OATH OF OFFICE: Oyster Bay Town Councilman Edmund A. Ocker, center, who has been sworn in a few times himself, looks on while Oyster Bay Town Councilman Warren M. Doolittle takes the oath of office from District Court Judge Francis J. Donovan during recent ceremonies at Oyster Bay Town Hall, Doolittle, who was named last February to fill a vacancy on the Town Board created by the death of Councilman A. Carl Grunewald, won election in November to complete the final year of Grunewald's four-year term of office.

Council To Meet February 4th

Our program at the Thursday February 4, Council Meeting will be presented by Gardiner Gregory. He will have some slides showing the progress of the Museum, soon to be situated in the Heitz Place Courthouse.

Members of The Gregory Museum Board of Directors will also be present to report on their activities. Caleb Hornbostel, architect for the museum, will show some of the building plans. John Strong, chairman of the building committee, will add to Mr. Hornbostel's report. Plans for the upcoming fund drive will be presented by Peter Fallon. There will be information on the Museum's historical section from Richard Evers. Chairmen Kenneth Barnes and Nancy Pahlman will give us some highlights on the Grounds and Publicity committees, respectively.

Dale Chadwick, newly-appointed curator of the Museum, will be introduced to Hicksville that night.

See you at the February 4 meeting!

MISSION ACCOMPLISHED: Mrs. Margot Lipiez receives her certificate after becoming a United States citizen. Mr. Sklarz makes the presentation. It was in Mr. Sklarz' adult education classes in Americanization and English for the Foreign Born that Mrs. Lipiez received help in order to succeed in obtaining her naturalization papers. The D.A.R. recently honored the volunteer "helping teachers" in this field for the splendid work they are accomplishing. (photo by Jeff Littman).

Dual Use Station Wanted on Broadway

In a lengthy (2½ - hour) presentation before the Oyster Bay Town Board on Tuesday, Owen B. McBride, of the firm of Gehrig, Ritter, Coffey, McHale and McBride, presented the petition of Mobil Oil Corporation for a special permit use to remodel an existing gas station on Broadway, and make it into a combination gasoline dispensary and car wash, at a capital expense of about $180,000.

The property in question, now zoned G, is presently accessible both from Broadway and Bethpage road, and is situated 151 feet south of the junction of the two. Mobil proposes to close the Bethpage Road side and have cars entering and exiting on Broadway.

Paul Ferguson, of Atlanta, Ga., Manager of Technical Services of California Car Wash, speaking in behalf of the petitioner, said the system is completely automated, with a washing capacity of 120 cars per hour. The property can take up to 50 cars waiting to be washed, he said. It would be a total reclaim system, re - using the water and using approved detergents.

The premise behind the operation, which would provide only gasoline, and would not provide oil, window washes, brake fluid, etc., is that through warranty systems, diagnostic centers, etc., the mechanical operation of the gas station is not as lucrative as in former years. The car wash makes up for the loss, Mr. McBride said.

Stuart Horn, a Mobil Engineer, said this was an experimental system, with only ten such stations under consideration or construction across the country. The station would be strictly company owned, operated and maintained, he said.

He said the price of the car wash would differ depending upon the amount of gas purchased, perhaps with a free car wash for a fill-up. Otherwise, car wash price might be $1.29, Mr. Horn said.

Some question and discussion arose as to how it let out cars which only want gas and no carwash. A removable barrier onto the adjacent property of the bowling alley was mentioned, using an easement, the width of which was not determined, granted to Mobil.

The traffic flow pattern came under question by the Town Board, which requested Mobil to send a definite and up - to - date pattern to the Town Board after the hearing.

Speaking in opposition was Albert Lemishow, an employee at the car wash in the Mid - Island Shopping Plaza, who said that if the Town Board granted this petition, it would be opening a Pandora's Box, ecologically and every other way.

He said The Board had been listening to "inconsistencies, distortions and assumptions," and charged that the petitioners were unfamiliar with the car wash business. He added that the nearby Texaco station was preparing a petition to install a car wash.

"It would be a nightmare, he said. He pointed out that car washes are unable to get liability insurance, and that there was danger of fire and accidents in a car wash. He also projected that all the gas stations along Broadway would be submitting petitions for car wash operations. His associate, Irving Goldberg, spoke from the audience to back him up.

At the end of the hearing, the Town Board reserved decision.

1969 to $799.58 in 1970. O'Keefe, who initially urged the sale of Lottery Tickets by the Town, said that "the increased lottery sales were primarily due to the new $3.00 type ticket on sale at the office of the Town Clerk."

Long Island's Sirena - International Art Lady

Few people have one name by which they are known. Sirena of East Meadow is one of these, and she is a one name commuter between her art galleries in Long Island and Rome. Sirena is the acknowledged inventor of marbelized painting, which combines layers of oil and tinctures of gold.

With an international look and penetrating, introspective eyes, the statuesque artist, has received the plaudits of qualified international juries from all over the world leading to exhibitions of her art forms in 20 museums throughout the world reflecting in her recognition the personality of her art. The basic values and innovative art forms reflect themselves in the product of the combination that is the artist, Sirena, whose fantasy inspires an art that arouses the sensual quality of introspection.

Sirena's art form, while without the finality of the master's designation, depict a classicism that is indiguitous to the gifted and acknowledged by the knowledgeable.

The warm tones of her work have been enumerated by the finest European jurists as a descendency from the school of the post impressionists. Her blending of colors of many layers of oil and pure gold is the definition of her marbelization. The chromatic ensemble that is the result is original and pleasing - but more than that it is a new form in an age of old artistry. The poetry and vigor of her work stamps it without a signature as that of only Sirena. In this art form vision represents feelings.

Sirena, was born in New York

New learning breeds new scholars. That's what they say. But the parents stay old. Somehow someone must come up with an adjustment.

My engineering background prepared me for non-utilitarian basis for newspaper writing. I worked the slide rule. I studied integral and differential calculus. I went through organic chemistry. I passed quantitative analysis. It was years after this, however, when I looked in my son's math book to help him.

'Dad', he said, 'I can't seem to get the problems in math. Can you help me?'

To an engineer he asks such a question? 'I had my problems learning arithmetic too, son', said I, 'Let me see your books. All you have to do is apply yourself'.

He took out his math homework for the night and said, 'You work these out and show me how you did them'.

I oiled the old slide rule and brushed up on my hogarithmic tables. I even took out the valence charts just in case the variable ever became impression.

The grade was 10 and the subject geometry. I took that at Lawrence, I figured. I snow him with my footwork.

'Dad', he said, 'we stress the formal structures and integrate them with arithmetic and numerical trigonometry and as a basis use the postulate definitions'.

Who teaches the course? I asked, 'Werner Von Braun?'

'No', he said, 'our regular teacher who stresses the position of the point in that it has no size and becomes a line when in a continuum. As you know, lines have only length - no thickness - no width'.

'Oh', I said, 'let's begin'. I took out a pencil and paper. 'How do you spell geometry?' I asked.

'Actually', he answered, 'it's not only geometry with which I need help. Also algebraic symbolism is stumping me just a bit. For instance, in a 190 degree angle - which is obtuse - does the diameter of the theoretical circle circumvent the circumference - or is it just part of the whole?'

It was getting dark. Inside, not out! I said as I brushed off the paper, 'let's begin. Now what do you really need help with?'

'I guess it's late, Dad', he said, 'and I'd like to play a little ball before we run out of light. Thanks a lot, though'. He started for the door.

I stopped him as he opened it. 'Son', said I, 'I could use a little help writing a story this week. When do you think you'll have some time?'

Ramblin' Rose

By Rosemary Walsh

I guess you thought I had disappeared, but actually I've been right here all along. Just coincidental events—two weeks ago our dear Edition was pressed for space—and decided to hold it for last week. Then last week as luck would have it—it was misplaced at the plant—but that's show biz—(no I mean that's the publishing business) and bless 'em it's rough.

Meantime, life goes on and I must repeat a wee bit of news from the unpublished column (some of course is old hat and no longer cogent).

First some very happy news—on New Year's Eve, our Recreation Director, Dr. Madden if you will, became Gaudpa Madden. His daughter, Theresa Best, gave birth to a 6 pound boy, Rory. (My oh my how Irish can we get.) Unfortunately, on the same day my Dad (an ex-Hicksville, now living in Florida) was taken quite ill, but the Lord has been good and last night's reports sound heartening.

I had also reported on The Elementary Boys Basketball Tournament which was finally won by East Street. (But Howie covered that so will have no need for repetition.) However, we must offer congratulations to John McGovern, 'twas his lucky season, Grandpa, Founder's Day Guest of Honor, and last, but we hope not least, winning Principal, at last.

Mr. Lovette reports that our Mathletes have once again won their Division Match with Marc Drier (Capt), Ira Smilowitz and Stephen Goldberg being the high scorers.

The Hicksville Hockey North Stars are improving rapidly, improving a few wins over the holiday season and are now bidding for a playoff spot. Their next opponent is St. Dominics. Jimmy Alexander, Dale Hamilton, Phil Kraus, Bill Alonge, Mike Fowler, Erik Anderson and Kevin Sweet are sparking the new team.

Sunday was a day that called for real loyalty (being the old "Sports Nut" that I am). However, it was with pride and pleasure that I listened to our own Hicksville Community Chorus perform (with a small segment of the Community Orchestra). They were magnificent! They did "America" by Randall Thompson, a most unusual piece, and the always moving Gloria, which was dedicated to Ruth Lagueux. She passed away on Friday. Ruth has been a music teacher at Dutch Lane and a perennial member of the orchestra since its inception. In spite of the "Super Bowl" the turn out was very, very good. (P.S. I got to see the last quarter once the program had ended.)

Some of our High Students are working on interesting projects. During this last week Mr. Nicholas Muratore's Social Studies classes were interviewing Administrators, Supervisors, Principals, and other members of the school family. Mr. Martin Cohen's Ecology Club has prepared a most startling display on pollution in the front window of the high school. Stop by and take a look—let me know your reaction, cause I'm coming out to get them. You shall hear more about both these programs in full releases very soon. Must ramble—

HERALD REPORT SCHOOL DISTRICT 17 HICKSVILLE

By Shirley Smith

Hicksville School Administration is investigating prices on long-range building plans. Dr. Frederick Hill, Assistant Superintendent, reported that the district has been contacting firms to study our capital investment program. Dr. Felix McCormick had previously been consulted on this matter and the Board of Education directed that additional people be interviewed before making any decision.

Superintendent Donald Abt listed some of the items that Administration is studying before a proposed budget for 1971-72 will be presented to the School Board:

1. Whether or not there should be a reduction in staff due to declining enrollment; and if so, what reductions
2. A study of the current budget to see if there is any recurring expense
3. How and if program and policy changes will affect the budget

Pre-budget discussions—primarily on procedures of setting up a school budget—will be held with the employee liaison committee. Dr. Hill will meet with this group (representative of all employee groups and the

Plainview H.S. Band Will Be Selling Candy

Members of the Plainview High School Band ensemble will be selling candy within a few days in the community in order to raise money which is needed for an exchange concert, which will take place in the Spring.

The sale of the candy bars will take place beginning next week, January 25th, and the price will be $1.00 per bar. It will be sold only by members of the band and the ensemble which includes Twirlers and Flag Corps.

Since this is a worthy endeavor and a cultural experience can be gained by the Band, Plainview residents will encourage the students by buying the candy.

The sale is sponsored by the Band Parents Committee.

Bell-Rogers

Jessie Ann Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers and Sp. 4 Richard F. Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Bell both of Hicksville, were married Saturday, January 16 at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, officiated by Rev. Frederick Harrer of St. Ignatius Loyola Catholic Church and Rev. Dominic Cianella of Holy Trinity Church. Sp. 4 Bell recently returned from a tour of duty in Vietnam. The newlyweds are now on their way to Ft. Watchuka, Arizona, where he is now to be stationed.

THANK YOU very much for all the comforting thoughts expressed in your cards and phone calls, on the passing of my granddaughter last week. It makes these times, less difficult to go through, knowing all the kind thoughts and prayers of one's friends and neighbors, and we all thank you so much.

Sincerely,

Question: What kind of pet do you prefer in the home, and why?

MRS. JOHN MORRIS, JR., 17 Sunnyside Boulevard, Plainview: "Can I say 'none'? Really, I would say, if I were going to have any pet, a dog. No specific type."

MRS. J.B. MORRIS, 83 Duffy Avenue, Hicksville: "I guess a cat. It seems they are not as much trouble. They take care of themselves more or less."

MICHAEL GUARASCI, 116 Morton Boulevard, Plainview: "The only pet I have is my wife! We haven't had a pet for years. We're a little on the aged side and at this stage of the game we don't care for pets. They're a little too much trouble."

MRS. FERNANDO GUAQUETT, 68 Kramer, Hicksville: "I like dogs, but I don't have any animals now."

MICHAEL PAOLINO, 113 Broadway, Hicksville: "I prefer my wife for cuddling!"

MRS. IRVING GELB, 12 Ruth Road, Plainview: "None at all. They are too much work - like having another child."

LARRY GELB, 134 Fordham Road, Hicksville: "A cat. They are very easy to take care of, no bother, and they are more loving than any other animal."

MRS. PATRICK P. CROWE, 14 Glen Drive, Plainview: "I suppose the easiest one is a cat because it takes care of itself, and is quiet and clean."

GERALD SAUL, 14 Joyce Road, Plainview: "We have a dog. The kind he is is a difference of opinion. He's supposed to be a cocker spaniel mix. He's good with the children and he's a good watch dog."

MRS. WILL OANZA, 1 Roxbury Avenue, Plainview: "Well I do like kittens and mostly I am afraid of dogs. So is one of my daughters, so a dog is out."

HERBERT BERNSTEIN, 12 Garden Place, Jericho: "We prefer a dog. We have a Poodle - a Hungarian sheep dog. The temperament of this dog is very delightful."

EARLE DYKEMAN, 8 Hicksville Circle, Hicksville: "Not any right now. Not at our age."

MRS. ALBERT GEITNER, 19 Hunter, Hicksville: "Well, I don't have any. I really don't like pets in the home."

JOSEPH GELBER, 27 Ingram Drive, Hicksville: "Well, as far as I am concerned, I like a dog, but the rest of the family doesn't agree. I have a Great Dane."

TERRY GELBER, 14, 15 Sterling Place, Hicksville: "For me personally, I like a cat. Any kind of cat. A 'Cat-cat'."

MRS. JOSEPH J. CROWELL, 31 George Avenue, Hicksville: "None. They are pesty."

PRESENTATION: Oyster Bay Town Supervisor John W. Burke presents proclamation to Assemblyman Philip B. Healey, left, as Town Councilman Edmund A. Ocker looks on. Healey was tendered a farewell luncheon

Gregory Museum Thanks Mrs. Wicks

The Gregory Museum is proud to thank Mrs. Charles Wicks, Plainview, for her very generous donation of $250.00 for a wall cabinet for the new home of the Gregory Museum at the Heitz Place Court House. The display cabinet was donated by Mrs. Wicks in memory of her husband, the late Mr. Charles Wicks. A second wall cabinet has been also donated by Mr. Herb Johnsen, Hicksville. A wall plaque in the museum will bear the name of each person who so graciously donates a cabinet. For any donations under $250.00, there will be a Permanent Record Book kept at the Gregory Museum in which the donations and their origins (donor's names) will be entered. Much equipment, such as microscopes, etc. are needed.

Again, many thanks to Mrs. Wicks and to Mr. Herb Johnsen, a trustee of The Gregory Museum, for their generosity.

Speno Files Bills For Major Child Health Program

A legislative program entitled a "Child's Health Investment for Life Development" was filed by Senator Edward J. Speno. "Health care in later life", Senator Speno said, "can be stimulated by developing a respect for the importance of physical examination and testing early in the child's life."

"In a society which has found the means to control the ravages of tuberculosis, diabetes and polio, we must teach the need for early preventive examination so that our society can take advantage of the giant strides that have been made in health fields."

The bills provide that certain essential examinations be completed before a child begins school and again before he enters high school. Tests would cover tuberculosis, diabetes, evidence of fluoride treatment for teeth, tetanus inoculations or booster and urine analysis.

"The Critical Health Law attacking the problems of habituation to smoking, alcohol and drugs that we passed in 1967 is just now beginning to be implemented in grades 4 through 12 in our schools", Senator Speno said. "Even in the short period in which it has been in effect, we have seen its significant impact on these problems. According to many health educators, however, the initiation of this problem in the 4th grade is too late."

"If we are truly to meet the problems of smoking and drugs", said Speno, "we must develop health sensitivity in the child in the earliest ages. A belief in the dignity of his body, a concern for the life processes in the child are essential. An examination of the drug and smoking problems of our young people indicates that our families and schools have failed to convey the health message. If we are to save society, I believe that we must reach down to early childhood to get the message across - the first day he goes to school and continue that teaching until his last day of school."

The new Speno bill on critical health education mandates courses in smoking and drugs from kindergarten through high school.

Narcotics Arrests Doubled In 1970

Nassau Police Commissioner Louis J. Frank announced that narcotic arrests for 1970 almost doubled the figure for 1969. Total narcotic arrests during 1970 numbered 3,849 compared to 1,950 during 1969.

"But, more significant and of more concern," he added, "is the fact that arrests for the sale or possession of heroin have increased by eight-and-one-half percent."

Arrests involving heroin moved up from 19 percent of total narcotic arrests in 1969 to 27.5 percent in 1970.

"This is a tragic and dangerous development," Frank added, "and it points to the total community effort that must be made to halt this trend."

The average age of individuals arrested for drug violations last year was 20.53, but 142 of the total arrests in 1970 were juveniles (under 16) compared to 101 in 1969. The average age of those arrested in 1969 was 20.34.

Of the 3,849 arrested in 1970, 1,061 were heroin related, 1,736 were for marijuana, and the remainder were for all other drug violations.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mrs. Noeth,

In response to previous letters to the Editor on the subject of Garden Apartments, I would like to set forth my viewpoint. I have lived in Hicksville for 15 years. During that time, it has grown so, that we have no vacant land left to speak of. We are hemmed in by a network of four lane highways.

Let's be realistic. Isn't it about time we stop cramming more people into Hicksville? Our population is almost 60,000. Our residential streets are overcrowded with cars, our school attendance is at a peak. Most people moved out of the City to escape apartments and other tall buildings, and massive population.

The addition of apartments of any type will bring more people, autos, and pollution. Don't believe it? Take a good look in Hempstead Village. I work there. It's loaded with apartments. The sky at certain times of the day is black with soot. Hicksville doesn't need this. I am single and make a salary above average for my age. Neither I, nor my friends, could afford the rent that are charged for most of these apartments. I don't know of many Sr. Citizens who can afford it either. We don't have enough facilities for our present population. Adding more people is pure folly. Why not save what little open land we have for recreation? The kids in the South East portion of Hicksville have no park to play in. They gather at shopping centers in groups, and waste away their youth.

Zoning changes in the past did not benefit Hicksville, but did benefit land speculators. We have to face the hard fact that there is just no more room. Let's clean and preserve what we have. Our environment has been neglected long enough. Apartments are for cities - Leave them there.

It's The Best Buy In Town Why Girl Scout Cookies?

On January 23, Herald area Girl Scouts will be knocking at your door. They will be joining the 3 million Girl Scouts selling cookies this year. The Girl Scout cookie is a renowned product which is available in a wide variety, at a nominal price.

Mid-Island Council Girl Scouts sell a fantastic amount of cookies each year. The monies, a portion of which is allotted to the individual troops, is used exclusively by our Council to maintain and expand good programming and camping for all Scouts under our jurisdiction.

Girl Scouting today provides one of the best community vehicles for insuring a resourceful and knowledgeable citizen for tomorrow. Through badge work, the patrol system, and troop camping, Scouts learn and participate in a program which teaches skills, appreciation of nature, resourcefulness and the opportunity to be a participant in democratic government. The current emphasis on Ecology is nothing new, as conservation has long been a part of the Girl Scout program. Our Triennial Theme, "Awareness - Action" is an accurate reflection of today's youth involvement in fighting prejudice of all kinds.

Through your continued support of Girl Scouting by the purchase of cookies, you help make all the above possible in your community. The benefits accrued from the Cookie Selling Campaign are numerous. Scouts with the help of their parents, have fun selling cookies, and the community does its share by giving the girls a fine reception and buying TONS.

HICKSVILLE COMMUNITY COUNCIL

Minutes of January Meeting

At the meeting of the Board of Directors held prior to the Council meeting, membership in the Hicksville Community Council was stressed. The Council has a broad base—we do not represent just one area. If our views, problems and goals in any organization are not mentioned, then we cannot hope to get any action. Together we can realize and accomplish some of our goals.

Emil Immesberger, Vice-President of the Council, opened the regular meeting.

William Gaborow, who had the support of State Senator John D. Caemmerer, Assemblyman Joseph M. Reilly and Assemblyman Martin Ginsberg, in his crusade to make Flag Day a legal holiday, spoke briefly of the status of the bill in Albany. Mr. Gaborow stated that hopefully we may see a Flag Day holiday for New York State, to pay honor and tribute to our flag and to our country. This bill will come up before our legislature in Albany for a vote.

Dr. Joseph Madden's subject for this meeting covered the state requirements of Health Education in our Hicksville schools. This entire program at one time was covered in our school curriculum under the heading of Hygiene. We were taught how to brush our teeth and what vegetables and meats we should eat to build healthy bodies. We saw pictures on the wall and learned about our anatomy After World War II we stopped doing this. We taught health as part of our entire curriculum and thought everything was fine and dandy in Hicksville.

Other kinds of health problems developed—drugs, sex, venereal disease and alcohol. Senator Edward Speno and the late Michael Petito became concerned about these new kinds of health problems. Venereal disease we thought we had licked because of antibiotics. We have got to talk about health again in the schools. Dr. Madden said, and we can't go back to the methods used many years ago—we have got to do this in a different way. However, we must still be concerned about health and hygiene. A law was passed whereby the State of New York now insists that Health Education be a specific curriculum area.

What is happening in the hamlet of Hicksville on this subject? In our High School we have a magnificent teacher, Estelle Carter, as well as others. In the elementary schools we should have a curriculum so that the classroom teacher and the special teacher will concern themselves. The state of New York has set aside $65,000,000 to deal with the drug problem. Our district has applied for a portion of this money, which could provide a health coordinator, a person that can stand on both sides of the communications gap. This individual will work with and help the supervisor of the Health Education Department so that there is a tie-in. There does exist a communications gap between the teachers and the kids in many cases—so we have to get somebody that can communicate.

Communication is where the problem develops. On Tuesday, Jan. 12, the Board of Education will consider a proposal that sets up a committee of people from the community representing many organizations, churches, etc. to serve as a guide as to what Hicksville should do about particular health problems. (This committee was established at the Jan. 12 Board meeting. Representatives from Hicksville's medical profession, religious organizations, and Board member appointees will work together with the Administrative staff in setting up a family living curriculum for our schools.)

An interesting period followed: Question: Would you outline the different Health Strands that are being taught in the Health Education courses?

Answer: Physical Health and Nutrition. Sociological problems, Environmental and community health (public health, ecology). Education for survival (First Aid, safety).

About the communications gap problem, it was felt by some adults present that it is annoying and frustrating when our youth reach a point where they don't want to talk to us. Opinions of grownups are not always acceptable to the young people because we do all the lecturing. We haven't made the time or taken the opportunity to listen. Some felt when adults listen, they are doing a service. Moralizing right or wrong is not going to accomplish anything. When we think we are doing something for the kids, maybe we are not really accomplishing anything. Someone from the audience stated she knew of an instance where a teacher made his phone number available to any youngsters. Maybe other teachers would make their phone numbers available. Kids today don't feel that they have any roots in the home or the school; they need a place to go.

Answer: Part of the program recommended to the School Board is a student to student activity, one who feels he can communicate with Jr. High and elementary, who will go down and teach the kids. Besides the communication problem it appears that if you don't get the kids in the intermediate grades, it is too late. By the time you go to the Jr. High you experience and feel the "communications gap." We should reach the kids while they are in the elementary school where we can pass along this knowledge and establish their attitudes. You have to teach your children at home before they even enter school—even as young as age 3. TV can go either way in helping to establish your child's attitudes.

Why couldn't the school handle the drug problem as a medical rather than a police problem? There are laws which have to be enforced. The Juvenile Education Bureau could be contacted. A strong adult education course should be drawn up for the parents—maybe this would help the situation. There should be someone in the schools that you can trust and to whom you can talk. Problem of drugs should be treated as medical or personal problems. Society is cold; too many of the adults enjoy their TV and don't attempt to take the time to get through to the kids.

Tom Nagle, H.A.D. President, felt that HAD would like to have their night at the Community Council. If we think about it as parents, we don't give the young people a chance—third degree, etc. and they many times have to go to somebody else to tell them of their problems, or even that they had a good time. Their courses of study are harder and they are getting it from all angles. If we just listen, the trust and confidence will come.

John F. Kennedy High School News

By Mark Hurwich

Finding a teacher that works at a professional research center is rare, but even rarer is a teacher that takes his students with him. Dr. Philip Ferris, a teacher in his first year at John F. Kennedy High School, has been taking Stephanie Berger, Stephanie Goodwin, Richard Green, Douglas Gregger, Richard Lincer and Kenneth Rosenthal, top students in his advanced Biology class with him to Waldemar Medical Research Center to do original research in immunology. Presently, the students are investigating the effects that a certain virus has on retarding the growth of cancer. Besides the invaluable experience the program offers in learning research technique, all agree that it is a "lot of fun".

John F. Kennedy High School had its first Donkey Basketball game last Saturday (January 16th.) Yes, doubtful people, a basketball game played on Donkeys, provided by a company just for that purpose.

The students challenged the teachers and won 4-2, baskets for the students side scored by Ray Ralph, and for the teachers side by Ralph Dreyer. Both of these players played excellent defense, and Ralph's was unusual and very effective: he stood on his donkey and stopped teachers from scoring by doing chin-ups in the basket. He was left hanging, however, when Irving Pleat (Assistant Principal) lead Ralph's donkey out from beneath him.

Larry Fuchsberg (students) and Martin Vinokur (teacher) also made some good attempts at scoring, but were unsuccessful. When the game was over, most of the spectators readily agreed that the donkeys had been the most offensive.

We had our first meeting of the year, and would you believe it not one new member came. Getting accustomed to seeing someone nose. Seriously, we went through the meeting rather quickly, very little haggling.

Engine Co. #7 Elects

The members of Engine Co. No. 7 of the Hicksville Fire Department, elected the following officers to serve in 1971. Captain, William Biggs; 1st Lt. Owen W. Magee; 2nd Lt. Richard Rice; Sect. Arthur Piper; and Treasurer, Rudy Sibrava.

Engine Co. No. 7 is stationed at the Fire Headquarters on East Marie Street.

What do you know, we received a letter from the White House in our Nations Capitol, thanking us for our cable to the President, on our stand, for freeing the POW's in Vietnam. Didn't expect any acknowledgement from such a high source, but we got it.

Another surprise visit by a member was Mike Montelone, recently discharged from the hospital. Somebody was making a report on Mike, when he came walking in. Chick Nason's wife, Dot recently had a serious operation, but seems to be resting in the hospital. Word is she's doing well as can be expected which is pretty good. Another sad note is Florence Valentine passed away. This Aux. member is an old time resident in Hicksville. John Mathieson of County recently died. He was a good friend to all the posts in Nassau, and a great help to the wounded vets in the St. Albans Hospital. As a tribute to John we made a donation to the heart fund in his name and honor. Old John was quite a guy. He died with a stroke. Thus, the donation for the heart fund.

It seems that groups are soliciting funds in Hicksville without our permissions. VFW groups. The Curtiss publishing Co. We had denied them to do so.

If anyone comes to you for a journal ad, make sure he is from our post and for our journal. They have no right to be there. Ed Chwalisz, our own journal chairman is still available for ads. He, and his committee are the only VFW people allowed.

Our resolution for lower interest rates for Vietnam vet on housing is now on the county legislative program. How far it will go, we have no idea. We still need the politician to support it, to get it moving. Some groups think these are not forgotten men but so many things are not available to these youngsters that should be. So many things can be done. At least to give them as much as the WW 2 vet. These young men are fighting and dying for their country. How do we show our appreciation.

Another thank you letter from the org. of the blind. One that tries to give sight.

Report on New Year's Eve

LIBRARY NOTES

This time of the year is so draggy - the excitement of the holidays is past, the bills have been paid (we hope) it is too cold to go out much, besides the necessary shopping at church going, and family visiting - so what is there to do? Well we can always start planning our garden chores for the Spring. We can check out tools and supplies for lawn grooming, fertilizing the trees and shrubs, pruning, transplanting. We can come to the Library to read up on what we can do to improve whatever plantings we now have. The garden section is 580, 630 and 680 on our shelves.

If gardening isn't your thing, how about home improvements. Let's make that hall closet a little more roomy by adding some shelves, and a boot storage bin at the bottom of. Or how about more shelves in the kitchen for those extra cake tins we only use once or twice a year. Information on how to do these little jobs can be found in the "HOW-TO-DO-IT" section - 745.5 or the carpentry section - 690 - on the library shelves.

Well now that we have taken care of the garden and the inside of our closets, how about taking care of our insides? The cookbooks are 641 and there you will find Turkish, French, Italian, Jewish, bland, spicy, cookie, cake, herb and diet cookbooks. We can lose a little or gain a little, whichever it is that we are aiming at.

Or how about some refurbishing the wardrobe? From mini can we make midi? Look at the many woman's magazines in the periodical room for tips on what to do with what you have in your closet, and how to be back in fashion. There are also many books on sewing and tailoring in the 646 section on the shelves.

Then again we may just want to dream a little. There are thousands of fiction books to take us away from the winter scene and bring us to all kinds of fantasy lands, be they books of romance, mystery, science fiction, adventure or the deeply moving psychological novels that are too compelling to put down until finished. Our shelves are well stocked with both today's best sellers or yesterday's classics.

Whatever your thing is, the shelves of the Hicksville Public Library can supply you with the needed information or enlarge on your previous knowledge of the subject.

The library is the place to come to relieve you of the WINTER doldrums. See you at the Library?

American Legions Annual Oratorical Contest Winner

Alison Dick, a sophomore student and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Dick, won the American Legion's Annual Oratorical Contest at the Hicksville High School this past Monday. Speaking on the general theme of "Our Bill of Rights", Miss Dick and other young orators spoke in a Little Theatre crowded with students. Second place honors went to Larry Blauvelt while Richard Wane party. We lost money, but what a blast. The turnout wasn't as large as expected but everybody had a ball. There was so much to eat and drink, besides the tidbits. We always have a ball at our affairs. Try it sometime, and find out.

Luck of the Irish. Lucky Tom McCabe was the winner of the drawing. Incidentally, Tom should be in the hospital at this time getting a check. Seems his back is on the fritz.

Next meeting, January 25, hope to see you there.

finished third.

The Charles Wagner Post 421 sponsored the high school oratorical contest as it has for many years, awarding medals, brochures and United States Savings Bonds of $100, $50, and $25 to the first three placed speakers. Selecting the winner on the basis of the criteria of "poise and personality", "accuracy and effectiveness" and "the power to thrill, quicken and compel" were: Judges Dr. Manus Clancy, Hicksville's Supervisor of Social Studies; Dr. H. L. Wise, Supervisor of Language Arts and Mrs. Elsie Strong of the Language Arts Faculty. Representing the American Legion and making the presentation of awards was James Carter. The students were prepared in their oratory by Speech Coach, Joseph Crucilla.

This Friday evening at 8:15 the semi-final competition of the County American Legion Oratorical Contest will be held in Hicksville. Richard Evers, oratorical chairman, is extending a cordial invitation to the community to be present.

Gutter Ball Gossip

By Herb Mahler

The second half started this week and came roaring in like a piece of limp lox. I cannot recall such terrible scores since I started bowling and it was all due to the waxing of the alleys. The management acknowledged this with a rather rude remark but all the talk just couldn't make us bowl any better.

The one man that seemed to thrive on wax was Mill Hoffman who exploded for the only double of the evening, 215-232, for a 625 series to shut out Sid Simon's crew. Norman Ney made the 4-7-9-10 spill. Mr. Excitement himself!

Herb Brody, our goodwill Ambassador, sneaked in a 201 to lead his former cellar dwellers to a 8-3 victory over the F. Rothmans. The Sid Langs racked up the first half Champs, the Warrens 7-4, with Bernie Lieberman leading the way with a 233 in the last game for a 603 series.

Bernie Kaplan, who must like to see his name in print, rolled another good one, a 204, to help the Hy Shapiro's bury the Goldenbergs 8-3.

Lucky Lou Vlamem bounced a 201 in the last game for a loss but took the series from the absent Buddy Flanders 8-3.

Les Schuman turned from being a great golfer to a better bowler hitting for a 224 in the last game to get the Simes team winging to a 7-4 victory over Robby Goldsteins.

Lovable Lew Marks saw his ball trickle down the alley and to his surprise there was a 205 but the Murry Sussmans still won 7-4.

Not a great start for such accomplished bowlers but another week like this and we may merge with the afternoon's Women's League. The bottom teams won their series so the second half should produce a very close race.

Jericho Little League Begins Registration

The Jericho Little League and Pony League began registration of players this past Monday night and will continue to do so at the George A. Jackson School, Maytime Drive on the dates listed below:

Saturday, January 23d, 9 A.M. - 12 noon
Monday, January 25th, 7 P.M. - 9 P.M.

The league is open to all boys who either live in Jericho or attend Jericho Schools. They must reach the age of 8 years old by May 1st of this year and be under 13 years old before August 31st. Proof of age is required for new applicants.

A registration fee of $15.00 per boy must be paid which is non-refundable. Checks should be made payable to Jericho Athletic Association. Orders for Little League jackets, sweaters and gloves will be taken at the same time.

Each boy must be accompanied by his father, mother or guardian in order to register. There will be no registration other than on the dates designated.

Managers and coaches are needed; therefore, all interested men are requested to leave their names with league officials at the time of registration. For those fathers not athletically inclined, the league also needs administrative personnel.

All boys between the ages of 13 and 14 (13 before April 30th and under 15 before August 31st) are eligible for the Pony League.

Awards Presented To Jericho Grid Stars

Four outstanding members of the Jericho High School football team have been honored with awards. Michael Rudy has been selected by the coaches in the North Shore League and the South Shore League as one of Nassau County's finest players, earning the "Gridiron 44 Award" as one of 44 county recipients.

Keith McNally, Paul Drucker and Bruce MacDougall join with Mike Rudy in the All League Selection award, presented by the coaches in Division IV.

Dominick Morelli, Jericho Athletic Director, and Paul J. McKee, Principal of Jericho Senior High School, expressed mutual pride in the well-deserved honors bestowed upon the four fine young athletes.

Rabbi Rose Speaks On Moral, Ethic Values

Many people are perplexed due to the falling away from our traditional sexual morality. This upheaval has caused many to examine the moral and ethical foundations of marriage. Rabbi Herbert H. Rose of Temple Or Elohim will examine, on Friday night, January 22nd, this crucial issue. He will look at the Freudian approach of healthy orgasm, the sex ethic of mutual consent, the love ethic and finally the commitment to marriage. This discussion will be based on a new work directed to this all important subject by Eugene Borowitz of Hebrew Union College. The public is cordially invited to attend. Services will begin at 8:45 P.M. An Oneg Shabbat will follow.

Syosset PTA Council Asks For Chaperones

Syosset Board Of Ed. Holds January Meeting

By Joan Davidson

The School Board of CSD No. 2 voted at the January 11th meeting to extend the present transportation contract with the K & S Transportation Corporation for the 1971 - 1972 school year. The agreement provides that per-unit costs will not exceed the 1970-1971 contract and allows for a maximum reduction of five from the total number of buses presently contracted for.

A motion to allow SYAC (Syosset Youth Athletic Council) to use school district owned land was tabled pending further discussion at the February school board meeting. The proposal would allow SYAC to utilize ten acres on the northwest side of Woodbury Road for athletic activities. SYAC would maintain and insure the property and would be allowed to improve the land for playing fields.

Consistent with previous appeals for a comprehensive master plan, the School Board has gone on record as opposing the proposed garden apartment petition by Van Cott on Woodbury Road.

Mr. Gearhart announced several special programs for elementary students including Space Science Lectures by NASA's Space Mobile Program and performances of "La Serva Padrona", a light opera, by the Orchestra da Camera.

Dr. Schwartz announced the expansion of the computer instruction program in the high school to South Woods Junior High School. He noted that plans are being formulated for an information meeting for sixth grade students and their parents to assist them in the choice of a foreign language in junior high school.

The next regular meeting of the CSD No. 2 School Board will be held on Monday, February 8th at 8:30 PM at South Woods Junior High School.

Jericho Youth Council

Icy roads did not deter the members of the Jericho Youth Council! The meeting held on January 14 was well attended, and a full agenda was covered.

The nominating committee, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Judie Baker, presented their report, and the following officers were elected unanimously:

President: Mr. Robert Stevens
Vice-President: Celia Felscher (11th grade)

Treasurer: Mrs. Jacky Friedrich

Recording Secretary: Elise Goldstein (11th grade)

Corresponding Secretary: Carol Sloane (10th grade)

The Projects Committee, chaired by Mrs. Linda Abraham, presented their report and, after much discussion, a motion was passed to hire a youth worker to coordinate activities and work with teenagers, particularly in areas such as job counseling, draft counseling, drug counseling, ecology, and a hot line. This project will be presented to the Town of Oyster Bay by the Executive Board and, if approved, the Youth Council will have $2500 deposited to their account by the Town, to be used for approved expenses this year.

A Personnel Committee was formed, to screen and recommend the Youth Director and a Fund Raising Committee was formed to seek ways to raise money because the Town will match funds raised this year in next year's grant.

The next meeting of the Jericho Youth Council is scheduled for Thursday, February 11 at 8 P.M. in the Speech and Drama Room of Jericho High School. If there are any organizations who have not been contacted, and would like to participate, please call 938-1432.

LETTERS To The Editor

Letters to the Editor

Hicksville Fire Dept.
I would like to express my appreciation to the Hicksville Fire Department who responded to my wife's call for assistance on a possible house fire when my motor vehicle erupted on fire in the garage on January 6th 1971 around 1 a.m.

It was gratifying to know while I was working a midnight tour many miles away that the men from the Hicksville Fire Department responded immediately and extinguished the fire after the vehicle was removed from the garage. Needless to say, with their prompt action we had no possible injury and no negligible damage. Everyone is aware that the Hicksville Fire Department is the finest department in the county and manifests itself when needed.

On behalf of my wife, family and myself I would like to again say thank you.

Sincerely,
John J. Haeselin

Board) to explain various aspects of the make-up of a budget.

A request by Creative Art Forms for use of district school facilities was granted. This request had been denied last fall and after reconsideration, tabled at the December 8 meeting.

Tuesday night's vote was: O'Donnell and McManus - No; Muratore, Clark, McCormack and Kershen - Yes. (Mr. Zindulka was ill and therefore unable to attend the meeting.)

A video-taped program in "The Powers of Children" series - moderated by Thomas Mansfield, Headmaster of The Day School - was shown to the Board and public. Mr. Mansfield, Headmaster of The Day School - was shown to the Board and public. Mr. Mansfield was joined by Harvey Scribner, Chancellor of the Board of Education of New York City and John Holt, educator and author (How Children Fail and What We Do on Monday). Their discussion was about the changing scene in education and the need for teachers, administrators and parents to work together to modify some of the traditional educational methods. Mr. Holt explained his analogy of the teacher and travel agent. The agent finds out something about the likes and dislikes of the traveller. Since he knows more about travel than his client, he can help him with his plans. But the agent doesn't take the trip with the traveller and doesn't test him on his return. He serves as a facilitator. Education, too, is a journey - not a destination. The teacher should help the student on his trip says Mr. Holt.

Dr. John Cadden, Assistant Superintendent, presented a list of tentative educational program. These basic objectives for the Hicksville School District. These are general goals of students and the educational program. These basic objectives are:

1. Social - our American heritage, social and economic relationships
2. Intellectual - development of thought processes
3. Physical - health, physical and mental well-being
4. Ethical - character building

This list is a proposed basis, upon which to build more specific goals for the various curricula in our schools. The Board of Education, school staff, students, community representatives from educationally-oriented groups will be contacted and they will help evaluate and comment on these goals. From their reactions a set of education objectives will be drawn up and presented to the Board for approval. This list, when approved, can then be used as guidelines for any curriculum development. It will not be something irrevocable, but flexible and subject to review and revision.

The Board voted to set up a community-involved committee to help in developing curriculum for the family living segment of the Health Education program. A proposal for a large committee involving teachers, students, PTA, churches, physicians, community educational and taxpayers groups and Board appointees was defeated.

In favor of this committee - McCormack, McManus, Kershen. Opposed - Muratore, Clark, O'Donnell.

(Any motion must receive four votes to pass, therefore a tied vote means a motion is defeated).

The committee which was approved will consist of three physicians, a representative appointed by each Board member and a representative from each church in Hicksville.

In favor of this proposal - Muratore, Clark, O'Donnell, Kershen.

Opposed - McCormack, McManus. This group will work with Administration and the Board in developing curriculum.

The Board unanimously approved a policy which would

Spring Music Series

Date Change

The Hicksville Public Library regretfully announce a change of dates for its Spring Music Series.

Due to an University commitment the Hofstra String Quartet will not be able to appear at the Hicksville Library on Sunday January 31. The date is changed to Sunday April 4 at 3 p.m.

The Morton Estrin Piano Recital scheduled for Sunday February 21 will be held on Sunday May 18.

The other programs will be presented as originally announced. Sunday March 7 the Jack Aaron Memorial Concert and Sunday April 25 the presentation of St. Kilian Boys Choir.

enable them to recover damages (through civil or criminal action) due to vandalism of children between the ages of 10 and 18. New legislation says that parents are responsible for this damage, up to $500.

A proposed policy regarding visitation to schools by police for the purposes of interrogation or arrest of students was tabled. Currently, the schools will not release a child without parental consent or a warrant and interrogation must take place in the presence of the school principal. It was recommended that this procedure be changed in certain circumstances.

Also tabled was a proposal that all bids be opened at 7:30 P. M. instead of 2 P. M. This procedure was tried Tuesday night and although there was favorable response, Dr. Hill said it could cause some trouble and additional expense if it becomes a regular occurrence. The Board will study this question before taking further action.

J.F. Kennedy Sports Report

The John F. Kennedy Eagles beat Roslyn High School on January 12th with a score of 65-38 for their ninth victory of the season. Captain Bob Dickinson turned in his best performance of the year with 23 points and 20 rebounds to lead the team to victory. Brad Greenberg and Scott Binder added 17 and 13 points respectively to the victor's total. The game was close throughout. The Eagles led at the half by 7 points and maintained that margin throughout the second half.

The Kennedy Basketball team beat Westbury High School 60-55 on January 14th. After making the Top Ten in Nassau for the first time, Kennedy proved its strength by coming from behind to beat a tough Westbury five. It was the first time in their history that they had ever beaten Westbury. Playing well, Westbury led 42-30 after the first half.

Then Kennedy came out in the second half and held Westbury to 13 points with a tough full court defense. Senior forward Scott Peters came off the bench to score a game high of 17 points. He was ably assisted by Brad Greenberg with 13 points and Bob Dickinson's 14 points. Their victory was their 10th in a row and left them undefeated for the year. The Eagles have now proven themselves to be one of the strongest teams in Nassau.
