Record 9,000 Can Vote August 23rd

Registration of qualified voters for the third decision on a 1967-68 Hicksville school district budget is at an all-time peak in the history of the district. As of last Saturday, there were 9,848 names of voters on the books, an increase of 1,781 over the number registered for second budget vote. Voting on a revised budget will take place next Wednesday, Aug. 23, at seven elementary schools between 10 AM and 10 PM.

There were 7,039 voters registered for the annual meeting on May 3 when 5,083 cast their ballots. The majority of the voters were opposed to marginally defeat the budget for the first time in the school district history of over 65 years.

The Board of Education has since adopted an "austerity budget" for its operations of the schools in fiscal year 1967-68 and if the budget offered next Wednesday is not approved, it is assumed the district will go on the austerity budget which eliminates certain student transportation, cafeteria service, text book purchases, recreation and other "non-essential functions."

A substantial number appeared at the high school auditorium 1st Wednesday night for a public hearing on the budget for vote on Aug. 23. Vice President Harold Sternberger presided at the opening of the hearing until the delayed arrival of President Marvin Goldberg.

Harry Goebel, a former attorney of the school district who had not been active in school affairs in recent years, addressed the audience and board at length. Circulars for and against the budget were circulated at the hearing and outside the building. William A. Bruno Jr., a one-term former Board member, has continued to urge defeat of the budget offering to submit one of his own design.

About 500 persons, many of them teenagers, attended a rally in support of the budget held last night (Wed.) at the skating rink of Park in Hicksville sponsored by a new group calling itself "Yes for Hicksville".

County Executive Eugene Nickerson was scheduled to be present. He sent a telegram explaining his absence was due to illness. He indicated his continued efforts in support of most state aid for education as a relief for taxpayers. Councilman A. Carl Grunewald, also invited, did not appear.

The audience was addressed by Donald F. Abt, superintendent of schools; Katherine Janca, president of the Hicksville Parent-Teacher Assn. Council; School Trustee Thomas Nagle and a teenager, Louis Fishman. The program included performances by a group of "Yes-Folk" singers reminding residents to vote on the twice revised budget.

Total registration of voters, as of last Saturday, is as follows:

Plan Computer Aid To Local Teachers

Teachers of six school districts in the East participating in Project PLAN will learn how to use the computer as a new teaching aid at a training session next week. The computer will free the teachers from many of the non-educational tasks involved in traditional classroom teaching. The teachers will thus have more free time to give individual attention to students in their classes.

Each of the cooperating school districts which includes Hicksville will have a typewriter and a card input terminal connecting them directly to a large high-speed electronic computer. The computer, which is connected to all of the schools by telephone lines, is located in the Palo Alto, Calif., office of the American Institutes for Research.

This program will differ from Computer Assisted Instruction (CAI). In CAI the student answers questions directly on a computer terminal and the computer corrects him and gives him more information. At the Pittsburgh Training Conference teachers will be trained to use the computer to help them plan, schedule, and record the progress of each of their 30 students in four subjects: science, language arts, social studies, mathematics.

In Project PLAN (Program for Learning in Accordance with Needs) each student learns at his own speed. He uses the best materials for his own learning style. The computer records his educational progress through tests which he takes every two weeks. Thus the computer is a tool for storing and supplying information on the educational needs and accomplishments of each student. It helps the teacher in helping each student to learn.

The school districts taking part in the Pittsburgh conference include: Pittsburgh Public Schools, Penn-Trafford, Hicksville, Bethel Park, Quincy, and Wood County. Teachers in the Hicksville school district who will be trained in the use of the computer as a tool are: Torrence Boylan, Anthony Correr, Martin Gensler, Elaine Kabakoff, Robert Leuce, Carl Schuls, Donald Skupinsky, and Beverly Steinhart.

Project PLAN is being developed by the American Institutes for Research with the assistance of the Westinghouse Learning Corp and 13 cooperating school districts. The following districts in California are also taking part in the program: Archdiocese of San Francisco, Fremont Unified School District, San Carlos Elementary School District, San Jose Unified School District, Santa Clara Unified School District, Sequoia Union High School District, and Union Elementary School District.

Project PLAN is directed by John C. Flanagan, Chairman of the Board of the American Institutes for Research. The A.I.R. Staff for the training conference in Pittsburgh will include: Dr. Margaret Steen, Dr. G. Brian Jones, Dr. Brent Baxter, Gary A. Ferree, and Sylvia L. Ferney. The training sessions of the conference will be held at Bethel Park High School, Bethel Park, Pennsylvania, August 21 to 25.

DiLeo, who resides at 3 East St., Hicksville, succeeds Morris Lipsman who resigned the post in July. In presenting a resolution to the Town Board for approval, Pettio said: "Because of his efficient work on the Town's 1967 Annual Budget and Capital Budget, Dick DiLeo brings important on-the-job experience to this very sensitive position in Town government."

DiLeo, who will receive an annual salary of $15,000, has served as Deputy Director of Finance for the Town since January, 1966.

GREETING COMMUTER...North Hempstead Town Supervisor Sol Wachler, Republican candidate for Nassau County Executive, greets businessman Don Ferris at early morning campaign stop at Hicksville railroad station. Stop was part of Wachler's continued drive to meet 1,500 Nassau residents a day.

Poll Discloses Candidates 'Tie'

Both Ralph J. Marino, Republican-Liberal candidate for Oyster Bay Town Supervisor, and Sol Wachler, Supervisor of North Hempstead and Republican nominee for County Executive, are running neck-and-neck with their Democratic opponents.

These were the results of a poll taken this week by the Teens for Marino in Hicksville. Five hundred forty-six voting-age residents were interviewed at random.

Four teams of three teen-agers each canvassed voters at shopping centers, bingo halls, the railroad station and other public places: Bill Sanderson, who will be a junior at Hicksville High School in September, supervised the poll. He is vice president of the Hicksville Teen-Age Republicans (TARS).

Marino received 35.3% of the votes against his opponent's 38.5%. Opinion also showed Sol Wachler close behind Democrat incumbent Eugene Nickerson. Wachler polled 33.6% of the votes, with Nickerson receiving 37.1%.

In the Marino-Pettio contest, 25.1% of those polled were undecided and 1.1% favored the Conservative Party candidate. In the race between Wachler and Nickerson, 27.8% were undecided and 1.5% voted for the Conservative Party candidate.

STAMPS AND THINGS... Danny Ziskman tells that he will save all stamps he gets from letters, so I may send them to different hospitals all over the United States. The other day I met a Former GI of WW 2, and we started talking about the years gone by. The subject came up about the strikes during the war. Today it was strikes, riots, burning the flag etc. As we talked the GI asked me if I still remembered the poem I wrote after the incidents of the strikes during the war which held up many a ship with medical and ammunition supplies. I did remember and he asked me to print it again... here goes.

"SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE" Somewhere in France I fell to-day Besides my buddies on our way, Up to the front to meet the foe

I thought perhaps you'd like to know. I too loved life and what it gave. But you, not bullets sent me to my grave. You strike because the wage is small.

And failed so miserably your country's call. My pay was small, the life was new.

I sacrificed some things its true. But here this world, ravaged and torn.

I vowed to fight for sons unborn, I didn't kick for things I missed. For the sight of little lips unknissed,

For little feet in booties small. Or the missing letter at mail call.

I have not asked what had been done. To keep my little fellow from a gun.

Nor why is it I can't eat steak. Or between each battle take a break.

No, I don't ask why rain drops patter. To me it really doesn't matter, Nor do I care for cuffless pants.

You see today I died in France. The LI Clt.

The block from Marie St. to Herzog Pl has been cleared of all structures (on the west side) except the LI National Bank. Looks like it was hit by a bomb. Hicksville volunteer firemen are busy with plans for Labor Day although we have not received much information to date. It probably will be at Mid Island Plasma again.

Editorial Opinion..

The Third Vote

Whatever has been written in these columns prior to the past two submissions of the Hicksville School District Budget in support of the fiscal documents submitted holds equally true as the voters approach their third and possibly last opportunity next Wednesday, Aug. 23.

Many who have voted no in prior submissions, some with a sense of protest and very real concern with rising taxes, have come to the realization that the education of our children requires a considered recognition of the costs involved. They cannot escape their obligations as property owners and parents by simply saying, over and over again, "no".

The budget has been repeatedly studied in the spotlight of public hearing and discussion. Even the most critical are forced to admit that obligations have been duly incurred and those debts must be paid.

The Hicksville School District, never having found itself in this position before, has not had to live with the restrictions and confinement of austerity. The fancied immediate savings are far offset by the time-delayed costs which eventually must be met, sometimes at higher cost due to the passage of time.

We urge your vote of "yes" on Proposition No. 1, the School Budget, on Aug. 23.

Reader Opinions..

Sense of Values

To the Editor:
One of the most grave weaknesses of our nation today is the fouled-up sense of values of many of its adult citizens. We are a society with rising crime rates. Yet we hamstring our police with laws designed to protect the rights of the criminal minority. We are a nation of drinkers with alcoholism widespread. Yet we do nothing to get our state legislatures and State alcoholic beverages Commission to bar advertising from television and radio programs. Beer is made to seem to teenagers as innocuous as soda pop, and they are conditioned to accept it as a natural social beverage for youth parties. We have an increasingly oversexed youth and yet, we refuse to classify our movie films by law in order to bar children from adult "art" and "realistic" movie films.

One could go on and on with the decadent forces at work in our beloved nation, forces which most of us deplore, but which we do little or nothing to halt. We prefer to use our strength at the polls to upset school budgets which might cost us an extra five dollars a month, or we defeat library budgets of much less a tax increase. Our energies as citizens are too often deployed on behalf of material selfishness, and the moral challenges to our society and, ultimately to ourselves as parents, are disregarded.

Where, for example, are all the irate taxpayer-parents with their petitions and protest meetings whenever such films as "A Guide For Married Men" (recommended for mature audiences) are being shown and no effort is made by theatres to bar children from admittance? I have read both of our local newspapers for many years, and I can scarcely ever recall a single protest regarding the arrogant unconcern of theatre owners for our children's moral outlook.

It is time to stop interfering with the school and library budgets painstakingly drawn up by our duly-elected trustees and, in the case of the educational program, largely mandated by law. We are fighting the wrong battle when we lose our pulse and interfere with our children's education. The sacrifices we make, the self-denials we accept so as to meet rising school taxes will never ruin us. But, the battles we omit fighting on behalf of classified movie programs in local theatres, on behalf of public controls over liquor advertising on television, on behalf of the maintenance of law and order for the majority's as well as the minority's rights, will cost America its soul, its strength and its honor in history and before God.

For Blaine Amendment

To the Editor:
I have read that the Constitutional Convention is considering repeal of the Blaine Amendment, which provides that New York State may not give direct or indirect financial aid to a parochial school. I feel it must be retained as a safeguard for our public school system and for our basic American principle of separation of church and state.

First, public funds should not be used to support religious training. The very purpose of sending a child to parochial school for his general education is to insure him a total religious experience. A religious motif is woven through every course offered at a parochial school.

Therefore, any state monies provided in support of a parochial school represents state monies used to support a religion.

On the one hand there is the threat of state control of religion through control of "purse strings." On the other hand, it is an outright impropriety for the State to foster religion.

Further, the support of parochial education is preferential and discriminatory. It provides aid, - not on the basis of percentage of population, - not on the basis of tax contribution, - but strictly on the basis of which religion places the greatest emphasis on parochial schools. Should atheists or people of religions with no parochial schools be forced to support the major religious denominations?

Moreover, though I do not believe that segregation of children by religion for secular activities is in the best interests of the country, none - the - less I would support an individual's right to make his own free choice. However, I strongly oppose the State's active furtherance of such ends.

Finally, if the State strengthens the parochial schools (as repeal of the Blaine Amendment is bound to do) then the State is simultaneously striking a death-blow at the public school system. Parochial schools are selective in their admissions. Children with severe discipline or learning problems need not be admitted or may be expelled. The public schools must accept all children. This would become an ever increasing problem as parochial schools grow in strength and number. The final result might very well be a public school system made up of misfits and mediocrity.

It has been suggested that the very existence of parochial schools is economically advantageous to taxpayers. This argument is merely expedient, and serves only to divert attention from the real issues. The point is that since all taxpayers are required to support public secular education for the public good, then it should be just that: public secular education.

All New York voters should tell the Constitutional Convention how they feel about this question, now, before final action is taken by the convention. Write to Hon. Anthony Travis, President, Constitutional Convention, Albany, N. Y.

I would urge the Constitutional Convention to retain the Blaine Amendment. But as a very minimum, I would urge them to submit the question to the voters as a separate proposition. I believe that to do otherwise would be to invite a rejection of the entire new constitution.

Third Budget Defeat Proposed

The voters of the District have heretofore turned down the budget as originally submitted at the Annual District Election in May, and as slightly modified in June.

The Hicksville School Board is submitting for the third time its proposed 1967-68 budget on Wednesday, August 23rd next.

The original budget was submitted was $15,193,573.00. Its second budget was $15,064,698.00. Its present proposed budget is $14,810,000.00. Since the fiscal year of the School District began on July 1, the Board is, in effect, asking for retroactive approval of certain expenditures incurred on and after July 1st.

It is time to consider the reasons for the previous two turn-downs of the budget as submitted heretofore and whether the present proposed budget should now be approved.

The fact that the Board declined to afford to the pupils in our School System the opportunity to attend summer school for remedial or other purposes, notwithstanding the general prevalence of Summer sessions in other Districts where the budgets had similarly been repudiated, is open to varying interpretations. It is not necessary to impugn the good faith of the Board in failing to make available School facilities to our District residents during this summer - nor to infer that the hardships financially and otherwise placed upon them and their parents, was punitive or spiteful.

It is sufficient to point out that the omission, in spite of the action of other Districts in continuing their Summer Schools, was a policy which was ill-advised and short-sighted.

The Hicksville community, by its repudiation of the budget on the two previous occasions, reflected the frustrations, and annoyances being experienced by its residents in the mounting taxes being assessed against their properties and their desire to bring such taxes under some control.

There is no question but that the majority of individuals are desirous of affording to the children of the District a good education, if not a better one than that being afforded by other School Districts.

The question is whether the School District, through its Board of Education, is required to undergo the expense of the budget which is being submitted by the Board.

The further question is whether the Board has lost the confidence of the public and whether the community can trust, at least the majority of the Board in the discharge of their obligation to protect the interest of the taxpayers.

Certain salient facts stand out. When the budget was defeated for the second time at the end of June, the Board, by law, was subject to operating the affairs of the District under an austerity budget beginning as of July 1, 1967, for the balance of the school year.

Notwithstanding such requirement the Board and its Administrative Staff, disregarded their obligation to curtail the expenditure of all funds except for ordinary contingent expenses. Contrary to this obligation the Board and the Staff saw fit to have a computer system installed. The cost of operation of this system cannot be provided for under the austerity budget since it can not be construed as an ordinary expense.

Further notwithstanding the limitations of the austerity budget, the Board saw fit after July 1st, to seek, by advertisement the addition to the Administrative Staff of an Assistant Superintendent of Schools at a salary of $22,000.00 and a new Business Manager at a salary of $16,000.00, and also the services of some twenty three (23) additional teachers for its projected eight (8) period program. In each instance the modifications and changes, in the educational system as proposed, relected an intent on the part of the Board and the Administration to disregard the spirit of the Law "to hold the line" and to avoid unnecessary and new expenditures.

This policy to undertake additions to the staff, in spite of the public's repudiation of the budget as previously submitted was contrary to the right of the public to have a recognition in expenditures and their expectation that their tax obligation would be kept within bounds by a "tightening of belts".

This recognition and tightening justified the non-increase of guidance counselors as well as psychologists. The number of students in our Public School system has been leveling off and the necessity for increased personnel does not appear to be justified. Decreases would be in order. Alternatives were submitted to the Board at a budget hearing held on August 9th, as follows:

That the Board submit a taxpayer's budget which was supported by over 4,000.00 signatures and which reflected the sentiment of a substantial portion of the community and, as such, entitled to be submitted to the public for action.

When the Board stated that it would not submit this budget as an alternative proposition, the Board was asked to submit for consideration of the public, with the vote on August 23rd, three supplemental propositions subject to the probable turning down of the budget, as now proposed, for the third time.

These supplemental propositions ask for public approval with respect to the following:

a) The approval of the sum of $6,335.00 to afford the furnishing of free lunches for needy children.

b) The approval of free transportation at an additional cost of $25,000.00.

c) Free lunch books.

The Board again refused to consider the submission of the supplemental propositions. The budget as proposed by the petition which is being circulated calls for the reduction of $1,154,842.00 from the August 23rd proposed budget. It proposes no reduction in teachers' salaries, no denial of full free lunches to needy children and free lunch books.

The People of the District are entitled to have their wishes considered and to have the Board recognize the necessity to keep the tax obligations of its residents, within bounds.

How to Vote

To the Editor:

The self-appointed outfit that pretends to know all the "facts", with their "professional" and "amateur" helpers, intend to "TEACH" the intelligent Hicksville voters how to vote on the Board of Education's third excessive school budget of $14,810,000.00. This, after the voters have already rejected two such excessive budgets and so registered their resolve to have a budget within reason.

Their "FACTS," when analyzed, should add to the "NO" vote. Their talking people about TAX RATES, which we all will receive from the Receiver of Taxes with our oversized TAX BILLS, should mislead no one.

Concrete facts, - such as the $10,327,000. / 1962-63 School Budget, increased to - $14,810,000.

Traffic Signs

To Remain

Art Rosenthal, chairman of our Safety Committee, had a meeting with PFC Gordon of the Nassau County Traffic Control Bureau.

Patrolman Gordon recently completed surveys at two sites in response to requests from the Birchwood Park Civic Association. He revealed the following:

1) Stop sign on Birchwood Park Drive and Village Drive.

The stop sign will remain on Birchwood Park Drive at the intersection of Village Drive. The County is following the newly adopted Federal and Stated Traffic Manuals, and in order to qualify for certain aid and funds, must follow the guidelines. However, Patrolman Gordon did recommend to his superiors that a "Do not block intersection" sign be erected at the site on the Village Drive Corner. This is one of the alternatives which the committee had suggested.

2) Traffic light on Robbins Lane

With regard to the Birchwood Civic Association's request for a stop light on Robbins Lane at the intersection of Birchwood Park Drive, the officer has recommended to the Superintendent of Traffic Engineering, Nassau County Department of Public Works, that a traffic light be installed. Patrolman Gordon stated that, although the traffic from Birchwood Park Drive into Robbins Lane was not enough to warrant a signal light, he made the recommendation "solely for the safety of the neighborhood children".

His time survey indicated that the minimum amount of children crossing Robbins Lane to get to the candy store or delicatessen and back, was sixty three per hour.

Nine Pin Talk

By Henry Dockswell

With only two weeks left to the season the race in Section B has become even tighter, and what threatened to become a runaway in Section A has been halted.

For the last four weeks Brizel-Shein, in Section A has soundly trounced all comers and had stretched their lead to seven points. But Holtzman-Reichgott and Kaplan-Batterman in 2nd and 3rd place, respectively, hung in there. This week Brizel-Shein cracked. Stan Brizel warded off a shut out when he came up with a 202 in his last game and salvaged two points in their 5-2 loss to Dembart-Lieberman.

Meanwhile Kaplan-Batterman kept the pressure on as for the third week in a row they whitewashed their opponents. This latest shut out over Wasserman-Schwartz put them in 2nd place only three points behind Holtzman-Reichgott, mainly through Sid Holtzman's 203 in the first game which was the only game they won, averted complete disaster as they lost a 4-3 squeaker

Duties of The Receiver of Taxes

Once a year this officer sends out various kinds of tax bills to property owners of the town. In addition to collecting taxes for the town, he collects taxes for the county, for the school district and from other special purposes not considered part of the administration of town government. These include garbage collection, street lighting, water supply and maintenance of a fire department. The receiver of taxes is elected to office by the voters.

We will operate the same as last year. We plan to have 18 teams and bowl 18 times every other Sunday nite starting Sept. 10th. The place is Syneset Lane and the starting time will be 8:30 P.M.

As interesting and enjoyable as it was last year a few innovations have been planned that should make it even more so.

You can enter as a team, which consists of two couples, or as a couple without a partner and we'll team you up with some other unattached couple.

See me or call me and get your $5.00 registration to me as soon as possible. And please don't delay. Last year some very nice people were left out only because they waited a little too long.

Petito Denounces Planning Proposal

Charging the Town Board with engaging in a major deception in presenting a series of inconclusive reports as a Master Plan, Supervisor Michael N. Petito has called on the Board to take immediate action to recover $75,000 paid to Seymour Stillman for such a Plan.

Petito criticized not only the quality of the reports but again took issue with the manner in which the Stillman contract was paid, pointing out that the contract contained provision for automatic monthly payments of $3,250 per month for 24 months without any provisions to show what work was being accomplished. Supervisor Petito vigorously opposed the Board's appointment of Stillman in the Spring of 1965 and signed the contract only when legally forced to do so by the Board majority.

"This was an entirely unsatisfactory arrangement and placed the Town at a disadvantage right from the outset," Petito claimed. "When I recommended that a number of nationally competent firms be asked to bid on this work, the Board refused to consider the proposal for a moment. I have always been curious as to their reason for insisting that this contract be awarded to Stillman."

"The Supervisor characterized the map and 15 interim reports submitted as vague, containing a minimum of projection and useless to the Town in preparing its zoning and planning for the next generation.

"In speaking for the taxpayers of this Township, I reject this so-called plan and demand that the Board take action to recover the dissipated funds," Petito said. "It's interesting to note that thirty months ago, the Board was claiming we didn't need a Master Plan while they tried to pass off a 1959 zoning map as a Town Master Plan," Petito added. "Now they are trying to tell us that a series of memoranda filled with previously available statistics is the Master Plan we have been waiting for. Their entire position is absurd."

In listing his criticisms of the Stillman reports, Petito pointed to the following:

"The Stillman memoranda are devoid of sources of information so essential to a true

Master Plan;
 . . . Population figures date back to 1960 and ignore the special 1965 census taken by the Town, hindering the accuracy of any projections or present-day features of the reports;

. . . There is little or no indications of vacant land in the Town which should be a major part of any Master Plan;

. . . Fiscal projections date back to 1964 and there is only sketchy reference to a Capital Budget which provided considerable data for future planning;

. . . The papers completely ignore the Nassau County Co-operative Library System in referring to present or future library needs;

. . . Under parking needs, the report merely says that more parking is needed without evaluation of our business areas, making intelligent consideration of such future needs impossible;

. . . Referring to hospitals, the report fails to give a breakdown of the type of care available or needed, or the age-groups or specific needs of patients either now or in the future.

Speaking of other areas of the report, the Supervisor said that the Stillman papers delve into housing needs of the Town without any reference to the work already prepared by the Town Housing Authority which is essential for such a study.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Priceman of Hicksville announce the engagement of their daughter, Melody Beth, to Hoshua Balzlay, son of Mrs. Hannah Balzlay of Tel Aviv, Israel, on July 24.

000. In 1967, -- an increase of - $4,482,920.- in only four years; this, in spite of a predicted and an actual drop in the number of pupils in 1967.

The increase in the number of teachers and some other high-salaried people, but, no money for Summer School, although funds must have been included for it in the last budget, are some of the facts the voters (before they vote) should know.

The Board of Education's recent Summer School fiasco, a most sadistic performance, denying some children their much needed and vital instruction; and, their 8 period deal, all set up, including hiring of teachers, are samples of behind-the-scenes maneuvers the public should know more about.

The constant increase, in the millions of DOLLARS, of the School Budgets and Taxes, is not the correct answer to the required education of the Hicksville children, or the protection of the vital interests of all the people of Hicksville. REAL SERVICE, NOT LIP SERVICE, IS REQUIRED.

Perhaps an entire new Board of Education, selected by the interested parents and the school tax paying property owners, is the proper answer to the mess the school system is in.

A "NO" vote on the excessive $14,810,000. budget is the correct answer to the bluff of AUSTERITY and a "hurry-up" budget "before schools open".

The schools will open and there will be money to operate them despite the present Board and those who intend to "TEACH" (tell us how to vote).

Urges License Renewal, Early Eye Testing

Nassau County Clerk Franklin H. Ornstein today reminded Nassau drivers that New York State is complying with the Federal Highway Safety Act and requiring that all drivers take an eye examination upon renewing their operators and chauffeur's licenses. He pointed out that these eye tests which are offered free at the Nassau County Motor Vehicle Bureau Offices, take time to administer and will greatly slow down the renewal process. He urged drivers who wish to avoid a long wait on line to either have their eyes examined by their own physician, ophthalmologist or optometrist who will give them a form MV-619 so that they may renew by mail or, apply for renewal as early as possible during the month in which their license expires.

Ornstein pointed out that in prior years better than two-thirds of the people whose driver's licenses were due to expire, waited until the last week of the expiration month to renew. He said, "If that were to happen during the very heavy September or December renewal months, it would simply not be physically possible to handle all the applicants." Mister Ornstein has asked corporations around the County to make their company health service departments available for the administration of eye tests to workers while they are at the plant. "Anyone who has a completed MV-619 form only has to fill in the punch card license renewal form which he has received from Albany. He should then send these along with his license renewal stub and check to the Nassau County Motor Vehicle Bureau in Mineola to quickly and conveniently renew his license. If people value their time and convenience they will spend a few extra dollars to secure their eye examination privately. If they expect to take advantage of our free eye examination, then they had best get to a Motor Vehicle Bureau office, either main or branch, during the first part of the month otherwise they can expect to lose up to a half a day going through this very simple procedure."

Approve Service Flag for Vietnam

The approved Service Flag for the Viet Nam War is a 8 by 15 inch white banner with a red border and a blue star in the center. It is similar to the service flags displayed by patriotic Americans during World Wars I and II. The Dept. of Defense has authorized the United States Publishing Corp. of Stuart, Florida to manufacture and sell Service Flags for display in windows and on walls by the immediate families of servicemen which includes their parents, wives, children, brothers and sisters. The new Service Flag may be displayed by the families of all military personnel serving in the American Armed Forces in the United States and overseas.

Churches, organizations, stores, offices and industrial plants are also authorized Service Flags for window and wall display to symbolize that their members or employees are serving their country.

Coming soon: Two new ways to make more phone calls at a lower cost per call.

Call-Pak and Home Econ-O-Call

Starting September 1, residence customers will be able to take advantage of two new bargain telephone offerings—Call-Pak service and Home Econ-O-Call service. These optional plans provide added telephone value and can save you money on calls within New York State.

You'll be hearing more about these bargain calling plans with your next telephone bill.

We're trying hard to make your telephone service the biggest bargain in your home. Since 1940, while the cost of living has increased 137%, overall long distance rates have actually decreased.

And while the costs have gone down, the service has improved substantially. You can dial your calls to just about anywhere, and they are completed faster than ever before.

Lower rates, better service...and now, two new ways to save money.

With Call-Pak and Home Econ-O-Call your telephone dollar is worth more than ever before. Use your phone for all it's worth.

William M. Gouge, Jr.
Post No. 3211
by Edith Klotz

Once again sunny skies prevailed at our annual picnic held at Teddy Roosevelt Memorial Park in Oyster Bay. Those that came to join in the outdoor festival had a good time. Those that missed it lost out on a good thing. Our thanks to chairman George Kramer and his committee for a wonderful day of food and fun.

Friday, August 18, the 68th National Convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars got underway in New Orleans, Louisiana.

The Veterans Administration urges veterans planning to enter college for the first time this autumn under the new GI bill of rights to file their applications promptly. This will enable the VA to grant approval before the start of classes and speed up payment of benefits of $100 a month plus allowances for dependents.

All soldiers being retired or discharged because of disability will receive an orientation on veterans benefits before they are separated from the service. The new requirement will include, among other things, a personal interview by a VA representative on each man's VA benefit entitlement.

Pageantry in Brass

By the St. Ignatius Girls
Cadet Corps

Hejlo!

This past week-end both the Senior and Junior Corps were busy. On Friday, August 11, the Junior Corps marched for the Oyster Bay Fire Department in the Cold Spring Harbor Firemen's parade. It was a beautiful night for marching and the girls stepped briskly toward a well earned second place trophy. Congratulations!

The following evening our Senior Corps competed in the Minisk Warriors' marching and maneuvering competition where they also placed second.

On Saturday, August 19, the first corps will compete in the Lindenlure's marching and maneuvering contest to be held in Lindenhurst, L.I. This will also be the last contest for two of our girls, Karla and Kathy Keifez, to whom we would like to wish Good-bye, Good Luck and God Bless!
