Hicksville Vamps Hold Open House

By Lt. Owen Magee

A crowd estimated at 4,000 people filled the Hicksville Fire Department Headquarters to the brim Sunday for their Annual Holiday Season Open House. Inside, the visitors saw demonstrations on fire equipment, rescue squad equipment, chemistry of fire exhibit, operation Edith - an exhibit on Emergency Drills In The Home - how to evacuate your home in case of fire, and of course, Santa, who listened to the kiddies requests for things for him to bring from the North Pole.

Outside, various pieces of Hicksville fire apparatus were on display. Ladder Co. No. 1 and Hose Co. 4 gave a demonstration on the versatility of the tower ladder and the use of high expansion foam. Aside from our visitors having a good time, we hope that during their visit they learned a few things on fire safety. Chief Voorhies and the officers and men wish to thank the residents for their interest and for braving the cold weather to visit our various displays. Asst. Chief Mario Misturini was the program chairman. He was assisted by inspectors from the Fire Prevention Bureau and by firemen from the eight companies.

School Board Goes Forward With JHS Expansion

By Shirley Smith

Tuesday night the School Board was presented with preliminary plans for the Junior High School addition. This addition (at a figure of $300,000) was approved by the voters in August. Board trustee, Thomas Muratore, asked how much congestion this addition will alleviate at the Junior High. Dr. Fred Hill, Assistant Superintendent, listed several areas which would be improved when the building is completed:

1. It would free-up the halls and gymnasium.
2. It would completely eliminate congestion in the cafeteria-third cafeteria room to be added and each class would have its own eating area.
3. The auditorium would not have to be used for music classes anymore.

A question was raised about the architect's fee—it is approximately 10 per cent of the building costs (75 per cent of this to be paid when the bids are awarded, the remaining 25 per cent as work progresses.)

Trustee William O'Donnell moved that the preliminary plans be accepted and bids go out right away, work to be started as soon as possible (Feb. or March.) The motion passed unanimously.

The Board was told by the architect's representative that the Junior High addition may be ready for occupancy by Sept. 1, 1971—or maybe much later. Since this is not an extensive job, the larger firms may not bid on it. If the bid goes to a smaller construction firm, the building will take longer—the smaller firms cannot complete a job as quickly as large outfits, he explained.

After a long executive session, the Board of Education tabled, until next month, a request by Creative Art Forms for use of two district school facilities in which to hold their classes in art, music, dance and dramatics.

A request by the New York State Congress of Parents and Teachers for

Manaskie Wins

A total of 1,516 voters turned out Tuesday to vote for fire commissioner for the Hicksville Fire District. Commissioner Manaskie received 785 votes, Ex-chief Sam Weiss received 703 votes. There were 18 blank votes. Both candidates wish to thank those residents who turned out to support them. Harold and Sam also wished to thank all the people who worked for them in getting the voters out.

Hicksville Library Holds Family Hour

Hicksville's own author-illustrator Chaya Burstein, who wrote "Rifka Bangs the Teakettle" will hold a family story hour at the Hicksville Public Library on Tuesday evening, December 15 at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Burstein, better known as Irene, has lived in Hicksville with her family for 15 years. The family consists of her husband, Murray, an industrial builder, Raman, a student at Oberlin College, Deena, a senior at Hicksville High School, Beth, a seventh grader in the Hicksville Junior High School, and a sleepy cat. Mrs. Burstein started in Brooklyn College in 1940 and obtained her Fine Arts degree from Hofstra University in 1965. In the years between she raised her family and worked on her book.

"Rifka Bangs the Teakettle" was gleaned from her mother's stories of peasant life in Russia in the early 1900's when she was a child there. From reviews across the country this book was very well received. The title is a literal translation of a Yiddish expression "to make a fuss". Even though this is a story of a Jewish girl in Russia before the Revolution, it applies universally to all children.

Chaya Burstein will tell stories from her book to our audience. It isn't every day an author comes to any library and it is many years since Hicksville has had its very own author. This will be a very satisfying evening for parents and children alike.

Received a report from Jim Sotille on the Voice of Democracy contest. High School winners were Renee Greenberg, who was last years winner too, John Kearney, and Kim Hoberock. Holy Trinity High winners were Barbara Alonge, Stephen Ferrante, and Christine Zeiser, in that order. Judges were Edward Wieland, Gerald Haupt, and good old reliable Frank Chlumski all of Hicksville. Our Cmdr. Frank Aug expressed his disappointment in the participation of our high school in such a worthy theme. Truly, a school that size of ours, should have a much better response, especially with the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow. Maybe it's not fashionable, or maybe the school heads didn't bother, because it was flag waving. Who knows. Even our town representatives didn't bother to answer our request to have them as judges. Maybe because the election is over. If you speak to young men like Bruce Maas, Bob Keck, Mike Melody, or the Rock Perrella, you'll know that Americanism is not dead. Anyway, now these six kids have a chance for the $10,000 dollar first prize nationally. Our Heritage-Freedom.

We of the post asked Frank Aug to send a telegram to the president of the U. S. A. Our Cmdr was tickled to death to do it. It concerned our condoning the action taken to free our P. O. W.'s in North Vietnam. We want our boys home, but we want all of them, home, without exception. Our Heritage-Freedom. Even here it sounds pretty good.

Received a letter from young Bill Walden thanking us for the packages he received. He sounded quite happy in the letter. But then, why not. He's supposed to be on his way home. If Billy is half the hustler his father, Post Cmdr. George is, we'll have

Hicksville Concert News

The various musical groups, all sponsored by the Hicksville Public Schools, have announced the following programs for the community's pleasure.

On Friday, December 11, the Hicksville High School's Concert Band and Symphonic Wind Ensemble will present their annual Winter Band Concert at 8:30 in the senior high school auditorium. Admission will be $1.00, proceeds will be used for the Music Department's Scholarship Fund.

On Sunday, December 13, The Hicksville Community Orchestra will open its 1970-71 season with a program which in part will honor the 200th birthday of Ludwig von Beethoven. The Orchestra will play his 8th Symphony together with the Overture to Oberon by von Weber and the ever-popular Nutcracker Suite by Tchaikovsky. The performance will be at 3:00 P.M. in the Hicksville Senior High School. Admission is free.

On Thursday and Friday, December 17th and 18th, there will be a double feature of music at Hicksville High School. On the 17th the Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Thomas Buttice, will perform a program including Schubert's "Rosamunde Overture" and a medley from Fiddler on the Roof. Appearing the same evening will be Mr. Stephen Goldstein's Girls' Chorus. The Sophomore Girls will present a collection of French, English, and American folk music.

December 18th will find the Choral and Madrigal Singers, directed by Mr. Charles Arnold, the String Ensemble by Mr.

Buttice, and the Brass Choir by Mr. David Abt, in concert. A highlight of the program will be the Christmas Cantata by Daniel Pinkham. The combined talents of the Choral and the String Ensemble will join to perform a selection from Handel's Messiah.

use of the Hicksville High School for its district spring conference, May 20, was unanimously approved. All Hicksville schools will be closed that day. Harry Kershen, Board president, stated it was an honor for our district to be host to this type of conference.

Following a second executive session, the School Board discussed hiring a consultant to study our district's long-range capital improvement needs. Administration recommended that we hire Dr. Felix McCormack of the Institute of Field Study at the rate of $20 per hour. Dr. McCormack has conducted four similar surveys (in the 1950's and 60's) for our district. Mr. O'Donnell moved that the Board accept Administration's recommendation and that the survey be started January 1, 1971 and end no later than June 30, 1971, payment to be limited to $6000. Voting: yes—McCormack, McManus, O'Donnell, no—Muratore, Kershen (Mr. Clark could not attend Tuesday's meeting and Mr. Zindulka had to leave earlier in the evening) According to Board policy, a motion is carried only by four votes, therefore the motion was defeated.

Mr. Kershen then directed Administration to ask around and get prices from other firms for a long-range building program study. This will be reported to the Board at its next meeting.

New Son

A pleasant announcement was made at Monday night's Meeting of the Board of Education by Mr. Simon Ghitelman, President. Mr. Michael Bannardo, District Athletic Director for C.S.D. no. 4 Plainview-Old Bethpage, has become the father of an 8 lb. 3 oz. baby boy named John. The event took place on Saturday, December 5th at the Syosset General Hospital, and Sandra Bannardo, the mother, and baby are doing fine. Other members of the Bannardo family are Michael, 15, Laura 12 and David 4. Congratulations.

Announce Engagement

Dr. and Mrs. James W. Goris of Plainview, L.I. have announced the engagement of their daughter, Suzanne Mary to Robert Michael Turk of Bethpage, L.I.

The wedding is planned for September 1971.

Miss Goris, a graduate of Our Lady of Mercy Academy, Syosset, New York attended the College of St. Rose in Albany and was graduated from the Grace Downs School.

Mr. Turk is in his senior year at Siena College in Loudonville, New York where he is majoring in Finance.

Dear Friends

HOLY TRINITY DIOCESAN HIGH SCHOOL writes to tell us that their school is presenting a play on Dec. 11, 12 and 13. Their Drama Society, under the direction of English teacher James Haigney, has been rehearsing "Joseph and The Amazing Technicolor Dream Coat" by Weber and Rice, "Joseph", a rock oratorio, and "Encounters", a collection of short pieces from "Virginia Wolf", "Anne of the Thousand Days" and "I Never Promised You a Rose Garden." 8:15 p.m. is the starting time in the school auditorium and admission is $1.50, so don't miss these interesting high school productions...we're sure you'll enjoy an evening of pleasant entertainment.

HAVE YOU SEEN BRUTE? Tommy Hughes of 185 Ninth St., in Hicksville stopped in to tell us a sad story, as follows: LOST - a brown, mixed shepherd male dog (short haired) medium size...no collar, named "Brute." He belongs to Tommy's brother who is now on his way home from Viet Nam. Brute is a former mascot of the regiment and after paying for all the necessary shots and the air passage home to Hicksville, Brute wasn't at home more than two days when he managed to get out of the house and is now lost. The Hughes' have tried everything they could think of in an effort to locate Brute who really hasn't had time yet to get used to his new surroundings. Sometimes when he hears loud noises, he shrinks, and this of course is understandable when you realize where he has spent most of his life. If you see a strange dog, answering to the above description in your area, please call the Hughes at WE 8-0537. We hope this story eventually has a happy ending.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE Community Conservation Committee of the Plainview Youth Council, who are doing more than just talking about what we can do to correct our ecological problems. They left a mimeographed sheet in my car door the other day at Hills Supermarket...here is what they suggest we do about detergents:

PLEASE TRY TO USE ONE OF THE FOLLOWING PRODUCTS

Culligan, Diaper Sweet, Ivory Flakes, Servisoft Soap, Diaper Pure, Way-Gone, Duz, White Ring Soap, Sear's Soap.

All of these are either soaps or special Bio-Degradable Products. By adding Baking Soda to the soaps, they will clean your clothes just as well as most detergents.

PLEASE MAKE SURE YOUR SUPERMARKET:

1. Carries an ample supply of soap and Bio-Degradable products.
2. Has the soaps and detergents separated on the shelves.
3. Has a sign hanging which tells the phosphate content of detergents.

If your store does not do these things, please ask the manager to do them. Get the entire community to join with us and try to clean up our world!

Put out by the Friends of Ecology, Plainview Youth Council, Community Conservation Committee. For further information call WE-14946 or 483-1394. Until next week, stay well,

Sheila H. Noeth

Dear Mrs. Noeth,

I am replying to Mr. Doolittle's piece in the recent issue of the Herald. I am a teenager who has lived in Hicksville all my life. My father has worked in this fine town since before I was born. I have talked to many people in the town and have seen many changes take place. This town is growing steadily and the need for growth is now. What I am referring to is the piece of land on Lee Ave. Garden Apts. for people is what this town needs. I took a look at the population figures and the predictions for Hicksville. Our town is expected to become the biggest on Long Island. If we stunt the growth of our town we are not only stopping progress, which is at a constant swift pace, but we are allowing ourselves to become set in our ways. If Hicksville is to become a large area as predicted, should we not open our minds and hearts to outsiders? We cannot stay shut out in our ways. The time to reach out is now. The kind of housing which these people fear is low-income, yet, it has been proven that the cost of one of these places would only be for people of higher incomes.

If our forefathers had stayed set in their ways what would have happened? We would have had a sorry world to live in. If Hicksville can set an example for the rest of the island, why not let it start with apartments on Long Island?

Progress is needed and without it only God can help us.

Sincerely,
A teenager with hope for Hicksville

Dear Editor:

Please be advised that as Chairman of the Town of Oyster Bay Beautification Committee I have written to each local candidate asking that their signs be removed from trees and poles in our Town. I am happy to report that most of the candidates have removed their political signs.

I am writing this letter as a plea to the candidates who have not removed their signs to do so as soon as possible. These signs mar the beauty of our Town and should be removed. In the event that any sign is not removed, I will recommend to the Town Board that such signs be removed with Town personnel.

It is my sincere hope that all candidates will cooperate with the sign removal so that we do not have to involve Town personnel in this program.

I wish to thank the candidates who have removed their signs for their cooperation in this matter. I further wish to request that any taxpayer who finds that some political signs are still located in the Town of Oyster Bay to please contact my office.

Very truly yours,
COUNCILMAN RALPH

REAL LIVE OPERA FOR HICKSVILLE'S 4th through 6th graders: As part of the performing arts program this year, the music department of the Hicksville Public Schools, brought the Opera da Camera production of La Serva Padrona by Giovanni Pergolesi, to all eight elementary schools this week. The short 18th Century opera done in full period costume with scenery and lighting, sung in English, and accompanied by a small instrumental ensemble, visited two schools a day. The 4th, 5th, and 6th grade students in each building had opera explained, and this particular plot outlined to them, by their music teachers. Programs for the primary level, and the two secondary schools are being planned for later this school year.

A Conversation: Father Dominic Ciannella

As we casually made our way back to our car, upon concluding a most stimulating conversation with Father Ciannella, a black-frocked figure swept past us. . . he seemed to be flying! This typifies the dynamic, forceful personality that is Dominic Kenneth Ciannella, Rector of the Holy Trinity Episcopal Church.

He was, born 50 years ago in Far Rockaway of pure-blooded Italian parents. His father owned a barber shop and during the depression his mother went to beauty school and shared half the shop as a beautician. He attended P.S. 39 and we were treated to a rousing: "39, 39, Always ready, Right in line, 39, 39 Ray!" In 1939 he graduated Far Rockaway High School and went off that September to the University of the South, Sewanee, Tennessee. After 6½ years of continuous education he graduated in 1943 and on Christmas Eve, 1944 was ordained. Due to an overlapping of school years because of war-time acceleration, he was graduated in February of 1945 from the School of Theology.

Father Ciannella's first position with the church was as curate of St. Stephen's in Port Washington from February until December of 1945. In September of that year he met and fell in love with Annette and they were married in November, after a whirlwind courtship. The telephone company's loss of revenue between Port Washington and Baltimore was their gain. The bishop then placed him as a missionary priest in Central Islip at the Church of the Messiah. He became a circuit rider in a 1933 Plymouth which had done duty three times as a honeymoon chariot; once for himself and twice for friends. He travelled as far as 17 miles away to St. Mark's in Medford, where he was priest in charge, and north of Medford to Gordon Heights, a predominately West-Indian community, which he served as parish priest. During this time he also served on a part-time basis as one of the chaplains at Central Islip State Hospital, where he was on call for 6½ years and was able to take advantage of clinical training programs which helped to fortify his ministry. He was asked by the state to be the first resident Protestant Chaplain, but refused because he did not want to settle for an institutional ministry, but wanted the parish as a base of operation. He also served at St.

Mary's Church in Lake Ronkonkoma.

In the August heat of 1952, he took residence as Rector of St. Paul's in Patchogue. By now there were three children who were born during their stay in Ciannella girls are Katie, 19, the first-born daughter who made Father Ciannella feel "Father of the Bride—Here Come I!" a second-year student at Nassau Community College; then there is Adeline, "18 going on 25", a junior at Hicksville High School with a flair for the drama like her older sister; and Rebecca, 13, attending St. Mary's Cathedral School in Garden City.

Dominic Kenneth Ciannella, from the age of 6 or 7 "always sensed a call to ministry." Though born of Roman Catholic background, his family attended the Dutch Reform Church and at the age of 9 or 10 moved on to St. John's an Episcopal church. Of three Ciannella sons, Dominic, the middle one, was the only one to feel this calling.

Father Ciannella is involved in many things outside his church duties, closest to his heart: our youngsters. He would like to see a hospice, a place for young boys and girls—the cop-outs, those involved in the drug scene, aimlessly fleeing from home. A place where, strictly on a short-term basis, they can receive counseling and be reconciled with their families.

There is a need to establish housing for the elderly, modest rentals for the young-married. Father Ciannella's concern is, "What's going to happen to Hicksville?" If there are more people who are as concerned and who care as much as Father Ciannella, what does happen to Hicksville can only be good.

Central Islip with two more to follow at St. Paul's.

On New Year's Day of 1899, Father Ciannella came to Hicksville as Rector of Holy Trinity Church. It was a time for building and "establishing that sense of community... of family... of belonging", of making a homogeneous family of the various traditions in the Episcopal Church. "It means something to be called 'Father' to this family."

Father and Mrs. Ciannella are the proud parents of five children: Dominic, 24, who also attended the University of the South and now is employed with the Nassau County Department of Probation; Christopher, 21, will graduate in June from Denison University, Ohio; the

By Kathy Mele

Last Sunday, December 6th, was the opening of the HAD Storefront to the public. Almost 300 people, both young and old, attended the first annual "Open House Day." Among the curious and interested people were Town Supervisor John Burke, Neil McCormack of the Hicksville School Board and Joseph Madden the Supervisor of Health Curriculum and Recreation Director. They related their concern and interest in our programs to our Storefront Director, John Maniec.

People both from our own community and towns as far away as Baldwin wanted to find out about our programs and goals.

These were explained while they were taken and shown Rap Rooms 1 to 3, the interview room and the Director's office.

Factual-informative literature was given out for general information and special projects such as school reports, usually due after the Winter Recalls. Those who wished to receive our new publication, the monthly HAD Communicator entered their names on the mailing list.

During the course of the day, an informal rap session was run by Greg O'Dette. Young people and adults participated together in talking about the legislation of marijuana and of different social ideas as practiced by various age

Ramblin' Rose

By Rosemary Walsh

This is the season for "Open House" (along with Egg nog Parties etc.) usually done for festive celebration. Well, this last week end I attended two—the purpose was the same, but the most important feature of these was the dedication of the people giving their time for important community work.

Hicksville Against Drugs or H.A.D. is certainly the newer of the two since the other open house was at the Fire House. The young people and their support adults were most cordial and impressive. It was amazing to see how they fixed up the quarters just above the Sweet Shop on Broadway. The place was freshly painted and the donated furniture fit in just beautifully. While I was there people of all descriptions passed through. Each was warmly greeted and offered refreshments.

Mr. John Burke, Supervisor of the Town of Oyster Bay was present—this gave me a chance to chat briefly about drugs and government. At other times only the young people have ready access to the H.A.D. "Storefront". It appears that Hicksville has been touched by the drug problem that has struck communities across the nation. It is hoped that this approach will alleviate some of the pain caused by this plague.

The next visit was to the Hicksville Fire House. Since it was just around the corner it was easy to get there. Our "smoke eaters" continue to provide dedicated and efficient service.

Nassau County Police Officer Visits "Holy Family School". Patrolman Frank Cerreto of the "Accident Prevention Bureau" explained the "Role of a Police Officer" to the 3rd Grade on Wednesday, 25th.

With his "Show and Tell" Program he explains the use of his equipment. The children were very interested in the "Oxygen Tank", walkie-talkie, and radio. "Do all Police cars receive the same calls?" "How far does the radio message go?" "How does the helicopter help the policeman?" was the questions asked to the patrolman.

Patrolman Cerreto's lecture was just one of a series of lectures which are given to the pupils of the Holy Family School.

Our Fire Department apparatus is most impressive but most vivid is the memory of kids, kids, kids everywhere.

It was a day marked by the first real chill of winter so I went out to the open house celebrations with a touch of reluctance. However, once I got to the various destinations the warmth of the people and the services and ideals behind each made the small sacrifice worth it.

Obituary

Bertha M. Goldgrabe (nee Wulbern), of Hicksville, on December 7, formerly of Charlottesville, and Staten Island.
Beloved wife of the late Frederick Goldgrabe. Dearest mother of Mrs. Helen Hutchinson, of Hicksville. Loving grandmother of William Hutchinson, June Cormier, Barbara Doran, Margaret Root and Helen Herrmann. Also survived by 13 great-grandchildren.
Interment Morvian Cemetery,
Staten Island.

Former Board Member Passes

At the December 7th meeting of the Board of Education,
President Simon Ghitelman announced with regret, the passing of Mr. Charles Wilson.
Mr. Wilson was a member of the Plainview-Old Bethpage Board of Education from September 1964 until June 1967. He was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Fiodten, and served until he moved from Plainview.
He was a resident of Plainview for twelve years, when he was offered a promotion to become the District Manager of the Chicago area of Union Carbide.

Holy Family School Board Meeting

"State Guides on Drug Education" were discussed and reviewed at the most recent School Board Meeting which was held in the cafeteria of the Holy Family School.

The audience also viewed a film showing the effects of various drugs on the nervous system. Mr.
Thomas E. Maloney the President of the Holy Family Board of Education, led a discussion regarding reaction to the film.

It was also announced that Outdoor Basketball
Equipment was donated

In 1969, he was appointed
Regional Sales Manager.
A mass was offered in St. Pius X Catholic Church and was followed by burial in Calvary Cemetery, Brooklyn. He is survived by his wife and three children

by an anonymous friend of Holy Family Grammar School.

The next School Board Meeting will take place in the school cafeteria on December 10 at 8:30 p.m.

The School Principal,
Sister Eileen McMahon, wishes to inform all parents of pupils attending
Holy Family Grammar
School, that PARENT-
TEACHER Interview
Week has been changed.
The new date is December
14 to December 18.

Beth Elohim To Hold Meeting

Sisterhood of Temple Beth Elohim will hold its next meeting Tuesday Dec. 15th 8:30 P.M. at the Temple 920 Round Swamp Road, Old Bethpage. The feature of the evening will be the C.W.
Foot Players in a comedy "The Marriage Proposal" by Anton Chekov.

LIBRARY NOTES

In building a home reference library, almanacs can occupy a significant role. There are at least four most popular American Almanacs: INFORMATION PLEASE ALMANAC, ATLAS AND YEARBOOK, published since 1947. This almanac contains miscellaneous information, with a general class arrangement and a subject index. Includes special timely articles on the year's developments in certain fields; reviews of the year in books, sports, theater, fiction, screen, music, etc. written by specialists, statistical, historical and political descriptions, population, religion of the nations of the world; sports records; and many kinds of general information. Sources for many of these tables and special articles are noted. Place of birth and dates of the celebrated persons are given but no other biographical information. WORLD ALMANAC AND BOOK OF FACTS, published since 1888. This is the most comprehensive and most frequently used of the American almanacs of miscellaneous information. Contains statistics on social, industrial, political, financial, religious education and other subjects; political organizations; societies, historical lists of famous events, etc. Well up to date and reliable. INFORMATION PLEASE ALMANAC is more legible than THE WORLD ALMANAC and easier to consult. READER'S DIGEST ALMANAC AND INFORMATION YEARBOOK is published by Reader's Digest

Election Of Officers

James Trimble, president of the Edward J. Giannelli Hicksville Regular Democratic Club announces that further nominations and election of officers for the coming year for the club followed by a gala holiday party for all members and interested persons will take place on Thursday evening, December 17 at 8:30 P.M. at the Hicksville Knights of Columbus Hall, Heitz Place, Hicksville. Those attending are asked to bring a small gift so that Mr. Santa Claus, who reportedly changed his registration from a "Blank" to a "Democrat" and who will be in attendance at the meeting, will not miss anyone.

Association. This title is packed full of 75,000 facts; figures, names, dates and other vital statistics, a travel and vacation guide, a review of the events of the preceding year, a summary of major new legislation, useful information on admission to colleges, and a record of space achievements, and many other miscellaneous but useful information. There are twenty broad topics of coverage including, for example, home and family, income tax, first aid.

Licarpentier- Maurer

Mrs. Lorinne Licarpentier of Hicksville has the pleasure of announcing the marriage of her daughter, Nanette Marie, to Robert Charles Maurer, also of Hicksville. The ceremony took place on November 14 at 12 noon at St. Stephens Lutheran Church, followed by a reception at the Golden Meadowbrook, Jericho. The maid of honor was Miss Susan Hackmack, the bridesmaids were Miss Joanne Gangolewski and Miss Carol Maurer. The best man was Mr. Mark Abranowitz, the ushers were Michael Fetchkow and Kevin Dwyer.

The brides gown was made of white lace over crepe with lace sleeves and a chapel length train. The bridal party wore gowns of royal blue velvet and light blue crepe. All the attire of the bride and her attendants were designed and made by Miss Licarpentier. After a honeymoon in Nassau, Bahamas, the newweds will reside in Hicksville. Plainview High School News

By Andy Kagan and Jeff Grinspan

As a part of the free school program, students from Freeport High School came to Plainview High School for a discussion and rap session last week. The free school program allows students to choose a topic such as drugs, black-white relations, and other pertinent topics, and to have a seminar on them with visiting guests. We recently had a Black Panther visit us.

At recent Open House sessions opportunities have been presented to take karate lessons from Ken E. Lee, a licensed black-belt karate expert. One can be taught the basic art of self-defense in a few easy lessons. The program is very worth while and if you can, come down and take a lesson.

The Plainview High School Twirlers took 2nd place in a regional contest last week. Pamela Romatnick and Joni Kesner placed 4th in the duet. Joni also won first prize in the solo competition.

Opportunities for ski trips in January are now available. For more information, contact Mr. Michael Carlos or Central Administration Recreation Office.

This past week Plainview High was visited by an extremely interesting guest, Mr. M. Kenner, a member of the Black Panther Defense League. He was invited to discuss the Panther problems with students and teachers. This took place during and after school. Students attended on a voluntary basis. His coming is part of a sociology program designed to enable students to hear different views on everyday topics along with those of fiery controversy. Both sides are usually presented; in the case of Mr. Kenner, a more important question arises, however. Whom does one believe? This, of course, depends on one's own opinions and conscience. However, by hearing many points of view, one can begin to draw conclusions through facts, logic and rational rather than emotions.

The Pep Rally or It's That Time of Year Again. Each year we roll around to that very special time of year close to our hearts, commonly called the basketball season. And, as always, there is the pep-rally at which time the days classes are shortened five or six minutes to allow for an extra thirty to forty-five minutes at the end of the day. This is when the cheerleaders get to cheer their cheers, exhibiting their long hours of practice with

ORT Meeting

If it is December, it must be time for Plainview ORT's monthly meeting. Come and join them on December 15th at 8:30 p.m. at the Plainview Jewish Center on Floral Drive.

This meeting will feature a Bazaarette and a film, "The Making of a Man." The Bazaarette will enable the membership to purchase items for the holidays as well as for personal use.

lots of screaming, clapping and stamping. Of course the band also gets into the action. The band plays, the cheerleaders cheer, the twirlers twirl and the kids pay very little attention to everything, if they pay any attention at all. Just the same, everyone cheers while everyone is talking while everything is going on. Is it worth it? Does it really help the team? "Team!! Team!! They're our men. If they can't do it, nobody can!! FOR THE RESIDENTS AT BIRCHWOOD PARK AT JERICHO

Organizational, community and general interest news should be submitted typewritten or printed, double-spaced, in duplicate. Either drop off or mail to Editor, 13 Millpond Street, Jericho. Deadline for insertion - Monday noon. Telephone WE 9-1985.

Student Standpoint

By Danny Abuhoff

It is generally acknowledged that the youth of today is somewhat "different" than most generations of the past. Whether the trait is considered admirable or ungrateful, there is a recognizable scorn and dislike of the establishment and a general restlessness and discontentment unparalleled in the history of this country. While there has been a conflict of value systems between generations in the past it is the mistrust generated from the marriage of two opposing fronts in the newest life-style that makes this situation particularly ponderous.

One of the favorite phrases of the decade is "do your own thing." (No cliché is as particularly disturbing as a new one). Similar pet phrases, as "it's your bag" etc., add up to one ideal; individual freedom. Young people want the option of pursuing their own goals and interests without external interference. Conversely, this leads to a counter statement, "it's not my bag", where the forced pursuit of items the individual considers unworthy or unpalatable is condemned. The leading offender in this category is, of course, the draft, a major source of vocal discontent. In any case, in this line of thinking, the individual is considered paramount. Ideally his life would be individually motivated and unhindered.

The other major attitude of the day is summed up by another overworked, overused phrase, "love." It is echoed in "peace" and "brotherhood" and implies a deep concern for fellow beings. These phrases define not only a camaraderie promoted by a respectful indifference towards other people, but expand to actual involvement with others to promote their general welfare (be it on the spiritual, intellectual, or emotional level). They do not involve the mere respect of individual freedoms, but the assisting of others to overcome their problems. Such an attitude is most clearly manifested in communal living and encounter groups.

It is obvious that these two feelings are in opposition to each other; one upholds the definition of freedom and individual pursuit restricted only by the condition of not harming others. The other stresses not the individual, but his role in society; a sort of transcendental outlook that enlists a person in another, larger being besides himself.

Separated, these two views pose no more problem than any conflicting ideas. However, together in an unholy synthesis they are a part of the frame of reference of many young people today. Distinguishable, they are harmless, but considered indistinctive and, thus, a new concept in the minds of an individual, they produce an effect worse than confusion. An outlook based on fragments of conflicting premises, individually admirable, but still incompatible, is falsely considered impenetrable and an incommunicability and intolerance with those indifferent to such an outlook is developed. Perhaps a compromise may be reached between the two emerging ideals. However, the real danger lies in those who see only the virtue of the separate principles and relate them on the notion they provoke, rather than the thought they imply.

Dockswell Sidelined By Business Pressure

This is a glum week for the bowling fraternity. Henry Dockswell announced that it is unlikely he will be able to continue his weekly column, "Ten Pin Talk," due to the increased pressure of business. While Henry is thus being forced to take what is now termed a "temporary hiatus" from his writing chores, the prospects are strong that he will eventually have to give up his column entirely.

From a modest beginning in The Villager on March 9, 1961, which consisted of three short paragraphs, Henry's column grew to be one of the mainstays of this paper. If he finally has to relinquish his bowling column, it will be sorely missed.

Henry, however, will continue as a member of the Editorial Staff of The Villager and, as such, will be available for diverse articles, from time to time.

TUESDAY NIGHT INTEREST GROUP - This picture was taken at a recent Tuesday evening joint session at the Jericho Senior High School. From a small initial group of six, "get-together" sessions have attracted more than seventy-five interested students, parents and teachers who have participated with Administrators and Board members in the Tuesday night informal meetings. Everyone is invited to attend these school-community action sessions.

Jericho Youth Council Becomes A Reality

The Jericho Youth Council has become a reality! At the December 2 meeting of this group, which is composed of adults and teen-agers representing various community organizations as well as interested individuals and students, a Constitution was adopted and a Nominating Committee and Projects Committee were formed.

Then came the surprise! Mr. Jerry Marcus, representing the Town of Oyster Bay, announced that in order to get the Youth Councils and their projects started, the Town decided not to wait for each Youth Council to raise money and then match it up to $2500 as originally planned. Instead, the Town will give each Council $2500 for the first year if a Project is submitted for approval by January 31, 1971. Needless to say, the Project Committee is hard at work and will bring in their report at the next meeting, scheduled for January 14, 1971.

If there are any organizations in Jericho who have not been contacted and would like to participate in the Jericho Youth Council, please send the name, address and telephone number of an adult and youth (13-21 years of age) delegate to: Mrs. Bernyce Shimborg, 143 Hazelwood Drive, Jericho, or call 938-1432.

Toy Drive Is Set For Saturday, Dec. 12th

The Jericho Junior High School is sponsoring a Holiday Toy Drive for needy children, with the cooperation of the Senior High School, the PTSA, Home Economic Department, the elementary schools, teachers and administrators.

Please collect any toys you wish to donate. Mark the bags or cartons "Toys." For your convenience, place your toy collections outside your garage. Do not place the toys on the curb or near refuse piles.

A truck will drive through each neighborhood on Saturday, December 12th, to collect all donations.

Following the Toy Drive on December 12th, high school students will repair and gift wrap the toys for presentation to less fortunate youngsters. Please help make these holidays brighter.

Jericho High Student Cited as Outstanding

David Nydick, Superintendent of Schools, announces that Miss Nancy Reale of Jericho High School has been cited as one of the outstanding high school students of English in the country. The National Council of Teachers of English has named her a 1970 national winner in its annual Achievement Awards competition.

Last spring a committee of English teachers from the high school nominated Miss Reale to NCSS convention in New York over the Thanksgiving holiday.

The two teachers, who collaborated in writing a book on African history which was published last year, have just completed a biography of Zambia President Kenneth Kaunda, which has been forwarded to the publisher. Their first book was prominently displayed at the NCSS Convention.

represent Jericho High School in the competition. The school was allotted one entry from the junior class for every 500 students in the total school enrollment, according to Raymond Matienzo, the English department chairman.

After nomination each student submitted samples of his best writing, including an autobiographical sketch; completed two standardized examinations on general English knowledge and skills and on literary awareness; and wrote a one-hour impromptu essay. These materials were evaluated and scored by state judging teams of highly qualified college and high school teachers directed by state chairmen.

The nation's schools participating nominated almost 8,000 juniors for the NCTE citation. Of that number, only 372 finalists were chosen. They represent over 600 schools from 50 states, the District of Columbia, and American preparatory schools abroad.

The NCTE sends to all winners and runners-up scrolls of recognition and honors their high school English department with certificates of merit, reports Paul McKee, Principal.

Raymond Matienzo, Charles Vigilante, and Howard Damon have been Nancy's English instructors at Jericho Senior High School. Miss Reale's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Reale of 219 Halsey Avenue.

Reminder to BCA Officials

All Birchwood Civic Association Officers and Directors are requested to be at the Town & Country Diner by 8:45 P.M. for the regular monthly meeting scheduled for Tuesday, December 15th. If unable to attend, please notify President Don Becker beforehand (681-3069), or contact any other fellow officer.

SPORTS

By

Howard J. Finnegan

All the hazards of inexperience descended on Hicksville in the second half, Monday night, as the Orange and Black blew a 24-point lead and bowed to Plainview, 59-58.

The non-league game was played in the hosts unventilated hot box before a sell out crowd.

With Paul Parsons, Mark Weinreb and Joe Moller leading the way Hicksville fashioned a 46-22 lead in the third period. It was a stunning, unexpected bolt by the young Hicksville team and victory apparently was within easy grasp.

Then it unraveled. Plainview went into a strong press. Over dribbling, bad passes and panic all engulfed the Comets. At the end of three periods it was Hicksville with a 47-39 tottering advantage.

The fatal blow came with 4:32 remaining. Brian Pinelli was adjudged blocking on a crude call and was lost for the rest of the contest.

Plainview caught Hicksville with 1:39 left despite the coolness of Parsons in firing in five straight free throws.

Plainview's Vinny Avesano netted the tie breaker and a foul to place the Gulls up 59-56 with 59 seconds left. Weinreb sunk a goal and Hicksville stole the ball three times more in the wild remaining seconds but immediately dribbled in to a trap or passed the ball away.

The Plainview stands erupted at the final gun. The fans celebrated the first varsity victory of new coach James Amen. He took over for the veteran mentor John Simmons on the strength of a 29-unbeaten Junior High school record.

Simmons, who coached many a fine Plainview team, has come up with the varsity coaching job at Seaford High on the South Shore. In the opening game Hicksville's Junior Varsity won over Plainview 53-35.

Coach Bud Bryan has a difficult task in getting his team together after the Plainview landslide. It was not expected to be an easy season for him anyhow with a young team. The book indicated he would have to have more miracles up his sleeve than he did in recording 12-6 and 13-5 records during the past two years.

However the club is young and has a long future and that will help the Comets forget Monday night.

The return of senior guard Rich Berg should assure them a lot. Rich has been out with mononucleosis and is just getting back in shape. With him in the lineup Hicksville is improved one hundred per cent.

Hicksville plays at East Meadow this Friday night at 8:00 p.m. and opens at home for the first time Tuesday in an afternoon (4:00) p.m. against Great Neck South.

Our Selections
Hicksville 61 East Meadow 57
Hicksville 48 Great Neck So. 45

In the varsity game against

Plainview Mark Weinreb lead the Comets with 15 points and Brian Pinelli and Paul Parsons each had 14 in the balanced 18-minute attack.

The Herald has learned that due to drastic enrollment shifts Port Washington, an old bitter enemy of the Orange, will move up to Section One with Hicksville replacing Clark of South Westbury who will drop to Section Two. The announcement will be made next week.

Hicksville St. Ignatius fans got a big thrill out of the Telecast of the Notre Dame - South Carolina basketball game Sunday night.

Tom Riker of Hicksville who started his basketball at St. Ignatius played a dominant role in the clash between the major basketball powers in the Country. He scored 26 points for second ranked South Carolina in the important 85 - 82 victory over the Irish.

Riker played his high school basketball at St. Dominic's in Oyster Bay.

At St. Ignatius

Open House At St. Ignatius

St. Ignatius School will have Open House the week of December 14. Parents may come in and observe classes from 9:30 A.M. to 12:00 Noon. Dismissal for all children for Open House week will be at 1:00 P.M. At 1:30 P.M. to 3:30 P.M., teachers will hold personal interviews with the parents.

On December 16th, at 8:30 P.M. in the School auditorium, the 5th through 8th grades will present a Christmas Song-Fest, under the direction of Mr. Robert Jones, music co-ordinator of St. Ignatius School.

On December 23, the fifth grades and the eighth grades will present Christmas plays in the school auditorium for all the children of the school. School will be dismissed on that day at 1:00 P.M. for the Christmas Holidays.

Hail "The Generals" Of St. Ignatius

As said of the greats of old, we came, we played, we conquered. The St. Ignatius Generals (5th and 6th grade soccer team) have completed a most successful season - winning both the Nassau and Diocesan Championships.

To say who scored the most goals is not fair, for they played as a team, the boys that were there and showed our Diocese without any mistake - "The Generals" are alive and St. Ignatius Soccer Teams awake.

During this soccer season our forwards scored a total of 51 goals. The speed and straight passing of right wing Ray Cesare, the untiring Mike Garger, the ever dangerous Ray Dalton, the sure-footed hard working Kevin Anglin, together with the ball handling accuracy of our deft left-footed Bob Murphy dazed and often stunned the opposing backs, as our boys moved in time after time to dent the opponents' nets.

Our backs, with their great spirit and fielding kept the opponents forwards at bay, allowed but one penalty goal all season. The enormous task could only have been accomplished by the great fielding of center half-back Bobby Cochrane, the long ball kicking of left-footed Chris Hotchless and our two invincible fullbacks Paul Rupp and Charlie Wayne, whose line the opposing forwards seldom crossed. To these boys we must add the hard-working, ever-ready Ed Stenborg, Dave Elfring, Ricky Cochrane, Sean Moore and Jeff Salinger.

Now, for the loneliest boy on the team, but by far the best in his position, which he proved on occasions with his beautiful blocking of almost certain goals, sparking the team to victory. There is no other like our great goalie, cool-headed and calm Timmy Cusack.

Girls Volley Ball 3 Soccer Titles

St. Ignatius CYO owns four more championship trophies, thanks to the intermediate girls volleyball team and the boys' soccer program.

In their first year of competition, the girls rose to great heights to bring home the Nassau County Championship. This was accomplished by a lot of hard work and practice by both the girls and their coaches: - DIDI Deacy and Dottie Barone - Nancy Fischer, Elizabeth Voorhies, Mary Noonan, Margaret Sisco, Pattie Macchia, Maureen Wheeler, Sheila McHugh, Lynn Fordham and Valerie Crosby.

The first year of intramural volleyball was also a great success. It consisted of four high-spirited and determined teams. The first-place team, the Smackers, with a record of 7-1, was coached by Mrs. Mary Schmitt and Mrs. Pat McGovern. Mrs. Zditowsky coached the second place team, the American Blues, who fought to the bitter end with a record of 6-2. The Lemons, coached by Mrs. Connie Robertazzi, gave it their all and pulled in third. The most enthusiastic team, the Frettes, was coached by Mrs. Maureen Brady. Thanks also to the hard-working coaches and faithful officials and scorers, Mrs. Buys, Mrs. Curley, Mrs. Bishop and Miss Eileen Knight. Without them, where would we be?

Appollos Win Title

The St. Ignatius Appollos (7th and 8th grades) won the Nassau title with an 8-0 record and then beat the undefeated Suffolk champs, Saint Cyril and Methodius, in one of the most exciting and well played games of the season.

Scoring first for St. Ignatius was "Charlie Hustle", otherwise known as Mike Robilatto, who proved that by constant endeavour whatever you strive for will be achieved. He was ably supported by Frank Noble and a boy who proves that "size" is only secondary, Phil Gramaglia, who played an outstanding game. Also shining on the forward line were Tommie Denien, Richard Rogers, John Harkins and Jimmy Abern. St. Cyril's tied the game with ten minutes to go in the second period. In the last 5 minutes Robilatto was going through to score but was taken down, which resulted in a penalty. With tension mounting, Duke Daly stepped up and drove the ball in the back of the net to put St. Ignatius ahead 2-1. Outstanding defensive work by Joey Gallant, Aulia Geynis, Andy Garger, Kevin Barcavage, Tommie Covell, Steve Vanille and in goal Richie Fremgen kept the lead intact.

Coach Pete Collins' Appollos were inspired to victory by four squads of cheerleaders and the presence of many parents and Sister Alphonsus Louise.

another young live wire in the post.

Notice to all Vets. Go to the Oyster Bay building 15 Broadway to apply for tax exemptions.

A resolution will be introduced at the next national V. F. W. convention, that should interest all young vets. Whether it will be passed or not, is another story. It has to do with the Federal government subsidizing some of the interest rates and the cost of housing. This should be a big thing if it ever gets to the houses of legislators.

The ski party is progressing very well. Its not too far off now. The last weekend in Jan. Harry Wurth is pleased at its progress. There's room for more, as if you're interested, get in touch with Harry.

Remember Bob McGovern, he's the packages to Vietnam chairman. He's looking for names.

Sorry to get on a soap box concerning voice of democracy. Just rubbed the wrong way.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Kudless of Brooks Street, Hicksville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Suzanne Elizabeth, to George Henry Davis, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George Henry Davis, Sr., of Franklin, New Hampshire.

Suzanne is a graduate of Hicksville High School and the University of New Hampshire. Mr. Davis graduated from Franklin High School, served in the Submarine Service, and is presently in the employ of Webster Valve in Franklin.

A March wedding is planned.

Midgets Win Their Second Straight

In soccer, St. Ignatius Midgets (3rd and 4th grades) won their second straight Diocesan Championship with nine wins, no losses and no ties. From September 1969 to date they have won 16 games in a row and have yet to be scored upon.

Watching these aggressive, unselfish boys doing an excellent job of passing to one another is a sight indeed. Brian Davis, the goalie, seldom had a chance to show his talents.

Player positions are as follows: Steve Solaski, left wing; Jack Jablonski and Dennis Sarcavage, alternating at the inside left position; Don Anglin and Mike Collins, switching center forward and inside right positions; Mike Humphreys and Bill Dalton, working the right wing. The halfback line was a sight to behold, with Pete Collins and John Rupp sharing the honors at center halfback - assisted by Alex Sakk, left half back; Tom Worth and Kevin Sweezer on the right. As for fullbacks Tom Anastasia and John Robertazzi, the very few balls that John missed Tom stopped, and vice-versa. An all-around boy, Paul Weidenhafer played many positions - on the line, at halfback position and also at goal.

Coach Tony Camara believes that if this team stays together 4 or 5 years there will be no stopping them.

groups. Expression of many ideas was voiced during the session.

Refreshments were served throughout the day, and we really thank the women who donated their time by baking those delicious cakes. Professional photographers, such as Hicksville's own Pierre Charbonnet and a man from the Long Island Press were there to take pictures. We thank them for their interest in HAD.

Everyone who came to the Storefront Open House seemed to leave with the satisfaction of knowing about the people and programs of HAD. This was the purpose of the Open House, and we're glad that it went over so well.
