BOCES Holds Half Day Classes

The BOCES Child Development Center in Plainview will hold half day classes for exceptional children for the first time this fall. The aim of this new type of class will be twofold.

Children of school age will receive diagnostic services in order to ascertain whether they would be better served in a regular school within their own school district or in one of the special schools that BOCES operates throughout Nassau County.

A preschool program for 42 exceptional children will be run for the first time at the BOCES Child Development Center for three to five year olds. This program aims to identify and diagnose a child's problem at the earliest possible time so help and therapy may be given.

H.A.D. At The Plaza

Hicksville Against Drugs (HAD), the community action group, maintained a booth at Mid Island Plaza this week to involve youth and adults in the program. This was done by distributing a wide variety of literature and by answering any questions. Pictured here are Robert A. Gring of the Plaza Merchants Association and also Director of the Northport Narcotics Council, Tom Weiss of the HAD Publicity group, and Thomas F. Nagle, President of the HAD organization. This successful booth will be open until Saturday, September 5th.

Hicksville Fire Dept. To Host Labor Day Parade and Drill

On September 7, the Hicksville Fire Department will host its Annual Labor Day Parade and Drill at the Mid Island Shopping Plaza in Hicksville. The Parade starts at 9:30 A.M. The route is the same as last year, Broadway to John Street, then to Newbridge Road and into Mid Island Plaza. The Drill will start at 1 P.M.

This year the Fire Department will pay honor to Mr. Henry Gebhardt. Mr. Gebhardt has served 50 years as an active fireman in Hicksville. Gebby, as he is known around the firehouse, has served in many capacities in the Hicksville Fire Department. Among them are Ex-Captain 1924, Treasurer Co. No. 1, Chief of the Department 1926, 1927, 1928 and 1929. There are also numerous positions he has held in County and State Fireman's Organizations. Hicksville is so proud of this man that this year

William Gebhardt
the Parade and Drill are in his honor.

There will be over 50 Fire Departments and marching bands from the New York area as well as units from Clinton, Westbrook and Danbury, Conn.; Henniker, New Hampshire; and Providence, Rhode Island. There will be many pieces of fire apparatus and possibly some antique fire fighting equipment.

There will be a flag raising ceremony following the Parade, featuring the Hicksville Fire Department color guard. Our country's flag will be raised to the top of Hicksville's 55 foot aerial platform during the National Anthem.

Seats will be available in the grandstands. The cost is 75 for adults and 25 for children. Refreshments will be in abundance, frankfurters, corn, cold beer and soda, as well as coffee and cake.

Vacation Days Are Over And Schools Prepare For Action

Only one last treasured vacation with summer ending that the sun keeps shining, only this last memento of summer, then, once again the schools take over and prepare for another year of educating our youth. Sept 8th in Hicksville District 17, is Teacher Orientation Day. For students the first day of school is Sept 9th.

Teacher Orientation

For Orientation, teachers who are new to Hicksville will meet Tuesday morning at 8:30 in the Senior High School Cafeteria A. Mr. Richard Weigang, Business Manager, will inform these new teachers about any matters pertaining to the business end of their appointments, i.e., insurance, hospitalization, retirement, etc., and answer questions that may be of concern to the new teachers.

At 10:00 all teachers, new to the district and returning teachers, will report to their assigned schools to finalize preparation for the opening of school Wednesday morning.

After lunch, at 1:00 p.m., all teachers will gather for a district-wide meeting in the Senior High School Auditorium, where they will be greeted by Superintendent Donald F. Alt, Assistant Superintendent John Cadden and Assistant Superintendent Fred Hill. Mr. Harry Keraban, President of the Board of Education, has made a tentative acceptance of his invitation to greet the teachers. Of course, the entire Board of Education is also invited.

LABOR DAY 1970

Labor Day marks the end of summer vacations and the beginning—at least psychologically—of a new work year. It's a good time for taking stock of where we are and where we want to go.

Aside from the war in Indochina, the American people seem most concerned about continued inflation, the threat of recession, and what to do about it all.

President Nixon has called for greater productivity as a means of countering both threats. He's created a special commission to make a study of the need for higher productivity and ways to achieve it.

The key, of course, is held by the people who actually do the work. Greater productivity means more goods in the market place; more goods mean lower prices; lower prices mean more sales, more jobs—and eventually—higher wages that aren't inflationary.

But it all must start with a determination on the part of each of us to work harder to produce more efficiently. This Labor Day, 1970, is a made-to-order moment for every jobholder to make this kind of commitment.

DEAR FRIENDS....

VACATION'S ALMOST OVER and next week, throughout our country, millions of shiny faces of all ages, will be taking that next "small step forward" as parents and teachers alike do their utmost to bring the best possible public education to their charges. Perhaps you haven't thought about it, but we have made quite a bit of progress in the last 70 years, in this tremendous task of educating everyone. I'm sure you do know that this is the first time in the entire history of civilization that this has ever been attempted...but did you know that in 1900 only 25 percent of America's population received an education. Today we are educating nearly 76 percent. It's true, that with a task as tremendous as this, with the constant evaluation that is necessary in our changing world to keep education in step with the times, we are bound to hear of the problems and failures....But we say to you, let's not forget the progress and honest effort on the part of thousands of dedicated teachers and parents, to help improve the system of public education throughout our country, in general, and in our own communities, in particular. We urge you all to join them, not fight them...and add your efforts to this team so that in years to come the percentage of those whom we educate and the quality of education itself, is even higher.

I'M SURE YOU NOTICED the filler all newspapers use occasionally that suggests, "Read the Legals For Your Protection". Well, there's more truth than poetry in this short sentence. No zoning changes can take place without prior legal notice being published. This gives you and your neighbors the opportunity to express yourselves at the hearings and hopefully, the opportunity to help your community grow wisely and in the direction that most of you want it to. Then of course, there are other legal notices, involving your

From Congress

Rep. James R. Grover, Jr.

The Capitol Cloakroom talk of the week was about Justice Douglas. Most persons facing serious charges are rather anxious to have their day in court. But Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas and his backers seem to relish only those days in court in which he's sitting on the bench. Most of us in Congress are anxious for a prompt and open examination of Douglas' activities, but we are no closer to an open hearing than we were when the charges were first brought at the start of this year.

The Justice has been charged with receiving salary and fees from unsavory sources connected with gambling, with associating with known criminals and with authoring books and articles which encourage violent dissent and open rebellion.

Unfortunately for any hopes of a speedy public hearing, Congressman Emanuel Celler, who heads the committee looking into the charges against Douglas, appears anxious to delay any such hearings until after the Nov. 3 election. One can easily guess why one of the senior Democrats in this Democratic-controlled Congress seems so tolerant of delay when among the shocking allegations is the report that the hearings would show that Bobby Baker is tied to the same gambling interests which are linked to Douglas. You will remember that Baker, a former assistant to Lyndon Johnson, was shown to have used political influence to amass a personal fortune during an influence-peddling career.

Justice Douglas' eccentricities and far-out preachments have received considerable notoriety. But when rising crime and the dignity and authority of our courts are the subject of so much attention and concern, Justice Douglas and his supporters do not serve the nation best by their vigorous fight against the Judge's day in court, for the best interests of our Judicial System, indeed of our country, demand an immediate, even-handed determination of the charges against the Justice.

Then Leave Me Go

If I should fail to tell you
That you've made my life
worthwhile,
That when I seemed to show despair
You cheered me with your smile.

If I should fail to show you
What it means to love you so,
Then I think it's up to you my dear
To turn and let me go.

I could not be the man I am
Were it not for what you've done.
I would never have accomplished much.
Or my own place in the sun.

Yes, before I ever met you dear
A loved one left me sad.
I turned from being something nice

I reflected all that's bad.

You took me from the depths of hell.

Restored my faith in life.
These things you gave to me my own
When you became my wife.

So if I fail to tell you love
The things you need to know.
Just smile though it may break
your heart
Then turn and leave me go.

JERICHO FIRE BELL

WRITTEN MONTHLY BY THE MEMBERS OF THE JERICHO VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT IN THE INTEREST OF FURTHERING COMMUNITY RELATIONS.

FIRE PREVENTION IN PRACTICE

You are all aware of the primary function of your Volunteer Fire Department, which is the extinguishment of fire and the preservation of life and property. However, there is a second and probably equally important function performed by your Fire Department. That is the job of preventive fire inspection.

After intensive schooling and a detailed examination, selected members of your Volunteer Fire Department are appointed as Assistant Fire Inspectors by the Nassau County Fire Commission. These inspectors are vested with the responsibility and authority of inspecting all commercial and industrial buildings as well as public and private schools, theatres and all buildings of public assembly. These buildings are generally inspected at least once a year. The only structure that does not fall under these requirements is the single occupancy dwelling. However any resident can avail himself of these inspection services on a voluntary basis by calling 931-3646 and leaving his name, address and telephone number. An Assistant Fire Inspector will call and arrange a suitable time for this inspection.

The duties of an Assistant Fire Inspector are to enforce the Fire Prevention Ordinances as set forth by the Nassau County Fire Commission. This is accomplished through carefully planned physical inspections of the actual premises.

The Nassau County Fire Prevention Ordinance specifically sets forth those areas of fire inspection which pertain to public safety, such as illumination and access to fire exits, placement and choice of fire extinguishers, storage and use of flammable liquids, improper storage of combustible materials, etc.

The purpose of the fire inspection program is not to "catch" the occupant unawares and issue a notice of violation. To the contrary, it is the job of the fire inspector to point out potential fire hazards and inform the owner of these hazards so that they may be corrected and thereby prevent the possibility of fire. A written report of each inspection, as required by law, is submitted to the occupant of the premises and a copy is forwarded to the Nassau County Fire Marshals Office.

As an adjunct to the fire inspection program, valuable information is gained pertinent to the nature of the structure, potential hazards, entrances and exits, location of hydrants and sprinkler connections and the potential life hazards involved in the event of fire. This preplanning information is maintained on file in fire headquarters for use in the event of an emergency or fire.

The success of a fire inspection program depends largely upon the cooperation received from the occupant of the premises. If you are ever visited by a fire inspector in your place of business, please realize that he is only doing his duty... the duty of protecting you from the possibility of fire.

Hicksville Library NOTES

Pamphlets describing the wide variety of services available to small businesses from the U.S. Small Business Administration are now available at the Hicksville Public Library.

A list of government publications on small business also may be reviewed at the library. It lists the sources for about 60 kinds of small businesses, including hobby shop, mail order selling, book store operation, pet shops, etc.

The Administration publishes 9 different series of pamphlets on these management and technical subjects, for example, the STARTING AND MANAGING SERIES is one of the popular ones. It describes how to start and manage a small business such as a small credit bureau and collection service, a service station, a small bookkeeping service, a small duplication and mailing service, a swap shop or consignment sale shop, and so on. Some are available at the library.

The Small Business Administration was created in 1953. It has the four principal functions: financial assistance, procurement assistance, management assistance and assistance in providing venture capital. It has 4,000 employees working in Washington and more than 70 regional field offices across the nation. Their job is to give advice and direct help to eligible small business. Thus, the Administration offers extensive assistance to small firms in helping them obtain financing from banks and other private lenders including small investment companies, help in improving their management capabilities, aid in a broad range of production and technical areas and help in obtaining government contracts.

Small firms or those who plan a small business could find these aids of substantial benefit and may review some of the publications at the library, especially THE SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION, by Addison W. Parris is recommended for those who are interested in knowing more about the functions of the SBA.

Hicksville P.B.C. Win County Championship

The Hicksville Police Boys Club Junior Baseball Team, won the Nassau County Police Boys Club Baseball Championship, defeating Merrick P.B.C. 6-4 in a well played game, at Eisenhower Park.

Both teams played well, but the difference was the outstanding pitching of Tom Marksteiner of the Hicksville team. Merrick threatened in the last inning, but Tom stayed cool and finished like a champion. It was a team effort offensively for the winners, with many boys contributing with timely hits.

This was the first County Championship for Hicksville in many years, and manager Dominick Mezzapesa and his coaching staff, Ray Conlon, Jim Muro did a great job with the boys.

The juniors are also the second precinct champions (10 and 11 years), and the sub-intermediates also took the precinct championship. Hicksville actually had three teams in the quarter finals of the county playoffs.

This was a successful season for the Hicksville unit, fielding a total of 18 baseball teams and one senior softball team. The softball team under the guidance of Dan Moscatello, took the Eastern Division of the Nassau County PBC Softball League. The team had to take three straight games from the Levittown unit to accomplish this league title.

One Way To Overcome The High Seas

The Sea Snark is an eleven foot sailboat that can carry ten times its own weight with ease. The boat weighs only 45 pounds, and is molded of a high density expandable polystyrene. This combination of portability and inexpensive sailing (price: $119) has helped account for the fact that over 70,000 Sea Snarks have been sold in this country alone.

The Sea Snark has caught on basically because it provides a rich man's sport on a poor man's budget. The sport is sailboat racing, and if that conjures up visions of sleek forty footers, Snark has changed all that. It's a racing class sailboat and can accommodate two people with room to spare and three people in a pinch. It may lack a bar and built in color T.V., but it makes it all up in economy.

Storage and transportation, two of a boat owner's biggest expenses, are taken in stride by the Sea Snark. It car-tops easily and can be stored in a garage, basement, or even attic. Painting and scraping, the seasonal drudgeries of other boat owners, don't exist for Snark owners. The hull requires virtually no maintenance and all hardware is corrosion-resistant aluminum. The 45 ft. sail is made of a durable fade resistant nylon that will stay colorful for years.

The Sea Snark is completely safe, and for that matter, almost indestructible. It is available at leading department and marine stores nationally. More information by writing directly to the manufacturer, Snark Products, Inc., 1580 Lemoine Avenue, Fort Lee, New Jersey 07024.

The 1971 Mustang Mach I (top) features a unique hood, grille and front bumper. The color-keyed, air-fol-shaped, urethane molded bumper doubles as an efficient air-spoller, improving high speed roadability. The Mustang SportsRoof model (bottom) features a unique "flat roof" design in combination with Mustang's all-new sheet metal for '71.

GF/A Roquefort Cheese Dressing

Ford's new 1971 Pinto, a two-door sedan, combines a small-car feel with a sporty-car look. The sloping windshield is accentuated by the low, sleek lines of the hood and fenders. Ventless side windows add to the trim lines of the car. In the rear, Pinto's short deck and fastback lines stress the contemporary look of the Seventies. The Pinto is about 18 1/2 feet long, turns in a circle of only 31 feet for easy maneuverability and delivers more than 25 miles per gallon in city-suburban driving.

Field Day For Fashion

This fall promises to provide the '70's woman a field day in thinking fashion for herself—maybe for the first time in apparel history.

"The season will be one of fashion choice," says Mabel Westerberg, Senior Vice President and Fashion Coordinator of Queen's Way to Fashion, Inc. "There will be no one look; one length; one way to dress. No conformity enforced. Various hemline lengths from moderate mini to maxi will be emphasized in coordinates. Accessories including long scarves, belts, jewelry, stockings and shoes will add the spice."

- Shoes and opaque stockings must match for a monochrome look.
- The top of boots worn with a midi must not show.
- Proper proportion of midi to height is essential. For shorter women, the midi should be no longer than the top of the calf—never in the middle of the calf, which cuts the leg line.
- The midi look should be accompanied by longer earrings, larger rings, chains and ropes and longish sweaters for an unbroken streamline appearance.

If you give up Cigarettes, you might gain a few pounds.

(And also a few years.)

The plain, unfiltered fact is that people who smoke cigarettes get lung cancer a lot more frequently than non-smokers.

And lung cancer can finish you. Before your time.

We'd rather have you stay alive and in good health. Because even if you do gain a few pounds, you'll have the time to take them off.

Weiners With A Split Personality

Everyone loves weiners and these weiners with a frankly split personality are delicious conversation makers at lunch or dinner — for the whole family. Some call them "cheese-furters" — everyone calls them delicious — and simple to prepare — a great combination of textures and flavors. Think we're fooling? Try them and see!

"CHEESEFURTERS"

- |                                    |                                     |
|------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 12 frankfurters                    | 2 tablespoons drained pickle relish |
| 6 pretzels, crumbled finely        |                                     |
| 2 cups grated sharp cheddar cheese | 12 strips bacon                     |

Split frankfurters lengthwise (not cutting all the way through). Mix pretzels, cheese and relish and use mixture to stuff franks. Wrap franks in bacon and fasten ends of bacon with toothpicks. Place on a broiler rack and broil until cheese is melted and bacon is crisp. Serve garnished with parsley and stuffed olives. (Makes 12 servings)

From the kitchen of JOAN AMUNDSEN

By popular demand (my neighbor) I'd like to share a recipe with you that I've used many times. It can be dressed up or down according to the occasion. When we are camping, Hamburger Stroganoff serves as a quick and easy meal after a long and busy day. It's economical enough to stretch even the tightest budget. A pound of chop meat can go a long way. I even used it for buffet suppers and a julebord on Christmas Eve. A bowl of hot rice for the buffet table or served over mashed potatoes for a family dinner plus a tossed salad, make the meal complete.

Hamburger Stroganoff
1/2 cup minced onion
1/4 cup butter
1 lb. ground round
1 clove garlic, minced
2 tbs. flour

1/4 teas. M.S.G.
1/4 teas. pepper
1/4 teas. paprika
1 lb. mushrooms sliced
1 lb. cream of chicken soup
1 cup sour cream
chopped parsley or chives
Saute onion in butter til golden. Stir in beef, garlic, flour, salt, m.s.g., pepper, paprika, and mushrooms. Saute 5 minutes. Add soup and simmer uncovered 10 minutes. Stir in sour cream and sprinkle with parsley.

I think one of the best ways to use up the rest of that smoked ham from the fourth of July is this recipe for Country Ham Loaf. When I was stuck for a recipe for a gourmet dinner, and the finances were low, I used this ham loaf. It even looks attractive with its pineapple glaze.

Country Ham Loaf
2 lbs. ground smoked ham
1 lb. ground pork
Mix with 1 cup fresh bread crumbs already soaked in 1 cup milk.

Add: 2 beaten eggs
1/4 teas. salt
1/4 teas. pepper
1 teas. worcestershire sauce
1/4 teas. dry mustard

Shape into 2 loaves and bake at 350 degrees for 20 minutes and drain off fat.

Make a sauce of 1/3 cup water:
1/3 cup pineapple juice
1/3 cup vinegar
2 tbs. dry mustard
1 cup brown sugar

Four sauce over loaves and bake 1 1/2 hours at 350 degrees basting often.

You can dress up the meal by putting candles on the table but beware. My husband says that the only time we use candles is when I'm trying to hide something.

Operation VFW

men in Viet Nam, are wrapped and prepared for sending. No doubt Bob McGovern, and Frank Jagusick can use all the hands they can get, to help out. If your boy is there and hasn't received any, it's because we don't know. So it would be nice for him, if you get in touch with Bob, or our Comdr. Frank. To a young man in that hot spot it gives them a warm feeling to know somebody other than his immediate family is thinking of him. While on the subject of Viet Nam. The Comdr. & chief of the V.F.W. is leaving no stone unturned to have all American prisoners released. You may already know about it. Just in case you don't its another important program for our organization on a national scale.

Frank Aug - mentioned, he, Lucille Blesi, president of the Aux, and Francis Blesi, president of the Jr. unit, were invited and attended a meeting of the new Youth Council organized in Hicksville. Please don't understand this to be tied up with any other, such as some of the churches have. This group has the blessing of the state, as well as the township. They will govern themselves and weed out their own problems. A group of teenagers who will control themselves. They will need some financial help to really get going. Anyone interested in this test for our youngsters, the next meeting is Sept. 9th, Frank couldn't give too much information at this time. But promised more data after the next meeting.

Frances Blesi said that the Jr.

L.S.A. Meeting

The next regular meeting of the Legal Secretaries Association will be held on Wednesday, September 16, at Strouffer's Restaurant, Garden City.

Mr. Nathan Zablou, Administrator for the Assigned Counsel Defender's Plan Program, will be the guest speaker.

Refreshments at 6 P.M. Dinner at 6:30 P.M. $5.75 per person. Reservations to P.O. Box 696, Mineola, New York, 11501.

unit meetings will be the 1st and 4th Fridays of the month. There will be no meeting Sept. 4th because of the Labor Day weekend. She would like to see all the girls attend the Sept. 25th meeting, and start off with a bang.

Lu Blesi makes notification that Aux. meetings will be held the 2nd and 4th Thursday, of the month, instead of Wednesday. It seems the ladies find Thursday more convenient, so they got in touch with Bob Obermeyer, and arranged the change.

Arrangements are being made to try to put a drum and bugle corp together. No doubt it will be very nice getting this too, into our post. I wonder how many in service men remember the drum and bugle corps in training. Did you ever hear such a noisy disturbing bunch? Wasn't it aggravating? Of course, we don't have to get up with it anymore, and it might even sound more rhythmic.

The lucky winner of the raffle this week was Jim Sotille. What, again, Jim?

That's all folks. Hope to see you at the next meeting.

Rocky-Caso Campaign Headquarters To Open

Governor Rockefeller and Hempstead Presiding Supervisor Ralph G. Caso, Republican candidate for County Executive, will join with other state and local Republican candidates at the opening of the Rockefeller-Caso campaign headquarters in Hempstead on Tuesday, Sept. 8, according to Nassau Republican Chairman Joseph M. Margiotta. Margiotta said that Governor Rockefeller will officiate at the headquarters opening to help demonstrate the "Partnership Government program which the Rockefeller-Caso team represents."

He added: "This year's county executive election is the most important in the county's history. On Election Day, November 3, voters shall decide whether they want their county government to continue the drift to the far left under County Executive Nicherson's hand-picked candidate, or returned to responsive, moderate government under Ralph Caso's administration."

"I am confident that the residents of this county will support both Governor Rockefeller and Ralph Caso on the basis of their outstanding achievements in office and what they both can do together for Nassau County in the years ahead."

The Rockefeller-Caso campaign headquarters opening is scheduled for a P.M. Tuesday Sept. 8 at campaign headquarters, 142 A North Franklin St., at the corner of W. Columbia St. (opposite the Caldera Theatre) in the Village of Hempstead.

As part of the opening night festivities, a giant block party, featuring music, soft drinks and other refreshments, will be held on W. Columbia St.
