Board Of Education Adopts Dress Code

The Board of Education of Hicksville School District No. 17, Hicksville, New York, at its meeting of September 30, 1969, adopted a set of dress regulations for the secondary schools designed by students, parents, teachers, and administrators.

The code was drawn up in a series of six meetings during May and June. On completion, it was submitted to the faculties of the two secondary schools and the parents of all secondary school students for ratification.

In a letter to parents which accompanied the proposed regulations and the ballot, Superintendent Donald F. Abt said: "It is my hope, and the wish of the Committee, that you will sit down as a family to read, consider, and discuss these regulations. While we may tell you what the schools will accept in the way of dress and grooming, it is up to you, as parents, to decide what you will permit your children to wear."

Of approximately 6000 ballots sent out, 1130 were returned with the following results: 1040 families and faculty members approved the code, 61 disapproved, and 29 families reported that they could not agree on accepting or rejecting it.

Asked about the enforceability of the code in the light of recent decisions by Acting State Commissioner of Education Ewald B. Nyquist, Mr. Abt had this to say: "Mr. Nyquist's decisions said, in effect, that students had the right to wear hair of any length, or to wear clothing that is not dangerous, indecent, or unduly distracting. His statement recognized that boards of education had the power to make reasonable rules and regulations relating to attire and appearance of students and to prohibit the wearing of any kind of apparel which indecently exposes the person or causes a disturbance in the classroom. We welcomed Mr. Nyquist's decisions as supporting both the spirit and the purpose for which our dress regulations were designed. It is our belief that our code defines the terms of the Acting Commissioner's decision. We have enlisted the aid of students and parents in decision making related to accepting our responsibility for setting standards and providing direction in the matter of student dress and appearance. I am convinced that we can expect the support of students, parents, and teachers in ensuring that the code will be observed."

Herald Report School District 17 Hicksville

by Shirley Smith

Report On 8-Period Day

Dr. John Cadden, Assistant Superintendent, introduced the report on the 8-Period Day by citing the reasons for its institution in the district (or the return to it):

1. The need for more rooms to accommodate an increase in programs
 2. Reduce class size to 30 students, at most
 3. Permit students more use of the library
- Currently, there is a fourth reason: to meet contractual agreements with the teachers.

Junior High

Albert Glass, Junior High principal, stated that the 8-Period Day has relieved congestion in the building by 85 percent. There are 2850 students in the school. All the 7th grade is now in the east wing, for the most part, and this has taken approximately 1000 students out of the main building.

By using 8 periods, 2000 students are scheduled into state-mandated courses that they couldn't fit into seven periods. Class size has been reduced from 35-37 to 30 or less. Students' use of the library has increased since they no longer need to go during their lunch period. There is now an increased ability to introduce electives—for example, typing is planned for the future.

More effective study halls are now possible with 8 periods, Mr. Glass reports. They have become learning centers, with honor students tutoring and teachers available for help. Texts, library books and periodicals are at students' disposal in these learning centers.

Before institution of the 8 + Period Day, the Junior High was short 60 teaching stations during the day. Now there are enough classrooms available.

Senior High

The effectiveness of the 8-Period Day at the High School is similar to that at the Junior High. One of the immediate effects when it was started in September, 1967 was the availability of approximately 10 more classrooms each period. This allowed (and still does) for greater flexibility in scheduling. For example, the science classes can now meet only in science rooms which are equipped for this purpose.

Class size was reduced from 35-37 to 26-30. Lunch periods were expanded from 3 to 4—now all 3250 students can be given a full lunch period.

New courses have been introduced. Physical education classes have been reduced in size. Students can now take music on a full-period basis. Students no longer need to be taken out of their regular classes for guidance. BOCES students can be offered additional courses that they couldn't fit into their schedules before. The 8-

Herald Report Hicksville School District 17

Period Day has made possible some experimentation in Independent Study and Project Plan.

Overall Picture

Erwin Rozran, Administrative Assistant, reported that 40 percent of our Senior High graduates go on to a four-year college, 20 percent to other higher education, and 40 percent either go to work, into the service or get married. To meet the many needs of the students in our heterogeneous community we need a wide variety of courses.

The state mandates that students take five subjects (5 credits), physical education and have a lunch period. With seven periods, there is relatively no flexibility. Those wishing to participate in performing music groups would have to couple the extra music with lunch, under a 7-period system. With 8 periods, this is no longer necessary. To keep up with other schools offering more and varied courses, our district needed more classes. The expense of adding on the rooms was prohibitive, therefore the 8-Period Day was the most feasible recourse.

"We need 8 periods to fill the needs of 13 of our students," states Mr. Rozran. The change to 8 periods was a resourceful move, according to the Cooperative Review Survey.

Study Halls

"Why do some students have two study halls?" This question comes up often when discussing the 8-Period Day. Mr. Rozran explained why this happens.

1. Academic—these seldom have any study halls (because of science labs, etc.)

2. Business—these take 5 subjects, lunch, gym, then maybe a study hall; some take double period courses (secretarial practice, office practice)

3. Vocational—can only take 2 periods here (due to travel time to BOCES) plus vocational courses

4. General—mostly in this group that find students with 2 study halls (but many of these are in music performing groups)

The occurrence of two study halls comes about mostly through scheduling of gym classes. Of the 650 Senior High students in a year with two study halls, approximately 325 of them have two study halls in one term. Next year the state-mandated health education courses go into effect—one-half year is required (unless the student takes biology.) Health education will be one term, gym the other. This will do away with two study halls. If we didn't have 8 periods, we would have to find time to add the mandated health course.

"Are study halls tutorial?" At the Junior High School, yes. But at the High School there are no rooms available for students to meet with teachers during their study period. However, they do meet in hallways or the library, wherever space can be made available.

Last year the High School study halls met in the auditorium and this arrangement made a tutorial system difficult. This year there are four study areas and the auditorium is not being used for this purpose. This has helped the tutorial study hall system considerably.

The School Board has suggested that teachers have desks set up in the study halls so that students will be able to get help when they need it. Administration will study this plan.

We must remember that the 8-Period Day is not static, but in a state of flux. Administration is not completely satisfied with it, but is constantly looking for better ways to use and improve the 8-Period Day. This program, as others in our district, can and are being improved.

School Board Sees Film Of School Trip

A film was presented Monday night at the Plainview-Old Bethpage Board of Education meeting of a five-day trip taken last June under the Outdoor Education Program of the Central Park Road School with the direction and supervision of its principal, Mr. Leonard Kramer. The purpose of this film was to inspire the Board to approve this program for all Sixth Grades in the district.

Five sixth grade classes, accompanied by their teachers, Dr. Lillian Chaplin, Mr. Milton Goldberg, Mr. Walter Olsen, Mr. Bill Polatnick and Mrs. Nancy Wang, spent a week at Trail's End Camp, Honesdale, Pennsylvania, studying plant and animal ecology, star gazing, geology, conservation, and exploring of wooded areas. The most important facet of this outing was the learning gained in human relations where children experienced group living.

It is hoped that this experience will be a precedent for other 6th grade classes in Plainview to follow.

Ice Revue At Cantiague

Cantiague County Park will hold its Fourth Annual Ice Revue on Sunday, October 26, at the indoor ice rink.

The show will feature 20 of the leading names in figure skating from the Atlantic Seaboard and is sanctioned by the United States Figure Skating Association. Starting time is 1:30 PM and admission is free.

Cantiague County Park is located off West John Street in Hicksville.

Youth Conference Set For Oct. 26

A program designed to acquaint presidents or top officers of Nassau County high school organizations with ways to assist the community's cerebral palsied will be presented during a Youth Leadership Conference to be held October 26, 1969 at 12:30-3:30 PM in the auditorium of Nassau Cerebral Palsy Association's "Center for Living," 380 Washington Avenue, Roosevelt. Leaders of some 50 Nassau high school groups are expected to attend the meeting believed the first of its kind held on Long Island.

Conference chairman Alan Hirschhorn of Malverne, a volunteer in charge of Nassau youth fund raising programs in behalf of the famed health agency, said those attending will be provided guided tours of the 14-acre complex, presented with "exciting ideas for service to the cerebral palsied physically disadvantaged, and be afforded the opportunity to voice their ideas concerning projects of benefit to the cerebral palsy cause."

Entertaining during the conference will be the vocal-instrumental group "Your Father's Moustache."

Michael Goldstein Is Killed Upstate

Among the many who are mourning the tragic death of Michael Goldstein, 19, of 126 Celia Dr., Jericho on Oct. 5th are the boys he was teaching to read and write at the State Reform School near Rochester, N.Y. Michael, a sophomore at Genesee College of the State University, was in charge of Project REACH at the school and spent his spare time and money helping these youth prepare for constructive lives in the outside world.

Michael was killed instantly when struck by an automobile while he was walking Saturday night 15 miles from the college. The young people in the car that hit him said they did not see him on the deserted, unlit road.

Michael, a 1968 honors graduate of Syosset High School, was on the wrestling team while at Syosset and served as Photography Editor of the Yearbook. A physics major at Genesee, he made Dean's List last year and was in charge of one of the dormitories. This past summer he and his younger brother participated in the Israel Summer Seminar, an 8-week work and study program in Israel and Europe.

Friends and former classmates came from all over New York State and surrounding areas to attend funeral services Oct. 7th at I U Morris Chapel in Hempstead.

Michael leaves his brothers, Harvey, 15, and Sanford, 23, and his parents Mr. and Mrs. Edward Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein is Assistant Professor at the Fashion Institute of Technology of the State University of N.Y. and executive president of Unger and Hill, textile designers. He also teaches Hebrew at East Nassau Hebrew Cong. in Syosset. His wife, Florence, is active in the Tobay Chapter of Hadassah.

LIBRARY NOTES

Currently many students are seeking to read "gothic novels" in connection with their school work. It seems timely to make a note on the literary tradition.

The word "Goth" used to indicate a Germanic tribe, who invaded both the Eastern and the Western European Empires in the third, fourth and fifth centuries. Some of their members founded kingdoms in Italy, and in Spain. Later, the word is applied in a transferred sense to one who behaves like a barbarian, especially in the destruction or neglect of works of art. But in architecture it means a style prevalent in Western Europe from the 12th to the 16th century, the chief characteristic of it is the pointed arch.

In the English literature "Gothic novel" is characterized by horror, violence, supernatural effects, and a taste for the medieval, usually set against a background of Gothic architecture, especially a gloomy and isolated castle.

The genre originated in England with Horace Walpole's Castle of Otranto (1767). He made his home "a little Gothic castle". He transferred his interest in the Gothic architecture to literature when he wrote the novel. This was the first of the Gothic romances which was filled with horror, mysterious murder, and supernatural activities; one horror follows another until finally the castle falls in ruins.

In the United States the first great exponent of the Gothic romance was Philip Freneau (1752-1832), a New Yorker, especially in his long poem, The House of Night, it was a meditation full of "Gothic horror" in its revolt against the conventionality or establishment of the time. Charles B. Brown was deeply influenced by British writers. His work, Wieland; or The Transformation is the first American novel in the tradition of the Gothic romance. The plot is based on the history of an actual religious fanatic of Tomhannock, N.Y. who murdered his wife and children at the command of imaginary voices. G. Lippard's The Monks of Monk Hall (1844) was a lurid story about the midnight orgies of a group of the "best people", it created a furor. A watered down version of the play was safely performed in New York City in 1845.

Park Ave., HICKSVILLE. Mrs. Engeler was out recently due to an automobile accident. Nice to see you back.

Kathleen Bay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bay, 36 Glow Lane, HICKSVILLE, a graduate of Hicksville High School, has recently been named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Miss Bay is a Senior at Mississippi College.

Her sister, Leslie Bay, recently graduated from Nassau Hospital School of Radiology and has accepted a position in the X-Ray Dept. of Syosset Hospital.

Court Queen of Angels, CDA, No. 869, Catholic Daughters, St. Ignatius, will hold a Gay Nineties Dance on Sat., Nov. 1, at 9 p.m., in St. Ignatius new school cafeteria, Cherry St., HICKSVILLE. Tickets are $5.00 a couple. Mrs. Joseph Brown is Chairman of the affair. For further information, call Mrs. Vincent Yanuchi, WE 1-7763.

Sincere sympathy goes to the family of Vince Braun, of Third St., HICKSVILLE. Vince was an oldtimer in Hicksville, and many of us who remember him directing traffic on the corner of Nathaniel Hawthorne surrendered completely and employed ghosts, haunted houses, ancestral curses, hypnotism, insanity, witchcraft, and strange deaths in his stories. Edgar Allan Poe had similar devices, including premature burial, madness, and so on. Modern titles like Victoria Holt's The Legend of the Seventh Virgin, P. Whitney's Silverhill and many others down to W. Sheed's Blacking Factory and Pennsylvania gothic are in the same category.

Certain devices are built into the gothic from the start to help resolve its contradictions. There is, for instance, the convention of treating magic as science; the most favored by the Gothic romances are those of the Gothic past, astrology and alchemy; and such ancient symbolical dream as the elixir of life (in the words of Hawthorne). Later, these are replaced or reinforced by the bourgeois pseudo-sciences of mesmerism, phrenology, ventriloquism, and finally, in our own age, they are largely abandoned for popularized version of modern physics.

Terms like space-warp, telekinesis, teleportation give to that latest incarnation of the Gothic, science fiction. Thus, cancelling out the effects of original sin and supernaturals, the creation of life become the daily business of the laboratory, if not on today's agenda, at least tomorrow's. Magic is no more a problem when nothing is more magical than radar or earth satellites or the transistor.

The wildest imaginings of ancient sorcery become the staples of science fiction; legendary creatures or supernaturals are now called "invaders from outer space" and "android robots". The Andromeda Strain, a new science fiction, by M. Crichton, eliminates a major American space-age biological emergency. When contamination from a downed U.S. space probe causes the death of all but two inhabitants of a tiny Arizona town, four top American scientists attempt to discover the nature of the organism and the means to combat it. Therefore the science fictions and the crime and mystery stories of the 20th century have at least some of their roots in Gothic novel.

Marie St., and Broadway during a fire, will miss him.

St. Ignatius Rosary Altar Society will have a Penny Sale on Nov. 7, at St. Ignatius, HICKSVILLE. They will hold their annual Christmas Sale Dec. 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard McCarthy, of HICKSVILLE, are the proud parents of a son, Richard James, born to them Sept. 30, in Central General Hospital, Plainview.

Belated anniversary congratulations to Tom and Leona Bergin, 11 Park Ave., HICKSVILLE. We understand that Leona's birthday is on Oct., so Happy Birthday, also!

The Auxiliary of Christian Mothers, St. Ignatius Loyola School, HICKSVILLE, will hold their monthly meeting, Monday, Oct. 27, at 8:15 p.m. in the school hall.

Guest speaker for the evening will be Joseph F. Fox, Assistant Superintendent of Schools for the Diocese of Rockville Centre. The topic of his talk will be the History of the Catholic Schools.

Dear Friends:

Deepest sympathy to the family of Hicksville's Vincent Braun who passed away this week. Unfortunately, at presstime information for his obituary was not available, so we will carry more about this well known and well loved Hicksville resident, in next week's HERALD.

Next week you may receive your HERALD a day later than usual...not that we want it to be that way, but, as you know, our FIRST ANNUAL HICKSVILLE SUPPLEMENT will be mailed as sample copies to every home in our town. We hope that you will all enjoy this first attempt at defining our community goals for the coming year and that we will all work together, to help each other accomplish these goals.

Then, we can proceed to bigger and better joint community programs each year!

THE PICTURES BELOW show our new address and home. We hope you will not hesitate to drop your pictures and news releases at ONE JONATHAN AVENUE (corner of Old Country Road) which is just one block west of the intersection of Old Country Road and South Oyster Bay Road. Our telephone number will be the same, so, if we can help you in any way, please call us.

Until next week, do your very best, and please help keep Hicksville and its surrounding areas beautiful and clean.

Sincerely,
Sheila H. Noeth

Ramblin' Rose

By Rosemary Walsh

I guess I wasn't the only rooter for the old Mets as witnessed by the impressive ovation given them yesterday. I just knew they had to do it -- so did the Jets -- my other teams, well not too well. Notre Dame only tied Southern California. Army was beaten badly I'm afraid, by Utah State (but that makes Coach Ken Kingsley happy for it's his Alma Mater) but the Comets--they really romped 28-6 over Herricks and Ed O'Reilly really played a beautiful game. I won't tell you all about it, my fellow columnist, Howard, surely will.

Mentioning Howard Finnegan brings to mind the wonderful dinner held last Saturday for our old friend, Lou Millevolte (we all had a wonderful time and I sure got time to ramble round). Well--Howard certainly was the power behind that affair as he is back of so many other community activities. Sports watchers know that he hardly misses a game no matter what the sport, he always makes every effort to get the vote out and support the budget and right now I know personally that he is busy for Home Coming Day on November 1st. Rousing cheers for a real fan and a real community leader.

Speaking of sports fans there's another enthusiast who is quite happy these days. I mean, John McGovern, our East Street Principal, he now houses 2 new Hicksville Recreation Banners in his "School of Banners". This summer as I told you previously the East Street Playground won the Junior Olympics Day and the Softball Tournament, all dreamed up by our Summer Elementary Coordinator, Buddy Bryan. However, there is still that one banner that John would love to have (he has all the others) the Boys Elementary Basketball (now hanging in Woodland's Gym).

Getting back to those Mets and (Continued on page 10)

Howard J. Finnegan

Coach Bob Hilsky's Cross Country team captured the Section One Divisional Championship for the first time in the school's history when his hard working Warriors extended themselves in a complete team effort, to upset Syosset, 23-35.

It was a stinging reversal for the perennial champions from Syosset and victory came over the hilly course of South Great Neck High. Syosset uses that course for its home meets. It made the Hicksville victory all the more satisfactory since that play was overcome.

Hicksville had set the stage for the dramatic showdown by beating the very strong Farmingdale runners, 25-30, at Bethpage State Park just three days before.

John Johnston surmounted the task, to win the Great Neck route and after over the line first in the highly regarded time of 11:04.

It appeared that Syosset had the depth to get the points in the run-up positions. Going into the last two hundred yards the Syosset Red shirts had the important point positions within grasp but Hicksville's runners reached down for one last effort.

As the finishing stretch loomed up it was Hicksville's Paul Fuller, John Lower and Peter Colling who swept into third, fourth and fifth place respectively. Coupled with Jim Mattes squeezing into tenth place Hicksville had the victory.

Earning equal laurels with the victors over Syosset as Hicksville was accomplishing an undefeated season were John Kearney, Sheldon Melinsky, Kevin Masters and Garrett Van Houten.

Board expenses of Orange walked, jogged and skied over the grounds at Garden City Park as Coach Jim Grantham's

A 26-year-old woman who has been paralyzed from the neck down since childhood flipped a specially designed switch with her chin at 11 a.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 21, and re-discovered the telephone.

Bonnie Leighton, a polo patient at Meadowbrook for the last 19 years, used her chin to open the circuit for the only telephone in the nation designed to be operated from an iron lung. As Nassau County Executive Eugene H. Nickerson, hospital officials, her parents and friends looked on, she then called a woman she will now contact daily as a participant in the "Ring a Day" program of the Nassau County Office for the Aging.

eleven found itself in this 1969 season with a 28-6 victory over haughty Hericks.

Not in a long time has Orange shirted ball carriers romped in such a display of offensive power. Ed O'Reilly was the principle projector of the Orange cause as he scored three touchdowns and an extra point two point run. The Hicksville halfback was almost unapproachable. He got the first score on a 15-yard run and gave Hicksville a lead.

Hericks was undeterred and kept pressing. It reached the Hicksville 12 late in the second quarter. A short pass into the right field did not surprise Charles Iudutti. He picked off on the Hicksville 8 and set sail 92-yards for a touchdown.

That score generated the remainder of the day. O'Reilly cut wide gaps in the Hericks defense as Hicksville amassed over 400 yards on total offense for the day.

Fullback John McDermott hit the middle consistently for Hicksville and also picked up more than 100 yards rushing.

Kirk Jurgelevich made his first appearance of the season at guard and it now appears that Grantham has his mostly new crew settled in and adjusted to their new positions.

And it also appears that Hicksville can make a run for the Section One championship or at least a share of it.

Farmingdale shook the Nassau scene with 28-0 victory over second ranked Syosset and stands alone as the leader of Section One. Hicksville has a chance against its oldest rival on November 1 in the annual Alumni Homecoming game at Hicksville.

This Saturday Plainedge visits the Hicksville field at 1:30 P.M. Our Selection: Hicksville 32, Plainedge 14.

Hicksville Junior High scored its second straight victory with a resounding 19-6 win over Thompson of Syosset.

Greg Cavaliero ran for two scores on 15-yard and 15 yard runs. He also plunged for the extra point.

Quarterback Bob Daub sneaked over from the five yard line for the other touchdown.

Thomas could not cope with the ground game of the Hicksville team. Cavaliero carried for an excess of 100 yards and John Spadola gained an additional 63.

The work of the Hicksville line both on offense and defense was outstanding. Line backer guard Bob Gioiaza roamed all over the field plugging holes on defense. While tackle Brad Ernest was adept at opening wide ones for the attack.

Middle guards Don Cerbone and Al Hazak also won plaudits from the coaching staff for their work in the victory at Syosset.

Thus Friday the Junior High faces a stern test. Howlitt of Farmingdale visits the Jerusalem Avenue gridiron. Game time is 4:00 p.m.

Coach Bill Meyers Hicksville Junior Varsity got right back on the track after its first loss in 18 games. Hericks took the punishment 29-0.

Ring-A-Day Volunteer

Miss Leighton will make her daily call to a 32-year-old woman from Levittown who is a bilateral amputee, participating in a program that uses volunteers to place daily calls to 161 handicapped and elderly county residents to check how they are doing. "Ring a Day" has already resulted in the saving of three lives.

Nickerson said in welcoming Miss Leighton as a Ring a Day volunteer that her new link to the outside world would have been impossible if several agencies hadn't agreed to go far beyond the usual procedural bounds.

The off-on switch for the telephone was the result of a month of development work by the New York telephone Company. A telephone specialist took the project home with him, and with the help of a neighbor who is an engineer, developed an epoxy glue that holds a magnet and the switching device together. Because no holes can be drilled into the iron lung, special electronic parts were needed. These were donated by a Long Island firm. The phone allows Miss Leighton to be connected with a central switchboard of the telephone company where operators dial calls for the handicapped.

The installation of the equipment was paid for by the Nassau Chapter of the March of Dimes, which Nickerson said agreed to overlook its standard policy of not aiding efforts that would help only one patient. Nickerson added that Miss Leighton's participation in the Ring a Day program represents the first time the Office for the Aging has agreed to accept a Ring a Day volunteer from outside the organized structure of a nursing home. The other volunteers are patients in three nursing homes in Nassau, most of them from the county's A. Holly Patterson Home in Uniondale.

Miss Leighton, an attractive girl with a 30-inch-long brown ponytail, is the only long term patient at the East Meadow hospital, which concentrates on treating the acutely ill. She can only emerge from the iron lung for a maximum of five hours daily and she hasn't been able to make even brief visits to her parents' home in Oyster Bay for eight years.

The County Executive, who visits Miss Leighton frequently when he is at the county hospital, said she is specially liked by the hospital staff. Dozens of Meadowbrook employees who have known her since she was a child stop in briefly whenever they pass her room on the first floor. She resides in Room 136 in Section 130.

Miss Leighton's most recent accomplishment was to receive a high school equivalency diploma after a year of instruction by the vocational guidance counselor in the hospital's department of rehabilitation medicine.

SS TAX UP 1000 per cent IN 30 YEARS

Since the inception of Social Security, the maximum employee-employer tax per employee has skyrocketed from $60 in 1937 to $680.80 in 1967. It will be $686.40 in 1968. This rise in taxes is over 1000 per cent, while Social Security benefits have risen only 300 per cent—Bethlehem Review, Bethlehem Steel Corp.

CONSUMER PAYS INFLATION BILL

"Higher wages, not matched by higher productivity, must be reflected in inflation. The consumer pays the bill."—George Champion, chairman of the board, Chase Manhattan Bank, New York, in U.S. News and World Report interview.

U.S. CIVILIAN WORK FORCE ABROAD UP 50 PER CENT IN FIVE YEARS

The U.S. Government's civilian work force abroad has grown 71,234 during President Johnson's five years in the White House. In 1963, paid civilian government employees in foreign countries totaled 129,320. At the start of 1968, the work force had reached 200,554—an increase of about 50 per cent. The size of the overseas staff had increased by fewer than 1,000 in each of the previous five years.

"MEDIOCRITY IS DANGEROUS HABIT"

We are too much infected in this country with the average. Too many accept mediocrity as a way of life. This is a creeping and dangerous habit that is spreading throughout our entire life—in industry, in government, in military, in education, in our homes, and in our churches."—Winton M. Blount, president, National Chamber.

STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT SPENDING UP 13.2 PER CENT

Spending of all state and local governments in the U.S. for regular governmental functions (schools, roads, welfare, etc.) rose to a record $94 billion in fiscal 1966-67—13.2 per cent over the previous fiscal year, according to a report of the U.S. Department of Commerce's Bureau of the Census.

Representing nearly 800 school districts, these school officers come from all parts of the state annually to take part in the largest school meeting of its kind in the country.

The following members of the board will attend the Syracuse meeting: Thomas F. Nagle, Cornelius J. McCormack, Harry Kershen, and G. Thomas Muratore. In addition, Donald F. Abt, Superintendent, John Cadden, Assistant Superintendent, and Joseph Catalano, School Attorney will attend.

FILM AT PLAINVIEW- OLD BETHPAGE PUBLIC LIBRARY

October 24th 7:00 P.M. and 9:15 P.M. "Juliet of the Spirits."

Created and directed by Federico Fellini, the picture screen becomes a vast canvas, splashed with vivid colors and sumptuous decor in creating a surrealist hallucination. For Fellini people are important; they are worth crying about, laughing about, and in this film he presents them to us with all the warmth and enthusiasm his creative talent can instill in them. The film runs 137 minutes, Italian dialogue with English subtitles.

NOTE: Because of the length of the films in the series the hours for showing will be 7:00 P.M. and 9:15 P.M. They were formerly listed 7:15 P.M. and 9:00 P.M.

Here's Broadway some years ago. If you recognize the year of the parked cars you'll come close to guessing the year this picture was taken. One thing for sure, we didn't have to worry about what was going up on the west side of Broadway in those days!

Don't Invite Trouble

Nassau Police Commissioner Francis B. Looney today reported that county police, in a continuing effort to reduce auto thefts, removed 307 sets of ignition keys left in unattended, unlocked cars during the second week in October.

A 9.3 percent increase in auto thefts was experienced in Nassau County during the first nine months of 1969: 4,679 motor vehicles were stolen as compared to 4,272 during the same period last year. Nassau Auto Squad detectives indicated that 52 percent of the stolen vehicles had the keys in the ignition.

Since the county police began removing ignition keys left in unattended cars in December 1967, 21,011 sets of keys have been removed for safekeeping. This operation was prompted by the rapidly climbing rate of auto thefts experienced during 1967 (42.9 percent increase over 1966-from 2,112 to 3,017).

Nassau County police are under orders to inspect frequently all parked and unattended vehicles, and remove keys found in the ignitions of unlocked vehicles. After removing the keys to prevent the auto from being stolen, the policeman leaves a warning card, in a conspicuous place, which notes the patrolman's name, and the precinct phone number to call in order to have the keys returned. This procedure operates as a warning to motorists in lieu of issuing summonses.

"Leaving a motor vehicle unattended," Looney said, "without first stopping the engine, locking the ignition and removing the key, is not only an invitation for someone to steal your car, but it is also a violation of the New York State Vehicle and Traffic Law."

The students rank just below the 15,000 semi-finalists recently announced by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Dryer Air-Fluffs Wools

When it's time to take those woollens out of storage, don't forget to take advantage of your automatic clothes dryer. Moth repellency odors can be eliminated by tumbling the items on the air fluff or no-heat setting. A 10-minute tumble should do the trick, according to Maytag laundry specialists.

VETERANS GRIEVANCES

AIRER
Robert J. DeSanctis, Director, City of New York Division of Veterans Affairs and four Vietnam veterans will appear as guests on the Dorothy Gordon Youth Forum this Sunday, October 26th at 12 noon on NBC-TV Channel 4. The panel discussion will also be broadcast nationally on NBC-Radio on Sunday November 2nd.

The veterans will discuss some of the difficulties the New York Vietnam faces in his attempt to readjust to civilian life. The veterans appearing with Mr. DeSanctis are James Keye, Ezra Schultz, Luther Corbett and John Hyde, all Vietnam vets.

NATIONAL CEMETERIES

While nationwide expansion of national cemeteries appears a long way off another national cemetery for America's war veterans may soon be established in the Washington, D.C. area.

Proposal of the new cemetery has support from the House Veterans Affairs Committee and the Department of the Army who has no objection to the establishment of a new national cemetery near Arlington. The measure is still under study in the committee.

HOW ABOUT IT?

Now that the moratorium is over how about supporting our President in his attempt to bring about an honorable peace in Vietnam? Let's back President Nixon as he tries to overcome something he inherited - not created. And while we are doing that:

LET'S SUPPORT OUR BOYS IN VIETNAM

On Campus

William Robert Mashburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Mashburn, 6 Juniper St., HICKSVILLE, now is aboard the SS Trans Lunar as an apprentice engineer under a program of the Calhoun M.E.B.A. Engineering School to teach young men to become licensed engineers in the United States Merchant Marine.

Young Mashburn, 19, is now undergoing his shipboard training. When that is completed, he will return to the school for six more months of classroom study and then sit before a Coast Guard Board in examination for his third engineer's license. Once he receives that, he will be able to go to sea as a full-fledged marine engineer.

Mashburn is a graduate of Hicksville, Senior High School. He was enrolled in the Calhoun M.E.B.A. Engineering School on Oct. 16, 1969.

Howard Y. Krieger, 25 Peter Lane, PLAINVIEW, is among the New York students included in the Freshman Class enrolled at Bentley College in Waltham, Mass.

Synthetics Changing

The development of synthetic fibers has led to an increasing trend toward combining two or more fibers in a fabric, according to The Making Encyclopedia of Home Laundry.

Blended fabrics are made from yarns in which two or more fibers are mixed before the yarn is spun. Blending fibers can add durability, comfort, beauty and ease-of-care to fabrics.

One-Act Play Feature Of BCA Open Meeting

The Birchwood Civic Association, as provided for in its constitution, held its annual October general open meeting last Thursday night in the George A. Jackson School Auditorium. President Don Becker presided and opened the floor to the general membership. After a period of discussion, the entertainment portion of the meeting got under way.

The entertainment was provided by the Jericho Community Theatre whose players presented a one-act (two scenes) comedy. Featured players were Selma Gold, Betty Goldstein, Michael Brandt and Hy Ozer. Royalty rights prevent printing the name of the comedy and its famous writer.

The play's director, Alice Nussbaum, is to be congratulated for the smooth-running vehicle and the overall professional performances of the players.

Refreshments were served in the school lobby at the conclusion of the evening's program which gave the BCA members present another opportunity for more open discussion with the Officers and Directors of the organization.

Ten Pin Talk

by Henry Deckswell

We just heard that two of the bowlers that have been with our league since its inception had to leave for health and business reasons. Al Minoff and Eli Fisher, who are partners in business, are the men we're talking about. Both of them hope to be back with us next year and we assure you Al and Eli that the hope is mutual.

The two men that replaced them started with a bang. Murray Sussman, who took Eli's place, cracked a 214 and was responsible for the Milt Hoffmans only victory of the night as they lost to the Leo Geyers 7-4. In that series Cap't. Leo rapped the only double of the night, a 203, and a 213, to lead his team to the win.

The other man, Lou Vladem, threw a 202 in the third game to save the Lew Marks' from a shutout. Cap't. Marks had thrown a 202 in the second game but it wasn't enough so they were very thankful for Vladem's 202 in the last game. The final score was Kowlowitzs 8, Marks' 3.

The best game of the night was a 229 fired by Herb Brody. He had a very fine 602 series and led his men to an 8-3 win over the Sid Simons. Sid Simon, he of the Bronx stab wound and the collapsed lung, wasn't here Monday night but he did bowl Sunday night in our mixed league for the first time since his bout with the knife. He tossed a 218 and so tired himself out that after the next day's work he couldn't make it Monday night. Next week however he hopes to be there ready to bowl.

The only shutout of the night was fashioned by the Bill Kellermans. Cap't. Bill and teammate Elliot Spencer each threw a 200 and even though the opposition's Al Grusha countered with a 200 of his own the Kellermans whitewashed the Bernie Kaplans. It was a very big win for the Kellermans as they rose from 15th to 7th place.

With one third of our First Half season gone the Julie Gershens are in 1st place with 47 pts. and the Herb Brodys and Sid Holtzmans are tied for 2nd with 43 pts. apiece.

Here are the other fellows that distinguished themselves last Monday night: Fred Rothman 218, Les Shuman 215, Sid Sachs 214, Morris Garelick 206 and Mel Corwin 202.

Scouts To Baby-Sit

The problem of "where-to-leave-the-small-children" during school conference time will be solved at Jericho's elementary schools, thanks to the cooperation of Girl Scouts and Brownies.

Members of the local troops, the young community-minded volunteers will be available as baby-sitters on parent-leader conference days, October 30 and November 5. The scouts will be representatives of Troops 265, 458, 483, 532, 167, 673, 688 and 266. Each of Jericho's four elementary schools will provide baby-sitting service for parents' convenience. Parents will please bring their small children to the Cafeteria in each elementary school.

Rabbi Rose To Report On U A H C Meeting

Rabbi Rose will report back to Temple Or-Elohim on Friday night October 31st on the Biennial meeting of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations at Miami Beach, Florida. Many interesting topics, including the debate on the Jewish chaplaincy will be discussed. The Central Conference of American Rabbis recently abolished the voluntary draft of chaplains and there is a great shortage in Vietnam presently. In addition, there will be other important resolutions on the role of the Rabbi to his congregation which will be introduced and discussed. The theme of the Biennial is, A CHANGING SYNAGOGUE FOR A CHANGING WORLD. To encourage discussion, Rabbi Rose will dialogue at the Oneg Shabbat at which time there will be a question and answer period.

Drug Policy Restated By Syosset School Bd.

For the information of those concerned about the publicity given to recent incidents involving the use of drugs by three Syosset High School students, the Board of Education restates the following official school policy, adopted earlier this year as an aid to school administrators and staff.

School officials will cooperate with enforcement agencies whenever information which could lead to a source of illegal drugs is available.

Students suspected of being users of illegal drugs will be counseled by school personnel who will attempt, when feasible, to make early contact with parents of these students and the parents will be advised with regard to establishing communications with county agencies or enforcement officials.

Students under 16 years of age who are apprehended in school selling, using or in possession of illegal drugs are to be temporarily suspended. The school will assist parents in making contact with the Juvenile Aid Bureau and will readmit students when a program of action to help the child has been worked out between parents and Juvenile Aid Bureau authorities.

Students over 16 years of age who are apprehended in school, either selling, using or in possession of illegal drugs, are to be temporarily suspended. The principal will call in enforcement authorities and recommend that they take action in accordance with the law.

Life Saving Course

Registration for the Red Cross Senior Life Saving Course at the Jericho High School Swimming Pool is available to all residents. The ten session course is held on Thursday evenings, 7:00 to 10:00 p.m. Enrollment fee is $15.00.

Contact Mr. Domenick Morelli, Physical Education Department, 681-4100, Ext. 56. A minimum of twenty four participants is required in order to maintain the self-supporting program.

The Jericho Community Blood Bank will be in operation on Wednesday, October 29th, while the Bloodmobile is at the Jericho Fire house from 3 to 9 P.M. This is a non-sectarian community service and is jointly sponsored by all of Jericho's most active organizations: Birchwood Civic Association, Jericho Jewish Center, Princeton Park Civic Association, Temple Or-Elohim, St. Paul the Apostle Roman Catholic Church, Jericho Jewish Center, West Birchwood Civic Association, Jericho Lodge of B'nai B'rith and White Birch Civic Association.

All residents of the Jericho Post Office district and members of sponsoring organizations are eligible to donate blood and participate in the community's family group blood insurance plan. The premium is only one pint of blood annually per family; the dividend is all the blood your family may need for the entire year.

This is a very unusual opportunity to assure your family a full supply of blood for any medical contingency which may arise. Protect your family by becoming a member and be assured that in time of emergency you will receive the necessary blood without red tape, delay or cost.

If either a husband or wife for various reasons cannot give blood, they and their family will still be entitled to the benefits, provided they both appear at the Blood Bank and are rejected.

It is no longer necessary to go without eating before giving blood. Past experience has resulted in a modification of this once stringent regulation. Donors may now eat a normal breakfast, lunch or dinner. However, avoid heavy fats, salad dressings and cream.

Jericho Districts' Appraisal Schools Approach To Moratorium Day

"It is not the purpose of the schools to take a position on an issue such as the Vietnam conflict, but rather to provide a background of knowledge and a forum by which students may reach intelligent personal conclusions. It is further the expressed aim of the schools to provide its students with a vehicle and understanding for democratic action." So stated David Nydick, Superintendent of Jericho Public Schools, in announcing the district's educational approach to the "Moratorium for Peace" on Wednesday, October 15.

Jericho's students responded by peaceful, meaningful presentations during the regular school day, as well as participation in outside-of-school activities.

Regular classes were held in all schools, with panel discussions and special assemblies prepared by students and faculty. One such assembly, at Jericho Senior High School, featured student speakers who commented upon the background, purposes and ambiguities of the Vietnam war while scenes of the war were projected on the movie screen.

Other classes at both the Junior and Senior High Schools discussed and debated the draft situation, use of propaganda, economic considerations and U.S. foreign policy.

One unusual Junior High Class session included folk singing, art, poetry and dramatics presented by students in a moving presentation. In the well-organized class programs there was an effort to temper the emotional attitudes with objective approaches.

Among the outside activities in which Jericho students participated was a "March for Peace" at 7:30 a.m. from the Jericho Shopping Center to the High School Auditorium. Although the march was a student activity, faculty supervision was provided to ensure safety. The march was peaceful and muted; the strains of "We Shall Overcome" were heard as pupils walked to school to begin a day which displayed true freedom of expression.

Want your mouth to look fuller? Brush a touch of brown eye-shadow right above chin crease in the center, under your lower lip... about a half inch long.

Hands, hands, hands! Pale and lovely beside the Shalimar. Keep yours that way by saving your old cotton gloves, wearing them at ways for housework. Saves manicure too.

Please... fasten your wiglet or fall in a slightly different place on your head each day; a constant tug at the same spot may eventually pull out hair.

Queen Elizabeth's court dyed their hair red to match hers... soaking it in alum, then rubarb, tumeric and barberry bark.

Your own mini-sauna bath: rub down skin with oil, take steamy hot shower, come out and lie down for 10 minutes... then back into shower for cool rinsing. Polish skin with rough terry towel. And glow!

Complete Hospital Care

For the first time, four hospitals, each serving a different medical need, are coordinated under one administration, in one private hospital center. Fully accredited, Brunswick serves nearly 600 patients in an aggregate of 20 buildings on forty beautifully landscaped acres.

GENERAL HOSPITAL for medicine, surgery, obstetrics and psychiatry. Mentally ill patients can be admitted to special pavilions under Blue Cross or other insurance plans.

PSYCHIATRIC HOSPITAL for the mentally and emotionally ill, for the alcoholic and drug addictive. An individual therapy program is designed for each patient by one of our fully-qualified resident psychiatrists.

NURSING HOME for the geriatric convalescent, cardiac and diabetic patient. In addition to 24-hour skilled nursing care, the services of a resident physician are available.

NOW... a new hospital of physical medicine and rehabilitation for extended illness.

CHRONIC CARE HOSPITAL staffed by specially trained physicians and rehabilitative nursing personnel; designed exclusively for the long-term, restorative treatment of the chronically-ill and physically disabled. Most Major Medical insurance plans will cover patients admitted to this hospital.

Facilities and Treatments include:
1. Swimming pool and Hubbard tanks for hydrotherapy.
2. Gymnasium for physiotherapy.
3. Daily living activities program and crafts.
4. Speech therapy program. 5. Inhalation therapy.

$4,000,000 OF YOUR TAX MONEY

for a pile of garbage
and an inoperable incinerator

The Republican Machine has succeeded in turning a $2,000,000 incinerator project into a $4,000,000 pile of festering filthy garbage. Do you want that kind of government to continue?

This 120 foot pile of unburied garbage stands next to the Town's new incinerator as a monument to its inability to burn a paper cup. The Republican Machine, whose ghost candidate is running for Supervisor, appointed as engineer a party favorite who was fired from a similar job in Suffolk.

The Republican Machine knew, from all the job reports, that the incinerator would never work and yet they continued to sink your tax money and pile the garbage even higher.

The Republican Machine kept its secret about the failure of the incinerator from Supervisor Petito—the one Democrat on the Council—the one man who could have stopped this stupid squandering of tax dollars. Think what the Republican Machine could do if it didn't have to worry about a Mike Petito.

Isn't it about time?

you elected a government that will be efficient, effective and use your tax money for you—not to pay off the party faithful?

Isn't it about time?

you had a government that was responsive to your needs?

Isn't it about time?

you had a government that is really concerned about putting diners and gas stations next to residential areas no matter what lawyer represents the applicant?

Isn't it about time?

you elected YOUR team to run YOUR Town?
