Museum Earns State Charter

GREGORY MUSEUM, which was begun informally by Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner Gregory in 1961 in their home at 207 Cottage Blvd., Hicksville, as a resource center for the Little Butterfly and Moth Society, has been granted a charter by the State Board of Regents establishing it as a tax-free educational foundation. Thousands of students, scientists and others have visited the museum over the years. Trustees of the Museum Foundation are (seated from left) Anne Gregory, secretary; Gardiner Gregory, president; Gilbert George, vice president. Standing, Joseph Catalano, vice president; William Campbell, research and project development; and Albert Church, treasurer.

Post Office Vehicle Fleet Cited

The Hicksville Post Office Vehicle Fleet was cited for meritorious safety performance today upon receipt of an award from the New York Regional Director of the Post Office Department. The citation was issued to postal installations with improved accident prevention records in the Fiscal Year 1966.

Postmaster Ralph G. Cascardo announced the news to his staff with emphasis on the fine contribution which is being made by his courteous drivers. "Courtesy is the key to good vehicle operations and to patron respect which we have earned as symbolized by this award."

"We, in all branches of government service, are determined to improve our accident prevention program and eliminate employee injuries and motor vehicle accidents in wholehearted cooperation with the President's safety program -- U.S. Mission Safety 70," Cascardo said.

In presenting the safety award

OUR MEN IN SERVICE

Marine Private Fred Adams, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Adams of 33 Myers Ave., Hicksville, has completed a week of testing and screening at the Naval Air Technical Training Center, Memphis, Tenn.

to our Hicksville Regional Director Sean P. Keating said; "This award is a small token of our esteem for the excellent driving performance which has contributed to highway safety and through it to the efficiency of the postal service. Your community should be equally proud of this contribution to its safety."

In addition to this fleet award each of the vehicle operators in the Hicksville Post Office receives from the National Safety Council an individual safe driver award for each year without a preventable accident.

The County Budget

County Executive Eugene Nickerson's budget for the coming year was described this week by Presiding Supervisor Caso as "an absurdity and certainly heart breaking to those who recall Nassau's cash balances and excellent credit rating of pre-Nickerson years." When he took office the tax levy for Nassau was $60.5 million and the tax rate was $2.19. By 1966, Caso continued, it had increased to a levy of $83 million and a tax rate of $2.71. Now it is proposed to hike the levy by $54 million to $112 million and jump the tax rate by 94.8 cents. In five years the tax levy has increased 85 per cent and the tax rate 66.6 per cent.

Licenses Expiring

County Clerk Franklin D. Ornstein reminds motorists to check their operator licenses as 35,000 of them will expire on Dec. 31. Those drivers whose last names begin with the letters A to F will be required to take an eye test.

Hold Conference On Closing Sts

Representatives of various community groups were scheduled to meet tonight (Thurs) with the Hicksville Board of Fire Commissioners to consider what action can be taken to keep Marie St. and Nicholas St. open to two-way east-west traffic when the State Dept. of Public Works widens and re-routes Newbridge Rd.

A delegation led by Hicksville Fire Commission Board Chairman Harold Hawxhurst, representing the fire district and water district, in a conference with State Dept. of Public Works officials in Babylon was given assurances at a recent session that W. Marie St. will remain open for west-bound traffic only, presumably limited to emergency vehicles.

However, many feel that this solution is inadequate and further effort to retain east-west and reverse traffic flow on the two streets scheduled for barricading should be pressed. School District officials are concerned because barricades would require detouring the route of school buses, increase the distance travelled and could result in the need for additional buses to deliver and return students within reasonable time intervals.

Hawxhurst and Fire District Attorney Anthony Carreri were present at the Hicksville School Board meeting on Monday night and conferred informally with Board President George A. Jackson and other members, inviting them to the session at the E. Marie St. firehouse this evening.

It is understood the Chamber of Commerce is also expected to have a representative present.

State Taking Over Properties

THIS PICTURE, previously published in the HERALD, shows the 46-foot swatch along the west side of Broadway, Hicksville, which is scheduled for demolition as this state highway is widened. Currently several vacated stores in this block have just been boarded up and posted with notices that they are now the property of the State of New York and thus no longer on the tax rolls. Last May, the Chamber of Commerce was told that "condemnation would begin five weeks from that date." The project has cast deepening shadows over the business district for more than 10 years and the formal start and finish date of the project is yet to be made public. It is estimated that upwards of a million dollars in taxable real estate will be lost to the community, town and county as a result of the destruction.

Hicksville Public Library was cited in the Sunday New York Times report on facilities being provided in Nassau to solve the problems of the physically handicapped. LOU KAPPSTATTER is manager of the Woodbury Gardens Liquor store on Woodbury Rd., Woodbury. A letter soliciting holiday business has gone out over the signature of MICHAEL D'AURIA. Hicksville Water District is proceeding to acquire two lots on Alicia St. There will also be a joint hearing before Oyster Bay and Hempstead Town Boards at the Town Hall Annex on Broadway, Hicksville, at 9:30 AM on Tuesday, Dec. 27, upon a $139,000 project to reconstruct well no. 1 of the water district on its Bethpage Rd. site. 80 members of the Hicksville High Champion football, soccer and track teams were guests of Hicksville Kiwanis on Dec. 7. Reports that 300 pickets were marching at the SEARS Store in Hicksville last week and this received a lot of attention in radio news broadcasts, probably because of the numbers involved.

Editorial Opinion:

What About Post Office?

One of the greatest continuing mysteries has been the status of the scheduled new Hicksville Post Office main building. (The second greatest mystery is the status of the Broadway widening as to the start of work and anticipated completion).

The government acquired two acres on West John St., some time back (it seems like years) for a new post office to house all its facilities and those of the sectional center. Pictures of the design of building have been released and duly published. On at least two occasions calls for bids have been made.

At the time of the first call, it was also noted that a new facility was scheduled for Syracuse. We see by the papers that equipment has been installed and is operating at the Syracuse sectional center, but no progress on the new Hicksville building.

What makes the question more pressing now is the widening and rerouting of Newbridge Rd., scheduled to start in the spring. In the process, the rear of the present main office on North Broadway will be sliced off and blocked.

We seriously doubt that all the sectional center facilities now in rented space off South Broadway next to the Farmer's Market could ever be accommodated on the West John St. site and still leave room for a dozen or so tractor-trailers, employee and customer parking. The set-up off South Broadway, complete with loading dock, seems fine but we should have a "main office" nearest the center of town. Why not build a handsome Main Post Office of two to four stories on the West John St., property, as long as it is owned by the government, and centralize all the administrative activity there, keeping the rented warehouse down South Broadway for the sectional center and shipping.

Reader Opinion:

Praises Opposition

To the Editor:
I wish to praise you for opposition to the plan of the State Dept. of Public Works to close West Marie St. and Nicholas St. at Newbridge Rd. There is no thought, as usual, given to the needs and comfort of the population.

Time, Money, Taxes

To the Editor:
To an observer at the last Hicksville Board of Education meeting, the spectacle of the trustees giving serious thought to debate to a question of whether to finance a paid trip (cost of at least $1000 a head) of three to four weeks duration to Yugoslavia and Moscow to study local, rural schools there, would be funny if it were not pathetic. The Superintendent of Schools and Principal of Fork Lane Elementary School would like to go, at taxpayers' expense while collecting full pay for services not rendered back here in Hicksville. And added to the debate was the indications from at least two school board members that they too would like to take the trip (apparently also at taxpayer expense).

The whole deal would take place next November at a time when the school administrators should be occupied with getting the new term rolling and starting work on the proposed budget for next year.

Not satisfied with acquiring (after several months of delay) a station wagon to use for "countryside" from New York to Chicago, but on the trail of conventions, we are now aiming our sights across the seas. We may some day see the district acquire its own executive - type jet aircraft and eventually a space ship. It sure would benefit the education of our children to know how moon people teach reading and writing.

It was noted at the meeting that some educators from other districts (Franklin Square for one) recently back from the same route were frankly critical of the merits of the excursion. The report appeared in a Sunday newspaper just prior to the meeting.

The amount of time consumed in conclusion of the session before some much more pressing affairs of the School District could be reached. Someone has said that time is money and of course we all know that taxes are paid in the form of money. There is an equation here somewhere.

To the Editor:
Before the flavor of the recent election campaign passes, I want to thank you and the Mid Island HERALD for your outstanding job in presenting the candidates and the issues. The development of a well informed electorate was reflected at the polls by the number of votes cast and in particular, the great number of votes for the constitutional amendments, compared to other areas in the State. My sincere appreciation and congratulations.

Finally, I wish to commend my opponent for his conduct during the campaign. He engaged in no personalities but hit hard on the issues in the finest tradition of American politics.

Would Require Share of Taxes

Assemblyman Martin Ginsberg of Plainville said today he is planning legislation which will urge the Federal Congress to adopt a federal-state tax revenue sharing program. Under it the federal government would return a percentage of its tax monies to the 50 states for health, education and welfare purposes.

"At present," said Ginsberg, "many states, particularly New York, have reached the limit of their taxing powers. However, they badly need additional revenues just to keep abreast of the needs of their citizens and that leaves the federal government, with its greater taxing powers, as the only available source of funds."

New York State, Ginsberg noted, now spends approximately 80 per cent of its present $4-billion budget, largest in state history, for health, education and welfare purposes. State aid to education alone accounts for about 48 per cent of the state budget for 1966-67.

"Our people," Ginsberg asserted, "have reached the limit of their ability to pay taxes. Yet, there is no doubt in anyone's mind that more money will be needed by state and local governments to meet continually rising costs of essential programs, such as education, mental health, medical, narcotics addiction and low income housing."

Jericho Drain Bids

The Town Board has approved design plans and authorized a public bid session at Town Hall on Dec. 21 for the construction of storm water drains in the vicinity of Ellen Place, Jericho. The engineering estimate for the project is $21,300.

Here's how alcohol affects a driver's vision. The first drink or two narrows his vision. Another drink or two blurs his vision. Think about this the next time you are tempted to drive after drinking, suggests the New York State Department of Motor Vehicles.

Christmas Night Movie at Church

"The Breaking Point", a moving story of young America, has been translated on the screen in a beautiful new, color film which is to be shown at 7 P.M. at Faith Baptist Church, Southern Parkway and Prospect Pk., Plainview, on Christmas Sunday, Dec. 25.

Beginning on Main Street, U. S. A., this film tells the story of an upper-middle class American family which has accumulated enough material wealth so that leisure hours become a major problem. Saturdays and Sundays have an almost irresistible charm for a young father who desires to get next to his 10-year old son through sports cars, days at the races, and the thrill of speed. Where to spend the family vacation requires hours of study and planning by the attractive young mother. "The Breaking Point" poses the question of how deeply a modern young family should be involved in the program of the church, and it is at this point that family problems begin to arise. It is here, too, that "The Breaking Point" departs from the norm of religious motion pictures for it allows the story to unfold in the historic and scenic beauty of Europe and reach a climax on a back street in the city of Jerusalem.

Because the camera stays close to the young family, the film creates a warmth of intimacy which is destined to make it a mirror through which many American families will become aware of blemishes which mar the depth of Christian character so desperately needed today.

Produced by Christian Witness Productions, Inc., of Jacksonville, Florida, "THE BREAKING POINT" is being released exclusively through the world wide facilities of Gospel Films, Inc. of Muskegon, Michigan.

4-H Club News

By Gladys Jurgens

The Mid Island 4-H Girls Leaders Council held its 4th family fair on Dec. 3 at Lovittown Hall, Hicksville. The fair was a success, bringing $1,191.46. This money will go toward trips, awards and scholarships for many deserving 4-H members and leaders approximately 1500 people attend. The Mid Island Council thanks all local merchants, banks and other donors who helped make the fair a success. The chairman was Mrs. W. Titus with Mrs. W. Jurgens, co-chairman. They join in giving sincere thanks to all.

Legion Honors Deceased Past Commanders

Continuing its annual custom of memorializing deceased Past Commanders of the Post, the Charles Wagner Post #421 American Legion of Hicksville, has again selected the American Legion Memorial Library at Hofstra University as the means. The Nassau County American Legion Memorial Library at Hofstra University is a specialized collection of fine and rare books, periodicals and related printed matter concerning the life and history of Long Island and New York State. It is housed in an exclusive section of the main library and is open to the students and public alike.

In May of 1967, when the new Hofstra library complex is dedicated — an entire new air conditioned area will house this great and ever growing collection. The library collection of this type was conceived by Past Nassau County American Legion Commander James N. MacLean of Brookville some 15 years ago and he has championed the library cause ever since.

Anyone may make a donation for the purpose of purchasing rare books and can stipulate to whom the book is to be dedicated. Book plates are placed in each book containing the information regarding the donor and donee. A remembrance of this type is almost certain, short of a catastrophe, to last an indefinite length of time due to the modern methods of temperature control, storing of books and careful, timely repair work. This year the name of deceased Past Commander Frank Shea was selected to be memorialized by a book in this library by the Charles Wagner Post. In past years other deceased Past Commanders so honored were Silas Valentine, Elias Jabour, Emanuel Smolik and Henry G. Eisemann.

Suggests Position For Narcotics War

Councilman Ralph J. Marino, Chairman of the Town Board's Standing Committee on Local Government, proposed the establishment of a Townwide Coordinator on Narcotics for the Town of Oyster Bay and suggested that the other towns join in introducing this concept on the war on narcotics. Town Board Majority Leader Poulos said the Board will adopt Marino's resolution.

Marino said, "There is a pressing need to broaden the attack on drug addiction so that every family in the Town and County will be alerted on a continual basis to the danger of the expansion of narcotics addiction among the youth."

Marino said he feels the Townwide Coordinator should be a full-time job with the responsibility for working with every organization in the community. He pointed out that the job will be primarily one of education. He said the Coordinator would cooperate fully with law enforcement, medical agencies and other groups having responsibilities in this field.

Bouse Seeks Volunteers For Jan. March of Dimes

"Help Wanted. Experience Unnecessary. Hours: All You Can Spare. Reward: A Mother's Thanks."

"That's how we might write a 'Help Wanted' ad for the March of Dimes," declared Rudy Bouse, director of the January 1967 drive against birth defects in Hicksville.

"While we can't promise our workers anything but hard work between now and the end of January, we can guarantee them the satisfaction of having made a personal contribution toward solving the greatest childhood health problem of today."

He explained that March of Dimes funds are directly instrumental in bringing about the birth of healthy babies and rehabilitating children who might otherwise be permanently disabled.

"For example," said Bouse, "many thousands of stillbirths and miscarriages occur each year as a result of faulty prenatal development. Medical attention, starting in the earliest months of pregnancy, can often reduce these risks. So the March of Dimes is conducting a national campaign to inform all prospective mothers of the need for such care."

To enlist in the fight against Birth Defects, call the March of Dimes Headquarters at CH 8-4950.

Pageantry in Brass

By the St. Ignatius Girls Cadet Corps

Sunday, Dec. 17, Molloy College's Quesy Hall will be rocking not only with the drum beats of The St. Ignatius Girls Cadet Corps; but with the carefree voices of young children enjoying a Christmas party.

Did I say young children? - Well I guess all of us will contribute our share to the merriment. You see last year we joined with the Blessed Virgin Sodality of Molloy Catholic College for women, Rockville Centre, to entertain children who would not have a Christmas as we know it should be. The undertaking was such a success that we immediately made tentative plans for this year.

Watching the faces of starry-eyed children as a jovial but over-stuffed, Santa doled out all sorts of little surprises; or when they saw for the first time, homes completely covered with dancing Christmas lights, and "real" reindeer, was a joy all its own.

So again this year, we are looking forward to sharing our music and our good times with others, who although not as lucky as we, can sometimes teach us the ability to give not only material things but love.

Our special thanks to Mr. Maurice Forge, president of the Mid-Island Transit System, Inc., for his generous donation, the children's transportation for the day.

ARMED FORCE MEMBERS all over the world eagerly look forward to letters from relatives, friends and neighbors who represent home to them. According to the Department of Defense letters from home still rate top billing in the morale department of the G.I. If you know a serviceman who cannot be home with his family for the holidays write him this week. Wishing him the best of holiday greetings or thanking him for the good job he is doing only costs five cents postage... and I'm sure you have writing paper and an envelope around the house that's doing nothing.

YOUR BILL OF RIGHTS - There are many. Understand them clearly, use them wisely and protect them at all times. This week we celebrate the anniversary of them. The first ten amendments to the United States Constitution were ratified on December 15, 1791. Those amendments, as we call them today, "the Bill of Rights," guarantee explicitly the most important personal privileges we may enjoy as a citizen of this great country living within the jurisdiction of our federal government. The Bill of Rights was written by our forefathers to make crystal clear the Constitution's intended safeguarding of justice for every citizen. Read them, study them and defend them as they defend you.

LEGISLATIVE GOAL NO. 4 - For Disabled, Elderly Veterans and Widows: Federal standards of poverty indicate that there are hundreds of thousands of veterans and their widows who are living in abject and destitute circumstance, the majority being World War I veterans. Despite the cost of living increases, there are basic defects in the pension system. The standards for veterans, including the income limitations and the rates have been and continue to be unrealistically low. The VFW calls upon the Congress to make a comprehensive review of the pension program with the object of bringing the standards and rules for pension entitlement in keeping with the great economic changes and progress which have occurred during these last several years.

Put ZIP In Holiday Mail

Postmaster Ralph G. Cascardi has rang the warning bell, reminding residents of Hicksville, Plainview and Old Bethpage that this is the last round for Christmas mailing.

Following are some Christmas mailing hints from Mr. ZIP: Don't forget to use ZIP codes on all your Christmas mail ... In both the address and the return address ... only you can put ZIP into your postal system. Make sure your addresses are written or printed clearly and that they are complete. Don't let your mail end up in the Dead Letter office because your handwriting can't be read.

Don't forget that under normal conditions there is no delivery of cards and letters on Christmas Day other than Special Delivery.

ATTENTION:

MOM and DAD

Will your son or daughter be home for the Christmas Holidays?

Will he or she be graduating from college this January or June with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Electrical Engineering, Physics or Mathematics?

If so, we would like very much to have them contact us concerning the possibility of employment upon graduation. We are a medium-sized electronics company, founded in 1921 and concerned with state-of-the-art advances in the fields of Radar, Communications, ASW, Digital Techniques, Countermeasures, Counter-Countermeasures, Reconnaissance, Surveillance, and all types of special-purpose equipment and systems.

Our engineers work in small project-oriented groups. Individual effort is appreciated and encouraged. We do not promote specialization but afford the utmost opportunity to learn and participate in all aspects of the job (including getting dirty hands).

Our fringe benefit program provides for financial assistance in the continuation of graduate and special studies.

We think we can offer a pretty challenging opportunity. Why not ask your school-to-be graduate to give us a call while in town? Gene Lester of our Personnel Department will be most pleased to arrange for an informative and interesting interview. If the holiday-at-home schedule is just too hectic, we'll accept resumes for future contact.

Sorry - No summer jobs available.
