

Council To Hear Long Range Building Plans For School Dist.

Long range building plans for Hicksville School District 17 will be the subject of Supt. of Schools Donald Abt and Assistant Supt., Dr. Frederick Hill, at the December meeting of the Hicksville Community Council, which is scheduled for 8:15 p.m. on Thursday, Dec. 3rd, at the Hicksville Library on Jerusalem Avenue. These distinguished guest speakers will also bring those present up to date on the progress of the Junior High addition.

The HCC which is made up of local organizations, whose delegates report back to their regular meetings, plus any other interested Hickvillians, who care to attend, is presently conducting its membership drive, according to membership chairman Mrs. John McManus. She reminded those who wish to participate in this Council to take care of the mechanics of membership as soon as possible. "There is so much for us all to do during this coming year, as a Council," she said, "That we'll need all of your help, as we are sure with important local goals of your own, you will need ours." Each member organization also takes part in the yearly programs.

Meetings are always scheduled on the first Thursday of every month at the Library. Following the normal program, a portion of each meeting is set aside for anyone in the audience to bring up any matter they feel might be of interest to the Council delegates.

Refreshments and further discussion of Hicksville's future, always conclude HCC meetings.

Painters Local Uni on 798 Paint Gregory Museum

Members of Painters Local Union 798 have donated their time to paint the Heitz Place Court House, future home of The Gregory Museum. The Gregory Museum is presently located at 207 Cottage Boulevard, Hicksville.

Painters who are donating their time and skills are as follows: Arthur J. Morelli, Business Representative, No. Bellmore; Morris Silverman, Oceanside; Ben Markham, Levittown; Frank Tantalio, Elmont; Eugene Zeigler, Hicksville and Bob Evans, Franklin Square.

To-date the museum has been unable to secure the use of a cherry picker which is needed to paint the dome on the court house.

Over 30,000 people have visited The Gregory Museum. They have come from 32 states and 8 foreign countries. Forty-two school districts on Long Island are using the facilities of The Gregory Museum.

The Town of Oyster Bay has leased the Heitz Place Court House to The Gregory Museum for a period of twenty-five years. The court house will allow the museum to expand its programs and serve more people.

The Gregory Museum is basically a teaching-research earth science museum. However, it has displays of butterflies and moths and historical artifacts of the Hicksville area.

A Letter To The Editor About A Letter To The Editor

Dear Sheila:

The attached letter is a copy of one that I sent to Newsday after reading its coverage of the Jerry Spiegel rezoning application heard by the Town Board on November 17th.

I know that many of your readers also receive Newsday and I would like them to know my feelings, which are contained in the letter to Newsday. I have not read your reporter's (Janet Gossnell's) version of the evening's events, but I am certain the sincere and interested Hicksville residents who took an evening of their time to appear before the Town Board will be shown in a proper perspective.

Sincerely yours,
Warren M. Doolittle

Dear Newsday Editor:

I must take exception to the story of Wednesday, November 18 (Film Fans Fire) in which the reporter covering a night public hearing on a rezoning application at Oyster Bay Town Hall said "about 250 Hicksville residents did everything but throw rotten fruit last night as a lawyer attempted to present the case...."

I think the reporter, who arrived late and is an infrequent visitor to hearings in our Town, slurred the people who attended this hearing. When you have 250 people attending a meeting, many of whom are unfamiliar with the rules of parliamentary procedure and all of whom are emotionally involved, you are bound to hear a few spontaneous remarks from the audience. I heard a few cat-calls and some sustained applause, but never any "boosing."

Despite the three-hour long meeting the standing-room-only conditions; the audience, the Town Board and the attorney for the petitioner never lost their sense of humor.

Perhaps the reporter had a deadline to make and could not choose his words carefully, I do not know. I am certain, however, that the tone of both the headline and the lead to the story did not capture the well-organized, sincere and down-to-earth spirit of citizen participation in government that I saw on display.

I live in Hicksville and I could not have been more proud of my community than I was on this occasion.

Very truly yours,
Warren M. Doolittle

Fork Lane P.T.A. Held Meeting On Drugs

On Tuesday evening, November 17, Fork Lane Parent Teachers Association had a general meeting, followed by a very interesting and informative forum on Drugs, planned by Program Chairman Mrs. Maribel Glassman. Our guest speakers were Mr. Tom Nagle, President, and other directors, coordinators and group leaders of Hicksville Against Drugs. The purpose of H.A.D., which was founded in July 1970, is to fight drug problems around us, to prevent drug abuse and misuse of drugs. An open discussion and verbal exchange between our guest speakers and parents brought about the knowledge that Parents, Adults, and all young people must be educated through literature and counseling of how to cope with this very, very bad drug problem "That Does Exist" today, and most important to find the "cause" before any experimentation with drugs does start. Drugs are the "Aftermath", the "Cause" comes first. We must all unite together and start with "Communication" at home, learn to give and show more love and Understanding to each other.

Discuss drugs at home, stress that there is a very necessary and practical use for drugs when prescribed by a Medical Doctor for a definite medical reason. H.A.D. (Hicksville Against Drugs) is located at 75 Broadway, Hicksville, and the phone number is We 5-6858.

Group sessions are held on Monday, Wednesdays and Saturdays, and there is a standing invitation to all "young people" to come down with any problems at all that they may have such as family problems, lack of confidence in school or with friends, dating problems etc. On December 6, 1970, there will be Open House at Store Front for everyone, come down for yourself to see how this People Oriented Organization is working to give badly needed help and to build up trust. Adults must have appointments to visit at any other time. Those of us who attended the meeting certainly walked away with the knowledge that every individual must be made aware that we do have a severe drug problem existing today, and we "Must" work at abolishing the "Cause" first to solve the problem. It was quite an eye-opening discussion, and left us with much soul searching. Educate your family, friends and neighbors, join together in this very important crusade. Our Loved Ones Lives Are At Stake! Coffee and cake was served by our refreshment committee and enjoyed by all.

Plainview High School News

By Andy Kagan

On Tuesday, November 3, thirty one students from Miss Pascal's Latin American Studies class went on a field trip to the United Nations. Upon arriving at the United Nations Association of the United States building (U.N.A. of U.S.A.), they heard Mrs. Braun give a brief introduction to the role of Latin American countries in the U.N. At the end of her lecture, she entertained questions regarding Latin American policy. They then saw a movie, "The Latin American Way", dealing with present day Latin American problems, and methods for alleviating poor social and economic conditions in those countries.

They proceeded to the U.N. building where they witnessed the General Assembly in debate over the Mid East question.

The class separated for lunch. Some students ate in the Delegate's Lounge, other lunched in the U.N.A. of U.S.A. where a special student lunch was provided, and still others ate their lunches in the bus.

At one o'clock the students reassembled at the U.N. Information Center and separated into two groups for guided tours of the U.N. complex. After the tour they returned to the U.N.A. of U.S.A. and heard Mr. Laverde, a Columbian delegate to the U.N., lecture about the role of Latin American countries in the U.N., and explained the outlook of Latin Americans toward the U.S. For many of the students this was their first experience meeting delegates from various countries. As a result of these encounters the students became aware of the importance of being well informed.

From Our Postmaster

By Ralph Cascardo

Hicksville Postmaster Ralph G. Cascardo requests that all residents of the Hicksville Postal District cooperate in making certain that their correct house numbers are displayed prominently in front of their homes.

Postmaster Cascardo stressed the following:

1. Place the numbers on the outside but never on a door that is kept open. Above the mail box is preferable.

2. The use of plain, legible and easily located figures insures the prompt and proper mail delivery.

3. Avoid covering your house numbers with Christmas decorations.

Postmaster Ralph G. Cascardo today urged residents of Hicksville Plainview and Old Bethpage "to try to remember that recommended mailing dates for civilian domestic Christmas mails start the first of December. The national Christmas "mail early" theme this year, he explained, is based on the familiar musical tune "Try to Remember" - and is featured in public service radio and TV announcements. "The idea," he said, "is to have our customers remember recommended mailing dates. This will insure fast and efficient delivery of parcels and cards and prevent disappointments for friends and family members. Of course, it will also be a big help to your post office."

Key suggested latest dates by which Christmas mail should be deposited are as follows, but the postmaster urged customers to mail earlier whenever possible:

Domestic Mails (Except Alaska and Hawaii): Distant States - Parcels - Dec. 1; Greeting Cards - Dec. 10; Local and Nearby Areas - Parcels - Dec. 11; Greeting Cards - Dec. 15.

Alaska and Hawaii: Surface Mail - Parcels - Nov. 30; Greeting Cards - Dec. 4; Airmail Mail - Parcels - Dec. 14; Greeting Cards - Dec. 14.

A.L.A. To Hold Next Meeting

The American Legion Auxiliary of the Charles Wagner Post No. 421 will have its next meeting on December 4, at 8:00 p.m. The meeting will be held at the Legion Hall at 24 East Nicholai Street, Hicksville. A Christmas Party will follow the meeting. All members who do not have a Secret Pal should bring a grab bag gift costing between $1.50 and $2.

THANK YOU SO MUCH! Mrs. Barbara Rossman, Hicksville High School Parent Teacher Association President, presents a "thank you" plaque to Mr. Kingsley Kelley, president of Seaman and Eisemann, Inc., while Hicksville

Council of Parent Teacher Association's Mrs. Leedell Hughes smiles approvingly. Presentation was made at a recent Council meeting. Seaman and Eisemann sponsored a P.T.A. Membership Drive Page in THE HERALD, last month. (Picture by Pierre Charbonnet)

Dear Friends...

WHEN YOU READ THIS COLUMN, Thanksgiving will be just a pleasant memory, I'm sure. But I would like you to know that one of the blessings for which I am personally grateful, is the friendly, neighborly way which you have welcomed me to your town and encouraged me to do my best to follow in Fred's footsteps. I am very happy to be a Hicksville resident, albeit a newcomer. In many cases, I must lean on you, as far as past events in Hicksville are concerned. So, if there is any inadvertent mistake I do make, or background information that you think I should know at any time, don't hesitate to write or phone me. I'd be most grateful.

BEGINNING NEXT WEEK the Sports stories and columns from St. Ignatius will be coming to you on a regular basis. We did receive several this week, but unfortunately couldn't fit them all in, and I for one wouldn't want to decide which ones should be left out. So, we'll begin next week and run these sports stories as regularly as possible. Glad to have you aboard.

WE ARE PLEASED to report that one of the unoccupied older homes which our Fire Dept. reported as dangerous has now been dismantled. However, a local resident phoned to tell us that still another fire has occurred in the other house, shown here. We trust that the necessary steps to correct this dangerous condition are being taken soon so that it doesn't take a major fire and great danger to houses surrounding this house, before something is done. Let's avert this possible tragedy.

NEXT WEEK we will be bringing you a report of another unsavory condition presently existing in one of our smaller shopping centers, which many of the neighbors are working together to correct. We'll have the story and pictures for you next week, until then, stay well,

Cordially,
Sheila

Hearings Set For Rezoning

At the regular meeting of the Town Board of Oyster Bay on Tuesday, November 24th, the hearing date of December 1 for a petition of the Town of Oyster Bay Housing Authority for a change of zone from Residence D to S-1 District for a 3-acre parcel of land on the corner of Newbridge Road and Fordham Avenue.

This is the property where Frank Wetterau has operated greenhouses for many years. It was recently the subject of contention when Agway garden supplies submitted a request to the board of zoning appeals to continue a "similar non-conforming use." The Parish Council of adjacent Holy Family Church opposed, and Agway withdrew.

Proposed senior citizen housing for the property would include 72 units: 44 efficiencies and 28 one-bedroom apartments.

In Plainview The Town Board also passed a resolution setting a December 15th hearing date for the petition of Neil Palladino for a change of zone from Residence D to Business F District for property on the northwest corner of Old Country Road and Stauber Drive, Plainview. Further information will be supplied next week on this petition, the file for which was temporarily unavailable on Tuesday.

Town Board public hearings will begin at 10 A.M. on Tuesdays at Town Hall, Audrey Avenue, Oyster Bay.

Give Flu Shots

Hicksville Postmaster Ralph G. Cascardo announced that employees of the Hicksville Post Office will be given the opportunity to receive flu shots, at no cost, this fall season.

The syringes and vaccine were purchased by the Hicksville Post Office Welfare Fund and the injections will be administered by members of the staff of the Hicksville Medical Unit.

The increased Parcel Post and Catalog Zone Rates take effect on Saturday, November 14.

Conversation With Donald Abt

Donald Abt

LeBaron. His reason for turning the position down was he "wanted to get his feet wet". He then went on to become the first principal of the new Junior High portion of the combined Junior-Senior High School. At the end of a year he became Assistant Superintendent of curriculum, where he served for five years. Nine years ago he became Superintendent of District No. 17, totalling eighteen years of service to the community. While serving as Superintendent, he attended a seminar in Palo Alto, California, of education leaders from all over the country. He was asked by the Secretary of Education to become an educational consultant for Puerto Rico. He served six years in this capacity.

As to the future of education-

"I think that public education is in dire straits... and I am fearful that public education may disappear... The State is tired, the PTA's, legislators are tired, the governors are tired-- each year more, more money and less, less service."

"Educators, and I have been as guilty as the rest of them, have mouthed a great many things that have not been verified by research. You have heard a great deal of talk today about Project Plan-- where is the proof for it? Where is the proof of the self-contained classroom? Where is the proof of 180 days of school... proof for language arts, mathematics, science? There is no proof."

"Teachers and administrators have been too complacent-- they've been afraid to try new things... If we're going to sit in the classroom and argue, we're going to lose one of the second greatest things we've ever developed in these United States. I think the Bill of Rights is number one and the second is public education... It will erode until finally you don't have it."

Last June, in a graduating class of approximately 900 students, 60 per cent went on to higher education while over 600 students received regents diplomas. Despite the overwhelming problems associated with the education of over 12,000 children, Don Abt is doing his share in providing quality education.

Seeking Donations Of Hicksville History

Long-time residents with fond memories of bygone days in this village and students of Hicksville's history should be delighted by a recent decision of the Board of Trustees of the Gregory Museum.

The trustees have authorized the museum's historical committee under co-chairman Kenneth Barnes and Richard Evers to seek donations or loans of objects and pictures dealing with Hicksville's history.

"We are interested in building a collection of local artifacts, photographs and records which may be put on display periodically in the Gregory Museum", co-chairman Evers announces. "There are probably many materials and old photographs still kept in attics and cellars or in old chests which would tell us much of our village's past. We hope to preserve these valuable examples of life in old-time Hicksville so that school children and the general population can see them and feel they are a part of a community with roots and a notable history."

The historical committee is making plans to store donated objects temporarily at the Hicksville Public Library until the Gregory Museum is renovated, at which time all historical materials will be housed and placed on regular display at the Museum at Heitz Place. All donations to the museum's historical collection will be safeguarded and each donor will be suitably recognized and acknowledged for his contribution, the chairmen have announced.

Residents possessing articles and printed materials they feel would be assets to a Hicksville historical collection are asked to contact the co-chairmen Kenneth Barnes at the Hicksville Public Library or Richard Evers. Limited space at the museum and a collection focusing on the first three hundred years of Hicksville's history, 1648-1948, will necessitate some screening of donations as to size and suitability.

The following types of materials are requested: Old photographs or slide pictures; Hicksville newspapers prior to 1948; advertisements and price lists; bulletins and pamphlets having to do with schools, Grange affairs, agriculture fairs, church functions and programs; diplomas, medals and flags; cookbooks, Bibles, missals, old school texts, almanacs; storekeeper's ledgers and bank pamphlets; leather goods; tools and craft materials such as smithy tools, gold beating equipment, butchering tools, carpenter's tools, branding tools, candle making equipment; musical instruments and old radios; jars, vases, bottles, patent medicine containers, tobacco tins, match boxes; animal traps, weapons, cages; diaries, letters, picture post cards; toys, puzzles, sporting goods; school room equipment; irons, bed warmers, kitchen utensils, coffee grinders; sewing mill equipment.

Also: railroad time tables and tax receipts; and bills; maps, deeds; stuffed animals native to the regions, lamps, seed packages; medical and dental equipment; Indian artifacts.

Ramblin' Rose

By Rosemary Walsh

I'm so sorry, but in all the confusion I didn't wish you all a Happy Thanksgiving. I thought I would do it this week—but since our deadline was changed—for printing purposes—I must belatedly say, "Hope you had a Happy," and are fully stuffed with turkey, mince pie, cranberry sauce, plum pudding and all the trimmings. Was every one there? Or was it as it was in my home with some of your loved ones far away—My son Jim and his Thai bride are still in Hawaii with the U. S. Navy. By the way, I've forgotten to tell you, they're going to make me a grandma in April. At last I made it! But only the Lord knows when I shall see my first (Hawaii is so far away). My daughter Kathy and her David will be with his folks in Kentucky. My folks in Florida will be with their other retired friends. My sister and brother (you know Fire Commissioner MacDonald) will all be assembling with their families. There was a time when we all met at my house but we've expanded and deflated with age, but I sure miss it all. However, my Mary Jo, Mike and Pat will be home from college so I suspect we'll be over-stuffed like the rest of you.

Well, I think you are now informed about the Walshes. It is not the purpose of this column to just ramble about my brood, but Thanksgiving time is family time. My family story is probably your family story—so when I report it I hope you understand I'm thinking of all of us. Change the names and the places—fit in your own.

I hope that Thanksgiving 1970 has been a happy one—in spite of all the problems of today's world. We must carry on—in our best style (even though at times it seems difficult).

Side notes—the Methletes of Hicksville High School that I spoke of last week won their first meet—Ira Shikowitz and Marc Drier scoring highest—4 more meets and who knows what "our champions" can accomplish.

The presses must roll so I must ramble off fast. Love ya!

The Net Basketball game was here and gone. The Nets won the game, and there was a lot of scoring by both teams. Minus their new star Rick Barry, they still managed to get a whopping 144 points, to the bosers 129. The kids had a grand time with plenty to cheer about. With all those points scored it must have excited the youngsters quite a bit. Even the adults must have been amazed to see so many baskets made. Now Bob Williams can go ahead and make plans for another game. The entire group attending the game was 128 people and three buses. Its another notch in our youth activity program of which Bob is chairman.

You must go to believe we have more snags in our coming building. Always figured to be a lot of red tape, but boy, this is the mostest. What a relief it will be when ground is finally broken. Its no wonder they're thinking of a ground breaking ceremony. I think we all should get stoned.

Something new has been decided, and it sounds pretty good. We have a new idea, that any of our veterans that pass away, their families will receive a bible from us and our ladies aux. Pardon the morbid business, thought you might like to know. After all, when you pass away, its too late to know or even care. We feel it would be a nice token of remembrance to the family from our post.

You will probably be receiving letters, pretty soon for the kids about our Christmas party to be held on Sunday, December 19. If you go to any of the shopping centers, you will see its not too early for it.

Bingo is still moving at a lively pace, and Uncle Frank Blesi, still looking for more help to make it a little easier for everybody.

We made a few more good donations at the last meeting. One was to the Teen activity club in Hicksville, and the other to the Guide Foundation for the Blind Inc.

Our dinner-dance is progressing very nicely at this early date. Frank Lottl and Mike Znaek were a bit concerned until the last meeting, but now they're breathing a lot easier. So if anybody is interested just get in touch with Frank or Mike and they will do their best to accommodate you.

Before ending, another reminder, any Vietnam or Koreans yet you know of from Hicksville, please notify Bob McGowan.

See you at the next meeting, I hope.

Silent Films At Nassau College

The flamboyant era of the silent films will come alive at Nassau Community College next month when Lillian Gish, one of the legendary stars of that period, visits the Student Center at the College on Thursday, December 3, at 11:30 a.m.

She knew everyone—Fairbanks, Valentino, Pickford, Chaplin, William S. Hart, D. W. Griffith, and a host of lesser luminaries—and she will reminisce about her film experiences with these famous personages.

In the second half of her performance, Miss Gish will present

L.I. Water Conference Dinner Set For Nov. 30

Legislators from the bi-county area of Nassau and Suffolk will attend the Annual Legislative Dinner of the Long Island Water Conference to be held Monday, November 30 at the Westbury Manor, Westbury. A cocktail reception starting at 7 p.m. will precede the dinner.

According to the announcement by Michael Zihal, Water Conference chairman, United States Senators Jacob Javits and Charles Goodell have been extended invitations, as well as the newly elected U.S. senator, James Buckley.

The Congressional delegation representing the bi-county area of Nassau and Suffolk has been extended invitations in addition to the State legislators. Those newly elected have been invited in addition to the ones they are succeeding.

Chairman Zihal said that one of the principal aims of the Legislative Dinner is to maintain closer liaison and communication with the area's Congressional and Legislative delegations, especially at this time, when the maintenance of a "pure and plentiful water supply" is so critical.

"As we are experts in the field of water supply, we have some important legislative proposals of vital concern to the people and communities we service which we expect to discuss with the legislators and congressmen," Chairman Zihal said.

"Each year our Legislative Dinner has attracted most of our legislators and Congressmen, and we have all profited immensely from the exchange of views."

The Annual Legislative Dinner of the Long Island Water Conference has grown steadily in importance since its inception. This year's affair is expected to be the most successful, according to Louis Miranda, legislative committee chairman and chairman of the dinner committee.

The Long Island Water Conference is comprised of representatives from 50 public water suppliers in Nassau and Suffolk Counties who pump 90 billion gallons of water annually to a population of over two million. Among its members are water commissioners, superintendents, managers, operators, engineers and attorneys from the water supply organizations on Long Island, along with representatives of the Health Department of Nassau and Suffolk, State Water Resources Commission, and others associated with the water industry.

From the kitchen of JOAN AMUNDSEN

Our vacation this year certainly turned out to be a fruitful one. We have picked up many delicious recipes in our travels, one of which I must tell you of immediately. The recipe is for Garden Relish and it was given to me by my cousin Ceal in Pennsylvania. She is just about one of the best canners and preservers that I know.

Garden Relish
12 ears of corn cut raw
2 qts. ripe tomatoes peeled and sliced
1 qt. cucumbers peeled and diced
1 qt. onions chopped
6 green peppers diced
Mix all ingredients and add
3 cups white vinegar
1 cup water
4 cups sugar
2 tbsp. celery seed
4 tbsp. salt
2 tbsp. turmeric
Cook 1 hour and 15 minutes and seal in hot sterilized jars.

You know, these farmers wives take great pride in the preserving of their farm products. And well they should! There are some wives who can feed their family all winter long by living off the fruits of the land.

One of my favorite recipes is for Bread and Butter Pickles. I try to save them for company and special occasions but that's almost impossible. One jar is always finished at a sitting.

Old Fashioned Bread & Butter Pickles

4 qts. thinly sliced unpared cucumbers
8 medium onions sliced
3 green peppers cut in strips
3 red peppers cut in strips
3 cloves garlic crushed
1/3 cup coarse salt (kosher)
5 cups sugar
3 cups white vinegar
2 tbsp. mustard seed
1/4 tsp. celery seed
1/4 tsp. turmeric
Combine vegetables, garlic and salt. Cover with lots of ice cubes and mix thoroughly. Let stand 3 hours. Drain well. Combine the remaining ingredients and pour over vegetables. Bring just to boiling. Seal at once in hot sterilized jars. Makes about 6 pints.

A few tips about canning:
Make sure your jars are sterilized in boiling water about 15-20 minutes. Don't forget to sterilize the metal tops and bands. Make sure the mixture is boiling hot when packing the jars. Wipe jar rims clean before sealing and seal immediately. Cool in a place free from drafts. If you find a jar has not sealed, refrigerate it and use it first. You will know they have sealed when the metal tops have "popped".

Gregory Museum Recieves A $10,000.00 Grant

The Gregory Museum, 207 Cottage Boulevard, Hicksville, New York, recently received a grant of $10,000.00 from the New York State Council Of The Arts, a state agency whose funds are appropriated by the New York State Legislature. The money will be used to hire a full-time curator for the museum.

The Gregory Museum is basically an earth science teaching-research display museum, although it has over 5,000 specimens of butterflies and moths from all over the world. In the future it will exhibit historical artifacts of the Hicksville area. The museum serves the Hicksville area and the larger community. Over 30,000 people from 32 states and 10 foreign countries have visited the museum.

At present the museum is renovating and converting the Heitz Place Court House in Hicksville to house its collections and carry on its educational programs. Classes in mineralogy, geology, ecology and other earth sciences, plus courses in the lapidary arts, etc. will be taught at its future site.

Those interested in knowing more about The Gregory Museum should phone OV 1-6041.

The Board of Education of the Nassau Board of Cooperative Educational Services, BOCES, has changed the date of its regular monthly Board meeting for December from the second Thursday of the month to Wednesday, December 9, at 8:15 P.M. Basketball Bread is Really Oatmeal

When the kids come home from school and want to know what's baking, tell them it's basketball bread.

The bread was developed to call attention to a Spalding basketball being offered for $4.95 and a H-O oats box top. The basketball which carries a manufacturer's suggested retail price of over $9.00 is official size and weight made with a tough nylon inner construction and a rugged all-surface cover. Send name and address, $4.95 (check or money order only) plus a box top from any variety of H-O oats to H-O Basketball Offer, P. O. Box 25, Passaic Park, New Jersey 07650. Allow three weeks for delivery. Offer expires June 30, 1971.

Oatmeal Bread

- | | |
|------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| 1 1/2 cups boiling water | 2 eggs, slightly beaten |
| 1 cup H-O quick oats | 2 cups raisins |
| 1/2 cup dark corn syrup | 2 tablespoons grated orange rind |
| 1/2 cup margarine | 1/2 teaspoon allspice |
| 1 tablespoon salt | 6 to 6 1/2 cups (about) sifted flour |
| 2 packages active dry yeast | |
| 1/2 cup warm (105 to 115°F.) water | |

Grease 2 (1 1/2 to 2-quart) round casseroles or 2 (1 1/2-quart) oven proof mixing bowls. Mix together boiling water, oats, corn syrup, margarine and salt in 3-quart bowl. Stir until margarine is melted, then cool to lukewarm. Sprinkle yeast into warm water and stir until dissolved. Add yeast mixture, eggs, raisins, grated orange rind and allspice to oat mixture. Vigorously stir in flour, 1 cup at a time, until smooth, moist dough forms. Cover tightly. Chill 1 1/2 to 2 hours. (Dough rises some while in refrigerator.) Place chilled dough on lightly floured surface. Shape (do not knead) into round loaves with greased hands and place in prepared baking dishes. Cover. Let rise in warm place, free from draft, just until doubled in bulk, 50 to 60 minutes. (Dough will be about even with top of baking dishes.) Bake in 350°F. (moderate) oven 50 to 60 minutes or until bread is browned. Remove from baking dishes and cool. Makes 2 loaves.

Hearty Fall Favorite

October has been designated "Cheese Festival Month" and rightly so. Cheese reigns as one of the few foods which fits into any menu at any time of the day or night—from a cheese omelet at breakfast to a luncheon cheeseburger right on to cheese "nibbles" in combo with the late night show. With such versatility cheese deserves special attention every day of the year.

The pasteurized process cheese spread selected for this casserole has a velvety texture, an unusually pleasant and mild flavor, plus being packed with exceptional nutritional qualities. A two-ounce slice has more protein, calcium and Vitamin A than an eight-ounce glass of milk. Mom, take heed—the kids will love it!

In celebration of this annual fall festival nothing could be more apropos than Hot 'n Hearty Supper. Tangy barbecue sauce permeates this casserole creating a zippy flavor blend. But the winning ingredient—nutritious, delicious and versatile cheese by a landslide!

Hot 'n Hearty Supper

- | | |
|--------------------------------|--|
| 1 lb. ground beef | 1/2 cup Kraft Barbecue Sauce |
| 4 cups (2 1-lb. cans) tomatoes | 1/2 teaspoon salt |
| 1 cup chopped green pepper | 1/2 lb. Velveeta Pasteurized Process Cheese Spread, sliced |
| 1/2 cup chopped onion | |
| 1/2 cup uncooked rice | |

Brown meat; drain excess fat. Add tomatoes, green pepper, onion, rice, barbecue sauce and salt. Place in 2-quart casserole. Bake at 350°, 45 minutes. Top with cheese slices; return to oven until cheese melts. 6 servings.

UNUSUAL SHRIMP SALAD IS A DIETER'S DREAM

It is not often one slim-down dish offers so much for so few calories, but it is all here—protein, vegetables, starch, great flavor, and servings so generous they can take a long, beautiful time to eat!

Shrimp and rice are at the heart of it. Shrimp, of course, are all lean and low-calorie (about 150 to the 4 1/2-ounce can), but they contribute the high quality protein needed to hold back hunger between meals. In modest quantities, rice adds only its wallop of fuel and energy. As the saying goes, it is not the starch that fattens but what is spooned over it. And a trick way of cooking the rice gives the whole salad a very satisfying but deceptively rich flavor.

This is a pretty salad—all shrimp-pink and green—with a slightly Oriental look, particularly when vegetables are cut on the slant. It serves four but for one person single servings may be spaced by adding rice and fresh ingredients to the shrimp mixture as needed.

|---|
| 1 can (4 1/2 ounces) shrimp |
| 1 can (1 pound) cut green beans |
| 1 garlic clove, thinly sliced |
| 1 tablespoon salad oil |
| 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard |
| 1/4 teaspoon sugar |
| 1/4 cup vinegar |
| 2 chicken bouillon cubes |
| 2 1/2 cup uncooked rice |
| 1 cup sliced celery |
| 1/2 cup sliced scallions or sweet onion |
| 2 cups shredded crisp lettuce |
| Soy sauce (optional) |

Have shrimp and beans chilled in the can. Drain both, reserving the bean liquid. Crush garlic in a large salad bowl. Add oil, mustard, sugar, vinegar, shrimp, and beans. Toss well; refrigerate. Heat bean liquid; add bouillon cubes and stir until dissolved. In a saucepan combine liquid with enough water to make 2 cups. Add rice. Bring to a boil and cook rapidly, uncovered, about 8 minutes or until rice stands above the water line. Reduce heat to lowest point; cover closely and steam 12-14 minutes. Spread rice in a shallow pan to cool, using a fork to separate the grains. Refrigerate 10 minutes or until needed. At serving time, add rice to shrimp and bean mixture; toss together with celery, onion, lettuce. Serve with soy sauce. 4 servings.

FOR YOUR HOLIDAY PARTIES

A good punch recipe is a boon to the holiday hostess. A punch is the easiest way to serve a large number of people because it can be made ahead of time and because guests can help themselves. Once the brimming bowl is set out on the table, the hostess can relax and enjoy her own party.

The secret of a good punch is a strong tea base. The tea gives the punch body and blends with the other ingredients without masking their own flavors. The recipe below makes a pretty, rosy-colored punch, perfect for holiday parties. Try it at yours, along with slices of fruit cake.

HOLIDAY PUNCH

(Makes about 50 punch-cup servings)

|--|
| 1 quart of cold water |
| 1/3 cup loose tea or 15 teabags |
| 3/4 cup sugar |
| 2 quarts cranberry juice cocktail |
| 4 (6 oz.) cans frozen orange juice, thawed |
| 1/4 cup lemon juice |
| 2 quarts water |
| 1 (28 oz.) bottle ginger ale |
| Lemon and orange slices |
| Maraschino cherries |

Bring 1 quart of cold water to full rolling boil; remove from heat; add tea all at once. Brew 4 minutes. Strain into punch bowl; add sugar and stir until dissolved. Cool at room temperature. Add juices and water. Refrigerate. When ready to serve, add ginger ale and ice block. Garnish with lemon and orange slices and cherries.

Excerpts From Syosset School Supt.'s Report

ADMINISTRATION ESTABLISHMENT OF COMMITTEE TO STUDY STIPENDED ACTIVITIES:

The Superintendent has established a committee to study the various activities for which a stipend is paid. These activities include both athletic and non-athletic assignments that are supervised by members of the professional staff in addition to their regular teaching program.

The committee will be comprised of the following people: Mr. Schachter, member of the Board of Education, Dr. Schwartz, Mr. Murtagh, Assistant Principals, Messrs. Barry, Beckman, and Scala, and representatives from the Syosset Teachers have had an opportunity to examine all existing stipend activities. The Superintendent will report to the Board of Education prior to the completion of the budget for the school year 1971-72.

EMERGENCY SCHOOL CLOSINGS:

Once again the emergency school closing plan for eleven North Shore school districts has been developed and will be put into operation during any period of inclement weather. The plan is an attempt to standardize school closings by simplifying the channels of communication between the administrators of the school districts. A chain telephone calling plan, as well as a road inspection plan are the main procedures of the operation. The system calls for decision making before 6 a.m. if possible. Individual school districts are not bound by the actions of the other districts.

ELECTRIFICATION OF L.I.R.R.:

The Superintendent has followed up, at the request of the Board of Education at the last regular meeting of the Board, in contacting both the officials of the L.I.R.R., and our two assemblymen, and State senator, requesting that all precautions be taken to avoid any serious accident which may be caused by youngsters crossing the railroad tracks since it has been electrified.

A response indicating both interest and support has been received from Assemblyman Reilly, and Ginsberg. Mr. Sidney Frigand, Director of Community Relations of the Metropolitan Transport Association, has responded, indicating that Hawthorn, a thick growing, thorny, shrub will be planted all along the L.I.R.R. property adjacent to the senior high school. A helicopter will be used periodically to inspect critical areas such as the area adjacent to our high school and will be equipped with a portable public address system to warn people away from the danger area if this should be necessary.

DUAL ENROLLMENT:

The Board of Regents is considering sponsoring legislation which would provide instruction for non-public school pupils in public schools or BOCES facilities. The proposal under consideration is limited to grades 10-12 and would provide for such services in vocational education, special education for the handicapped and science education.

The proposal would mandate boards of education to provide these services for pupils enrolled in non-public schools located in the district, at the written request of the parent, whether or not the pupils were residents of the district. Pro-rata State BOCES aid would be applied for those attending BOCES facilities for vocational or handicapped services. Districts of residence would be responsible for tuition payments for students served as non-residents.

It is proposed that the provisions of this legislation go into effect as of September 1, 1972 and that, each year, parental requests be filed with the board of education by April 1, prior to the school year.

INSTRUCTION FAMILY LIFE EXEMPTIONS:

Family Life exemptions have been received from all of the elementary schools, grades 3-6. Twenty exemptions have been requested and letters have been sent to all parents of exempt children indicating receipt of the exemptions. There are 2,634 children in grades 3-6 where exemptions are allowed. Appropriate alternate programs will again be planned for these children. As you may recall, from previous reports, all principals held meetings for parents in grades 3 through 6 for discussion of the films in the exempt units prior to the date for filing exemptions.

MIDDLE STATES EVALUATION:

A philosophy report is an integral part of the Middle States Evaluation process. The High School staff is committed to re-evaluate the school's philosophy prior to the visit this spring of the evaluation committee.

Syosset High School is accredited by the Middle States Association and will be due for its decennial review this year. The philosophy has been prepared by a committee at the High School and it is now subject to review by the entire professional staff at the High School, and the Board of Education.

SUBSTITUTE PROGRAM:

In order to proceed with the implementation of the High School's "Substitute-substitute" program, the services of Mrs. Susan O'Brien have been secured. Mrs. O'Brien will be on temporary assignment as coordinator for the entire program and she is currently working with student and faculty committee members with a target date set for the start of the new series on November 23rd.

This new approach had a three week pilot tryout in the spring of 1970 and plans for implementation of this program will rely heavily on the analysis and evaluation of the operation last spring.

BUSINESS OPERATIONS ADDITIONAL EXEMPTIONS FOR REAL ESTATE PROPERTY TAX FOR QUALIFIED SENIOR CITIZENS:

Student Standpoint

By Danny Abuhoff

Today, college is, in terms of educational competition, what high school used to be. It is the stage of academic advancement required in order to be able to compete economically in society. Most people cite the ever enlarging figure of college students as a testament to the building of a more intellectual and aware society. This may be but the ideal of greater scholastic necessity has also laid waste to four years of many a person's life.

At the termination of high school, the student in this locale almost automatically looks at colleges. Some look for one with the nicest campus, others for the best social life, but most utilize the colleges' own selection processes to make their choice. While these institutions judge and carefully consider applicants, the pupil is drawn to the college whose admittance requirements are the most stringent. Unlike a normal consumer-service relationship, facilities are not considered equal in importance with the grade of student body that a school selects. Perhaps the advantage of attending with the best students possible is the determining factor, more likely it is the educational conditioning undergone by the student. In an academic career measured only by marks, the selectivity of the institution one attends is seen as the ultimate grade, the final and most deciding factor of the degree of one's success in high school.

This same type of thinking is done by students undecided whether college is the correct decision for them. For male students, of course, the draft may be the determining factor. Nothing deters conscription like education. However, for those immune to this line of thinking, many eventually conclude that non-attendance is a concession of failure. They enter two and four year institutions and struggle, not to learn, but to grab a degree. The fact that some don't belong in school after twelfth grade is considered insulting and a degradation of a person's worth, while in many cases, alternatives to college would provide a greater awareness than that gained in a "learning" atmosphere already confronted and found unmanageable.

Obviously, there is another factor besides pride in the discernment of which university one should attend and that is the current mind-set of this country's employers. To them education is a primary consideration in the hiring of employees. What many fail to realize is that a liberal arts degree does not mean an individual will sell more vacuum cleaners. It is the attitude of these employers, and in fact almost the entire nation, which has made college no longer a choice, but a necessity, no longer a privilege, but in some cases, a chore. It is no wonder that our campuses teem with disenfranchised youth of little direction. Whereas, the goal in entering college was once to learn and broaden oneself, it is now, to many, simply to insure economic survival. Students attending colleges over their heads who are goaded by the association of grades and selectivity, the draft, or economic necessity, are not necessarily, at graduation, more aware than the high school graduates of 1925 but simply a more confused and older group.

Temple Slates Father Flannery As Speaker

Temple or Elohim of Jericho will have as its guest speaker Father Edward H. Flannery, Assistant director of the Institute of Judeo-Christian Studies at Seton Hall University, on Friday night, December 11th.

At present, he is also Executive Secretary of the Secretariat for Catholic-Jewish Relations, of the Bishops' Committee for Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs, with offices at Seton Hall.

Father Flannery has figured prominently as an exponent of Catholic social thought and action and, in particular, in the field of Jewish-Christian dialogue which he sees as presenting special problems for the ecumenist because of an embittered past. In his talks, he goes into the historic past to find the roots of Jewish troubles, discusses the content and import of the Vatican Council's Declaration on the Jews, outlines what is being done today to implement it, and presents a broad scope of future possibilities.

His book, "The Anguish of the Jews: 23 Centuries of Anti-Semitism" (New York: Macmillan '65) is the first history of anti-semitism by a Catholic priest. It has received six awards since its publication, and is now being translated into French. "The Anguish of the Jews" expresses Father Flannery's belief that the chief stumbling block separating Christians and Jews is not only the fact of anti-semitism but Christians' ignorance of what has happened to Jews in history. French and Spanish editions of the book are in preparation.

Father Flannery has received the National Brotherhood Award of the National Conference of Christians and Jews for 1965, and in that same year the Award of the R. I. Unit of American Jewish Committee, the Sixth Annual Edith Stein Award, National Catholic Book Award, the Jewish War Veterans Brotherhood Award, and other. The General Assembly of Rhode Island at its January 1967 session passed a resolution, approved by the Governor of the State, honoring Father Flannery.

The public is cordially invited and the service begin at 8:45 P.M.
