Health Education Curriculum

At the next Community Council meeting—January 7—Dr. Joseph Madden, Health Education Department Chairman for the Hicksville Schools, will present a program on Health Education.

He will explain the state requirements and what we are currently teaching in the schools. Dr. Madden will also explain some of the curriculum that is being planned for the 1971-72 school year.

We will all have an opportunity to ask questions about the Health Education curriculum in our schools.

There will also be a portion of the meeting for the members to discuss anything they feel should be brought to the Council's attention.

Don't forget—Thursday, January 7 at 8:15 p.m. in the Library.

Applications Being Accepted For Burke's Intern Program

Town Supervisor John W. Burke announced today that applications are being accepted for the Supervisor's Intern Program which was begun by Burke last year in an effort to involve young people in government.

"Last year we were overwhelmed by the response from young men and women interested in a chance to participate in the local government structure," Burke said.

"We were so delighted with the success of the initial program that we plan to increase the number of interns from six to eight for 1971."

The Supervisor cited the program as providing a valuable training ground for the community leaders of the future as well as enabling the Town to take advantage of untapped "brain power."

Besides seminars with Town officials, the interns involved in last year's program participated in research projects, such as the analysis of ordinances, demographic and ecological surveys, cataloging of historical properties and the development of consumer protection proposals.

Burke said he is once again seeking the recommendation of highly-qualified students in a letter he is circulating to community leaders throughout the Town. The Supervisor added, however, that the program is open to all who qualify and fulfill the necessary requirements which include a minimum age of 17 and a minimum of one year of college.

Those selected for appointment will be paid at a rate of $100 a week for 10 weeks beginning in June and will be assigned to departments and agencies based on their particular interests and the ability of the governmental department to utilize them. Financial aid for the Intern Program will be received from the Federal Work - Study Program.

Jeffrey Kaplan of Massapequa, one of the six students who participated in 1969, termed last year's Intern Program a success for both the Town and students.

"The experience of seeing and being a part of a governmental process is a form of education that can never be duplicated or equaled," Kaplan stated in a report on the program.

Joel Bahar of Bayville put it this way: "The Supervisor's Internship Program was and is a very good step in the direction of utilizing a virtually untapped natural resource—(youth). Educated, informed young people are plentiful throughout the country, yet their energy, their imagination, their youthful exuberance is disregarded or channeled into unskilled meaningless jobs. An intern program implies that there is a seriousness on the part of the Town to genuinely create a dialogue between youth and government officials."

Burke said that he expected an even greater response than was received last year, and, therefore, was seeking the early return of applications. Applications can be obtained by writing to the Supervisor, Oyster Bay Town Hall, Audrey Avenue, Oyster Bay, New York, 11771.

Marino Exposes Real Estate Fraud Legislation

State Senator Ralph J. Marino, the Chairman of the Ad Hoc Committee to Investigate Mortgage Frauds and Tax Lien Sales, has prefled legislation designed to require individuals engaged in the purchase of real estate as a business to be licensed by the Secretary of State as dealers. Under current law, real estate brokers acting for others must be licensed although those acting for their own account need not be licensed. The bill was also prefled in the Assembly by Assemblyman William Burns.

Marino said that the legislation was prompted by mortgage frauds uncovered by the committee whereby a small band of unscrupulous individuals have deprived homeowners of their homes through questionable dealings. In introducing the legislation, Marino explained the activities of some real estate speculators. "When a homeowner falls in arrears in his home mortgage payments and the bank begins foreclosure procedures, a notice of foreclosure sale is published in a local newspaper as a legal advertisement. Some real estate operators watch these advertisements and visit the homeowner offering to pay off the mortgage if the homeowner gives the speculator a deed to the property. The real estate operator tells the homeowner that he can buy the property back when he gets his affairs straightened out and, in the interim, he may live in the house and pay rent. When it comes time to buy the property back, the real estate operators have either transferred the property to another corporation to indicate that the property is tied up in litigation."

The legislation prefled by Marino would require the registration of real estate dealers who engage in over 3 speculative deals per year. The Secretary of State would be authorized to regulate real estate dealers and revoke the registrations of those who fail to comply with the standards set by the Secretary of State.

Marino has announced that the committee is studying the enforcement of tax liens and will introduce legislation to curb abuses in this area in the near future.

Stephan Morris, a 1967 graduate of Hicksville High School, has been awarded a completely funded 5 year scholarship towards his M. D. and Ph. D. degrees.

Stephan, who is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, (having completed his undergraduate work in 3 years) returned recently from Israel, where he spent 8 months at the Weizman Research Institute in Rehovot working in the field of Microbiology. His government grant allowed him a choice of medical schools and he has chosen to begin his studies at the Albert Einstein School of Medicine July 1, 1971. Until then he will be working on a research project of his own at the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia, where he also hopes to have a teaching fellowship.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Morris of 65 Fox Place, Hicksville. His mother is an elementary guidance counselor for the Hicksville Public School system.

On The Campus

Selected to be honored for the "Honors Entrance" distinction at the Freshman Investiture Ceremony held at the Albertus Magnus College was Kim E. Caggiano, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Caggiano, of 2 Lehigh Lane, HICKSVILLE.

William M. Gause, Jr. Post No. 3211

By Lou Palladino

Nine more new members became part of our Post at the last meeting. Carl Dean, Tom Postel, Phil Schieferstein, Fred Adams, Mel Greinstad, Dan Rysanek, John Wolkiewicz and a father and son combination, Leonard J. Pretty, Sr. and Jr. All are Vietnam Vets except Senior, who is a WW 2 boy. We are proud to have these men, all of them, as part of us. Hope they are pleased to be with us, and take an interest in our community affairs. Congratulations, fellas, welcome aboard. Sounds odd, an old dogface using that expression. Oh well, such is the VFW. Incidentally, while on the subject of members, Ed Chwalicz mentioned a few members haven't paid their dues yet. Please Comrades, send your dues in to Ed so he can complete his books. Ed says "thank you". Another snag in our building plans. This is getting aggravating. Now the builder can't seem to get a bond for the building. This is something that I can't understand. Always thought a reliable and reputable builder had no problems with these things. To build without one would be downright foolish. Seem to remember another organization in Hicksville that tried, and was left holding the bag. The only solution is to do it slow but sure. Getting impatient and disappointed but still have to go according to the book.

Jim Sotille made his report on Voice of Democracy, but we won't say anything about that, as enough was already said.

New York State's total revenue for a 1,386-day racing season in 1970 was $172,021,252 — $9 million more than the State collected in taxes from racing at three flat tracks and eight harness tracks in 1969 — it was announced by Acting State Tax Commissioner Norman Gallman.

For the 1,392-day racing season in 1969, the State's revenue receipts from all racing sources was $163 million.

The racing season ended in New York State with the close of flat track racing at Aqueduct on December 7, and the harness season at Roosevelt Raceway on December 15.

The state's revenue receipts from all racing sources for 1970 totalled $172,021,252 of which $167,271,134 was in pari-mutuel taxes, including breakage;

We now have a new Post Surgeon. He's Caesar Colosouno. He must be great and know a lot about medicine....What with a wife and six kids he'd better....or it would cost him a small fortune in doctor bills alone! (Ha-Ha)

Comrade Jim Delaney came to our last meeting to show how this new machine works. We have a beautiful machine for turning out letters at a rapid pace, and didn't know how to use it. Now maybe those letters will go out without any problems. It's almost like buying a new car and not knowing how to drive.

Ed Chwalicz, chairman of our journal committee asks, please, all those who have journal applications and wish to send them in, please do so. He will be very happy to accommodate you. And besides, we can use the money. Thank you.

Understand the Youth Council in Hicksville is progressing. The biggest hang-up is the bi-laws. This is a must, and without bi-laws they can't get off the ground. This is a determined group and they will get it done.

If you see jackets around town with a big VFW emblem, you will be seeing some of our members proudly showing off our organization. They look very nice and quite colorful. Quite a few boys have them, and more seem to be getting them. Didn't somebody say, "It pays to advertise?"

The lucky winner of our drawing was Lou Klein. He claims its the first time since he helped organize it for our Post. It started when Lou was Commander. That's a long time ago, Lou. I don't believe its his first win, do you?

Hope to be seeing you at the next meeting.

Consumer Right To Know Credit Denial Reasons

New York State consumers were reminded this week by Governor Rockefeller of a new state law that became effective on November 1, the first such legislative protection in the Nation, which safeguards them from erroneous or unfair credit ratings.

The new statute was approved by the 1970 Legislature at the Governor's request and regulations to implement it were adopted by the State Banking Board on December 9.

"Anyone who has ever been denied credit on the basis of a derogatory credit report, and then been frustrated in trying to learn the nature of that report, will welcome the new law and regulations," the Governor said. "I am anxious," he added, "that as many people as possible know about this measure and their rights in order to make this new law fully effective."

Known as the Credit Date Reporting Act, the law was sponsored by Senator John Caemmerer of Mineola, whose Subcommittee on the Right of Privacy has held statewide hearing on credit reporting practices. Under it, for the first time, a person who has been denied credit will be able to find out if the denial was based on a credit report, and to correct any inaccuracies in that report.

The Governor said the act represented the first legislative attempt in the Nation to regulate credit reporting practices and served as a model for similar Federal legislation recently enacted. The Federal Law, known as the Fair Credit Reporting Act, becomes effective in April, 1971.

Senior Citizens Reminder

The Hicksville Board of Education resolved that U.F.S.D. No. 17 would grant exemption from taxation on residential real property owned and occupied by school district residents of age sixty-five (65) or over.

This is an implementation of Section 467 of the Real Property Tax Law as amended by Chapter 291 of the Laws of 1970. The amendment brings 2 significant changes to the Law: 1- The present income limitation for applicants is now set at $5,000; 2- When property is jointly owned by a husband and wife, only one of the owners must be 65 years or over.

Eligible residents must file applications for the exemption by January 1. Contact: Department of Assessment, County of Nassau; 240 Old Country Road; Mineola, N. Y. 11501.

ANOTHER REMINDER: Some time ago, the Hicksville School Board extended Senior Citizen privileges to the residents of Hicksville 65 years of age or over, entitling them to attend, without charge, all Public School concerts, plays, and athletic contests open to the public. For further information contact Mrs. Mary C. Blust, District Clerk, Administration Building, WE 5-9000, Ext. 253.

9. Traffic Signals Modernized

County Executive Eugene H. Nickerson has approved plans and specifications prepared by the Department of Public Works for the modernization of traffic signals at nine key intersections and installation of a new signal at another location.

The engineering estimate for the project is $400,000.

If approved by the Board of Supervisors, work is expected to begin next spring and be completed within 12 months.

The new traffic signal is at Willis Avenue and Pembroke Street - Winthrop Street in Williston Park.

Latest electronic control equipment will be utilized in the modernized signals to allow cross-street traffic to enter the arterial flow.

The main arteries will be stopped only when necessary by detection devices which electronically inform the control equipment that either a pedestrian wishes to cross or a vehicle is waiting to enter the artery.

Artery traffic will be stopped and street movement allowed by the control movement when arterial flow will be least affected.

Five existing signals in Williston Park will be modernized. They are on Willis Avenue at Lafayette Street - Meagher Place, Center Street - Dartmouth Street, Goodrich Street - Fordham Street, William Street - Lehigh Street, and Charles Street - Syracuse Street.

In addition, signals will be modernized on Old Country Road at Post Avenue in Westbury and at South Oyster Bay Road in Plainview.

Signals will also be rebuilt at Hicksville-Woodbury Road and South Oyster Bay Road in Plainview and at the intersection of Franklin Avenue, Hempstead Avenue, and Hendrickson Avenue in North Lynbrook.

PBC Gives Okay For New Omnibus Route

The Public Service Commission granted temporary authority to Stage Coach Lines, Inc., for operation of a new omnibus route between Hicksville, Mid-Island Plaza, South Farmingdale and Nassau County Medical Center at Plainview.

The new service is being subsidized to a maximum of $85 a day by Nassau County. Subtracted from that daily payment will be an amount equal to passenger fares received.

If the carrier wants permanent authority for the new route, it must apply for it later.

Stage Coach Lines holds permanent authority for operation of a route between Babylon and Hempstead and temporary authority for service between Hempstead, Levittown and Oyster Bay.

Question: Did you spend more or less for holiday presents this year than last year?

MRS. WARREN L. HITTELMAN, 188 Birch Lane, Plainview: "Since holiday presents to me are not Christmas presents, I don't spend that much anyway. I don't buy for so many people, so it is about the same."

MRS. HUGH HOADE, JR., 77 Morton Blvd., Plainview: "Less—much less. Frankly, with unemployment going up, I'm just afraid to spend."

LETTER

To The Editor

Dear Editor:

If you're the type who doesn't give a damn about your community, then don't waste any time reading this letter. In contains information concerning an organization called Hicksville Against Drugs (HAD).

HAD is a community group whose main objective is preventing drug abuse rather than treating it. It has two main programs in progress.

Storefront—which is located at 75 Broadway, in the middle of the town, has recently opened. The hours are on Saturdays from 12 Noon till 5 P.M. Rap sessions are being held on Monday nights. Adults may come by appointment. The phone number is WE-LOV-LU.

Adult Education Program—this is being set up so that the adults of Hicksville can learn how drugs are being abused and what to do if a drug problem should arise in their homes.

HAD could mean the promise of a future drug-free community. But we need financial help and must depend on you in the community to help us. Since it is your community, we are asking that you help us by sending in any kind of contribution possible. Your decision will determine the future of HAD. Please make checks payable to H.A.D. Inc. and send to our Treasurer, Jack Jablonowski, 4 Beech Street, Hicksville, N.Y. 11801.

Thank you for your generosity and don't hesitate to call us for further information.

Ramblin' Rose

By Rosemary Walsh

I do hope this gets to you... "The Joyous Day", we're not sure. However, you can be sure I wish you all the very, very merriest - but most of all - please - Good Lord - let this be the year of Peace - so that all our loved ones can return and perhaps put this world back on its feet. There seems to be so much turmoil everywhere, but life must go on and 'tis the season to be jolly.

At our house I've not even made it through the Christmas cards so let this be mine (just in case I never make it). Thanks to my college returnees and their friends the tree is up and looks lovely. Gifts - well we've not gotten to that quite (this year there'll be a lot less I can tell you).

Now let me tell you of the Holiday Spirit around town. Here in our Administration Building the Annual Mini Concerts are given Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday from 11:40 to 11:55 to be heard by all staff, some are able to be present for a few minutes at a time, but it is piped throughout for all to enjoy. They include the Junior High Brass

Police Shooting League Matches

Winter competitive shooting league matches for Nassau County Police Department teams have started at the department's indoor range.

The matches were instituted in 1965 with 15, four-man teams. This year, 28 teams will compete on every Monday and Tuesday evening until the matches are completed June 30, 1971.

Teams representing the eight precincts and five headquarters units will compete on one of the most modern ranges in the United States. It's six firing points are controlled electrically from a central console. Each of the firing points is equipped with a powerful spotting scope and built in bench.

There is no limit to the number of personnel who can be listed as competitors on each team, but on the night of the matches only four shooters will represent their command.

Bethpage, gaining speed with every minute in the second half, routed Hicksville's varisty, 78-60, in a nonleague brushing.

The EAGLES overtook Hicksville 31-29 in the fourth minute of the second period and was on an extension course from there out.

Close to 300 Hicksville fans watched in the Bethpage gym as the orange suffered its third loss in four outings.

Bethpage was unstoppable from far out. Prime example was Ken Austin who hit an all ten of his shots from the floor.

While Hicksville was doing a commendable job containing the reputed Bethpage scorers Austin's perfect shooting destroyed the Comets.

Both on attack and on defense Brian Pinelli appeared the only Comet willing to make a complete fight of it.

He registered 16 points on six goals and four fouls. Joe Anello came up with 15 points and Rich Berg had ten.

All efforts could not stem a 40-33 halftime and 64-47 three quarter advantage for the winners. Next Tuesday afternoon at Hicksville the Comets must face powerful Uniondale. The game will be played in the afternoon at 4:00 p.m.

An errant pass with seven seconds remaining had stark results for the Hicksville Junior Varsity against Bethpage.

The hosts took the gift under the Hicksville nets and knocked home the winning basket in a 56-55 rip roarer.

It was Hicksville's first loss of the campaign and it was a bitter one.

Hicksville had plowed back from a 46-33 deficit.

George Gromaglia paced the rally with five spinning shots from underneath. He wound up with 14 points and 12 rebounds. Robert Goldmacher had 12 points, Paul Lindloom 9, Jim Schumacher 8, Bob Bischoff, 7, John Ebbecke 3 and Rich Doolittle 2.

Caso Named Dinner Head

Harold Jay Greenberg, president of United Cerebral Palsy Association of Nassau County, has announced acceptance by Nassau County Executiveslect

Ralph G. Caso as general chairman of the Feb. 20, 1971 testimonial dinner for Patrick J. Clifford, board chairman and executive officer of Security National Bank. Caso, a long-time friend of Clifford, is chairman of the voluntary health agency's board of directors.

Although the event to be held at the Garden City Hotel already has fostered a V.I.P. guest list, accommodations still are available by telephoning FR 8-2000.

Choir, the Hicksville High Madrigal Singers, and the Recreation Recorder Consort, they are all so talented and it's enjoyed by all. Speaking of the last two groups they gave a concert at the Library on Sunday to a "standing room only crowd." Each year these groups become so professional I am prouder than a peacock as you all should.

Now away from the arts and over to our Holiday Basketball Tournament — remember it starts at 9:30 A.M. Monday, December 28 when Woodland vs Dutch, 10:20 East vs Old Country, 11:10 Willet vs Burns, and at Noon Fork vs Lee — from these winners the first game on Tuesday will be at 10 A.M. when the winner of first game meets the winner of the second and at 10:50 A.M. the winners of game 3 and 4 square off; on Wednesday at 10 A.M. is the final — obviously the two remaining victors. These elementary players are such a delight you should if you are free stop down and watch them (bring the youngsters, it'll keep them happy too).

Well, I must just must rainble off — please have a Happy Loves ya!

CSD 2 (SYOSSET) School Board Report

by Joan Davidson

The School Board of CSD No. 2 held its regular meeting on December 14th at South Woods Junior H.S. After a public hearing, the trustees voted unanimously to extend the school tax exemption to individuals who are 65 years old or over and who have an income of less than $5000. The sale of Public Library Bonds was authorized for Tuesday, December 29th at 2 p.m. at the Administration Offices.

Mrs. Alice Willett formerly presented to the district a plaque donated in the honor of Mr. Samuel Glazer, a school board member who retired last year. The plaque, a gift from the family of Jules Diamond and the Class of 1960, lists all Board members who have served since centralization.

Responding to an invitation by the School Board, students from the high school presented their reactions to the Board of Education's stated philosophy of education. Comments were made by representatives of various high school organizations, as well as by many individual students, regarding aspirations, problems and concerns. A recurrent theme in the presentation was the desire for more individual and independent study and for increased involvement in curriculum and policy making. Students commended the new substitute program and decried the lack of space and overcrowding at the high school. Students advocated a change in the marking system, increased humanities courses, and the initiation of independent study program in the elementary school. The late hour allowed only a brief response by each of the board members. Further dialogue between the groups was suggested.

The next regular School Board meeting will be held on January 11th at South Woods Junior H.S.

Permanent Charter For Jericho Library

The Board of Trustees of Jericho Public Library has received the permanent charter for the library. Since the library opened its doors in February 1966, it has been functioning under the usual provisional charter granted by the Regents of New York State. In order to receive a permanent charter, the library had to meet certain specific standards in its operation, services, and collections. The Regents reviewed the library's application for a permanent charter, its resources, hours of service, special programs, and the collections now available for circulation. As a result of its review and communications with the Library Development Division of the State Education Department, the Board of Regents granted the Jericho Public Library its permanent charter during its summer meeting of 1970.

Senior Citizens Tax Exemptions

The Jericho Board of Education has resolved to implement Section 467 of the Real Property Tax Law as amended to grant partial tax exemption on residential real property owned and occupied by school district residents of age sixty-five (65) or over.

There are two significant changes to the Law, as follows:

1. The present income limitation for applicants is now set at $5000;
2. When property is owned jointly by a husband and wife, only one of the spouse owners must be 65 years of age or over.

Residents who qualify for the above exemption who have not previously applied should contact:

Department of Assessment
 County of Nassau
 240 Old Country Road
 Mineola, New York 11501

Application must be filed with the Department of Assessment on or before January 1. Those residents who have previously applied will be contacted by the Department of Assessment for renewals.

Holiday Greetings From Villager Staff

As another Holiday Season is now upon us, we extend to each of you our warmest greetings and best wishes to a Happy Chanukah, Merry Christmas and a Joyous New Year.

This festive season is filled with promise; it is a joyful, eager time for children. For grownups, it is a special time of gratitude, compassion and faith and we are inspired by a vision of hope, brotherhood and universal peace.

We pray the coming New Year will truly result in peace on earth. Also, it is our sincerest hope that, for each and every one of you, this will be a cheerful Holiday Season and the New Year will be filled with health and happiness.

Don't Forget Dog Licenses

Town Clerk William B. O'Keefe today issued a reminder to town residents owning dogs, to purchase a license prior to January 1, 1971.

He said, "with the approach of the holiday season many of us are pre-occupied with thoughts of shopping and tend to forget to return the dog license applications forwarded to all dog owners."

The license applications may not be obtained in person at the office of the Town Clerk, Town Hall, Audrey Avenue, Oyster Bay or at the Town Hall annex at 45 Broadway, Hicksville. Avoid the last-minute-rush by visiting either office or mail in the application with a check payable to the Town Clerk. Required fees are $2.35 for males and spayed females and $5.35 for unsplayed females.

Certification of spaying by a veterinarian or an affidavit of spaying by the owner must be presented with spayed-female applications unless such certificate or affidavits are already on file in the Town Clerk's office.

Jericho Teenagers In Holiday Concert

Four teenagers from Jericho - Alan Bunin (Viola), Jessica Pincus (Violin), Anne Roggen (Violin) and Jill Srota (Violin) are members of this area's most unusual musical organization, the Long Island Holiday Festival Orchestra, which will present its second concert on Saturday evening, January 2nd at Mineola High School at 8:30 P.M. The orchestra, composed primarily of alumni of the Long Island Youth Orchestra, will be conducted by Martin Dreiwitz of Sea Cliff, founder and director of both organizations. The Holiday Festival Orchestra is unique in that it meets just once a year, during the Christmas vacation, when most of its members are home from colleges, conservatories and professional engagements.

This year's program will include Berlioz' "Roman Carnival Overture", the Rimsky-Korsakov symphonic fantasia, "Scheherazade", and the Mendelssohn violin Concerto in E minor. Soloist in the Mendelssohn work will be the famed American violinist Erick Friedman. All proceeds from this gala concert will go toward the support of the Long Island Youth Orchestra's forthcoming European tour next June.

Information about tickets, at $3.50 for adults and $1.50 for students, can be had by calling 863-2242.

"It's COOK'S NIGHT OUT, (that's me)" said Mrs. George Welland, of Plainview, seen here being greeted by Martin Reich, owner of the Skyliner Diner, Syosset, during the family's Sunday evening dinner on December 13. Son Roger smiles over his dinner. Mr. Reich is a Director of the Nassau-Suffolk Dinner-Restaurant Owners Association, whose members, the Association says, provide a "haven from inflation" for families dining out. Also seated at the large table, and off camera, were Mrs. Welland's husband, son George, Jr., and her father.

AT THE PARTY: Mr. Weldon Endorf, principal of Trinity Lutheran School, Hicksville, and Mrs. Margaret Phileas, director of Trinity's Nursery School, look on as Santa Claus surprises the Nursery children with a visit at their annual Christmas Party. Each year the Nursery P.T.A. of Trinity Lutheran School, 40 West Nicolai Street, Hicksville, holds a Christmas Party for the children who attend the Nursery School on a Saturday prior to Christmas. The 3 and 4 year olds play games, sing some carols, and watch a puppet show. The highlight of the party is when Santa Claus makes a surprise visit and after talking with each child, gives him a special gift.

New Year's Resolve

"Resolved, that I will know the warning signs of heart attack, and act immediately to get medical assistance if I should experience these symptoms."

This New Year's resolution was proposed today for adoption by residents of Nassau. It was offered by the Nassau Heart Association, which explained that the first four hours following the onset of heart attack symptoms are the most critical hours in the stricken person's life.

The Association pointed out that symptoms vary but these are the usual warnings of heart attack:

You may feel a prolonged, oppressive pain or unusual discomfort located in the center of your chest, just behind the breastbone.

The pain may radiate to the shoulder, arm, neck or jaw.

The pain or discomfort is often accompanied by sweating.

Nausea, vomiting and shortness of breath may also occur.

These symptoms may subside and then return.

"Instant awareness of what may be happening, and immediate medical assistance, may well represent the difference between life and death insofar as the patient is concerned," said the Association.

It was emphasized that the person with a suspected heart attack should call his doctor immediately - or, preferably, have someone do it for him.

The Association continued: "If for any reason you can't reach your doctor, do not delay but get by the speediest means to the emergency room of the nearest hospital to get medical care at the earliest possible moment. Get there by the fastest method and with minimal physical exertion."

The urgency of speed, said the Heart Association, is dictated by the fact that many heart attack deaths result from electrical irregularities of the heart. These are most likely to occur shortly after the onset of symptoms. In many cases, the irregularities can be corrected in hospitals by new electronic devices, new drugs and other techniques.

The Heart Association has estimated that an additional 50,000 lives could be saved if all hospitalized heart attack victims could receive specialized coronary care service.

JOHN M. RING of 39 Mac Arthur Avenue, Plainview, and a member of our Lady of Mercy Parish, has been appointed a Vice President of the Williamsburgh Savings Bank according to an announcement from Joseph A. Kaber, President of the bank.

Mr. Ring, who attended Fordham University will graduate from the Graduate School of Banking at Brown University in 1971. He has also been selected to manage the new Wall Street Office of the bank, which will open in the spring of 1971.

Speno Files Bus Safety Program

A bill to have New York State design a prototype safety omnibus was part of a package of bills on bus safety filed by Senator Edward J. Speno. Senator Speno, who is the author of the law which led to the feasibility study of the safety automobile now being built under contract with the Federal Government said, "The recent tragic accident at Allentown should tell us that some work must be done on the bus. There is no question that the safety record of bus transportation is a good one. I believe that it can be better and I propose to use the same systems approach on buses that is being used in the production of the safety car."

In addition to the Prototype Safety Bus Bill, Senator Speno's package of legislation contains nine other bills that deal with safety of the bus as a vehicle and safety through driver regulations.

"Preliminary investigations of the Allentown bus accident," Senator Speno said, "indicate that the tires did not have sufficient tread to enable them to stop and that some fatalities were caused by the fact that the emergency windows popped out. These bills would require that (2) the minimum allowable tread depth on buses be double that of passenger cars. Additionally, since the law permits the use of re-cut tires on buses, I would require that the (3) tread surface of the re-cut tires restore at least 80 percent of the original tread surface. These two regulations would give the bus additional safety."

"I have required in a third bill," Senator Speno continued, "that a (4) positive latch be placed on all emergency windows on buses. The purpose of the emergency window is to give easy exit from the bus. It is not intended to give the passenger an opening from which he can be thrown, however. A positive latch would prevent that at very little cost in money but significant increases in safety."

Senator Speno's legislation would require (5) an annual physical examination by doctors approved by the Department of Transportation and (6) fingerprinting of all bus drivers. He would (7) establish a bureau to maintain a bank of information about bus drivers. "I can not prejudice the Allentown case," Senator Speno said, "but the indications are that the credentials of the driver of the bus had not been adequately inspected. Under the law that I propose, he would not have been permitted to drive a bus. I am not seeking to condemn bus drivers. I recognize them as an honorable group of men and women who perform a most important function in a competent manner. I believe that they and the public are better protected when reasonable rules are established about who shall be permitted to perform this job."

There are three other bills in Senator Speno's bus safety package. One would (8) require that buses keep their headlights lighted at all times to make them more visible; another (9) would establish a board of investigation in the State Department of Transportation to investigate accidents such as the one in Allentown if they occur in New York State. The last (10) would establish inspection teams that would visit popular charter bus points and make unannounced inspections to make certain that buses are safe.

Total amount bet at both flat and harness tracks in 1970 was $1,623,152,434 compared with $1,539,369,709 last year.

The flat track betting this year was $779,441,381 during 360 days of racing compared with $728,852,345 during the 359 days in 1969.

The pari-mutuel tax at the New York City flat tracks is 10 per cent of the handle plus 80 per cent of the breakage and 9 per cent plus 75 per cent of the breakage at Saratoga. The tax at the Finger Lakes track is based on a graduated scale somewhat similar to that for harness tracks.

At harness tracks, the pari-mutuel tax rate from July 1, 1970, was 5 per cent of the first $250,000 of daily pool; 7½ per cent on the next $50,000; and 8½ per cent, 10½ per cent, 11½ per cent, 11½ per cent, 12 per cent, 12½ per cent on each additional $100,000 and 12½ per cent of all daily pools above $1,000,000 plus 50 per cent of the breakage.

Total breakage paid to the State for 1970 was $10,584,916 compared with $10,672,454 for 1969.

In 1970, the State's share of flat track breakage was $6,695,646. In 1969, it was $6,737,775. The State's share of harness track breakage in 1970 was $3,889,269; in 1969 it was $3,934,679.

Breakage kept by all tracks amounted to $5,610,360 in 1970 and $5,667,015 in 1969.

Mr. Gallman said $1,944,636 of the breakage received by tracks was paid into the Agriculture and New York State Horse Breeding Development Fund by the harness racing associations in 1970. The Fund's purpose is to promote the improvement of agriculture generally in New York State and, more specifically, to promote the breeding of standard-bred horses in the State.

During 31 years of legalized racing in New York State, cumulative total bets have now reached $24,959,221,578. During that time the State has collected $2,308,959,421. This does not include license and franchise fees collected by racing commissions.

This being the season of joyous occasions and festive affairs, and with so many home parties in the offing and all the invited guests in attendance, be sure the un-invited guest - FIRE - is not on your list.

After long hours of entertaining, our usual safe practices are sometimes forgotten. Such simple things as making certain all smoldering cigarettes, cigars or pipes are snuffed out and not emptying ashes into paper containers are ignored. If you use decorations make sure they are not flammable.

For those of you who have a fireplace, be certain that all traces of fire are out upon returning for the night. These are but a few of the simple rules we probably obey under normal circumstances, but after long hours of celebration caution is lost along the way.

Chief Voorhies, the officers and men of the Hicksville Fire Department hopes everyone will have a rousing good time during the Christmas - New Years holidays. We extend to you, our good wishes for a joyous holiday season and a prosperous, fire safe new year. We thank you for your support during the past year.

Narcotics Addiction And Abuse Problem

Calling it the toughest and most important assignment in the new administration, Nassau County Executive-elect Ralph G. Caso gave the job of combating the county's narcotics addiction and abuse problem to Clyde R. Collins.

Collins, 46, has been narcotics education coordinator in Hempstead Town for the past 18 months. He will assume the post of executive director of the Nassau Drug Abuse and Addiction Commission.

"There is no two ways about it, we have to focus on this drug epidemic, especially among our young people, and lick it before it licks us," Caso declared.

"I have instructed Collins with his first order of business will be to evaluate all county drug programs in relation to other programs offered in the towns, villages, cities and communities. I want costly duplication eliminated. I want a coordinated attack on this drug problem."

Caso added that the county's programs will be directed in three areas... "treatment, rehabilitation and education."

"I picked an education-orientated man like Collins because I want more emphasis placed on the educational aspects of drug control," he explained. "We have to make youngsters aware of the dangers of drugs before they are tempted to experiment. Education must start in the lower grades of elementary school."

Collins, a certified health teacher, has a bachelor of science degree from North Carolina Central University. Prior to his job as education coordinator in Hempstead Town, he was a senior narcotics education representative for the State Narcotic Addiction Control Commission and director of the Bronx education center.

Collins lives in Elmont with his wife, Nellie, a registered nurse. He has two sons, Geoffrey, 13, in junior high school and Clyde Jr., 20, a junior at Norfolk State College, Norfolk, Va. The executive director's salary is $31,900.

Social Security Question Box

Ques: I get social security retirement checks. My wife is almost 62 and will be applying for benefits on my social security record. Will this mean that my check will be less?

Ans: No. The amount of your benefit check will remain the same. Your wife's benefit will be paid in addition to the payment you get.

White House Conference On Handicapped

State Assemblyman Martin Ginsberg called upon President Nixon to establish a White House Conference on the Handicapped and Disabled. In a letter to the President, Ginsberg noted that many handicapped and disabled people have been affected by the modern transitions beginning to take place in the start of the '70's. "...now is the time for the heads of government to re-assess the direction and role of the handicapped and disabled in the new age."

Ginsberg explained that numerous White House Conferences have been established in many areas including: Food and Nutrition (1969), Drug Abuse (1970), Youth and Children (1970-71), the Aging (1971), and Education (1971). White House Conferences are generally held every ten years for each area.

"There are over forty million people in the United States who suffer from some form of mental or physical disability. That is one-fifth of the population in our nation. A constituency or special interest group of this size deserves consideration for a White House Conference to point up to the priorities and needs the handicapped have," Ginsberg stated.
