

Twinlawns Holds Tradition

The Twin Lawns Civic Assoc. Inc. will continue its tradition this year of having Santa Claus call at each home on the block, distributing gifts provided by the parents.

The tradition has been in effect for about 20 years and in some cases those who were called upon by Santa when they were small boys are now giving their dads a helping hand.

Santa will make his rounds of the block off Bethpage Rd. between 6 and 7 and will visit homes in Miller and Hicks Circles as well as Sunset.

Alumni Assoc Honors Team

The Hicksville Alumni Association feted the 1967 Hicksville High School football team at a dinner in the Old Country Manor, Dec. 6.

Jay Schwartz was the toastmaster and introduced Coach Jim Grantham, Wayne Bryan and Joe Umbria. High School Principal Raymond Rusch addressed the gathering of more than 100.

Trophies were presented each of the players for extending the Comets winning streak to 15 games—longest in the history of the school—and for winning the NSAA Section One championship two years running.

Alumni host and hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. Al Hanlon, Alumni President James and Mrs. Fyfe, Mrs. Gladys Schwartz, Miss Dolores Crawford, Fred Sutter, William Geyer, Michael Sherin, and Howard Finnegan.

Feature of the evening were movies of 1967 games featuring the players. The parents and friends enjoyed the movies which were narrated by Umbria.

A block letter H was awarded Doctor John McGovern, Principal of East School for his consistent loyal support of the Hicksville students and teams.

Wins First Prize

MAX C. BATISTA, Spanish teacher at Hicksville High School, will be awarded a gold medal and parchment as the first prize in the annual competition of the Spanish American Poets and Writers Guild of New York, an International Literary Association.

On Sunday, Dec. 10th, the Guild held the Seventh International Spanish Literary Contest for Short Stories, Poetry and Essays. At a public meeting at which the members of this organization were present, as well as the several well known college professors and members of the judging panels, the names of winners for each category were made public.

Hearing Jan. 9 on Plan To Give Away Beach Lands

The Town Board will hold a public hearing in Town Hall at 8:00 p.m. on Tuesday, Jan. 9, to consider a proposal to deed over to the Federal Government Town-owned north shore beach lands wetlands and Oyster Bay Harbor, Majority Leader Ralph J. Marino announces.

The beaches included in the proposition are Stehli Beach, Oak Neck Beach, Beekman Beach, the Centre Island Beaches and Roosevelt Memorial Park Beach.

Marino said the Board is calling a public hearing on this matter "because of the magnitude and far-reaching effects this project may have."

He pointed out that millions of dollars' worth of Town lands are involved, as well as some private property. He said he felt the entire Town should have an opportunity to be heard on this proposal originally made by Congressman Lester Wolff. He noted that Town Attorney Bernard F. McCaffrey had met with Interior Department officials on Oct. 17 and submitted to them a proposed draft agreement for their consideration. Marino pointed out that the Town is still negotiating with the Interior Dep. on this agreement.

The Majority Leader cited some of the major questions which he felt absolutely should be answered before any agreement is reached.

If the Federal Government intends to acquire this property:

- 1) Would the Town beaches be open to residents outside of the Town.
- 2) Would the Federal Government regulate, control and authorize taking wildlife, fish, shellfish and other products from the lands and waters.

3) Would they fix and retain all fees for the use of the beaches, docks, marinas, launching docks and all facilities.

4) Would the conveyance be made so as to exclude the applicability of the rules and regulations of the Secretary of the Interior to these lands and waters.

5) Could the entire donated premises revert to the Town if any part is used in whole or in part for any purpose not provided for in this deed.

"Deciding all of this Town property to the Federal Government is one of the most important steps taken in the history of the Town of Oyster Bay and we should have all of the facts on the table before a decision is made," Marino said.

Fire Strikes Two Residences:

Kiwanis Brightens Holidays For Less Fortunate Neighbors

Hicksville Kiwanis Club in cooperation with the Salvation Army and other charitable organizations is again doing its share to brighten the holiday season for less fortunate neighbors.

Club President Henry C. Brengel and Secretary Frank Chlumsky on Wednesday delivered food, toys and other gifts to two households that were hard hit by fire during the past week. It was shortly after 12 noon when flames were discovered at the residence of Hortense Sheil of 2 Cable Lane on Dec. 6 and 43 volunteers under Chief Gus Costanza responded to the alarm.

The county fire marshal has been asked to investigate the cause of the blaze which sent the woman to Meadowbrook Hospital suffering first and second degree burns.

Neighbors turned in the alarm when fire was discovered at the John Monckton residence at 203 Brittle Lane at 5 o'clock on Monday night, Dec. 18. Sixty firemen under assistant chiefs Clifford Davis and Martin O'Donnell fought the blaze for two hours.

Volunteer firemen urge everyone to be particularly careful during the holiday season. There were 71 alarms for the vamps during November of which 49 were silent calls and three were false. There have been 450 fire calls between April 1 and Nov. 30 of this year in Hicksville Fire District.

The Kiwanians, beside their annual distribution of food baskets, also made their traditional calls with Santa at the homes of shut in children and entertained the 54 men and 10 women inmates at Jones Institute,

Wednesday night, Santa was present and there was entertainment provided.

At the Kiwanis luncheon meeting on Wednesday, the public and school district nurses of the area led by Betty Garrison were again the guests of the Kiwanis Club at the Old Country Manor. The Rev. Richard Muck, pastor of St. Stephen's Lutheran Church, as speaker of the day told of the First Christmas First Christmas. There was community singing of appropriate songs.

Order of DeMolay Installing Jan. 8

Robert Williams Chapter of the Order of DeMolay will hold its Public Installation of Officers at the Hicksville Masonic Temple, on Jan. 8. The ceremony will begin at 8:00 PM. The installing team under the direction of Stephen Tisman will install the elected and appointed officers for the next six months.

The elected officers are Russ Tisman, Master Councilor; Harry May, Senior Councilor; and Russel Zwergel, Junior Councilor. This event is an open meeting and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Commercial Bldg. Permits Top Lists

The month of November was third in items and seventh in construction value of building permits issued so far this year, according to Councilman Ralph J. Marino, Town Board Majority Leader.

Commercial buildings led the list in value. There were six permits issued representing a construction value of $1,529,900. During the month, a total of 177 permits were issued for all purposes, valued at $2,688,572.

Other categories of building last month were: one-family dwellings, 28 at $528,439; alterations and additions, 102 at $334,967; other than residences, 34 at $67,166; industrial, four at $210,600; miscellaneous, three at $17,500.

The Building Department, under the direction of Edward J. Gaynor, manager, made 2,635 inspections.

PARTY AT PLAZA

Everyone is invited to attend the Mid Island Teens Club Christmas Party at the Centre Hall of Mid Island Plaza at 1:30 PM on Saturday, Dec. 23. Those attending are asked to bring a small grab bag gift.

Record Mail Volume

The Hicksville Post Office handled more Christmas mail than ever before Postmaster Ralph G. Cascardo reports.

Every card, letter and gift for local delivery will be delivered before Christmas Eve, he said.

"It now appears that there will not be a backlog of mail for delivery Christmas day and postal employees will be able to spend the holiday with their families," the postmaster added. Public cooperation in the mail early campaign and the use of ZIP codes contributed to the successful operation at the Hicksville post office this season.

"We are delighted with the help the mailing public offered this year," Postmaster Cascardo commented. "Without it we would still be swimming in a sea of mail."

TALK ABOUT LONG DISTANCE DRIVING! Santa's helper makes sure the jolly old elf takes time out for a rest break. It's all part of the National Coffee Safety Stop Program to help reduce the holiday traffic toll. Thousands of National Restaurant Association member restaurants across the country will serve free coffee to drivers during the Christmas and New Year's weekends as an incentive for them to get off the highways for frequent rest breaks. The International Association of Chiefs of Police, International Bridge, Tunnel & Turnpike Association and safety officials of the Armed Forces are also cooperating in the accident prevention effort.

Computer Joins Hospital Staff

A computer that can help make a medical diagnosis, figure out a patient's bill, schedule clinic visits, keep medical records, assist in research and do dozens of other complex procedures began operation Tuesday at Meadowbrook Hospital.

The IBM-360 computer, it is said, will do everything from analyzing an electrocardiogram to keeping minute-by-minute census of admissions and discharges. It will be the only one of its kind on Long Island to perform such a wide variety of jobs, it is claimed.

Dr. James F. Collins, superintendent of Meadowbrook, said: "We expect our new computer system to be invaluable in helping to provide fine medical care for patients and easing the work load of our professional staff. Hospitals are just beginning to learn how much computers can help them."

DID YOU KNOW... that the Hicksville Public Library has a collection of telephone books from the major cities of the United States?

Dear Sheila:

We had the wrong data about a scheduled meeting of LIFE at the Public Library. No meetings are scheduled until after the holidays, according to CHARLES FETTA, and no precise date has been set pending receipt of budget information....The police urge everyone to make sure their car is locked when unattended. There have been dozens of reports of holiday gifts stolen from parked cars at Mid Island and other shopping centers where the neatly packaged items are left laying right out on the seat, inviting theft. At least put the stuff in the trunk of the car, out of sight.... Hope you did not get taken in by that little fellow who rang door bells and said he was from a local parochial school collecting "for the boys in Vietnam." He was nine or ten and had an unmarked container. A householder who became suspicious checked with the churches and found there was no such appeal underway. It is always well, if you are giving, to be sure of credentials. Better yet, do it by check, and, if possible, mail direct to the organization....This happened off North Broadway, Hicksville.

Did you hear about the guy who is going to make a killing on postage stamps? He has been buying up post cards and five cent stamps before the increase in rates takes effect....RICK COOPER of Kuhl Ave., Hicksville, arrived home from Viet Nam before he was expected but that didn't make his parents unhappy....Congressman WOLFF, if we understand the radio reports correctly, is going to try and do something that no one else has been able to achieve since the end of World War I. ## Questions & Answers

Q. How can I tell if the nursing home my mother recently entered is an approved extended care facility under medicare?

A. Your Freeport social security office has a list of approved nursing homes. Also, the operator of the home should be able to tell you whether or not their services are covered under medicare.

Q. I have Social Security medical insurance. I have been a diabetic for many years. My doctor insists that I visit his office every other week. At this time he checks my heart and blood pressure. He charges $5.00 for each visit. Are these office calls covered by my medical insurance?

A. Yes, if they are considered reasonable charges. Recurring treatment and examinations for an injury or an illness by your doctor is covered by your medical insurance. Routine physicals not for a specific illness or injury are excluded from your medical insurance coverage.

Q. My mother has medical insurance under social security.

She also has a private insurance plan which pays her an amount equal to all her medical expenses. She has had surgery for which the doctor is charging $850. How much of this will medical insurance pay?

A. Assuming this $850 is her total medical expense, you can expect medicare to pay $640. Medicare will pay 80 per cent ($4 of $5) of the reasonable charges for all covered services in the year except the first $50. She should file her claim with her private insurance company to receive any amounts she may be entitled to receive from them under the terms of her policy. She should file her medicare claim.

Q. If I should have to go to the hospital, how do they know I am signed up for medicare?

A. Your health insurance (medicare) identification card will show the hospital that you are entitled to medicare benefits. So be sure to take it with you if you should have to go to the hospital.

Q. How do I collect from medicare the amount it is supposed to pay on my hospital bill?

A. You don't have anything to do with presenting that claim. The hospital makes the claim for what is due under medicare hospital insurance. After it has been how many of your hospital days medicare has paid for, and how many more it can pay for in that spell of illness.

Q. You say the hospital makes claims for what is due from medicare hospital insurance. What other charges would it claim for?

A. In most hospitals, there are doctors who read X-rays, others who administer anesthesia and others who analyze laboratory results. Many of these hospitals do their billing so as to include the charges for the work of these doctors which, under medicare, have to be treated separately from the charges for room and board and other services and supplies the hospital provides.

"OUT OF THE FOXHOLE"... Regarding the article, "Why Didn't Broadway Display The American Flag on Veterans Day?"... was an item worth reading. It makes me even ashamed to admit that I am a veteran. The excuses heard was simply, "nobody notified us". Well I sincerely hope that if that was the first time, it should surely be the last time that happens. I do believe that no Veterans or Service group should have to be told that the colors of our country must fly on days that we Americans and Veterans alike deem important. I have been told by veterans and citizens alike that, someday for my columns that I write I'll be shot by a firing squad. I don't believe so, but it proves one thing that a great deal of folks read AMVETS ALLEY. I met a man among men one day during World War II who later died on the Shima... his name was ERNIE PYLE. He stated every knock is another step towards the top. What he said was the truth and believe me he was one of the greatest if not the greatest War Correspondent of World War II veterans era.

Greetings by Card

The greeting card industry reaches the peak of its effort with the Christmas holiday season. The flood tide has now hit the average household and business establishment.

The exchange of cards is a nice tradition but seems to get out of hand. Each year the list grows longer but it really should be tailored to the passage of time. But other people have the same trouble and we continue to get cards, right up to Christmas eve, from people we knew in a brief interlude (nice couple we met on the beach in Maine or those folks from Jersey we met at Cousin Harry's ranch on Staten Island), possibly never to see again.

Just when you think you have sent out the last card (after a hurried trip to the store for an additional supply), along comes a card from "Bert and Gussie", postmark blurred and no return address.

The cards are given a casual glance and put aside enroute to the incinerator. This can be dangerous because some people we don't see too often (like relatives) pen little notes on the back sheet if it will take a ball point pen. Hardly anyone saves greeting cards and the printing industry has reduced the price of even the most handsome cards. In grandpa's day the finer cards were hand work with messages composed for the incident.

But the greeting card people are not giving up: the radio reports this week that cards are available to send to pet dogs and cats, and why stop there?

We get cards from everyone, including total strangers. A one-year-old granddaughter got a card from an insurance agent who views her as a prospect.

For some the Christmas card retains a thin line of contact with distant friends. You know the conversation: "do you ever hear from Millie So and So?" "Not much, but we did get a Christmas card in 1946."

And of course with some people you can sever a long standing relationship by failing to observe the custom. To wit: "She didn't even think enough to send a card at Christmas."

A fire under any circumstances is a terrible thing but it was handy to have the newspaper clippings about that big blaze in a New York City post office last week. The favorite excuse for 1967 will probably be: "I didn't know they route out our mail thru New York City."

The Post Office Dept had its own cheery greeting for patrons this week. No more penny discount for mailing cards with the flap tucked inside. All cards will require full and higher first class postage effective next year.

Most folks may not save the cards or even study the rhyming messages and pretty picture, but they do retain the envelopes and return addresses to compile an even long exchange list for the years to come.

The Albany Session

You don't need a calendar to know that the start of the new calendar year and the opening of the new session of the State Legislature at Albany is at hand. Various organizations and special interest groups have been having legislative luncheons, dinners and conferences to which are invited area assemblymen and state senators. Purpose of these gatherings is generally to promote the development of legislature (new state laws) in harmony with the aims and objections of the host groups.

The coming session promises to be productive of a great deal of news. Efforts will be made to salvage some of the better features of the late but little-lamented revised State Constitution. There will be the usual drive to up the state sharing of education and other local costs. Confronted with the ballot boxes next November, the legislators will be conscious of their local image.

Albany is not a gold mine, despite what some groups may indicate, and any bids for state fiscal aid must be counter-balanced with the question of where is it coming from? Just as our school districts have built in obligations in the form of bonded indebtedness, salary scales and fringe benefit commitments, the State has enormous responsibilities in the way of money earmarked and pledged.

Reader Opinions

REGARDING STATE AID

To the Editor:

I would appreciate it very much, and I'm sure others would as well, if you printed the other side of the coin on state aid for schools etc., to wit:

43 school budget defeats later and certain representatives and pressure groups on L. I. still have not acknowledged the need for economy

A few minutes research on per pupil EXPENDITURES, NOT

STATE AID, ALONE, and they would discover that the only problem existing is that too much money is ALREADY being spent on schools (not the 24-hour educational process). I refer them to the Annual Educational Summary published by the State Education Dept. Here they would witness that although the upstate may receive more state-aid, we, in the Nassau-Suffolk Region, OUTSPEND ALL BUT ONE (Rockland - Westchester Region) of the entire 12 Regions that com-

Holiday
Cheer
To One and
All

prise NY State. High local property taxes make this paradox possible.

Investigate further and they would find that NY State OUTSPENDS all other 49 states. This is directly accomplished through the generally high and disproportionate taxes throughout NY State. They suggest that the $660 per pupil state-aid be raised to around $800. What they don't mention is the TOTAL EXPENDITURES per pupil, or approx. $1,234 expenditure per pupil estimated in HICKSVILLE this year, while other villages in Nassau-Suffolk will certainly spend well above this.

A call to the Advisory Board on Private Schools revealed that the average tuition to the better private schools in the metropolitan area charge approx. $1200 per year for grades 1-8, and $1300 for grades 9-12 (prep schools). This covers all costs, i.e. textbooks, supplies etc.

TIMES HAVE CHANGED

To the Editor:

Reading the HERALD last week and the report about the "hush-hush" study of Hicksville school management by a firm called Boaz-Allen makes us wish that Emil Szendy was still on the job. When he was president of the School Board there was none of those frequent executive sessions, paying firms for studies and public relations before they perform any work, etc.

(Name withheld)

ANOTHER VIEWPOINT:

The 1968 Legislature is already coming under pressure to vote increased spending on elementary and secondary education in the 1968-69 fiscal year.

The Educational Conference Board, an organization of 10 statewide education organizations, has recommended increased state aid to local school districts by raising the operating expense ceiling on which the aid formula is based from $660 to $800. Cost, approximately $148 million.

In November, the State Board of Regents asked the Legislature for $112 million as a first year appropriation for a special urban education fund. In the first year of the special fund, $100 million is earmarked for "quality education incentive grants" which will include "community education centers" providing, among other activities, health, recreation and employment referrals for all age groups of the community.

Recent statements by education leaders indicate a trend of thinking which equates the spending of money with the achievement of quality education and which expressed the idea that New York State lags in education spending.

The Educational Conference Board commented, "New York State must provide the funds which will enable the State's public school system to continue its program of high quality education that has made New York the national leader in industry and commerce."

The State Board of Regents remarked "Educational projects for the educationally poor must have sufficient concentration of resources to assure that substantial improvements in performance will be attained." By

New Spending Not Justified

"resources," the Regents mean, primarily, money.

In the words of former Governor Al Smith, "Let's look at the record."

In the 1967-68 fiscal year the State government spent $1.5 billion on aid to local school districts, 32 per cent of the official state budget.

Total spending on elementary and secondary education is pegged at an estimated $3,337 million by the State Education Department.

The National Education Association reports that New York State spent $912 per pupil in average daily attendance in the 1966-67 school year. The New York per pupil expenditure is $172 or 23.2 per cent more than second ranked New Jersey and $299 or 48.7 per cent more than ninth ranked California which educates 1.2 million more pupils.

New York State per pupil expenditures are $348 or 61.7 per cent more than the United States average per pupil spending.

Clearly, New York State taxpayers contribute sizeable amounts to support education.

But the question remains—Are the pupils in New York State public schools receiving an education that is superior to the education that is received by pupils elsewhere in proportion to New York's excess spending for education?

If the amount of money spent was an indication of the quality of education received than New York State certainly would be offering the best. But, the mere spending of money is not to be equated with quality education.

The State Education Department admitted this in a March 1967 booklet entitled "Investment and Return; Public Education-New York State" which noted, "It should be recognized, however, that higher than average expenditures in a particular school or district do not automatically guarantee higher than average academic achievement."

The Regents urban education spending plan and the Educational Conference Board spending increase have not been justified.

The spending of money is no guarantee of improvement in the quality of education. It will, however, place an additional burden on New York State's already tax-poor citizens.

Quality education in New York State can be improved only by the efficient use of the already excessive educational allotments.

Taxpayers should ask their legislators to re-examine the entire structure of education in New York State to discover what kind of education our children are receiving for our tax dollars.

Answers to these questions should be demanded before the State commits itself to any further increases in educational spending.

Posters Pledge Greener Nassau

Close to 400 bright green posters, symbols of County Executive Eugene H. Nickerson's program to make Nassau County a greener, cleaner place in which to live, have been placed in stores and offices throughout the county, Nickerson says.

Participating store owners and supervisors use the posters as pledges of cooperation with the County Executive in his campaign against littering.

The Office of Mobilization for Democracy, a non-budget county department, coordinates the anti-litter program for the county. Matthew J. Cronin, director of OMD, reported to Nickerson that over 300 litter complaints have been received and processed by his department since January.

"Most of the offenders have cooperated fully by cleaning up the areas and maintaining them since they were contacted by OMD," Cronin said.

The majority of the complaints were about litter in parking areas near shopping centers.

A special shopping center cleanup campaign was initiated last fall by OMD, with the help of 200 youngsters -- members of Boy and Girl Scout troops, Camp Fire Girls and 4-H Clubs.

Odd Fellows Lodge Host to Children

At the Tall Cedars of Lebanon Hall, in East Meadow, on Dec. 17 Central Nassau Lodge Order of Oddfellow, held their annual Christmas - Chanukah kiddy party.

Noble Grand Jack Wolffs, Vice Grand Jerry Weiss, Harold Berkowitz (Chairman) and many others, helped make this party one which is worth remembering. Of the 100 children that were there, more than half were underprivileged children from the Welfare Dept. and other agencies. There was live entertainment, prizes for all, candy, ice cream, milk, soda and many other goodies. Movies was also shown.

This was the 13th year that the Lodge has been having these parties for the children around Christmas-Chanukah time. Every year it seems to get better and better.

New Motor Fuel Price Adv. Ruling

State Tax Commissioner Joseph H. Murphy today announced that a new amendment to the Sales Tax Regulations sets up definite requirements in advertising the price charged to customers for motor fuel sold at retail service stations through metered pumps. It will become effective Jan. 1, 1968.

The new rules controlling advertising at service stations, Commissioner Murphy said, were prompted by numerous protests from customers regarding various methods of advertising motor fuel prices.

As of the effective date, every retail service station operator selling gasoline or diesel motor fuel through metered pumps which show the price of fuel sold to a customer will be required to adjust the pumps so that the price shown is the total price including New York State sales tax and any local sales tax which may be applicable.

In addition, service station operators must display on or in the immediate vicinity of each pump an easily legible sign or placard, accessible to customers, which shows separately the cost of the gasoline or diesel fuel, the Federal and State motor fuel taxes and State and local sales taxes. The total of these items must be the amount shown by the pump meter.

All amounts of such signs or placards will be the applicable amounts per gallon and all numerals on the signs or placards must be of uniform size. The amount shown as sales tax must be the New York State sales tax plus any local sales tax which may be applicable.

If a service station operator uses advertising signs to promote the sale of motor fuel, the price advertised must be the price shown on the pump meter for the particular grade being sold.

MATH TEAM SCORES

The Hicksville High School Mathematics Team, under the direction of H. Bachrach, scored heavily in the last math contest held under the auspices of the Nassau County Interscholastic Mathematics League. The Hicksville team, led by individual high score Jan Weinstein, came in fourth place in competition with other Nassau High Schools.

FIRST ANNIVERSARY of the incorporation of the Gregory Museum of Hicksville was highlighted recently by the visit of a fourth grade class. To enliven the study of the earth's surface, Mrs. Harknett of the Lee Avenue School took her class to see one of the world's largest private collections of rocks and minerals, and butterflies and moths. The youngsters were guided through this wonderland by Gardner Gregory, founder of the museum. He is also Curriculum Materials Director of the Hicksville Schools. First Row: from left are Thomas Enien, James Waller, Barbara Asam, Angela Santamaria, Karen Bolognese, Jo Ann Kaprzycki; in rear, Mrs. Lean Harknett and Mrs. Carmelo Santamaria.

Appoint Tanzi To Advisory Group

The Jericho High School's Coordinator of Secondary Education, Edmund Tanzi has been named to serve as an advisory council of school administrators recently established by the Information Processing Facility of the State University of New York at Stony Brook.

The council has been formed to explore ways in which the Processing Facility can use its equipment to serve the schools of Nassau and Suffolk Counties. It is anticipated that meetings will be held monthly throughout the school year.

This could be the year when Christmas door decoration may really come into its own. For years we have been wrapping our doors to look like enticing Christmas packages, or decorating them to express a greeting to guests even before we welcome them personally. A brand-new book on Christmas decoration pictures a pine-cone-and-nut frame for a card that can so easily be mistaken for a sumptuous door "painting" that the idea is almost certain to be picked up by those with time and imagination who would like something personal and utterly beautiful for their doors this year. With a dramatic card supplying the motif, and a good supply of nuts, cones, dried fruit and other dried material to surround it, no two doors could ever look alike. And what an exciting addition to American "Christmas Art!"

Leading beauty culturists remind us that the color surrounding a woman's face -- that is, her hair color, is by far her most dominant color point, and the one that other people notice first. You should remember this when you change your hair color. It may make a difference in how you look in the colors you already wear, as well as what new colors you may now be able (or not able) to wear.

While the majority of Christmas cards this year still picture the well-loved symbols of bells, candles, holly, poinsettia, and so on, it is interesting that modern American scenes are becoming popular, as are birds and animals not traditionally connected with Christmas. However, "Merry Christmas" is still the most popular greeting.

Plays Santa Claus For Holiday Joy

Ronny Sluder of Hicksville, plays Santa Claus for neighborhood children and various organizations' Christmas parties. He does it for joy-the joy he gets from seeing the children's faces, and the joy he brings to them.

There's an extra spirit of joy Ronny gets, however. For each visit he makes he asks for a small contribution to Human Growth Inc., a non-profit organization devoted to helping children with growth problems.

Ronny's daughter is one of these children, and because of the work Human Growth Inc. is doing, she and hundreds of other children are able to be treated with human growth hormone - a hard-to-get substance which will help some children grow.

If you'd like to share his special kind of Christmas giving contact Sluder, 4 Carol St., Hicksville, or phone WE 8-6257. All contributions are tax deductible. For information about growth disturbances write Human Growth Inc., 19 Ridge Dr. E., Great Neck.

V.F.W. BULLETIN BOARD: Monday evening, Jan. 8, there will be an election for the Veterans Association's new board of directors. All members who can attend that night are urged to come.

IT'S UP UP AND AWAY WE GO to a night of fun, dancing and gaiety next Sunday evening as we celebrate the arrival of "Year 1968". Word comes to this writer that the affair is almost a sell-out. We hope this celebration is a premature one and one that will commemorate a year that will bring the peace on earth that we will say in our prayers this week.

THE LADIES AUXILIARY held their annual Christmas Party at the Post last Saturday evening - and a pleasant one it was. Mrs. Klebing and myself want to thank President Henrietta Aracil and the ladies for the invitation. We had a splendid time.

THAT ELEGANT CHRISTMAS TREE now standing in the south side of the Post was decorated by the Junior Girl's Unit, which the members thank them for their wonderful efforts. WHICH, OF COURSE brings us to our annual Kiddie's Christmas Party. Our thanks to Chairman, Jack Mulligan and his committee for the splendid job they did in bringing happiness to the youngsters. Of course we must thank Santa Claus for taking time out and reindoeing it all the way from the North Pole. The children enjoyed it, which proves when you run an affair for the very young, such as this, you can't do anything wrong. That is, of course, if you don't forget to invite Santa and his bag of presents.

DEPARTMENT OF NEW YORK LEGISLATIVE GOALS: The Department of N.Y. Legislative committee recently completed their study of many resolution adopted at the State Convention in New York, earlier this year. Listed below are some of the key-points of the legislative program:

1. To amend the State Constitution to provide the payment of a Korean Bonus similar to that paid to veterans of WWII.
2. To amend the State Constitution to provide the payment of a Vietnam Bonus similar to that paid veterans of WWII.
3. To move for the expansion of the Division of Veterans Affairs on Counsel level to cope with the ever increasing problems of the aging veteran, as well as providing service to those now entitled under the recently enacted GOLD WAR G.I. BILL OF RIGHTS extension.
4. To urge full continued State participation in assistance rendering to County Veterans Service Agencies while at the same time seeking full legislative support in defeating any measure promulgated that would in any way tend to make permissive legislation on, or amendment to, existing statutes as to whether a County shall or may have or allow a County Veterans Service Agency.

THE MANDL SCHOOL for Medical and Dental Assistants, Long Island Center, 175 Fulton Avenue, Hempstead, held its annual Open House activities on Nov. 29th. Participating in the activities left to right: Miss Bonnie Reismiller, Hicksville, Miss Ann Welker, Wantagh, and Miss Lauren Scherer, Oceanside, Bonnie Reismiller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Reismiller of 183 Brittle Lane, Hicksville is a Dental Assistant student. She was graduated from Hicksville Senior High in 1967.

5. To generate support in making Loyalty Day a legal Holiday.

6. Under the guise of Academic Freedom we seem to be financing our own destruction. We seek to absolutely prohibit the utilization of any and all buildings, schools, colleges, or other facilities that receive subsidy in whole or in part, from the State of New York, by individual or organization who is known to advocate the overthrow of our government, or willfully encourages acts of treason.

PENSIONERS: Widows, parents of veterans and veterans themselves - have received an income questionnaire with their December 1, 1967 check. To continue receiving these non-service connected disability payments, it is important that the questionnaire be filled out and returned to address on the form before January 31, 1968. To avoid the oversight in completing the form why not include it with your Christmas mail.

The officers and members of the William M. Gouse Jr. Post 3211, their ladies auxiliary and junior girls unit wish all of you THE BEST IN SEASONS GREETINGS.

and don't forget to: PRAY FOR AND SUPPORT OUR BOYS IN VIETNAM.

Ten Pin Talk

By Henry Dockswell

"Champagne Charlie" is at it again. Better known by his rival name, Irv Simes flashed another double this week. With a 212, a 202 and a 616 series Irv led his "Spoilers" to an 8-3 victory over Bernie Kaplan's "Knappies".

"Spoilers" Les Shuman punctuated the win by bowling a beautiful 233 in the third game. This jumped the "Spoilers" up into 2nd place "oney" 15 1 2 points behind the league leading Gershen "Terrors".

The "Terrors" were terrorized this week by Nat Warren's "Weepers" who klunked them with the only shut out of the night. Led by Al Minoff's 210 and Allen Kaplan's 200 the "Weepers" kept the "Terrors" in check and left a slight opening for a 1st place fight. Upon hearing the news of the shut out we saw one of the fellows in the league run over and kiss Al Minoff for bowling his 210. This was a good win for the "Weepers" as they jumped from 11th up to a tie for 7th place.

Norm Ney's "Abnorms" and Gerry Reichgott's crew had a dogfight. Norm cracked a 213 so Gerry curved a 210. "Abnorms" Mill Hoffman pranced to a 202 so Fred Switzman countered with a 214. When the firing died down the Reichgotts found that they had won 8-3 and had risen to a tie for 7th while the "Abnorms" fell to 10th place.

There was one other dogfight that had a peculiar ending. Bill Kellerman's "Buffalos" were bowling Hy Shapiro's "Hy Balls" and both teams were hitting the pins quite well. Bill smacked a 211 but so did Hy. "Hy Ball" Phil Wasserman aimed a 208 but then "Buffalo" Elliot Spencer came up with the big one, a 237. Finally in the last game Hy brought another one in, a 202, and here's where the trouble started. There was a tie for total wood. So they checked the last game and found a 1 pin mistake in Hy's score making his game a 203 and, it seemed, total wood for the Hy Balls. But the Buffalos weren't giving up yet. They started checking the other games and came up with a lulu. In the second game one of the scorers started counting "Buffalo" Fred Green's score backwards and wound up cheating Fred out of 20 pins. Final score "Buffalos" 8, "Hy Balls" 3. The new rule that one man from each team should always sit at the scoring table is well illustrated here and should be followed. We do not mean to indicate anything other than that mistakes can happen and do happen.

Jerry Gold with a 226, Leo Geyer with a 224, Murray Kowlowitz with a 204 (Now about this guy, this is his 6th in 7 weeks) and Sam Springer with a 201 closed out the scoring.

Happy Holiday to all.....

We Positively Wish

Joyous Holiday and good New Year's wishes have a habit of being advertised, printed, thrown at us, mailed to us, and generally passed along at times with care and good taste, but often as an afterthought and somewhat of a generality.

The VILLAGER shares with all of Jericho a deep craving for peace and contentment in 1968. We should, however, wish all of our readers that these days of joy, family togetherness, and prayer will make of us all better human beings. We wish you and ourselves more patience, tolerance, and understanding of our fellow man. We wish for our elected officials wisdom, principle, and ability to lead us towards a brighter future. We wish for our fellow citizens a new awareness and recognition that three areas of endeavor must be served, so as to give us peace, contentment, and the good life. They are family, community, and country.

ALL THIS WE POSITIVELY WISH IN 1968. . . .

To Widen Tpke Another Mile

J. Burch McMorran, State Commissioner of Transportation, announced at Albany receipt of a low bid of $417,588 from Hendrickson Bros., Inc., Valley Stream, for construction of two additional traffic lanes on the Jericho Turnpike (Route 25) for 1.12 miles in the Town of Oyster Bay. Seven bids were received.

The present four-lane divided highway will be enlarged to six lanes by building 13-foot-wide reinforced concrete pavements to flank the center mall. Work will extend from the western end of six-lane highway just east of the Long Island Expressway interchange, easterly to about 2,000 feet east of the Route 107 interchange.

Syosset Schools Dec. Meeting

The following are excerpts from the "Superintendent's Report" presented at the Syosset School Board Meeting on Dec. 11. May we take this opportunity to remind you that these meetings are open to the public. They are regularly held the second Monday of every month in the auditorium of South Woods Jr. HS, at 8:30 P.M.:
SPECIAL COMMITTEE TO STUDY FUTURE LAND USE

Russell R. Roetger, President of the Board of Education of Central School District No. 2, has been appointed to chair a special committee from Central School District No. 2, to study the future land use of this area.

This committee was established by the Supervisor and the Town of Oyster Bay. The members of the committee include the following: Harvey E. Chappell, William F. Cosulich, John DeJesse, Norman Falkin, Robert L. Kantro, Frank D. LaComba, Francis Lavery, J. Robert McMillan, John S. Parnon, Nicholas F. Sallesse, John L. Steinert, III.

Mr. Roetger has reported that two meetings have been held to date. Further meetings are planned, as well as public hearings, and a report will be made to the Town Board shortly after the New Year.

LIBRARY VOTE - Dec. 6th
The residents of Central School District No. 2, voted on a proposed new library and library site in the amount of $325,000, at 4 polling places in our election Districts on Wednesday, December 6th. The results were as follows:

Total Votes in Favor		1,719
Total Votes Against		1,475
Breakdown by Election Districts:
	YES	NO
District "A" - Split Rock	51	461
District "B" - High School	103	562
District "C" - H.B. Thompson	920	282
District "D" - Robbins Lane	645	170

SENIOR CLASS TRIP
The annual Syosset Senior Class Trip to Washington was held Thursday, Nov. 16th through Saturday, Nov. 18th. There were 374 students and 23 chaperones who took part in this activity. The High School Principal reported that this trip was most successful. It is understood that it was a most worthwhile activity for all the members of the senior class who took advantage of the opportunity to visit our nation's capitol.
RECOGNITION OF CSEA

AS REPRESENTATIVE ORGANIZATION:

The Civil Service Employees Association has demonstrated that they have secured more than 50% of the Civil Service Staff of Central School District No. 2, to designate them as the representative organization for such employees with the exception of the Administrative Assistant for Business Affairs, the Superintendent of Buildings, the Supervisor of Maintenance, and the School Lunch Director.

This designation was by means of dues deduction authorization cards signed by such employees of Central School District No. 2. An independent audit has been conducted and has verified the results.

DEMONSTRATION LEARNING SPACES THROUGH RENOVATION:

The Superintendent is pleased to announce the award of our grant from the Demonstration Learning Center Project. The award granted by the Division of Audio-Visual Communications was among 44 requests submitted. Since this was only a total of $75,000 for all of these requests, there was a maximum of $10,000 set aside for each request. We are pleased to announce that we received our total request of $10,000.

In addition, our project is in coordination with The Education Council of Nassau County and we will receive $40,100 for personnel to support the project along with local funds already appropriated for A-V equipment and material. By taking advantage of the combined funding, we are able to utilize approximately $69,000 in the project.

The initial phase will concentrate on developing program needs, equipment needs, and utilization and purchase of supporting equipment. The learning spaces will be developed in project area C at the High School and in the library at Robbins Lane School. The centers are expected to be used as demonstration areas for space renovation and better utilization for Audio-Visual materials use with the concept of the support from a District-wide Instructional Materials Center. A major portion of the State grant is for the construction of a multi-media wall for A-V and instructional equipment. Our own staff in each of the departments will be working with TEC personnel, with Dr. Schwartz and Mr. Gearhart evaluating the program.

OPENING HOCKEY SEASON - Oyster Bay Councilman Ralph Diamond, center, drops the first puck to signify the start of the Town Recreation Department's second hockey season. Facing off are William Alonge of 4 Carroll St., Hicksville, left, and John Prosen of 11 Marion Ave., Bethpage, to start action at the Syosset-Woodbury Park Ice Skating Rink. League play will continue into March at the Bethpage, Marjorie R. Post Massapequa and Syosset-Woodbury Community Parks.

Board Opposes Shut Down Of Court in Town Hall

The Town Board is urging top judicial officials to reconsider plans to eliminate the district court facility in Oyster Bay Town Hall, Councilman Ralph J. Marino Board Majority Leader, announced.

Marino, who introduced the resolution that was unanimously approved, said Judge B. Thomas Pantano, President of the Board of Judges of the Nassau District Court, Judge Howard T. Hogan, Administrative Nassau County Judge and the New York State Judicial Conference, have been notified of the Town Board's objections to the contemplated move.

Marino explained that the plans underway to consolidate the Fourth District Court held in Oyster Bay Town Hall with the Hicksville session, "would seriously disrupt and dislocate the orderly procedures now prevailing" under the present system.

"Currently, court is held each Friday where all criminal matters, zoning violations and violations of town ordinances and local laws are disposed of with a minimum of difficulty and maximum utilization of personnel in the various town departments needed to give testimony and provide town records," said Marino.

Marino added that removing the court facility to Hicksville would

MRS. PORRELO'S sixth grade students of the Burns Avenue School, Hicksville, presented an Hawaiian Luau in their classroom on Dec. 8. All students were costumed in native dress. The program was highlighted by the dancing of the Hula, recitation by each student of his own original poem, and the singing of, "Take Me Out To Hawaii." The lyrics were composed by the students to the melody of a famous tune. During the Luau students, teachers, and parents partook of specially prepared authentic foods and drink of the Hawaiian Islands. The program was repeated several times for all sixth grade and kindergarten students.

cause "additional difficulty and disruption to various departments" and require personnel and records to shuttle to and from Hicksville Monday through Friday.

"The Town Board feels that the best interests of all those concerned -- complainants and defendants -- would be served by the court facilities remaining at Town Hall where records and personnel are readily available," said Marino. "The retention of the present operations would facilitate desirable disposition of many of the court matters through conferences and agreements and continue to help reduce the heavy court schedules currently plaguing residents."

Hofstra Elects Officers, Trustees

The Hofstra University Board of Trustees has elected new officers, three new trustees and one alumni trustee. Eben Breed, M.D. of Garden City, is the new chairman, succeeding Daniel L. Monroe, of Lawrence, who held the post four years. Monroe is a senior partner in the New York City investment firm of Ingalls & Snyder, becomes vice chairman of the Board.

Bernard Fixler, of Bladwin, president of Creative Mailing Service Inc. was elected secretary, and Miss Caroline Dickie, Malverne, was re-named assistant secretary.

New trustees are: J. Burchenal Ault, Oyster Bay, president of Radiation Research Corporation of Westbury; Mrs. Charles Payson Coleman, Cedarhurst; and Donald A. Petrie, Garden City, a general partner in the Wall St. firm of Lazard Freres & Co. Representing the Hofstra Alumni Association on the Board as an alumni trustee is James H. Marshall, a 1958 graduate, 2 Beekman Place, New York City, a corporate development consultant and a director of several corporations.

David Puce, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Puce, 16 Arrow Lane, Hicksville, will be joining his family for the holiday season.

Pageantry in Brass

By the St. Ignatius Girls Cadet Corps

A Blessed Christmas and a
New Year of Peace

AmVets Alley

pick up Edgar D. Whitcomb's "Escape From Corregidor." This book will bring all Pacific men back 25 years or more when we were the cream of the crop. Has anyone seen HARRY ZVONIK's Cousin??? I had a telephone call from her the other day but my wife beat me to the phone. Met an old schoolhead chum at AmVets club the other evening. RUSSELL CORNWELL. Must be close to 20 years but he remembered me. He is still the same handsome guy I knew... and seeing that he is one of "Nassau's, Finest"... for calling him handsome I'll probably end up with a ticket for Jay Walking. (I don't drive). All joking aside Russ... it was great seeing you again. What Happened to BOB AMBRON?

Post #44's Mafia which is composed of BOB ZUCCARO, JACK

REGAN, LOU MIGNONE and their Leader FRED BLACKLEY will pick up the "Toys For Tots" that the Levittown Square Dancers will donate to Orphanages on the Island. This Levittown group should and they deserve more credit than they get for their devotion to children at Xmas time. The affair they stage cost patrons a toy which is given to "wee ones" that haven't got.

Post #44 will hold their annual New Years Eve party at the club house. "Are you going"? IT WAS LONG AGO... 13 years ago. AmVets Nat'l. Com. was HENRY J. MAHADY. Post #44 held its first Sweetheart Dance. Rockville Centre had AmVets Post #27 with LOU KLIEN at its head. JOE RUSSELL was County Commander. AL MATTIOLI was Past County Commander. WHERE ARE THEY NOW? Matty Szurek I hear is living up-state. Joe Faccioli, unknown. Charlie Gunther vanished.

HEAR THIS... Our late member JOHNNY WALSH will be proud to know that his son will become a member of Post #44 next week. Johnny Walsh was a WW 2 veteran... his son a Viet-Nam vet. The services held Sunday at Pinelawn National Cemetery for Pearl Harbor was most impressive in every way. It is getting bigger every year. Received my first Christmas card from Viet-Nam the other day. I hope that our Membership Officer reads the National AM-VET in regards to members who pay their dues promptly. These members will receive what they call a "Silver Helmet Membership Card. This Columist will be waiting for his. Hi-Lites of National Commander Caserta before the Veterans Advisory Commission brought out many good things. Burial allowance be increased from $250 to $400 and shipping fee for body from site of death to National Cemetery. All national cemeteries be consolidated under the VA.

The Historic City of New Orleans will be the host to AmVets at their 24th National Convention. Every able young American man who becomes a member of the Armed Forces before his 26th birthday incurs a six year obligation to share in the defense of our country. If you are inducted your obligation is two years on active duty and four years in a reserve component. If you enlist in the Army you have three years on active duty and three years in a reserve component. If you join a reserve unit a minimum of four months on active duty and the remaining time in a reserve component. AND NOW TO CLOSE... Support Our Boys In Viet-Nam. Veterans JOIN your Organization TO-DAY. A Strong America is a safe America. Our Country Right or Wrong we Defend it. If you wish to burn your Birth Certificate as well... for America doesn't need you. For Christmas let me give a word of advice send to your local Chapter of Hippies a cake of Soap. Until next week then... "God Bless America"

Enlists in Air Force

Mr. William J. Olsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Olsen of 15 Budd Court, Bethpage, enlisted in the United States Air Force Nov. 28, according to TSGT Robert A. Smith of the Levittown Recruiting Office. Shortly after the enlistment ceremony, Airman Olsen departed for Lackland AFB, Texas, where he will undergo six weeks of basic training. Airman Olsen is a graduate of Plainview High School, class of 1966.
