Letter sent by a sailor on watch in Vietnam to his little brother: Dear Kevin:

I'm on watch right now. It is dark except for an occasional flare which will be fired in an effort to find the Gooks or the Gooks to find us. We will be on watch until it gets light and then one of the other turrets will take over. I was thinking about you and wondering what you are doing.

It's pretty quiet tonight. We haven't been doing too much shooting. I had some time to let my thoughts wander and I couldn't help but think about how you are growing older. I was wondering if you realized what war really is? With all these demonstrations and all in the news, I figured it might confuse you. These people who say we should not go to war against the Communists (V.C.) for the most part are extremely incorrect. Many are just plain cowards and have no true feelings against the war at all. They use the excuse that they wouldn't kill. Who knows more about the situation over in Vietnam than we, the ones that are here. Do you think we like it here? If it was possible, I would love to be home. I don't like killing people, but still I must. I would be the last person on earth to want to harm someone, but when someone tries to harm someone who has no intention of hurting them, we must stop them. You see the police do it everyday to people who break the law. When the V.C. break the law, we must punish them or they will go on breaking the law and finally nobody will be safe. If they would stop breaking the laws, then we could again have peace. What I'm trying to say Kevin, is that I don't want you think the guys over here are here just because they like to fight in wars. War is no fun. It's not like the play wars at home where when you get shot, you can get up and play some more. Now when you shoot someone, they stay shot! I want you to remember that. I hope you can understand me. Maybe if we can stop this killing by stopping the people who are causing it, you won't have to ever go off and fight a war. Maybe this will be the last war, I'm sure that's what Grandpa hoped for while he was in World War I and Daddy, while he was in World War II. Ask them, maybe Dad can explain it to you.

Well, Kev, I'm going to sign off now. Take care and write soon. Be a good boy and do well in school.

Love,
 (signed) Jimmy

SPORTS

By
Howard J. Finnegan

Ever since he was given the assignment to introduce the sport of Lacrosse at Hicksville High, Coach Bill Meyers was never been reluctant to take his team right into the teeth of the tigers. He hasn't changed how that the activity is on a successful plane. Meyers will take the Orange and Black to Elmont to start the 1969 campaign. He has picked a brn test for his promising club. Elmont has ten returning veterans from its '68 team which turned in a 15 won and 1 lost record.

This contest against one of the top South Shore powers will start at 10:30 a.m. this Saturday morning.

The Comets have high hopes for this season. The contention is based on a strong foundation that experienced players provide.

Hicksville is solid at mid-field with Richard Kowalchuk, John Hannigan and Brian McAuley returning.

Pat Dowling and Steve Van Wickler are coach Meyers starters on attack and he is secure at those posts. Mike Gallant, Tom Flanagan, Dave Iwrath and Andy Lee have the defensive assignments.

Who gets the assignment in the nets won't be decided until the end of this week. The coach has had a problem in choosing between Ken Larson and Ron Greguski for the Goalie position. There are other powerful individuals that Meyers can insert. Certainly veteran John McDermott is a key a mid-field and Kirk Jurgelevich is stamped with potential on attack.

Other names will pop up before the season draws too far along. On attack Charles Arnone, Bob Gagnaire, Graig Hasel, Wayne Thiel, Bob Howard and Pete Marion await an assignment.

Mark Hortian, Charles Brady, Fred Ehle and Alex Yannotti provide backup at Midfield.

Defenseman Roger Koenig and Goalie Frank Anisano round out the roster.

Hicksville will play its second game at John F. Kennedy in Plainview, Wednesday, March 26, at 4:00 p.m.

Hicksville also has an April 1 date at East Meadow. At that point in the campaign the odds are that the South Shore school will have extended its two year undefeated streak to 25 games.

Coach Meyers indicates the Elmont and East Meadow contests will serve as guideline for Hicksville's North Shore League play. He doesn't deny that the Orange is a contender for its first league Lacrosse championship. He hopes a rugged non-league slate will spur the club to a fast start in league competition.

HERALD DIRECTIONS; Hicksville must have fans at the Elmont opener and for those early Saturday morning risers here are directions to get there. Travel Hempstead Turnpike until just before reaching Belmont Race Track. Turn Left on Dutch Broadway and travel South right to the High School.

With 17 points per game and 304 rebounds, center Don Massey paced the 1969 HHS basketball team according to the figures released to the Herald. In eight contests the Hicksville Junior, who fell a bare fraction short in the balloting for the All-North Shore team, pulled down more than 20 rebounds.

Bill Wiffen averaged 12 points a game and had a 47 per cent shooting average from the floor.

The best percentage from the floor belonged to Joe Zuckerman with 48 per cent. He played about half a game and had an average of 7 per contest.

Rich Dohoney was successful 73 per cent of the time from the foul stripe and averaged 10 points per contest. He also fought the boards for 130 rebounds.

Floor general in Hicksville's 12 and 6 season, Bob Rogers had 9 points each outing. He was credited with 84 assists. It is a shame that the steals he made were not compiled.

As a team Hicksville scored 60.3 points per game and had an outstanding defensive mark of 51.7 per game. In shooting the entire club came in with 41 per cent from the floor and 64 per cent from the foul marker.

Spring has come to Hicksville High and with it, la crosse practice. Varsity coach Bill Meyer and his defensemen (L to R.) Mike Gallant, Roger Koenig, Dave McIlwath, and Andy Lee take a changed a good season into a banner one. In the 12 and 6 regular season the Comets lost three times in Overtime by one basket. In those and the playoff contest against Great Neck South failure during the one and one situations cramped the Comets badly.

When Mike Greggo of Hicksville mowed down all ten pins of his first five frames last week in the Grumman mixed league at Woodbury, he felt a perfect game coming. But his next ball was a "little tight" he said, and left the two, four and five pins standing. Greggo, who resides at 8 Herman Ave., picked up the spare and sailed through the next five frames on strikes for a 277 game. It was the record high game for the Grumman league, but not for Mike, who believes he has done better "in another year, another league." He has been bowling for some 28 years, and has been on the Grumman Aircraft varsity bowling team three times.

Dear Friends:

The Professional Building
 The old professional building on the corner of Barclay St. and Broadway has been sold, finally. It is rumored that this building, that at one time was the largest, highest building in Hicksville, will be given a new facade, will contain eighty offices plus tier parking in the rear. It is always good to hear of improvements to our town, and that is what this sounds like.

Our Post Office
 And speaking of improvements, soon (in June I think) our Post Office will be finished and elaborate ceremonies are being planned for its opening. More on this later.

Just A Reminder
 Most Boards of Education are meeting more frequently now because of the time involved in budget preparation. Also most Boards are setting the date of their public budget hearings, their registration times and, of course, their May 7th annual meeting places and times of voting. Hicksville School District 17 has set all these dates and you will find them on page one of our Hicksville edition. As we hear from the Boards of the other districts we cover we'll bring you this important information with the hope that not only will you attend the public hearings on the school budget but that you will also register and vote on this important matter.

Your Man In Washington
 "They Represent You" is a pamphlet published yearly by the League of Women Voters of the Town of Oyster Bay containing the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of elected and appointed officials on a local, state, and national level. Registration and primary dates are listed, too. The pamphlet is available free on receipt of a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Send your request to League of Women Voters of the Town of Oyster Bay, Box 288, Syosset, New York 11791. The non-partisan League is open for membership to all citizens of voting age. For more information call WA 1-0732. Until next week, do your best.

Ten Pin Talk

The league lead is still in a state of flux. For the fourth time in as many weeks it has changed hands. Two weeks ago Mill Hoffman's "7-11's" were in 1st place but then they lost and fell to 3rd. This week they bounced right back, clobbered Art Rosenthal's "AWOLS" 11-0 and took possession of the top spot again. Cap't Milt was in his usual good form as he threw his 17th good one of the year, a 223, (he's been creeping up on Sid Sachs who leads with 16 and Elliot Spencer came in with a 205. But the big man for the "7-11's" this week was Mel Locker. It has taken Mel a long time but he finally broke the barrier. He cracked a powerful 207 and went on to a 516 series to really lead the way.

The Sam Springers also had a good night. They were bowling the temporary league leaders, the Leo Geysers, and they practically annihilated them. Al Grusha with a 219 and the Springer's new terror, Sam Saitz, with a 223, combined in the first game to clinch that one. Then Sol Belodoff put the crusher on with a 211, his first one of the year, and the Geysers were plastered. The Springers had been acting like one of those crazy Super Balls. Each week they bounce like mad. Down to 14th, up to 8th, down to 13th, up to 5th, back down to 7th and this latest bounce is up to 4th.

That's the highest they've been, including the First Half. The Geysers fell to 3rd place.

One other team scored a shutout, the Sid Simons. They inflicted it on the Norm Neys. The only individual heroic in that set-to was on the losing side. Capt. Norm rapped a 212 but to no avail.

High man of the night was Bill Kellerman. He fired a 234, his 16th of the year, and led his "Gurus" to an 8-3 victory over the Sy Bruckners. Capt. Sy contributed his 10th of the year, a 207, but it wasn't enough.

Here are the rest of the men that broke into the charmed circle this past Monday night: Ralph Diamond 230, Sid Sachs 225, Red Karbel 213, Murray Kowlowitz 209, Murray Gittelman 203, Sy Schostack 203 and Bernie Kaplan 202.

The whole league was kind of taken aback when we learned that Les Shuman was in the Syosset Hospital. A week ago this past Wednesday night Les complained that he didn't feel well. As the hours passed and he felt no better, his wife, Rae, took him to Syosset Hospital. It was wise she did so. Les was found to be having a heart attack.

From where I sit Les is too good a competitor and much too good a poker player to let this beat him down. Get well soon Les.

Camellia

Jericho High School students are preparing what is a rare experience—an original, two hour production "tailor made" for their talents and for the entertainment of the entire community. Created by Burton Wolfe, Jericho's Drama teacher, and Alan Arnold, Jericho's Instrumental Music teacher, the show, "Camellia", will have its world premiere on March 20-22 at the Jericho High School Auditorium.

"Camellia" is billed as a "Musical-Medieval-Modern Love Fantasy." Book and lyrics are by Burton Wolfe with music and fully orchestrated arrangements by Alan Arnold.

Other staff members who are assisting the students in this most creative and unique venture are Scott McKay, Art Teacher, and Henry Sweitzer, Vocal Coach.

Tickets for the March performances are $ 2.00 for evening, $1.50 for matinee.

Fiction And Fact

by Dottie Mills

Mothers of elementary school children please take note. The Jericho Public Library has planned a special program for children in grades one through six. On Friday, April 11th the Library will sponsor two storytelling sessions: one for children in grades one through three and a second for grades four through six. The first story hour will be held at 10 A.M. in the lobby of the Jericho High School. The second, for grades four through six, will be held at 11 A.M. also in the lobby of the high school. Tickets are limited in number and restricted to residents of the Jericho school district. They may be obtained in the Library and will be distributed on a first-come, first-served basis. Parents are cautioned to be sure to bring their tickets with them on April 11th as no one will be admitted without a ticket. A classroom will be provided for parents to wait for their children.

geared to their age level. Naturally, there is no charge for tickets.

A word to the wise! Come early and be on time. Out of consideration for Mrs. Collura and the children, no one will be admitted after the story has started. Parents are advised to arrive for the 10 A.M. session at least by 9:50 A.M. If you're ticket is for the 11 A.M. session, then 10:50 A.M. will be a good time to arrive. Parents will be expected to wait for their children in the school.

The Jericho Library has been most fortunate in obtaining the story-telling talents of Mrs. Geri Collura. Currently Mrs. Collura is appearing at the Huntington Public Library once each month for similar story hours. She brings a good deal of professional experience to her story-telling. In the past she has conducted a radio program in New Hampshire, done summer stock in Maine, and appeared before private clubs and organizations in addition to public schools and libraries. She will treat the children of Jericho to stories

The warm weather, melting snow, and balmy breezes herald Spring and the next film series. The adult film series will start on Monday night, April 21st at 8:30 P.M. and be held in the Jackson School. The remaining dates for this series (all Mondays) are April 28th, May 12th, 19th, and 26th. The complete schedule with a list of films will be obtainable at the Library as soon as the titles and dates are firm. No admission charge.

The next film series for pre-school age children will begin on Tuesday, April 22nd. As in the past the series will be held in the large downstairs room of the Jericho Jewish Center. Starting time will be 10:30 A.M. The series will run for eight weeks, the last film date being June 10th. Our thanks once again go to the ladies and gentlemen of the Jericho Jewish Center congregation for permitting the Library to use its facilities for this program.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Sir:

Enclosed is a copy of a piece that I have written concerning an event which took place at Jericho High School. I hope that you will take into consideration its merit and absolute validity when making the decision of whether or not to run it. It was not intended for publication under the column-head "Etcetera."

Nadine Kiernan Klein

Incident

A Mrs. Jackson and two other ladies from the Westbury Office of O.E.O. appeared at Jericho High School, after School March 5, for the purpose of discussing the Welfare problem and, too, to refute the tenets of a Mr. Larry Patrick, Black Panther and previous speaker at Jericho. Mrs. Jackson's views were expounded for a very short while and she then opened the floor to questions from those students and teachers present.

I managed to think of a question to ask and did so. The query was concerned with the abuse of educational opportunities and with the barricading, by black students, of buildings at major institutes of higher learning for, of times, senseless causes. There was nothing in my remarks to be rightly construed as bias or bigotry. I am, however, aware that as a conservative and, thus, a member of an abject minority among students and teachers alike, I was particularly vulnerable to criticisms and exhortations as a result of any remark I might choose to make. My question, thought, was so apodictically docile that I expected no repercussions of any sort on that count.

I was surprised, even shocked, then when, before I had the chance to finish applauding the three admirable ladies and to rise from my seat in the first row, a teacher, who has indeed not spoken to me during five years, virtually swooned down, pointing an ominous forefinger at me, to attack me for asking my question. I was greatly upset, also, because of the tendentious pre-termination of this man's assault upon my views (about which, I doubt he really knows the slightest whit). He, in fact, did not even touch upon the subject that I had brought up but, instead, went off on a stentorian tangent, trying to make it clear to me that white people are the perpetual starters of riots and are constantly at fault in such cases.

Make no mistake - it is not his views that I am concerned with (although they do trouble me), but with the manner in which he broached the discussion.

Any contest (sic) between a student and teacher is inherently inequitable if conducted on this level. Primarily, a student is unable to compete in a shouting match. He has not the power of his position and of his years that a teacher should possess. If a topic is to be discussed, it must be done so in a relatively civilized manner and not as an open assault for the purposes of embarrassing the student in front of a group of people (or even very few people, for that matter). After school hours (or even during school), a teacher has no right to hold a student, as he would a refractory child, because that student has expressed views contrary to his own.

This incident seems to me a sorry reflection on that glorious "Liberal Teaching Establishment" - that a pseudo-liberal teacher would try to nail to the cross a student, much younger and far less experienced than he in the art of heaping verbal abuse, for simply upholding that fine liberal tradition of dissent, even though that dissent might differ widely from that teacher's preconceived notion of what dissent should be.

To Act On Narcotics

In a concerted effort to coordinate community and school involvement in the problem and program of narcotics, Jericho Board of Education President Hal-Curtis Felsher, Superintendent of Schools David Nydick, and members of the administration recently met with Rabbi Richard Pruss.

Rabbi Pruss and Father Damian Pitaichly, both from Samaritan Halfway Society in Queens, had previously met with the administration to study the narcotics phase of the district's over-all program on Mental Health.

The district-wide Mental Health program has been discussed with Rabbi Pruss and Father Pitaichly. The narcotics phase of the program, for which the Samaritan Society will contribute valuable service to the tribute valuable service to community and schools, includes accurate information about the emotional, personality and social problems that can result in drug and narcotics usage. Speakers from the Samaritan Society will help students and staff to develop insights and specific information on these problems.

Various community groups, including the Inter-Faith Council of Jericho and Brookville, the Knights of Pythias, and the P.T.A. Council, have been actively engaged in studying the narcotics problem. At a Public Meeting, to be held at St. Paul the Apostle R.C. Church, Cedar Swamp Road, Jericho on Thursday, March 20 at 8:00 p.m., Father Pitaichly and Rabbi Pruss will join Board President Felsher and other speakers on the subject of narcotics.

Ramblin' Rose

by Rosemary Walsh

Hi, isn't this Spring like weather a delight. Only problem is it's not here for good—but soon. Did you wonder why I ended so abruptly last week? Well, I didn't, but there must have been a reason at the printers, so I'll repeat my last paragraph over.

The Second Annual Pinewood Derby will take place on Saturday, March 29th in the High School (Girls' Gym). What's a Pinewood Derby??? Glad you asked! An enterprising scout leader—Mr. Charles Greeker—put together a cub activity that has the boys and their dads on the move. The first such event took place last year pitting Packs 259 and 382.

A pinewood racer is a miniature car carved out of a pine (what else) block. Wheels are attached and decorations added. The speedsters race down a ramp especially built for the event. This year Packs 91, 591, and 422 are added starters. These Packs represent St. Ignatius, East Street, Lee Avenue, and Woodland Avenue. Winners will be decided on speed. Another part of the event will be a prize for best decoration. The public is invited.

Harold Robinson (Kiwanis Youth Chairman) advises us that our foul shooting champions, Sue Alleman and Lou Cirarelli, will be guested at the Kiwanis Luncheon.

Did you have a fun St. Patrick's weekend? Yours truly surely did. Remember Saturday was our final ski trip and at that unmerciful hour of 6 A.M. we were off to Davos again. (At least now it's daytime, when we started last fall 'twas pitch black.) The weather was great and the skiers even greater. Me? Oh well of course I'm still skiing more seated than standing. Everyone had a ball and we made it back in time for herself to attend a St. Patrick's Day party with my family and good friends. (A little tired and sore, but I enjoyed.)

Say, besides great skiers, we have our Hicksville North Star skaters, this recreation activity is coached by Bill Jurgelevich of East Street and it looks like we may emerge as county champions.

The Hicksville North Stars, sparked by Mike Mahlstadt and Ken Larson, defeated the Chamainde Flyers 3 to 1 in the first round of the Nassau County High School League Championship Playoffs at Cantiague Park. There is only one game remaining in the first round for Hicksville.

We're not only concentrating on the sports this season, either. Our folk singers are preparing for a spring concert. This group is always different, individualistic and artistic in their own way. Do you recall when I wrote you about our Recorder Consort. Group appearing at Lincoln Center (by invitation) last December, well, they've now been invited to State University at Oneonta for 3 days to perform before all their music major students.

Our other pride and joy, the Hicksville Recreation Symphony Orchestra, has its Spring Concert planned for Sunday, March 30, 3:00 P.M. at the Senior High Auditorium. As always admission is free. The program will consist of "Summer Night" by Elie Siegmeister of Great Neck, Bartok's "3 Village Scenes", Mozart's Symphony No. 41 in C, "Jupiter" and Beethoven's "Overture to Egmont". The 4 vocal soloists who have all been coached by our beloved Harriet Spink will be Fern Beyer, Shirley Golub, Sue Heller and Claire Sigmund. And last but of course not least the entire production conducted by Charles Gouse. Please try to attend—these performances are always overwhelmingly beautiful. Well guess that's it I'll be ramblin' on Loves ya

The girl's varsity basketball team had an outstanding season. They conquered Seaford, Clark, and Uniondale, among others, and took first place at the AWPENY'S playday on March 1st. High scoring forwards, over the season, were Joan McGowan, Karen Youngren, and Joan Hasbrouck. The junior varsity won four of its eight games and things look bright for the future with high scorers Terry Schumacker, Claire Gwiazda, Sue Halperson, Nancy Halliday, and Karen Werder returning to the varsity. These teams are coached by Miss Garbosky, whose enthusiasm and competence sets the tone for her young athletes.

HHS Bowlers Season

The Girls' High School Bowling Team completed an undefeated season. The team, coached by Mrs. Estelle Carter, won two matches over Mineola, and one match against Plainedge and one match with Port Washington. Janet Nathanson, Colleen Hummell, Diane Giancarelli, Janet Bergholtz and Karen Werder bowled for Hicksville and won the match with Plainedge on February 3rd, Janet Bergholtz bowled High Game 197, and High Series of 573. On February 19th Hicksville defeated Port Washington, Janet Nathanson, Janet Bergholtz, Colleen Hummell, Diane Giancarelli, Leslie Nickel and Linda Salvo bowled for Hicksville. The final match of the year was held on February 24th and a win was scored over Mineola. Three Hicksville girls were selected to bowl in the Nassau County AWPENY'S Bowling Tournament by receiving high scores in a Bowl-Off. Janet Nathanson, Gay Hughes and Kathy Frykberg bowled in the tournament that was held at the Garden City Bowl. Janet Nathanson scored second place in High Series with a total of 505.
