

From Congress

REP. JAMES R. GROVER, JR.

There was a lot more indignation voiced over the decision to bar the West Point football team from playing in the Sugar Bowl than over certain more far-reaching policy decisions. Come to think of it, could there be much more in a bowl game than they experience in the annual Army-Navy game? And wouldn't an Army victory in a bowl game have a decided booster effect on the morale of Army men throughout the world?

Congressman Emanuel Celler, "the dean" as we in Congress call him, and I appeared in a recent television discussion of the issues facing Congress, and you would have thought that we were attending different sessions of different Congresses. Rep. Celler has served his district for more than 40 years, but I think he mistakes the mood of the nation when he talks about pouring more and more billions of dollars into some already-overfunded Great Society programs. I reminded him that, when the President said last year that the nation could have both guns and butter, that he didn't tell us that he would ask for an income tax increase to cover the cost.

Congressman Celler admitted during the course of our discussion that his mail hasn't shown much enthusiasm for the proposed income tax surcharge. I noted — and my mail indicates this with increasing force — that there is a tremendous feeling of frustration in America today. Our people are upset over the poor administration and lack of promised results in programs to which this administration has committed us; they're upset over Vietnam, over rising crime rates and over city riots and militant civil disobedience. I think more Congressmen ought to go home more often. They might be surprised over the discontent which their constituents feel over what's happening in the country today. I know because I'm home virtually every week end.

SANTA CLAUS will be at the Morton Village Shopping Centre in Plainview on Friday, Dec. 8, from 10 AM to 12 noon, in an appearance co-sponsored by Grand Union Supermarkets and the Plainview-Old Bethpage Chamber of Commerce, according to Executive Secretary Charles Voorhies.

MORMON PAVILION at the World's Fair, visited there by over five and a half million people, has been rebuilt during the past two years on Washington Ave., Plainview, where it will be opened this Saturday, Dec. 2, as a house of worship for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. For the opening there will be guided tours starting at 6 P.M., an organ recital every half-hour from 6:30 and a grand concert at 8:30 P.M. Two wings have been added to the original structure.

Concert to Open Mormon Edifice

Members of the Mormon faith on Long Island will hold a grand opening concert to mark the completion of their million dollar edifice at Washington Ave., Plainview. The event is scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 2, at 8:30 P.M.

Mormon artists will be among those performing for the church, known as the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, with headquarters in Salt Lake City, Utah.

The building, now rapidly nearing completion with some volunteer labor, has been constructed with many materials which made up the famous Mormon Pavilion at the New York's recent World's Fair. This building will be known as the Long Island Stake Center and will accommodate the activities of the stake (like a diocese) and two wards (congregations).

Five wards and one branch form the Long Island stake and are located in the communities of Patchogue, Babylon, Plainview, Uniondale, Little Neck, and Rego Park.

Presiding over the Long Island Stake of the Mormon Church is Gordon E. Crandall of 254-31 Walden Pl., Great Neck. He is assisted by two councilors, David D. Paine of Elmhurst and Charles E. Neaman, of Massapequa.

President Crandall, a native of Springfield, Utah, in inviting the public to the concert and other events connected with the grand opening, pointed out that the Mormons of Long Island have recently been organized as a Stake. Mr. Crandall said the Mormon Church looks for great growth on Long Island, due in part to the missionary effort which will continue to be carried on by the stake and full-time missionaries assigned here.

Mr. Paine, a native of Salt Lake

City, Utah, and formerly longtime resident of Uniondale, explained that the new center will provide much needed facilities for the LDS people of Long Island. He pointed out that the basketball court would be the center of a Long Island wide tournament for the young people of the church.

Neaman, a native Long Islander, and recently Bishop of the Plainview One Ward, said the building represented the church's desire to care for the spiritual, cultural, recreational, and every day needs of its people. The concert is being organized by Ernest L. Wiemer of and will include Melva Niles Barboraka, soprano; Robert Peterson, baritone; Robert Wyatt, organist; Kristin Pachciarekoff, violinist; Yoshie Akimoto, pianist, and Jonathan Rigg, tenor.

Mrs. Barboraka, with many Broadway and summer stock successes to her name sang featured roles in Song of Norway, Red Mill, Magdalena, Great Waltz. Mr. Peterson played the romantic lead in the New York Co. of Camelot, replacing Robert Goulet in the role of Lancelot. Mr. Wyatt is a native of Cincinnati and has studied at Juillard and Northwestern University. He has been staff organist and choral conductor at ABC TV and radio.

Miss Akimoto at eight years of age studied with Teichi Higashi and by ten had won all worthwhile awards in Japan for her music. At 13 she began to solo with major symphony orchestras and came to the United States in 1964 on a scholarship. Mr. Rigg has sung with the Santa Fe Opera, Metropolitan Opera Studio, the St. Louis Bach Society and the Marlboro Music Festival.

The Mormon Pavilion attracted over five and one half million people at the World's Fair. Visitors viewing the new Plainview building will recognize the distinctive concrete partitions as having once been part of the Fair pavilion. The building in Plainview has taken almost two years to erect. Mormon members were called upon to some of the work in completing the edifice. Work parties have been organized over the last several months to fulfill this assignment.

In addition to the opening concert on Dec. 2, the public will be invited to inspect the building during a series of open house presentations. The dates for these will be Dec. 3 through Dec. 6 and Dec. 10 through 13. Weekdays the time will be from 7 P.M. to 10 P.M. and Sundays from 2 P.M. to 8 P.M., with special guided tours of the building. During the open house period special exhibits are planned for the public including priesthood, genealogy, the church tamed warfare program, years supply food storage, family home evening and scouting.

Pageantry in Brass

By the St. Ignace Girls Cadet Corps

While marching in New Rochelle's Thanksgiving Eve parade we couldn't help but think that some day future paraders would march on a limited pavement and there would be no more frozen toes.

Thinking along these lines brought up the questions where did Drum Corps begin and how far will it grow?

The first questions require research, the second is pure speculation.

The use of drums and horns goes all the way back to the ancient civilizations. They were used to arouse the enemy, as military signals and to announce festive occasions. Two of these uses we have retained today. Drums and horns are used as military signals, any soldier knows this, and parades are a festive celebration to honor a particular person on a special day. The first horns or bugles had a very limited range and were a relatively simple instrument, such as the army "G" horns or in very early times the ram's horns. It was not until the early 1800's that the piston or valve bugle was invented, and in the middle 1800's the army band developed. Since then drum corps have developed into a sport in which many, many people all over the world are involved.

But that's the past, we know the present. What about the future? Banded pavements or all-weather roads and arenas are within the foreseeable future. Let's project a little further. - Today we speak of next year's trip across the United States, the mode of travel, airplane. But tomorrow's trip might not be within the United States or anywhere else in the world. It could be to another planet and a new mode of travel - a yellow space ship - it would definitely mean a new set of hats and maybe even a different uniform.

Far fetched? Maybe. But when you think of the advances made and those yet to be made you realize the tremendous possibilities in store for all of us. After all, the writer remembers when Flash Gordon and Captain Video were fantasy and today men orbit the earth.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey Smith Wells

Jeffrey Wells Takes Bride

Miss Christine Marie Kummerhause, daughter of Lt. Col. Carl P. Kummerhause and Mrs. Kummerhause of St. Lawrence, became the bride of Jeffrey Smith Wells, son of Mrs. Lester Wells of Hicksville and the late Mr. Wells, in a noon double ring ceremony at St. Mary's Church on Saturday, Nov. 11.

Magr. J. Albert O'Brien performed the ceremony. The bride had been a member of the staff of The St. Lawrence Phalanx and the groom is a graduate of The St. Lawrence University.

The bride wore a gown of velvet with a high waistline and long sleeves tapering to the wrists. Her veil of tulle was fastened to a crown of silk and pearls and she carried a white velvet fan of staphanotis, centered with a corsage of yellow orchids and garnet sweethearts.

Her attendants were her sisters, Miss Anne Kummerhause, maid of honor; Susan Kummerhause, bridesmaid; Miss Cathy Kummerhause as junior bridesmaid and a school friend, Nancy Shuler, bridesmaid.

Peter Wells was his brother's best man. Ushers were Mike

Carlucci, fraternity brother of the groom; Marlborough Packard of Hicksville and Peter Kummerhause.

The bride's father is a retired Lieutenant Colonel of the Army and is at present a member of the faculty at Knox Memorial School in Russell.

Mr. Wells, a 1967 graduate of St. Lawrence University, was a member of the Sigma Chi fraternity and at that time completed ROTC and was commissioned as 2nd Lieutenant in the Intelligence Corps of the Army. Since his graduation in June he has been a trainee in Sears Roebuck Jr. Executive training program. He has since reported for active military duty.

After a trip to Canada, the couple is living at Fort Benning, Ga., before they go to Ft. Devens, Mass., where he will be stationed. Three grandmothers of the couple attended the wedding.

The State Education Dept. at Albany announces that candidates who successfully completed the latest examination in certified shorthand reporting included David J. Zaccaroni of 41 Pewter Lane, Hicksville, and Vito Lentini of 74 Martin Rd., Hicksville, Redpage.

Dear Sheila:

OLIVE FORAN was among the first who knew a stolen locomotive would be changing thru Hicksville's elevated station. Shealy morning, because her husband, LARRY, was at the Herald. The HERALD had tried to get the exact time prior to publication. So a historic event took place. Olive arrived and then realized she had forgotten to bring her camera. Police Sgt. RICHARD C. HARTOG of Hicksville, Detective Sgt. DANIEL A. GRUB of Plainville, Ptl. FRANK FUETTERER, Ptl. STANLEY LOHRESE, Ptl. RICHARD McVAY, Ptl. THOMAS ORGAN, all of Hicksville, were cited for "Excellent Police Duty" during the first six months of this year by Commissioner LOONEY.

The five buses blasted for some time on Wednesday afternoon and five trucks appeared to be heading in all directions. What happened was there were two reports of stolen buses and two false alarms, all at about the same time and all in different parts of the district. . . . School district has reacted after new Ministry automobiles for driver education. A bus driver used in driver training was recently stolen. . . . Various groups and individuals are suggesting new seating for the high school auditorium, as well as new stages and general sprucing up which was scheduled prior to "seniority".

Hicksville Kiwanis club is sponsoring eight students and two teachers from Germany in an exchange program and August. The Kiwanis Christmas party takes place at Old Country Manor on Dec. 12. Supervisor MICHAEL PERITO says the Town Board has ordered 20 new snow plows at a cost of $25,000 each but they will not be delivered until next March. They should be ready next summer.

LYNN MARY MARION of Hicksville was a Nassau Community College honor student inducted into Phi Theta Kappa, yesterday (Wed.). . . . No bright lights along Broadway for the holidays again this year. There would be no place to hang them on the west side anyway. . . . Two hundred members of the Jericho Senior High Class of 1968 returned to class on Wednesday from a three-day trip to Washington. . . . Greenwich Aircraft has started to roll out its Gulfstream from a new facility in Southold, Ga. Four hundred people are employed at Plant 55. . . . The new "School Board Report" is "opening the lines of communication" so well, the November issue reports what happened at an executive session of the School Board. Now if we could only get reports on what is discussed at office hours we'd have the full story. . . .

IT'S TRUE: They are starting to move the dirt on the site of the new Hicksville main Post Office on John St. . . . FLY-IT SCARLOW has finished his roofing job. . . .

ONCE FAMILIAR SIGHT on Long Island was relived last Sunday. This shows a LIRR locomotive in 1954 with Larry Foran at the throttle. Numerous stops were made last Sunday on the revival of steam special run to take on water. Engine No. 60, used on Long Island, was built in 1937 for the Great Western Railroad in Colorado. It now operates on the Black River and Western RR in Flemington, N.J., along the Flemington branch of the Pennsylvania with regular trips on Saturday, Sundays and holidays as a tourist feature.

County Library Experts Evaluate Book Collection

A team of library consultants working out of the Nassau Library System has just completed an evaluation of the book collection of the Hicksville library, and has come up with a series of reports which range from "very good" to "outstanding".

The consultants were invited to make their survey as part of a comprehensive program recently adopted by the library Trustees to examine the library and its relationship with and service to the community. Evaluation of the book collection was the first step in this program.

Spencer G. Shaw, Children's Service Consultant, found that the Children's Dept., which spent 25% of the total book budget, conducted a "well-structured series of activities."

Julia Russell, who examined the Young Adult collection, termed it "very good", and suggested the use of paper-backs to "perk" up the collection.

The adult collection was described by Muriel C. Javelin as "outstanding for a library of its size." Miss Javelin found that the library had "all but two books on the American Library Association list of '52 Notable Books of 1966' and all but one of the 109 titles of 'Lasting Book', a fiction and non-fiction reading list... recently published."

"These reports," said Elery Bean, president of the Board of Trustees, "were prepared by outstanding experts who were given a free hand in reaching their conclusions. What they have to say reflects well upon our community, and its library, which is the community's foremost cultural institution. Hicksville can well be proud of its library for the standard of excellence it has achieved."

Copies of the full reports are available at the library, Bean stated, for examination by interested citizens.

VETERANS PROMISED VIGILANCE - Continued vigilance over any lessening of veterans preference in government employment was promised by the National Civil Service and Employment Committee at its meeting in Washington recently.

Vigorous opposition was voiced by members to any action detrimental of veterans preference and called for re-establishment of the veterans staff of the U.S. Civil Service Commission. In line with this program the Veterans of Foreign Wars are revising their manual for employment officers. THE V.F.W., at their annual convention in New Orleans this year, adopted a resolution opposing all forms of trade, commerce and financial assistance to Communist or Communist-controlled nations.

In the resolution the VFW emphasized that the monies derived from these importations are being converted into munitions, trucks and weapons that are being sent to North Vietnam for use against the United States Armed Forces and their Allies fighting for freedom in Vietnam.

Recently, someone posed the question, "Why is it, we feed the Communists in Europe and fight them in Asia?" This question is a mystery to many of our strategists.

We all know the Soviet Union is squarely behind the Communist aggression in Vietnam. We all know that the Russians and the Red Bloc are supplying guns, planes ammunition and other materials that make it possible for the aggressor to wage war with such advanced weapons and larger forces. And knowing this it only makes more confusing and baffling the puzzle of bridge building to Russia and its satellites.

I for one do not believe that trading with Russia and her mob will bring them to the paths of righteousness and good will. There is no moral or strategic reason why we should increase the number of dead and wounded by increased trade with the enemy.

Editorial Comment

Matter of Life and Death

It is difficult to understand parents who apparently seem to care so little for the lives and safety of their bicycle-riding children that they permit them to cycle on the streets and highways after dark when those two-wheeled vehicles lack lights and/or reflectors.

The modern automobile moves rapidly and silently on our well-paved streets. Today's auto is built for speed and quiet. For the safety of the passengers and driver, the auto requires a reasonable distance in which to stop in relation to its speed.

Unconcerned parents allow their off-springs to remain on the streets riding their unlighted bikes hours after darkness has fallen.

Pedestrian youngsters, and adults too, take their lives into their hands when they wander forth on the streets and highways after dark and don't wear some light, reflector type garment.

Serious, crippling injury or death can be the only claimant to the "right of way" these daylight short days.

Dedicate New Facilities At Jericho High School

Community and county civic and educational leaders are joining hands Dec. 5, 6, and 7 to dedicate the 25-room wing and other major new facilities constructed and put into service at Jericho High School between late 1965 and March 1967.

Twenty-two general purpose classrooms; two science laboratories; a home economics room, an art room, senior high library with a capacity for 15,000 books; a regulation Olympic-sized swimming pool; and various other or special and general purpose rooms are among the newly added facilities.

Collectively these have increased the school's physical inventory by approximately 50 percent.

The program arranged for the event features a three-day "Educational Symposium" climaxed by formal dedication exercises. The symposium is tied to the three timely themes, "Education for World Understanding", "Changing Patterns in Higher Education" and "Approaches to Education for the Future".

Other program highlights include the Senior High School Annual Scholarship Dinner for National Honor Society members and their parents; the 1967 National Honor Society induction of new members; and a Senior High School Band Concert.

Dr. Richard Whitford, Director, International Center, State University of New York, will be heard as principal speaker on the first of three symposium themes; Dr. Harris Wolford, President, State University of New York at Old Westbury; and Dr. Alexander Schure, President, New York Institute of Technology will be principal speakers at the second and third symposiums.

Others who will speak during the course of the three-part observance are, Board of Education President Hal - Curtis Fishler; Superintendent of Schools Dr. Thomas F. Carey; Senior High School Principal, John Heller; Junior High School Principal, Arthur Rathke; Junior-Senior High School P. T. A. President, Mrs. Joseph Goss; Robert Buchler of architects Knappe and Johnson, and Student Council President, Bruce Steiner.

The house lights dim, the voices hush, the curtain slowly draws open. The Jericho drama season is in full swing again. But, this time, the audience will be part of the act - the great mind reading act of the "Great Sebastians". The lead players - Alice Neeshama and David Mark will leave the comfort of the delightful Lindsay and Crouse comedy, and display their own unique talents as the great mind reading act upon members of the audience. You may be the one chosen! You are invited to attend both the revealing session and the play on Dec. 8, 9, 15, or 16th for only $2 per ticket. The place is the Jericho High School Little Theatre.

The cast of the gala production reads like a Who's Who of Jericho's notable actors and actresses: Alice Neeshama, David Mark, Marie Catalano, Alan Wolf, Adolph Lovier, Ellis Pleg, Mickey Meltzer, Al Foreman, Blanche Karpel, Edith Dolter, Charles Biers, Art Rein, Jerry Neuhau, Lou Davis, Joan Meltzer, Lola Rosenthal, and Barry Jeffery. Staged by Ann Becker and Janet Bruner, produced by Mimi Gruber, with dynamic costumes by Judy Folter, the show should be a rewarding experience. The young director, Mike Rosenberger, is a professor at Hunter College and has done intensive research work on the notable Edward Albee there.

Tickets may be purchased from members of the J.C.T., from Joan Meltzer at WE8-1325, or at the door on Dec. 8, 9, 15, and 16th, at the Little Theatre.

IN CASE OF FIRE

By Jerome Gold

Representatives of the Jericho Fire District attended the last meeting of the Board of Directors of the Birchwood Civic Association and presented their views in support of the proposition which will be put up for a Fire District referendum vote on Tuesday, Dec. 5.

The proposition to be voted on is to authorize the purchase of an Aerial Platform Fire Truck, with equipment, at a cost not to exceed $100,000. This Aerial Platform Fire Truck will replace an obsolete 1959 Sea-Grant Ladder Truck now in use. The proposed new truck will have an hydraulic, telescoping, ladder boom, with a platform at its end, which can be extended 75 feet and can be rotated in either direction. It is designed for use as a water tower, a lift for personnel, hose and equipment and is especially useful as an exterior elevator for window rescues.

Ten Pin Talk

By Henry Beckwell

The "Terrors" are back in stride. With Cap't Julie Gershon leading the way they further increased their league lead to a healthy 20 1/2 points. In the first game Julie and his opposing Cap't. Sid Simon each cracked a 202 but it was the "Terrors" who squeaked out the victory. In each of the next two games Julie was in the 190's and the going was all downhill as they clobbered Simon's crew 11-0.

Any of you guys who want to know what it takes to bowl a 200 ask Bernie Schmirer. He bowled a 269 and so stomped Nat Warren's "officers" (that's how they recovered the series was over and Herb Brody's "Charley Brown", thanks to that Schmirer or Hypocrite Shot, had an 8-3 victory. The "Weepers" Mal Rabner came up with a 204 but it just wasn't enough. Now, you ask, what's Bernie's secret. Well, it has something to do with coffee, but you ask Bernie.

The "Fly Balls" were clicking so, that they rattled Sid Sachs' "Molans" until their toothed teeth shook. Cap't. Hy Shapiro almost a 213 in the first game. Jericho's own Commodore, Ralph Diamond, grinded his way to a 212 in the second and anchor man Charley Smith Grooved his team's strongest game of the night, a 226, in the third game. With that kind of bowling the "Molans" were lucky to walk off the lanes with any points. But a good team effort did win the third game for the "Molans" as they lost 8-3.

The "Gazdars" and the "Hippies" looked up in a real bang-bang. At first glance the match looked kind of unequal. Gittelmann "Gazdars" were in 2nd place while Holtzman's "Hippies" were languishing in 16th. Cap't. Murray underlined that long frame of his and carved a 238 to lock up the first game, but then opposing Cap't. Sid fired a 200, Big Julie Stein threw a 204 and the Hippies took the second one. In the rubber game "Gazdars" Milt Goldberg cracked a 206 but by that time the "Gazdars" had gone through about 5 beer frames and they were too sluggish to win. Final score: "Hippies" 3, "Gazdars" 3.

Stan Brizel with a 207 and Sy Bruckner with a 210 closed out the night's scoring. We just heard that Harold Pepper was taken to Sponset Hospital a week ago Monday. We all hope it's not serious and that Harold makes a speedy recovery.

The cost of the truck is about $83,000. To cover the cost of any related equipment for the truck, the voters are being asked to approve a total expenditure not to exceed $100,000.

The Fire District at present, has in its capital reserve fund, (moneys approved but not expended in previous capital budgets), the sum of $70,000, which will be applied toward this purchase. The additional moneys required will be acquired by raising the Fire District tax for the next two years only, by a sum equal to 5 cents per hundred dollars assessed valuation. The present Fire District tax is $2.65 per hundred.

In the past eight years, the Fire District has managed to replace its obsolete equipment with moneys from its capital reserve fund. However, because of the large expenditure for this one piece of equipment, the permissive referendum is required. The voters must be informed that if approved and ordered, the Aerial Platform Truck will require about 18 months delivery time.

The voting will take place at the Jericho Fire House between the hours of 4 P.M. and 10 P.M. There will also be an election for Fire Commissioner to fill a 5 year term. All resident taxpayers are eligible to vote on the purchase of the fire truck and in the election Residents who are not taxpayers may vote in the election only.

The Board of Directors of the Jericho Civic Association, after carefully weighing the proposition on its merits, has voted to voice its approval of the proposition to permit the purchase of the requested equipment. It encourages the community to exercise its voting privileges in this matter.

Library Vote Again on Dec 6

By Horace Bermanstein

On Dec. 6, the residents of the Sponset School system will exercise their taxpayer's right to vote on a new Library proposition.

The Board of Directors of the Birchwood Civic Association on the recommendation of a special Library Committee have voted to endorse the proposition. The Committee consisting of Don Becker, Horace Bermanstein, and Fred Hoffmann, met with the Library officials, asked questions, looked at the plans discussed them and then recommended a favorable vote.

The plan is essentially the same one that was debated two years ago, with one important exception. The site has been changed. The site chosen will be on South Oyster Bay Road on the North East Corner of the Long Island Expressway service road. This is directly across from the old Plainview Ford.

In dollars and cents for our community of Birchwood, the cost would be an additional $5 per year per house. This is based on an assessed valuation of $10,000. Most houses in the Sponset section of Birchwood are assessed at $9,000 so the figure may be a little less.

The Library Board will send out the more pertinent information as to style of building, capacity, help etc. The total figure however comes to the $5.00.

Birchwood residents, who have not voted last year in either the school budget or Library vote, will have the opportunity of registering at the Robbins Lane school on Thursday Nov. 30 from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. This applies to all homeowners in the Sponset School district. On Wednesday, Dec. 6 at the same school you will then be able to vote on the proposition. The hours are 10:00 AM to 10 PM. The hours are long on there is really no reason why all residents should not have the opportunity to vote.

We recommend that you vote YES Dec. 6. But remember you must be eligible to vote.

One up— one down.

Nick Fierro, builder of Lakeside Homes, Lake Ronkonkoma, Long Island.

"The rate on oil is going up, whereas gas is going down. And the initial cost is much greater with oil than with gas. Through experience we have found that gas is as economical as or better than oil. It's certainly cleaner. I've been in the construction business for 20 years and if you asked me what system you should take, I'd say gas heat."
