To Picket On Weekends

Hicksville FLP Chapter Conducts Meat Boycott

Mrs. Peter Botto, chairman of the newly-formed Hicksville Chapter of FLP (for lower prices) said she was pleased with the participating in the boycott rally held last Friday evening in the supermarket area of the Mid Island Plaza.

"We have an excellent beginning of ardent FLP members and meat boycotters," she stated, "and we need help in order to continue progressively stronger and to help our local store managers realize we mean business so that they in turn can make an impression on the distributors, where it will really count. We need as many families who can help to work NOW. First by boycotting meat for the important two meatless week period, and also, not only by picketing, but helping in other ways. Phoning and baby sitting for picketing members for example, are also important if you don't find it easy to picket. Come and help us now," she urged.

Mrs. Botto said that many other chapters of FLP are currently forming and will join the boycott. She also said that the ladies plan to organize as a permanent consumer group so that other important aims may be achieved. For further details phone Mrs. Botto at 433-4731.

Hicksville Fire Department Parade Route

By Don Hudson

As Hicksville grows & changes, so does the Annual Labor Day Parade and Tournament of the Hicksville Fire Department.

Many of you remember the parade route from past years. However, this year there will be some changes.

As in previous years the parade will start at the Marie Street firehouse at 9:30 A.M. and turn North onto Broadway to Herzog Street. The firemen will march on West John Street to the now widened Newbridge Road, then along the West side of Newbridge Road to the access road that enters into Mid-Island Shopping Plaza.

A previous notice in the Mid Island Herald stated that the Hicksville Fire Department would feature its new 85 foot aerial ladder at the flag raising ceremonies. It now comes to our attention that because of maintenance problems the aerial ladder is out of the fire district and will not be returned until after Labor Day.

Jerusalem Avenue will swing left where the various divisions of the parade will fall into line and proceed South along Jerusalem Avenue to Old Country Road, then to West Carl Street. Along West Carl Street to Broadway where the parade will turn left and continue North on Broadway to (and here is where the changes have been made) West John Hicksville Teachers' Contracts Signed George A. Jackson, President of the Hicksville Board of Education, signs the contract between the Board and the Hicksville Classroom Teachers Association. James Baker (L), treasurer for the H.C.T.A. and John Pitrelli (R), negotiator and parliamentarian look on.

School Board Sets Tax Rate

The Hicksville School Board has set the 1969-70 tax rate at $10.147 $100 Assessed Valuation.

The School tax rate is $9.84 $100 A.V. and the library rate is $.307 $100 A.V.

The gross budget for the 1969-70 school year is $18,869,155.

Mr. George Jackson, Board president, explained why the tax rate has increased from the figure presented to Hicksville voters in June.

In June the tax rate figure presented ($8.967 $100 A.V.) was a $.56 increase over the 1968-69 budget, but this figure did not include negotiations. The gross budget figure was $17,773,155.

Since that time the total assessed valuation of the community is up, thus decreasing the $.56 to $.41.

Negotiations account for $.90 of the increase.

There will be additional children attending BOCES (over and above the number included in the approved budget.) This adds another $.12 to the tax rate. However, approximately 55 percent of the money expended for the BOCES program this year will be returned to the district through state aid in the 1970-71 school year.

The total tax rate increase for 1969-70, over last year's rate, is $1.417 $100 A.V. If you assessed at $5000, your taxes will increase approximately $70 this year.

The Labor Day Killers

Labor Day weekend in America will produce more deaths and injuries in three days on our highways than three weeks of war in Vietnam. This deplorable juxtaposition of casualties is based, according to the State Traffic Safety Council, on current casualty rates in Vietnam versus an anticipated 600 deaths and over 20,000 disabling injuries over the Holiday weekend in New York and the nation.

In the Vietnam snake-pit both sides have professional soldiers trained to kill with every weapon man's diabolic ingenuity has been able to devise. These death-dealing instruments range from small arms to bombers capable of dropping thousands of tons of explosives, from hidden mines to poisoned stakes. We wish our men well and pray for their safe return. It is a tragic war against Communism all of us want to win and none of us want to endure.

But what excuse can we offer for amateur drivers without hate or rancor slaughtering each other for no purpose? Our roads are not battlefields. Grandparents are not soldiers. Are fathers behind wheels guerrilla fighters? And what shall we call our teen age drivers? When the last tear has been shed, long after Labor Day has ended, we can in remorse, call all of them the amateur killers of Labor Day. The deaths and injuries were caused by innocence and accidents. There is no earthly reason for this violence in an age which produced moon-men whose first words on another planet pleaded for peace.

Let us therefore hone our intellects on abrasives of experience and drive as though our lives depended on it. State and local police agencies will be out in force. Cooperate by driving carefully, cautiously and constantly aim to get home alive and well. If our moon-men could, can't you?

A young Resident's Viewpoint.....

August: A Time To Reflect

Another summer will soon come to a close, and the cars on the roads will once again display the now familiar orange and black bumper stickers, with their message of the opening of schools. When you take notice of them, why not reflect on the quickly receding summer, and all the groovy times you had? You should also consider plans for the months that lie ahead, namely the upcoming school term.

At our age bracket we are very fortunate to be free from the hang-ups associated with married life. Free from taxes, a strict work schedule, and waiting for a delayed or cancelled train. Of major concern to us are getting that much needed school diploma, while leading a stimulating social life. Studies indicate that a human can not do two opposite functions at the same time. One must be proportional to the other.

Which life is the most important? In this age of man, and in our society, education is of utmost importance. School gives you the opportunity to gather knowledge. With age comes wisdom. Without a sufficient supply of knowledge at your disposal, the growth of wisdom will be hindered.

We are exceptionally lucky this year that the majority of people that voted during the school district budget vote, approved of the expenditures. There is faith in positive thinking. Because these parents have shown faith, it should be our duty to display the same. Strive to work to our full ability both in and out of school. This school year will offer a more diversified and complete program, so take full advantage of it. Come June, you be quite satisfied with your performance, and you will be on the right track, "going to wisdom."

Dear Editor:
Please don't insult my intelligence with your Editorials: "If You Have a Problem" and "Let's Go Housewives" in the August 21st issue. In one instance you condemn a store offering staple food items at reduced prices, and, in the same column ask your housewife readers to support an organization called FLP ("for lower prices" on meat products).

The dairy store which you condemn was originally situated on Old Country Road off Newbridge Road with no parking facilities except the street curb. Now the store, on newly purchased property (next door to your own Herald offices) has ample off-street parking facilities.

Mrs. Noeth, I think you have done a disservice to the community by assailing an enterprise offering savings on our food dollar.

I would appreciate a turnabout in your thinking on this matter.

Sincerely,
Gene Gumanow,
21 Alpine Lane

Editor's Note: The dairy store in question was not condemned by THE HERALD because it is in business to sell at discount prices, but because it has five violations to our Town ordinances which must be corrected. When this store has corrected these violations we will have done all that we can at this location to help our town to grow better, not regress to a slum. Our Town of Oyster Bay ordinances are designed to do just this. It is our hope that the owners of this store will not only correct these conditions but also make their premises neat and keep them clean... for where food is sold, even at discount prices, the premises must be immaculate. Let's all work together for a better Hicksville. It's up to all of us!

Dear Mrs. Noeth:

A few weeks ago you made mention in your column of the faint left-turn arrow at the intersection of South Oyster Bay Road and Old Country Road, Hicksville. Since the County is responsible for this intersection, I advised the County Department of Public Works of this dangerous situation.

I am pleased to say I recently received a response from Paul Streb, the Director of Traffic Engineering, to the effect that he has ordered the maintenance contractor to replace these lenses.

Furthermore, he indicates the intersection is now under study and design to rebuild the entire traffic signal installation for a more evenly flow of vehicle and pedestrian traffic. Mr. Streb advised me that the actual construction work should begin in the near future.

Thank you for calling this matter to our attention.

Very truly yours,
A. Carl Grunewald, Councilman

Dear Mrs. Noeth:
According to an article which appeared in a recent edition of Newsday, Mr. Harry Kershen was appointed a consultant for the State Education Department on teacher - school board affairs and negotiations.

Inasmuch as Mr. Kershen is a member and trustee of the Hicksville School Board, it is my opinion the Mr. Kershen should either resign from one of these positions, or at the very least, disqualify himself from any and all areas involving Hicksville School Board negotiations with Hicksville professional staff, as a conflict of interest.

So that there be no doubt as to my feelings, and in particular, in Hicksville, it is my further opinion, without any prejudice to Mr. Kershen, that NO professional education, school teacher, principal, or administrator, should aspire to a board of education. I believe that ALL boards of education should be composed of a cross section of the lay people of the community, hopefully specializing in specific areas such as Personnel, (Mr. George Jackson), Bidding, (Mrs. Jerry Zettler), Building and Grounds, (Most humbly, the writer), Buildings, (Mr. Caleb Hornbostle and Mr. Emil Zandy) Business, (Mr. McCormack.) Insurance, (Mr. Al Ehrlich), Budget, (Mr. Jackson, (Salary Range and Scope), (Mr. McCormack business machines and clerical), and others, who by their background and experience, are qualified to make judgement in their own areas of experience. While on the board for nine years, I concentrated my efforts on building and grounds where 40 years of experience was used to the best interests of the community. When I accomplished my purpose, a good buildings and grounds program, (I believe we have the best in Nassau County) I made way for younger and more farseeing blood.)

So that Mr. Kershen will know my feelings and many of the community, in my 19 years in the Hicksville district, NO PROFESSIONAL EDUCATOR EVER ELECTED TO THE HICKSVILLE BOARD has contributed to the very basic area that they might be qualified for, NAMELY, CURRICULUM. I do not deny for a single minute, their right to run and be elected to any School Board from any LEGAL STANDPOINT. I do feel however, that there are norms, and common prejudices arising when in negotiations on teachers salaries, working conditions, benefits, etc., that NO professional educator, teacher, principal, or administrator can cast a vote, "aye or Nay" in the best interests OF THE COMMUNITY.

I respectfully suggest to Mr. Kershen that he resign from the Hicksville School Board in the best interests of his professional status of the community.

Respectfully,
Herbert H. Johnsen

Dear Mrs. Noeth.

We were so happy to read in the Mid Island Herald that there is still someone truly interested in making Hicksville a better place to live, work and bring up children.

We have exhausted all efforts to no avail to bring the traffic problem on our street to the attention of elected officials with whom we've had several meetings in the past two years.

We live one block off Broadway opposite Jeanson Place, the exit from the Mid Island Plaza and Rotary Place, the entrance. When we first moved here it was just shoppers. Then it became a short cut from West John when Broadway was being worked on, the car wash was added behind Jeanson Place, the Twin North & South was built and now S. Kleins, Mr. Greenwald promised

EDITORIAL

You're old enough to remember the real America, if you can remember when you never dreamed our country could ever lose. When you left the front door open. When you went to church and found spiritual consolation. When people knew what the Fourth of July stood for. When you took it for granted that women and the elderly and the clergy were to be respected.

When a girl was considered daring if she smoked in public. When a girl was a girl. When a boy was a boy. When they liked each other. When you didn't feel embarrassed to say that this is the best damn country in the world! When socialist was a dirty word. When a liberal wasn't. When a nickel was worth five cents and could buy you a magazine, or a good cigar, or a 12 ounce Pepsi, or a big ice cream cone with chocolate sprinkles or a beer.

When two nickels got you into the movies on Saturday afternoon and you saw the show three times. When taxes were only a nuisance. When the poor were too proud to take charity.

When you weren't afraid to go out at night. When Protestants, Catholics and Jews thought enough of their beliefs to argue about them. When ghettos were neighborhoods.

When you knew that law meant justice, and you felt a little shiver of awe at the sight of a policeman.

When the flag was a sacred symbol. When our government stood up for Americans anywhere in the world. When a man went wrong he was to blame, not his mother's nursing habits or his father's income. When everyone knew the difference between right and wrong, even college professors. When things weren't perfect, but you never expected them to be. When you weren't made to feel guilty for enjoying dialect comedy. When people still had the capacity for indignation.

When you considered yourself lucky to have a good job. When you were proud to have one. When a complaint could accomplish something. When people expected less, and valued what they had more. When college kids swallowed goldfish, not acid.

When America was the land of the free, the home of the brave.

Remember?

American servicemen in Vietnam will soon be able to send money orders back to the United States without paying a fee, Postmaster General Winton M. Blount announced today.

At most other overseas bases, a flat fee of 15 cents will be charged servicemen and dependents buying domestic money orders when the new regulations become effective September 15. The existing fee scale for domestic money orders purchased at all military and civilian post offices ranges from 25 cents to 40 cents, depending upon the size of the money order.

General Blount said, "Because many overseas military personnel do not have ready access to banks and similar financial institutions, the simplified money-order procedure will encourage more servicemen to send their dollars home and to increase their savings."

The no-fee money orders will be issued military personnel at Armed Forces post offices in Vietnam and on ships operating in this combat theater. Servicemen and their dependents will be charged a flat 15-cent fee at other overseas military post offices, but not including those in Alaska, Hawaii, Guam and Puerto Rico.

General Blount said the simplified fee policy will also reduce administrative burdens in combat areas and at other overseas military post offices and thereby encourage wider use of postal money orders.

The new regulations, announced today in the Federal Register, will become effective September 15.

The existing domestic money order fees will continue for servicemen stationed in the fifty states, Puerto Rico and Guam. Also unaffected by the new regulations are international money order fees, which range from 45 cents to 75 cents.

Money order fees in regular, civilian post offices are not affected by this change.

From Congress

Rep. James R. Grover, Jr.

During this Congressional recess, I've had the opportunity to discuss the issues which are of most concern to the Second Congressional District. This year, you can scratch high taxes, crime, inflation and the war in Vietnam from the top of the list. And you can write in the Long Island Rail Road. My constituents have become deeply concerned and involved in the Rockefeller 60-day count down.

Normally, the railroad isn't mentioned alone but comes with an adjective. The kindest adjective I've heard so far is "damned." I've heard terrorfilled tales of super-heated cars, windows sealed, moving slowly through the summer's sweeter Cancellations, lateness, rudeness, crowding -- all of these complaints and more have been voiced to me on Main Street, at the bay or in my office. It's not just the thousands of commuters who have grown to hate the railroad -- it's also the many thousands more in their families who are caused to suffer daily inconvenience and frustration.

Their demand of course is for action, and if possible, some help from Washington. The railroad, now operated by the Metropolitan

News From LILCO

"Man's environment, of which he grows ever more consciously aware has become, for Long Island Lighting Company, a matter for special concern, scrutiny and study. LILCO's President, Edward C. Duffy, said today in announcing the formation of a new department of "Environmental Engineering", headed up by an Environmental Engineer.

Appointed to fill this newly created post, Mr. Duffy made known, is William J. Burns, formerly Manager of Civil and Mechanical Engineering for LILCO.

Among Mr. Burn's major responsibilities was the Company's nuclear development, and more recently his activities have concentrated on the engineering aspects of the control of air and water pollution, thermal effects, noise, radiation studies, and site planning with particular reference to fish, wildlife, aesthetic and recreational consideration.

L.I. Trust

The shareholders of the Long Island Trust Company during a special meeting held last night approved an agreement to merge with Bank of Westbury Trust Company under the charter of Long Island Trust Company.

According to Frederick Hainfeld Jr., chairman of the board of Long Island Trust Company, 86 percent of the 833,538 shares outstanding was voted in favor of the merger. The agreement between the two banks calls for an exchange of 1.85 shares of Long Island Trust Company stock for each share of Bank of Westbury Trust Company stock.

Hainfeld told shareholders at the meeting that Bank of Westbury shareholders at a special meeting held Wednesday had cast 82 percent of their shares outstanding in favor of the Plan.

The merger is subject to the approval of the New York State Banking Board and the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. The combined banks have total assets of $322,342,000 based on Long Island Trust Company and Bank of Westbury statements of condition as of December 31, 1968, and 25 offices located in Nassau and Suffolk counties.

Transportation Authority, is a state responsibility, the state having taken it over from private operation. It's a classic example of the deterioration of a carrier which was switched from private enterprise to government operation and has become a political albatross on the Governor's shoulders.

Although the federal government has no operational authority under present law and can only concern itself with equipment safety standards, there may be some help for the Long Island Rail Road from Washington, but it will be neither immediate nor extensive. President Nixon has proposed a $10-billion program to aid mass transit over the next dozen years, with some $2.5-billion ticketed to improve existing rail facilities.

With demands for help from all over the nation, it's quite evident that only a portion of this money could go for the Long Island. The line will have to come up with most of the funds it needs from the state treasury and from commuter fares. Further shakeups in its executive branch might also be in order or is "railroading" a punishment designed strictly for the commuter and executives who are not politically well connected?

Childrens Day

AWARDED CONTRACT

Edmund A. Ocker, Majority Leader of the Oyster Bay Town Board, said today that the Board has approved of the low-bidder for blumunous surfacing of a number of streets in Plainview. Ocker said Amfar Asphalt Corporation of Kings Park submitted a low bid of $29,990 for surfacing of portions of Floral, Main and Northern Parkways and adjacent areas located at Model Farms, Plainview, and the Board has authorized the Town Supervisor to enter into contract.

WILLIAM J. GRIBBIN has been named assistant vice president, according to an announcement by Bruce Wood Hall, Hempstead Bank's board chairman.

Mr. Gribbin commenced his banking career in 1956 and joined Hempstead Bank in 1964.

He is responsible for the bank's credit department.

Mr. Gribbin lives in Hicksville with his wife and two children.

Clean License Plates

When washing your car don't forget the license plates. County Clerk Harold W. McConnell advises Nassau motorists. In fact, he strongly urges motorists to make sure their car license plates are clean at all times especially starting September 1.

Why? The 1969 legislature amended the vehicle and traffic law, Section 402, Subd. 1, calling for clean license plates. The new section reads: Number license plates shall not be covered by glass or any plastic material, and the view thereof shall not be obstructed by any part of the vehicle or by anything carried thereon. It takes effect on September 1, 1969.

By

Howard J. Finnegan

It was a hot, humid Sunday but the Hicksville Sutter team excelled in the opening round of Connie Mack Long Island-New York Playoffs.

More than 600 persons withstood the searing sun to watch the Morning game with Syosset which the Sutter nine took with a two run rally in the last of the seventh.

The loyal Hicksville supporters came back for the afternoon game with powerful Westbury and were rewarded when Sutter's won 5-0.

In the taunt morning encounter it appeared that Gary Jackson would be the victim of a horrendous error of commission.

Pete Swedella had provided Hicksville with a 2-0 lead in the top of the first inning with a 365-yard smash off the right center barn roof.

Syosset reached Jackson with three rining hits in the next frame but would have had to been content with a lone run were it not for a botched fly pop in front of home plate.

The bases were loaded and when the ball fell three feet in front of home two runs came roaring in as the Hicksville infield stood agahast.

That made the score 3-1. The innings were running out as Jackson settled down to dominate the visitor bats. It wasn't until the last frame that Syosset bowed to the Sutter pressure and the heat.

With the bases loaded Swedella came up and he provoked a base on balls which tied the score a 3-3. Catcher Joe McNicholas then produced a game winning single to sent Sutter's to the quarter-final.

Pitcher Steve Marlow had his finest day of the campaign in the Westbury match. He threw a wide assortment of soft stuff and was touched for only two hits.

In the meantime the Hicksville bats came alive. McNicholas sent a booming triple to deep centerfield for a triple and he also had a long double.

Ed Reilly belted a home run with a runner on and Hicksville easily built a 5-0 lead. And there it rested in the hot afternoon sun.

FROM THE Congressional Record

By JOE CRUMP

(A Column for Readers Who Haven't Time to Review the Congressional Record Daily)

STUDENT RIOTERS GET COMEUPPANCE

Rep. William A. Steiger (Wis.) "... There has been much discussion in recent weeks about the actions of college and university administrators with regard to handling of student disorders ...

"I am including at this point in my remarks, information which details some of the action which has been taken by colleges and universities throughout the country." (The following information is from a column by John Kendall and George Kannar, published in the Los Angeles Times):

From the cradle of the student movement, UC Berkeley, to the nation's oldest university, Harvard, scores of campus disturbances this school year have prompted the question:

"Why don't they just throw the trouble-makers out?"

The question implies an easy answer: get tough. The implication is that nothing is being done.

But the fact is, universities and colleges have disciplined scores probably hundreds with more than clucks of disapproval and slaps on the wrist. During the last school year for example:

UC Berkeley dismissed 15, suspended 35, placed 160 on disciplinary probation; in three disturbances and collected some $20,000 in fines for property damage.

Harvard dismissed 3, "separated" 13 for periods up to two years, placed 20 on probation and warned 99 against future misconduct

Stanford University suspended 14, placed 77 on probation and levied fines totaling $5,425.

University of Chicago expelled 43 and suspended 81 for periods up to six quarters for a two-week building sit-in. Dartmouth 40 undergraduates were arrested, thirty-six of them were sentenced to 30 days in jail University of California Au campuses) 2 dismissals, 71 suspensions. University of Colorado 2 students expelled. U. of Miami (Coral Gables, Fla.) 14 students arrested. U. of Illinois (Champaign) 244 students arrested. Ohio U. (Athens, Ohio) 21 students arrested. U. of Conn. (Storrs, Conn.) 16 students arrested. Western Michigan U. (Kalamazoo) 37 students arrested. Central State College (Wilberforce, Ohio) 92 students arrested. U. of Wis. (Madison) 39 students arrested. Purdue U. (Lafayette, Ind.) 41 students arrested. Columbia U. (New York) 300 students censured or placed on probation, 26 suspended. State U. of New York (Stony Point) 21 students jailed for 15 days, action pending for 68. Queens College (New York) 68 students arrested. Kent State U. (Kent, Ohio) 53 students arrested. Vorhees College (Denmark, S. C.) 25 students arrested. Roosevelt U. (Chicago) 50 students arrested. San Francisco State College one student expelled, 27 suspended, 10 placed on probation, 97 reprimanded for last year's disturbances.

Expulsion, dismissal or suspension may seem minor to angry citizens. But to a student who may lose his 2-S draft status or financial support or who may fail to graduate, there are not small matters.

A GRASSROOTS COMMENT

Little has been written or shown on TV, of the action taken by responsible educators who have taken action to prevent future campus outbreaks. The record should be set straight.

This column might just find its way to the bulletin board of some institution of higher learning.—J. C.

NC Press Association Hears L.I.R.R. Story

The Long Island Railroad team of Schlager and Fehrenbach were the guests of the Nassau County Press Association at a dinner meeting held on Friday, August 22, at the Garden City Hotel. Murray Rosen, President of the Association, extended the invitation to the pair on behalf of the Nassau County Press Association which represents 51 weekly newspapers.

The main speaker was Edwin J. Fehrenbach, Vice President of the Hempstead Bank and Governor Rockefeller's troubleshooter for the railroad. Mr. Fehrenbach pointed out that the railroad was purchased by the State at a bargain price of $65,000,000. and then emphasized that the properties alone are worth much more than that.

During the question and answer period that followed, it was pointed out that with the properties the State purchased old railroad beds, outdated cars and a lot of short stations for long trains.

Also during the question and answer period, Fehrenbach explained that the Budd Company is reimbursing the Long Island Railroad $50. per day, per car that is not in operation or is late for delivery. The Budd Company, in order to facilitate the repairs, is working on the cars at the World's Fair grounds. Twenty-eight to thirty Budd cars are in operation, with the delivery of ten more to come this week. And then, about six cars will be delivered weekly after that.

AT THE PRESS CONFERENCE: Peter Hoegl, Business Manager and Sheila Hoegl Noeth, Editor and Publisher of the HERALD NEWSPAPERS, talk it over with new LIRR President Walter Schlager, at the dinner and press conference held by the Nassau County Press Association last Friday evening at the Garden City Hotel. Mr. Schlager discussed the railroad's problems and said he felt that clean trains, running on time are problems that will be solved in the near future.

Washington Commentary

by Congressman John W. Wyder

The proposals for the future development of Mitchel Field are still receiving considerable public attention. This they certainly deserve. The development of the 1,000 acres in the heart of Nassau County will set the style for our future as a suburban area more than any other single factor. Reviewing the proposals for this area, as representative of the people who live closest to it, I have come up with certain conclusions which appear to me to be in the public interest.

I have stated that there is no reason for a high-rise development since it would set an example for the future in Nassau County which would be irresistible and undesirable. In fact, a review of the proposals indicates that the planners may well have been considering the area for development as an individual, self-contained "city". In my judgement, it should be developed for the benefit of the existing communities and I judge it in that light.

The original proposals called for high-rise apartments, housing 30,000 people. The business and industrial portions were intended to employ about 30,000 people. These figures may have been complementary by coincidence but traffic generated by all these people, in addition to the public movements for the hotel, coliseum and cultural center, would probably make the area inaccessible to any outsiders for road travel. I must repeat that I see no good purpose to be served by high-rise development in this area. I doubt if many Nassau residents or their children wish to live in a Forest Hills-type area. Most people who live in Nassau County moved here to escape from such type housing.

I support Supervisor Ralph G. Caso's proposal for a 63-acre wilderness-type park of the Hempstead Plains at the eastern end of the property. This is a small but important concession to conservation and in the interest of all the people of Nassau County. In addition, I believe the County of Nassau should establish a land bank of 100 acres to be used for future county office building purposes. Not to recognize this need nor to plan for it indicates an attempt to avoid making this important decision. The need will not go away. It should be done now, in the interest of sound government for the future.

MEMORIES OF SUMMER '69: In the upper picture we see the Jones family of 95 Cedar Street in Hicksville enjoying a barbecue at Arcy's Hotel and Motel in Narrowsburg, New York. While in the lower picture we see Mr. Jones and a Mr. McGhee of Baldwin as the front and rear-end of a horse which we understand came in last...oh well! You can't win them all! But it's evident that everyone did have a good time. The Arcy's resort located in Sullivan County, is owned by Hicksville residents, the Fountains of 291 Woodbury Road.

LIBRARY NOTES

The "lazy, hazy days of summer" are almost gone and its time to think about the new season which is fast approaching. Summer is a splendid time of the year but there is something stimulating about the fall. The thought of it sort of stirs one's energies and encourages a planning of new things. For the young its a looking forward to a new school year, (though possibly with varying degrees of enthusiasm). The high school student with the thought of the big wide world being a year nearer, may think, (we hope), "I've got to get some good grades this year! The housewife may have thoughts about making those new draperies for the living room this fall, or learning to be a gourmet cook, or even getting serious about that diet. The business man may think "I really didn't have to let that deal fall through. I wasn't well enough informed about the market for my product".

Well, it would be nice to say "Eureka! We at the Hicksville Public Library have the magic answer". We don't. But we do have the aids to help each to find his own answer. These are the librarians trained in reader services who are able to direct the questioning borrower to the proper resource material; books, periodicals, etc. that will provide him with his answer.

For the young person there are 30,000 books in the children's room to help him with his school assignments, and for just plain reading enjoyment he can climb the highest mountain or swim the deepest river all through the pages of a book.

The high school student who is concerned with what is going to happen to him after the last note of "Pomp And Circumstance" has faded will find a wealth of material in the Career Information File. This is a comprehensive collection of occupational information on over 200 careers which was presented to the library in memory of Jerome Karrish by his friends. If he is interested in being an interpreter for the United Nations, or being a purchasing agent, a chiropractor, having a career in radio, TV, or the movies, or any one of over 200 other careers, either academic or vocational, all information pertaining to these professions, preparation, requirements and demand, is in the Career Information File. Of course several hundred college catalogues are available too.

The housewife can make the new draperies with the minimum of effort by following the instructions that are included in the many books on sewing. And her cooking can be plain or fancy in any language. The diet is a little harder, and she will first have to decide which is the best for her. There are many.

It would be nice to greet Santa in an attractively decorated room, the table laden with goodies, and 20 pounds slimmer. It can be done.

The business man can start at the beginning with "A History of Business From Babylon To the Monopolists" by Miriam Beard. If he wants something a little more topical, there is for instance, "How To Organize And Manage A Small Business" by Nelson Henty Block, "Effective Business Report Writing" by Leland Brown. Also the Wall Street Journal, Barron's, Standard and Poor's, and Moody's for the market investor, and Thomas Register and Market Guide for the salesman and manufacturer, are among the over 1,000 books plus past and current business periodicals that deal with business in all its ramifications.

RECEIVING SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS: from the Hicksville, V.F.W. William M. Gouse, Jr. Post No. 3211, are William Moran (from Chaminade to Massa. Univ.), Mark Klevanosky, (from Chaminade to Boston College) and Susan Wangenheim (from HHS to attend State Univ. New Paltz), with congratulations from Assemblyman Martin A. Ginsberg and VFW chairman of the Scholarship Committee George Walden. "It is the intention of the VFW Post 3211, to continue these awards and scholarships annually," said a spokesman for the Post.

Nine - Pin Talk

Henry Dockswell

The BCA Summer Mixed Bowling League Championship was decided last Monday night in a one game play-off. The Simon-Gaft quartet had won their division championship while Minoff-Luxemburg were the champs in their division.

Both of these teams had grabbed the lead in each of their divisions quite early in the season and were never headed. Simon-Gaft almost ran away from their section when at one time they had a lead of 20 points. Minoff-Luxemburg didn't find it nearly that easy but they overcame every threat. Now they were ready to decide which of them were the league champs.

On paper Simon-Gaft looked to be the stronger team and as the play-off game started it looked as though they were going to run Minoff-Luxemburg right out of Syosset Lanes. Irv Galt started off with a triple and as his teammates joined the parade of marks in every frame the gallery of watchers started thinning out.

As the 5th frame ended Minoff-Luxemburg were down 8 marks and it seemed to be all over. Then, almost imperceptibly, the tide started to turn. A few misses by the Simon-Gaft combo and a double by Al Minoff and another double by wife June and suddenly in the 9th frame Minoff-Luxemburg was only one mark down.

The 10th frame started as though Minoff-Luxemburg would go all the way. Blanche Luxemburg led off with a strike and finished with a 20 point frame while Rose Galt, who was on a strike in the 9th, failed to convert a tough spare. Now they were all even.

This was where the Simons stepped in; Lorraine threw a strike and anchor man Sid threw a strike as the rest of the Minoff-Luxemburgs missed. The Simon-Galts won by 45 pins and were the Champs of the 1969 Summer League.

Because of the early deadline of the Villager we did not have enough time to gather and compute all the individual

Safety First

Brian O'Leary of Hicksville will be one of 70 candidates to report to Coach Dom Anile when the C. W. Post College Pioneers begin football practice.

O'Leary, a 1967 graduate of Hicksville H. S. where he played for Coach James Grantham, will be a member of the Pioneer team that will play a tough 10-game schedule beginning with Northeastern University in Boston on Sept. 20. A 6'2 1/2" pounder, he is listed as a defensive end on the Post roster.

Brian saw a lot of action last year and should see even more as a junior this season. The captain of his Hicksville H. S. team and an All-Division selectee, the education major at Post won high school varsity letters in football, basketball, track and lacrosse.

Nassau County Police Commissioner Francis B. Looney today urged the motoring public to cooperate in a drive for an accident-free Labor Day weekend.

Last year, the weekend closed with 108 motorists hospitalized, and 71 less seriously injured in 233 accidents within the area policed by the county police department.

"Careless driving, without regard for the law, can only add to the toll," Looney said. "Take your time, obey the law, and be considerate of other drivers. Courtesy and thoughtfulness pay off in safety."

Looney again reminded motorists that schools in the county will be reopening after the holiday weekend. He urged drivers to keep a sharp lookout for children on foot or riding bicycles.

"Be alert for school buses, too," he warned. "The law forbids passing school buses while they are taking on or discharging passengers."

BACK-TO-SCHOOL RULES FOR MOMS

Back-to-school time can spell fun—or frenzy—for your family. It depends on you.

A little advance planning can encourage your youngster's pleasant anticipation while reducing his natural nervousness. Getting ready in easy stages will avoid that deadline desperation so many parents succumb to at summer's end.

Here are some tips from the child psychologists to help you turn that back-to-school storm into smooth sailing.

1. Wardrobe Wisdom. Make a list of your child's clothing needs well in advance of his school's opening day. Shop in easy stages to avoid fatigue. Don't over-buy as Junior or Jane may well outgrow present sizes by winter. And be sure to allot enough time for careful fitting of those all-important new shoes.

2. Medical Alerts. Even though your youngster receives a routine examination at school, in the weeks preceding his return check any special physical problem with his doctor. And try to schedule his semi-annual visit to the dentist now to avoid cutting into school or play time later.

3. Tools of the Trade. Advance buying of school supplies helps your child get a happy outlook about school's start, whether he's going for the first time or just going back. Tension is often relieved by the acquisition of a new school bag, pencil case, shiny notebooks or his own dictionary.

4. Games Give Confidence. Still another suggestion to break the back-to-school ice: buy the child a new game. One that entertains while stimulating the power of concentration, is particularly helpful during the transition from vacation to school. An ideal example is Milton Bradley Co.'s new "Recall". It provides a challenging test of visual memory in which children often outscore parents. You get just a few seconds to study a crazy picture pattern before it rotates out of your field of vision. Then you have to duplicate that pattern with your own set of picture cards. The excitement mounts, and the mind works. Since most school-supply stores also sell games, you can pick one up on a scheduled shopping trip. Heed these helpful hints from the experts and your child should be off to school with a healthy head start. And you'll get the gold star for parental preparedness.

Letter to the Editor to have changes made to alleviate the situation. Such as having all traffic enter from Nevada Street and exit someplace else (other than Nevada St.) but so far nothing has happened. With the opening of Kleins in the next few weeks the problem will be much greater. We've been very patient with the Town of Oyster Bay, but our children are not safe on the sidewalk here, we can't back out our driveway always car honking etc. and all that's been done is No Parking signs installed. If this is their answer to a traffic problem this town is in a sorry mess.

So please Mrs. Noeth if you can do anything for us it would be greatly appreciated as you are our only hope now.

Sincerely,
Robert Fischer

every other Sunday night through May-17, 1970.

We are not filled yet but we do have a quota and we are fast approaching it. As in the past, BCA members will be given preference but if by Sept. 3rd there are still openings, then they will be filled by anybody who wishes to bowl.

The league is a handicap league with two couples making up each team. You can join with another couple as a full team or just as a couple and we'll pair you up.

There is a registration fee of $7.00 and the weekly cost is $7.00 per couple. This covers all costs of bowling, prizes and the dinner-dance.

So if you and your mate want to bowl this winter every other Sunday night, see me or call me at OV 1-0421.

statistics. The only individual winners we are sure of at the moment are Sid Sachs who threw a 213 in his last game to break a tie with Nat Warren for Most 200 games and Louise Jacobs who won Most Improved Bowler amongst the women with an increase of 9 points.

Don't forget Saturday night, Sept. 20 at the Golden Meadowbrook. We'll drink, dance, eat and give out the trophies. See you there at 9: P. M.

meets the powerful Whitestone team from Westchester. The loser will play Hicksville at the losers field Saturday. On Sunday the best two out of three game set will start with a doubleheader. That will be at the field of the Baldwin-Whitestone winner. The only game possible at Hicksville would be if Sutters advanced to Sunday's doubleheader and split. The final would be at the Hicksville diamond on Labor Day afternoon at 1:00 p.m.
