From Sheila:

Hicksville and Fred grew up together, along with many of you. . .and the days and years were good ones. . .the memories of which I'm sure will always be with you.

As a relative newcomer to Hicksville, but one who shares your love and pride in Fred, and your grief at his loss, it is my hope that we may continue together, using the standards that have been set by Fred and so many of you in the past.

Hicksville is better because of what all of you did together.
Let's keep building.

Sincerely,
SHEILA NOETH.

Results of Monday, July 22nd Section A.

Minoff-Luxemburg remained in First Place despite a 7-0 pasting by Lieberman-Dembart. Sim-Galt climbed into second place by a 4-3 squeaker over Petzholt-Barth. Springer-Goldenberg dropped down to third place with a "no-show" while their scheduled opponents, Esterman-Kaplan, also did not appear.

Estman-Lemberg edged Falck-Lowenthal 4-3 to create a 3-way tie for fourth position with Kahn-Kaye and Lieberman-Dembart. Kahn-Kaye swamped Cohen-Keller 7-0. Truchill-Gershen defeated Green-Jacobs 5-2 in the remaining pairing in their division.

Section B

Brody-Rosenthal thumped Lang-Shuman 7-0 and continued to set the pace in first place. Even though Simes-Geyer dropped a 5-2 decision to Ladner-Levine, they rose a notch to second place. This occurred as Newman-Koplik were clobbered 7-0 by Hauptman-Goldstein, and the losers fell to a third place tie with Sachs-Dockswell. The latter team gained the position tie by turning back Reichgott-Stein 7-0.

Other games in this division saw Warren-Diamond pelt Meadow-Mahler 5-2 and Gluckman-Bruckner nip Stolberg-Cushing 4-3.

Girl Killed On Jericho Tpke.

The weather cooled off considerably on Saturday morning, July 20th but the pace on the county's highways and roads continued hot and heavy. Then, at 3:15 P.M., tragedy struck near one of the entrances to our community.

Kim Arstark, 13 years old, of Oyster Bay Road, Jericho, was walking across Jericho Turnpike - south to north - with her bicycle at her side when she was struck by a 1964 Chevrolet Sedan. The vehicle which was travelling eastbound was operated by a 19 year old youth, Alexander Twornowski of 18 Hewitt Drive, East Williston.

The accident occurred right in front of Merry Lane and the victim was removed by police ambulance to Syosset Hospital where she was pronounced dead on arrival at 3:40 P.M. by Dr. Ahmad of the hospital staff.

Kim was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester D. Arstark who were out the afternoon of the accident. The girl's grandmother, Mrs. Corn, became worried when Kim failed to return to the house late in the day and telephoned the 2nd Precinct of the Nassau County Police. It was then that Mrs. Corn learned of the tragedy.

No charges were filed against the driver. However, a spokesman at Police Headquarters in Mineola revealed that Detective Kennedy of the 2nd Precinct and Detective Bonora of The Homicide Squad were continuing their investigation of the accident.

Antiques Display

Our Staff Photographer was requested to cover the antique display at C. W. Post College, Old Brookville, last Sunday. Naturally, he believes a picture is worth a thousand words and turned in nothing but his photo which shows there was a large attendance. One of this paper's reporters found out that The Antique Show was sponsored by The Women's Auxiliary of The Samaritan Halfway Society of Astoria, a Narcotics Addiction Rehabilitation Center.
