Hicksville Library Bringing Directory Up-To-Date for '68

The following letter has been sent to all-known Hicksville organizations recently:

"Dear Friend:
Once again it is time to revise our Hicksville Town Directory. We know from the many enthusiastic comments we have received that the Directory has proved very useful to the public. It is only as useful, however, as the accurate information contained. May we have your cooperation by filling out and mailing the enclosed stamped, self-addressed card? This will make the considerable job of up-dating easier for us.

Also, if you have any suggestions as to how we can make this Directory even more useful to you, call Mrs. Glaser, WEHS 1-1417. We will be happy to hear from you. We expect to have "Hicksville Directory - 1968" completed at the end of September. A copy will be mailed to the head of each organization listed, and copies are available at the desk.

Thank you for your cooperation. It is appreciated.

Sincerely,
s/ Kenneth S. Barnes
Kenneth S. Barnes"

Anyone whose organization is not now listed is invited to call the library with the pertinent information so that their organization may be included in the "Hicksville Town Directory 1968."

The compiling of this directory is a public service and upon completion copies may be picked up at the library desk.

Heading the cast is Peter McEntee as Harold Hill, and Adrienne Solomone as Marian Paroo; both will be seniors at Hicksville High in the fall.

A full orchestration is being organized for the production and crews, lead by Anthony Weipert, are busy plotting out prospective scenes.

Rev. James Carmody is moderator of this group, as he is of all the parish's youth activities.

Further details for the Youth Council's presentation of the "Music Man" will be given at a later date.

We want to remind the members that our drawing for the annual raffle, held in conjunction with the picnic, will be July 22, immediately after the meeting. For those of you who haven't given George Kramer a list of the number of adults and children coming to the picnic this year should do so no later than the night of the drawing. This picnic committee requires this information so they can ascertain the quantity of "goodies" they must buy. At the same time all books must be in the hands of the picnic chairman to participate in the drawing. So remember - the DEADLINE is July 22nd. Get your books, money and list of people attending to George now.

You've seen it before in this column but we'd like to repeat it. A new guide on benefits and their dependents is available for 20 cents from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402. The booklet includes information on increase in pensions and other recent changes in law. Ask for Federal Benefits for Veterans and Dependents - Va Fact Sheet IS-1.

On Saturday morning, last week, I heard a news report over the radio that President Johnson signed H.R. 10480, known as the "Flag Desecration Bill". However, the week-end newspapers did not confirm the report - that is, the paper I read through. The purpose of the bill is to prohibit and punish by Federal Law certain acts of desecration of the Flag of the United States.

Up until the signing of this bill there was no Federal criminal statute making desecration of the flag a criminal offense - that is with one exception which is a statute in U.S.C. 3 and duplicated in 22 D.C. Code 3414 which applies exclusively to the District of Columbia.

The bill will not only effect citizens in this country but also American citizens abroad. Recent news dispatches show that some citizens abroad have publicly committed acts of desecration by burning or otherwise publicly defiling the flag of the United States.

The enactment of this legislation is a step forward on the road to patriotic sanity. SUPPORT OUR BOYS IN VIETNAM

PERENNIAL EYESORE: This Photo shows the present condition of the fence on Merry Lane enclosing the rear of Floyd's parking lot. This condition has existed for a number of years, but the appearance of the fence area has never presented such a tumbled-down sight as it does now. The original fence was torn down by youthful vandals, and was replaced by management; then torn down and replaced again. However, at that point, the former management declined to do any more repairs. We hope the new management of Floyd's will see its way clear to eliminate this eyesore and refurbish the fence.

Anyone Aching For A Clout Tournament?

It was announced today that an Annual Clout Tournament will be held at the County Archery Center on Saturday, July 20.

The tournament, sponsored by the Nymrod Archery Company, is open to all Nassau archers over 16 years of age. Contestants will compete under National Archery Association age classification. Men and women will compete in separate categories.

Registration will be held at 9 AM and official shooting will begin at 10 AM.

The Center is located on Merrick Avenue south of Hempstead Turnpike in East Meadow.

As a culmination of a year's hard work and fun, Mr. Lawrence LaMarca's Creative Writing Club visited the home of Mrs. Winthrop Palmer, well-known author. Mrs. Palmer read aloud material written by members of the club, suggesting ways in which each piece of prose or poetry could be improved.

This activity followed luncheon, which was served in the garden of Mrs. Palmer's estate. Mrs. Palmer's credentials are impressive. She is professor of English at C.W. Post College. Her successful efforts as a playwright include "A Place for Chance," which was recently produced in New York. Her most recently-published collection of poems is "Like a Shadow Passing." Mrs. Palmer gave one of her books of poetry to each member of the club.

ALAN L. FRIEDLAND, partner in the consulting engineering firm of Campbell and Friedland, Green vale, has been elected treasurer of the Consulting Engineers Council of New York State, Long Island Chapter. At the same time, Mr. Friedland is assuming the chairmanship of the Public Relations and Publications Committee of the parent State Organization.

Mr. E. J. DePaema, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Activities, Inc., warmly congratulates Suzanne Celeste Flynn of Hicksville as he hands her her well-earned diploma at a special convocation in honor of 16 disabled youngsters graduating from Jr. High School at the Human Resources Center in Albertson. Graduates seen applauding are from left to right: Anthony LaCastro (Elmont), Veronica McSherry (Massapequa), and Mark Thompson (Rosedale).

Benefit Theatre Party

The Mid-Nassau Community Center, Inc. has planned a theatre party to raise funds for further services offered at the Center at Westbury Music Fair, Sunday, July 14, 8:30 P.M. for the BODDY HACKETT SHOW.

Mid-Nassau is a local community mental health clinic offering diagnosis, treatment and educational services. It is a non-sectarian, non-profit, low-cost state approved and licensed clinic, affiliated with the Nassau County Mental Health Board.

Mr. Hackett needs little introduction as his name is synonimous with fun and hilarity. This evening promises to be a most entertaining one, full of surprises being the closing performance at Westbury for Mr. Hackett.

Tickets for the BODDY HACKETT SHOW are now available at Mid-Nassau Community Guidance Center, 560 South Broadway, Hicksville. Donation: $7.00 and 6.00. Come in person, telephone and/or mail orders will be accepted. Make checks payable to Mid-Nassau Community Guidance Center. For further information, please call WEHS 5-3100.
