October 19, Ladies Auxiliary Business Meeting.

October 24, V. F. W. Business Meeting

October 28, Junior Girls Unit Meeting.

President Rita Aug reports that Pepperidge Farm products demonstration held at their last meeting was a success. The response was much larger than expected with a turnout of 29 ladies, most of them friends. The door prizes consisted of three hat boxes stuffed with Pepperidge Farm cookies.

Mark this date down on your calendar, Saturday evening, November 19, the Ladies Auxiliary will hold a dance at the Post.

The cold weather and the fact that the N.Y. Mets dropped a double header did not prevent the VFW Little League champions from having a good time the last day of the baseball season. The guests of the VFW and team officials left a little earlier than scheduled that Sunday to see both ends of a double header. The Post wishes the champions good luck in next years baseball competition and looks forward to them retaining the championship.

Two recent bills passed by the House of Representatives and cleared for Presidential signature are: a bill that would permit a widow to collect compensation based on the highest rank her husband held, rather than the rank held at the time of separation from service. This bill involves only those cases in which the death is service-connected.

The second bill would permit a veteran to sue for triple damages when somebody sells him a house, with a direct or government insured loan, for a price higher than the "reasonable value" established by the Veterans Admin-

A retreat was held at Camp Immaculata in Mattituck, during the week end of Sept. 17th and 18th for over 200 Cadette Girl Scouts. Among those participating were 40 girls from troops #437, sponsored by Holy Family Church, and #551 and #608 sponsored by St. Ignatius Church in Hicksville.

The retreat was under the auspices of CYO and the retreat master was Father Roderick, a Passionist priest. His series of conferences was directed to the girls and showed the relationship between their religion and the basic principles of Girl Scouting. Finally, Father was available for individual conferences with the girls. It was unanimously agreed that the retreat was a most rewarding experience.

Your Community Newspaper

It is National Newspaper Week. In this day of dramatic news coverage of major events by television, it is heartening to note that the value and importance of weekly newspapers continues to grow. Of particular note is the continuing interest in community events which never attracts the attention of the mass news media and is ignored by the advertisement-full, junk mail shoppers.

As voiced eloquently by the Inquirer of South and East Windsor, Conn., "It is apparent no newspaper by itself can create progress in any community. The alert community weekly needs an alert citizenry behind it before worthwhile objectives can be achieved. The role of the community newspaper is to articulate and reflect the higher aspirations of the towns which it serves."

For many years THE HERALD has done its best to serve in this way. It is our intention to so continue, for this is a productive partnership. So, let us hear from you with your ideas and activities which will improve our towns and we'll go forward together, as we have in the past, to help make our town a better place in which to live.

Fire Prevention Week Facts

Every 12 minutes a home somewhere in the United States is destroyed or damaged by a fire starting in rubbish. National Fire Protection Association records indicate.

The three storage areas of the home—attic, basement, closets—are the spots where 16.4 per cent of all dwelling fires originate.

Dirty, defective stoves and heaters cause the deadliest dwelling fires. They take about 2,000 lives yearly.

About $550,000 U.S. homes are hit by fire each year and over 7,000 persons—30 per cent of them children—die in these fires.

To prevent home fires, store store rubbish and trash in covered galvanized metal containers; burn rubbish and trash in perforated galvanized metal containers; periodically check home wiring; keep matches away from children.

GOOD QUESTIONS

Mr. Wolff, again you are resorting to a campaign of smear and deformation. The voters are not going to be fooled by worn out and discrediting charges. I do want to know why you have ducked the issues. They want to know what you mean when you say we should de-escalate in Vietnam. They want to know why you have been covering up Commissioner Howe's advocacy of merging suburban and city school districts. In short, though you're up to your neck in mud, the voters are decent enough to want to know where you stand.

Safety Education Seen a School Job

Fire prevention should be taught in every primary and intermediate school throughout the nation, J. Dewey Dorsett, president of the American Insurance Association said today. "It is at the early ages that children learn the most quickly," he asserted. "If children between the ages of five and twelve are taught what fire is and how fire hazards can be avoided, it will benefit them all their lives.

"Schools have an obligation not only to protect children while they are receiving their education, but also to teach children to protect themselves. "Fortunately, most schools recognize the need for teaching fire prevention.

"Fire prevention instruction should be given to students periodically. There should be refresher lessons on protection against fire at least as often as school fire drills are held."

Try This Fire Prevention Quiz

Home safety, good housekeeping and fire prevention go hand-in-hand.

Good housekeeping gets rid of trash and rubbish which causes at least 50,000 fires in American homes each year, according to the National Fire Protection Association.

Test yourself on the following questions. Each "no" answer is a signal for action to increase safety in your home.

1. Do you keep attic, basement and closets free of old clothing, curtains, drapes, mattresses, magazines and newspapers.

2. Do you dispose of trash and rubbish regularly, by burning in a galvanized steel rubbish burner?

3. Do you empty ashtrays only when contents are completely cold or into fire safe covered metal cans? Are ashtrays large and deep enough to keep cigarettes from falling out?

4. Do you have heating equipment and chimney checked and cleaned at least once a year?

5. Are paints, solvents and thinners stored in tightly closed metal containers away from heat?

6. Are flammable liquids such as gasoline and kerosene kept out-of-doors in galvanized steel containers with tight-fitting caps and pouring spouts?

Outlines Plans For Legislation

Assemblyman Martin Ginsberg of Plainview, has outlined a 10-point platform for introduction at the next session of the State Legislature with five of the 10 planks involving improvement and expansion of education programs. "I plan to introduce or re-introduce bills - to encourage quality education," said Ginsberg. "My legislation which has the unanimous support of the Nassau GOP delegation, will help promote education opportunities for all - to help them achieve their fullest potential. My bills which I will prefile immediately after Election Day will do the following:"

1-Raise per capita state aid to schools from the present $690 to $726 per pupil, thus enabling school boards to plan ahead from a favorable fiscal position as recommended by the Educational Conference Board.

2-Passage of the ACCESS bill mandating area centers for shared services program for vocational and handicapped students - physically handicapped, mentally retarded, visually impaired, hard-of-hearing.

3-Broadening availability of student loans by authorizing Savings and Loan Associations to make such loans.

4-Tax credit of $1,000 from personal income for college tuition and books to the student and his family.

5-Creation of Joint Legislative Committee to make comprehensive review of state's entire tax structure with special emphasis on school financing.

Other planks in the Ginsberg platform include - continuing opposition to the New York City Commuter Income Tax and legislation exempting Nassau residents from its provisions; establishment of a Long Island Rail Road Commuter Advisory Board to investigate, advise and assist Metropolitan Commuter Transportation Authority in shaping policies; increased health program coverage to provide maximum benefits for state residents and broader coverage in mental health areas; prohibit sale of enough medicines containing codeine to anyone except by prescription.

The easiest thing about buying a car is getting the money from Meadow Brook.

You'll probably spend weeks poking around under hoods, slamming doors, comparing prices and arguing with your family about whether your new car should be a convertible or a station wagon.

But an auto loan from Meadow Brook is a different story. It's so simple. In a matter of hours the money can be in your hands. Our payment plans are painless; take up to 36 months if you like. And our rates are as low as you'll find anywhere. In fact, borrowing from Meadow Brook is so pleasant, you might even want to buy two cars.

Look in your phone book for the address and phone number of the Meadow Brook office nearest you.

"And when you get your new car, please drive it safely. Because we'd like to see you again when it's time for your next car."

Mr. Meadow Brook

CHECKING PLUS...yours exclusively at First National City Bank.

This new kind of checking account lets you write a check bigger than your balance.

There has never been a checking account as useful as this. Here's how it works. When you open a CHECKING PLUS Account, we set up a cash reserve for you. It may be as little as $400 or as much as $5,000. Then, if and when you want to write a check for more money than you have in your account, you can just go ahead and write it. Automatically, we'll take enough money out of your reserve (in multiples of $100) and credit it to your CHECKING PLUS Account. You are charged only for the portion of the reserve that is actually transferred to your account. You repay in 12 or 24 monthly installments, sooner if you wish. The faster you repay, the less it costs you. The money you repay goes back into your reserve, so you can draw on it again and again. If you never use your reserve, you never pay a penny for it. The peace of mind it gives you is free! Except for the cash reserve, CHECKING PLUS works like an ordinary checking account. Same low service charges. Same wide choice of checkbook styles and colors.

A CHECKING PLUS Identification Card is a great check-cashing convenience. Issued upon request, the card lets you cash your CHECKING PLUS Check at any branch of First National City in the metropolitan area. And we are New York's most convenient bank. You can open a CHECKING PLUS Account at any one of our branches. Come in and let us give you all the details. The checking account with a built-in cash reserve is here. ### Town Appoints Ernest Dieterich

The Town Board has appointed Ernest Dieterich of Hicksville for a five year term as a member of the Town of Oyster Bay Housing Authority, it was announced by Councilman Edward J. Poulos, Town Board Majority Leader. Dieterich succeeds George C. Karlson of Hicksville who retired at the end of his term. The Authority includes Mac Singer of Old Bethpage, Chairman; Frank J. Swit of Massapequa, John N. Dyer of Oyster Bay Cove and Jesse H. Harmon of Oyster Bay. The housing authority was established by the Town Board as a cooperative effort between the Town government and its residents to develop programs aimed at preventing neighborhood blight.

Quote:

“Derounian spent 12 long years in Congress—that were remarkable only for their singular lack of distinction. These were 12 crucial, growing years for his district—years that should have been spent in leadership and planning so that this area could move forward to meet a future that has almost passed us by. “Lester Wolff has involved himself in more local affairs in 18 months than Derounian did in 12 years, and we think he is a good Congressman.”

Pageantry in Brass

By the St. Ignatius Girls Cadet Corps

Well, here we are back again slightly tired to say the least, or maybe a better word would be exhausted. Last Sunday, Oct. 9, we marched in the Holy Name Parade in Jersey City, New Jersey. Believe us when we say this was probably the longest parade we have ever marched. But Sunday was a beautiful day for it.

We began our line of march at Our Lady of Mercy Parish, where we met their Holy Name Society, from here we marched along through the City and as we proceeded more societies and their Drum Corps stepped into the line with us. While we were marching in from one direction other Parishes were marching toward the main line of march from other parts of the City. Our final meeting at a central point symbolized our marching through life each of us coming from a different direction yet all finally converging at one central meeting place. A small example of the brotherhood of man under the Fatherhood of God.

By the time you read this column both Corps will have put some added mileage on their

Quote:

“Derounian lost in 1964, but he was no victim of the Goldwater catastrophe; he was part of the pre-convention apparatus that caused it, and he and his Right-wing program were rejected by his largely Republican constituency. For party leaders to promote such candidates in metropolitan districts is to try the voters' patience.”
