Offer Inspection Of Elm Trees

Public Works Commissioner Herbert J. Simins reminded all Nassau property owners that the County offers free inspection of elm trees for the purpose of discovering Dutch Elm Disease. Anyone detecting apparent signs of the disease may have a free inspection by calling the County's full time expert, Horticultural Inspector Joseph Meaney, at IV-9-9500. While the County cannot spray or cut down trees on privately owned property, Meaney's advice can result in the saving of a tree.

Two Contests For Jericho Board

There are two contests for seats on the Jericho Board of Education in the annual school elections next week. Arthur Carlin, whose term expires, is not seeking re-election.

Ben Lang and Seymour Licht have filed for the Carlin three-year position.

Howard Jankowitz is a candidate for re-election for a three-year term, opposed by Edward H. Anderson.

Hy York is apparently unopposed to succeed himself as a trustee of the Public Library.

Voting upon trustees and the budgets will take place on Wednesday, May 3, at the Jericho High School on Cedar Swamp Rd. The annual meeting of the district will take place on Tuesday, May 2, at 8 PM in the high school.

Vamps Prepare For Centennial

Hicksville Volunteer Firemen are preparing to celebrate the centennial of volunteer firefighting service in Hicksville during 1968.

The coming year will note the 100th anniversary of the incorporation of Hook and Ladder Co. No. 1. It also marks the 75th anniversary of the formation of Hicksville Fire Dept. when the various independent volunteer companies grouped together as a department.

A committee representing the units of the fire department which today numbers seven companies is meeting periodically to plan special events for the centennial.

Quiet Election Effort Concludes on Wednesday

One of the quietest elections for Hicksville School Board trustees in recent years will conclude with the voting on Wednesday, May 3. George A. Jackson, concluding his second three-year term on the Board, is unopposed for re-election.

Caleb Hornbostel is not a candidate for re-election to a three-year term. Candidates are Joan Martindale and Thomas Nagle. Abraham Tishman is apparently unopposed for election to a five-year term as library trustee.

Voting takes place for about 6,000 registered voters at seven elementary schools on Wednesday, May 3, from 11 A.M. to 10 P.M. Results will be tallied in the Senior High School Cafeteria at 11 P.M. on May 3.

Girl Scouts Visit Seat of Government

Girl Scouts from Junior troop #595, and Cadette troops #553 and #556, were invited to the Town Hall in Oyster Bay on Mar. 20. They were escorted through the various offices—where each particular function was carefully explained: Tax Office; Building Dept.; Printing Shop; Town Attorney; License Bureau, etc.

They were shown some very old and rare documents, describing the first actual purchase of land in the Town of Oyster Bay and were given replicas of these documents. The culmination of the tour was their actual attendance at a Town Board meeting.

The girls were welcomed by Councilman A. Carl Grunewald, from Hicksville—who presented each girl with a miniature flag of the Town of Oyster Bay. Town Supervisor Michael Pettito spoke to the girls after the meeting and answered any questions concerning the purpose of hearings before the Town Board and the manner in which the Board handles such matters.

Urge Approval Of School Budget

The Hicksville Administrator's Assn., representing the principals and assistant principals of Hicksville's Public Schools, urges the public to vote in favor of the district's proposed School Budget.

"We, who have helped prepare this budget, realize that an increased tax rate often causes controversy. We realize too that a taxpayer, facing other revenue increases he cannot vote upon, is often tempted to turn down necessary additional taxes when given the choice. We implore the voter not to make the school budget a sacrificial goat," says President John P. Maher.

"The Budget as presented by your school board is a realistic appraisal of the basic educational needs of the children of Hicksville."

"Vote YES on May 3rd."

William M. Gouse, Jr.
Post No. 3211
by E-Jd - K's bin

At a recent meeting, while discussing Loyalty Day, a member remarked that many people did not know what the day stood for. More and more each year we hear about Loyalty Day. What is it? How did it start?

For many years May 1 was the day the communists staged their biggest demonstrations against the United States and democracy. The publicity given to these May Day celebrations was enough to turn the stomach of every loyal American.

Angered by the exhibitions of anti-Americanism the war veterans of our great country declared in strong language, "Let's end this smelly show. Let's push these characters into the background. Let's run up the Stars and Stripes and demonstrate some solid two-listed Americanism."

This prompted the Veterans of Foreign Wars to go to work immediately and revitalize such emotions as patriotism, loyalty and pride of country through Loyalty Day demonstrations. These demonstrations attracted attention all over the country. It wasn't long before the government took notice, stepped into the picture and passed a law proclaiming officially that May 1 of each year be observed as Loyalty Day.

Under the leadership of the Veterans of Foreign Wars the observance of Loyalty Day has reached into practically every home. Our stirring programs and the ever increasing support of the news media gain in popularity every year. Loyalty Day has become a vital part of patriotic program planning by educators, by churchmen and the leaders of organizations representing youth and the men and women of this country. They're with us in our continuing drive to accent the American way of life. While we have pushed the communists to the sidelines to keep him there we dare not sit back with over-confidence and an air of apathy.

This week-end there will be parades and flag ceremonies, public meetings, prominent speakers and many other activities in all states of the Union showing Americanism in Action. On Sunday April 30, members of the William M. Gouse Jr. Post and its Auxiliary will join other organizations and participate in the Loyalty Day parade in Farmingdale. The parade is scheduled to step-off at 2:30 P.M.

We invite you to join us in this display of patriotism and at the same time reaffirm publicly your loyalty to the United States of America.

Editorial Comment

Jackson and Nagle

There is a strong sentiment in Hicksville School District which indicates a negative vote on the school district budget next Wednesday. As we have noted before, we believe that this is a futile effort at economy. The real point of beginning is with the election of trustees truly concerned with the expenditure of your tax dollar.

In our opinion, Hicksville is most fortunate to have a man of the stature of George A. Jackson seeking re-election to the School Board for his third three-year term. The fact that he is unopposed for re-election is almost astonishing in present history.

He well deserves re-election. We note with regret that we opposed his first bid for election because of his TEACH auspices. We also note that he has not been sponsored by TEACH this year, but that he has also not been opposed by the same organization.

Being unopposed he could be the victim of a write-in vote effort. We therefore urge those who support him to be sure to pull down lever 1A and leave it down on Wednesday, May 3.

The other vacancy on the Board is that created by the expiration of the term of Caleb Hornbostel whom we also opposed in the first place because of his TEACH backing. Mr. Hornbostel, a fine man, is a busy professional and has decided he will not seek another term. This, in our opinion, is the School District's loss. We have an unverified suspicion that TEACH decided it would not go further with him (naming Joan Martindale) and thus decided he was too independent.

There are two candidates for the Hornbostel position. Mrs. Martindale has filed and so has Tom Nagle. We feel it would be a serious error on the part of the voters to elect Mrs. Martindale. She is frankly the TEACH-beholding candidate; is in fact vice president of the organization. TEACH after all these years has achieved a majority role on the Board and her election would just shorten the odds for so-called independent thought.

We are frankly disturbed that all candidates for the Board (except Mr. Jackson) seem to come from the Levitt section of Hicksville. Cornelius McCormack and Harry Kershner live on the same block. Tom Nagle on Blueberry Lane is only around the corner. Mrs. Martindale is on Brittle Lane, a few blocks away, and Mrs. Silveron Rover Lane is also in the Levitt Section.

In any event, given a choice between Mrs. Martindale and Mr. Nagle, we suggest that in the interest of a balanced level of decision on the Board of Education that you pull down lever 3B from Tom Nagle and leave it down.

As was previously pointed out here, a vote against the budget will not result in any substantial or worthwhile economies. We urge your vote FOR the school district budget as presented in Hicksville, Plainview-Old Bethpage, Bethpage and Jericho. You'll pay the same tax bill in the end.

School Elections Are Next Week

SCHOOL ELECTIONS ARE NEXT WEEK. You can help select the best qualified board members by comparing them with this board candidate check list.

1. Has the candidate an unselfish interest in the public schools, the community, and in every child?
2. Has the candidate arrived at a position of recognized leadership in the community?
3. Is the candidate seeking the position only as an opportunity for service to the community?
4. Is the candidate a leader in his own occupation or community group?
5. Is the candidate a known quantity in the community?
6. Is the candidate able to think independently and objectively about a problem?
7. Will the candidate accede cheerfully to the decisions of the majority?
8. Has the candidate a record of the kind of leadership that will represent the district as a whole rather than a record identifying him with a particular group, cause, or geographical area?
9. Will the candidate work to maintain unity among the members of the board, contributing to harmonious development of the program?
10. Will the candidate give the necessary time to this important position?
11. Is the candidate capable of recognizing and distinguishing between the policy-making functions of the board and administration?

12. Does the candidate know the political boundary and physical geography of the school district?
13. Does the candidate have the courage and ability to explain and enforce a rule which might not be popular but which is proper?
14. Does the candidate understand that leadership often involves the turning of public opinion from an erroneous attitude to the acceptance of a feasible rule?
15. Is the candidate aware of the cross currents of thinking pertaining to the basic concepts of public education and will he remain loyal to his trust under stress?
16. Does the candidate have a layman's relationship to public education?
17. Does the candidate make a habit of withholding judgment on critical issues until the facts are available?
18. Is the candidate able to carry on cheerfully when public appreciation of his efforts seem to be lacking?
19. Does the candidate have a sense of humor?
20. Does the candidate show evidence of knowledge of moral and spiritual values?

The ideal candidate, of course, would rate "yes" on all items of the check list. We leave to you what the passing grade should be in your community.—From New York State School Boards Assn., Inc.

Herald Reader Opinion

Practice in Park

To The Editor:

There is a group of "Citizens" residing on Kuhl Ave., who have demanded of the Commissioner at Cantiague Park, that The St. Ignace Girls' Cadet Corps no longer practice at the Park. The Park was constructed by the people of Nassau County and these girls and their families reside in Nassau County. It is open to all, Little League, Industrial Baseball Leagues, Football games and anyone else wishing to use the facilities available.

As well as playing at many County functions including the opening of Cantiague Park, The Corps has represented all the people of Hicksville up and down the east coast. Wherever they have gone they have always been well received.

Therefore to the protesting "citizens" I present the following thoughts:

Youth is wonderful; it's a time to learn, a time to discover and a time to teach. It has potential energy to spare. This energy is good, and yet we must have an outlet of some kind.

This energy can go one of two ways - for good or for evil, and the choice belongs to the individual. Yet the responsibility of presenting the choice lies with the adult. Youth has intelligence; it must be guided with intelligence and thought and most of all it must have example to follow. All of us, adults and youth alike, learn from what we see.

I've heard many adults complain violently about the younger generation—"It has no direction" is a frequent cry. Yet I ask you have you given this direction or do you sit in complacency and say, "Don't bother me." Don't make noise in my back yard."

If youth is seen on a street corner it hears complaints—if it sees the energy into a constructive goal it also hears complaints—Petitions are signed to stop the activity.

May I ask where is youth to go? Dope, drunken driving and many other things are attributed to the youth of today. True some youth are guilty; but also true some adults have shown them the way by their example or their "Do what you want but don't bother me" attitude.

Teenagers are people working at a job harder than can be imagined. The task of becoming an adult, an adult who contributes to society. But sadly they can find little of its ideals and principles followed in reality. There is always someone to shatter the image and put up a road block.

As mature adults it is time the need for understanding and support was recognized. It is time to note that the future of our town, our state, our country and our world lie in our youth. Be it Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, PBC, Drum Corps or just a group of young adults at a discussion, they need us but most of all we need them to carry out our ideals.

WAKE UP! WORK WITH THEM
*NOT AGAINST THEM!!!

Lack of Communication

To The Editor:

As you know, I am a candidate for the Hornbostel seat on the Hicksville Board of Education. I would like to take this opportunity to say something I feel is very important to the voters.

Over the past several years I have been actively involved with many different community associations. During the past few weeks I have been speaking with many small neighborhood groups. I believe that I have firsthand knowledge of the concerns and desires of parents and taxpayers in this school district. If elected I would represent the interests of all of them, not just a small segment of the community.

Lack of communication between home and school bothers me. How does a parent know of changes in education law that affect school services, as well as the content and make-up of a school budget? How does a parent make known his ideas on education, be they constructive suggestions or criticisms? Communication is a two-way street. If elected I intend to make myself available to you, the public, by setting aside certain hours each week when I would welcome your calls of inquiry or suggestion.

I'm asking not only for your vote, but for your continued interest in the school system that educates your children and mine.

The HERALD seldom comments directly upon letters from readers but reserves the right to comment upon any material it publishes. The following document from Diane Parker, leader of TEACH, in no way expresses the views of this newspaper on any subject. We totally disagree with her commentary offered as fact. We will match our record of representation at Board meetings over the past ten years with anyone, including Board members and Administrators. We do not seek to provide a detailed report of all actions of the Trustees; we'll leave that to the official records in minutes and tape recordings. We do seek to present the news as it concerns our readers. While this letter, because of its size, was received too late for normal consideration, it is printed to keep intact our record of having published everything submitted by TEACH during the year.—Editor.

DEFENDS BLOC VOTING

An Open Letter:

A very important question has been raised in this year's school trustee election: What kind of candidate should be elected to the school board? Unfortunately, the question is not raised as bluntly as I have just stated it. Rather, it is being presented in the form of innuendo and with a total lack of facts to substantiate the insidious implications.

It is clear from our local papers that the attack is aimed directly at TEACH and/or the Board of Education. By the use of such phrases as "vocal few", "bloc voting", "independent" candidate, and "doers", the

The membership of the Hicksville YAF has grown steadily for the past four months, since its founding in December. However, new members are always welcome. Join the Hicksville Young Americans for Freedom. For information, call Richard Zahora at WE 5 - 0204.

Mercy League Election in May

Glen Cove Hicksville League of Mercy Hospital met at the Brookville Country Club for a supper meeting on April 6th. President Mrs. Daniel McGrath presided.

Mrs. Roland Crowe, Nominating Committee Chairman, read the slate of officers for the coming year namely Mrs. Robert Morris, for President; Mrs. Robert Spielman, Vice-President; Mrs. George Casey, Treasurer; Mrs. Frank Sheridan, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. Austin Riddle, Financial Secretary, and Mrs. Gaitana Taibbe, Recording Secretary. Election of officers will take place at the May meeting and installation in June.

Mrs. McGrath and her officers and standing chairmen climaxed their major affair on April 15th with a Luncheon Fashion Show at the graciously lovely Huntington Town House. The affair was a tremendous success which is always good news since it does benefit Mercy Hospital. Mrs. Francis Jakobiak and Mrs. James McGuirk chaired the affair.

The beautiful fashions from Buckner's of Mid Island, were modeled regally by the members and their daughters. Outfits from those worn casually in the early part of the day and a little more dressy for later in the day were climaxed with exquisite costumes for evening with a complete Bridal Party. Models were Mrs. James McGuirk, Mrs. James Bell, Mrs. F. Corsentino, Mrs. Sis Wesnofske, Mrs. Francis Jakobiak, Miss Claudia Burke, Miss Beverly Braun, Mrs. Vincent Braun, the mother of the Bride, Miss Andrea Braun, Miss Pat Morris, Maid of Honor, Miss Suzanne Morris, Bridesmaid and "tiny" Miss Windi, Flower girl. Fashion Commentator was Mrs. Helene Windt and at the Piano was Mrs. J. Branca.

It was indeed a very lovely affair enjoyed by all present. The next meeting will be a supper meeting at the Brookville Country Club on Tuesday, May 2nd.

Reader Opinions:

writers of these articles seek to "inform" the people of Hicksville that the democratic traditions of majority rule and free, independent judgement on the part of elected officials are being trampled in the administration of school district affairs. Were this true, this would be a most serious charge. However, it is precisely the forces now making the charge against TEACH and/or the Board of Education that are trampling democratic processes by their campaign of propaganda and distortion.

The question of bloc voting was raised in the Herald (2/3/67) and I responded in a letter to the editor (2/6/67) that the issue is still being utilized only to prove that facts can never convince people who do not seek the truth. There is another aspect of the matter to consider now. By continuing to discuss school board decisions in terms of bloc voting and minority actions rather than in a discussion of issues and one's agreement and/or disagreement with the positions taken by the Board, the espousers of the minority rule line are really saying they do not like rule by the majority as a technique for decision-making. But how else can decisions be made? Do these people prefer dictatorial proclamation?

Again, if there is such strong opposition to actions by the Board, the meetings and decisions are public and with more ample time for public participation at meetings than had been extended to taxpayers by previous Boards. Where are all these dissenters and where is their faith in public discussion of issues? What specific decisions do they oppose and why?

The duty of the School Board is to insure the education of our children; it is not their duty to make the taxpayers, teachers TEACH or Great Aunt Millie happy. Any Board must and has operated on the basis of majority vote. Criticism of any aspect of school board decisions must be on the basis of the issues, not on any numbers game.

Who is qualified to run for the Board? TEACH supports the qualifications expressed by the Hicksville Council of PTAs in two releases. In May 1965, the Hicksville Council in its investment in Youth flyer stated: "...above all, every school board member should be a person who holds universal public education in the highest esteem..." In May 1966 the Council News stated that a school board trustee should "...represent the community as a whole and not only one political, social, religious, economic or regional area." TEACH - endorsed candidates have come from 6 of our 7 elementary school areas, have represented the valuable pluralism of our community's religious institutions, and have represented a variety of business and professional occupations. We also believe women have a right to be on school boards.

In addition to the above, TEACH believes that a candidate must have a knowledge and experience in school district affairs and a proven willingness to work hard for one's beliefs. We in TEACH deeply believe that Mrs. Martindale more than adequately fulfills all the qualifications discussed here.

With regard to TEACH as an organization, the implication of minority action has truth only if the group deliberately shuts out public participation. The opposite has always been the rule with TEACH. For in seeking to inform ourselves on school affairs, we feel it an obligation to share our efforts with the community. Two years ago, in the Senior High, a panel discussion on vocational education was held by TEACH with local experts in the field including one of our staff. Attendance at the meeting reflected the unhappily typical response of most communities: apathy toward the needs of our school district and not any reluctance on the part of TEACH to put its ideas and officers up to public scrutiny. Prior to this, TEACH sponsored a panel on the role of the lay citizen in school affairs. Among the panelists, Mr. Donald Abt, supt. of Schools. The meeting was packed with teachers. But where was the concerned public? Just this year, TEACH held a meeting in the public library which saw the entire Board of Education present to discuss any topic one wished to discuss. Where were the disgruntled and the dissenters then? Also meeting was Mrs. Martindale's opponent nor were the writers of the articles of libel now suddenly appearing at election time. Their desire to operate in the shadows and behind cliches during an election, the cornerstone of our democracy, makes a mockery of our democratic processes.

THE TEACH NEWSLETTER still is the only regularly written source of information on school affairs in any meaningful depth. Besides presenting our ideas, it lists our officers and includes a membership blank. TEACH is an organization open to any Dist. #17 taxpayer for the nominal fee of $2.

Irresponsible attacks creeping out of the woodwork at election time is not the TEACH way. TEACH believes in and has sought public participation by taxpayers in school affairs. Yes, TEACH is a group of "doers", ready, willing and able to work all year long with any one desiring better education for their children.

TEACH supports candidates who are independent thinkers with ideas on education and who can bring to the Board constructive leadership. TEACH does not support candidates who are "independent" because they are empty of ideas and destructive in their approach to school issues. TEACH believes in public discussion of our district matters. Mrs. Martindale's announcement of candidacy and her platform were released prior to the beginning of registration. She is now meeting for informal discussion all over the district. I earnestly urge the people of Hicksville to examine TEACH as an action organization with ideas it has shared with the public. I urge them to examine the record and platform of Mrs. Martindale. We believe most strongly that she is the best qualified candidate by virtue of her knowledge our district and her long years of experience in various community organizations.

There were many songs and dances performed by the various groups, demonstrating an understanding of cultures other than American. This was a rewarding experience for the girls, and an inspiring one for the hundreds of spectators attending. All proceeds from the Fair will once again go to the Juliette Low Fund.

The Cradle of Aviation

By John Magill

The fact that Charles Lindbergh made the first New York to Paris flight 40 years ago in May is of course well-known history which will be noted next month with a special Hofstra-sponsored program. Almost everyone on Long Island knows the flight originated at old Roosevelt Field and thus Nassau County has claimed, but seldom uses, the slogan of "Cradle of Aviation".

Less well remembered is the May 25, 1937 first flight by Pan American Airways' Bermuda Clipper from the waters of Manhasset Bay on Nassau's north shore 773 miles out over the Atlantic to Bermuda. That first flight just 30 years ago was to familiarize flight personnel with all physical conditions on the courses. Before the summer was gone regular scheduled flights were being made back and forth between the Port Washington base and Bermuda. By November, Pan Am officials reported a total of 1,064 passengers travelled in the flying boats.

It was quite by accident that Nassau figured in the first regular trans-Atlantic passenger service to Bermuda. In 1933 Pan American Airways bought a five-acre waterfront plot at Port Washington where the American Aeronautical Corp. during the boom days (remember '29?) prepared to turn out a large number of Italian Savoia-Marchetti airplanes with which to run America's airlines. The company got as far as one hanger, the steel construction on another and a ramp into the water for sport-size airplanes when the depression came along.

Pan Am bought the plot because of its location in the vicinity of New York City. For the next few years it was used for the storage of private-flying seaplanes. When the company prepared to start flights from the United States of Bermuda, it was found that New York City authorities were still debating the question of whether or not they would have a trans-Atlantic airframe. And so an operating plant was established at Port Washington. Radio communications were set up, shop facilities were added and the ramp was strengthened. Later a new ramp was built to take care of not only Pan Am but British, German and French planes which were winging the Atlantic in survey flights.

The hanger was completed and was said to be the world's largest airplane hanger of its day.

The 42,000 pound flying Clippers carrying its passengers and a crew of five at 163 cruising miles an hour. The hop to Bermuda took five hours and during spring and summer when flights left Port Washington the terminal became the port of entry for many notables, frequently awaited by reporters and photographers. During winter and inclement weather the flights were winged out of Baltimore.

The contrast between those Bermuda Clipper operations and today's world-circulating jets highlights the progress of aviation in a relatively short span of time.
