Wrecking of Stores Starts in Earnest

The demolition of the west side of Broadway, Hicksville, from Herzog Pl south began in earnest this week as the last remaining salvagable material was carted away. Pedestrian traffic on the west sidewalk is prohibited and all parking meters in that section have been removed.

With the exception of the Long Island National Bank which expects to move into its new main office in October, all stores and offices in the block south of Marie St are vacated and stripped of all plate glass, plumbing, signs, etc.

In the next block the final tenants are now moving out. R.A. Eslinger, in business at the same location since 1906 has closed its doors. Water district crews are working in that block disconnecting interior water service.

Various individual frame dwellings and stores in the four-block area have been demolished including the former John Puvogel residence. The late John Puvogel had been a political leader, fire chief, postmaster and water commissioner over a long period of time.

Pageantry in Brass

The Girls Cadet Corps of St. Ignatius will sponsor the 3rd annual Pageantry in Brass at St. Raphael School Field on Newbridge Rd., East Meadow, at 8 p.m. on Saturday, July 22, featuring the seven top drum and bugle corps units in the nation.

The St. Ignatius Girls will also give an exhibition. In the event of inclement weather the program will be held on July 23.

COMBINED SEVENTH and EIGHTH GRADE BOYS CHORUSES of the Hicksville Junior High School sang the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" on the Ray Heatherton Breakfast Club radio program on June 17. The 150 boys journeyed by bus from the Junior High on Thursday, June 15th, to the Theatre at Roosevelt Field where the tape was made. Heatherton and the audience were most complimentary of the boys singing.

Gerald Barker, vocal music teacher at the Hicksville Junior High School, trained these boys and conducted them in this concert. He has been teaching in Hicksville for seven years and has built these two choruses to their present high level of proficiency. Besides his academic work at the University of Montana and C.W. Post College, Mr. Barker has worked extensively with Ferdinand Grossman, music director of the Vienna Choir Boys.

These boys rehearse every day, working not only on the music to be performed, but on how to sing properly. Here, the training Mr. Barker has received in Vienna has proved invaluable. The boys are able to sing difficult literature even during the time their voices are changing.

EDWARD E. TEVERINI of W. Marie St., Hicksville, who has served as sergeant at arms at eight International Rotary Conventions in various states of the nation as well as in Tokyo and Toronto, served in the same capacity during the gathering of Rotarians in Paris, France, recently. On that occasion one of his official duties was to chaperone Lord Eden, center, former Prime Minister of Great Britain who had a role in the convention. His Lordships daughter was also present. Mr. Teverini feels the privilege was a distinct honor and recognition for the Hicksville Rotary Club of which he is an active member. The picture was taken on May 25.

Cut Another $210,000 Off Budget for Aug. 23

A third budget for the fiscal year 1967-68 of $14,810,000 which is $210,000 less than the one rejected on June 21, will be offered to the voters on Wednesday, Aug 23 by the Hicksville Board of Education. The proposed budget is expected to reflect a tax increase over the last fiscal year of 74 cents per $100 which is 43 cents less than the original May 3 proposal.

Whether or not the Library Board will try for a third time will be determined by a meeting of the Library Trustees during the week.

The motion to set a new voting date and other details of a special referendum were adopted last night (Wed) following a two and a half hour period in which about 35 persons, some more than once, came to a microphone and made known their viewpoints.

Former Board President George A. Jackson made the motion which was seconded by Cornelius McCormack. An attempt by Harry Kershen to amend the motion and delete another $75,000 lost on a 3-3 vote. Evelyn Silver was not present for the meeting. The final vote was 5-1 on the Aug 23 date with all present in favor except McCormack. Thomas Nagle attempted to have the date of the vote brought back to Aug 16 but lost 4-2, joined by McCormack.

After comments by those who had written and requested time on the agenda, the general public was permitted to speak including a student, Gary Enos, who said he was not a voter.

New Board President Marvin Goldberg presided at the session held in the high school auditorium with an audience of about 300 persons. Arrangements had been made, in anticipation of a heavy turnout, to also utilize the student cafeteria with sound piped in from

Franklin National & Unisard Charge Plans

Dear Sheila:

With so many of the long-established, faithful business places being evicted on the west side of Broadway, the Hicksville firemen are being hard pressed this year--we hear--to find trophy donors for the Labor Day tournament. The newer concerns just don't have those kind of community roots and interests. . . . Sailing on July 15 for a Caribbean cruise are Mrs. MAUREEN MILLER and Mrs. KAY PATCHALSON of Hicksville. Bon voyage, girls. . . . Hank the Bartender, whose son had a birthday during the week, has his passport and is planning a week's motor trip to Ohio. . . . BILL BOWLES, who claims to have landed a 100 lb. mako shark, does not keep the beast in those handsome tanks in his Log Cabin on the Barbary Coast (how does that grab you for memories, Woodie Karren). We were interested to note that Bill now offers a strictly fresh sea food lunch. The specialty this week is piranhas. . . . on toast. . . . according to that Fixer ED SCANLON. . . . also known as the Usher. . . . The Suffolk Sun started distribution in Hicksville, Wednesday, as the opening gun of its move into Nassau. . . . With a name like Suffolk? . . . Our Editor had lunch at the Westbury Manor, Monday, with County Executive EUGENE NICKERSON. . . . Hicksville Rotary boat ride sails this Saturday night, 8:30 p.m. from Bay Shore Marina aboard the Fire Island Queen. There will be a buffet and dance band. It must be a big ship. . . . Speedy recovery to ANTOINETTE TEVERINI who went so far to suffer a leg fracture. . . . BILL BUCHMAN is not one to let the grass grow. He has reserved the Huntington Town House for the Hicksville Rotary Club ladies night on Dec. 2nd. . . . And here it is hardly getting warm. . . .

Our old friend, WILLIAM BILLMEYER is retiring from the NY Telephone Co. after 40 years of service. We well recall our disagreements with him over the naming of local telephone exchanges, particularly when Levittown was on the big expansion push, into Hicksville. Today that problem is gone. You can't tell from the numbers where the call is originating. . . . Bill plans to retire to Virginia. . . . Humble Oil Co. announces that JOHN and DAN BALLARD of 32 Spindle Rd., co-owners of the Ballard Service Centre in East Village Green, Levittown, have completed a five-week course in service station management held at Corona. . . . The County PWD plans to locate 45 trees at a Duffy Ave., Hicksville, storm water basin and 438 at Central Park Rd., Plainview. . . . Dr. WALTER H. DUNBAR who was recently elected treasurer of the Chiropractic Assn. of New York attended the Kiwanis International convention in Houston, Texas, June 25 to 29. . . . Also at the Houston convention were Dr. and Mrs. CHARLES ARTALE of 2 Cynthia Dr., Plainview. . . . DANIEL F. HOLLAND of Hicksville was among a group of new correctional officers sworn in by County Sheriff JOSEPH F. MAHER on July 7. . . .

For two years a hardworking nine-year-old boy saved every penny he could to earn enough money to buy a new bike. His mother is a hard worker and could not spare the money to buy it as a gift. Last Sunday he took his bike to St. Ignatius Church and left it, unlocked, in the school yard and it was stolen. Will the person who took it please bring it back to the school yard? No questions will be asked. . . . BILL BRUNO has a lot to say by way of circulars but he had no questions to ask at the School Board discussion of the budget last night. He says he has prepared his own, no details given. . . .

Seventeen year old KAREN SCHMIDT of 291 Woodbury Rd., Hicksville, was listed as one of three teenage girls mysteriously slashed at Jones Beach in the surf, Saturday. She suffered a deep leg cut and was taken to Meadowbrook Hospital. . . . Was that VINCE BRAUN reclining on a couch in front of his closed store on Broadway this morning the picture of a "retired" businessman? . . . An interesting fact came out at the School Board meeting regarding the budget: Senior high next term will have 3200 students and junior high 3000 which adds up to six thousand plus in these two buildings or nearly half of the entire enrollment in the district. There was also a lively discussion of average income in Hicksville. Some said $5000 others want up to $8000 a year. . . .

Pageantry in Brass

By the St. Ignatius Girls Cadet Corps

Are we gonna beat 'em? — Yeahhh! This is how we greeted you last week — This week — Yeahhh we beat 'em. Even if we were nervous on Saturday night July 8, in Babylon we placed third above some of the top corps in the East. With the top score for marching and maneuvering. This was our first competition of the season.

This week on Saturday July 15, we will compete in Hornell, N.Y., at the Inter-national All-Girl Competition. We're a "little" excited and anxious to see how we place among other All-Girl Corps not only from the United States but other countries as well.

We are also very anxious for you to meet us on the following

Saturday, July 22 at 8:00 p.m. at our own "Pageantry in Brass" to be held at St. Raphael's Field in East Meadow. Among the great corps at our contest will be the "N Detties" an All-Girl corps from Bridgeport, Conn.

We'd like to take this opportunity to congratulate all of our new competing members, who hit the line for the first time Saturday night. These girls put in many extra hard hours of drill to perfect their marching and playing ability so that their corps would be the best. It was their willingness to learn and give their full cooperation with the "veterans" of their corps that makes us what we are — A TOP ALL-GIRL CORPS.

Contrary to Mayor John Lindsay's wishes to close the New York City Division of Veterans Affairs, because he deemed it a duplication of a similar state agency, the City Council and Board of Estimate voted to continue the services of the agency. The agency, a community service to veterans and their families where guidance and counseling is available, is often referred to as the "Supermarket for Veterans Services."

Continuation of the agency was due to thousands of letters to the board and council by veterans organizations, civic groups and private citizens, add ironic note: And wouldn't you know it—guess who got prominent play in the first division newsletter? Correct—the friend of the veteran, Mayor John V. Lindsay.

VETERANS who have served in the Armed Forces for more than 180 days on ACTIVE DUTY after January 31, 1955 and have a discharge other than dishonorable, are entitled to receive one month of education for each month they serve. Benefits obtained under the Cold War GI Bill can amount to $5400 maximum over a 36 month period.

Speaking of benefits, answers to such questions as, (1) Should Army widows be allowed to use their husbands GI bill educational rights to increase their ability to support themselves and their children? (2) Should VA benefits be extended to wives of 100 per cent disabled veterans?—should be forthcoming very shortly. These are just two of a thousand recommendations received by the Presidentially appointed commission on improving veterans' benefits. The commission's report is scheduled to go to VA Administrator William Driver sometime this fall.

VFW FIRING LINE Commander-in-Chief Leslie M. Fry's principal purpose in making his recent factfinding trip to Vietnam and other parts of the Far East was to carry a message. A message from every member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars to every member of our armed forces.

The dispatch was that the VFW is solidly, completely and devotedly behind our war against Communist aggression in Vietnam and that the VFW enthusiastically and proudly supports our fighting in that conflict. With that message we can only repeat after each column, SUPPORT OUR BOYS IN VIETNAM

Final Meeting For Mercy League

Glen Cove - Hicksville League of Mercy Hospital held their closing meeting of the season at the Beautiful Luminous Carl Hoppl's Westbury Manor on Thursday, June 8th. Mrs. William Braun and Mrs. Vincent Braun were the chairladies of the day. It was indeed a lovely affair.

Mrs. Daniel McGrath, President presided and thanked all of her officers and chairmen who served with her during her two years.

Mrs. Gustav Bahrenburg, one time member of the league, was the guest speaker for the affair and she gave a most interesting and enlightening talk on Mercy Hospital.

Plans are underway for the coming year for a Membership Tea and Tour of the Hospital, a covered dish luncheon and a Christmas Ball. Chairman for the Ball will be Mrs. Gaitana Talbott of Brookville and it will be held in the Huntington Town House. More on this at a later date.

The next meeting of the League will be held the first Thursday of September.

A son, Martin Andrew, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Morris of 42 Fordham Ave., Hicksville, at Mercy Hospital on July 3.

GRFG FUNFELD, eighth grade student at Trinity Lutheran School, 40 West Nicholas Street, Hicksville, received the Paul August Jud Memorial Award from principal Weldon W. Endorf at commencement exercises held June 20th in the auditorium of the school. The memorial award is given to an eighth grade graduate who has given a sincere and marked indication of exercising the God given gift of Christian service to others and proper motivation in the day by day activity of the school year.

Set Pick-Nick At Salisbury Park

The Nassau Democratic County Committee holds its annual free summer "Pick-Nick" for committeemen, block captains, volunteers and their families and friends Saturday, July 15, at Salisbury Park.

The yearly outdoor feast and frolic, a mid-summer highlight for Nassau Democrats, will run from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. There will be the usual vast quantities of food and drink and a day-long program of special events.

County Chairman John F. English emphasized that the decision to entitle the event "Pick-Nick" was purely political and no indication of any attempt to predetermine the outcome of the annual Democratic World Series Softball contest between the Statesmen, led by County Executive Eugene H. Nickerson, and the English-captained Politicians.

Herald Editorial Opinion

Third Time at Bat

The date of Aug. 23 has been set for a third Hicksville School District vote in a late effort to get a legally adopted budget for the operation of the public schools, rather than to drift into the shadowy, grey area of austerity and its many complications and ramifications. Many of those who came to the Board meeting last night armed with good solid questions could have been better advised to ask those questions at one of the public hearings held prior to each of the two budgets that went down to defeat in May and June. And the presentation made regarding the eight-period day and some of the answers given to public questions might have been better offered at those same prior public hearings.

Admittedly the District, School Trustees and Administrators, have never before been confronted with the complex problems posed for them by the word "austerity". In an effort to get some answers, the administration has been in constant communication by letter, phone and in person with the legal authorities of the State Education Dept in Albany. But sadly, it must be noted, the answers are frequently vague. Sometimes different persons asking substantially the same question appear to get different and conflicting answers.

However, in giving the voters the alternate posed by "austerity", the Board and Administration should quickly determine their stance on what is and what is not contingent expenses. The figure of 24 per cent of the budget said to represent things "mandated" under austerity is subject to challenge. That figure has been used in the past in official statements regarding the budget. But the authorities are hard-pressed to pinpoint the exact cost of austerity and the precise mandate percentage of the total budget voted upon.

There were some telling points made, particularly by the woman with four children -- three in the district schools -- who noted that those people who today are unwilling to share the burden of educating children when they have none of school age themselves, were not reluctant to accept the tax help of older people on fixed incomes when their children were attending school ten, 15 or 20 years ago. Just because a homeowner's children finish the prescribed course of study is no justification to deny and short change those present generation youngsters by withholding legally and morally obligated fiscal support.

And there were some revelations: The school district is not for the eight-period day ting in September and has been for months. Student schedules were developed on this premise some time ago and would be almost impossible to rearrange on a seven-period basis for the opening of the new term. It was also revealed that some teachers have been engaged under the eight-period day and under sharp questioning it was admitted that the Board could implement the 8-period day EVEN UNDER AN AUSTERITY BUDGET. So what has, for some, become a crucial point in voting on the budget was never really an issue at all. A lot of needless debate and letter writing to the editor could have been saved for more fruitful efforts if a fuller and more comprehensive disclosure had been made some time ago.

Raymond Rusch, senior high and Al Glass, junior high principals obviously impressed the audience with their statement of the problems they face and the urgency -- for them and the students -- of the eight period plan. We can only wish that their comments had been aired publicly before this.

Of course, there are those who will continue to vote no in the mistaken notion that somehow by being opposed to any budget offered they will save taxes. What started out as a parred down budget, was further cut and is now being razored and hacked again which barely represents more than total austerity. Anyone who claims it can be lowered further is just not willing to face the hard, cold facts. On the other hand, the margin of defeat on the second time around was substantially less than the first time and it is possible that the third submission will see final approval of a diluted and weakened budget.

It is to be hoped that those who have come to the recent Board meetings in a search for details and information will maintain that high level of interest in the affairs of the school district throughout the year, not just in moments of crisis. As a community newspaper which tries to provide the facts and covered in considerable detail the progress of budget formation since last January when it came before the Board, it is discouraging for us to hear so many rise to their feet and plead ignorance as to where to get information, to decry a lack of communications. People just will not read what is made available in the newspaper columns and thru the various printings and circulated statements of the school district. Too many people are prone to depend upon the neighborhood gossip for "facts" and then blindly vote without a full understanding of the issues involved.

TOWN TEEN REPERTORY THEATRE performers rehearse for presentation of Wizard of Oz at the Town's Community Parks in Plainview, Syosset, Massapequa and Bethpage during July. Here Dorothy (Clair Waugh of Syosset) comforts the scarecrow (Amy Brill of Hicksville). Shows are given at 10 A.M. at a schedule available at the parks. Shows are also available to community groups. Snow White will be presented in August.

Reader Opinion

SO LONG BILL MCCARTHY

An Open Letter:

A good man is hard to find. A good man is one who can uphold the rights of another while disagreeing vehemently with him -- one who is willing to fight for his principles but respects the beliefs of others.

A good man is always interested in his fellow-man -- his problems, his accomplishments and is known to be happiest when those around him are making progress.

His interest in children and their education is of the utmost importance. He has faith in children and is willing to give them his help whenever possible.

A good man is always fair and just in his dealings with others. He has knowledge and wisdom and is willing to share it with those who seek him.

He is not a man of power but rather a man of strength and when he is no longer available his absence is indeed felt. In simple terms he is one of character, honor and value.

I am very proud to have known such a man. It has been my pleasure to have had him as a friend and confidant.

Never have I heard a derogatory remark about him in all these years.

Hicksville can be thankful such a man has crossed our path.

So long, Bill McCarthy, good luck; God bless you.

Editor's Note - We rarely comment on reader opinion at the time it is published. William McCarthy, administrative assistant to School Superintendent Donald F. Abt, is leaving the district to assume a responsible position with the Huntington School District. We agree with Mrs. Sielaff that Hicksville's loss will be Huntington's gain. We wish him success in his future endeavors in the field of education.

tion and hope he will not fail to remember with affection some of his achievements and successes in Hicksville.

AN OPEN LETTER

To William Bruno:

It has been my personal preference to ignore your past attacks on TEACH; however, on the offchance that some of Hicksville's taxpayers might inadvertently believe some of your remarks at recent public meetings, I feel an obligation to state some straight facts.

Because this is only a letter, not a book or two-hour speech, I am forced to make a choice as to which of your highly-offensive, grossly-misleading statements to answer. (How do you manage to invent so many?)

You stated that TEACH has 1500 votes on the school district's payroll and we give out jobs as patronage. Good Grief! Where did you get that one? Would you, please, name one person who holds a school job arranged for by TEACH?

By innuendo you imply that TEACH is influenced or controlled by communists--you spoke last Thursday of TEACH's "oriental philosophy." A philosophy differing from yours, Mr. Bruno, is not necessarily un-American. I'm distressed that a person like you, who draws audiences and attracts the attention of the press, should stoop to such low name-calling. I would think that you would turn your energies to more constructive things. No, TEACH is not a nest of communists. There, I've said it and I hope I don't have to pay attention to such slanderous stuff again!

You charged that a leader of one of the teacher groups negotiated with Diane Parker (former President of TEACH) about salaries. Ridiculous! Having served on the School Board yourself, you know better. A non-board member certainly cannot negotiate a Board-controlled expense.

You asked, "Where do they (Continued on Page 8)

Telephone Wires Going Underground by Machine

A new device which snakes telephone lines under lawns without removing the turf was demonstrated by New York Telephone, Friday, for officials of the Town of Hempstead and the Village of Hempstead.

It was the first public exhibition of the device—called the Pipe Piper lawn plow—on Long Island. Two of the plows recently were added to the array of special equipment the company used to install cables underground in Nassau County as part of its area beautification program.

Officials attending the exhibition at Kennedy Memorial Park in Hempstead were: Ralph G. Caso, Presiding Supervisor of the Town of Hempstead; Town Supervisor Francis T. Purcell and Building Commissioner Matthew M. Russo. Also, Walter Ryan, Mayor of the Village of Hempstead; Village Clerk Andrew Pitre, and Village Engineer Fred Rundle.

"The telephone company's buried cable program parallels the beautification efforts of the Town of Hempstead," Caso said. He noted that the Town has drafted a $2.8 million master beautification program and is seeking a $500,000 federal grant to help finance the venture.

"In addition," he said, "the Town has been able to achieve visual improvement of major arterials through 'Operation Clean-Up'—a Town-community partnership established to spruce up vacant lots and buildings that line the main roads. And there are various other beautification projects being carried on by the Town departments."

During the demonstration, the plow placed a 200-foot length of cable across a swath of lawn in minutes without a mound or furrow showing along its path. The self-propelled machine, which weighs about 600 pounds, was easily operated by lineman Bob Langis.

John Nicholson, New York Telephone's Nassau general manager, pointed out that the plow's oscillating cutter actually pulls the cable beneath the ground as the machine moves forward, so there is no need for a trench. In normal operations, the Pipe

Piper buries the line connecting a customer's phone with the feeder cable network. The line is embedded 10 inches below ground—assuring adequate protection from adverse weather conditions and routine lawn work.

The telephone company also displayed two trenching machines, which cut narrow paths in the earth for cable, and a pipe-pushing device, which uses hydraulic pressure to tunnel under roadways. All of the equipment was designed specifically for buried cable work.

Mr. Nicholson said the company is stepping up the pace of its buried cable program in Nassau. Last year, approximately 110 miles of cable was placed below ground in the county, and the plans for 1967 call for burying an additional 120 miles.

New York Telephone expects to install some 70 miles of underground cable in the Town of Hempstead alone this year. Buried cable projects are scheduled for virtually all sections of the Town. In addition, conduit work already is underway for some three miles of underground cable along Jackson Street in Hempstead.

DOWN THE LINE -- No trace is left in the turf of Hempstead's Kennedy Memorial Park as New York Telephone linemen Charles Cybriwsky (foreground) and Bob Langis demonstrate how cable is buried with the company's new Pipe Piper lawn plow. Ralph G. Caso (center), Presiding Supervisor of the Town of Hempstead, and Town Building Commissioner Matthew M. Russo (right) review the operation of the new device with John Nicholson, NY Telephone's Nassau general manager. A rapidly oscillating blade on the plow slices through lawns, without removing the turf, and pulls the cable along ten inches below ground.

The general manager pointed out that by 1970 all new residential and business developments are expected to be served by buried cables. Existing aerial lines will be replaced on a progressive basis.

Appoint Glazer Campaign Manager

Edward L. Glazer, a Massapequa attorney, has been named as manager of the Town of Oyster Bay Republican Campaign Committee by town Republican chairman Michael M. D'Auria.

"I am confident that Ed Glazer's proven organizational and leadership capabilities will play a major role in returning the supervisor's post to the Republican's this year, as well as insuring the election of our candidates for Councilmen, Town Clerk Receiver of Taxes, District Court Judge and Jones Fund Trustees," D'Auria said.

Glazer will wear two hats during the campaign, for he has also been selected as chairman of the Citizens Committee for Ralph J. Marino, the Republican-Liberal nominee for town supervisor.

Award Contract for Impound Yard

County Executive Eugene H. Nickerson has awarded contracts for the construction of an impound yard at the 8th Precinct Station House in Levittown and for drainage facilities on Long Beach Road in South Hempstead.

The impound yard construction was awarded to Ralph Jannotta, Inc., Roslyn, lowest of three bidders, for $37,298.15. The project will provide a paved area of 20,800 square feet utilizing land of the old Motor Parkway for the impounding of vehicles by the County Police. The yard will be lighted and surrounded by a 6-foot high chain link fence. The project also includes construction of a 340-foot driveway from the existing parking field to improve the speed and efficiency of police vehicles covering the area east of the Precinct Building.

Work is scheduled to begin in mid-July and be completed by October, 1967.

Jannotta was also the low bidder of four on the drainage project at $34,595.77.

Amvets Alley

"OUT OF THE FOXHOLE"

Before I start my column, I must say that my wife Helen, son Jim Jr., and I had a wonderful vacation visiting such places as Nyack, Bear Mt., Washingtonville, Monroe and other great sections of upper New York. Our companions on the trip were Mr. & Mrs. Paul Sylvester of Grant Ave., Bethpage. Paul was an Air Force Gunner during WW 2. SYMPATHY DEPT. TO BILL MCCORMICK a new member, whose mother passed away. ELLEN SWICKICKI former member of the AmVets Aux. whose mother, Mrs. Bradley died last week. Mrs. Bradley a Gold Star Mother and member of the Bethpage Legion was the wife of a WW 1 veteran and mother of a son who was killed with the Navy in WW 2. SICK CALL...Drop a note to AMVET JOHNNY KWAITKOSKI who is in Nassau Hospital for a check-up and possible surgery. JOHNNY WALSH doing great after giving us all the big score. SONS ITS SERVICE...Eddie Farrell's son stationed at Hickam Field, Hawaii. (Where did I hear of that field before) Johnny Walsh's son Bill is stationed in Viet-Nam. His address is 191st A.S.L.T. Hel. Co., APO San Francisco, 96370. His ASN is US 51621468...but as of July 1st, servicemen are using their Social Security numbers...take your choice.

REGRETS DEPT. EDDIE SCHEIB, Post Adjutant of #44 will be on his way to Boston and leaving all his buddies. Eddie is being transferred by his Company to a different job. We'll all miss you fellow and don't forget to write us. Best of Luck to you and the wife. AFFAIRS.. Vincent Keogh, son of the Late T. Vincent Keogh, past post Commander was the winner of the first $500 Scholarship named in his fathers honor. May this be the way to help you obtain greatness in the world Vincent and to remember a great guy like your Dad. AMVETS NEWS...August 5th at Roosevelt Beach, Oyster Bay the post will hold their annual picnic. Try and make it a must. BOB SUTPHEN deserves a big hand for the job he did on the Post seeing the Mets ball game. There were 57 AmVets who went to see our favorites lose to the Cardinals 4-1 last week. They say, though, the seats were terrific.

DID-J-A-KNOW...The first Liberty ship was completed October, 1941, after .97 days, and by Nov. 12, ships were being turned out at rate of one for every four days and fifteen minutes? That nearly 800 telephone terrorists were caught and convicted in 1966 for phoning families with some one in Viet-Nam and reminding them of a death of a son or husband? Actually how low can a snake get. And now to close...the words of a statesman and I believe they are more than truth... "It is terrible truth that suffering is so often the price of freedom. But freedom is indivisible; to protect it in distant Asia is to maintain it here"

TEACH get all their money? TEACH collects membership dues of $2.00 per year and also has fund-raising activities such as cake-sales, dances, dinners, raffles, auctions, which makes us about as subversive as Scouts or the PTA. Our present bank balance is under $50.00. Perhaps you're like to suggest a new fund-raising activity?

You asked why the Board members were afraid of taxpayers suits, and then went on to remark, "We have a lawyer champing at the bit, and if we say sic' em, he's ready."

I'll close with a plea to all voting citizens: Inform yourselves reliably. Don't accept opinions as fact. Check the reliability, integrity, and especially the motives of persons making public statements. Suspect the "tearing down" approach to education. Participate actively in school affairs. The education of our children is one of the most important things in our lives.

CUTS BUDGET

The new proposed budget eliminates summer elementary and secondary school, summer band and recreation and the proposed revamping of science rooms in the Junior High. Protected would be transportation of students, cafeterias, text books and supplies and other services curtailed under an austerity budget.
