Proclamation By Our Governor

Governor Rockefeller has designated December 9-14 as "Human Rights Week" in a proclamation citing New York State's leadership toward equality of opportunity for all.

"In the realization that government must assume an active role in assuring equal opportunity for all its citizens," the Governor said, "New York State through legislation established the State Commission Against Discrimination in 1945.

"In the ensuing years, our State strengthened its laws in the domain of human rights. The original State Commission was redesignated, at my suggestion, the State Commission for Human Rights, and in 1968 became a division in the Executive Department."

These actions, he declared, accorded with what he termed "the dominant and abiding aim" of his Administration--"to bring about equality of opportunity for all our citizens regardless of race, creed, color or national origin."

Saying the cause of human rights has become international with the adoption by the United Nations of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the Governor added:

"That Declaration is an admirable document which gives hope for the future to all people of the world devoted to freedom and justice under law."

ISPC'S MOVE REFLECTS GROWTH OF POOL INDUSTRY

HICKSVILLE, N.Y.... The rapid growth of the private swimming pool industry in America, was recently dramatically emphasized when International Swimming Pool Corporation, originators of the celebrated redwood concept, moved to its brand new 50,000 square foot plant in Industry Court, Westbury, Long Island, New York.

According to Frank Dunagan, President of International Swimming Pool Corporation, makers of the Futura line of swimming pools, vastly increased sales in recent years, and a prospect for even greater demands, prompted the move to Westbury.

The new building, which houses the decade-old firm, is adjacent to major highways, has its own four railroad sidings, and the most modern steel and aluminum warehousing and shipping facilities to be found in the country. The Long Island plant also contains the Administration, Sales, Engineering and Accounting Departments for its other branches and dealers throughout the United States and Puerto Rico.

Ramblin' Rose

by Rosemary Walsh

It sure is a pleasure to welcome my favorite grand stand companion, "our majestic leader," Howie Finnegan, in sharing these printed pages. He will bring you the real sports story while I'll continue with my motherly old version.

I know it isn't polite to toot one's own horn—but, since the praise really goes to all the wonderful people who work with us in recreation, I must tell you of some great doings. As our dearest Editor noted, the "Carmina Burana" performance was a glorious community effort and the entire cast, their directors and conductor, Mr. Arnold, Mr. Golek, Mr. Burakoff, and Mr. Gouse should all be applauded.

A few days later the Poetry festival was held and I watched a roomful of adults sit motionless and inspired by the readings of both the guest poet, Miss Mae Swenson, and the "amateurs" from the district staff including Charlotte Dwyer, Gardner Gregory, Arthur Horowitz, Rebecca Kaufman, Joseph Madden, Joseph Scalia, William Schuck, and Lois Walker. We have also received an invitation from Master Virtuosi of New York for our Recorder Consort to be featured as guest soloists in the Children's Christmas Holiday Concerts to be held at Philharmonic Hall on December 28 at 11:30 A.M. and 2:30 P.M. (credit to our Mr. Burakoff). Now what mother could be prouder of her brood than that. Well, there is one more, our Folk Singers are presenting a concert on Friday, December 20, at 8:30 P.M. in the High School Auditorium. The extra special pride in this venture is their leader, Steve Weinblatt, he started with our program first as a participant, then he went up the ladder from Volunteer Leader, Student Leader, Assistant Leader (College), and now to Leader, which requires a teaching degree. Steve is a Speech Teacher in the Wantagh Schools and a resident of Hicksville School District. That'll make you kinda proud too, no?

Now for some sporty news—our first Ski Trip (Junior High Students) hits the slopes this Saturday morning. Guess we picked the right weather, didn't we? They will depart at 6:30 A.M. (approx) and return in the evening, sure wish I were going with them this time, but that little old wedding in our house keeps popping in the way. But then I do guess the bride's mother ought to be around for times like this—actually I love it.

Guested the Holy Trinity-St. Mary's Track Meet last Friday (nearly froze to death) and it appears Coach Pepe (Holy Trinity) has quite a few great prospects.

Besides these good things we make mistakes also, I believe the best thing to do is admit it and apologize. Due to illness and some crossed wires the Recreation Department failed to have a representative to register all our adorable elementary twirlers last Saturday. Forgive us, twirling mothers and dads! We'll do it all over again this Saturday, December 14, Junior High, 9:30 to 11:30 A.M., Jerusalem and 4th Street entrance. If you have any special problems call us at Wells 5-9000 ext. 406.

Like most of you I've been to do and places to go so I'll ramble off—Loves ya—

The Hicksville School District, for its first annual poetry festival held on Dec. 5 welcomed Mae Swenson, well-known poet whose work appears frequently in The New Yorker. She is seen here with Donald Abt, superintendent of Hicksvilles schools and with two members of the H.S.D. staff who also read from their own poetry—Joe Scalia and Art Horowitz.

Fiscal Priorities Essential

Roncallo Warns, Overspending Will Cause Tax Crisis

Nassau County Comptroller Angelo D. Roncallo today called on the County Administration to tighten up its fiscal procedures and immediately establish a system of fiscal priorities for county projects based on need and ability to pay.

The County Comptroller warned that indiscriminate and unplanned spending would create the same financial crisis in Nassau County that now exists in New York City.

Roncallo's warning followed a bid opening today (December 10) in the County Treasurer's office in which the County was offered bids on a $37,950,000 bond issue at the interest rates of 5 per cent and 4.90 per cent.

"These are the highest interest rates ever offered to the County," Roncallo declared, "and point out the need for establishment of a system of fiscal priorities."

He noted that in February of 1967, the County Administration sold a $25,440,000 bond issue at an interest rate of 3.4%. In March of 1968 the County administration sold $26,810,000 bond issue at an interest rate of 4.60%.

"This should have indicated to the County Executive that interest rates were sky rocketing and a new procedure was essential to protect the interest of the taxpayers."

Roncallo said the County has authorized approximately $200,000,000 indebtedness. He singled out the new County welfare building, which was proposed by the County Executive, as a $11,000,000 venture but is "already up to a $19,000,000 cost." The Michel cultural center is another project which apparently promises to break all spending records if it is constructed; he declared.

"The choices are clear. We must keep our spending to a minimum or available tax money will be grossly inadequate to pay for absolutely necessary county services. Lavish projects must be put aside and undertaken only when funds are available unless we want to put this county on an irretrievable course that will put county residents in hock for years to come," Roncallo declared.

The comptroller said he has conferred with Presiding Supervisor Ralph Caso, vice chairman of the board of supervisors, who agrees with him on the necessity of establishing fiscal priorities. He said Presiding Supervisor Caso indicated that in the future the Board of Supervisors will authorize bonds only for specific purposes and earmarked for specific projects.

Girl Scouts To Trim Tree In Salisbury Park

The Girl Scouts are presenting holiday gifts to the people of Nassau County this year; beautifully decorated trees in the County Parks. The trees, one in each park, will be hung and festooned with ornaments the Scouts have designed and made themselves. The program involves Girl Scouts from both Mid-Island and Nassau Councils and is being carried out through the cooperation of the Nassau County Dept. of Public Works, Division of Recreation and Parks. Park personnel is supplying the trees, installing the lighting, and providing all equipment, including a cherry-picker, needed for the project. Each Girl Scout tree trimming will be followed at dusk by a tree-lighting ceremony and a program of Girl Scout carol singing. The public is cordially invited to attend. The holiday tree "trim-in" by Nassau Council Girl Scouts in our area is set for 4 p.m. to 5 p.m. on Friday, Dec. 13, at Salisbury Park in East Meadow.

ASSEMBLYMAN - 8th A. D.
147 Old Country Road
Hicksville, N. Y.
(516) WE 1-8300

I am prefilling with the Clerk of the Assembly my bill requiring all banks, mortgage lenders, insurance and investment companies to pay interest on escrow monies deposited by homeowners for payment of taxes, insurance premiums and water rents.

At the last session of the Legislature the institutions affected by my bill—banks, mortgage lenders, insurance and investment companies—lobbied my bill to death. They did this despite the wide support my bill has won.

I had noted that since first introducing the interest on escrow bill, I have received thousands of letters and telegrams of support from small property owners throughout the state. In addition, the bill has the support of school boards and other homeowner-oriented groups.

The only opposition to my bill comes from these escrow demanding financial institutions, of course. They hold the escrow money for long periods of time and invest it for additional profits to themselves. The small property owner, who has handed over the escrow money as a sort of ransom for the privilege of obtaining a mortgage, could much better use that money for Christmas shopping.

At present, a small property owner as a condition of obtaining a mortgage must agree to regularly deposit into an escrow account more than enough money to assure payment of taxes, insurance premiums and water rent. The mortgage holder pays no interest on the escrow money and can use it as desired for investment and profit purposes.

The average mortgage today has at least a six per cent interest rate. It costs the mortgage holder less than one per cent to service the mortgage. There is no logical reason, therefore, why interest should not be paid on the remaining five per cent.

Under terms of this bill, any financial institution receiving money from a mortgagor for tax payments, insurance premiums or water rents, would deposit the money in an interest bearing account and notify the mortgagor in writing. An insurance company would have the option of crediting the mortgagor with interest at four per cent annually.

Your County

by Eugene H. Nickerson
Nassau County Executive

The current "generation gap" has assumed far greater significance than traditional differences in vocabulary and interests between parents and children.

In every generation there have been failures in communication and understanding.

Today, however, what is involved are more basic attitudes and values.

The older generation, which has learned patience over the years, demand that youth abandon its impatience.

But just as we ask youth to learn the lessons of experience, so should we make every effort to understand what youth is asking of us.

It is a dangerous illusion to treat the current ferment among the young people of America as some passing fad.

Young people today are impatient with all that is wrong and cruel. And who can say honestly to them that the older generation has done a magnificent job at achieving justice and a world at peace?

Some have tried harder than others, but that is no answer. Young people have lost patience with hypocrisy and timidity. They call for courage.

Some of them have not shown courage themselves. Violence only displays a lack of courage.

But young people who are honestly concerned about human rights and peace place the highest value on human life. They have no use for violence.

The challenge now facing all of our institutions is to open the doors to responsible young people and benefit from their ideas.

Last week, at the annual conference of the Nassau County Youth Board, I presented this challenge to all age groups in attendance.

A major purpose of the Nassau County Youth Councils is to help young people make a real impact on the policies and decisions of government.

The Youth Councils already established in Freeport, Glen Cove, and Roosevelt, have given young people the opportunity to move from protest to direct consultation with the officials who are there to serve them.

My administration is determined to make positive use of protest by providing effective channels for expressing it constructively.

Ocker And Petito Oppose Bridge

In a joint statement today Oyster Bay Town Supervisor Michael N. Petito and Board Majority Leader Edmund A. Ocker demanded that the local public hearing on the proposed Oyster Bay-Rye Bridge be attended by top officials from the MTA, State Transportation Department, and representatives from Gov. Rockefeller's office.

"We will also insist that this hearing be more than the usual session of this sort, where the public is given little more than an opportunity to let off steam," Petito and Ocker stated. "We want this hearing to be a true dialogue between responsible state officials, the town board and concerned residents. Our vehement opposition to the proposed bridge and feeder highways is unchanged. The State officials making these proposals must meet freely and publicly with us to hear our detailed objections and offer their rationale for needlessly destroying some of the finest residential communities on Long Island.

"We are deeply concerned over the prospect of some 177 homes being condemned, communities being cut in half and priceless natural resources being ravaged. The public hearing which the State has promised to hold in the community must indeed be a fact-finding session if it is to serve any meaningful purpose," the two town officials said.

Petito and Ocker said that they would contact the appropriate State officials to make known their demands on the format and substance of the public hearing.

Murphy Wins Election For Fire District Commissioner

By Art Rosenthal

Neil Murphy defeated incumbent James H. Conti for a 3-year term as Jericho Fire District Commissioner in the election which took place Tuesday, December 3rd, at the Jericho Fire House. The former Fire Chief received 326 votes to Conti's 162, with 7 void.

This was a very spirited and hotly-contested election during which direct mailings, posters and area newspaper coverage were utilized by both contestants. The 495 vote total was the largest since elections were first held for the post of Jericho Fire District Commissioner.

Also returned as Treasurer of the Fire District was Robert Meyers who ran unopposed. Meyers received 326 votes and as Treasurer, is the only fire official to draw a salary - $550 per year.

Murphy will begin his 3 year term this coming January. Currently, the Board of Commissioners consists of four members: Marty Schwartz, Bill Simpson, Angelo Preite and Conti. Harold F. Smith, the 5th

Commissioner, died last month and his replacement is scheduled to be selected by the Board at its monthly meeting, either in December or January. The Commissioner selected will serve out the 1 year remaining of Smith's 3-year term and another regular election will be held next December.

At the present time, the Jericho Fire Department consists of two companies, both at full strength of 40 men each. Fire Chief Eugene Marmano is in immediate command of the Department, aided by two assistant chiefs and the regular complement of officers of the two companies. A spokesman stated that the department has high hopes of starting a third company, when and if the waiting list becomes large enough.

Three full-time dispatchers (also called custodians at the Fire House) who, among other duties, maintain the district's alarm system 24 hours a day, represent the fire district's only salaried employees. All fire-fighting members are volunteers.

Ten Pin Talk

by Henry Dockswell

Last week the alleys rang out to the tune of Sid Sachs but this week they clanged the name of Sid Simon.

Whereas Sid Sachs wears his glasses on his stony pate, Sid Simon has to brush the hair out of his eyes so that he can see clearly through his glasses. And Simon may not have a fancy wrist twist but he most surely rolled up a fancy 645 series. He whopped a 245, a 225 and a 175 to lead his team to an 8-3 victory over the Sam Springers. The only game the Simons lost was the one where Sid fell below 200.

The last place Mary Kahn's are like the Rock of Gibraltar. Sure they've lost a series here and there (3 out of 13 to be exact) but they grind out the wins with a steady, insistent rhythm that beats out the tune, "Brother, The Scholar" Karbel firing his second double of the year a 205 and a 210 the Kahns easily beat Art Rosenthal's AWOLS 8-3. But this time Capt. Mary made it even easier as he bowled his first good one of the year, a strapping 224. At this moment Mary is about 12 points below his last year's average so if he starts to bowl the league might never be able to pry them loose from last place.

Milton Hoffman is bowling like crazy. For the second week in a row he smashed a double. But whereas last week his double led to a shut out victory, this week his 200 and his 202 left his 4th place "7-11's" on the short end of a 7-3 score. And he was joined this week by Elliot Spencer who threw a 211 in the last game. Actually it was lucky that Elliot came up with this one because it was the only game the "7-11's" were able to take from the Murphy Kowlowitzs. This win moved the Kowlowitzs from 5th up to a tie for 2nd as both the Sid Holtzmanns and the Julie Gershens were shut out.

At the start of the evening Herb Brody's "Black Panthers" were 6th and the Julie Gershens were 3rd. With Bill Sussman leading the way, with a 206, the "Panthers" whitewashed the Gershens and exchanged places with them. Lou Truchil made a good try for the Gershens as he rolled a 215 but it wasn't enough.

The Sid Holtzmanns got the shock of their lives Monday night. They were in 2nd place and not in too much apparent danger as they faced the last place Lrv Simes' "Spoilers". Boy were they mistaken. Even with Sid pounding out a 204 in the first game the "Spoilers" overcame that and rose to inflict a humiliating 11-0 defeat on them. The Holtzmann's remained in tie for 2nd but the "Spoilers" jumped 5 places up to 13th.

Here are the others that distinguished themselves Monday night: by Brudner 216, Joe Jacobs 205, Murray Gittelman 203, Art Meadow 202, and Stan Brizel 200.

Fiction And Fact

By Dottie Mills

"This book is terribly overdue. I think it would be cheaper to buy the book than to pay the overdue fines." The thought and words are heard on an average of ten times a day in every library. Most people are under the impression that fines just keep going on and on. If this were the case then perhaps it would be cheaper to pay for a book that has been overdue for several weeks or months. This, however, is just the opposite of the thinking which Jericho Public Library has applied to its policy regarding fines and overdue books. The idea is to get back the book, not to make money on it. Imposing a fine after the loan period is expired is simply one way of encouraging our patrons to return the book so that others may make use of it.

For this reason Jericho Public Library has a maximum fine of $2.00 for adult books and $1.00 for juvenile books. In this way we hope to encourage people to return their overdue books no matter how late they may be. Naturally if a book is lost then the Library requests the patron pay the replacement price of the book. Quite frequently a lost book that has been paid for turns up months later. The patron returning the book will have the price of the book refunded to him.

With this system, it is impossible for a patron to pay more than the value of the book which is overdue. In addition to making it as financially painless as possible, the Library recently increased its loan period on all books (except 7-day books and periodicals) to four weeks. All books may be renewed for an additional four weeks, if necessary, and if no one else has requested the use of the book.

The overdue charges are nominal: 5¢ per day on new 7-day books and 2¢ per day for all other books. Overdue charges are computed for those days on which the Library is open for business. No charge is made for any Wednesday when the Library is normally closed, nor for holidays or snow days when the Library is closed for a special reason.

Many of our patrons make use of the Direct Access privilege which allows a Jericho resident to borrow books from any library in Nassau County. Some of these patrons have become delinquent borrowers in libraries other than Jericho. The rules governing all libraries participating in the Direct Access program state that the delinquent patrons must clear up their record with the library in which they are delinquent before they will be permitted to borrow books again. If this is the case with you, take time to visit the library to which you owe books or overdue fines and clear up the record. You will save money and time for Jericho Public Library by making it unnecessary for the staff to engage in time-consuming correspondence and record-keeping. And, chances are, you will save yourself time and money too.

If you have any questions regarding the proper procedure for borrowing books from other libraries, or for clearing up records with a neighboring library, please consult Miss Mills or Mrs. Miller, at Jericho Public Library.

Passing It On...

by Irv Herskowitz

Gas Vs. Oil

A plumbing concern is now in the process of surveying the last Side to check out those who may wish to switch to gas heat. They claim the gas heating customers would establish a basis to bring in gas lines. They also assert that our original heating equipment is a tired old man and hasn't many more years of life left. The story they offer is a conversion job for $600 dollars with a guarantee that gas is better and cheaper. They are willing to argue this fact with anyone. This column will furnish the name of the firm upon request.

A Must

The approaching cold and windy weather makes the possible danger of fire a grimmer reality. That is why every home should have fire extinguishers. This could be your smallest investment for the greatest possible gain you could ever make in your home. Your Jericho Fire Department strongly recommends this precaution. They would mind for me and would do the same for anyone who prefers not to snop for them themselves.

Zoning

The average resident probably isn't aware of it, but there is quite a hassle going on regarding the zoning of a strip of land adjacent to the expressway on the west side of Broadway. Attempts to construct an office building on this site is being vigorously opposed by all civic groups and the residents within this area.

BCA Election Nite Dance

Reserve Saturday Evening May 2, 1969 on your calendar now. The greatest fun bargain of the year will take place then. More about this later.

On New Year's Eve

The Sisterhood of Cony, Shaars Zedek is having a New Year's Eve Party. The Richard Meisner Orchestra will play, songsters, Set-Ups, Dinner, Parties, Prizes. All this for just $35.00 a couple. Costumes Optional. Kindly contact Mrs. S. Grant, 11 Hollywood Dr., Plainview, WE 8-1252 if you are interested.

Toddler Session

The Sisterhood of Cony Shaars Zedek will have its toddler session on December 17 at its Temple on New South Rd. and Old Country Rd., Plainview, N.Y. A Chanukah luncheon will be served to the participants at 11:30 A.M.

Melars and Bowlers

It would appear that to be a good bowler one must first become a dentist. The ratio of better bowlers in the BCA league appears to be greater amongst the dental pullers than any of the other professions. You don't believe it, check it yourself.

Happy Birthday

The Birchwood Civic Association is now thirteen years old and still functioning like a new born babe. How many civic associations can make that statement?

Etcetera

by Nadine Klein and Mitchell Klein (Jericho High School)

Newly chosen members of the Jericho Chapter of the National Honor Society will be inducted the week before the Winter Holidays. Only fifteen percent of those who applied were accepted this year. The three most important characteristics the Honor Society takes into consideration for each applicant are: leadership, scholarship, and service to the school and the community. The required average differs for the Juniors and the Seniors. The Juniors need an overall average of 90% while the Seniors need an 85% average. Teachers recommendations are another important consideration for acceptance. Every teacher in the Senior H.S. whom the applicant has had, fills out a prepared questionnaire which is designed to let the teacher judge the students by his actions in class or during extra curricular activities.

This year three of Jericho's musicians took part in the All-State Music Festival. Alan Burin, violinist, Dennis Maurer, French horn, and Gary Greene, violinist, went to Buffalo from December 5-7 for the festival.

Last Wednesday, December 4, the Jericho Varsity Basketball team played their first scrimmage for this year against Bethpage H.S. at home. Although Jericho lost 62-54, the team is looking for a better beginning when they play Plainville H.S. on Friday December 13. Anthony D'nome is the coach of the team but the team captains have not been picked as of yet. Many of last years great varsity players are back again: K. Schechter, B. Shulman, P. Goldstein and D. Lomurro. Come down and support your team this and every Friday night!

Junior-Senior PTA

The Executive Board of the Jericho Junior - Senior High School PTA sponsored a continental breakfast for Room Representatives in recognition of service to the PTA on Tuesday, December 3rd, in the High School Library.

Mrs. Mary Caputo, President, presided and introduced the administrative staff of both the Junior and Senior High Schools.

To The Editor

Dear Sir:

I would like to express my appreciation and sincere thanks to the residents of Jericho for the cooperation extended relative to last week's election for Jericho Fire District Commissioner. Also, to "The Villager" and "West Birchwood News" for the equitable newspaper coverage given to me and to Jim Conti, the incumbent Commissioner.

It is very gratifying to know so many people took the time and the effort to go to the Firehouse and cast votes.

Please advise your readers I intend to do everything possible to see that the Jericho Fire District maintains a high standard of protection for the residents, as well as the highest rate of efficiency among our volunteer members.

Sincerely,
S/ Neil Murphy

Water District Vote

In addition to the vote for Jericho Fire District Commissioner last week, there was also an election for the Jericho Water District Commissioner post. Incumbent Nicholas Bartilucci riding up 742 votes defeated Peter Morley who had 568 and Richard Hauser with 61. The position calls for a three-year term.

Turn your old oil tank into a split-level dog house.

Then heat it with modern gas heat—nowadays not even a dog has to put up with old fashioned heating problems.

You can't teach an old dog new tricks, and you can't expect modern heat from yesterday's fuel. Yet, some people are doing exactly that. They're still watching and waiting for delivery trucks. Still paying for service contracts. Still putting up with furnace rumble, fuel odor and all the other problems of outdated home heating. Yet, modern gas heat is so easy and economical, you can have it installed in your home for less than the cost of a major appliance (it takes less than a day to install). Financing? LILCO can arrange for payments as low as $10 a month. Ask for a free home heating survey and a guaranteed estimate of your annual heating costs. Call (516) 747-1041 and ask for Miss Jones. Right now you can get your choice of a free gas clothes dryer or water heater or a $75 allowance toward modern gas heat; plus free service on your heating system as required. And you get to keep your old oil tank as a memento of times gone by.

The mass market for reasonably-priced, pre-fabricated swimming pools is growing rapidly according to Frank Dunigan, President of International Swimming Pools.

International dealers throughout the U.S. are adding sizeable profits to their income by marketing the design patented FUTURA' redwood pool in their sales area.

To meet the increased demand for home pools, we need more representatives right now as dealers in open territories. We seek sound businessmen oriented to promotion and sales. Experience in the pool field, special equipment or previous technical training are unnecessary.

Sales and profits are big in this new pleasure industry, yet investment can be minimal.

SPORTS

By Howard J. Finnegan

Wicked early shooting by Don Massey and Bill Wiffen failed to carry Hicksville to victory in its first basketball game of the season as Plainview excelled from the foul line to gain a 59-57 victory on Tuesday night. Coach Bud Bryan's Club suffered a damaging blow when Massey was forced out of the game with 2:28 remaining in the third period. Hicksville held on an even-footed in front 55-52 with 2:59 left, but reckless shooting sent the play to Plainview. Four fouls after a 3-point play gave the Gulls a 59-55 lead.

Bob Rogers scored from 15 feet and the Comets stole the three times in the last 48 seconds but could not score.

Wiffen had 22 points for Hicksville's game high. Massey tallied 15 before he was tagged with the four and fifth Flake fouls.

Mark Whimbrel cut the nets with a one-hand push shot as the last numeral faded from an overtime scoreboard at Plainview to give Hicksville Jay Vee a 51-49 victory.

Plainview free-wheeled to a 30-17 lead with three minutes left in the third period. Bob Abanese took over with a deft floor game as well as 8 points. Frank Feely, Rick Miracolo and Steve Woodchelo rallied with Abanese and the Orange overtook the hosts.

It was a well-deserved victory for new Coach Nick Manfredi who guided the rally.

Levittown Division 49
Hicksville 63

The selection of George Peicheras All - Metropolitan Guard by the New York Daily News capped a host of honors for the Hicksville High Senior. He was the defensive end also for the Orange as it compiled a 7 won and 1 lost record on the season. He also received All Division, All North Shore and All County honors for his efforts.

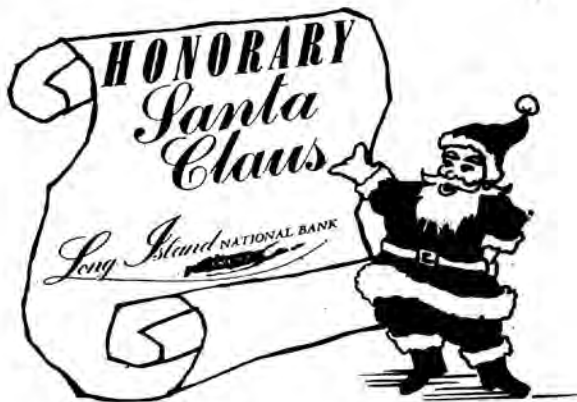

He and Charlie Zodka, Dennis Patellis and Tom Flanagan played for the last three seasons for the Orange and Black and contributed to the greatest success on the gridiron the school has experienced in its 44 year history. The Comets boast a record of 22 wins and 2 losses.

Felcher was the backbone on defense and was credited with 28 unassisted tackles. Patellis was the only boy to start three consecutive seasons and had 16 unassisted tackles as a defensive guard. He won all-division honors. 18 direct drops of enemy runners were the province of linebacker Steve Grilli and he also took down all-division laurels. He was regarded as the best blocking offensive guard on the team.

Tom Flanagan had 10 tackles from the position of the same and Junior John McDermott, when he wasn't clearing the way with bruising blocks on runs by Zodka, led the team in pass interceptions.

ville camp is Frank Rogers. As defensive end he had 24 unassisted tackles.

While in truth: 1968 will be remembered at Hicksville as the year of the line man the offensive with 149 points to the opponents 28 was in the spotlight also. As a team Hicksville had 271 rushing plays for 1407 yards and 13 touchdowns and in passing quarterback Brian McAuley had a highly respectable 38 for 87 and 569 yards gained.

His favorite receiver was Ed O'Reilly who pulled down 14 passes good for 219 yards and one touchdown. Halfback Fred Ehle had seven receptions for 128 yards and two touchdowns. He got a third TD by running a punt back 54 yards.

O'Reilly churned up the yardage from his halfback position. He rushed 40 times for 403 yards and 4 touchdowns. This marks a new record of average per carry surpassing the Ed Coleman in 1943 and John Roberts in 1958. Both had 9.5 marks for more than 40 rushes. The total yardage is still Coleman's unreachable 1365 for the 1944 campaign as a ram-bled unchallenged during coach Lou Millevolte's undefeated season.

All North Shore Fullback Charles Zodka rushed 156 times for 802 yard and seven touchdowns as coach Jim Grantham's workhorse.

Guard Xan Ostro is credited with both offensive and defensive excellence. He had 28 unassisted tackles and also sparked Hicksville scoring drives by blocking three punts.

This post in the Herald is warmly indebted to the members of the 1948 Hicksville North Shore Champion football team for allowing us to be the one outside exception attending their private dinner in honor of Chester Jaworski.

The event marked the twentieth year since Hicksville upset Port Washington 6-0 to win the title on the neutral Hampton Field, in Mineola. For the players and their wives, gathered in the private dining room of the Westbury Chef, it was a pleasant recall.

It was Jaworski's first year as Athletic Director and head football coach. Hicksville upset undefeated, untied and unscored upon Farmingdale, 20-0, on the final day of the campaign to get the Bowl bid. A second period 12-yard jump pass from John Economoply to all-scholastic End Lou Koji stood up. The ball rested on the Hicksville one yard line as Port broke from the huddle on the final play of the contest.

Milt Levitt was in charge of the dinner and among the players who were on hand were: Mathew Triangali, George Cheslock, Valentine Dexter, John Economoply, Lou Koji, Eugene Stepkowski and Eddie Miller.

The dinner was a complete surprise to Jaworski and he and his wife Stella were more than pleased with the honor. It was well deserved. Those who understand that public and press relations cannot be contrived, but most involve personal interest and work know that no one has done more for the Hicksville school district in this respect than Mr. Jaworski.

John F. Kennedy High School

dents from all over the country. Kennedy's representatives were awarded for playing most accurately and exceptionally the role of their assigned country, for speaking well extemporaneously, and for dealing successfully in the fine art of diplomacy and compromise.

Highlighting the conference was a phony invasion of Czechoslovakia by Soviet troops that was fabricated and publicized by delegates Joel Krieger and Mike Polatnick. Their realistic Russian tape recording created utter bedlam in the Security Council, where few delegates questioned the truth of their carefully concocted crisis.

The achievements of the Kennedy United Nations Club, guided by Martin Vinokur, advisor, duplicated the award-winning performance of four delegates to the National Invitational Model United Nations in Washington, D. C. last April.

Kennedy's chapter of the National Honor Society has entered a crisis period. By the November 27 induction of 51 seniors into the Society, the mounting tensions within the organization had come to a head.

The ensuing controversy concerns the role of the NHS in the school and the validity of current admission procedures. It was sparked by Ronald Greenberg's withdrawal from the society, and by a series of criticisms from members and non-members alike on the grounds that the Society serves no purpose other than the promotion of unwarranted, unhealthy competition and snobbery. Many students complained that the NHS is more an honorary list than a productive, useful organization. Others, defending the Society, held that it will become worthwhile once the planned tutoring system is instituted. They have argued that if the critics want to reform the Society, they should do so from within - by remaining members and by working toward the betterment of the Society.

Thus the situation remained when the HERALD went to press.

The leading roles in the Kennedy Player's production of The Sound of Music will be announced in THE GOLDEN EAGLE Monday. Look for them in this column next time.
