ASSISTANT PRINCIPALS at the new Holy Trinity High School, which will be dedicated Sunday, are Sister Catherine William, OP, left and Sister Mary Laurence, RSM, representing the two religious communities of the 22 nuns on the school staff. The Sparkhill Dominicans (OP) came to Long Island for the first time in 1953, instituting confraternity classes in Holy Family Parish, Hicksville. They operate the parish school there today. The Sisters of Mercy (RSM) in the Diocese operate eight grammar schools, Mercy High School in Riverhead, Our Lady of Mercy Academy and St. Mary of the Angels Home, both in Syosset. (Herald photo)

NEW HOLY TRINITY HIGH SCHOOL on Newbridge Rd., Hicksville, which will be formally dedicated by Bishop Kellenberg at 3 o'clock this Sunday afternoon, Oct. 30. There will be open house for visitors starting at 4 P.M. A large view of the building was published in the HERALD last week but the photograph was upside down in some copies. Did you notice?

Meet New Athletic Directors

Holy Trinity High School's two athletic directors are Neil Gederberg for the boys and Mrs. Alice Swezey for the girls.

Mrs. Swezey, who joins the staff at Holy Trinity after four years at Hicksville High School, is well qualified in all sports.

At Barry College, Florida, she was a member of the intramural program in gymnastics, swimming, volleyball and basketball. She taught physical education and coached varsity tennis and junior varsity and varsity volleyball at Hicksville.

Mrs. Swezey plans to start varsity volleyball immediately at Holy Trinity, and may also add basketball. In the physical education classes, there will be gymnastics, folk dancing and softball. She also hopes to start field hockey and form a leaders' club.

Neil Gederberg takes over the Hicksville school assignment after three years at Locust Valley Friends Academy.

A resident of Glen Cove, he is a graduate of Xavier University, Cincinnati, Ohio, where he played shortstop on the varsity baseball team for three years, and was co-captain as a senior. At Glen Cove High, he also was captain of the diamond squad.

After graduating from Xavier, he accepted a graduate assistantship at the University of Colorado where he helped tutor the freshman baseball team. In his first two years at Locust Valley, he was assistant football coach. He leaves the academy as head man of three sports — soccer, baseball and basketball.

Gederberg, who also has worked at the Glen Cove YMCA Day Camp for the past seven summers, will teach physical education and coach whatever freshman teams are formed at Holy Trinity.

Statue Honors Bill Danda

LIFE-SIZE statue of St. Don Bosco, patron of homeless boys, has been erected at St. Mary of the Angels Home for Boys in Syosset in the memory of the late William Danda. Funds for the statue were contributed by many community residents, all friends of Bill Danda who spent a great deal of his time in the interest of the boys until his tragic death in a Suffolk auto mishap. The statue, dedicated recently was improved from Italy. The Levittown-Hicksville Lodge of Fiks was one of the prime movers in the year-long project headed by Dan Cavanaugh, Edward Emmel, James Mattenzo and Jiggs Dryfus. The base for the statue was erected by Adam Deal, Dick McIlugh and Dick Callahan.

Rejecting Ward Plan Petition Board Offers to Set Own Date

The Oyster Bay Town Board has rejected a Democratic organization petition seeking to establish a ward system in the Town as "defective" and has offered an alternate plan to place the question before the voters at a regular Town election.

In announcing the rejection of the petition Councilman Edward J. Poulos explained that to date the Town Clerk's researchers have found 1198 invalid signatures, or 42 less than are needed. He pointed out that only one third of the petition of 6,268 names has been examined. In order to be effective, the petition must have 5,364 valid signatures.

"The action of the Board is automatic," Poulos declared, "as the law requires the Board to reject petitions that do not comply in all respects with the statute."

Poulos said, however, that the majority members were not opposed to placing this question before the voters and challenged Supervisor Petito to get approval from Nassau County Democratic Leader Jack English so that the voters would have an opportunity to express their views on the question at the next Town election. Citing Sections 80 and 81 of the Town Law, Poulos pointed out that the Chapter provides the machinery for the election of Town officers "and for the consideration of such questions as may be proposed by the Town Board or the duly qualified electors."

"To seek to place a question of this critical importance in the future of the homeowners of the Town on the ballot, in a gubernatorial election when there are eleven other propositions to be voted on, raises the serious question of the real motives of Supervisor Petito and his party. We are unalterably opposed to the obvious tactic of the Democratic Party which seeks to capitalize on the confusion of a State-wide election in the hope to achieve self-serving gains to the detriment of the voters. This is solely a Town Matter and Town residents should have sufficient time to acquaint themselves with the far-reaching consequences of the establishment of a ward system," Poulos said. He explained that placing this question on the ballot at the Nov. 8 election would also disenfranchise the military and absentee voters.

Prior to the panel discussion Mrs. Francis Larkin, Auxiliary president, thanked the chairman of the October cake sale, Mrs. Thomas Sharkey and Mrs. Rudolph Mortati. A penny sale will be held Nov. 25 at Old Country Manor.

The dark horse was won by Mrs. Patrick Lehman.

At a previous meeting the following chairmen were appointed by Mrs. Larkin: Mrs. Paul Wiedenhafer, program; Mrs. Francis Gallant, publicity; Mrs. James Cummings, membership; Mrs. Joseph Halligan, hospitality; Mrs. Vito DelRosso and Mrs. Edward Scheidel, refreshments. Rev. John Vistas is the new moderator of the Auxiliary.

Pastor Stammel Is Panelist At St Ignatius Auxiliary

A panel discussion featured the Monday night Oct. 24, meeting of the St. Ignatius Loyola Auxiliary of Christian Mothers when members of the community were invited to attend.

A word of welcome was given by Rev. Edward Shanahan. Panelists included Rev. Edward Stammel, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church on "The Need for a Christian Education"; Weldon Endorf, principal of Trinity Lutheran School, "The Lutheran and Other School Systems"; Don Zirkel, news editor of Brooklyn Tablet, "How and Why the CEF Came into Being"; District Court Judge Francis Donovan, "The Legal and Political Aspects of the Church - State Issue"; and Patrick McGee, Citizens for Educational Freedom, "United Action".

Celebrate Book Week for Children

The Children's Dept. of the Hicksville Public Library will celebrate Children's Book Week from Oct. 30th through Nov. 5th, with a display of new Children's books and a film program.

Three children's films, "Circus Baby", "The Stone Cutter" and "Japanese Boy" will be shown in the auditorium on Tuesday, Nov. 1st at 4:00 p.m. and 4:45 p.m. All children and their parents are invited to attend.

Teacher Badly Hurt in Crash

Carmine Masi, a biology teacher in Hicksville High School, was critically injured Sunday night when the car he was driving was in collision with another automobile at the intersection of the Port Jefferson-Nesconset Highway and Nichols Road, Stony Brook.

Masi's wife and oldest son, Michael two, are also in critical condition and his six month old son was killed.

For several years Masi has acted as the Senior class advisor and has done much to start the high school graduates in the right direction.

He said the Town Board was opposed to a special election on this matter because of the cost involved. Poulos said the Board on its own motion would place the question of the ward system before Town voters in 1967, the biennial Town election. He pointed out this would remove the question of the cost of a special election and give ample time for community involvement. "I challenge Mr. Petito to get approval from his Nassau County Democratic Leader, so that he can join with the other Board members in introducing this question to the electorate at the proper time," Poulos declared.

Dear Lynda

Efforts of the Hicksville Kiwanis Club to get things rolling on beautification of the community is getting substantial support. The committee headed by KINGSLEY KELLY and DR. WALTER DUNBAR has been meeting with PTA and other groups, showing their allies of deplorable local conditions and enlisting cooperation. The deadline for the slogan contest (10 words or less) is Nov 5 with savings bonds for the winners in three school age groups. Here's one borrowed from a neighboring community "Hicksville's Beauty is Everyone's Duty". Send a card to VINCENT BRAUN, Hicksville fire commissioner and former chief, who is a patient at Syosset General Hospital. He is in the same room with LI National Bank Cashier JOSEPH REINHARDT, Room 303. Get well soon, fellows. An item in the Grumman plant publication discloses that there is a net gain of 150 cars a week in its parking fields which may be some index of employment. You can get a free one-minute Dextrostix screening test at Central General Hospital, Plainview, on Sunday, Nov 13, between 9:30 AM and 12:30 PM. For information about the free test call IV 9-4772 between Nov 1 and 13. BILL NELSON whom you may remember when he was at the Plaza and wrote a column for the HERALD now has a show on Station WBAB-FM (102.3 on dial) Mondays thru Fridays from 12 midnight til 3 AM. Its talk, music, news. Sylvania Electric has established a machine and equipment construction shop on Cantigue Rd., Hicksville, in a building previously occupied by the company's former SYLOR division. Here's a smile from the Rotary magazine: "Before criticizing your wife's faults remember that it may have been those very defects that kept her from catching a better husband."

North Broadway may become known as 'The Campus' of Hicksville. With Claremont Secretarial School already located there, a new secretarial and finishing institution, The Briarcliffe School, has opened at 56 North Broadway with MARGARET McCURE as director.

Don't forget to turn back your clock this Saturday night, Oct. 29. Daylight Saving Time ends. Hicksville School Board holds a regular business meeting next Monday night, Oct. 31, at 8 PM at the Administration Bldg. on Division Ave. A rather well-known resident has sent out a letter urging friends to vote, as he will, for Assemblyman GINSBERG. Trouble is, the letter writer CAN'T vote for Ginsberg because he don't live in his district, TOM CLARK, the Conservative candidate for the same seat, can't vote for himself because he don't live in the district he seeks to represent. That reapportionment has everyone confused. Christmas Club checks are going out. Rev. ROBERT GUTHEIL, assistant to Pastor EDWARD STAMMEL at Trinity Church, Hicksville, recently served as visiting minister at All Saint's Lutheran Church on the campus at LI Lutheran High School, Brookville. The meeting of the Hicksville Exempt Firemen's Assn. on Oct. 24 was designated as WALTER DANOW Night, a charter member trustee. A gold ring was lost in the Gertz washroom on Oct. 21. If you know anything about it, please contact MRS. FRANCIS ANDERSON on East St. Hicksville. The police Dept. safety trailer will be at the Jericho Shopping Center (Floyd Bennett) on Monday, Oct. 31.

Caemmerer is running for re-election in the 5th District comprising part of Oyster Bay Twp. and all of North Hempstead Township. Instead of renting a second hand bus with observation platform his friends built this novel float as a takeoff on "Candid Camera". Just say "You're on Candid Caemmerer" and you will get the point. That is Senator Caemmerer waving at you as his campaign manager, John S. Da Vanzo makes a "take" on a real TV camera borrowed for the occasion. Cons. Candidate Father of Five Thomas L. Clark of 28 Chance St., Hicksville, the conservative candidate for State Assembly in the area including the east side of Hicksville and Plainview, is the fifth of nine children and has a family of five children himself, including a set of twins.

He is a senior customer engineer in the office products division of International Business Machines, New York City, and a licensed insurance broker.

The vice chairman of the recently organized Hicksville Conservative Club, he is active in his parish as an instructor of religious education in St. Ignatius Loyola's Confraternity of Christian Doctrine.

He served two years in the Army, receiving his basic training in Fort Hood, Texas, and completing his tour of duty in Germany. He is a graduate of Erasmus Hall High School and the Academy of Aeronautics where he received his A&E license. He also attended Brooklyn College.

As for his campaign position he says that a representative in Albany, he will "be a consistent vote against increased taxes, against increased welfare, against unlimited government spending and control of your individual rights and life".

VFW Launches Membership Drive

The Dept. of New York, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, designated the William M. Gouse Jr. Post, 3211, Hicksville, for a special meeting held on Oct. 16 for all Post Commanders, Junior and Senior Vice Commanders, Quartermasters and Membership Chairmen in Nassau and Suffolk County Posts. The meeting which opened an intensive membership drive was conducted by the Department Officers to make a thorough presentation of membership as well as other 1967 VFW programs.

Among those present were: Dept. Commander Herbert C. Brian, Senior Vice Commander John R. Ray and Junior Vice Commander Frank Marcellus. Also attending was Nassau County Council Commander Richard Welsh and his officers.

Dept. Commander Brian stressed to those present that the veterans rights and benefits were gradually being taken away from them and the only way to combat this was through a large and active membership. Other programs were discussed by various department officers with the emphasis on the need for large membership to help put them across. Among some programs mentioned were: youth and community activities, rehabilitation, Americanism and legislation. The meeting lasted approximately three hours and was attended by about one hundred officers from various Posts on Long Island.

The William M. Gouse Jr. Post is supporting this drive for new membership and is offering to all qualified veterans an informative and instructive booklet about the history and workings of the organization. The booklet entitled, "The V.F.W. Story," will be sent free upon request. For a copy write to: Edward Klebing, Membership Chairman.

Fifteen reasons why your Congressman, Lester Wolff, deserves your vote on November 8th.

Read the facts below. And remember, they are FACTS ...not opinions...not innuendo...not wishful thinking. These facts are some of the highlights of your Congressman's record...some of the things he has accomplished for you and for all the people of the Third Congressional District. These accomplishments represent the fulfillment of the promises Lester Wolff made to you two years ago when you elected him to Congress. They are the best reasons for re-electing him.

1. Viet Nam. Wolff is the strongest voice to bring a negotiated, just and lasting peace to Viet Nam.

2. Bussing. Wolff is unequivocally opposed to the forced inter-district bussing of school children, and is dedicated to the preservation of the high educational standards and local autonomy of our neighborhood and suburban schools.

3. Long Island Economy. Wolff helped to reverse a downward trend of manufacturing, bringing more industry and more jobs to the Island. He also worked to bring a ONE BILLION DOLLAR contract (the largest ever awarded anywhere in the U.S.) to a Long Island firm.

4. Inflation. Wolff conducted an investigation of trading stamps as one effort to hold down food prices. He also investigated rising milk and bread prices, leading to inquiries on federal and state levels.

5. Medicare. Wolff is a co-author of Medicare.

6. Education. Wolff was co-sponsor of the Federal Aid to Education Act. He voted for the Higher Education Act, the Vocational Education Act, the Library Assistance Act.

7. Immigration. Wolff co-sponsored a realistic new Immigration Law.

8. Servicemen. Wolff co-authored the new G.I. Bill of Rights to aid the young men who have served our nation.

9. Your Pets. Wolff co-authored the Pet Protection Bill, making inhumane treatment of dogs and cats a Federal offense.

10. Air Travel. Wolff was author of a resolution increasing liability in International Air Travel to $75,000.

11. Conservation. Wolff is the author of the Long Island Sound Conservation Bill. To protect our Community from destruction of our natural resources.

12. Obscenity. Wolff is author of a bill making crank phone calls a Federal offense.

13. Civil Rights. A strong proponent of equal rights to all, Wolff voted for the 1965-66 Civil Rights Act.

14. Commuters. Wolff was the only Nassau Congressman to testify against the Lindsay Commuter Tax. Wolff introduced a bill for Federal tax deduction of commutation.

15. Wolff sponsored "Town Hall" meetings on education, housing, Viet Nam, etc. He brought in Federal officials to conduct seminars on Federal-local government problems with our mayors, supervisors and other local officials.

Remember these facts. Remember these accomplishments. Remember that the man who now represents you in the Congress of the United States is a full-time Congressman who represents everybody in this district, regardless of party affiliation. Remember that Lester Wolff has spared no effort in working for you.

Re-elect your Congressman
Lester Wolff

Noted in Passing

The position of the Nassau County Board of Supervisors in opposing elimination of grade crossings in East Williston and Williston Park by elevating the tracks makes us shake our collective heads. No such concern was evidenced when Hicksville RR elimination was the topic of Public Commission hearings in New York, although the local project was and remains to date the biggest single project of its kind in the state.

Just listen to the reasoning...."Overhead railroad structure...would result in the destruction and obliteration of the esthetic and economic values of the communities in which it would be located."

State Senator John D. Caemmerer is quoted as saying "a depression will eliminate a wall running thru the entire community and would serve to preserve the natural beauty of our suburban community".

Congressman Lester Wolff says this week "an elevated railway thru a town is like a Chinese

Court Upholds Board On Corrected Budget

The Supreme Court handed down a decision Friday, Oct. 21, upholding the October Day Town Board's right to charge Supervisor Michael Petito's proposed budget.

Town Board Majority Leader Edward J. Poulos said the decision assures that the Town will have enough funds to provide essential services for the coming year. He pointed out that in addition to failing to include funds for mandated items in his proposed budget, the Supervisor had also indiscriminately slashed monies needed for necessary improvement programs. He pointed out that this court decision was a victory over the legal obstructionist tactics of the Supervisor, expressing the hope that Petito would refrain from "further institution of needless law suits which are placing an additional burden on the taxpayers."

The Supervisor filed suit against the Town Board, claiming that he had the sole power over the budget and that the Town Board is without power or authority to modify the preliminary budget prepared by him. Justice Theodore Velser, in his decision, declared the budget was subject to review and revision by the Town Board before it was presented to the taxpayers at a public meeting. In his decision, he said "nothing is shown (in the law) to suggest that Section 51 intended so drastic a measure as to deprive the Town Board of a suburban town of the powers and duties concerning the budget system."

Town Attorney Bernard F. McCaffrey presented the Court with opinions supporting the Town Board's position from the New York State Attorney General and the Office for Local Government which drafted the Suburban Town Law. Section 51 of Article 3A declares the Town Board the legislative, approving, governing and policy-determining body and provides the Board with all powers and duties necessary to carry out this responsibility.

The Board Majority, upon receipt of the Supervisor's budget, found it necessary to restore to the document more than a half million dollars of funds mandated by law which Petito failed to include. The Supervisor's budget did not include $156,000 in payments due in 1967 on bond anticipation notes and his budget also failed to include more than $158,000 for hospitalization, social security and retirement benefits for Town employees, all required by law. The State Motor Vehicle law requires that all "stop" signs in the Town be raised to a height of six feet, calling for an expenditure of $13,000. This was not included in Petito's budget.

In other budget errors, the Supervisor failed to include the planned beach improvement program, including marine and conservation activities, funds for the institution of a five-day-week for the Sanitary Service Collection System, necessary funds for snow removal and other essential programs.

The Board corrected the Supervisor's errors and filed the Supervisor's modified budget with the Town Clerk, setting a hold-the-line tax rate of 16.2¢ per $100 of assessed valuation, one mill less than the previous year's tax rate for Town administrative services. The Supreme Court upheld the Board in this action.

Town Board Majority Leader Poulos said he was "gratified by the Court's decision," pointing out that the Board would hold a public hearing on the budget on Nov. 10 at 10 a.m. and 8 p.m. in Town Hall.

Herald Editorial Comment..
In The Home Stretch

There are now less than two weeks to Election Day, Nov. 8, and campaign activity is reaching its peak. Campaign headquarters (some like to call them voter information centers, although you will rarely, if ever, find literature about the opposition on public display) have been opened with the flourish of scissors and a flutter of ribbon.

The broadest interest is naturally focused upon the race for Governor of New York State. Other state candidates get varying degrees of attention.

Next in concern should be the delegates to the Constitutional Convention of 1967, but there is relatively little said about the 15 to be elected at-large by one pull of the voting lever. Area candidates in this grouping are identified but it is doubtful if the most faithful party worker could recite, from memory, the names of all 15 of his party's at-large delegation.

The three-from-each senatorial district candidates for the Constitutional Convention have been doing more, in recent weeks, to get before the voters.

One of the factors which will give the voters reason for taking their time in the voting booths on Nov. 8 is the selection of candidates for state assembly and senate. Due to reapportionment of the senate and assembly districts of the state, everyone who was elected a year ago must stand again this election. In many cases the new districts are quite different than the territories served in the past and long-time legislators are finding many of their well-established territories are now removed from their jurisdiction, replaced with relatively new and strange outlying districts. In some cases township and

CHECKING PLUS...yours exclusively at First National City Bank.

This new kind of checking account lets you write a check bigger than your balance.

There has never been a checking account as useful as this. Here's how it works. When you open a CHECKING PLUS Account, we set up a cash reserve for you. It may be as little as $400 or as much as $5,000. Then, if and when you want to write a check for more money than you have in your account, you can just go ahead and write it. Automatically, we'll take enough money out of your reserve (in multiples of $100) and credit it to your CHECKING PLUS Account. You are charged only for the portion of the reserve that is actually transferred to your account. You repay in 12 or 24 monthly installments, sooner if you wish. The faster you repay, the less it costs you. The money you repay goes back into your reserve, so you can draw on it again and again.

If you never use your reserve, you never pay a penny for it. The peace of mind it gives you is free.

Except for the cash reserve, CHECKING PLUS works like an ordinary checking account. Same low service charges. Same wide choice of checkbook styles and colors.

A CHECKING PLUS Identification Card is a great check-cashing convenience. Issued upon request, the card lets you cash your CHECKING PLUS Check at any branch of First National City in the metropolitan area. And we are New York's most convenient bank.

You can open a CHECKING PLUS Account at any one of our branches. Come in and let us give you all the details.

The checking account with a built-in cash reserve is here. Only at First National City Bank.

Joanne Grace Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, Hicksville, New York, became the bride of Michael F. Burt, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Burt of Bethesda, Maryland in August.

The wedding took place at Trinity Lutheran Church, Pastor E. H. Stammel officiating. Mr. Brown gave his daughter in marriage and the bridegroom's father, H. Burt sang the wedding solos.

The bride, wearing a white silk organza over peau de soie gown trimmed with lace and carrying a bridal bouquet of white roses and stephanos was attended by her sister, Sandra Brown as maid of honor and Penny Osterberg, Mary Losure and Karen Kremyborg as bridesmaids. The best man was Thomas Burt, brother of the groom and the ushers were Douglas Burt, Philip Bruening, Roy Lidbom and James Brown, Jr. A reception followed in the parish hall of the church.

The newlyweds, after a honeymoon in Maine, are residing in St. Louis, Missouri where Mr. Burt is attending Concordia Lutheran Seminary and Mrs. Burt is teaching primary school in nearby Kirkwood, Missouri.

village boundaries have been ruthlessly erased in the swirl of new AD and SD numbers.

A study of material released by candidates during the several weeks since the campaigns officially began early in October reveals an interesting fact: the photographer has almost replaced the mimeograph machine as a campaign tool. Candidates on the local level, with notable exceptions of course, provide the press with packets of glossy photographs of candidates beaming at local citizens. There are relatively few thoughtful campaign statements on that mythical subject: "the issues". Some candidates are so in harmony with their opposition on "issues" that the contests may become tests of personalities and the relative effectiveness of campaign organizations.

The huge rally with torchlight parades has become almost a thing of the past, replaced by grasping some chilled hands at dawn at a rail road station or a ducking in and out of several residences a day on the coffee klotch trail.

The more than life-like photoposters smile at the voter from almost every vacant storefront. The message is usually a plea to vote the straight ticket represented by the gentleman in the photograph. Sometimes the message is coupled with the top of the state ticket.

We are now entering the "wild" season of the campaigns. During this final 10-day or so stretch, voters are frequently showered with last minute "save-all" proposals and headline-grabbing allegations and charges which are frequently disproven-unfortunately after the votes are counted. Thoughtful voters will not be stampeded by these tactics which have been carefully designed months ago and are held for triggering in the last torrid days.

The average voter will be confronted with the selection of 28 candidates, 15 of which on the statewide level will be under a single lever, which still leaves 13 other vacancies to be filled.

In addition, across the top of the voting machine the voter will find one statewide Proposition and eleven proposed Amendments to the State Constitution.

It is to be hoped that the volume of positions to be filled and the substantial number of propositions and other questions requiring a yes or no vote will not deter voters from exercising their civic duty on Election Day, Nov. 8th. The polls will be open from 6 A.M. to 9 P.M.

Your vote makes a difference.

TELEPHONE MAN IS VOLUNTEER FIRE FIGHTER

ROUTINE CHECK. Deputy Chief Walter J. Henry checks fire truck with Ernest Beermann at the Plainview Fire Department. Mr. Henry is a New York Telephone Communications Serviceman in his regular job.

Plainview, L.I. Walter Henry is Deputy Chief of the Plainview Fire Department, which boasts 125 volunteer firemen plus the latest fire-fighting equipment. Mr. Henry gets a great deal of satisfaction from serving his community on his own time. He's on call 24 hours a day, 7 days a week along with the other volunteer firemen. And they're kept pretty busy, since the Plainview Fire Department averages 600 fire calls each year.

Walter Henry, like so many telephone people, feels that the opportunity to help people doesn't stop with his telephone work.

Pageantry in Brass

By the St. Ignatius Girls Cadet Corps

Hi! This past Saturday marked the first meeting of our new members. The girls seemed eager to begin so following the formal introductions they dove right in to a girl cadet's rendition of Simon says, "Shoulders back, chin in, heels together at a forty five degree angle." To our surprise not too many broke under the strain. In fact they all seemed to enjoy themselves.

We are still recruiting new girls both for our Junior and Senior Corps.

Don't be bashful, you need not be a musician or skilled in the art of marching. All these things are taught. We repeat our only requirements are that you be a girl between the ages of ten and eighteen.

Hope to see you Saturday at 2:30 P.M. The weather is getting cooler and in our opinion about the coldest place on Long Island is Cantiague Park on a Friday night. If you have any knowledge of an indoor area about the size of a football field within the general area of Nassau County, we would be greatly appreciative if you would let us know. The new music and drill for 1967 will require much more practice. If you can help us please contact Mr. Thomas Costa or any of the girls.

Friday, Oct. 28, we will put on an exhibition at the opening of the new football field at Salisbury Park, Westbury.

Among 18 Providence College ROTC cadets cited as Distinguished Military Students is Paul C. Giannelli, son of Mrs. William J. Giannelli of 133 Bay Ave., Hicksville. He is a graduate of Archbishop Molloy High School, Jamaica.

- November 4. Junior Girls Unit Meeting - VFW Hall
- November 14. V.F.W. Business Meeting - VFW Hall
- November 15. Nassau County Council Meeting (VFW) Glen Cove Post - Glen Cove L.I.
- November 16. Ladies Auxiliary Social Meeting - VFW Hall
- November 19. Ladies Auxiliary Dance - VFW Hall
- November 25. Junior Girls Unit Meeting - VFW Hall

BUSINESS MEETINGS. Post members can look forward to visits from Nassau County Council chairmen on Membership, Voice of Democracy and Americanism in the near future. The purpose of these visitations are to work and cooperate with the Post chairmen of the same committees.

BENEFITS. Full wartime benefits are on the way for Vietnam veterans who have served on active duty since the Bay of Tonkin incident, August 5, 1964. The Senate Finance Committee approved the proposal (S. 3580) last week that extends wartime pension and compensation, also, provisions to extend wartime burial allowances, auto grants and certain medical care benefits to the men with so-called "Vietnam Era" service.

V.F.W. LEGISLATIVE GOAL. The establishment of a standing Committee on Veterans Affairs in the U.S. Senate has always been high in the legislative goals of the V.F.W. The resolution was adopted again by the 67th National Convention held in New York City last August. As adjournment of Congress draws near the VFW recommended Senate Resolutions No. 20 or No. 55 appear stalled again. A Joint Congressional Study Committee has recommended that the Senate establish its own Veterans Affairs Committee to handle all veterans legislation.

TICKETS AND RESERVATIONS to the Ladies Auxiliary Dance, November 19, can be made by calling Esther Palladino at PY - 8 - 3827.

The easiest thing about buying a car is getting the money from Meadow Brook.

You'll probably spend weeks poking around under hoods, slamming doors, comparing prices and arguing with your family about whether your new car should be a convertible or a station wagon.

But an auto loan from Meadow Brook is a different story. It's so simple. In a matter of hours the money can be in your hands. Our payment plans are painless; take up to 36 months if you like. And our rates are as low as you'll find anywhere. In fact, borrowing from Meadow Brook is so pleasant, you might even want to buy two cars.

Look in your phone book for the address and phone number of the Meadow Brook office nearest you.

"And when you get your new car, please drive it safely. Because we'd like to see you again when it's time for your next car."

The magic of the modern fuels is so many things.

Flick a switch and a beautiful room comes aglow with light. Touch a thermostat setting and comforting heat makes your house and the people in it snug and secure.

A baby plays on the floor, but no icy fingers of air touch her. Bare teenage feet paddle through the house with nary a frosty toe.

A roast comes to the dinner table piping hot. Milk arrives refreshingly cold. Music plays softly. Toast pops up. Coffee stays hot.

After dinner, a TV tube glows and pictures and words carry your family to other worlds. Water heats for the baby's bath. Blankets get warm as the night air gets cold.

Because of those two modern fuel partners—gas and electricity—a home and the family it embraces move through the measures of time cheerfully, efficiently, securely.

The silent partners who are taken for granted and who are always there. Partners in your daily life whose dependability is as constant as today following yesterday. And as modern as tomorrow.

Gas. Electricity. They are truly magical. Depend on LILCO to bring their magic to your home every hour of the day and night, every night and day of the year.
