Memorial Parade Goes Rain or Shine

More than 3500 adults and children are expected to march in a four division parade to mark Memorial Day on Tuesday, May 30, in Hicksville. The parade will go "rain or shine" according to chairman Louis Klein, past commander of the Wm. M. Gouse Jr. VFW Post.

The route will be the same as last year. Starting promptly at 9:30 AM from Mid Island Plaza behind Grand Marshal Alex Kriegal II will move south on Broadway to Old Country Rd., west to Jerusalem Ave., south to Fourth St. and east to the Junior High School athletic field where exercises will take place. Spanish American War Veteran Skipper Dow will be at the head of the parade.

First Commander Nate Hefland of the Jewish War Veterans will announce the names of marching units as they approach a reviewing stand between Nicholas and Cherry Sts. on Broadway, opposite St. Ignace Loyola Catholic Church.

Veteran organizations and their auxiliaries will hold pre-Memorial Day ceremonies at Plain Lawn Cemetery on Old Country Rd. on Sunday, May 28, at 10 AM.

The Memorial Day committee this year includes: Louis Klein, chairman; Arthur Hirsh, American Legion; Alex Kriegal, Charles Kittenplan and Nate Hefland, Jewish War Veterans; Jim Suriliss, Amvets; Frank Blesi, William Frohnhoefer, Edward Klobing, Michael Zinack, VFW; Anthony Policastro and Pat Casella, First Marine Division Assn.

LILCO Receptive

The L.I. Lighting Co. is "receptive" to the proposal to put feeder cables underground along Broadway, Hicksville, but problems "involving individual owners would have to be resolved". It was reported to the Chamber of Commerce Directors this week by Executive Director Stanley F. Turner.

He plans to have LILCO representative at the June 6 Chamber meeting to explain what the company can do on its part to "improve this area of Hicksville".

WALTER LITLER is pointed out by Hicksville service club representatives at Broadway and Nicholas St. in Joseph Branca, center, of the Town of Oyster Bay Sanitation Dept. in preparation for Operation Clean Sweep which starts this Saturday, May 27, at 8 AM in the vicinity of JFK park-Mall. From the left are Dr. Walter Dunbar, Chairman Kingsley Kelly, Branca, Kiwanis President Henry C. Brengel and Frank Chlumsky. (Lions President Pierre Charbonnet was behind the camera this time.)

Challenge Superintendent's Staff Recommendations

Hicksville Superintendent of Schools Donald F. Abt who weathered a critical attack by super conservative forces a couple of years ago this week found himself under sharp attack in his selection and recommendation of supervisory and other personnel by community elements representing an opposing viewpoint. An appointment has been arranged for Board members to meet at the office of the State Commissioner of Education in Albany, Monday night.

Four of the seven-member Board voted, Monday night, to have future recommendations for supervisory positions in the district subject to review of educational consultants to be employed by the district (at an estimated $100 to $200 a day). The motion was adopted following a statement by Evelyn Silver who expressed a "lack of confidence" in Abt. Her comment was described by Vice President Cornelius McCormack as "near illogical".

Voting for the motion to employ educational consultants "to evaluate and recommend candidates for all future supervisory and administrative positions" were Mrs. Silver, Marvin Goldberg, Harry Kershen and Harold Sternberger. Opposed were President George A. Jackson, McCormack and Caleb Hornbostel.

The Board by a 4 to 3 vote had rejected at a previous meeting the appointment recommended by Abt that James Curran be made social studies supervisor.

Kathleen Janca, who is president-elect of the PTA Council on Monday night presented a petition with 750 names urging the appointment of Curran. No action was taken. Board members have been deluged with correspondence supporting the appointment of Curran.

The Taxpayer's Educational Assn. for the Children of Hicksville (TEACH) distributed circulars at the Administration Bldg. entrance, Monday night, expressing concern "over the interference by pressure groups under the leadership of the PTA Council president with the legal and moral duties of the Board of Education. . . The Board of Education does not and should not make appointments by community vote; educational appointments must not become popularity contests. The decisions made by the Board of Education regarding personnel are based upon the evaluation of confidential and personal information and are arrived at through established legal procedures."

When a number of tenure recommendations from Abt came before the Board, last Monday night, an executive session was called at 8:32 PM. The session resumed at 9:35 P.M. Sternberger returned to the Board meeting room before the executive session ended and announced, when the meeting resumed, that he had "semi-boycotted the meeting" and would not attend future executive sessions "that require a polling of the Board."

Abt noted that many recent "meetings" were not open to the public and charged that the "Board does not have the gumption to vote its powers at the Board table."

The Board voted 5 to 2 in favor of granting Chester Jaworski tenure as an assistant high school principal. Opposed were Mrs. Silver and Kershen. A motion to table the Jaworski tenure, as recommended by Abt, lost by the same vote.

In other action, Monday night, the Board voted to restore $6,300 to the proposed budget to be voted upon on June 21 for the operation of remedial summer school sessions at Burns Ave. and Woodland Ave. In addition to Lee Ave. School which has been utilized in other years. The vote was four to three with Jackson, Hornbostel and McCormack opposed.

The Board went on record, unanimously, in support of a proposal by the Farmingdale School Board, that the Governor be requested to call a special session of the state legislature to increase the amount of State Aid paid to local districts.

In a separate development, the Hicksville Federation of Teachers announced thru its president, William Dean, its opposition to the proposal to establish an eight-period day in the Junior and Senior High Schools next fall. The HFT claims the eight-period day will cost the taxpayers $150,000 above the current program.

INVITED TO SERVE by Richard L. Evans, president of Rotary International, as sergeant-at-arms at the Rotary International Convention being held in Nice, France, Hicksville Rotarian Edward L. Teverini and Mrs. Teverini board the plane at JFK airport on May 19 for France. While abroad, Mrs. and Mrs. Teverini will tour in France, Monaco, Portugal, Scotland and England. Mr. Teverini has served at previous International conventions in this country, Canada and Japan. (Photo by Frank D. Mallen)

Cut the Budget Rally June 16

William A. Bruno Jr., a former member of the school board, has invited all interested to attend a "cut the budget" rally at the Senior High School on Friday night, June 16, at 8:30 p.m. Declaring there is "no need to have austerity" Bruno raises the questions: "do you want to cut the budget? Can we save $1,000,000?" He promises to reveal "the items the TEACH controlled Board refuses to discuss." Use of the school was requested by the Hicksville Chapter of Freedom in Education.

Editorial Opinion:

What About the Birds?

When highways and streets are widened, humans and their pets, if they are displaced, manage to find new places to locate, either locally or elsewhere. But what of the wild life? A reader wonders, and we must agree, what happens to the birds who nested in the hundreds of stately trees that have been or are being felled down?

County Executive Eugene Nickerson this week said he was disappointed in the lack of progress in efforts to make the county "greener". We think he and his associates should consider how much of Hicksville is being turned from green into concrete gray and asphalt black.

The path for the widening of Newbridge Rd has been known for some 30 or more years. A straight line of trees on the west side of the old road is being ruthlessly chopped down. Why could not some "greenery-minded" engineer devise a plan to leave that line of trees and split the new, wider highway on each side. Why must a fellow handy with a pencil and straight edge be able to destroy in days what has taken nature a generation or more to grow?

As for the birds, we can suggest the erection of feeder boxes, bird shelters, etc and make them feel welcome even if the civil authorities fail to see the political value in keeping our feathered friends with us.

In Support of Boys in Vietnam

We left the post at eleven A.M.
It was eight p.m. when we returned again.

We took our place, as we were expected to.
Then started to move a foot or two.

The waiting made us feel so blue,
But for our boys we saw it through.

We finally got to the starting gate.
Alas! we were told we had to wait.

I felt so proud to be allowed to march down Fifth Avenue.
To prove once again to our fighting men that we are thinking of you.

For in South Vietnam, so far away are the boys we know so well.
They come from right next door to us and down the street as well.

Draft card and flag burners too, should all be brought to bear.
For they give the commies lots of reason to think we no longer care.

Now they must learn we love our flag.
We will not let them treat it like a rag.

Down through the years brave men fought and died.
To keep our Country free and the symbol of freedom alive.

Though trying times we live in now, some times are hard to bear,
I try to think it will turn out right and pray for my son over there.

BILL COMBE

Anti-Litter Effort Below Expectations

County Executive Eugene Nickerson wants to see a cleaner, greener Nassau this year. "There is no guarantee that litter and blight will not increase here unless the public takes more aggressive steps to preserve and enhance the beauty of our community," he said. Commenting on the first anniversary of Nassau's anti-litter crusade, Nickerson says he is not satisfied with the progress made so far. While praising citizens and interested groups for cooperating with the office of Mobilization for Democracy (OMD) - which heads up the effort - Nickerson said more volunteer effort is definitely needed.

According to OMD head Matthew J. Cronin, some 300 civic organizations and private citizens are aiding the county's clean-up crusade. When complaints about litter are received by OMD, they are turned over to public-spirited groups which then urge the responsible parties to take corrective action. Cronin says that, in the first year, 265 complaints were filed, of which 165 have been remedied. Most of the remaining unimproved sites are in various stages of work. Citizens with litter complaints are urged to call PI-2-2401.

In addition, Cronin notes 174 county gas station operators have signed pledges to keep their premises tidy. The OMD head says he will ask businessmen in shopping centers to make a concerted effort to do a better job.

Reader Opinions

Superintendent Indifferent?

To the Editor:

Do Americans -- like those in Hicksville, for instance -- believe in excellence? Apparently not, judging from the kind of mediocrities to whom they entrust their children's education. Does a community ever arouse itself over bad teachers and inept administrators? Maybe, in some place we have never heard of. Does Hicksville feel any need to improve its school system? There is no evidence at all -- to judge from the opprobrium heaped upon those few school board members who have had the vision and courage to protest the superintendent's indifference to the quality of his appointments and the calibre of his own conduct.

There are not many bad men in education but there are very many dull ones, mediocre ones, inept ones, men who take strong stands only against long hair and dirty fingernails, men who maintain the effective camouflage of immobility by keeping inviolate the first commandment of their profession: Thou shalt not rock the boat. Such nonentities hold most of the superintendencies, the principalships, and the supervisory positions in most of the schools all over the land. It is a rare community which seizes upon the hope of building a school system alive with good minds and great ideas. It is too much to expect Hicksville to try to rise above its neighbors. Those school board members who dream of something better for their town are wrong to think that the public will support them -- but I salute their courage. Some causes are brave enough to fight for even when they are lost in advance.

Asking Increase In Tuition Fees

Nassau Community College announces that its Board of Trustees has recommended to the County Executive and the Board of Supervisors a tuition increase which, among the college's full-time students, will affect only those in higher income families.

If enacted, the proposed increase, amounting to $50 a semester, will bring the full-time student's semi-annual tuition bill to $200. However, because the change will place the community college student in a higher State Scholarship incentive award category, the additional $50 will, in most cases, be paid by the State through a larger incentive award to the individual student.

The reasons for the increase, it was said, are general increased costs of operation since 1960, acquisition of a permanent campus, more and better paid faculty, and the introduction of new curricula, which called for the purchase of expensive, scientific, engineering, and data-processing equipment.

MEMBERS TAKE NOTE: Next Tuesday is Memorial Day. This year the Veterans of Foreign Wars is the "host post" to all Memorial Day activities. SUPPORT YOUR POST by joining your fellow members in the parade and services being held in honor of those who made the greatest sacrifice any person could. We owe it to them. Your participation in the planned activities will also show your support for the boys in Vietnam. Help us have the largest number of supporters. Go V.F.W. on Memorial Day.

How low can a person get? Very low according to a recent article published in a New Hampshire newspaper. The story has aroused the wrath of all those who read it. Over a column was devoted to telling how a marine stationed in Vietnam opened a package addressed "To a Marine in Vietnam" which was sent anonymously as a gift package. The marine found it contained a can of dog food and a note which read, "Eat hearty, animal." Traditionally packages have always built up the morale of our men overseas—but now the "sicknik" has found diabolical use for this morale builder. There have been other incidents to harass our boys in Vietnam, only with less subtle notes.

This is all the more reason we should support our young men in Vietnam. We should write him more and send articles to show that with the exception of some perverts all America backs them up.

ARMY TIMES SERVICE CENTER has published a report to assist survivors to get all available benefits following the death of a service member. Since some of the benefits might be overlooked or even forfeited if not applied for within a specified time, the report will be an invaluable aid to the military widow.

It covers not only in-service items of special interest to military survivors, but also contains among other subjects details about GI insurance, VA benefits, social security payments, tax relief and government sponsored education for children. The report also has recommendations about wills, auto insurance, charge accounts and related topics. For a free copy write to: The Army Times Service Center, Dept. SC, 2201 M Street, NW, Washington, D. C. 20037. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope 4 1/2" by 9 1/2" and ask for REPORT 132.

A REMINDER This Sunday, May 28, local veterans organizations and their auxiliaries will hold their annual Pre-Memorial Day services at the Plainlawn Cemetery on Old Country Road at 10 a.m. The units will assemble at 9:30 a.m. After the services the Post will go to Westbury to decorate the grave of our namesake, William M. Gouse, Jr.

I walked the streets of New York town

I saw the Specter with the Shroud
And brave men as they cried.

They cried not just from loneliness
Nor pain of shot and shell,
Their cries of anger and disgust
Were aimed at fools as well.

Where are the good old patriots
That rallied round the flag,
They faded into oblivion
While Commies march and brag.

Perhaps they are not commies

But weakness in their head,
Lead them to carry slogans such

Adopt Law About Budget

The Town Board of Hicksville, N.Y., adopted a new local law requiring the Supervisor to present his preliminary budget to the Town Board not later than Sept. 15.

The major point in the new local law requires that Supervisor Michael Petito present his budget to the Town Board not later than Sept. 15.

Town Board Majority Leader Edward J. Paulus said this would prevent a "duplication of last year's fiscal fiasco when the Supervisor presented a multi-million-dollar budget containing serious fiscal errors just a few hours before the deadline for adoption of the document. The new local law also provides for a public hearing to be held on the Supervisor's preliminary budget within ten days of the September 15 deadline.

"This whole procedure is designed to bring order into what developed as administrative chaos in 1966, when the Board was forced to analyze the budget a few hours before its adoption. As a result," Paulus continued, "had not the Board discovered almost a million dollars in fiscal mistakes in the Supervisor's budget, there would have been insufficient funds in many areas of the document that would have prevented the Town from providing needed services for 1967."

Board and Petito Agree on Clean-Up

The Town Board issued a proclamation at its meeting May 23 proclaiming that Saturday, May 27, as "Hicksville's Clean-Up Day." Supervisor Michael J. Petito and Councilman J. Earl Granowick jointly announced.

The special proclamation signifies that May 27, will kick-off Hicksville's drive to beautify its business district.

Jointly sponsored by the Hicksville Rotary, Lions and Kiwanis Clubs in coordination with the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce, the clean-up will be initiated by a parade from 8 to 9 A.M. along Broadway starting at the John F. Kennedy Memorial Mall and progressing south to Old Country Road.

Groups of Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, and businessmen with brooms as well as Town officials will march to the strains of the Hicksville High School Band.

Home Design Wins In Island Contest

The Carman Community Association is planning an evening of fun for all its members and their friends. "Discotheque-a-la-square", a square dance, will be held at Levittown Hall in Hicksville on Saturday, June 3rd, at 9:00 P.M. The caller will be Frank Komorosek.
