Hicksville Kiwanis News

By Past President
William Murphy

Dick Warburton, Vice President and Program Chairman of the Hicksville Kiwanis Club, has scheduled programs which are of interest and are on subjects that affect the lives of all of those that live in Hicksville.

The first such program was on Vietnam. It was presented by Hicksville's own Leo Kanawada, Jr. After graduating from Brockwell University, Kanawada entered the United States Army as a second lieutenant. After an eleven month tour of duty in Korea with the Second Infantry Division, he went to Vietnam. He served with the 71st Assault Helicopter Company and the 3-21st Infantry, 196th Light Infantry Brigade. He was discharged from active duty with the rank of Captain in October, 1967. He is now a substitute teacher in the Hicksville High School.

Kanawada told over 60 Kiwanians and their guests the importance of the United States' involvement in Vietnam. The soldier are meeting their responsibilities and they respect the commitments the United States has made in the Far East. His answers to the many questions that were asked left everyone more knowledgeable about Vietnam.

New members in the club have been inducted by Past Pres Charles Mozzana. They are Gerald P. Trotter, Supt. of Parks Town of Oyster Bay; Bill Peters, Supt. of the Jones Institute.

A group of 35 Kiwanians paid their respects to the late Joseph Reinhardt who was a long time member and officer of this Club.

Perfect Attendance Tabs were presented to the following members: Leon Galloway, 25 years; Al Heuer, 20 years; Fred Sutter, 18 years.

Past Pres. Bill Murphy made a report that between 50,000 and 60,000 used greeting cards were sent to Spain, Korea, South America, during the year of 1967. These cards were used in making different articles such as ash trays, flower pots etc. The monies were used to pay for a heart operation in Korea, a one room school and clothing for the poor. This was a project supported by other clubs, churches and other organizations.

OVER 200 PARENTS attended a recent meeting sponsored by PTFA of Trinity Lutheran School, Hicksville, when the topic was "Sex Education in the Elementary School" presented by Weldon W. Endorf, left, principal of the school. Mrs. George Herr of 13 Croyden Lane, Hicksville, is at the right discussing features of the Concordia Sex Education Series with Endorf. Filmstrips and records produced in conjunction with books were explained to the parents at the session. Orders for over 250 books were taken at the initial meeting. It was announced that a workshop will be conducted for parents interested in a more detailed discussion and study of the topic at a later date. Endorf stressed that the prime responsibility for sex education lies in the home and that the school is but an assistant in this area.

Bank Names 3 New Officials

The Long Island National Bank of Hicksville this week announced the election of several new officers filling vacancies caused by the death of Joseph A. Reinhardt, cashier, vice president and a director.

Plan Sidewalks On Jerusalem

County Executive Eugene H. Nickerson has approved plans prepared by the Department of Public Works which will provide sidewalks and curbs for all sections now lacking them along Jerusalem Ave. from Hempstead Tpke. in Levittown North to Second St. just south of Old Country Road, Hicksville. Approximately 20% of the area will be affected by the project.

In the areas involved insufficient right-of-way was acquired in 1949 when Jerusalem Ave. was widened and sidewalks could not be constructed. The County acquired the necessary land last summer.

In addition, the west side of Jerusalem Ave. between Second St. and Fourth St. will be improved by installing concrete pavement to provide a minimum width of 64 feet of travelled way between curbs.

County engineers estimate the cost of construction at $70,000. If the proposed plans are approved by the County Board of Supervisors, work is expected to start in April and be finished by July.

Lansdell to Pay Town

Supervisor Michael N. Pettito won a victory this week when the Oyster Bay Town Board agreed to accept a settlement of $16,750 from the R. Lansdell Bituminous Corp. of Great Neck as settlement of a claim by the Town against the corporation for "shortages" in the delivery of road oil dating back to 1962 and 1963.

Pettito brought suit against the corporation as a private citizen in a taxpayers action in 1963, charging that the company had "shorted" the Town on delivery of road oil.

After Pettito was elected Supervisor he withdrew as plaintiff and another taxpayer was substituted to press the suit. In May of 1966 Pettito demanded

3 Residents New Patrolmen

Nassau Police Commissioner Francis B. Looney appointed 51 patrolmen and two police cadets in a ceremony at county police headquarters Jan. 19. After the ceremony, the new members of the department began a 12 week training course under the department's Training Division.

Three Hicksville residents appointed patrolmen are: Ronald E. Morgenegg, Victor E. Rerisi and John D. Leonick.

that an outside, impartial audit be done to determine just how much Lansdell owed the Town. The firm of Price Waterhouse was subsequently hired to audit Lansdell's books.

Meanwhile the Town held up payment of more than $90,000 claimed by Lansdell for materials which had been delivered. Lansdell, as part of the Town's agreement to accept the $16,750, agreed to drop its claim against the Town for interest on the more than $90,000.

"It is very gratifying to me that the citizens of Oyster Bay have finally been reimbursed at least in part for the materials for which their Town paid and which were never delivered," Pettito said.

Harwood Seeking Continuous Sidewalk

Assemblyman Stanley Harwood this week called upon Austin M. Sarr, district engineering of the State Dept. of Transportation (formerly Dept. of Public Works) to alter plans for the widening of Newbridge Rd. to assure complete safety for students attending schools on the state highway under construction.

His letter follows: "As you know, my Assembly District includes a major portion of the area where the Newbridge Road widening is now taking place. In a recent conversation with Mr. William Moynihan, your engineer in charge of the project, it was called to my attention that although present plans call for some sidewalk on the west side of Newbridge Road as widened, there will be four gaps in that sidewalk between the site of the present construction shacks and the intersection of Newbridge Road and Stewart Avenue.

"It is, of course, unnecessary to call your attention to the fact that this is a road that many school children follow walking to and from the Meadowbrook Elementary and Junior High Schools, as well as the Holy Trinity High School and the Holy Family Church and its parochial school. It would seem to me that a complete and continuous sidewalk is an essential ingredient for the safety of these children and other pedestrian traffic along Newbridge Road.

"I would urge that plans be altered and that a continuous sidewalk be included in the revised plans.

"Please advise at your earliest convenience what action you propose to take."

A SNOWFLAKE DANCE is being given by the Hicksville Jewish Center Sisterhood on Saturday, Feb. 10th, at 9 PM. at the Temple

Dear Sheila:

The law firm of CORSO and PETITO has been formed at 449 South Oyster Bay Rd., Plainview, as of the first of the New Year. . . The Feb. 6 Town Board meeting at Oyster Bay has been cancelled so officials can attend the annual convention of the State Association of Towns in New York Feb. 5 to 7. . .

There is a swinging editorial change going on between MARIE BLAHA of the Syosset Tribune and EDWINA SNOW of the Oyster Bay Guardian regarding the proposal to turn over north shore town wetlands to the Federal government involving some 5,430 acres. Involved are conflicting viewpoints regarding the proposed bridge from Oyster Bay across the Sound to Connecticut. It is charged that those in favor of giving the "all of Oyster Bay Harbor to the Federal government" are convinced that the bridge will be stopped. . .

HENRY C. BRENGEL, former president of Hicksville Board of Education and immediate past president of Kiwanis, had his birthday on Tuesday of this week. Best wishes, Henry. . . GARY L. LEWIS, son of Mr. and Mrs. IRA D. LEWIS of 109 Bay Ave., Hicksville, has been named manager of quality assurance for Raytheon Company's North Dighton, Massachusetts manufacturing facility. He and his family live in Chelmsford, Mass. . . ALAN L. FRIEDLAND of 40 Rockland Dr., Jericho, was chairman of the annual meeting of the Consulting Engineers Council of New York held at the Sheraton-Tenney Inn, LaGuardia Airport, Jan 18 to 20. . .

The disposal of the old Nicholas St. School building may come to a head shortly. The School Board having closed the structure to classes is now awaiting the report of appraisers on its worth before deciding the next step, probably putting it up for sale with voter approval. . . DAVID ZVILIZER of 10 East Park Dr., Old Bethpage, is the nominee of Congressman James R. Grover Jr to the Air Force Academy. . . County Executive EUGENE NICKERSON is looking for bright ideas. Monthly, starting Feb. 1, a savings bond will be awarded for the "most constructive suggestion for the good of the county and its residents. Entries should go to Advisory Council, Office of Mobilization for Democracy, 240 Old Country Rd., Mineola, N.Y. 11501. . . County Comptroller ANGELO RONCALLO has been named as chairman for Sicily earthquake victims. . . LARRY AUSTIN, president of Hicksville Travel Corp, says that 1968 will be a record breaker for travel despite what the President says. . . Judge CHARLES H. STOLL, formerly of Hicksville and now Dix Hills, will speak Feb. 13 before the LI Association on "The Rape of LI Most Precious Natural Resource - Water". He's considered an expert on water. . . Word is going around that Town Supervisor MICHAEL PETITO would not be adverse to a judgeship. His seat in last November has reportedly eliminated his consideration of a state-wide candidacy on the Democratic ticket. . .

"Out of the Foxhole". Nice to hear that BILL WALSH, Vietnam veteran is now a member of Post #44. This is exactly what most veteran groups need to-day.... YOUNG BLOOD. Its very true that many times the older members get into a rut and dont feel in the mood to get out. Many a times the ideas we had twenty years ago...are not for this day and age. Very glad to see JOE LOGAN again and that months vacation he just spent...makes him look like he came back from Florida...not a Tan, but a contented look. I see that EDDIE QUINN brought along a Buddy at Friday evenings meeting...a Quart of Milk. Our Post Commander presented me with a load of stamps which will be on its way to some VA hospital in a very short time.

Say fellow members, you who may read YOUR COLUMN...how's about getting those dues into DANNY ZINKHANZ. It's a tough job trying to call over a hundred members all by oneself. OUR ANNIVERSARY KORNER. This murderer of the English language has been designated as the Chairman of the post's 20th birthday come October, 1969. From here on in this column will run a few lines every week about progress. I intend to have a sort of Journal about Post #44 at the affair. It will cost the post nothing and each one will have one for himself.

SICK CALL...I understand that Mrs. Mignone has been on the sick list. I sincerely hope that by the time this goes to press. Mother Mignone is up and around. I enjoyed the description of the movie "Reflection In A Golden Eye" by a heck of a nice buddy... AMVET DALEY. Incidentally Frank...the poem your wife wrote was wonderful and I have to save it for this column. Perhaps next week I'll get it in print. It seems strange to say but...there are so many members wives that I have not met since I came back from my 12 years in Exile. I guess every AMVET that knew me can truthfully say, "I went out like a HAWK, and came back like a DOVE". This I attribute to old age. A new man in my section at the GRUMMAN Plant #24, turns out to be a member of the Sanford AMVETS Post #99. His name is Charlie Stengel...but to us workers, he is just plain Casey. Before I close, I would sincerely like those who may have been one of the original 28 men and one woman to third hand and try and sign up with post that you were a part of back in 1949. I know that at that time all of us were in our twenty's, now as we get older, AMVETS is a place to go to where you can meet veterans of three conflicts. Come on down as Jim Dooley says it and once again be part of a great group of G.I. Joes.

Ed Speno's Capitol Letter

Dear Friends—

As the session in Albany moves into the active phase, I find that the interest of the people of the Fourth Senatorial District in terms of legislation and new programs, is at a peak. The mail is heavy and the desire that you exercise, in terms of the issues of the day, is meaningful and important to all of us.

In this respect, I am going to send out a weekly letter to you under the above column head. You won't always agree with the positions taken or the legislation offered, I hope, as do all the legislators, that you continue to make us aware of your views through this newspaper or my office in Albany.

This week in Albany, the Governor's annual budget message was the focal point of interest. The difficult job of separating that which is desirable from that which we are able to afford is the job at hand with respect to legislative support.

Essential needs, including local assistance to education and mandated programs with an eye toward balancing the budget, is the focus of both houses.

I am in agreement with many parts of the Governor's program, especially with reference to the education need of a rise in per capita aid. However, I am opposed to any raise which burdens the consumer in a way that an additional gasoline tax or liquor tax would do.

Although the multi-faceted budget requires much study and a sharp pencil, I believe it must be cut further in order that we bring desire and growth within the purview of personal possibility.

The basic questions here are how much service should government provide? How much should we spend for these services? And how much should we ask you to pay for them? These are the questions that must be answered. See you next week.

Minibuses Help Solve Customer Transportation

The minibuses, currently confined largely to serving customers shopping in the very heart of cities, have proven their versatility in transporting airline passengers between terminals and parking lots, moving workers about at industrial plants or carrying school children.

Experiments with the miniature vehicles—about half the size of the standard bus—began in Washington, D.C., in a test to determine whether small buses running on frequent schedules at low fares over fixed routes could attract sufficient patronage to justify the system.

It was expected that the minibuses would carry approximately 900,000 passengers in the first year of operation. They actually carried more than 1.5 million.

"The buses proved so successful that the Washington transit company is continuing the downtown service without a subsidy, and has added a shuttle service between government buildings," according to a U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development report.

SHORT AND SWEET

Scientists from the Department of The Interior's Bureau of Mines assayed samples of the gold and silver gathered from the powdered remains of waste burned at the city dumps in Washington, D.C. and found the total amounts collected represented a maximum value of $14 a ton. Most of the silver and gold gathered from incinerator ashes comes from photographic chemicals and films, old coins, costume jewelry and silverware, solder in electronic equipment, and even from sparkle dust used to decorate greeting cards and posters.

Industry Supports Summer Job Program for Young People

President W. P. Gullander of the National Association of Manufacturers said, on responding to a telegram from Vice President Hubert Humphrey, "Thank you for your telegram commending American industry for its activities in providing summer jobs for disadvantaged young people. It is not too early, indeed it is very appropriate, that thought be given at this time to those young people who desire employment for next summer. I can assure you the matter will be given deserved attention by NAM members."

"As you know, the NAM through its STEP program and other activities in cooperation with NAM member companies, is undertaking a full-time year around effort to provide jobs and increase the employability of disadvantaged and under-skilled individuals. There will be expansion and intensification of this effort in 1968."

Board to Vote Coliseum Only Set New Goals For Conservation

A resolution which permit construction of a coliseum at John F. Kennedy Cultural Center has been placed on the Jan. 29th calendar of the Board of Supervisors by Hempstead Presiding Supervisor Ralph G. Caso. It is expected next Monday to follow passage and then to amend a previous resolution, tabled Sept. 11th, to demolish concrete runways, generally clear the site. His proposed resolution, according to an announcement on Monday by Supervisor Caso, will amend previous total planning authorization given the Commissioner of Public Works. It will also require approval by the Board of Supervisors of all coliseum plans, will prohibit further sale of bonds, capital notes or bond anticipation notes until further ordinances or resolutions of the Board.

"Members of the Board of Supervisors", declared Caso "are in agreement with the LIA (Long Island Association), former County Executive A. Holly Patterson and other members of the Mitchell Field Planning Committee, as well as many citizens and organizations, that Nassau County now needs a large assembly facility as a focal point for a variety of events."

"We agree that a coliseum in the geographical heart of the county could be reasonably — if not fully — self-supporting. It could develop social and economic benefits by attracting new investments. It could also serve as an 'interim hub' to whatever buildings of a Cultural Center time and circumstances bring along."

"We are equally convinced that Nassau County taxpayers, assailed on all sides by soaring taxes and threats of even higher taxes, cannot right now afford to build, by tax money alone, a full-blown complex of edifices for cultural programs. There must be priority in public works, sewers, hospitals, the public health and welfare must come first."

A reading of Caso's proposed resolution reveals that it not only seeks to amend previous planning authorization, but also to insure that the $9,800,000, in bonds already authorized by the Board be spent only on the coliseum.

"The Board of Supervisors," Caso concluded, "intends to set the pace for the development of the Cultural Center. That pace is not going to outrun the people's ability to pay for it. Neither are the people going to be denied an opportunity to be heard! As Commissioner Robert Moses so wisely advised, we are going to have 'patience and fortitude'. We are going to have the patience to plan carefully and progressively; the fortitude to withstand pressure groups of all kinds. In other words, we intend to use common sense."

The Town Board, on recommendation of Majority Leader Ralph J. Marino, has renewed its commitment to conservation and adopted a Conservation Plan setting forth new goals and objectives to be attained in the future to preserve and protect the Town's natural resources and scenic beauty.

Features of the conservation plan offered by Marino provide the Town with a vehicle to enable it to make adequate provision for the protection of its wetlands, shorelines, open-spaces, its fish, wild-life and their habitat, as well as prevention and abatement of air and water pollution.

The plan provides for cooperation with state, federal and other local subdivisions of government, private individuals and organization in the acquisition and donation of lands and waters. It also permits the Town to make use of advantages offered by the Bureau of Sport, Fisheries and Wildlife under the provisions of the Migratory Bird Conservation Act.

Property owners whose lands or waters qualify for protection under the Bird Migratory Conservation Act can also take advantage of the plan.

"The Town Board has taken an historic step in guaranteeing protection of its natural resources by the adoption of this plan," Marino said. He pointed out that it gives the Board great flexibility as it moves toward implementation of the program.

The Majority Leader said, "Adoption of the Conservation Plan is a prerequisite to any formal agreement that may be entered into between the Town and the Department of the Interior to preserve the North Shore wetlands. The Town Attorney is now reviewing the proposed agreement between the Department of the Interior and the Town and I am hopeful that it will come before the Town Board within the next few weeks for action."

"Under the plan," Marino added, "the Town in the near future will also establish a Department of Conservation and Waterways and a Conservation Advisory Council to assist in carrying out the over-all program."

The Conservation Plan includes:

- 1) an inventory and record of all the significant, natural and cultural features of the Town;
- 2) a program of open-spaced, recreational, greenbelt, and historic landmark acquisition and protection, and ways and means of implementing such program, giving special emphasis to the protection of the Town's principal water courses, water sheds, drainage areas, wetlands, marshes, ponds, shoreline and woodlands, and significant examples of the historical and cultural heritage of the Town;

Ten Pin Talk

By Henry Dockswell

"Did you hear?"

"No, what?"

"Julie Gershon and his 'Terrors' lost the first two games."

This was what swept through the lanes last Monday night as the last night of our First Half drew to a close. It seemed inconceivable that the "Terrors" could have been brought to such a pass.
After leading the league for 17 weeks and enjoying a lead of 25 1/2 points just 4 weeks ago could this really be. After their 8-3 loss last week the "Terrors" found themselves 10 1/2 points ahead of Irv Simes' "Spoilers".
Fate had left a 1/2 point loophole for the "Spoilers."

Julie Gershon was away on vacation and we don't know if he was joking or not but he told us that his team had sent him a telegram to come home quickly. As he laced on his bowling shoes he swore to us that he had gotten home from the airport barely 20 minutes ago.
But Julie is a great kiddoer so who knows.

Anyway, from the moment the news flew across the lanes all heads were turned toward Alleys 11 and 12 where the "Terrors" and "Spoilers" were battling.
Slowly, as each of the teams finished their series, they ran to catch the last few frames of the big battle. As the latest flash came our way, "They're in the 10th frame and they're all tied up," we dropped everything and ran to watch.

We got there just in time to see the two captains and anchor men, Julie Gershon and Irv Simes, step to the line. It was still about even.
Irv's first ball left the 1-2 standing, but Julie's was a tough one.
He had the 1-2-5-10. Irv made his but Julie could only come close as he left the 10 standing. It was all over, incredible as it seemed to all of us, Simes' and his
"Spoilers" had won.

"Spoiler" Sid Lang's wife, Annette, was the only gal to come down to cheer the antagonists on and she insists that she was the luck charm that brought victory to her man and his mates.

In the first game "Terror"
Sam Briendel came in with a 200 but "Spoiler" Jerry Leight more than nullified that with a clutch 222. Elliot Spencer, of the "Buffalos," collected a pretty double, a 202 and a 208 and a very fine 607 series. The following are the other guys that won on or lit badges: Sid Simon 225, Joe Jacobs 225, Murray Kowitz 224,
Mac Cushing 222, Sy Bruckner
215, Lew Marks 210, Mort Levine 207, Al Grusta 206, Rob Goldstein 205, Murray Gittelman 205, Hy Shapiro 204, Sam Springer 203, Sam Saitz 201, and Charlie Smith 200.

SRO at PTA

Over 250 parents, fathers as well as mothers, attended the Jericho Junior-Senior High School P. T. A. meeting on Wednesday evening, Jan. 17.

After a brief business meeting, Mrs. Joseph Genna, President, turned the meeting over to
Mrs. Martin Green, Program
Vice-President, who introduced the program for the evening.

A group of professional actors, called "Plays for Living," which is an affiliate of the Family Service of America, presented a playlet entitled, "Let's Get Basic," which deals with the social and academic pressures and problems that adolescents face as they grow up, including the real basics of sex, drinking, and narcotics. At the conclusion of the performance, a panel led by Mr. Arthur W. Rathje, Principal of Jericho Junior High School, and consisting of Dr.
E. Schriener, School Physician;
Mr. Anthony Cosenza, School
Psychologist, Housemasters -
Mr. John Baldesaro and Mr. Paul Hall; and Guidance Counselors -
Dr. Bernice Hamburg, Mr. Edward Rosenbaum, and Mrs. Sally Wallenstein, discussed the implications of the play, and answered questions from the audience.

The evening concluded with coffee and cake served in the cafeteria.

The preliminary draft of the Jericho School District's 1968-69 budget was presented to a 20-member Citizens Advisory Committee and the Board of Education at a study session on Jan. 18.

Board President Hal-Curtis
Polisher presided. Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Thomas F.
Carey, with the aid of Mr. David Nydyck, Assistant Superintendent, and Mr. James Slattery, Business Manager, gave the group a review of State aid and a detailed analysis of several budget codes. Comments and questions were invited.

In the ensuing discussion various points were explored and debated and numerous suggestions were offered for consideration. Board members asked questions and indicated their preliminary thinking on the items.

The Advisory Committee was represented by the following:
Joan Pallet, Gil Colombo, Louis
Kaplan, Mrs. Jane Schreiber, Seymour Licht, Robert Kravitz,
Mel Martin, Sam Saitz, Mrs. Lila

Cincinnati Symphony at Jericho

Friday night, Jan. 19, a magnificent concert took place in the Jericho High School. The Cincinnati Symphony under the con-ductorship of Max Rudolf brought to the audience works of D'Indy, Mendelssohn, Schuller and Richard Strauss.

New to this listener was the work of Gunther Schuller "Seven Studies on the Themes of Paul Klee." The entire Orchestra participated in the playing of jazz, blues. Most delightful was the "Twittering machine." It really twittered! It was a mathematically constructed pointillistic presentation which had to be heard to be believed! The music for "abstract Trio" was played al-

Thawing Ice Child Hazard

Nassau Police Commissioner Francis B. Looney today alerted parents to warn their children of the danger of thawing ice as temperatures move above the freezing mark.

Reports indicate that youngsters have been using sunpads and ponds and other unsupervised areas for ice-skating since the onset of the "deep-freeze." "Based on weather predictions," Looney said, "we can look forward to rising temperatures, and this will mean thawing ice and dangerous conditions for unsupervised skaters. To avoid any tragic occurrence, we would urge youngsters to skate only at supervised areas."

Seeks Increase in Pet Adoptions

In an effort to stem the rising incidence of dogs running at large, Town Supervisor Michael N. Petito on Monday urged owners of dogs and cats to familiarize themselves with Town ordinances which specifically forbid allowing such pets to roam about an area without personal attendance by the owner.

In the past few weeks, it was pointed out that there has been an increase in the number of stray pets seized by employees of the Town Animal Shelter in Syosset.

The Shelter's Director, Henry Bailey, also said there has been an increase in the number of persons appearing in local courts to pay fines to reclaim their seized pets. Fines for such an offense range up to $25 for each incidence and in the last three weeks, over 60 persons have been forced to reclaim seized animals in the courts.

Petito urged a Town-wide campaign to increase the adoption of dogs and cats seized and placed in the Town's Animal Shelter on Miller Road, Syosset. The Supervisor pointed out that dogs may be purchased for $2 after being held the minimum 14 days, and that there is no fee for adopting cats. Petito said that many animals are destroyed simply because of a lack of interest on the part of the general public.

"We think that there are many families in our Town who desire a pet and are not aware they can adopt one from our shelter," Petito added. "Within the coming weeks, we expect that this situation will be greatly improved. I am also urging our present dog-owners to make certain their pets are licensed and they not be permitted to run at large where they pose a constant threat to our residents and motorists."

BARBARA A. DALY of Freeport, a director of the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce, has been promoted from assistant secretary to assistant vice president of the Long Island Trust Co. She is manager of the Bank's Levittown Parkway office and publicity chairman of the National Assn of Bank Women, Nassau-Suffolk Chapters. She is also past president and director of the Soroptimist Club of Central Nassau and a member of Group IV, Nassau County Clearing House Assn.

Wachtler Wears Judicial Robes

Sol Wachtler, who came within a whisker of defeating Nassau County Executive Nickerson in the November election, received accolades from Governor Nelson Rockefeller last week and wears the robes of a State Supreme Court Justice today.

In a rare appearance at a court induction ceremony, Rockefeller made his red-carpeted executive suite available for the ceremony and watched as the 37-year-old Republican and former North Hempstead Town Supervisor took the oath of his new office. Rockefeller then declared:

"Sol Wachtler is the perfect example of an outstanding young man of integrity and ability who is willing to give service to our state in public office or on the bench. I would proud to have the opportunity to appoint him to the Court and I wish Sol and his family good luck in the years ahead."

Among those who took part in the ceremony were Assemblyman

Joseph M. Margiotta of Uniondale, recently elected Chairman of the Nassau GOP, and State Senator and former County GOP Chairman Edward J. Speno of East Meadow.

Others on hand were State Senators John D. Caemmerer, Henry M. Curran, and John R. Dume and Assemblymen Joseph M. Reilly, Francis P. McCloskey, Milton Jonas, George J. Farrell, Jr., John E. Kingston and Vincent R. Balletta, Jr.

A reception for Wachtler, sponsored by the Nassau Republican Committee, was held later in Albany, attended by many Legislative officials.

NEWLY APPOINTED Supreme Court Justice Sol Wachtler of Great Neck, center surrounded in the lobby of the State Senate in Albany with Senators John Caemmerer, left and Edward Speno, right following his unanimous confirmation by the State Senate. Both Senators made speeches on behalf of the Justice's appointment.
