Library Changes Fine Policy

The Board of Trustees of the Hicksville Public Library wishes to announce a change in policy with regard to fines on overdue adult material. Beginning January, 1969 the charge for overdue books, magazines and pamphlets from the adult library will be 5 cents per day instead of the present 2 cents for each day overdue.

This change, the first since 1948, is felt necessary because of the serious problems that overdue materials create in a heavily used library with its now limited resources. It is hoped that the increase in fines will encourage the return of borrowed materials on time thus avoiding additional staff work in checking, sending out overdue notices etc. all time consuming chores that late returns make necessary. If the due date on borrowed material is more conscientiously observed it will insure a more efficient library operation as well as making the books more quickly available to others.

With this very early notice of change in policy there is plenty of time for tardy borrowers to search for and return overdue material while the charge is still 2 cents per day.

School Children Visit Lincoln Center

Fifty pupils from the Fork Lane School recently heard a concert performance at the Wheeler Beckett Orchestra in Philharmonic Hall.

This group of fifth and sixth grade chorus and band members not only appreciated this memorable program, as presented by the orchestra, but saw demonstrations of each orchestral instrument prior to the rendition of the selection to be heard.

The children were accompanied by Miss Marie Egensteiner and Mr. Charles House, faculty members, and Mrs. William Gallagher, a parent.

Film Strips Published By HHS Chairman

Samuel A. Goldberg, chairman of the Foreign Language Department of Hicksville High School, has written two filmstrips for Latin and humanities courses. "The living Legacy of Greece and Rome" and "Fabulae Legendae Graeciae Romanae Antiquae" depict life in ancient times and trace the influence of these ancient civilizations on modern society. Both filmstrips, published by Eye Gate House, Inc., are accompanied by records.

Mr. Goldberg developed these audio-visual materials for use in his own classes, and their success in Hicksville led to their nationwide distribution.

Superintendent Abt Announces Refund

Donald F. Abt, Superintendent of Hicksville Schools, reports that the Hicksville District has been refunded $7,383.00 by the Connecticut General Life Insurance Company. Furthermore, Connecticut General has reduced rates on life insurance policies held by Hicksville school personnel, reductions that will save the district money this year inasmuch as the district pays for these life insurance policies.

Veterans Day Mail Schedule

Hicksville Postmaster Ralph G. Cascardo announced today that the collection of mail on November 11, 1968, Veterans Day, will be curtailed.

All collection boxes will indicate where to deposit your mail on this Holiday. In addition, business firms may deposit their mail, between the hours of 9:00 AM and 5:00 PM, at the Hicksville Sectional Center Facility which is located at 280 Engineers Drive, Hicksville, New York.

The adjustment in collection schedules will enable as many postal employees as possible to spend the Holiday with their families.

STAR GAZING: County Executive Eugene H. Nickerson and visitors from Jericho (l. to r.) Rabbi Stanley Steinhart, Rabbi at Jericho Jewish Center; Nickerson; Henry Berman, President of the Center, and Mrs. Harriet Sauerhoff, President of the Sisterhood, examine Center's flag during brief ceremony held in the County Executive's Minooka office. Nickerson signed proclamation designating week of November 4-9 as "Jericho Jewish Center Week."

It Was 50 Years Ago

November 11, 1968 marks the 50th anniversary of the Armistice of World War I, the war which gave birth to The American Legion. Veterans' Day has become the one day, set aside by a grateful nation, to honor all who have fulfilled the greatest obligation of their citizenship. However, Veterans' Day is more than an occasion to express pride of service in time of war, it is an demonstration that patriotism continues to be a virtue, that service to God and Country does not end when the military uniform is put aside, that there is still a sacred duty to exalt the precious heritage of American citizenship.

Charles Wagner Post #421 American Legion has invited all of Hicksville's veterans' organizations to partake in the annual observance marking the end of the World War I hostilities on November 11, 1968. Post Commander Raymond J. Gamble will conduct the ceremonies with the aid of his staff: Auxiliary President Ruth Leger, and members of other organizations. The Charles Wagner Firing Squad will render the traditional salute at 11 A.M. and Bugler Fred Felot will conclude the service with "Taps". All the ceremonies marking this fiftieth anniversary of the ending of World War I will take place at the Memorial Mall on the Junior High School grounds on Jerusalem Avenue in front of the World War I monument at 10:40 A.M. Musical selections by the Wagner Post Junior Band, The Belairs, will entertain the audience until ceremony time. All eleven of Charles Wagner's Post's fifty year members are expected to be on hand as honored guests on this Golden anniversary observance.

Leading the honored guests will be Fred Turner of Hicksville, who is the only remaining member of the group of Hicksville World War I veterans who signed the petition in 1919 to charter an American Legion Post in Hicksville. Today, some fifty years later, the Charles Wagner Post #421 is the largest of veterans' organizations in Hicksville and is one of the largest in Nassau County.

VERA V. GALANTE, Hicksville Foreign Language Supervisor, spoke at the New York State Federation of Foreign Language on the topic of "Culture In The Classroom."

The Hicksville Foreign Language Program, a pioneer in Foreign Language in Elementary Schools, has long been a model for not only New York State but the entire country.

Psychologist To Aid "Underachievers"

Miss Gail Berman, newest member of the Hicksville School Psychology Department, is working this year with "underachievers." Her efforts so far have been directed toward helping with a program for first graders who have immaturities that affect their reading readiness. Certain members of both the Reading and the Physical Education Departments are involved, as are many of the first-grade teachers.

Dear Friends:

The Story of Hicksville 1646 to the Present", is the title of a series of narrated slides prepared by Mr. Glen Gregory and Mr. Richard Evers of the Hicksville school staff, will be dedicated to the late Fred J. Noeth and presented to the Board of Education on Tuesday evening Nov. 12th in the Little Theatre of the High School, starting at 9 p.m. We are sure that Fred would have been pleased to have this fine set of slides dedicated to him, for he himself wrote a History of Hicksville which we understand is still on file at the Library. We hope that many of you who are interested will plan to be present. Also we are sure that, as interesting as Hicksville's past and present has been... a really great future is in store for our town and its resident, if we all work together with this TAPED HOLIDAY GREETINGS: Radio Shack in Westbury, in conjunction with the USO, is offering parents, relatives and friends a chance to send a free taped holiday message to servicemen overseas. The store has set up recording booths for the program which will run through November 30 to allow time for mail deliveries to Vietnam, Thailand and other critical areas. Members of VFW Post 3211 will be on hand at the Radio Shack, Wednesday evenings from 7:30 p.m. until closing to assist in the program. Members of the community can come down those evenings and meet the Post members who will be only too glad to assist them in the tapings.

A STANDING ROUND OF APPLAUSE is in order for youth activities chairman, Bob Williams, for the splendid job on last week's bus ride to the Con Edison plant at Indian Point for an interesting tour - then onto Bear Mountains for some lunch and relaxation.

Judging by the laughter and chatter of the children and members of the Post and Ladies Auxiliary who supervised the children, when they debarked from the bus, the trip was a huge success.

CHRISTMAS PACKAGES for servicemen in Vietnam always present a problem as to, "what to send?" From time to time we get ideas from members, friends, newspapers and other media. We pass these on to you and if you can use the ideas we're happy. Tinned food, always a great item for the boys, are boned chicken, boned turkey, ham, Vienna Sausage, tuna fish, and sardines. Do not forget fruit cocktail. Kool-aid is a must. The empty crisco can or a can similar in size and shape is handy for putting in a fruit cake wrapped in foil and similar items. Also passed on to us was when using newspaper as a filler use the sport pages of the local newspapers. What GI doesn't like sports? Don't forget to check your post office for the final day for mailing these packages to our boys so they arrive in time to be enjoyed during the holidays.

Ramblin' Rose

by Rosemary Walsh

Thanks so very much for the many encouraging comments that have been given in person and via the telephone. How about some items that you feel need mention.

A special Thanksgiving weekend concert is in the preparation stage. It will bring together a wide variety of forces. The Community Symphony Orchestra, the Community Chorus, and the High School Chorus will present "Carmine Burana" on Saturday Night, November 30th at 8:30 P.M. The performance will be given in the large auditorium of the new Holy Trinity High School. The design and architecture of this auditorium is so excellent that it simply begs to host a quality concert. The concert was planned last spring but was cancelled due to the Robert F. Kennedy tragedy. Plan now to attend what promises to be an artistic achievement unique in Hicksville. Admission is free since it is all being sponsored by our Hicksville Recreation.

This past week end I found me at the Notre Dame-Navy Game at Philadelphia. I must with praise (in spite of my Fighting Irish allegiance) that one of our own Hicksville boys Tom McKeon, played a hard game with his Navy team. However, some of the regular side line quarterbacks here at home (Howard Finnegan is their grand, majestic, leader) report that we soundly trounced Philadelphia (31-0). The Hicksville crowd was bigger than the home team supporters. Too bad we dropped that one to Syosset but it looks like we may still come up a champion since all the teams in the league have lost at least one. You can count on continued champions from our school since our JV is now undefeated in 5 games this season and 11 in the last 2 years. They have scored 148 points this season and had only 6 points scored against them. Some of the lads to be credited are Chuck Arone 48 points, Tom Spadola 44 points, Jim Ajello 36 and Clinton Brown, the quarterback has 9 touch downs passes. That about concludes it for this week and I will now ramble on.

Dear Friends

Hope to see you on Tuesday night. At this time we extend best wishes for success to all those who have been elected to political office in our town, our county and our country. As we said in our editorial last week, this is a highly critical time in history. This means that every step of the way on every level of our country's government is going to require dedicated, unselfish thinking and action, for us to continue to lead our country and the world in the right direction. And this is exactly what we are doing and will have to do for generations to come. This is a tremendous responsibility, but I am sure that if you all recognize your work as part of this all-important task, the results speak for themselves.

Therefore, to all, we say, DO YOUR VERY BEST.

Sincerely,

Ten Pin Talk

by Henry Dockswell

Three teams scored shutouts and each of them needed a shut-out win to boost their morale.

First on the list were the Mary Kahns. Last week, with cap't. Mary present and bowling they took an 8-3 beating and dropped to 2nd place. This week with Mary absent they clobbered Hy Shapbro's "Fly Hopes" 11-0 and jumped right back on top. (Is there a message somewhere in their?) Hy won himself a patch, if nothing else, when he made the impossible 7-10 split. Don't even ask him how he did it.

Next were the Sid Simons. They had been wallowing around in 15th place for the longest time but this week they made their move. They were bowling the 6th place Norm Neys and they used them as a springboard as they plastered the Neys with an 11-0 whitewash to rise all the way to 9th. Norm came up with a 200 in the third game but it still wasn't enough.

Then came the Leo Geysers. They had been buried in last place for so long that they had forgotten what daylight looked like. Leo, as he always does, was holding up his end. In seven weeks he had knocked off four 200's and he was carrying a 182 average but he wasn't getting any help. This week they were playing the Sam Springers, a hot team that had won three in a row, the last two by shutouts. In typical Geyer fashion Leo started with a 205 and then for some mysterious reason the Springers couldn't seem to do anything right. Not that the Geysers were so great but the Springers were having much more trouble. Result - an 11-0 win for the Geysers and a rise out of the cellar to 16th place.

Two doubles were clouted and both men saw their teams wind up on the short end. Sid Lang rapped a 202 and a 212 and yet he watched Art Rosenthal's "AWOLS" go down to a 7-4 defeat to Milt Hoffman's "7-11's". Part of the reason was a timely 203 by cap't. Milt.

Murray Gittelman's double accomplished even less. He threw a 205 in the first and a 225 in the third but if you value your

This Month in Birchwood

9 YEARS AGO: The Art League of Birchwood Park, sponsored by the Civic Association, presented its second annual costume ball. For the most original costume, first prize went to Evelyn Turlell. For second most original, Lillian and Larry Singer won. For group prizes, the terrific wedding group, consisting of Rita and Sid Carp and Doris and Abe Goldberg, had everybody guessing who was who. The prize for the most original group was given to Mimi and Herb Gruber, Selma and Jerry Gold, Don and Adele Miller, Morly and Lee Thistle, Dave and Claire Hirsch, and Stan and Pearl Levinson, who stopped the show when they marched in as a Salvation Army group playing drums, trombones and tamborines. Other prize winners were: Vera and Dave Mark, Roslyn and Bert Sam, Lee Batterman, Blanche Karpel, Gary Ecker, Lewis Penn and Life don't ask pury, undermoulished Murray what was sandwiched between those two games. They were bowling the rough Diamonds, led by that astute professor of political anatomy, only this time Nat Warren was doing the leading. Nat threw a 201 in the first game and the Diamonds went on to an 8-3 victory.

The Julie Gershens and the Sid Holtzmans engaged in quite a dogfight. The Gershens started the evening in 1st place while the Holtzmans were in 3rd and making menacing gestures. The first of these gestures was a strong 217 by Al Minoff to clinch the opener. They won the second game also by a good team effort and in the last game the team captains tangled. Julie threw a 204 and Sid cracked a 214. But Julie had more help and the Gershens salvaged three points. They both wound up in a tie for 2nd.

Mal Corwin and Bill Kellerman closed out the individual scoring. Mel threw the best game of the night a 227, and Bill threw his fifth good one, a 210.

George Learner...The Jericho Players of the Birchwood Civic Association were scheduled to present Arthur Miller's award-winning play "All My Sons" on December 18th and 19th at the Sposset High School. The cast, directed by Allen Fristoe, included Barry Jeffrey, Miriam Reff, Jerry Nuhaus, Dale Berg, Larry Singer, Leon Zlasker, Betty Goldstein, Dave Kassen, Adele Zorn and David Kessler. Dr. Bernard Feders of the C. W. Post College faculty addressed the Jericho Education Committee of the Birchwood Civic Association. He indicated that a group of this sort could be quite useful as a liaison between citizens of communities and Boards of Education. Specifically, it could act in an advisory capacity both to school and to civic association. Such a group might act as a watchdog group in that it might recommend, on the basis of a more careful study than could be made by the average citizen, courses of action with regard to budget affairs, qualification of school board candidates and other matters of concern. On Friday, November 6th, the Book Fair Assembly was held in the Robbins Lane Auditorium. This was the culminating event for "Book Fair Week." During the week, the fourth grade classes, under the direction of the teachers of Robbins Lane, visited the other classes of the school and presented various books to all children in grades 1 to 5. The fourth grade children thoroughly enjoyed this experience. The books were presented in different ways; pantomimes, puppet shows, and/or story telling. The assembly was presented by the fourth grade children of Miss Didrikson, Mr. Shaw and Mrs. M. Simon. Miss Beverly Becker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Becker of Searington, was married to Rabbi Simeon Kobrinetz on Sunday, November 22nd. The ceremony was performed in Congregation Sons of Israel, Woodmere by Rabbi Aiyvan Rubin, Emanuel Rackman and Irving Miller. Rabbi Kobrinetz, the spiritual leader of the Jericho Jewish Center, was a graduate student at Columbia University and was ordained at Yeshiva University. He served as a Chaplain with the U.S. 12th Air Force in Germany and was the recipient of the Commendative Medal.

Fiction And Fact

By Dettie Mills

This is the season for water tower-watching, sky dreaming, and deep breathing. The water tower across the street from the Library is probably the highest and therefore the most prominent point of reference in our town. It's something else, too. Birds, birds, birds. Hundreds of birds make their homes on the hard under-belly of the water tower. This is the time of the year when they are packing their bags, saying good-byes, gossiping through the early twilight, generally making their presence known so that their absence will be that much more obvious. I, for one, will miss them when they're gone. Sometimes their chattering is deafening, but as the sun goes down they talk and call to one another; their circles around the tower becoming less frantic, less zig and more zag. They seem to call attention to the sky and the sun and its once-a-day spectacular in the west.

On Mondays and Thursdays, when the Library is open until nine o'clock, stop by and soak up some of the free music and art work. Around dinner time is best. The birds are finishing up the business of the day. The sky is pulling out all the stops in honor of the sun's final curtain. Forget the shushing of traffic on Jericho Turnpike, the ding-ding of the alarm tubegun the corner gas station, the scream overhead of jets making their final approach to Kennedy. Look at that magnificent autumn sky and listen to the birds in their last lifting flurry before bedding down.

Jericho Public Library may not have all the conveniences (yet) but we've got a view that is serene, magnificent, humbling, and just plain lovely. It stops you dead in your tracks and, in one blazing moment, dissipates those embarrassingly unimportant, man-made problems that keep us from participating in and enjoying the incredible freedom and variety that surrounds us. And that, dear friend, is one item that doesn't appear on your tax bill.
