Night Hearings Scheduled On Rezoning Application

Oyster Bay Town Supervisor John W. Burke announced that the Town has scheduled day and night hearings for Tuesday, October 27, after receiving an application requesting a change of zone in order to construct a garden apartment complex in Hicksville.

The petition, which would require a rezoning from Res. D to E-1 Apartment House District, is being made by Jerry Spiegel who wants to erect 111 apartment units on a 6.9-acre site on the west side of Lee Avenue.

Town Councilman

Warren M. Doolittle a Hicksville resident, said that although no formal request or petition for a night hearing has been received from residents in the area, a number of people have expressed an interest in the petition. Doolittle said he and the Board members wanted to assure all residents of an opportunity to be heard.

The hearing, scheduled for 10 AM, will be continued to an evening session beginning at 8 PM at the Town Hall, Audrey Avenue, Oyster Bay. Doolittle said that the petitioner and other interested parties will be heard at this time.

Last Thursday, (Sept. 10) the Board announced that it would conduct a night hearing on Tuesday, September 15, to hear a petition by G.G.G. Construction Corp. for a special permit to erect and maintain a building for the storage of trucks and office use. This application, involving property presently zoned as "H" Light Industrial District, is located on the east side of Midland Avenue, north of Bethpage Road.

THE LEGION OF HONOR AWARD is presented to Hicksville's Frank Chlumsky at a recent Kiwanis meeting. Presentation is made by Kiwanis Past President Robert Wallace, while current President Vernon Wagner looks on approvingly.

Electric Train Service Comes To Hicksville

The newly-installed third rail between Mineola and Huntington is being energized this week as the Long Island Railroad prepares to introduce electric train service for the first time all the way to Huntington in Suffolk County. Stations currently serviced by diesel locomotives which will soon be serviced by electric trains on the 16 mile segment include Mineola, Carle Place, Westbury, Hicksville, Landis, Syosset, Cold Spring Harbor and Huntington.

LIRR officials announced that testing of the new electrified equipment would start immediately with test trains being used on an intermittent basis. No date has been set for start of regular electric train service in the Mineola - Huntington area but LIRR officials are hopeful that electric trains will be scheduled starting early this fall.

"Danger - High Voltage" warning signs this week are being affixed to newly-installed third rail protection boards and poles on the Long Island Railroad from Mineola to Huntington.

Introduction of electric trains to the Main Line will also permit the scheduling of express train service directly to Brooklyn and Penn Station from the newly-electrified area. Commuters in this area were surveyed by the LIRR during the summer concerning their destinations and final terminal preferences. New schedules will be formulated on these findings.

LIRR officials announced that a public education campaign was now underway to acquaint the public - children, in particular - with this added danger on the railroad right of way. A slide lecture aimed at informing youngsters about the hazards of playing or walking along railroad tracks is currently being shown to Long Island school and community groups.

Organizations interested in scheduling the free 15-minute "What Makes the Trains Run?" lecture-alike show are invited to contact Eaton Goldthwaite, Manager - Community Relations, Public Relations Department, Long Island Railroad, Jamaica Station, N.Y. Speakers will present the show, answer questions and also bring exhibits which graphically demonstrate the danger of not heeding the high voltage warning signs.

The following accident reports have been released by the Second Precinct, Woodbury:

Sept. 19-9:15 a.m. - Automobile accident occurring at Hicksville-Jericho Rd. at Columbia Dr., Jericho, involving car driven by Craig J. Whitney, 28 Arbor Lane,

A noxious situation on Mid-Island Avenue was brought out by Hicksville residents who were present on Tuesday evening at Oyster Bay Town Hall to protest the petition of G.G.G. Construction Corp. for a special permit use to erect and maintain a building for the storage of trucks and office on an 80' x 150' parcel on the industrially developed street.

Residents who spoke were all property owners on the next parallel street to Mid-Island Avenue, Twin Lawns Avenue. They spoke of the personal hardships they had suffering as result of current industry on Mid-Island Avenue, including odors, noise, seepage of drain oil into their back yards, and expressed the concern that further industrial development would infringe upon their health and safety and would devalue their property.

Arthur Niles, Islip attorney who represented the petitioner, a Mr. Collariori, said that the proposed building would be 50' by 75' in area, of which 30' x 30' would be office space. He said that only a 10-foot backyard had been planned, and that the building was on the property line on one boundary. The petitioner said all vehicles, including 4 pick-up trucks, 2-1/2-ton trucks and a diesel tractor would be stored inside the building. The company, he said, did work on County traffic lights and other electrical work.

A special permit use had to be applied for even though the property is zoned for light industry because the lot area demand of one acre is not met in the case. A letter from building department read into the record by Oyster Bay Town Clerk William (Bud) O'Keefe also stated that a 30-foot rear yard was required.

Resident Alex Cusack, who owns three lots behind the subject property on Twin Lawns Avenue representing the Twin Lawns Civic Association presented a 200-name petition protesting the granting of the special permit.

Lewis Raffa, of 43 Twin Lawns Ave., said that his neighbor suffered from oil seepage in his back yard as a result of Fairchild Instrument trucks dumping drain oil on the ground. Noxious odors issue forth from the Vigilant Cesspool Company, he said, and the propane gas company on the street presented a "real hazard." He said that although town limits for the area were about 30 mph, the trucks barreled along usually at about 50 mph.

George Noonan, of 79 Twin Lawns, asked about, and was

This is the time of the year which has an extra week between meetings. Its also a good opportunity to inform you of the coming cocktail party, to be held Sept. 27th on a Sunday afternoon.
The hours will be from 2 to 6 p.m. and the cost is $6.50 a couple. It will have live music. There will be a supply of tid bits to go with the beverages. Remember, all you can drink in the 4 hours you have. Harry Wirth is running the shindig, with able assist from Bob Keck. It sounds like a good deal, so if you wish to attend come early, and make the most of it. Harry's phone number is MY 4-1680 and Bobs is 826-7460 or 433-3097.

Sitting in a meeting, you hear many things being discussed.
Committees being picked by the Cmdr. and doing their job. As one group completes their endeavor, another committee seems to be organized. Its automatic, and is just taken for granted. Yet, so much time and energy go into these different plans in order to do good work, a certain amount of devotion and sacrifice is required. To those who don't attend our meetings often, may not find it impressive. Still, if you analyze it a little closer, its really interesting how an idea is formed, discussed, somebody gets the job and then to its completion.

Of course, Scholarship, Voice or Democracy, Bingo and packages to Vietnam are on a more permanent basis. You can't tell, even you may find it interesting.
All you fellows who are eligible to join, and haven't. You would find a fine group of men in our post.
Old bats from WW2, Young Lions of Vietnam, with a sprinkling of Korean vets. This makes a good solid post. We may not be the finest post in the country, but up to now, I don't know of any better.
No mention was made of WW1, vets, because they don't come

SHARING THE LAND

As our country grows, the problem of "sharing the land" becomes more acute. Thus, multiple use of land is a subject of wide discussion.

Private enterprise companies increasingly are making their industrial lands available to the public for recreational uses. A survey has revealed that more than 95 per cent of the 234 forest product industry companies queried open their lands to the public for camping, hunting, fishing, picnicking, and sports.

Also, the extractive minerals industries are restoring the original land environment—and often improving upon it—in a way which results in opportunities for public recreation. Some of these areas are used for camping sites, and lakes for boating, fishing and swimming. Industries involved with rights-of-way—power generation and transmission, oil and gas transmission, and rail transportation—are reporting progress in sharing the land. The electric utility industry has converted thousands of acres of company-owned land into parks and conservation areas.

Private companies are doing their part. The federal government must open up more of its lands (one-third of the total area of the United States) to economic as well as recreational uses, if we are to meet the needs of a growing population.

Private enterprise has shown the way to the practice of compatible multiple use through which all may benefit by sharing the land.

Post Office Sponsors Picnic

The Hicksville Postal Welfare Committee sponsored a picnic for all Hicksville postal employees and their families on September 6, 1970. Due to the large amount in attendance the picnic was held at both Eisenhower and Canteague Parks. The committee and the many volunteers are to be congratulated for their time and effort in making this picnic a huge success.

In addition Savings Bonds were presented to all Hicksville Post Office employees who completed 20 or more years in the Postal Service.

Hicksville Postmaster Ralph G. Cascardo presents employee Lloyd Woods with a Savings Bond.

Arthritis Week

Governor Rockefeller has proclaimed the period of September 12 - 19 as "Arthritis Week" in recognition of the work of those groups leading the fight against what he called "the terrible crippler."

The Governor said victims in New York State alone number about 1.6 million, 17 million Americans are affected yearly by arthritis "and the toll is rising at about the same pace as the rate of population increase."

"For many arthritis sufferers," the Governor reminded, "even simple everyday actions such as rising from a chair and shaking hands are painful to the point of being almost impossible. Through no fault of their own, victims are handicapped or unable to work or to enjoy their hobbies or other forms of recreation.

Fortunately, arthritis victims are benefitting from the dedicated contributions of such public-spirited groups as the Northeastern New York Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation.

Each week, the HERALD, will be calling up people in the local area, asking a question. The question this week is: What do you think is wrong with your town?

MRS. GUY MESSINA, 2 Arch Lane, Hicksville: "The local area shopping centers, which I assume are privately owned, are not kept clean. They are filthy. The stores on Levittown Parkway, next to Levittown Hall, in particular. I know people who live in that area, and there have been many experiences with broken windows, in particular, over the summer."

MRS. GEORGE DI STEFANO, 301 Lydia Pl., Jericho: "Generally speaking, it's an average town. I would like to see a little less tearing down of our trees and an improvement on our youth programs. Maybe more centers for the youth. We should do something about the schools. I think the schools have become lax. Maybe it's the people who head them, but the schools don't seem to function as well as they did five years ago."

THOMAS BERGIN, Park Ave., Hicksville: "The Town's big supermarkets in the shopping centers. There are no old towns any more. Politicians let people create dumps. They speak about ecology and then let people create dumps and build gas stations all over the place. The politicians should stop having their pictures taken and take a ride through Hicksville and see all the dumps they have allowed people to create."

MRS. JESSIE KOCHAN, 7 Arch Lane, Hicksville: "I feel that we should ask what is good about Hicksville. We have many fine schools, libraries, police and fire department, that do valuable work. We're so quick to criticize, but we don't take time to thank the people who do these services. I feel we should stop taking from Hicksville and start giving to Hicksville."

MRS. ROBERT WEISS, 83 Elm St., Hicksville: "Hicksville offers so many opportunities to its residents to constructively better their community. But why is it, that so few do the work for so many?"

Increase In Postal Box Rental Fees

Postmaster General Winton M. Blount announced today plans for a 20 percent increase in postal box rental fees.

The proposal, with an effective date set for November 1, calls for increase ranging from 5 cents to $2.40 for quarterly rental periods. All postal boxes are included with the exception of rural lockboxes at non-personnel post offices.

The proposed increases are expected to yield additional revenue of about $8 million.

Dividends

Mr. William E. Koutensky, president of the LONG ISLAND NATIONAL BANK, announced that the bank's Board of Directors has declared a 2½ percent stock dividend and a 20 cents per share cash dividend payable on October 1, 1970 to holders of record September 15, 1970.

A similar dividend was paid by the bank earlier this year.

THERE CAME A RAPPING . . .

Dear Friends. . .

PUBLICITY FOR YOUR ORGANIZATION depends almost entirely upon your volunteer publicity chairman or chairlady. While this work is not difficult, there are certain rules that, if adhered to, make your publicity chairman's work much more effective. We are holding our FIRST ANNUAL PUBLICITY WORKSHOP this Thursday, Sept. 24th, starting at 8 p.m. at the Hicksville Library and all publicity chairmen and ladies are cordially invited to attend. The workshop will last for exactly two hours—from 8 to 10 As a result, you will be pleased with the success of your job at the end of the organizational year. In fact, we're so sure of your success, that for those present, we have a gift—a scrapbook, in which to preserve your publicity clippings, so that, at the end of your term of office, you'll be able to present the tangible evidence of a job well done, to your organization. This two-hour session is designed to make your entire year's work both easy and effective. No registration or fee necessary. . . just come on down.

ANOTHER IMPORTANT DATE is the first regular meeting of the HICKSVILLE COMMUNITY COUNCIL, which is scheduled for Thursday, Oct. 8th, starting at 8:15 p.m. at the Hicksville Library. Hicksville's Councilman Warren Doolittle has arranged to have the Town of Oyster Bay Planners speak to us at this meeting. Of course, there will also be a question-and-answer period. Both representatives of member organizations and individuals are cordially invited to attend this informative meeting.

WE CHECKED A LITTLE FURTHER into the rumor about the possibility of a 14 story building to be located somewhere on the Mid Island Plaza property, and found it to be true. . . at least the owners of this property "would like to". However, we also checked with the Town of Oyster Bay officials and the legal notice regarding such a request would definitely appear in THE HERALD, and, of course, the Town Board does set day and night hearings, when they feel the occasion demands. So, let us hope that our fine elected officials feel that this would be just such an occasion.

ELECTRIC TRAIN SERVICE COMES TO HICKSVILLE. (see the story on page 1). This reminds us. . . if you are a Hicksville commuter and feel the literary urge, phone us at WE 1-1400. We'd like to run a column about our commuters and their problems, their challenges and, hopefully, their progress toward a better commute.

UNTIL NEXT WEEK, stay well. . . and, let's all work together toward a better community.

Regards,
Sheila H. Noeth

Now that everyone is settled down in school (at least most everyone, the poor guidance people do have their headaches the first day or so) we are into the serious stages and planning and hiring our staff. I understand the entire affair was grand and the people most kind to our department. Thank you so much, but that's what we are here for — it is you volunteers out there that deserve the praise. FISH or not to FISH

by Joan Baumann

It had arrived! This was to be my first day as a FISH telephone answering volunteer. I had mixed emotions! What was I doing getting involved with this group on the one day in the week that I put aside to really dive into my housework? Tonight, the Boy Scout committee men were coming to our home for their monthly meeting. I had three cakes to bake plus a multitude of various chores to complete. Oh well, most of the volunteers had said there wasn't a great deal of response away. Would I really be able to help?

At 7:10 A. M. the Scoutmaster's wife called. The committee meeting had been cancelled until the next week. Reprieve! Then it struck me, and I was ashamed. I had been searching for an excuse, any excuse, not to go that second mile and become involved with my fellowman as a member of FISH!

I bowed my head, right there, and asked God to send those people in need straight to their telephones and to me. Suddenly, one of my favorite scripture verses, Philippians 4:13, came to me, "I can do all things in God who strengthens me". I was ready for "all things".

At 10 A. M., the telephone rang. "This is WE 8-NEED calling. There is an elderly woman who is unable to leave her home alone because she walks only with the aid of a walker. Would there be anyone available to take her out on an occasional nice day? Could we help?"

A distraught young woman called. Her husband was hospitalized in Meadowbrook. She and her three children were ill. She had no way to get in touch with him to let him know that she wouldn't be able to visit that day. She didn't want him to worry needlessly. Could we help?

Still another young woman called. She needed emergency transportation on Wednesday morning to the out-patient mental health clinic at Meadowbrook. Could we help?

All told, there were six calls that day. After quite a few calls back and forth we were able to help our neighbors in need. I was happy! God was my strength. I was honestly looking forward to the next time when I could serve Him in our community as a FISH volunteer.

FISH of Mid-Island needs additional volunteers, especially in the emergency transportation, emergency baby sitting, and emergency hot meals committees. For further information, please write to: P. O. Box 438 Hicksville, N.Y. 11802.

Residents Protest

assured that there would be no storage of gasoline at the property.

Arthur Mann, of 95 Twin Lawns spoke of potential pollution of the Hicksville water supply by the industry in question because of the proximity of a water pumping station.

Limescott William, of 89 Twin Lawns, also spoke in opposition. The fact was reaffirmed to the residents by Councilman Warren Doolittle that the property is zoned industrial, and that they should expect industrial development of some sort. He listed several types, including a pickle works. "Doolittle's Pickle Works" came up frequently during the hearing.

Decision was reserved by the Town Board on the petition.

Work Continues At The Gregory Museum

Every Saturday this summer, groups of boys and girls, under the direction of Hugh Conover, John Strong, and architect Caleb Hornbostel of Garden City, have been working at the Heitz Place Court House, future site of The Gregory Museum. They removed the damaged ceilings, walls, etc.; and secured the building against vandals and the elements. Preliminary electricity, water and toilet facilities have been restored.

At present they are repairing doors, windows, scraping and painting the porch.

Work on Saturdays will continue indefinitely. It would be most helpful if men who have had some experience in working with tools would volunteer their services on whatever Saturdays they are free. Volunteers should bring hammers and any other tools available to them. Ladders to scrape and paint the exterior are badly needed. For further information, volunteers should contact Hugh Conover, 54 Libby Avenue, Hicksville - WE5-7870.

Donations of cash and/or materials, such as insulation, sheet rock, lumber, electrical wire and fixtures, etc. are badly needed. Any firm wishing to donate any of the above materials, please contact Mr. Conover.

People are needed to serve on the various museum committees. The Fund Drive, Building & Grounds committees, especially need more members. Interested people should contact Gardiner Gregory, The Gregory Museum, 207 Cottage Boulevard, Hicksville OV1-6041.

Following are the priorities in order of importance necessary to complete phase one: Phase one consists of securing the building, restoring facilities, repairing, scraping, and painting the exterior, and construction of the rock and mineral display area. 1. Money or donations of materials and labor. 2. Insulation installed. 3. Sheet Rock installed. 4. Heating Plant & Facilities installed. 5. Scraping and Painting Exterior - ladders and adult labor needed. 6. Cabinets ($500.00 ea.) 7. Floor tile installed. 8. Electrical & Plumbing facilities and 9. People to serve on various committees.

Hicksville Library New Service

The Hicksville Public Library, recognizing the ever growing needs of the community, is starting a new service to the public. We now have a collection of four-track cassettes to be loaned on a no charge basis for one week. Realizing that many homes now have cassette players, the Library felt it could provide this service to its borrowers. Included in our new selection are some children's cassettes, to be taken out in the Children's Room, by adults only.

Some of the typical tapes are: complete sound tracks of Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet", Barbra Streisand, the Beatles, the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra, the Berliner Philharmoniker, Bert Bacharach, folksongs by Miriam Makeba or Theodore Bikel. The collection will grow as new tapes are available for our budget. We hope to have a complete cassette selection as we do a record collection.

BOX 406, HICKSVILLE

Dear Herald Readers,

We are extremely grateful to Sheila Noeth, the Editor of this fine newspaper, for extending to us some of her community interest and love for other people. Sheila fully realizes the impact of drug abuse both on the individual and his family and society.

As you can see, this is a new feature of the Herald. Hicksville Against Drugs (HAD), your community action group, will write this column that will appear on a bi-weekly basis. Truthful facts on drugs and their dangers of abuse will be presented for the benefit of the community.

The format of this column will vary from issue to issue. There will be information on drugs, Letters to HAD and developments within the HAD organization. Another valuable service will be listings and descriptions of current literature on drugs and how to send for them.

This column will be a "vein of gold" for students when they are doing research papers and reports for school.

We feel that this column will prove to be an important asset to the concerned people of Hicksville. Your comments, both pro and con, will always be welcome because they are both needed.

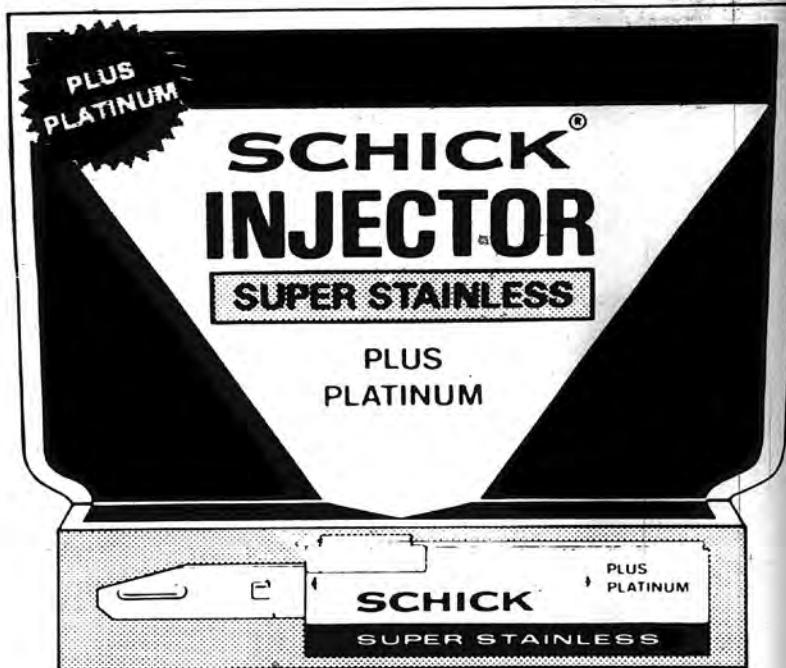

This column will officially start

It costs nothing and it makes your BankAmericard into a photographic ID card that will serve as solid identification for almost any purpose (including cashing your Bankers Trust personal checks at any branch of Bankers Trust).

Hicksville Library NOTES

The Library will present an exciting series of special programs beginning in early October. Throughout the winter and spring, you will be able to enjoy special events for all ages commensurate with the Library's slogan: "Information... Education... Recreation."

The Fine Arts Committee is once more arranging a group of concerts featuring outstanding professional talent of the area. These Sunday programs are certainly the most popular of any we have offered in the library. On Sunday, October 4, we present the Lyric Woodwind Quintet and plan to present at least a dozen more including the Hofstra String Quartet, pianists Morton Estrin and Seth Carlin, the St. Kilian Boys Choir and a Herb Deutsch Jazz Concert.

One problem of the many serious ones afflicting us that can definitely be solved by concerted effort of citizens and politicians is the environmental crisis. The library, in an effort to bring information to the people and suggest a program for action is presenting a six week series of lectures and discussions on vital environmental issues beginning October 15. The lecturers will be experts on their subject and the talks and discussions will cover the threat to our air, water and land and explain the population problem and suggest an agenda for action now. Show that you give a damn - attend these programs.

Our film programs are a traditional feature of the library and we have planned a series that should entertain and stimulate. A series of three separate films covering the years 1900-1930 will be offered, and should prove to be outstanding documentaries on American History. In addition we are showing the Bergman religious trilogy, "Through a Glass Darkly", "Winter Light", and "The Silence".

The Children's film program has been planned with the first program to be offered on November 14, "Harold and the Purple Crayon", and "Three Pirates Bold". The series will continue until May 22, 1971 with films being offered the second and fourth Saturday of each month.

This brief outline of the library's special programs does not mention the many community groups whose membership is open and who meet at the library regularly. As a community service we feel that we should mention at least a few of the organizations that try to deal with the more urgent problems of our society. The Hicksville Community Council under the leadership of Mrs. Sheila Noeth meets the first Thursday of each month to discuss community problems and projects. The general public is invited to hear reports of activities of the various civic and educational groups in Hicksville and to join one of the numerous committees for civic improvement that have been organized. The Hicksville Youth Council, under the leadership of Mr. Murray Margolis, have met in the library and plan to continue their meetings here, and "H.A.D. (Hicksville Against Drugs)" meets the first Monday of each month to develop ways to combat this menace. All of these groups welcome the general public to their meetings.

Kennedy High School To Hold Carnival In Plainview

On Saturday, September 19th, John F. Kennedy High School will hold its Third Annual Carnival. Sponsored by the Kennedy High School Student Government, it has become an annual affair in Plainview due to its past successes.

Two years ago, close to $2,000. was raised, which went to the Peace Corps. This resulted in the construction of a new school for South Americans in Costa Rica. Last year, $1,400. was raised which went to the neighboring community of Wyandanch. This money was used towards the building of a Daycare Center for young children. This year the proceeds will go to U. N. I. C. E. F. which organization does much to alleviate the suffering of children throughout the world.

It is hoped that this year there will be a substantial gain in profits. The Carnival is primarily for elementary school children, and its activities will range from games to food to pony rides. There will be approximately 40 game booths for the children. Half will be for the younger children, where both winners and losers will receive a prize for their efforts. The others will be redemption booths where children can win tickets by playing the games. These prize tickets can be used to redeem many fine gifts, such as a wide assortment of plush animals.

All elementary school children should be receiving a treasure chest key in school. This will give them all a chance to have the winning key which will open a treasure chest, and the winner will receive a special prize. There will be pony rides available and a vast assortment of food, including such favorites as cotton candy, ice cream and soda.

There will be a motorcade on Friday afternoon to help publicize the Carnival to the community and inform residents of Plainview of the upcoming festivities.

Hicksville High School Follow Up Survey Completed

A follow-up survey conducted during the 1969-70 school year has been completed. Purpose of the study was to determine from former high school students their estimates of how well they thought they were prepared for their post high school endeavors, and to discover what they found they needed when they got out of the Hicksville schools.

Graduates of the 1963 and 1968 classes, and high school dropouts from the 1965 to 1968 school years received questionnaires from the District inquiring as to their progress after leaving high school. Hopefully the results of the study will be used as the basis for recommending changes in the educational system, and make it more meaningful for Hicksville students.

Copies of the report have been placed in the Hicksville Public Library, all school libraries in the district, and in the District Clerk's office in the Administration Building, where they can be read by interested parties.

First Day Of School

With shoes shined, hair slicked, and school bags packed, these children in the afternoon Kindergarten class at the WILLET

Avenue School on their very first day, showed up eager to begin. Mrs. Selma Lessow their new teacher introduced Mr. John Matero the newly appointed principal to the children.

If you're too old to have diaper rash... It must be something else.

It's jock itch. Jock itch is a fungus infection.

That's why it keeps coming back even though you've tried all sorts of remedies. Including baby powders and salves. They may be okay for diaper rash. But not jock itch!

Now you can get relief with Cruex®. A spray-on powder specifically made to fight jock itch.

Cruex spray soothes itchy, inflamed skin. Cushions against further irritation. Cruex absorbs sweat (one important factor in the growth of Tinea cruris fungi.) Its medication directly attacks susceptible fungi.

That's why using Cruex before and after exercise can help stop jock itch before it starts.

Cruex spray cools; gets into hard-to-get-at places. (And you don't make it sting or burn by rubbing, dabbing, smearing or spreading anything on.)

Cruex spray is easy on you. It's strictly hands off. At your pharmacy CRUEX®

SPORTS

By

Howard J. Finnegan

Emulating that laudable performance of Hicksville student athletes of three years ago, Herricks High students organized and were successful in getting their school budget passed on the third try last week.

This means the Hicksville Football 1970 schedule will not be curtailed.

The opener against and at Herricks stands as originally scheduled. The slate will then run seven consecutive additional weeks. The date is October third. Reports from the Hicksville training camp are cautious as coach Jim Grantham rebuilds the orange and black machine.

Things are for from decided but the word is that Hicksville will have a blistering fast backfield this year.

Among the swift ball carriers are Tony Espisito, Charlie In-duddi, Clint Brown and Jim Ajello.

The seasons largest burden will fall on quarterback Bill Meddis. He has all the attributes of becoming a big headliner.

It was his direction from that post last year that took Hicksville from an 0-3-1 mark to 4-3-1 in the final half of the campaign.

Capping the comeback was the 21-0 victory over East Meadow which richly embarrassed the supporters of South Shore scholastic football.

Coach Grantham has a promising backup to Meddis in Junior Bobby Daub. He handled the signal and passing chores for the Hicksville Jay Vee team.

He had some splendid Saturday mornings for Coach Bill Meyers.

There will be more complete news, after the upcoming scrimmages.

The Hicksville Alumni Association has declared the MacArthur game on Saturday, October 24, as its 13th Homecoming Day.

Polo At Bethpage State Park

Meadowbrook with Fred Braustein, Tom Monaco, Alan Corey III and Allen Jerkins took the eliminations in the Shaw W. Robinson Memorial Tournament on September 13th at the Bethpage State Park Polo Field and will meet the Bethpage four-Peter Henderson, John Gayer, Dave Rizzo and John Whittemore in the finals on Sunday September 20th. Put into play in 1967, the handsome trophy went to Meadowbrook last year and it'll be a toss-up when Bethpage tries to wrest it from them.

The Meadowbrook versus Oyster Bay match on the 13th started out as a winner for Meadowbrook as they piled up six goals to Oyster Bay's two in the first half but coming in strong in the last three chukkers Oyster Bay's Ted Shapiro, Paul Rizzo,

Fred Guest and Fred Zeller, playing hard to win, took the offensive and outscored them three to one but couldn't make a dent in their initial gain. The final score: Meadowbrook 7, Oyster Bay 5.

The polo games every Sunday afternoon at Bethpage State Park are always rewarding and tournaments are especially exciting. Gametime is 3:30 P.M., admission to adults $1.50 and young people under twelve are admitted free when accompanied by an adult. The park in the fall season is as colorful as the game itself and the large area surrounding the polo field makes for comfort and pleasure for those who come to see the game. Adequate seating and refreshments nearby add to a relaxing fun filled afternoon at the polo field.

McConnell and Reilly Spoke To GOP Club

The September meeting of the Ernest Frank Republican Club of Hicksville was held on Friday, September 11, starting at about 9:00 p.m. at the Old Country
Manor, in Hicksville. There Joseph Reilly, Assemblyman from Glen Cove, and of the Seventh District, and Harold W.
McConnell, County Clerk of Nassau County were featured guests.

Harold W. McConnell who was elected County Clerk in 1967, and who has continued to maintain the office's services to the public, in spite of difficulties with the Nickerson administration in Mineola, spoke of some of these problems, as well as the accomplishments of his department in the past three years, in handling thousands of auto licenses and registrations, even though forced to operate with a small staff, processing passport and immigration information, as well as maintaining Court Records property records for the County.
His continual problems with the Nickerson-Democratic Administration, such as lack of new staff, and lack of storage space, for county records, led him to conclude that what the County of Nassau needed to get good government, was Ralph Case, as County Executive.

Joseph Reilly, whose Assembly District includes one-third of Hicksville, reviewed the activities of the Indian Affairs Committee, of which he is chairman. He also noted the inability of the Democratic controlled legislature in 1965, 1966, and 1967 to organize itself and act while the majority. This he contrasted with the record of the Republican legislature in the past two years...of action in combating the states problems.

Announcement that there would be a spaghetti dinner for $2.00 a person at the next club meeting, Friday, October 2, at the Old Country Manor, and that on Friday October 16, there would be the Republican Committees' Cocktail party, also at the Old Country Manor. Bob Jackson, Bea Jenson and Alex Pankoff were given awards for their fine service to the club.

The 42nd Annual Labor Day Parade and Drill sponsored by the Hicksville Fire Dept. under Chief Melvin Voorries was very successful. Good weather prevailed throughout and the drill ended under the lights at 9:30 pm. The general chairman was Don Snyder and his co-chairman was Walter Nygren. We wish to thank all our residents and of course the firemen of Nassau and Suffolk for their help in making this hard work a success. Special thanks to the members of the Henniker, Antrim, Hillsboro and Pittsfield Fire Dept. from New Hampshire, Clinton and Westport Conn., Walker and Mamaroneck N.Y. Dept. E. Dover, New Jersey and Danbury Conn., for coming a long distance to help make our event a memorable one. It was estimated that 10,000 persons attended. The event was held in honor of Hicksville's oldest active fireman Henry A. Gebhardt of Co. No. 1. An honor that was long overdue. We wish Geph many more happy and healthful years ahead.

The following is a list of firemen and spectators injured during the Labor Day drill. All cases transported to Syosset Hospital by the Hicksville and Bethpage Rescue Squads. Dr. Malasky donated his services for the day.

very often anymore, but they are the people, who made all this possible in Hicksville.

Incidentally a beautiful plaque was made with all the life members names on it. This is something for all to see, and admire. Those with their names on it, take pride in seeing its beauty. If memory serves correct, the first of such in our post was Frank Sutter. He's a WW I vet, past Cmdr. and charter member to boot. Those in the post a long time, remember what a work horse Frank was. This man can really give a history on our post, mostly because he's a big part of our history. He was all V.F.W. Another thing, there is room for about 50 more names on the plaque. This is for the future, so anyone granted a life membership their names can be added.

Being talked out, butcher boy says, Hope to see you at our next meeting.

Opening Day Address By Supt. of Jericho Public Schools

Our American institutions have become so big, the faceless bureaucracy so insensitive, and the problems of war, racism, and pollution so enormous that the individual is left feeling that life is uncontrolled and uncontrollable. This frustration is the base of much of our societal unrest.

Great disturbance often precedes great progress. We are living in times that hold more promise for mankind than, perhaps, any other in his whole long history. Probably half the things we think we know now won't be true in light of the vast scientific and technological advances that are bound to be made by the year 2000.

The greatest of all challenges is to the educators. We have the responsibility to maintain the intellectual, to help the student become the scholar, to create the opportunity for the individual to control his environment, and to develop the educated person.

An educated person is one who is likely to be well read, comfortable in the world of ideas and abstractions, and possessed of scholarly traits. He is also a person who has an interest in issues outside of his professional field. I would also add to this definition the idea that an educated person is one who has the courage of his conclusions; who is unimpaired by the possibility that his views will alienate his peers. This seems to me to be the heart of the educated person's responsibility in public affairs.

The educator's role is an extremely difficult one today, with the country deeply divided, with feelings running high, with action taking precedence over reason, and with increasing intolerance of those whose attitudes, positions or aspirations differ from our own.

In these times of polarization, when it sometimes seems that there are only extremes and no middle ground, our hope lies in men who have a deep understanding of the meaning of a democratic society and its institutions, who accept the obligations imposed by our bill of rights as readily when it is not convenient to do so as when it is popular.

We desperately need people who give more than lip service to the basic attributes of a democratic society. Above all, we need to stand directly against those who would trespass these freedoms and opportunities only for those with whom they agree.

John Kennedy once said, "I would hope that on questions of constitutional rights and freedom there is fundamental unity among us that will survive partisan debate over particular issues." In the current atmosphere when one side confronts and the other side castigates, when one side shouts down and the other side vilifies, there is reason for serious doubt that this hope has been fulfilled. Unless we as a nation somehow regain our historic perspective, we may find ourselves in the generation that presides over the demise of those basic rights and freedoms. Education has a great stake in seeing that this does not happen.

But as I try to place in perspective the traumatic experiences this nation underwent in the 1960's, I cannot feel with any certainty that the educational community will provide the necessary leadership to protect these freedoms from those who would trample them. Too often, the educators themselves have sought to deny these freedoms to those who would interfere with the propagation of the educator's own brand of ideology.

I have too often seen educators shout down those among their own number for having the temerity to express views that don't reflect the popular stance. I have too often seen members of the left and the right categorize persons of contrary views as fascist pigs or crypto-communists, as if to disagree with prevailing opinion is sinister.

Constitutional rights are as precious for conservatives as for liberals, for republicans as for democrats. I fear for my own rights and freedoms when it becomes impossible on a university campus for champions of unpopular causes to express their views without fear.

We have the responsibility to defend the right to views that are out of step with the majority; the responsibility to guard against the destructive forces of self-censorship. The educator must defend the rights of those against whom the students protest as vigorously as he defends student protesters. And he must defend the rights of each actively, not just by passive, quiet commiseration with those whose rights and freedoms are violated.

Above all, he must give leadership to the idea of diversity of thought and expression, to the idea of compromise among conflicting views. But, he must reject any compromising when it comes to the basic tenets of the bill of rights.

I am convinced that no other profession than education exacting in its demands is more satisfying in its accomplishments, and more far-reaching in its influence. However, along with all of you, I am greatly concerned about the very difficult and complex problems that face our profession today and the apparent lessened regard so many citizens seem to have for the public schools and the job they are trying to do.

Do you remember what happened just a little more than a decade ago? The USSR had just launched Sputnik which electrified the world. Life magazine featured a series of articles entitled, "Crisis in Education." It began with exclusive pictures of a Russian schoolboy versus his U. S. counterpart. The rough haul in the Soviet schools was compared favorably with the relaxed studies in the U. S., leading to the colorful conclusion that "it was time to close our carnival."

Admiral Rickover shared with Life magazine the conviction that Sputnik illustrated the superiority of Russian education.

Jericho District Welcomes Teachers

35 teachers have joined the Jericho faculty this year both as additional teachers and as replacements for those who have left. Representing a broad range of backgrounds, training and experience they were welcomed to the district on Thursday, September 3 at a district orientation meeting. David Nydick, Superintendent of Schools, and other members of the staff welcomed each teacher.

The Superintendent outlined the responsibilities for the coming year.

On Tuesday September 8, the day before school opened, all teachers of the district new and "old timers" met for an orientation. They were addressed by Howard Jankovic, President of the Board of Education who discussed the District's educational philosophy and urged the "best of school systems." The Superintendent's address encouraged each teacher to dedicate himself to providing each student with the individualized program best suited for his needs.

In addition a special orientation and training session was held for all teacher aides.

Ten Pin Talk

by Henry Dockswell

This was get-away day for the BCA Men's Bowling League as for the 10th year in a row we started our long 36 week trek to bowling oblivion. That is, for all of us except the eight men that didn't consider this a trek but a joyride.

The most joyous one had to be Robby Goldstein. He wasted no time as he crashed a 232 in the first game, followed with a 199 and wound up with a 209 for a 640 series. The only fly in his cup of joy was the fact that his team could only win 5 points from the Irv Simes' Les Shuman with a 208 was the strong man for the Simes' boys.

Next in the race for most joyous and not very far behind at that was Sam Springer. He may not have fared as well as Robby but his team did better. Sam started his teammates, the Hal Goldenbergs, off on the right foot. He threw a 183 in his first game and when he saw the Goldenbergs lose that one to the Hy Shapiros he decided he had to do better. And better he did. He cracked a 223 and then another 223 for a 625 series and an 8-3 win for his team.

The next four men hit that magic 300 circle and in each case they paved the way for a shutout victory for their teams: Harry Seaton rapped a 226 to lead the Murray Sussmans over the Lew Marks', Cap't. Lou Vladem hurled a 234 to blank the Buddy Flanders crew and Mel Corwin with a 228 joined his Captain, Freddy Rothman who threw a 204, in whitewashing the Herb Brodys.

Last of the talented eight was Cap't. Sid Holtzman. In his second game he tossed a 204 to gain an 8-3 victory over the Julie Gershens.

So we have a 4-way tie for 1st place. Take your pick. Will it be the Lou Vladems, or the Freddy Rothmans, or the Murray Sussmans or maybe the Sid Simes who blanked the Milt Hoffmans. With 35 weeks to go our guess is—it could be anybody.

I extend a warm welcome to each of you and my very best wishes for a truly productive school year.
