

Open Letter To My Neighbors Friends, Fellow Residents And Fellow Taxpayers

As President of your Board of Education, I believe that there is a special need to address all of you regarding some of the special problems troubling our community life today. None of us, I am sure, cares for this unrest which has created an atmosphere of suspicion, discontentment and in some cases frustration. Therefore, please pause with me for a moment to go over some of our mutual problems.

I approach you with many years of public service and as a very interested spectator and participant in public affairs. I have learned one major lesson, among many things, that all periods of unrest evolve from a sense of distrust in our public officials. Distrust further springs from suspicions acquired either through misinformation, rumors, disbeliefs, outcries of battling between public officials themselves, etc., but all creating that atmosphere of instability in government which I mentioned above. The most common and most notorious cause, however, for this unrest arises from a lack of proper communication with the people. I can appreciate your feelings of mistrust when you do not know the basis for the disturbing news which reaches your attention. I too would feel the same as you, if I were not equipped with the basic or fundamental fact or knowledge which dispels the fear.

You all know the system. A neighbor speaks to another neighbor with a "did you hear" story; the news-bearer will admit that she heard the story from her very good friend and her very good friend got it from a very "reliable authority", and so on. But as we all know, a traveling story makes many stops and makes many changes along the way, all naturally worsening in degree perhaps because there is an attraction for the sinister in most of us. As an example, one story which reached my attention traveling through many ears, and supposedly originating from that "reliable source", is that Mr. Abt is holding $1,000,000 in trust and refuses to use it and help the children. For those who know the truth, this would be laughable indeed, except that those knowing the truth also know that there are some people who do not know the truth and are, therefore, alarmed, worried, concerned and naturally angry. Let me try to expose this particular rumor. The truth is that there are trust funds in the school district amounting to several hundreds of dollars, raised by children for the use of school club activities. These funds can only be used for the special needs of those particular children. The Board of Education and not Mr. Abt, is the custodian for said funds, -- those several funds amounting to several hundred dollars. This is a true example of how a rumor mushrooms into a mountain out of a molehill.

Now let's get back to reality. I don't think there is anyone who can charge our community with being dull -- far from it. In my opinion that is good. We are vibrant and alive. As I see it, this vibrancy is due to the different complexions of different people in our community. Different people present different ideas, have different feelings, and all rightfully expressing a personal opinion. However, the Board of Education through its elected trustees, in order to conform the activities of a community in a proper direction, has the legal right to exercise a legal judgment for the running of the schools. Some of you may not know that Hicksville is classified as a hamlet. With a population nearing 60,000 people this appears ludicrous, since there are many cities in the United States with less of a population. The Board of Education in Hicksville is the principal constituted governmental body. The other governmental agencies are the library district, fire district, and water district. The Board of Education is charged with the responsibility for maintaining a public educational system in accordance with legal prescriptions. The law further provides that the Board of Education must make its own rules and regulations, within the limits of the law, to govern its functions. These rules and regulations are known as policies of the Board and have the same effect as laws governing the subject matter. In other words, the Board of Education is the legislative body of this hamlet of Hicksville. To enact these policies the Board of Education exercises a majority opinion through the acts of its officials. Since the trustees of the Board of Education are elected by you to represent them, and since they are told in essence by the people that these elected trustees should exercise the proper judgment in their behalf, then their judgment in concert as a majority is the judgment of the majority of the people. If the majority of the people do not approve of that judgment, they have the right to elect some other officials at the proper time. This is our democratic system.

Why all these fundamentals? I think that it is necessary at times to return to basic principles in order to understand more difficult problems. Therefore, the unrest that is in our community is caused by those expressing opinions varying from the lawful opinion of the Board. This again is good in our democratic system since the Board then can weigh the opinion of all the people to reach the ultimate judgment as the law demands.

Now who are these strong voiced minorities who believe their

Maybe you would like to clip these names out and keep them handy for future use.

In our last annual convention in Detroit the Ladies Auxiliary circulated a pamphlet telling what their names are. On the colored cover of the pamphlet Cheryl A. Kiebing's picture appeared as a color guard surrounded by flags of the United States. Daddy, Harry Worth is the post's senior vice commander and a proud one at that.

President Johnson recently signed a law that will increase compensation payments to veterans with disabilities incurred in service. The bill becomes effective January 1. Payments to totally disabled veterans will be boosted from $300 a month to $400. Those with disabilities rated from 10 to 30 percent will receive increases averaging 5 per cent. These increases will be automatic and application to the VA is not required.

As post service officer and congress off for the conventions there wasn't much to report to the members. While it still remains for the legislators to take serious action for the veterans, the Senate Armed Services Committee did approve one bill passed by the House.

The bill authorizes compensation for the crew members of the Pueblo, retroactive to the time of their capture last January. Normally, captured American servicemen are eligible to collect combat pay as long as they remain in captivity, assuming they were eligible to collect it at the time of capture. The crew of the Pueblo were not when seized off the coast of Korea. This bill will apply only to the crew of the Pueblo.

Electrician's Mate Second Class Michael J. DePaoli, USN, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond DePaoli of 21 Wyckoff St., HICKSVILLE, is serving aboard the guided missile destroyer USS Berkeley operating in the Gulf of Tonkin off the coast of North Vietnam.

U.S. AIR FORCES, Thailand--U.S. Air Force Captain Frank L. Petrie Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Petrie, 19 Jefferson Ave., Hicksville, recently completed his 100th and final combat mission over North Vietnam. During his combat tour, Captain Petrie served as an aircraft commander with the 11th Tactical Reconnaissance Squadron at Udon Royal Thai AFB, Thailand.

The captain flew over heavily defended sections of North Vietnam to photograph the bombing results of tactical strike forces and obtain pre-strike pictures of proposed targets. Approximately one-third of his missions were flown at night unescorted. These and other missions checked the movements of troops, trucks and supplies.

At completion of his 100th mission, fellow crew members and maintenance men were on the flightline to greet him. After walking down the rolled out red carpet, Captain Petrie was picked up by his fellow aircrewmembers and carried to a large tub of water where he received the traditional "100th mission dunking."

Captain Petrie was graduated in 1957 from Hicksville High School and received his B.S. degree in 1961 from C.W. Post College of Long Island University. He was commissioned in 1962 upon completion of Officer Training School at Lackland AFB, Tex.

His training included troop leading procedures, combat intelligence, vehicle maintenance and recovery, counter-guerrilla tactics, use of communications equipment and procedures, and land navigation.

Before entering the Army, he was employed by Sears, Roebuck & Co., in Hicksville, N.Y.

A student at the University of Wyoming in Laramie, Cadet Trudil has completed Army Reserve Officers' Training Corps summer camp. The course ended July 23 at Ft. Sill, Okla.

During the encampment, he received six weeks of training in leadership, rifle marksmanship, physical conditioning and other military subjects.

Upon successful completion of summer camp and graduation from college, he is eligible to be commissioned as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army. Cadet Trudil is a member of Kappa Delta Pi, Sigma Chi and Phi Epsilon Phi fraternities. He is a 1965 graduate of Hicksville High School.

judgment to be absolute? There are indeed many such minorities. Each of us can have a different opinion but each of us cannot make laws. In my opinion, there are four general categories of minority groups, each group with varying degrees of concepts and opinions with respect to a certain issue.

1. There is the liberal group who reach for the most that can be obtained under the circumstances. Although they may reach for the stars, they do afford a means of progress which is necessary in our system. In most respects they support budgets since they represent the best that can be obtained at the time.

2. There is the conservative group who in extreme cases wish to maintain the status quo. They are often accused of preventing progress. This is not true in every respect. They furnish the reins to exaggerated spending and permit a different concept for proper appraisal of a problem.

3. Then there is the group known as senior citizens with fixed incomes in an expanding inflationary period. These people, for their own protection, often vote against budgets. However, in the majority I believe that they appreciate their community responsibilities and recognize that the future of our country lies in the youth of America, and they make the necessary sacrifice to advance educational programs. As for this group, I hope and pray, and I will do everything in my power to see that they receive the relief from spiraling costs to which they are entitled.

4. Lastly, there is the influential grouping of people who may be tabbed as parochial minded. This group, concerned with private and parochial educational systems, will naturally reject any rise in their taxes which does not benefit them. Unfortunately, this group has abandoned its civic responsibility to advance the interests of the community as a whole rather than their selfish needs.

Therefore, I petition all of you in whatever group or in whatever degree of that group you may feel affiliated with, to suppress your private interests and enlarge your scope of community responsibility and think of the children amongst us. I am asking and pleading with you to compromise your emotions with reason and demonstrate to our children a leadership with conviction in the right, because as our children are united irrespective of race, color or creed, we as parents must be united to demonstrate the leadership which these children need to secure for them a proper opportunity in their way of life.

I urge you, therefore, to vote and approve all the propositions at the coming special meeting of September 20.

Thank you very much.

Dear Friends:

We agree with the organization which has taken the name of L.I.F.E. in Hicksville, School District 17, on only one thing... that the burden of school taxes upon the home owner, has reached the point when it is excessive and unrealistic. And, although I certainly respect the rights of each one of us to hold differences of opinion, there can be no question in my mind at least, that the ends never justify the means. Only the truth can be used to effect necessary change. We wish this earnest group would sit down with our Board and our administrators and understand the laws of our state governing austerity because we do not believe that they mean to hurt the young people of Hicksville. We repeat, THERE IS A WAY TO SOLVE BOTH THE PROBLEMS OF OUR SCHOOL DISTRICT AND THE PROBLEMS OF OUR OVER-BURDENED TAXPAYERS. But, we must agree to sit down together, examine the law and the methods of administering a district under an austerity budget and proceed by law. But to do this, name calling will not help at all. There are dedicated teachers, administrators and board members working to help our children, within the limits of the law of the State of New York and according to what we as residents and taxpayers empower them.

After Friday's vote, whatever the outcome, may I suggest that with the truth as their only weapon, representatives of all active groups in our school district including the Board and our administration sit down and work out their problems, finally presenting them to our legislators who are not unaware of our problems because these problems are duplicated throughout our state... yes, even our country. Together we can work out changes in the tax base whereby our educational system is financed, so that the quality of our children's education does not suffer and the tax burden of our hard-pressed home owners is alleviated as much as possible.

IN THE MEANTIME, DON'T PUNISH OUR CHILDREN. Vote YES on Friday

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

As an old, born-in-town resident, I wish to bid my old friends and fellow taxpayers goodbye: Yes - due to the unnecessary high taxes imposed by our town fathers and school board, I'm moving out of town where I have not only lower taxes, but sewers, which is more than I can say for some of this County of TOB, with mostly one political party in power these many years, who think we are living in a wealthy town and county. Why the large sums spent on parks (Shattuck Estate) etc, when we need industry etc, to help keep taxes down. What is to happen when we old folks pass away? I don't blame the young folks if they go on relief and act as they do - for the politicians and school board think money grows on trees. Yes - our teens need some relaxation and pleasures, but wouldn't it be better for the country, the county and the town, if they had some upbringing which in my belief would end up in better family life and maybe less crime.

In closing I wish to thank the taxpayers for defeating the budget and hope they do the same on the 20th. Yes - we do not need such large football, etc, programs with their dozens of coaches - nor the assistant principals, assistant superintendents etc... each head should be given a secretary.

I was taught to save for a rainy day, but would not do it again for the few dollars I have will soon be eaten up in taxes etc, if the Good Lord wishes that I remain here awhile longer. Although in the future it will not affect me, I suggest that someone see to it that only one vote can be taken on the school budget... and suggest they when they lose interest in the taxpayers behalf, what a shame - the unnecessary noise whenever the dept. answers an alarm. It's enough to sear one out of their wits. Not only in regards of the noise, but to see the trucks almost run into each other, and then they intend to buy another truck!

Editor,
Mid Island Herald
Hicksville, New York

Dear Sir:
On Wednesday, September 11th, a large portion of the roof of the Hicksville Sectional Center Facility (Post Office) fell. As a result of the publicity accorded this mishap, the Executive Board of the Hicksville Postal Union voted to send this letter in an effort to clear the air.

It was a Miracle of the First Order that no one received serious injury. From all reports, there were three incidents of an impending serious accident. First, a string of lights fell from the ceiling. Then the water seemed to break through the cracks and came pushing onto the work floor. Then about ten minutes later, another string of lights fell.

During these warnings, the employees were ordered back to their work areas to continue their work.

Shortly thereafter, approximately 4:20 A.M., the ceiling fell. At this time, there are about 200 people working in and about this building. One cannot begin to describe the consternation that accompanied this kind of incident. Many left much of their personal effects. Things like cigarettes, coats, sweaters, jackets, and pocketbooks. Many men and women actually jumped off the loading platform, in the rain, trying to escape what they thought was a major accident.

Three of our co-workers emerged as heroes. Charles Kilen, George Thomas, and Angelo Fazzari.

These three men went back into the building and led people who had gone into shock out of the building. There may have been others who were as brave, but their names have not reached us.

We have been in touch with our Regional Representative, and he has made a tour of the plant. Through him, we will endeavor that such will not happen again.

We refer to this whole episode as the Miracle of Hicksville, and we are thankful that none of our co-workers received serious injury.

For the Executive Board of the Hicksville Postal Union, I remain,

Sincerely,
Alex Conyers
Vice President and Editor

Dear Editor:

Last week I received a nice surprise, a former Hicksville resident was here at the hospital for a three-day health check-up. Mr. Cunningham, a former employee of the Hicksville Post Office. His family had accompanied him here. We met and had a regular "old home visit". He asked about so many people and places... the Hicksville Post Office, Monsigneur George Blatterman in particular - the K of C men - the Charles Wagner Post... and so many others, simply can't enumerate them all. I gave him my copy of the HERALD of the week. It delighted him. He said now he has the address, he can subscribe for it. A newspaper from one's old home town is like a letter from the folks at home. He remembered Mr. Noeth very well and was sorry to hear of his passing away.

And, since I am saying "Hello" to so many for him - let me say it for myself, too. Sincerely,
Mary F. Keller (Now a retired veteran on the Federal Reservation V.A. Centre of Bay Pines.)

Address:
Box 153, V. A. Center
Bay Pines, Florida, 33569.

EDITOR'S NOTE: It's good to hear from you about yourself and Mr. Cunningham. Regards from all in Hicksville.

My Dear Editor:

In reading your letters to the editor about why we should vote YES on the school budget, I want to get an answer from somebody why we should go to the High School to register when we live in the northwest Hicksville on Kuhl and Nevada. The taxi fare costs almost $5.00 and if you think crossing is dangerous for the school children - how about the senior citizens? Don't they count? Or should we just pay our taxes and keep our mouths shut? I think, as long as I have a paid school tax bill for 1968 I have all the right to vote, yes or no.

I have contacted several oldersters and they don't vote for the same reason I am relating to you, but I think as long as everybody is shouting about civil rights, we, the oldest taxpayers have the same right... our tax dollars are as good as the younger folks. We have no school children, so I think we pay and get nothing - they pay and are getting their money's worth. I contacted Mr. Barnes, and Mrs. Blust and they referred me to Mr. McCormick - as I see it you can get some run around for your money. I am thanking you for the copy of the newspaper - it sure opened my eyes. I am,

Yours truly,
Albert R. Frank

Dear Editor:

I would appreciate the opportunity to appeal to the taxpayers of Hicksville for the support of the Hicksville Public Library budget that is to be submitted on September 20th.

The management study of the library conducted by Hofstra University clearly indicated the outstanding services offered by its most capable staff.

Hicksville Library Information Sheet

1. The library has not had a budget approved as submitted since 1964.

2. The total budget is $331,912.67, a reduction of $6,000.00 from the budget first submitted in May, 1968. The total budget, less fines and fees, is $319,812.67. The tax rate is about 31¢ and the cost to the taxpayer with a home assessed at $5,000.00 is $15.00 a year. Since 1964 the library has circulated 1,400,000 books and materials, answered 30,000 detailed reference questions and loaned some 2,000 films to district teachers and organizations. Bookmobile circulation has averaged about 80,000 a year, or 1/5 of the total circulation. The expense of the bookmobile is about $18,000.00, less than 6% of the total budget.

3. Our present austerity book budget is $34,000.00, or about 55% of what is needed. There is a large backlog of orders for books needed but never purchased. Prices have risen 20% while the budgets were decreasing until our purchasing power is only 40% of what it was in 1964. A professional library management consulting firm recommended a book budget of $68,000.00 in their report presented to the Board of Trustees in May 1968.

4. Over 20,000 people are registered borrowers. According to a community survey conducted by Hofstra University in 1968, 71% thought the budget reasonable. A library study, however, indicates that only 25% of our borrowers are registered voters.

5. Staff needs have not been met since we expanded the building size 50% in 1965.

6. If the budget is not passed the present austerity program in effect will continue as follows:

(a) No more reserved book requests will be accepted in order to save staff time.

(b) The library will be closed on Thursdays and Fridays at 6 p.m. Meeting rooms will be unavailable on these evenings.

(c) Current book purchases will be cut to a minimum.

(d) No special programs will be offered.

The real damage will be to the book collection. Our unfulfilled requests (mostly students) are up 20% over last year's rate. This is one sign of the declining efficiency of the library.

community do not bode well if this focal point of learning and community service is constantly rejected. The minimal tax increase will be more than offset by the library's complete program for the children and adults alike.

I urge my friends and neighbors to actively elicit help for the library budget.

Dear Editor:

Textbooks, sports, library books, supplies, and high school accreditation occupy the thoughts and pocket books of all of us, both young and old. Education and the means by which to educate have caused additional outlays of our income throughout the years and if future aid through tax reform or state assistance is not realized, further personal resources may be needed.

I understand the financial plight of the homeowner, however, I also understand and see daily the face of the student—the student who desires competition, fun, the material to learn, and the teachers and a community who, if necessary, will cooperate to provide the means to fulfill the progress of his formidable years not only in education but in life. The faces of our young people cannot be ignored. Their opinions and constructive desires will not go away.

I believe we must, at this time, re-establish and determine the value of our spending priorities. We must seriously consider, in lieu of the pending school propositions, whether we should forego a personal financial pleasure, no matter how small, in order to save for and eventually secure the above-mentioned needs of our young people. This consideration, this question should occupy our utmost attention, and will probably have to be answered for our young people. For all of us, the taxpayer and the student, these propositions are essential; without them, a young person's educational experience, needless to say, will be hindered.

Survivors Party Held By Jericho Library

On Friday, August 30th at 2 P.M., the Jericho Public Library held a "Survivors Party" in the Merry Lane Park for those children who had enrolled in the Summer Reading Club and had reached "Pleasure Island" by completing the required readings. Games were played - an egg race and a sack race - ice cream was served, certificates and prizes were awarded. Although it had been planned originally to award only four prizes, the quality and quantity of all the entries was so superior that it was decided that all the children deserved recognition. Paperback books of riddles and jokes were presented to all. Great fun was had by everyone, especially Dorothy Mills and Rosalyn Miller.

Those who attended the party were: Richard Brensiber, Susan Drechsler, Maryann Esauolo, Philip Farber, Shari Goldstein, Ruth Greene, Jill Hirschhorn, Susan Jankowitz, Deborah Kitain, Michael Margolis, Alan Mendelsohn, Robin Nathanson, Julie Rawn, John Rose, Lauren Shaffer, Neil Silberg, Brenda Simon, Steven Srebnik, Vincent Trafficante, Bonnie Rait, Michael Lesser, Larry Frank, Edward Ritter, Jamie Pestynier, Jonathan Delott, Janey Gerard, Cheryl Peralta, Ann Raives, Susan Raives, and Robin Siegel, Lauren Abruzzo, Betsy Greenberg, Philip Plossa, Jeff Delott, Laura Greenberg, Barry Kitain, Beth Baron, Linda Herbst, and Cathy Lawrence also were eligible to attend but were unable to do so.

The first Summer Reading Club Program was most successful. There are plans for an even bigger and better one next summer. Pictures of the "Survivors Party" and those who took part in its activities are on view at the Library.

Schector, makes a speech, it now concerns world and national problems instead of the next dance. This may be the awakening of the Jericho High School students.

Another change that has come about over the summer is the hirsute appearance of the teachers. Not having the opportunity to go out on strike this fall, as did their urban colleagues, Jericho teachers had to find their own means of rebellion so they grew beards, mustaches, sideburns and longer hair. They are just doing their own thing, only they need help doing it!

Sport News:
 The football season will begin September 28 against Roslyn at home. This will not be a league game but is an important booster of team and school spirit.

The Varsity Club is selling chocolate candy to raise money for future activities.

The soccer and tennis teams coached by Mr. Simon and Mr. Ianotti, have both started their seasons.

Good luck to all teams!
 Remember: peace through vegetables.

Ten Pin Talk by Henry Dockswell

As is usually the case the first few weeks the name of the game is Musical Chairs, as far as the team standings is concerned.

Only one team, the Sid Holzman's, who were in a 3-way tie for 1st, took over undisputed possession of the top spot. It was chiefly through the efforts of Bernie Kaplan who cracked a 204 and led his mates to an 8-3 win over Sid Sachs' crew.

The team that took the biggest jump was Milt Hoffman's guys, who after being shut out last week by the Sachs', administered the same treatment to Leo Geyer's crew and went from 17th place up to 8th.

Right behind them, in extent of forward leap, were the Ralph Diamonds. The Councilman's boys, after losing a 6-5 squeaker last week to Norm Ney's team, socked their way to an 11-0 victory over the Sid Simons, despite Sid's 214. The man of the hour was Herb Mahler who bowled a 522 series and brought the Diamonds up from 10th to 4th. Ralph's feet barely touched the ground as he floated home envisioning his men as League Champions.

Les Shuman threw the best game of the night, a 224, and when team mate Lew Marks joined him in the first game with a 201, the Ivy Simons' gang bowled a new Hi Game. Scratch of 920 and slapped the Hy Shapiros with an 8-3 defeat.

Julie Gershen had a peculiar feeling that all was not well when he bowled a 200 in his first and last. But then his team woke up as Eli Stempler, with a 201 in the second game, started them on the right road to an 8-3 win over the Sam Springers.

Second Hi Man of the night was Art Meadow. He bowled a 215 in the second game but although his team lost that one he showed the way to his Capt., Bill Kellerman, who fired a 202 in the rubber game to account for an 8-3 decision over the Herb Brodys. This win put the Kellermans in 2nd place just 1 1/2 pts. behind the leaders.

The night's heroics were brought to an end by Sy Bruckner's 214, Red Karbel's 210, Mike Hauptman's 207 and Norm Ney's 202.

No bowling next Monday night, Sept. 23, because of Rosh Hashona, the Jewish New Year which starts Sunday at sundown. Happy 5729.

B'nai B'rith team, a strong all-star squad, in a softball double-header at Jones Beach. These championship contests were witnessed by 1,500 fans and represented the first international athletic competition for the parent organization. Local heroes were Richard Dickstein, Marvin Karobow and Stuart Lane. The Executive board of The Birchwood Civic Association voted, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors, to recommend the proposed taxi ordinance - which calls for the installation of Taxi meters - be defeated but that a uniform rate be established and a zone system be considered. The Jericho Players were casting a new play entitled, "Claremont" by Marcel Aymé. Rehearsals were due to begin after reading of the parts were completed. The Director will be Mrs. Ruth Zerman, who turned in a superb directorial job in the Jericho Players' spring offering of "Picnic."

AT THE OPENING of the new Hicksville office of Tops Temporary Personnel, Oyster Bay Town Councilman Ralph Diamond, left, gives an official welcome to George Christmann, Tops metropolitan director, right. Looking on are Irving James, town commissioner of commerce and industry, and Barbara Gilbert, Hicksville office manager. The new branch is located at 81 North Broadway.

Etcetera by Nadine Klein and Mitchell Klein (Jericho High School)

SEPTEMBER 4 - 9:25 a.m. - HOMEROOM

Summer is over, another school year at Jericho begins. Seniors not fully realizing that they are finally seniors, juniors dreading their most difficult year and sophomores, wishing they were still in the Junior High, all start counting the days until summer vacation.

Although the school remains unchanged on the exterior, many changes have occurred within. There is a new political awareness among the majority of the student body. Now, as never before, the students are involved in a world outside of Jericho. They attend rallies for the aid of Biafran children, form political groups with widely divergent ideologies, and back candidates ranging from liberal to conservative. When the President of the Student Council, Kenneth T.

Horse Show Set For Sept. 29

The Old Mill Farm Horse Show which will be held at Jericho on Sunday September 29th, has grown into one of the biggest one day shows of the circuit. Over 400 horses competed in the last Old Mill show.

Among the many riders showing in hunter and adult horsemanship events will be Anne Yohai, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Yohai, are the owners of Old Mill Farms.

Both the farm and the horse show are the result of Anne's love of horses. She started riding as a seven year old and won her first blue ribbon in a camp horse show.

From there the family progressed through each owning a show horse to finally buying their own stable. Old Mill Farm, a 35 acre showplace on Route 106 now has about 40 horses and features a fine teaching program with George Morris, former U.S. Olympic rider as head instructor. Proceeds of this month's show will go to help the Olympic Team which will compete at Mexico City in October.

Anne helps with the teaching program when she is not busy with her studies at C.W. Post where she is a student. This summer she has won championships in both hunter and adult horsemanship events.

At the Old Mill Farm Show she will ride her two hunters Ebb Tide and Off Season and also compete in adult horsemanship.

HICKSVILLE HIGH NEWS

by Gary Enos

Wednesday, Sept. 18 was Election Day for the H.S. Class officers. At the MEAD center press, the results of the senior class presidential primaries were: Gary Enos (422 approx. 244), Linda Burnett (140 approx. 170), and the other three running candidates (Neil Zaslav, Michael Thaler, & Lewis Friedman) with under 100. As far as the Vice-presidential nomination is concerned, the two contenders seem to be Glenda Miranda, and Martin Klein. In the seven days to come the strategic campaign will be carried out and the high walls will be covered with posters of the various candidates. May I extend my personal, "BEST of Luck Wish," to the candidates of all three classes.

Gary Enos

The first part of the student campaign to give Hicksville Schools a budget was a great success. Handling out over 10,000 fliers concerning the importance of the voter registration for Sept. 20th, they succeeded in bringing out 1360 new registered voters.

The second part of the campaign was started this Wednesday (Sept. 18) when this same group, in collaboration with Y.E.S. (Youth, Education, and Scholarship) and the Jr. High P.T.A., succeeded in handing out some 18,000 fliers on the proposition. AND their importance to education. Hopefully the voters will take heed, and vote for a well rounded education this Friday (Sept. 20).

NOTE: Should the proposition concerning sports be approved Friday, the teams of Hicksville High are ready to provide another year of fine athletics. . . thanks to the training program that has been sponsored by the Recreation Dept. The entire school owes a great deal to Mr. J. Madden and Rosemary Walsh (his. Direct.) for their concern in the students of Hicksville.

Receives Bronze Star

CH. CHI, VIETNAM (AHTNC) Army Sergeant Robert J. Jusza, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Jusza, 3 Balsam Lane, Hicksville, received the Bronze Star Medal Aug. 14 near Cu Chi, Vietnam.

Sgt. Jusza received the award for heroism in action while engaged in ground operations against a hostile force in Vietnam.

A squad leader in Company B, 1st Battalion of the 25th Infantry Division's 5th Mechanized Infantry, Sgt. Jusza entered on active duty in March 1967, completed basic training at Ft. Jackson, S. C., and arrived in Vietnam last August.

The sergeant, who also holds a Bronze Star Medal for meritorious service and a Purple Heart, is a 1966 graduate of Hicksville High School.

36 Students Spend Summer Abroad

During the months of July and August thirty-six Hicksville foreign language students visited Europe. The trip not only was an enjoyable one for them but an educational one as well. The students of Italian attended the University of Florence while their Spanish and French classmates were enrolled in the Universities of Madrid and Tours. The experience gained by these students not only scholastically, but socially is immeasurable. We are indeed fortunate that Hicksville offers our children this opportunity.
