapping in top form. The music is swelling, the crowd is roaring . . . Gosh! I feel so happy. The finish line is getting closer and we're over!! As a finale, bugles blare, the drums roll and flags dip. But . . . SWISH . . . I'm on the ground. How did that happen? What's going on? My girl has faintled! Oh people do something . . . I can't pick her up, I'm just a helpless frog.

Post No. 3211
by Eddie Kishling

Returning from their recent convention in Albany attending members of the Jr. Girls Unit of the Ladies Auxiliary were: President Christine Chwalisz, Patricia Aug, Connie and Frances Bliss and Mary Sadowski. They were accompanied by Chairman of the Unit, Doris Klueg and Rita Aug, President of the Ladies Auxiliary.

They reported their Friday schedule consisted of a busy afternoon touring the Capitol where they visited the State Education Building and the Governor's office among other places. They finished their bustling day with a pajama party at the Hotel Ten Eyck where they stayed.

However, the following day was taken up with the business at hand. Both the girls' unit and auxiliary are happy to report the election of President Christine Chwalisz to the post of Chaplain in the Department's Jr. Girls' Unit and Connie Bliss as the new Assistant Conductress.

Honorably discharged veterans with a 100% disability rating are now allowed expanded post exchange privileges. The Army recently stated, "that each disabled veteran permitted privileges can designate one member of his family as his agent for the purpose of making purchases in his behalf. Previously honorably discharged disabled veterans were allowed to purchase items from the PX only when under hospital care for their service-connected injuries or wounds."

The Army Times offers as a news brief the following: One of the rumors which came out of the recent baseball spring training sessions in Florida was that Secretary of Defense McNamara was considered for the baseball commissioner job. After lengthy consideration, according to the rumor, baseball executives ruled out the economy conscious McNamara.
