This column took a trip to Hong Kong last week via the bug, and coupled with a bit of an earlier deadline because of Christmas Day, we missed the issue. At this writing, it is Now Year's twe and because some of us have started jumping already, and, in addition, we have 2 weeks worth to mention let's see how much ground we can cover. One thing stands out. The Marv Kahns are still in 1st place with alead of 20 points over the 2nd place Herb Brody "Black Panthers". Last week Ed Rose-man with a 213 and Red Karbel with a 210 led the Kahns to an 11-0 win and this week Monroe Hyman with a 221 showed the Kahns the way to an 8-3 victory. Herb Brody's 2nd place "Panthers" are still on a tear. For the 7th week in a row they whiped the opposition Last week have Kaye cracked a 203 to send them on their way to an 8-3 deci-sion and this week Herb boomed a 232 to clinch an 11-0 shu out over sid Sachs" "Chargers".

Last week Morris Garelick frame adouble, a 221 and a 201 do account for an 8-3 win for the Morris came back with another good one, a 204 but the Gittai-frama lost this one to the Julie dorshens 7-4. The reason was obvious, Ely Fisher who had a 13 ast week threw a 202 and Loo truchil joined him with a 213. The Gershens are now in 5th Charles Smith had his first free threw a 201 and a 204 to lead sachs' "Chargers" to an 8-3 win to be a strain and a 204 to lead sachs' "Chargers" to an 8-3 win to be what happened to the "Chargers."
