HHS NEWS

By David Satran

With the beginning of another school year at Hicksville High, the problems of running a school with an enrollment of over 3,000 students once again manifested themselves. Schedule conflicts and other problems — such as convincing everybody that the summer really was over — were magnified by the frequency with which they occurred. However, Principal Raymond Rusch, and Assistant Principals Feigen, Jones, Olvany and Palguta quickly brought order to the High School. Just listening to the multitude of problems which find their way to these gentlemen's desks makes one glad that he isn't an administrator.

The All School Council, the High School's student government, promptly got down to business. Under the leadership of Barry Lebowitz (chairman), Curt Brill (vice-president), and this reporter (president), the council is running well ahead of last year's pace. As of this writing, three of the seven Student Court Judges have been chosen; they are seniors Mark Goldstein, Mike Kelly, and Rich Weinstein. The sale of G.O. Cards, supervised by Sheila Kreditor, is in full swing at this time.

Thanks to the efforts of Mr. Elliot Painsner (advisor to the Junior and Senior classes), class elections went smoothly. Senior officers are Joe Zuckerman (President), Kathy Prokopek (Vice-President), Cathy Brennan (Secretary), and Mary Jo DeFendis (Treasurer). The Juniors elected Bob Reden (President), Wendy Leet (Vice President), Robin Ribarich (Secretary), and Carol Greenstein (Treasurer). Mike Maltzer (President), Joy Thaler (Vice President), Lori Mayer (Secretary), and Laurie Snyder (Treasurer) will serve the sophomores. Under the guidance of their advisor, Mrs. Estelle Carter, the latter are busy planning for the upcoming Sophomore Hop.

The first football game (which we lost to Division 14-6) offered disturbing proof of a new and unusual problem. Despite the valiant efforts of the cheerleaders and a small group of vocal fans, the Hicksville crowd made about as much noise as garbagemen with plastic pails. When the school song was played, no more than half of the people could bring themselves to stand up out of respect. This will indeed be a pleasant surprise for our opponents, who are accustomed to a Hicksville crowd unmatched in enthusiasm. In short, Hicksville is in urgent need of a transfusion of school spirit.

The problem, however, does not stop with the High School and its students. The number of Hicksville residents in attendance at the game was disappointing in light of our past history. The Hicksville community, unparalleled supporters of High School teams, has a proud record to maintain. We can ask even more than this. Not only must sporting events be well attended, but each and every resident must make the condition of education in Hicksville his primary concern. The people of Hicksville have long been aware that the future of our town depends upon and revolves around a successful educational system.

All Nassau Awaits David and Julie At Park Oct. 13

All Nassau County is waiting to give Mr. and Mrs. Dwight David Eisenhower II a most enthusiastic welcome next Monday, October 13th, when the young couple will participate in the renaming of Nassau County Park in memory of the late President Eisenhower, according to Congressman John W. Wylder, Chairman of the Nassau County Board of Supervisors' Committee.

"David has informed me" said Wylder, "that he intends to present to Nassau County a memento of his grandfather, one which can probably be enshrined in the Veteran's Memorial Tower at the Park. The White House would not reveal the nature of the presentation, but I am certain it will be one in which the County can take pride."

Following a meeting of the full Committee at the Hempstead

Town Hall office of Presiding Supervisor Ralph G. Caso, the completed program was approved and sent to the printer.

The covering of the souvenir program will be a copper bronze reproduction of the memorial plaque to be unveiled by Julie Eisenhower.

Miss Barbara Conrad, a soprano who has been a soloist for the Boston Symphony Orchestra and is a protegee of Maestro Lazlo Halacz, Chairman of the Music Department of State University of New York, will lead in the singing of the Star Spangled Banner and sing one of President Eisenhower's favorite hymns, "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God."

Nassau County Executive Eugene H. Nickerson will extend the greetings of the County and Hempstead Presiding Supervisor Ralph G. Caso will give some brief remarks on the significance of the renaming of the Park.

A feature of the program will be the singing of "In Paradisum" by the Armand Sodero Chorus. The hymn was first sung in memory of President Eisenhower at the Park on August 9th, last.

Rev. Clayton Williams, Director of the Long Island Council of Churches will give the invocation; there will be a "Prayer for Peace" by the Rev. Magr. Charles Bermingham of St. Aidan's Roman Catholic Church, Williston Park and benediction by Rabbi Israel Nobel, East Meadow Jewish Center.

The 1st United States Army Band, Arthur Shettle, Bandmaster, will play a medley of "Ike's favorite army songs." The Joint Armed Services Color Guard, General Eisenhower's Five Star Flag and the Post flags of all Nassau County Veterans are expected to add to the colorful ceremony. A Carillon Concert by Miss Diane Ott will include many of President Eisenhower's favorite hymns and music, including "Army Blue," the West Point Alma Mater.

A reception to Mr. and Mrs. Eisenhower will be given at the "Salisbury Club" at 12 noon preceding the 2 o'clock time for the official renaming ceremony.

Invitations have gone out this week to leading citizens of Nassau County to attend the reception.

Members of the Supervisors' Committee for the renaming of the Park are as follows: Miss Mona Oppenheim, Commissioner Herbert J. Simins, Joseph Devine, Irving Flaumenbaum, James A. Gray, Mrs. Quentin Roosevelt, William Mulvehill, Morris Fleishman, Capt. George C. Waters, Mrs. Betty Rice. Each member of the Board of Supervisors serves "ex officio" on the Committee.

Business-Womens Club To Honor Grace Fippinger

The Business and Women's Club of Nassau County will be honored by the presence of Grace Fippinger, New York Telephone's Nassau Division manager — the highest field position held by any woman in the nationwide Bell System — at their monthly meeting on Thursday, October 9th, 8 at Stuffer's Restaurant in Garden City.

Miss Fippinger's presence and speech will be in keeping with the proclamation of National Business Women's Week. Eugene Nickerson is proclaiming October 19-25 as National Business Women's Week which also commemorates the fiftieth anniversary. Each year during the third week in October clubs throughout the Federation focus the attention of their communities on the tremendous contribution made by women in the world today and honor the outstanding achievements of women in the various phases of economic, social, cultural, business, and professional life.

The October 9th meeting will be under the chairmanship of Mrs. Evelyn Hartmann who is director of volunteer services for the industrial home for the blind in Hempstead.

Republicans Set To Rally

Round Their Candidates

Oyster Bay Republicans have scheduled three mass rallies for the month of October, according to Bernard Greco, President of the Presidents' Council of Oyster Bay Republican Clubs, who is organizing the program.

"In past years we often held a Town-wide rally," Greco said. "But it is difficult to obtain a location to handle that large a crowd."

"This time," Greco continued, "we have scheduled rallies for the North Shore, Mid-Island and South Shore."

Coming up first is the Mid-Island Rally scheduled for Wednesday, October 15, at 9 PM, at the American Legion Hall, Southern Parkway, Plainview.

"The next night (Thursday, October 16), we will have the North Shore Rally at the Villa Victor Restaurant, Jericho Turnpike, Syosset, at 8:30 PM," Greco said.

The South Shore Rally will be Thursday, October 30, at 8:30 PM at the Elks Club, Brooklyn Ave., Massapequa.

Greco said 15 Republican clubs throughout the township are sponsoring the rallies. The North Shore clubs represent Bayville, East Norwich, Sea Cliff - Glen Head - Glenwood Landing, Locust Valley, Oyster Bay and Syosset - Woodbury.

The Mid-Island membership includes the Hicksville, Plainview and Jericho clubs and the Central Island Women's Club.

The Republican clubs participating in the South Shore Rally include Bethpage, Farmingdale, Massapequa,

Dear Friends:

NO SOAP OPERA has had a longer run than the story of the Dairy Store on Old Country Road and Division Avenue, which is gaily operating with eight violations against it, on charges brought by the Town of Oyster Bay Building Dept. answerable in the 4th District Court. The following seven violations were brought against this store on August 13th!

(1) Violation of Article 1, Section 6, subsection 2A of the Building Code. Operating without a Certificate of Occupancy.

(2) Violation of Article 1, Section 4, subsection 1 of Building Code. Alterations have been made to the building without obtaining the necessary permit.

(3) Article 8, Section F 1 of Building Zone Ordinance. A wholesale business is not permitted in a Business F zone.

(4) Article 13 Section K 4 of Building Zone Ordinance. Signs have been erected without first obtaining the necessary permits.

(5) Article 1, Section 2, subsection M. Violation of unnecessary noise ordinance.

(6) Violation of Sanitary ordinance, Section 6, subsection 9, in that sufficient waste containers have not been provided for the facility of waste material.

(7) Violation of Sanitary Ordinance, Section 6, subsection 7, in that the premises are not kept in a clean and orderly fashion.

The eighth violation, which charges this same store with operating a drive-in restaurant without a permit, was brought against them on Oct. 2nd.

After several postponements, at the request of the defendant and his attorney (during which time the store is still operating), on Wednesday, Oct. 8th, Mr. Sobel, the store's owner, pleaded not guilty on all eight charges. The trial is now set for Nov. 5th.

In all fairness to Mr. Sobel, some of the most offensive signs have been removed... but a drive past the premises will show old trucks parked on the so-called "lot which provides off-street and groups of people standing around and eating food near the door parking". To date he has not even attempted to obtain a certificate of occupancy!

THE HERALD does not wish Mr. Sobel to close up his business... it definitely DOES want him to correct the violations and conduct his business so that it is an asset to our community. Our town needs all sorts of businesses, but, should they not all obey the laws? We provide these laws for our protection so that our town will not become a slum! Once more we ask all who have authority over this case... how long would you permit us to drive a car without the necessary license plates?

WELL, our friends at Klein's have moved to Hicksville, and now the residents of Nevada Street will have an even more difficult time in getting into and out of their own driveways! But we have been assured that "something is going to be done" about this serious situation and hope to have good news for you in the near future.

CONGRATULATIONS to all our 4-H Clubs who are celebrating their special week at present. Children between the ages of 8 and 18 and adults who are interested in starting or joining a small club are invited to call the Nassau County 4-H office in Mineola at 742-9516. They do fine work with young people.

Candy Sale

Hicksville-Levittown Auxiliary of the Association for the Help of Retarded Children will participate in AHRC's county-wide annual Halloween Candy Sale, which will be conducted during the month of October.

Children will be selling the candies on a door-to-door basis to raise funds to help support the many services supplied by AHRC for the retarded children of Nassau County. These include diagnosing, parent counseling, summer camp program, and a Sheltered Workshop for employment of adult retardates, among others.

Local orders may be placed with Mrs. Peter Guadagno, of Hicksville, GE3-8529; or Mrs. Edward Quist, General Chairman, SU5-2994.

Police Training

Nassau Police Commissioner Francis B. Looney today announced he had requested that the State Municipal Police Training Council prescribe a curriculum for an Advanced In-Service Training Course certified for college credit toward a Police Science Degree.

In making the request, he reported that over 2,800 Nassau County Police have completed the Intermediate Training Course.

"I make this request," he added, "with the realization that constant training is necessary and essential to maintain the efficiency of today's police officer."

Looney offered the services of the Nassau County Police Department's Training Division staff in developing the curriculum be asked for. All men of the Nassau County Police Department appointed before 1968 have now undergone re-training.

THIS IS FIRE PREVENTION WEEK: And at this time we once again take off our hat to our fine volunteer firemen of the Hicksville Fire Dept. who serve us 24 hours a day throughout the year!

OCT. 15th is a day which the Long Island Vietnam Moratorium Committee located at 67A Nichols Ct, Room 211 in Hempstead (phone 538-0768) has set to protest the Vietnam War. These groups are also nationwide. They want to protest the war in Vietnam. In America, thank God, everyone is given the right to express his own opinion... not so in Dictatorships! We are glad that these groups may have the right to protest peacefully.

WE ALSO HOPE for an honorable end to this war and we believe firmly that our President and his representatives are working towards that end. We give to these protestors the right to protest... and we reserve the right to believe in our Country and what it is trying to do honorably.

Until next week... stay well,

PRESIDENT JULES BENDER
SEC. MANAGER CHARLES A. VOORHIES

A MESSAGE TO Dissidents

"The rebels in our midst keep asking us to understand them. But I think it is time they did some understanding of their own. They should try to understand why the much maligned American system has produced the healthiest, richest, most charitable and—in most ways—the freest society on the face of the earth. If these strident, dissident groups would pay attention to why our system works and why the systems they espouse have invariably failed, they could perform a much more useful and beneficial service for all of mankind." — President Jenkin Lloyd Jones, Chamber of Commerce of the United States, in Look magazine's presentation at nationwide series of report-to-business luncheons.

A Tax Break for Employees

"In a time when a mobile labor force is a necessity, factors which restrict mobility and cause employee hardship should be eliminated. Companies have realized this and many are reimbursing their employees for moving expenses. These reimbursements are not considered compensation by employers or by taxpayers, but are an effort to reduce the employees' personal loss incurred in moving to a new job. Such reimbursements should not be taxed." — Walker Winter, chairman, Taxation Committee, Chamber of Commerce of the United States, in testimony, before Congress.

The Crime of Failure

"The worst crime against working people is for a company to fail to operate at a profit." — Sam Gompers, first president of the American Federation of Labor.

Troubles of Wage-Price Controls

"People look on wage-price controls as an easy way out... We tend to forget just how troublesome controls can be. You really have to go back to World War II to understand the complexities of a completely controlled economy of the type we had then and of the very great troubles that businessmen encountered as a result of these controls." — William S. Story, executive vice president, Institute of Scrap Iron and Steel.

Anticrime Drive Broadens

"I have authorized the Attorney General to establish 20 Federal racketeering field offices all across the nation. I have authorized the Attorney General to establish a unique Federal-State Racket Squad in New York City. I have asked all Federal agencies to cooperate with the Department of Justice in this effort to give priority to the organized crime drive. I have asked the Congress to increase the 1970 budget by $25 million, which will roughly double present expenditures for the organized crime effort." — President Richard Nixon.

Hicksville Lions had the pleasure to start their season with the installation of a new member, Dr. Robert Weber, Optometrist of Hicksville, sponsored by District Governor D. Jack Weber of Nassau County at their Sept. 24 meeting.

Old Bethpage Resident Elected State President

Marvin H. Wagner, Director of the Nassau County Traffic Safety Board, was elected president of the New York Association of Traffic Safety Boards at its first meeting held Wednesday, September 24, in Albany. The Association represents traffic safety boards located throughout New York State.

Wagner, an attorney from OLD BETHPAGE, was appointed Director of the Traffic Safety Board August 15, 1968. His tasks include the gathering and analyzing of information on Nassau County traffic conditions; coordinating existing traffic safety programs; initiating new programs where necessary; and carrying the Board's safety projects into action.

LILCO News

Oct. 3: Long Island Lighting Company announced that it had filed today with the New York Public Service Commission adjustments to its electric rates which would increase them by 7.7 percent, or $13.4 million annually. In prior rate adjustments, LILCO had voluntarily reduced its electric rates to its consumers five times since 1960 in amounts which now total $15 million annually. The overall effect of these changes is to return the level of electric rates to customers to approximately the same level which was in effect from 1958 to 1960.

In commenting on the filing, LILCO Chairman of the Board John J. Tuohy said that the rate adjustment was necessary to assure the construction of new facilities to maintain high quality of service to customers. Recent increases in construction costs, interest rates and local taxes require a slightly higher level of revenue in order to raise the capital required for the Company's construction program.

The LILCO Chairman noted that the Company's continuing record of increased efficiency and growth made possible the rate reductions put into effect in 1960, 1963, 1964, 1965 and 1968, but that cost trends now require what is in effect a withdrawal of those reductions. The new proposed rates would raise the average LILCO monthly residential bill from $11.29 to $12.12, or a return to about the LILCO rate level of 1959. In contrast, during that same 10 year period, the Consumer Price Index went up 28 percent, home heating oil prices increased 25 percent, the price of potatoes has gone up 56 percent and average Nassau and Suffolk school tax rates have risen 125 percent.

Like other Long Islanders, Mr. Tuohy indicated, LILCO has been affected by the inflationary swirl which has eroded the buying power of the dollar. A single measurement of the rise in LILCO costs, the Chairman pointed out, is the Company's new Northport Power Station. The plant's first generating unit was installed in 1967 at a construction cost of $39 million. The cost of a sister unit completed the following year was $42 million. A third unit, now under construction and which will generate the same amount of electricity as each of the first two, is estimated to cost $61 million when finished in 1972, representing a price increase of almost 50 percent in four years.

Local taxes have also been a fastgrowing cost item. Taxes on LILCO property will total $40 million in 1969 and are growing twice as fast as the gain in net plant investment, the primary basis for these taxes. In the last four years alone, Nassau and Suffolk taxes paid by LILCO have increased $17 million, a growth of about 12 percent a year. This has resulted in an increase in operating taxes, in the last two and one-half years, of more than 20 percent for each kilowatt hour of electricity delivered to customers, even though sales have been rising about 9 percent per year.

Up until now, Mr. Tuohy continued, LILCO's program of productivity improvement has succeeded in withstanding the general inflationary trend of the past several years even to the point of making possible a series of rate reductions. The size of our labor force, as an example, he said, is the same today as it was 13 years ago despite our serving 50 percent or 270,000 more customers and supplying more than three times as much electricity.

LILCO's current financial picture, Mr. Tuohy concluded, is sound and the adjustment of rates is designed to assure the future financial well-being of the Company, a necessary basis for the construction of needed facilities.

1,315 WAYS TO GET AID FROM UNCLE SAM

An alarming situation exists, and it's getting worse. If an individual started to call at the office of each Federal assistance program at the rate of one each working day, it would take over 5 years to make the rounds. Rep. William V. Roth (Del.) puts some startling information in the Record.

"I am inserting in the Congressional Record a listing of 1,315 Federal assistance programs, the most complete list ever compiled. (Congressional Record No. 147). This list represents the cornerstone of 4 months of research . . .

"Even a brief perusal of some of the 1,315 programs will show one important thing: There are so many programs of a similar nature scattered among diverse agencies and departments, it is a wonder that the potential recipients of Federal aid can ever find their way through the maze of Federal assistance programs . . .

"Thousands of administrators all across the country, have written to me expressing dismay at the confusion they are confronted with in trying to find the right program to solve a particular problem or need . . .

"As a result of my research in this area, I have introduced the Program Information Act, H. R. 338 in this body and S. 60 in the Senate, which would require the President to publish an annual catalog of all Federal aid programs and to update it monthly. Even with these 1,315 programs, I have reason to believe that another 100 to 200 programs exist; this legislation should insure that every single program is reported.

"I have gathered meaningful program descriptions for each of these 1,315 programs, including funding information, cross-referencing, application deadlines, and restrictions placed on aid . . .

"Let me say this: I do not intend to go into the catalog-making business. I believe the Federal Government has an obligation to make this information available to anyone and everyone who is a potential recipient of Federal assistance—and that means to the people back home, to 233 million Americans. I urge action on the passage of the Program Information Act . . . (Example: We list 10 aid programs from the Dept. of Agriculture, and there are 101 additional aid programs managed by this Dept.)

PLANNING FOR POWER

An adequate supply of dependable electric power is essential to the economic and social health of the community, as well as to the comfort and peace of mind of its citizens. People are more aware of this today than ever before, and we welcome this awareness. There is also much wider recognition that power systems require careful long-range planning and timely implementation of those plans. On Long Island we have been most fortunate in more than keeping abreast of the electrical requirements for one of the fastest growing areas in the nation. During recent years, the most difficult problem has been the siting of the various facilities required in the right place at the right time; however, local governmental officials at all levels have been most constructive in contributing to solutions which have best served the public interest. The result has been ample electric capacity to meet the needs of the Island with full regard for aesthetics and environment.

Our present planning looks in detail at the ten years ahead and, more broadly, well beyond that. Our planning includes not only the nature, timing and location of facilities, but the anticipated cost of constructing them and the manner in which the funds will be provided. This examination indicates the emergence of another problem — the adequacy of our revenues to finance these projects.

Since 1960 LILCO has voluntarily reduced electric rates five times — in 1960, 1963, 1964, 1965 and 1968. The yearly savings to LILCO customers due to those rate reductions is $15 million. We now find it necessary, in effect, to withdraw continuation of these reductions, and we have filed with the Public Service Commission an adjustment to our electric rates which increases them by $13.4 million annually, or an average of about 7.7%.

We have been absorbing increased costs, while reducing rates, for many years by applying more efficient techniques and maximizing the benefits arising from rapid growth. For example, the size of our employee force is the same as it was thirteen years ago, despite the fact we are serving 270,000 more electric customers than we did then (a 50% increase) and our electrical output is more than three times greater. A careful scrutiny of these and the many other measures available for comparison purposes indicates that the LILCO system has been operated and has functioned as one of the most efficient companies in the nation.

Notwithstanding these achievements, and the prospect of continuing improvements, three principal factors have more than eroded all the progress which has been made. They are higher construction costs, higher local taxes and the higher cost of investment funds.

Let's look at construction costs. At Northport the first 380,000 KW electric generating unit, completed two years ago, cost $39,000,000. The cost of duplicate facilities for a sister unit completed last year was $42,000,000. The third unit, same size, now under construction, will have cost $61,000,000 for the same components when completed in 1972. At the same time as these costs are soaring, so is the cost of money. Interest rates have almost doubled in the past few years.

Local taxes we all know about. The increase this year was 12% without the effect of new property additions, but LILCO has been adding $60 to $70 million dollars of property to the assessment rolls each year. The result is a 20% increase in local taxes for each kilowatt hour of electric energy sold in just the last 2½ years.

In this context of higher costs and greatly expanded need for electric facilities, LILCO must spend $685 million in the next five years to build the facilities its customers will require as compared with $400 million in the past five years. To obtain these funds will require a slightly higher level of revenues than we now experience. The average increase to all our residential customers amounts to about 80¢ per month. The table below will show you how your electric bill would be affected, and how the rates will be about the same as those in effect 10 years ago before our series of rate reductions. The proposed increase does not apply to gas service, nor to electricity billed for water heating or space heating usage.

	MONTHLY BILL
	Present	10 Years Ago	Proposed
100 KWH	$4.38	$4.74	$4.62
250 KWH	7.79	8.44	8.07
500 KWH	12.54	13.44	13.82
750 KWH	17.29	18.44	18.61

LILCO people have taken great pride in their ability to provide Long Island with top-notch electric service and in having been a national leader in reducing electric rates. We share the keen sense of frustration which the nation is feeling with each new manifestation of accelerated inflation. At the same time we know our responsibility to provide adequate and dependable electric service can be properly discharged only if needed facilities are constructed as required. J

Howard J. Finnegan

Syosset High needed a rancid third period touchdown and an equally tainted two point conversion play to upend a battling Hicksville team, 16-8, in a North Shore Section One gridiron game.

The Orange and Black waged a furious battle in the fourth period and was one yard six inches short, with two downs remaining, when the final gun went off.

Hicksville was rapped for 11 damaging penalties by the team of four officials and Syosset was only hit three times.

John McDermott was the running star for the Comets gaining over 100 yards in 18 rushes. He and Ed O'Reilly lead the aroused Orange in the final five minutes that fell barely short of tying the score.

In a solid first half the charges of McDermott lead Hicksville to the Syosset nine. The visitors held but could not get a truly sustained drive of their own underway.

Just before the half Hicksville was on the move again. Most of the 3,600 attending were audible when an apparent pass interference by Syosset in the clear passed without a flag.

In the third period Syosset earned a touchdown with a 45-yard down field drive in nine plays. On the extra point a pass evolved out of a fake kick and it was good for two points when the officials did not detect an illegal receiver downfield.

Immediately after a Hicksville fumble was recovered on the Comets 37. Hicksville seemed to have the drive stopped on fourth and seven on its own 15. Syosset came out for a quick call play. The visitors never came to the one second stop and the entire right side of the line went offside.

The referee waved both his hands in front him crosswise in a vigorous no good signal. He then ran to the line of scrimmage and gave the touchdown call. All Hicksville protests were ignored.

Instead of taking the life out of the Hicksville crew the events spurred the Orange to greater effort. With four minutes to go McDermott scored from five yards out and O'Reilly swept wide for the two point conversion. The score was 16-8.

Hicksville labored hard to come back and reached the one yard line with four downs to go.

This was a split umpiring crew meaning that they had not worked together before as a unit and the frantic discussions amongst the officials presented a confused picture when it came to setting the ball.

Hicksville came out ready to snap the ball. The referee sent them back in the huddle because the Head linesman had his all day difficult with setting the yard markers. On the second break from the huddle the officials still were not organized and when they finally signaled for play Hicksville was called for back in motion before the ball was snapped. That brought a five yard penalty.

Two running plays reached the one again but the time ran out.

Hicksville High rests this week and does not take the football field until Saturday, October 18, at Herricks High in Garden City Park. It is a league match.

Syosset's Junior Varsity ended Hicksville's three year unbeaten streak, 29-0, Saturday. Those Hicksville fans who attended on the beautiful Syosset campus can see the handwriting on the wall. There were five full 100-yard filed football games going on all at the same time. It was a smart setup and Syosset's future strength could well outstrip Hicksville's underprivileged athletes. It was an illuminating morning.

Hicksville High's Cross Country team responded to the careful and detailed practice workouts of coach Bob Hilsky by winning its first two outings impressively.

The Orange and Black routed both MacArthur and Herricks 16-47 and 15-50 respectively on the two and a half mile course at Eisenhower Park, East Meadow.

MacArthur managed a lone fifth place finish as Hicksville swept the other seven finishing spots.

For Hicksville the finishes came in this order. 1-John Johnston, 12:44, 2-John Leever, 13:15, 3-Peter Colling 13:21, 4-John Kearney 13:23, 6-Paul Fuller 13:38, 7-Sheldon Melnitsky 13:45, 8-Jim Mattis 13:47 and 9-Garret Van Hunten 13:55.

All nine Hicksville runners got over the finish line before a Herricks representative. It was Johnston first in 12:46, Kearney second 13:13, Leever third 13:26, Fuller fourth 13:28, Melnitsky fifth 13:35, Colling sixth 13:41, Van Hunten 13:42, Kevin Masters eighth 13:43 and Mattis 13:45.

Hicksville has only two seniors on the team.

Plainview-Old Bethpage Public Library

Do you know that there are 47 staff members of the Plainview-Old Bethpage Public Library, and do you know that from the Page to the Professional, from the part time to the full time clerk we are all trying to improve library service in every aspect. Therefore we thought we would speak to you, the reader of this article because you are sufficiently interested to read something called "Library News". The Library Staff knows that in the community many residents have a thing going with the library. You come to us for books, magazines and records; you phone us for a variety of needed information (Where did Austria recover its sovereignty and independence?). You bring your children to us for story hour and films; you like our Adult Film Program, The Performing Arts Series, and Adult Courses. We like you to come for all these reasons because this makes our work worthwhile.

The thing is - we don't want to stop here; we want to give you more of what you want, which means we would like to hear from you: phone (WE 8-0077), letters (999 Old Country Rd.) or in person (ask at Main Desk). We would like to know what you want and the only way to get that information is to hear from you.

We would like to form a kind of "ways & means" committee on how we can better introduce the library and its facilities to residents who have not already become acquainted with it.

Unlike Charlie Brown's encounter we believe a library should not be an awesome place.

Let us hear from you.

LIBRARY NOTES

The pleasant things that happen to us can be enjoyed for years through memory, and the memories of unpleasant things tend to recede. That is the way of our human nature, and a very good way it is.

Many of the 113 children who finished the Summer Reading Game, 70 to be exact can enjoy the memory of that day in August when they boarded the big buses and went to the city to the Museum of Natural History and the Planetarium. If we were on that trip this is what we too, would remember.

After checking and re-checking name lists and who sits with whom, the two air-conditioned buses were ready to go at 9:35 A.M. leaving a host of parents waving good-byes.

The Museum of Natural History is a tremendous building where one can get lost very easily. To solve the problem one adult was assigned to the monitoring of ten children. The situation reminds one of the story of "Madeline" with Miss Clavel.

Animals never fail to fascinate children. They have studied them in class, read and heard about them, and often have pets at home. However, the dinosaurs, elephants, whales and rhinoceros baffled them. The gigantic sizes of these animals produced "ohs" and "ahs". A random sampling of their reactions went something like this:

"I can't believe it! Are they real?" "How old could that elephant be?" "But it is so big!" "Gee, I'd hate to be eaten up by a crocodile with all those teeth." "But how did they bring them in here?" "Oh, look at the little bird perched on the water buffalo's back. Isn't it cute?" "What if the whale falls on us?" "When I grow up I'll be a Ranger and then I'll be able to watch the animals alive." "Hey, when do we eat?" That was the cue. It was indeed, time for lunch. We had to hurry to make the 1 P.M. show at the Planetarium. Those who brought their lunch ate at the snack room with Mrs. Neufeld and the others ate in the cafeteria.

In the Planetarium, after paying the fee, we were ushered to the theater. Except for a few colored lights, the place was dark. That gave it an aura of mystery. It is called "Hall of the Stars". Suspended in air at the middle was the sun and all the different planets revolving around it. After a short wait, we were briefed about the distances between the planets and revolution speed of each.

The next stop was at the Theater of the Sky, a vast domed hall on the second floor. A huge Zeiss projector was right at the middle. To celebrate the centennial year of the Planetarium we had a treat of what New York looked like 100 years ago compared to the present - buildings, way of dressing, cars etc.

Then came the big show of the stars. This was some of the different constellations, the Milky Way, North Star and Big Dipper. The missile take off ended the show, a dramatic spectacle that left everyone speechless. It would be discussed in retrospect on the way home.

4 p.m. found us back at the library where ice cream awaited us after which Mr. Barnes handed out the Reading Club Certificates. Those who had read more than the required 6 books also received a zoo poster by David Klein, the winner of the 1967 Printing Industries of American National Graphics Award.

And so concluded for another summer, the Reading Club program. "It was fun" said one of the girls. "It was great" chorused several boys. Well, it was both - Great Fun.

THREE HICKSVILLE TEACHERS BECOME PUBLISHED AUTHORS - Many dream of publishing their own writings, of seeing their ideas in the public marketplace. Few are willing to make the mighty effort to see their dream come true, for writing is hard work - getting "black on white" takes time and energy from projects that offer more easily-gained satisfaction.

Three Hicksville teachers have had work accepted for publication: Lois Walker of Lee Avenue School will have a group of her poems published in THE ENGLISH RECORD; Mike Breheny of H. H. S. published a short article about student poetry in the Croft Educational Services BULLETIN; John Gallagher, also of H. H. S. will soon see his article in CLEARING HOUSE. These three teachers, together with Joseph Scallia of H. J. H. # Don't miss the best part of your new phone book.

There's a very helpful section in your new Nassau County phone book that you might not have noticed—the introduction. (We call it the Call Guide.)

Take a look. The Call Guide is packed with all kinds of useful information. Emergency numbers. What to do if you get a malicious or obscene phone call. Local and long distance dialing instructions. Hours when lowest long distance rates are in effect. Area codes. How to get a free print of the cover painting by Winslow Homer.

And that's not all. In the Call Guide there's a handy time-zone map of the U.S. and Canada; plus information on how to reach your local telephone business office, repair service and Directory Assistance.

By the way, before you call Directory Assistance, please check for the number in your phone book. Chances are it will be there, and you'll save yourself the time of an extra call.

Another timesaver. Whenever you look up a number, why not underline it or jot it down? You'll find it much faster the next time. (If you'd like a free book for jotting down your frequently called numbers—your Call Guide tells you how to get that, too!)

Remember, make the most of your phone book. The time you save will be your own.

Complete Hospital Care

For the first time, four hospitals, each serving a different medical need, are coordinated under one administration, in one private hospital center. Fully accredited, Brunswick serves nearly 600 patients in an aggregate of 20 buildings on forty beautifully landscaped acres.

GENERAL HOSPITAL for medicine, surgery, obstetrics and psychiatry. Mentally ill patients can be admitted to special pavilions under 'Blue Cross or other insurance plans.

PSYCHIATRIC HOSPITAL for the mentally and emotionally ill, for the alcoholic and drug addictive. An individual therapy program is designed for each patient by one of our fully-qualified resident psychiatrists.

NURSING HOME for the geriatric convalescent, cardiac and diabetic patient. In addition to 24-hour skilled nursing care, the services of a resident physician are available.

NOW... a new hospital of physical medicine and rehabilitation for extended illness.

CHRONIC CARE HOSPITAL staffed by specially trained physicians and rehabilitative nursing personnel; designed exclusively for the long-term, restorative treatment of the chronically-ill and physically disabled. Most Major Medical insurance plans will cover patients admitted to this hospital.

Facilities and Treatments include:
1. Swimming pool and Hubbard tanks for hydrotherapy.
2. Gymnasium for physiotherapy.
3. Daily living activities program and crafts.
4. Speech therapy program. 5. Inhalation therapy.

Ten Pin Talk

by Henry Dockswell

Four teams smacked their opposition down but good and took a giant step upward.

The most satisfying step was taken by Irv Simes and his trophy hungry men. They were in 5th place until they met the Sid Sachs'. Cap't. Irv led the clobbering. He rapped a 233, a 186 and a 181 for a 600 series and with a great assist by his teammates they swept all three games and moved into undisputed possession of 1st place.

The Hy Shapiros took the greatest upward jump. They started the evening in 14th place but Sy Bruckner soon rectified that. He cracked a 232 and a 209 for a 517 series and when Cap't. Hy with a 226 and teammate Phil Wasserman with a 211 joined the firing brigade the Bill Kellers were sunk. The Shapiros rose seven notches to a two way tie for 7th.

The Julie Gershens had a very nice evening too. They were resting sedately in 8th place and they were bowling the 2nd place Herb Brodys. However they soon shocked the Brodys into an awareness that tonight they meant business. Fred Rothman rapped a 211 in the first to put that one away for the Gershens and Irv "Twinkle Toes" Herskowitz rolled a powerful 228 in the second to overcome Herb Brody's 202 and clinched that one. The third game was a good team effort by the Gershens and they had their shut out. The Gershens rose 6 places to 2nd and the Brodys sunk to 9th.

The last of the whitewash jobs was accomplished by the Sid Holtzmans. They began the night's doings tied for 9th place but they were meeting the league leaders, the Leo Geyers. There

HIGH STYLE

by Arturo's

Dialing phone calls in a booth, use a pencil, nailfile, mascara wand, anything from your purse... but don't use your nicely-manicured finger.

For beautiful shoulders and back: when reading, sewing, typing, consciously pull shoulders down, hold for count of ten; release. Do it every so often. Relax, too!

In ancient France, the king and his court had a different perfume for each day of the week.

Under-eye puffs? Cold wet tea bags placed under eyes for ten minutes, while you lie down, will work magic.

To give a sunny-gold shine to mousey hair, mix one capful of peroxide with a cup of baby shampoo. Leave lather on hair ten minutes... wash and rinse. Brush, brush, brush!

National School Lunch Day, Thursday, Oct. 16

Serving more than 4000 lunches each day would pose a considerable problem to the best housewives and caterers. Operating one main kitchen and five satellite kitchens in different buildings presents similar daily challenges. Yet these are the very daily chores performed each school day, as cooks and cafeteria workers prepare and serve wholesome food to students and staff of the Jericho Public Schools.

Recognition and appreciation for these valuable services will be extended as National School Lunch Day is observed on Thursday, October 16 at the Jericho Public Schools. The menu for National School Lunch Day includes: Pastrami on Vienna Roll; Potato Salad; Cole Slaw; Mustard and Pickles; Vanilla Sheet Cake and Beverage.

Fiction And Fact

by Dottie Mills

We all can't be Jacqueline Susann, but we can try. Some bright young things on Newsday's staff did and succeeded. Now don't tell me you haven't heard of the greatest publishing hoax in years. I'm talking about that four pound compilation of jello and catnip entitled Naked Came a Stranger. From an idea spawned by Mike McGrady and Harvey Aronson, columnists for Newsday, twenty-five staff writers including McGrady and Aronson, gave birth to a contrived best seller in the best Susann tradition. Chapters were contributed and accepted on the basis no continuity, poor writing, bad language and racy content. Many chapters had to be rewritten because they were to liberate. The whole was put together and shipped off to Lyle Stuart, a publishing house with guts. An author, Penelope Ashe, was dreamed up and credited with crashing the market once exclusively held by Susann and Robbins. The newspapers, magazines, TV, and radio got wind of the hoax and ran with it. Now comes the clincher!

The Fourth Annual Book-and-Author Luncheon sponsored by The Friends of the Jericho Public Library will host to Mister McGrady and Mister Aronson. Come and get the lowdown on how a best seller is written causing a two inch hole in the cheek. The date is Wednesday, October 29th. The place is the Four Seasons in Syosset on Jericho Turnpike. For all the details and to reserve your ticket call any of these numbers: WE 1-7975, GE 3-5445, WE 8-5424. Tickets are also available at the Library. Reserve or purchase yours today. This year's luncheon is going to be a sell-out.

Hadassah Happenings

The Jericho Chapter of Hadassah will hold their next general meeting on Wednesday, Oct. 15th at the Jericho Jewish Center. Refreshments will be served.

Cyclists Must Comply With Minibike Laws

By Lotte C. Stein

A visit to the 2nd Precinct of the Nassau County Police Department elicited the following information.

(1) To operate a minibike on other than private property, the vehicle must be registered, must follow the New York State vehicle and traffic laws and must be operated by a licensed driver. Since a minibike is not a four-wheeler, it requires a special driver's license, the same as a motorcycle.

(2) Anyone who operates a minibike which does not comply with the above regulations on a public street or anywhere other than on private property; (a) If under sixteen years of age, a Form 89 - a juvenile activity report - is filled out by the police officer and filed with the Police Department. If the infraction is repeated, the youngster can be arrested which becomes a matter of police record. In the case of an unregistered vehicle, the vehicle is also impounded.

(b) If over sixteen years of age, a summons is issued and the violator must appear in court.

New Audio-Visual Dept. At Jericho

Jericho's Public Schools are continuing to expand audio-visual services by establishing Media and Resource Centers in each of the district's six buildings.

Alvin Engel, Audio-Visual Coordinator, is supervising the improvement of audio-visual centers and the coordination of new learning materials with all aspects of the instructional program. Adding to a supply of films, filmstrips, records, tapes and other programmed materials are new resource units prepared by Jericho's teachers.

The Robert Seaman School's Media Center opened on September 29. A ceremony marked the Media Center's "gala opening", with Superintendent of Schools David Nydick and Seaman School Principal Lionel Goulet welcoming parents and teachers to the center.

BCA Summer League Celebrates

By Henry Dockswell

The bowling wives and husbands of the BCA celebrated the end of their summer season Saturday night, September 20th, at the Golden Meadowbrook. This was the third year in a row that the Meadowbrook was chosen and if you were there you know why.

The drinks flowed without limit, the band swung until 2:00 A.M. and the food was great. Mix these ingredients with out happy go lucky bowlers and you can't help but come up with a swinging concoction.

Sid Simon, who had that terrible stabbing accident and was not present, got a get well message when his partners, the Gafts, brought a great big get well card and we all wrote our best wishes for a speedy recovery. We're sure Sid got a big kick out of that when wife Lorraine brought the card to him.

Most everybody did their own thing. Dot Peltzolt discovered a few errors on the seating place cards. Audrey Bruckner danced up a very pretty storm. Herb Mahler got happy very early in the evening and just about made it to the end Carol Holtzman played the piano and Adele Gluckman involved our councilman, Ralph Diamond, in a discussion of Sex Education in our schools.

The trophies were presented late in the evening and as the witching hour of 2:00 A.M. approached the gang left, tired but happy.

were no great individual heroics except for Capt. Sid's 204 but his teammates were all primed for an upset. And upset the Geyers they did. They swept the series, rose to a four way tie for 3rd place, and kicked the Geyers out of the top spot to join them in the four way tie.

The best game of the night and the best series of the night was thrown from a somewhat unexpected quarter. Dave Dembart had established a 161 average in his first 3 weeks but it didn't seem that he was quite ready for what followed. He threw a 219 for his first good one but then he boomed a 252 for a New Hi Game and wound up with a 622 series. He won both those games for the Norm Neys and accounted for their 8-3 victory over the Murray Kowlowitzs.

Fred Switzman with a 221, Buddy Flanders with a 211 and Abe Eisman with a 212 closed out the individual scoring.

Ramblin' Rose

By Rosemary Walsh

Didn't I tell you my (mine and thousands of others) Amazin' Mets would come through—now watch they'll go right on to take the Series. (Have faith—have faith) see picture elsewhere to show how long Hicksville recreation has supported them. Some of my other teams fared well too (some didn't) the Jets, Notre Dame but also a lack Army and my Comets had problems. But this week while my Comets rest I shall be at Yankee Stadium sitting with the Notre Dame Alumni (remember I have a husband, son and son-in-law all from that great University) but I shall have to cheer old No. 85 on Army, Mike Masciello, with my loyalties all confused.

Well we've got our program and staff all ready we are off to our new season. Mr. Jurgelevich, our Hockey Club Leader, announces the first meeting for Friday, October 10th at Canagage at 11 P.M. All those High School boys interested should report, remember last season we were the champions.

Speaking of "champions," meaning the finest, remember I told you it would be yours truly's pleasure to escort our Recorder Consort up to the State University at Oneonta, well the time is here. We depart on Wednesday at 6:30 A.M. (here I go again those still dark risings, shades of Skiing Trips) and spend the next 3 days there while they give a series of concerts to music majors, music educators, campus students, and local residents. Traveling as performers in this group will be Karen and Linda Alanko, Irene Callagione, Barbara Catanesi, Michael Pekar, Bruce Ruid, Richard Sadles, Jeffrey Schlegel, Susan and Karen Shapiro, and Eleanor Arnold. Mr. Henry Gales, accompanist, Mr. Gerald Burakoff their fine director. Perhaps you recall that this same Consort has performed by invitation in Philadelphia and Boston for the Music Educators National Conference and this last winter at Lincoln Center of Performing Arts. All this not per chance but due to the fine determined efforts of Jerry Burakoff. He is personally recognized as one of the leading exponents of the recorder, has studied in Vienna under Hans Ulrich Staephs (Professor of the Recorder at the Vienna Conservatory), has published a number of books on the recorder. Many of the selections played at the various concerts next week will be his and his professor's. I do wish you could all be there, but since you can't a performance will be arranged soon here in our schools for your enjoyment.

We have a few people in our building who've not been well, Adele Gray and Nancy Grantham, we wish them speedy recovery and also, last, but surely not least, my own "Little Brother" Fire Commissioner John McDonald, who I'm happy to say is on the road to recovery. Well I must get ready for Sheila's second Hicksville Seminar, get out my Notre Dame and Army banners so I'll ramble along

From time to time a member may want to notify an officer of the post of an illness or a death in his family; an interested citizen may want to contact the commander for information or for reasons of community participation in one of their

For the majority of post business the commander should be contacted and if he is not available, the senior vice commander should be called. In cases of sickness and distress the chaplain is the person to get in touch with.
