Pioneer Auto Dealer Dies at Florida Home

Hazelle Macpherson who with her late husband, Ross S., owned one of the earlier new car sales agencies in Hicksville, died in Delray Beach, Fla., and was buried from Wagner Funeral Home yesterday (Wed.). She had made her home in Florida for the past three years.

Mr. and Mrs. Macpherson started Macpherson Motor Sales as a Chevrolet agency in 1926. She sold the business to Robert Chevrolet in 1958. The couple made their home for a number of years on Fourth St., Hicksville.

Their agency was first located at the northwest corner of Old Country Rd. and Broadway, later moving to Jerusalem Ave. and Barclay St. and late in 1953 to a new building on First St. off South Broadway.

In 1932, the agency was dealer for both Chevrolets and Oldsmobiles, the latter becoming a separate dealership in 1951.

Mrs. Macpherson was active in community affairs and was awarded the medal and citation of the VFW in 1949 in recognition of her service. She was a past matron of the Emora Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star. The Order held services at Wagner Funeral Home on Tuesday night.

The Rev. Richard Muck, pastor of St. Stephen's Lutheran Church, officiated at religious services on Wednesday at 1 P.M. Interment was at the Evergreens in Brooklyn.

CITATION AND MEDAL of the Veterans of Foreign Wars for distinguished community service, rarely awarded, was presented to Hazelle Macpherson by Fred Sutter of the William M. Gouse Jr. Post, VFW, in 1949.

4th Woman on School Bd

Evelyn Silver of Thimble Lane will become the fourth woman in the history of Hicksville School District this Friday night when she is expected to take her seat as a trustee for the next two years. At the same time John McManus, appointed last summer, will leave the Board.

Mrs. Silver will be seated under the conditions of the education law which provides that appointment of trustees may be made only until the next annual meeting and election. She was elected on May 4, defeating Conrad Freyling and George Martin. McManus was an unsuccessful candidate for a three-year term, May 4, vacated by Herbert H. Johnson as of June 30. Harry Kershon who was elected over McManus and John F. Nelson will therefore not take office until July 1 when full terms normally begin.

The Board of Education will meet this Friday night at 8:15 in the Old Country Rd. School concluding a series of four meetings held during the year at elementary schools. The next regular meeting will be held Friday night, May 27, in the school administration building on Division Ave.

A Coincidence and Preview:

VIEW OF THINGS TO COME: A two-story building at the corner of Old Country Rd and Broadway, Hicksville, was a pile of rubble this morning (Thurs) after being battered down by wrecking crews in connection with the widening of Old Country Road by the County. Several other old dwellings fell and the debris was carted away during the week. By a curious coincidence this building came down on the same day as the burial of Hazelle Macpherson who with her late husband had started the Macpherson Motor Sales Co. at the location 40 years ago in 1926. The building was at various times a Chevrolet, Ford and Rambler show room and garage. It was most recently a printing plant, being vacated in February. Some saw this scene as a preview of the west side of Broadway north to the LIRR with the widening of the State highway scheduled to get underway within a matter of months.

Condemn Bway by June 1; Tax Loss Not So Bad: Nick

The long-awaited and sought-after word was out this week: Condemnation proceedings by the State Dept. of Public Works for the widening of Broadway thru the downtown section will start within the next few weeks, the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce advised members this week.

State Senator Henry M. Curran in a letter to Chamber President Leland Badler, who had complained about the lack of information available on the project which will take 40 feet off buildings on the west side of Broadway, agreed that the State Dept. had been "most uncommunicative". He added: "I have just been advised that condemnation proceedings will be under way within the next five weeks" in a letter dated Apr. 29 which would indicate action by June 1. "I know the importance of this matter to the many business men and merchants in the Hicksville area", Curran continued. "Just as soon as I have more information I will advise you."

Officials at both Albany and the State Dept. office at Babylon have been notoriously "uncommunicative" when approached by individuals, Hicksville Chamber of Commerce and others interested in the status and schedule of work on the Broadway state highway widening. Rumors have been rife for months extending into years.

The Chamber recently enlisted the assistance of Senator Curran and Assemblyman Stanley Harwood, who will represent a portion of Hicksville until Dec. 31 when a new arrangement of assembly districts takes place, in an effort to get some factual information.

J. Burch McMorran, state superintendent of public works at Albany, was hurt to hear that his Babylon office failed to cooperate. McMorran wrote Assemblyman Harwood: "Your information that your correspondent (Chamber) met with silence and lack of cooperation in our Babylon office when he tried to obtain information about plans for Hicksville is difficult to comprehend.

"That office has constant contact with the various Long Island and metropolitan area communities and the discussions have always been open. I have just discussed this charge with our District Engineer. He'd stand ready to confer with any delegation from the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce on any mutually convenient date," McMorran wrote on Mar. 23.

Meanwhile, the HERALD had written to County Executive Eugene Nickerson regarding the potential loss of tax assessment for Hicksville when the state starts to condemn stores and widen Broadway. Nickerson did not seem to feel that things will be so bad: "When title for land becomes vested in the State, the County, of course, can no longer tax it," he replied. "As for the eventual loss in assessment to Hicksville, only time will tell, and if the improvement increases business activity in the area, there may be an eventual assessment gain."

He added that the County Dept. of Public Works feels that the Broadway widening "is a long-overdue improvement."

Early this week some tenants along Broadway said they were being given about a month's notice to vacate.

Chamber Notes New Members

The revitalization of the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce is starting to show results, according to Stan Turner, Executive Director. New member applications are being received in increasing numbers. Banker's Trust and Long Island Trust have become active in the Chamber thru membership.

In becoming a member of the Chamber, explained Fred Hawkins of the Grumman Public Relations Staff, the Company is continuing a policy of cooperation in local community activities.

Additional recent joiners include DeLa Rue Counting Mach. Co., Lapidus Agency, Savant Instruments, Wine Cellar, Greater N.Y. Air Cond. Co., Hibner Agency, Inland Wholesale Dist., Club Internationale. New civic members are Postmaster Ralph

Cascardo, Library Director Kenneth Barnes, Attorney Ramon A. Carrano, Sam J. Kellner.

PLAN NEW VOTING ON LIBRARY BUDGET

The Hicksville Library Trustees have decided to ask the School District to schedule a new vote on the library budget for 1966-67 sometime in June. A decision is expected at the school board meeting this Friday night. The proposed budget had been rejected by voters in the May 4 annual voting.

ALL AROUND TOWN

Douglas C. Peschel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Peschel, 61 Fox Place, Hicksville, has been accepted as a member of the freshman class this Sept. at Clarkson College of Technology, Potsdam.

Jericho Approves Base Purchase

The former Army Nike base at Brookville (in Jericho School District) which, at the time it was being planned, was thought to be in Hicksville, will be bought by the Jericho School District for $35,000. The purchase of the base, which has an estimated value of $150,000, was approved by voters in the annual meeting, 3655 to 1231.

Some few years ago when the Army announced a call for bids for construction of the Nike base, the address was just given as Hicksville, NY (due to some federal agency quirk utilizing the Hicksville post office). The announcement led to a great deal of speculation and concern.

In other voting in Jericho, the school budget of $1,998,539 was carried, 983 to 621, forecasting a tax rate increase of 55 cents per $100 to $6.67.

Hal-Curtis Felsher was re-elected, defeating Seymour Licht, 1136 to 416. Samuel Springer defeated Charles Engelke, 1071 to 504 for another seat (being vacated by Ira Lyman). Morton Thielie was unopposed for a five-year seat on the Library board and Hy York won an uncontested race for a one-year term.

The 7.5 acre parcel of land, including seven military buildings, is located off Cedar Swamp Rd. The $35,000 expenditure approved by the voters will be financed over a three-year period.

The Nike site had previously been deeded to the Jericho Schools by the government on the condition that it be converted for educational purposes prior to July 1 of this year or it reverted to the government. It would have cost an estimated $250,000 to convert the base to educational quarters by the deadline set.

It will now be held for future educational needs of the community.

Prisoner Dies In Meadowbrook

William M. Hogan, 23, of Wyckoff St., Hicksville, who was in Nassau police detention cell awaiting trial on robbery, grand larceny, assault and forgery charges, died Tuesday night in Meadowbrook Hospital of what doctors said apparently was lung congestion. Police reported he had tried to hang himself on May 1, but a jailer rushed him to Meadowbrook Hospital where surgery was performed.

Dear Lynda

It is reported there will be a new Principal of Hicksville Senior High School when classes resume in the fall. LEON GALLOWAY will probably assume a new position in the school system. . . . Meanwhile BERNARD BRAUN has been reassigned to administrative duties in the district and ALBERT GLASS has been named acting principal of junior high school until June 30. JOHN MATEER has been named assistant principal of East St. School filling the vacancy caused by the death of JANE MCGILL. . . . The Riverhead High School graduating class will hold an all-night-and-into-the-dawn prom aboard a L.I. Rail Road special train to Hicksville early Sunday, June 26. The boys and girls will breakfast and swim at the Four Seasons Country Club, Woodbury, before their train returns east. . . . PAULETTE SCHWARTZMAN of Plainview will be among dealers at an outdoor antique show at Lord and Taylor parking lot in Manhasset, May 15 and 22. . . .

BOB KEN FORD's new building on North Broadway may be ready in about four weeks. BOB WALLACE reports recent national headlines are having little or no effect on Ford sales. Don't listen for the Hicksville fire sirens at 7 o'clock in the morning in case you want to know if school sessions will be held on inclement days (such as snow storms). The signal arrangement has been dropped by the fire commissioners, claiming it has been confused at a time of an actual fire emergency. Hereafter, you will have to listen to your radio station to get the word or depend upon the uncanny sixth sense that most youngsters have about whether or not it is a fit day to battle the elements. . . . While there have been about 60 male trustees of the Hicksville Union Free School District in the past 65-plus years, only three ladies have been elected. The first was MRS. LOUISE AUGUSTIN to a five-year term on the first board, EDNA RUINE SUTTON who served two three-year terms and MABEL R. FARLEY who filled out a one-year term. The fourth will be EVELYN SILVER manager of the Groner Service concern on Old Country Rd., who will take her seat on this Friday night for a two-year term. Over the years there have been about a half dozen lady candidates who did not make it at the polls. . . .

Little TONY SCOTT of Levittown, son of the former LYNDIA NOETH (now Mrs. Anthony Scott), celebrated his first birthday last weekend. . . .

Pageantry in Brass

By the St. Ignatius Girls Cadet Corps

What do you suppose goes into making a little girl, who doesn't know a thing about music, into a horn player of the St. Ignatius Girls. Usually she is about ten or twelve years old and never saw a bugle before, except in the cavalry movies. She gets a shiny brass bugle in a blue cardboard box, and a small bugle manual full of exercises and army quicksteps. First she learns how to spit paper balls through her mouthpiece until a sound is obtained, which is similar to a duck calling whistle. Then she inserts the mouthpiece into the bugle and spits again. This time it sounds like a lovely fog horn. After a few weeks she is playing exercises which develop the strength of her lip, as well as helping her to read and play music. The next step is to learn the familiar army calls heard on Rin Tin Tin. Soon afterwards she is learning quicksteps which she can play on parade. Now she receives her uniform and is set for a summer full of fire department parades, and fun.

After a few years, when the little girl has grown, she turns in the little brass bugle for a new chrome piston bugle with a valve and a slick slide which aid in playing the full scale. Now she doesn't play the same thing as everyone else, for there are nine different harmonizing parts. She may play a soprano, or a large baritone, or french horn, or a great big bass baritone. No longer are the horns carried in blue cardboard boxes, but now in new grey and black wooden cases. The first song she learns was written in nearby Levittown, "The Naughty Lady of Shady Lane." The following summer she's back on parade, but this year playing a whole repertoire of recognizable songs, leaving the quicksteps in the past.

As marching and playing technique improves, she begins to learn new and more intricate music to be played on the open field in a fancy drill. And now the fruits of her years of playing scales are coming out this summer in the newest number, the popular "Do-Re-Me" from the "Sound of Music". As the little girl grows older and her music ability increases, she does not forget how it was at the beginning, for always before her is a new group of little girls who never saw a bugle before or marched before, just beginning to learn.

The whole process is similar to the metamorphosis of a butterfly. The first ugly sounds of the G-horn are like the crawly caterpillar, then she goes through the period of intense work like the busy spinning of a cocoon, and finally she emerges as a horn player, like the beautiful butterfly.

EDITORIAL OPINION

Play Areas in Sumps

A request that the town engineer make a study of all recharge basins (sumps) in the Township which might be put to use for the construction of ball fields or other recreational activities, credited this week to Councilman Angelo Roncallo, is commendable but the idea is hardly new. While Roncallo, who took office on the first of the year is credited with "pioneering" in this area, we recall publishing stories and pictures about the adaptation of a large sump area off Miller Rd., Hicksville, some five years ago or more for baseball and sleigh riding while Henry McInnes was our Town Councilman. We can't help but wonder why this plan failed to develop during the intervening years.

Somebody once said, there is really nothing new under the sun. It's just that ideas get revived from time to time.

County Water Authority

The efforts of President Supervisor Ralph G. Caso to halt the passage in Albany of a proposed law creating a Nassau County Water Authority deserve the support of thinking residents. While offered as a proposal to acquire private water supply concerns in Nassau, the underlying danger can be detected: the measure, if it becomes law, would allow the county to sell Nassau water to short-supply New York City with a consequent depletion of local supplies; it could also be the opening wedge to abolish all local public water districts, merging them into a vast county-wide network removed from local observation and control. The bill to be opposed in your correspondence to legislators is Assembly Bill No. 4005.

It's Open House at Hospital

Nassau County's Meadowbrook Hospital, Hempstead Turnpike and Carman Avenue, East Meadow, has scheduled a series of events to observe National Hospital Week, from Monday May 9, to Saturday, May 14, Dr. James F. Collins, F. A. C. H. A., announced today.

The events will emphasize Meadowbrook's growth and service to the Nassau Community during the past thirty years in both in-patient and clinic departments and medical research and educational activities.

Plans for the hospital's future expansion, to be revealed later this year, will be revealed through the display of a scale model on display in the hospital's lobby. The model will reveal details of the eighteen story "dynamic core" building that will be the feature of the hospital's 40 million dollar renovation and expansion program that will approximately double the hospital's capacity for in-patients, clinics, research and training facilities. The scheduled events for the week are as follows:

Guided tours will be conducted by the Auxiliary of Meadowbrook Hospital and other hospital personnel. Tours will be conducted from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. daily from the "A" Lobby.

Thursday, May 12th: Thursday will highlight the work of the nursing staff at Meadowbrook Hospital, serving thousands of in-patients and clinic cases each year, and providing clinical training program for the Nassau Community, Adelphi College and W. Tresper Clarke nursing students each year, thus providing the community with professional nurses.

Friday, May 13th: Friday will feature the work of all other hospital employees including business, dietary, housekeeping, grounds, maintenance, laundry, medical records, social service and many other departments that support the medical and nursing personnel in the care and treatment of patients.

Federal Aid Back

Several major cutbacks in federal aid for state programs have been restored as the result of work by a Republican Assembly sub committee and other organizations, it is claimed by Assemblyman Milton Jonas of North Merrick, a member of the study group. Cuts in school lunch and milk allocations, which were slated, have been restored by the House Appropriations Committee in Washington.

Merchandise Not Ordered

State Attorney General Louis J. Lefkowitz reports that upon his recommendation Gov. Rockefeller has signed a law which prohibits high-pressure salesmen from forwarding or delivering unordered merchandise. He said that the measure will protect consumers who in the past have received and paid for merchandise after being threatened with embarrassment by lawsuit to recover the cost.

Urgent Goal

Nassau County Planning Commission in its annual report for 1965, just released, set its sights on better transportation services as an urgent goal for a "sound developing economy". During the past year the Commission said it concerned itself with the increase in senior citizens and young people and the critical need to provide jobs, housing, services and transportation, especially for those age groups.

On Civil Service

County Sheriff Joseph F. Maher told his entire staff on Apr 25 that Civil Service has become effective, back-dated to Jan 1, 1966. All who were in the Sheriff's Office on Jan 1 have been accepted by Civil Service, he said, will not have to take an exam to insure their status.

Champagne Prices

Pushing for his bill to create a Nassau County Water Authority, Assemblyman Eli Wagner charged that residents serviced by private water companies are "paying champagne prices for water". He said that rates for water sold by three private companies range from "3 to 10 times" that of the Town and village-serviced areas.

Parking Complex

If you have been to the county seat of late you know what an engineering study has just confirmed. There is a deficit of 400 parking spaces in the county office building-courthouse area and the shortage could reach 1900 spaces by 1970. A three-level garage for 800 cars is being recommended south of the County Office Building, a two-level

More Councilmen?

Presiding Supervisor Ralph G. Caso has set into motion legal machinery required for addition of two councilmen to the six-man Hempstead Town Board. Following a public hearing (announced for Aug 1) the question may be on the ballot in November. If approved, new councilmen would be added by the election of 1967 to take office on Jan 1, 1968.

Celebrating 1648 Founding of Present Day Hicksville

300TH ANNIVERSARY of Hicksville's Founding was celebrated in 1968 with an eight-day program which began at the historic Cantigue Woods and Rock when Boy and Girl Scouts participated in a colonial practice of "packing the bounds". They set out to place stakes and pennants along the boundaries of the 9-acre tract of land bought on May 20, 1648 by Robert Williams, then of Hempstead, from the local Indians. The Cantigue Woods is, according to historians, the place where the land transaction took place. Next Friday, May 20, is thus the 318th anniversary of Robert Williams Day and the community founding. Such a group of scouts standing on W John St at Cantigue Road would be mowed down by auto traffic today.

FIRST OF A SERIES of town-wide forums was held recently by the Town Board in the Plainview High School with about 35 community leaders, including clergymen, present. The consensus of opinion ranged from a need for recreational leadership, full utilization of school buildings and the need for a professional survey of the community. Speakers questioned the need for a community center. Background, left to right, are Councilman Ralph J. Marino, Youth Board Chairman Julian Liebman, Town Recreation Director James C. Arvanitis, and Councilmen Angelo D. Roncallo and Edmund A. Ocher.

"BYE, BYE, MADGE. SEE YOU IN CHURCH."

From Congress

By Rep James R Grover, Jr.

The administration, through spokesmen, has apparently ruled out, for the present at least, a possible income tax rise. Why then is your paycheck smaller and why is that check buying less all the time?

What has actually happened, of course, is that federal taxes on your paycheck have increased in the form of larger withholding of Social Security deductions. This increased levy is a "steep" tax that the federal government doesn't want to talk about.

But the squeeze on the average American has increased in other ways. While the President has asked the people and our nation's industrial and business leaders to spend less so as to curb inflation, the federal government has pursued an opposite course. Here's how the burgeoning bureaucracy in Washington has attacked your take-home pay.

"It has continually expanded federal interference in state programs, causing expensive duplication.

"It has expanded aid programs both overseas and at home and has added billions to our national burden through a haphazard handling of these programs.

"It has manipulated federal budget figures to mislead the public as to the extent of the annual deficit.

"It has approved new welfare programs without providing the cash to pay for them.

"It has cheapened our currency by allowing foreign powers whom we are aiding to convert our currency into gold, creating our 'balance of payments' problem. Can anything be more foolish than to allow France to drain our gold while ignoring the World War I and World War II debts still owed us by the French?

Your standard of living is being whittled down quietly by the powers that be in Washington. The excise tax on phone bills and automobiles was quietly increased, but not with my vote.

The bureaucratic bunglers are working hard on a rent subsidy bill which will give Long Island homeowners the privilege of subsidizing rents for apartment dwellers in the big cities. But they won't get my vote. There are still a few Congressmen in Washington who believe that local government and individuals can handle many programs better than those who ride the Washington Merry-go-round and there are still a few lawmakers who believe that the cost of living wouldn't be rising so sharply if self reliance and self discipline were being encouraged by the nation's capitol.

A rubber stamp Congress, subservient to the White House's will, has helped drain the buying power of your dollar. There's a feeling in Washington that some of the rubber stamps are going to be canceled this November.

Mounted Troop Enjoys Weekend

Eight girls of the Senior Mounted Troop #111 of Mid-Island Council Girl Scouts, Inc., and their advisor Mrs. Provost, spent five exciting days during Easter Week at Rocking Horse Ranch, located in Highland, N.Y.

The girls had earned the money for the trip by holding car washes, selling fruit cakes for the holidays, and selling Girl Scout calendars and cookies. This trip was the highlight of their program, and will never be forgotten by any of them.

On Tuesday night a foal was born prematurely, which meant it had to be bottle fed every two hours. The "Fearsome Foursome" of Jane Caldwell, Joanne Casey, Linda Smith and Pat Wayte volunteered to stay up during the night and feed it. This was a rare opportunity for them. However, since it took four people to hold the foal up on its feet (because it was too weak to stand alone) and feed it, this meant little sleep for these girls. In spite of this, they managed to enjoy the riding sessions and swimming during the day, as well as all the evening activities which included square dancing, seeing "A Thousand Clowns" at the movies in town, a "Las Vegas Nite" when everyone was presented with pretend money to use, roller skating, and a trip to Hyde Park to see the Museum and the Stables. All these events were with the compliments of the Ranch.

This has been the third year at the Ranch for most of the girls, and they find it new and exciting each time.

Cantering over rocky trails, muddy slopes, fallen logs, and through a small pond, was every bit as exciting as had been an-icipated. These rides were followed by a dip in the indoor heated pool, and the sauna baths were enjoyed too.

Besides Mrs. Provost there were: Jane Caldwell, Joanne Casey, Caroline Denny, Marybeth Hartmann, Pam Provost, Linda Smith, Pat Wayte, and Dale Wicks.

There are enough anecdotes to keep the girls well supplied with subject matter until next year's trip. They all missed Mrs. June Catalano, who sustained an injury and was not able to join them, as well as Vicki Rosen and Gladys Swanson who had planned to go.

All of these girls are members of the Mid-Island Girl Scout Drill Team and will be appearing at the long Island Fair and various other events throughout the year, as they have in the past.

4H ACHIEVEMENT DAYS

The Nassau County 4-H Clubs have set aside the month of May to honor the achievements of 4-H members and leaders who have completed projects during the past year. The public is invited to view the homemaking skills of the girls, the wood working and electrical projects of the boys and the science collections of all.

In Hicksville the Mid Island Girls plan a Dress Revue on May 20th at 7 p.m. in the Sears Community Room, and an Awards Session in the same room at 7 p.m. on May 26th.

Urges Parents To War on Drugs

Assemblyman Martin Ginsberg of Plainview, is calling on parents from all over New York State to back his fight on narcotics by either joining or obtaining information about the recently established Plainview citizen's group called the War on Narcotics by Parents.

"This is a privately established citizen's group," said Ginsberg, "which Mrs. Leah Blasberg, its founder and chairman tells me, has already obtained almost 1,000 names in Plainview alone on a petition asking Assembly Speaker Anthony Travia to release from the Assembly Rules Committee, my bill to regulate the sale of cough syrups."

According to Ginsberg, Mrs. Blasberg's group will submit the petition to Speaker Travia in Albany on May 15. His bill, he added, limits the sale of narcotic compounded preparations to persons with prescriptions.

"Although I knew nothing of this group," said Ginsberg, "until Mrs. Blasberg and members of her committee came in last week to show me the petitions they had circulated, I think the purposes and objectives of War on Narcotics by Parents is an outstanding example of community and individual responsibility."

"I would certainly suggest," he continued, "that all parents living anywhere in New York

State, could do nothing better than by immediately contacting Mrs. Blasberg for further information on her organization. She can be reached either by writing to her at 9 Bart Court, Plainview or by calling WE 8-4790.

USE ZIP NUMBERS

I was going to the bank, but it was raining.

Save money? I can't even save string.

I forgot my bankbook.

I don't have a cent at the end of the month.

I just forgot. My mother had a terrible memory, too.

No will power, I guess.

With our system, you don't have any excuses for not saving money.

There are 3,728 excuses for not getting around to putting money in a savings account, where it can do you some good. We've heard every one of them.

The truth is—some people (maybe you're one) will never be any good at do-it-yourself saving.

So we've figured out a system, at First National City, that lets you save money without even thinking about it.

You just tell us how much you want to put aside each month (as little as $10). We'll transfer this amount from your First National City checking account to your savings account. Automatically.

You never have to remember to make deposits. We'll remember for you. You get full interest as usual, compounded quarterly. Your account just grows and grows.

And the service doesn't cost you a cent.

Extend Dept System at St Ignatius

At the April meeting of the St. Ignatius Auxiliary of Christian Mothers, Sister M. Venard, P.P., Principal, announced that in September the departmental system, which has been very successful in the eighth grade this past year, will be used in the sixth and seventh grades.

A retreat for the mothers will take place at Our Lady of Prouille Retreat House, Amityville, on the weekend of May 22nd and May 23rd. Mrs. Helen Brennan is chairlady of the retreat. The mothers are also sponsoring a roller skating party to be held at Levittown Rink on the evening of May 18th. Tickets may be purchased at the school office or through chairladies, Mrs. Joseph Rigano and Mrs. Lawrence McCaffrey.

Nominations made from the floor for the May election of officers were as follows: Mrs. Cecil Larkin, President; Mrs. Jacqueline Jablonski, Vice President; Mrs. Mary Schweinfest, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Katherine Russell, Corresponding Secretary; and Mrs. Jean Vasquez, Treasurer.

Rev. James McDonald, Brooklyn Diocese Co-ordinator of the Family Life Programs, was the guest speaker and gave a candid talk on the education of children in the physiology of life. The parental obligation to educate children in every age level in the dignity and nobility as well as the biology of sex was emphasized by Father, who spoke with authority on the importance of the parental role in this phase of child growth and maturity.

Rev. Lawrence F. Ballweg, Moderator expressed his thanks to the members for their spirit of cooperation shown in the Auxiliary. An example of that was shown by the excellent attendance at the special film showing of "The Redeemer," a beautiful and inspiring picture on the life of Christ.

Mrs. McGovern, a Hicksville School District nurse for the past thirteen years, is substitute nurse for St. Ignatius during the illness of Miss Fay.

A dark horse prize of thirty dollars was won by Mrs. Alfred Rogers. Sister M. Virginette, O.P., won a gift certificate.

The May meeting of the Auxiliary will include the election of next year's officers and the annual social performed by the members.
