Hicksville Retains 3rd Place in Nassau County

In the heaviest mail-out in its 125 year history, Dun & Bradstreet is sending out 3,000 letter requests for financial statements to commercial businesses in the United States and Canada. These letters are being sent to every business listed in the Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book.

There are a total of 23,914 manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers in Nassau and Suffolk Counties according to statistics released by Charles McCallister, District Manager of the New York Office of Dun & Bradstreet Inc. This total is based on a physical count of the January 1967 edition of the Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book. Mc Callister added that of these, 15,143 are located in Nassau County and 8,771 in Suffolk County.

The Reference Book lists only manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers. It does not include some of the service and professional businesses such as beauty and barber shops and stock and real estate brokers, thus the figures for the businesses in Nassau and Suffolk Counties would actually be higher than the figures noted above.

Using the Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book listings as a guide, it is interesting to review what has happened in the ten principal communities of both Nassau and Suffolk Counties:

NASSAU COUNTY
Standing Jan. 1, 1967	Town	Listed Businesses	Standing Jan. 1, 1966
1.	Farmingdale	788	2
2.	Valley Stream	765	1
3.	Hicksville	682	3
4.	Hempstead	655	4
5.	Freeport	627	5
6.	Great Neck	609	6
7.	Westbury	574	7
8.	New Hyde Park	508	8
9.	Lynbrook	465	10
10.	Mineola	447	9

Farmingdale took over first place, replacing Valley Stream. This change reflects the increasing industrialization of that town and the expansion of its large industrial complexes.

Invite Elderly to Have Claims Checked

Elderly people in Nassau County who have paid doctor bills but have not yet claimed their medicare doctor bill insurance payments are invited to have their claims checked by the Mineola social security office before mailing them to the medicare carrier, according to Daniel H. Newman, Acting District Manager.

"In the first six months of the medicare program some benefit payments were delayed because the applicants did not include all the necessary information with their claims," he said.

Newman believes that most people will need this help only the first time they make a medical insurance claim. "The Medicare Handbook, which is given to all beneficiaries, explains how to make the claims," he said, "and the form is relatively simple, but most people can use some advice the first time they apply. We're glad to offer assistance, and we believe we can help many people to avoid some delay in their payment."

Newman noted that the medicare claim may be made either by the patient or the doctor, if he accepts assignment of the insurance. If the doctor applies for the medicare payment, he bills the patient only for any part of the $50 deductible that still remains to be paid and for 20 percent of the bill over the $50 deductible.

Under the other method of payment the doctor bills the patient, the patient pays the bill, and then the patient sends the completed request for payment form to the medicare carrier. A statement from the doctor showing the treatment given and the charges already paid by the patient must be furnished either on the request for payment form or in a separate receipted bill.

In the Nassau County area, medicare doctor bill insurance is handled by Medicare, United Medical Service, Inc., 2 Park Ave., New York, N.Y. 10016. The same simple one-page request for payment form is mailed to the carrier no matter whether the payment is to go to the patient or to the doctor. Doctors' offices, accustomed to billing out insurance forms, should have no difficulty providing the few items of information requested, Newman noted. But handling of forms directly from medicare beneficiaries is sometimes delayed because some essential item of information has been omitted.

If the beneficiary leaves out his medicare identification number, for example, it is impossible to verify that he is signed up for the doctor bill insurance, or how much of his deductible amount has been paid. Some elderly people with failing eyesight are unable to make legible entries. And some do not get adequately itemized receipts from their physicians, or forget to enclose the receipts with their claims. If the request for payment form is incomplete or improperly filled out, the medicare carrier has to write back to the beneficiary, thus delaying payment.

"The social security office does not make the decision or pay the claim," Newman said. "The law requires that the payments be handled through the selected medicare carriers. But we can answer general questions about medicare and help people in the Nassau County area get their applications ready for review by the carrier." If an older person cannot visit the social security office in person, he can send the forms by mail or by someone else," he said, "but in this case, he should be sure to give his telephone number."

The Mineola District Office is open Monday thru Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and Thursday nights to 8:00 p.m. The Mineola social security office is located at 1505 Kellum Place, Mineola, 11501. The phone number is 747-5470.

Island Economy Set New Hights During Year

Long Island's jet age economy set new highs last year in employment, personal income, business and consumer spending and construction and will continue to advance in 1967, although at a somewhat reduced rate.

This is the finding of Franklin National Bank in its annual review and forecast of the Long Island economy.

The new records on Long Island were mirrored in the Franklin Business Index which rose to an average of 183 (1957 equals 100). This was a sturdy 16 point gain for the year, contrasting with 11 points in 1965 and eight in 1964.

By year end, total nonfarm employment on the island had climbed to an estimated 625,000 workers, an increase of 42,000, or eight percent, over 1965. Spurred by aerospace and aircraft activity, manufacturing employment registered an impressive 13 percent gain to reach 150,000 by year end.

The 1967 outlook is for a six percent gain in nonfarm employment. Paradoxically, one reason given for the slower rate of increase is the low unemployment rate (now less than four percent) with the concomitant shortage of skilled labor.

Long Island consumer income rose eight percent during 1966 to a new high of $9,248 billion. Chief beneficiaries of the ripped up buying power were island department stores whose sales leaped 21 percent. Sales of automobiles, however, dropped 6.5 percent from 1965's level.

Franklin noted that another factor in wider spending was a 24 percent increase in consumer borrowing during the 12-month period ended June 30. Personal loans went up 38 percent and loans to business by Long Island banks increased 12 percent. Although they made more money, borrowed more and spent more, Long Islanders also managed to save more -- 10 percent over year ago levels at mid year.

The outlook for 1967 is that incomes are almost certain to continue their 1966 rise until well into the year at least," Franklin said. Supporting this view are expected wage demands by a number of unions, the tight labor market and overtime pay prevalent in the construction and durable goods industries.

Retail sales should bear up well--despite a nationwide counter trend--in view of the island's increasing population. The bank expects a rise of five to seven percent, a healthy showing even though under last year's increase. One negative factor could be fewer purchases of home and garden equipment if there is an appreciable decline in residential building.

The 1967 construction outlook is somewhat clouded. Greater availability of mortgage funds should help residential construction to achieve a better record than in 1966, although the trend may not take shape until about spring. Nonresidential construction, although continuing at a healthy pace with carryovers, is expected to be lower than in 1966.

The bank also pointed out that the population of Nassau and Suffolk counties increased by 61,575 during 1966 to reach 2,413,850, a 2.7 percent rise. This compares with an increase of 2.8 percent during 1965.

Franklin's annual review and forecast had gone to press when announcement was made that Boeing had been selected to develop the prototype of the supersonic airliner. When the government decides to go ahead this will mean $150,000,000 initially to the Republic Aviation Division of Fairchild Hiller for design of test models. The bank commented that such an expenditure undoubtedly will give added thrust to all phases of the island economy.

Name Chairmen For Heart Sunday

Michael M. D'Auria and Mrs. Edmund A. Ocker have been appointed co-chairmen of the 1967 Nassau County Heart Sunday drive, it is announced by Theodore M. Black, campaign chairman of the annual appeal to raise funds to combat heart and blood vessel diseases.

D'Auria and Mrs. Ocker will direct the activities of 12,000 volunteers who will conduct the county-wide residential appeal of the fund drive during February, known traditionally as "Heart Month" and climaxed on Heart Sunday, which will be held on Feb. 6.

Issuing a call for volunteers to participate in the campaign, D'Auria and Mrs. Ocker invited Nassau residents, who can spare an hour or two, to call PI 1-5522 or write to Nassau Heart Fund headquarters, 114 Seventh Street, Garden City.

"There's nothing like a little soft soap to remove a dirty look."

Operation VFW

William M. Gause, Jr.
Post No. 3211
by Eddie Kleingau

THE VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS, in a recent legislative newsletter, stated that failure of the 89th Congress to pass legislation on a bill that would have upped non-service-connected payments and extended full wartime benefits to men who have served on active duty since August 5, 1964, points up the need for a standing committee on veterans affairs in the Senate. Commander-in-chief Leslie M. Fry is urging all VFW members to contact their senators to urge "quick and favorable" consideration of legislation which will carry out the recommendations of a Congressional Joint Committee that the Senate needs a veterans committee.

VFW LEGISLATIVE GOAL NO. 8: Job Assistance for Veterans. The Veterans of Foreign Wars calls on Congress to provide adequate funds for the Veterans Employment Service to assist veterans, including Vietnam veterans, to obtain employment. The VFW is against the Veterans Employment Service being eliminated or merged into any other service.

THE VETERANS ADMINISTRATION is setting up contact teams who will be going to Vietnam shortly to provide returning servicemen on the spot information and counseling on federal benefits available to them after separation from the service. The first two men are scheduled to be ready and working at an Army embarkation center in Vietnam by January 30. Similar teams will be located at Air Force and Navy embarkation centers.

REPRESENTATIVE OLIN TEAGUE, House Veterans Committee Chairman stated he planned to introduce legislation on opening day of the new Congress that would raise GI bill rates from $100 monthly to $120 monthly for single veterans, from $125 to $155 monthly for those with one dependent, and from $150 to $175 monthly for veterans with two or more dependents. The new proposal would also extend wartime compensation and other benefits to peacetime veterans.

Approximately four million tons of metal, mostly steel, go into the manufacture of cans each year and only about four-tenths of one per cent is tin.

The average per capita consumption of nuts in 1965 was more than one-and-a-half pounds with pecans the most popular, followed by walnuts and almonds.

Canning dates back to 1795 when Nicolas Appert, a Frenchman, discovered that food heated in sealed containers was preserved if the container was not reopened and the seal didn't leak.

Sulfur dioxide, ozone, carbon monoxide, oxides of nitrogen, hydrocarbons, aldehydes, and organic acids are generally the most common and widespread injurious air contaminants affecting plants.

EDUCATION COSTS - Per capita spending for education by state-local government is estimated to grow from $150 in 1965 to $244 in 1975; for highways, same basis from $63 to $76, for welfare, from $33 to $79, according to the Tax Foundation, Inc.

Pageantry in Brass

By the St. Ignatius Girls Cadet Corps

Hi! This week we'd like to tell our story in pictures. These shots were taken at the Christmas party we held for underprivileged children, at Malloy College.

Santa and his helpers were on hand to wish everyone a Merry Christmas and of course to give the presents to each of the starry eyed children.

Janet Smith and Carol Ann Mc Vay look on as the children open the surprises Santa has given them.

Who's too old to have stories read to them. Pat Rogers seems to be reading for the benefit of more than the children on her lap. Wendy Cluf looks quite interested, while Barbara Daly is engrossed in a game of checkers.

Herald Reader Opinion

January 4, 1967
Board of Fire Commissioners
Jericho Fire District
Jericho, New York
Gentlemen:

In the December 29th issue of the Mid-Island Herald and the Jericho News Journal an article appeared under the caption "Nastasi found guilty by Board". Inasmuch as the article contains a statement that the case of Vito Nastasi had been reviewed by the Board and found guilty of the charges preferred against him, is untrue, a retraction was demanded.

I was advised by Mrs. Comisky of the Jericho News Journal that the article was printed in exactly the fashion in which it was received from the Jericho Fire District.

In my opinion, the statements contained in the article are untrue and libelous statements are causing injury and damage to Chief Nastasi and the appropriate action is being contemplated.

The newspapers will apparently not print a retraction unless authorized by you inasmuch as they claim you were the source of the original information. I must therefore insist that you authorize the newspapers to print an article of retraction.

The charges against Chief Vito Nastasi were 5 in number. The decision of the Board of Fire Commissioners, a copy of which is before me, states on page 2 "After reviewing the testimony, the Board concludes that the respondent had no knowledge Mr.

Pointers on buying wood furniture are given in Cornell Extension leaflet 3 titled "When You Buy Wood Furniture." N.Y. State residents may request a single, free copy from Roberts Hall, Box 5, Ithaca, N.Y. 14850.

Palmer was transported from the fire house on the rescue truck." This cleared Chief Nastasi of charge number 1.

The decision contains some discussion of charge number 2, but there is nowhere contained therein a statement to the effect that Chief Nastasi was guilty of such charge. As a matter of fact the language indicates the contrary.

Charge number 3 was withdrawn during the hearing with the consent of the Board.

With respect to charge number 4, a decision indicates an awareness of the respondent's claim that the statements were taken out of context. The language of the decision, although not clear in this respect, nowhere contains a direct statement to the effect that the respondent was guilty of charge number 4.

The decision contains no reference to charge number 5, contains no statement that he was guilty of same and it is my opinion that absence of any specific finding of guilt, the charges are therefore dismissed.

It is my further opinion that the Board in restoring Chief Nastasi to full duty, clearly indicates he was not guilty of any of the charges.

If the proper retraction is not printed in the next issue of the said newspapers, appropriate action will, as I have indicated, be instituted against both the newspapers publishing same and those responsible for giving any misleading information to them.

Yours very truly,
Marvin Schacher

Maybe our '67 Pontiac is breaking sales records because people don't want to wait until '68 for a copy.

Our engineers have become used to seeing their ideas show up on other cars. Two years late. And apparently so have a lot of car buyers. Because 1967 Pontiacs are selling faster than 1966 Pontiacs. And '66 was a record year.

When you think about it, why should you wait around for innovations like our disappearing windshield wipers? Or for imaginative options like our exclusive hood-mounted tach? Especially when you consider that our engineers wouldn't turn a Pontiac loose with anything less than a standard-400 cubic inch V-8. Or a Tempest with anything less than our revolutionary Overhead Cam Six. (Not to mention all those new safety features like GM's energy absorbing steering column and a dual master cylinder brake system with warning lamp.)

In short, our engineers seem to have done it again. They may even start asking for royalties on the copies.

On Triangle Via Albany

By Frances Reder

When the Republicans invite you they do a thorough job. An invitation was received extending the Red Carpet treatment to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Reder. I accepted and represented the Beacons and also the Mid Island Herald.

Upon arriving at the Garden City Hotel Republican Headquarters with C. Tom Ferraro, we boarded buses ready and equipped to take us on our trip to Albany for the opening of the 1967 Legislature Session. A nice repast was served to the press by the very efficient office staff Eleanor Sachil and Doc McLough and Jerry. Don Wininer and Jim Wolfe were in absolute charge.

Upon arriving in Albany we were dropped off at the entrance to the State Capitol and were immediately escorted to the Assembly Floor Chambers which was getting set for this special opening. Speaker Anthony Travia, was on the Rostrom and he called the meeting to order and gave a short speech of welcome and was grateful to be reassigned. He introduced Assembly minority Leader Perry B. Duryea of Montauk, and they both agreed to cooperate and work together as a team.

The doors of the Assembly opened and Lt. Governor Malcolm Wilso, together with Sens. Earl Brydges and Sen. Zaretski and all the Senators were escorted into the center of the floor and seated and T. Gov. Malcolm Wilson took over the Speaker's position and together with Attorney General Louis Lefkowitz, Comptroller Arthur Levitt the Governor was introduced, he appeared and shook hands with all of the forementioned and acknowledged the Senators, Assembly and the audience and proceeded to give his opening Message to the Legislature which included this paragraph in his opening first page.

"In the next fiscal year, increased revenues are anticipated from existing taxes. These increased revenues will make it possible to provide essential services. When coupled with the judicious use of bonds to finance necessary capital investments vital to our future, they will enable us to maintain the momentum of progressive State Leadership during 2967-2968 fiscal year WITHOUT ANY INCREASE IN STATE TAXES. Therefore will not recommend any new or increased taxes."

The governor also outlined his major areas of improvement

- 1 Make our cities more livable
- 2 Assuring Good Transportation
- 3 Controlling Crime and Drug Addiction.
- 4 Protecting the People's Health
- 5 Improving State and Local Government.

The message was received with the utmost respect and applause. We then went to Senator's office and were met with the following:

Presiding Supervisor Ralph Caso, Town Attorney John Cappilli, John Burns, Mary Schum Marvin Bernstein and his Sandy, Sylvia and Murray Goldberg, my former colleague on the School Board; Attorney Max Margules, Pat Lordi, Councilmen George Murphy, Mr. Niehoff, Easa Easa, Harry Grimmer, Anthony Imbarrata of Levittown, also Bud King, Mr. William Garden City Rep. Leader, and two fine Boy Scouts from Troop #435 Hicksville, Joseph Blanca and Bryon Mc Caffrey.

We then proceeded to the Nassau County Republican Party at the Ten Eyck Hotel where more than 500 Nassau guests were again greeted by the Republican Leader of Nassau County - Edward Speno and Governor Rockefeller, Malcolm Wilson, Atty. General Louie Lefkowitz, Sen.

Earl Brydges, Joseph Margiotta John Dunne, Kingston of Westbury, Councilman Ralph Marino, Mr. Cammerer our first lady of the Republican Party Audrey Speno, former Speaker Joseph Carlino of Long Beach, my good friend and delegate to the Constitutional Convention Lillian Heidelberger of Garden City. We then went to dinner at the famous Jack's Restaurant on State Street and finally boarded our bus at 9:30 P.M. for home. I failed to mention that our dinner was with the most charming couple Essye and Leonard Ross, Attorneys of Hempstead and East Meadow, Roger Allan, P.R. Newspaper Man, Lillian Heidelberger, C. Tom Ferraro and yours truly. See you next week.
