Senior Citizens Eager To Work

Project Senior Abilities, a federally funded program at the Human Resources Center in Albertson, has 250 skilled eager-to-work senior citizens (55 years and older) in its skills bank. The project has successfully placed over 115 people in part time and temporary jobs.

Applicants with new talents call every day. The occupational categories go from accounting to benchmark, teachers, secretaries to solderers. The program functions as a "temporary" agency putting employees on its payroll, thereby saving the participating employer administrative expenses and time. The employer cuts costs and receives the best employee, since Project Senior Abilities has conducted extensive interviews.

Miss Salamone To Participate

Miss Adrienne Salamone, 15 Tobias Street, Hicksville, a member of the Women's Glee Club of the State University College at Oneonta, will participate in a series of concerts

Hedley Gordon Graham, director of the program, reports that employers are extremely satisfied with senior workers because of their dedication to their work. Many employers have established the practice of hiring only people 55 and older when part time or temporary help is needed.

The project is based on the concept that senior citizens can be a valuable part time and temporary labor resource, and is an unusual employment program matching the talents of older workers with the job requirements of business. It is supported by the Social and Rehabilitation Service, Franklin National Bank, Gruman Corporation and Insurance Company of North America.

during the Glee Club's thirteenth annual winter tour to be held from January 22 through the 27th.

This fine choral organization is under the direction of Dr. Charles C. Burnsworth.

At The Chamber

Powers Of The M.T.A. -- Planning For Hicksville Provide Lively Discussion

At a regular luncheon meeting of the Hicksville Chamber Commerce held on Wednesday at Murante's Restaurant, guest speakers were Town Councilman Warren Doolittle and Robert Geneslaw, Hicksville Project Director of the consultant firm, Raymond, Parish and Pine, which is employed by the Town of Oyster Bay for a period of 18 months to draw up a Master Plan for the Town of Oyster Bay.

Mr. Geneslaw was the main speaker, but it was during the question and answer period that lively discussions involving the tremendous power of the M.T.A. over local government came to light. Namely that no matter what plans are recommended by the Town Board, after they are completed by the consultants they have hired, any plans of the M.T.A., whether known or unknown to the planners, would take precedence over own plans. Many present questioned what value and plans could have, when they could be so easily upset.

Mr. Geneslaw stated that the first part of the planning operation is broken into three parts, namely 1. - a study of existing facts; 2. - community meetings plus questionnaires; and 3. based on the results of the first two operations part 3 would be land use proposals and road proposals to the Town Board. He explained that "existing facts" would be everything available concerning the entire Town on present land use, present and projected population figures and present and projected traffic conditions. He also stated that at the community meetings which are presently being held through the Township, they attempted to ascertain how the residents felt about future planning in their areas. He said that inasmuch as many people did not join organizations, a questionnaire was mailed to 12,000 residents (about 10 percent of the Town's population) and that answers had been received from about one-third of these questionnaires. These, he said, are being studied with the help of computers. He did mention that glancing through some of the Hicksville questionnaires, he noted that they expressed the need of a bakery and a hardware store, and suggested that shopping centers should be required to keep their properties cleaner than they do.

Mr. Geneslaw mentioned that, at the suggestion of the Town Board special study areas should be made of Hicksville, Jericho and the Syosset-Woodbury areas, in that order. He said that the planners felt it necessary to combine the study of Hicksville and Jericho because the conclusions of one necessarily had a bearing on the conclusions they would have to reach for the other, particularly in the areas of traffic conditions and traffic flow. He also stated that his firm was waiting for the latest census figures, which are expected in the near future.

Mr. Geneslaw concluded the formal part of his speech with the statement that when the Hicksville branch of the LIRR was electrified it was expected that Hicksville commuter parking would double and that at the present time the M.T.A. had not made any of their Hicksville plans public.

Chamber President Peter Fallon then threw the well attended meeting open to a question and answer period with the statement that questions might be directed to any of the guest speakers or to Mr. Kingsley Kelley, who headed the Hicksville Advisory Committee to the Town Board for the past two years.

As previously stated, it was during the most interesting question and answer period that several lively discussions took place, which is a very good reason for all Chambers members to attend these informative meetings.

It was generally agreed, that a rapport between those representing us and the MTA, would be valuable to the entire community and plans were tentatively set up to have a Chamber Committee help, if needed, for this purpose.

HERALD REPORT SCHOOL DISTRICT 17 HICKSVILLE

By Shirley Smith

School Board President, Harry Kershen, appointed Board members to two committees. Thomas Clark and Thomas Muratore were appointed to inspect district schools. John McManus, Neil McCormack, Thomas Clark and William O'Donnell were selected to study transportation.

Correspondence
Bill Dean, President of the Hicksville Federation of Teachers, suggested several methods for handling those people who call in bomb scares to the school. The Board will consider these proposals.

Hicksville Against Drugs (H.A.D.) requested a meeting with the School Board in order that they may discuss various plans with Board members and report on the progress H.A.D. has made. The Board will meet with H.A.D. in February.

The Board received a letter from the lay help in Hicksville schools, regarding their working conditions and salaries. These women have discussed their problems with Administration. The Board took no action on the letter, but will consider it at a future date.

Other Matters
Charles Fetta, L.I.F.E. President, brought up the subject of bidding for architectural firms and bank accounts. Mr. Fetta felt the district could save money by soliciting bids from various architects for any architectural work the district needs. Money could also be saved, he felt, if the district did not deposit all its funds in one bank. Dr. Frederick Hill, Assistant Superintendent, said that architects follow a fee schedule approved by the American Institute of Architects, and therefore they either do not bid or their bids would not vary much in price. He also informed Mr. Fetta that our district does use more than one bank's facilities and bids from these banks are solicited, in the cases required by law.

The School Board voted to pay a final bill from Joseph Catalano, former School Board attorney. This fee has been under debate several months. Those voting to pay the bill: Muratore, McCormack, McManus, O'Donnell and Kershen. Mr. Clark voted against payment. (Mr. Zindulka was unable to attend Tuesday night's meeting.)

The Board of Education unanimously approved $23.50 as the health service fee to be charged to other districts for their children attending Hicksville parochial schools. This fee is the charge per child, per school year.

If your children qualify for college, (or a trade, preparatory, nursing or graduate school), you qualify for a Lincoln loan.

Dollars for Scholars

Remember when parents said "I'd scrub floors to educate my children"? Education has never been more priceless—or more costly. And the more important it is to have a good education, the more expensive it becomes to get one. Here are two ways Lincoln can help:

Lincoln Loans for Learning If your income is under $15,000 and your son or daughter is a qualified student, Lincoln can provide up to $7500 for his education—up to $1500 a year for full time students and $750 a year part time. Under the New York Higher Education Assistance Program, no interest accrues and no repayments are required until after his studies are completed. And then, depending on the amount borrowed, you have up to ten years to repay.

Liberal Education Loans For families with net incomes over $15,000, Lincoln will lend up to $20,000—as much as $5000 in any school year, with up to seven years to repay. Whether it is for prep school, a college degree, post-graduate studies or a professional career, Lincoln's Dollars for Scholars program is our investment in your future.

Lincoln Drops Rates On New Home Loans

Mr. Edmond G. Murphy, President, announced that effective immediately The Lincoln will consider applications for mortgages on 1 to 3 family owner-occupied homes at the uniform rate of 7-1/4 per cent. This will include FHA, VA and Conventional home loans. Commenting on the recent slide in interest rates, generally, Mr. Murphy felt that this needed relief should be made available promptly to prospective home buyers.

The Lincoln Savings Bank is the 9th largest in the nation, and is a major factor in the home mortgage market. Its portfolio now includes over 46,000 residential mortgages.

Cocktail Party To Raffle "Pinto"

"1971 PINTO" to be raffled off at a gala Cocktail Party at Holy Family Church, Hicksville, on Sunday, January 31st, from 4:00 to 6:00 P.M. in the School Auditorium.

Mr. Charles Eibeler, Chairman of the Fund Raising Committee announced that the goal is to raise $30,000.00, and January 31st is the deadline to get those chance books in. Mr. Eibeler urges all parishioners and friends to attend the Cocktail Party, the tickets are only $5.00 per couple, and all drinks are free. The big event is the raffling off of the 1971 Pinto.

proposal calling for the construction of eight oil containment depots, said Kunz would take charge of efforts designed to make the proposal a reality. "This would include coordination of legislative efforts to obtain financial aid as well as the logistical and manpower development needed to control damage from oil slicks," Burke said.

The Supervisor said he has directed his department and division chiefs to cooperate with Kunz in providing manpower and equipment and in drawing up a contingency for emergency costs. Burke said Harbor Master Clint Smith would assist Kunz.

Pl. Father's Club To Sponsor Game

The Plainview Father's Club, an organization dedicated to promoting athletics in the Plainview-Old Bethpage School District, is sponsoring an East-West faculty basketball game on Friday, February 12, at 8:00 p.m. in the Plainview-Old Bethpage Senior High School gym. Tickets are $1.00 each and are available in the gym office of each of the secondary schools.

In addition to giving the students an opportunity to see some of their favorite teachers compete in the athletic arena, the proceeds of the game will go toward underwriting some of the worthwhile programs of the Father's Club.

Seating is limited so that those interested should make their reservations in advance.

JERRY BRILL

The conversation at the bar of The Bounty Inn in Hewlett this day had the sesame of sheer courage. Owner Jerry Thompson was talking about sky diving. Jumping out of airplanes—while they are in the air!

"What do you say, Jerry?", he asked. "How about tomorrow at noon?"

I must say that airplanes are a little frightening when they're on the ground and anchored. To get in and fly seems silly. To jump out purposely seems ridiculous.

So the following day, at 12:04 hours, as the glasses were thrown into the fireplace—my white scarf tied neatly on my new 3-button Brooks Brothers jump suit, we left The Bounty Inn for the trip to the Lakewood Skydiving Center.

I fastened my seat belt, gave Thompson the thumb-up-in-the-air-signal that all was ready, and we drove to the flats of New Jersey.

As we approached the area, the sky scouting Thompson said, "See that green chute on the guy coming down? That's a PC—Para Commander. Accurate as Hell!"

I opened my eyes from the car ride, looked up and commented, "Damn right!"

We pulled into the lot which abuts the action-packed lowland, and before I could loosen my grip on the sides of the car, Thompson was in the chute shop, getting ready.

Lee, a flat-bellied crew-cut in the jumpsuit uniform of the day, advised me that I missed the school necessary for first jumpers, and I'd be unable to jump that day. Knowing they'd never get me out there again, I was crushed.

"You can observe, though", he said. "Hell", I said, "I was dying to try one of those new PC's. Awful accurate, you know?"

Lee smiled politely and picked out Thompson's chute: I headed for the safety of the landing zone.

"Where you going?", cried Ed Pettit of Garden City. He would do a 30-second free fall on Thompson's flight.

"To the landing zone to observe, Lee said it was OK."

"Np", said Thompson. "You sit in the bucket seat on the flight and observe from the air."

Up to that point I liked the food in his restaurant. Now, I wasn't so sure.

"Will the following people chute up—", screamed the loudspeaker. "Thompson, Pettit, Brill."

How do you say "no" to a loudspeaker? I moved to the flightline with the eight jumpers who wore two chutes each. I wore mine and the long-zipped jumpsuit. In my apprehension, I wanted to ask a question in the event of an emergency and that long zipper. I decided against it.

We boarded the small plane and Vic, the pilot, smiled in a rallentando manner. The plane looked old. So did I.

He revved the motor. It sputtered and coughed. So did I.

I looked at Vic. He was clutching his St. Christopher medal. It would be a long flight for me.

The plane itself had one alteration. A side was missing, so that in my jump seat (a misnomer) next to the open side, I could see the architectonic landscape without the interference of a window. The jumpers and the Jump Master sat facing the open door. A static line ran above the door, so that beginning jumpers would hook their chutes onto it and the chute would open automatically as they cleared.

At a height of about 3 or 4 thousand feet, Vic circled and headed for his spot, the point at which the first static line jumper would go.

The Jump Master pointed to number one who hooked his chute onto the static line and sat in the periphery of the open door, feet extended onto a running board. The JM had his arm around the jumper watching the terrain. He heard the OK from the pilot, tapped the jumper on the shoulder and yelled, "Gooodo!"

I winked at the jumper, tightened my seatbelt, and said, to let the guy know I was with him, "Hang in there!"

Out he went. The others checked the toggles on their chutes for steering. Number 2 was ready and sitting in position. Vic circled, the tap on the shoulder, and "Gooodo!"

The confident veteran Thompson was next to last. He would do a 15-second free fall, hurdling at 150 mph before pulling his chute.

"Nervous, Jer?", I asked.

"Only for you. Landing in these planes is quite an experience!"

Smart guy, I thought. He's just testing my guts!

"Thompson ready", said the Jump Master. Thompson sat in the open door.

"Gooodo", he yelled.
"Hang in there", I said and Thompson left.
Then the last jumper and the Jump Master. That left Old Vic, the plane and me.
I turned around to face Vic's back, stealthily moved behind him, tapped him on the shoulder and yelled, "Gooodo". Levity in the face of crisis is forever welcome, I always say. I wasn't sure if Vic always said the same thing.
We were on the ground and stopped.
"Too bad I missed that jump school", I said to Vic. "It's such a beautiful day for it".
"Yeah", said Vic, "too bad". And we strode to the landing area to watch the jumpers folding their chutes for their next jump.

DEAR FRIENDS...

IMPORTANT REMINDER.....the February meeting of the Hicksville Community Council will be held on Thursday, Feb. 4th, at the Hicksville Library at 8:30 p.m. Come and hear all the progress that is being made on the Old Heitz Place Courthouse, which will soon be the new Gregory Museum. Don't forget, too, that the last half of our Community Council meetings are always devoted to problems, and discussions of all types directly from the floor. These monthly Council meetings have always proved to be not only informative, but also effective in bringing about action in many areas of community life. It is your Council, so why not join and help us to keep Hicksville growing in the right direction? By the way, a big "thank you" to Barbara Rosman, Anne Gregory, Shirley Smith and Jerry McManus, for their help in writing articles, minutes and meeting notices for our rapidly-growing Council. We'd be delighted to see you on Thursday...and we're sure you'll be glad that you attended, too! Meetings are always followed by "coffee and ...".

THE HICKSVILLE AMERICAN LITTLE LEAGUE REGISTRATION is presently going on, and, as you can see in their advertisement in this issue, you can register by mail, if you wish. If your son is ready for this worthwhile organization and you reside in the Burns Avenue, Woodland Avenue or Willet Avenue School areas, we'd suggest that you send in his registration now, as we hear that their numbers are growing rapidly.

UNTIL NEXT WEEK, stay well,

Cordially,

Newcorn Elected News Editor

Jeff Newcorn, a sophomore at the University of Rochester and son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Newcorn, 248 Jerusalem Ave., Hicksville, has been elected a news editor of the Campus-

Times, the twice-weekly newspaper published by the University's undergraduates.

Jeff has been an assistant news editor of the Campus Times since last February.

From Congress

Rep. James R. Grover, Jr.

Congress returned last week from its holiday hibernation after a 1970 session which was one of the longest and least productive in history. Hopefully, this year will see more cooperation between Congress and President Nixon, with non-partisan consideration of the President's high priority proposals.

I am, of course, grateful for the support given me by residents of the Second Congressional District and feel that it's only proper that I offer you some of my views on the role of a Congressman in these chaotic times. There are certain things which I owe my district and certain duties which must be performed. I owe it to you to be on the job in Washington or in the home district when Congress is not sitting. Any trips which I take at government expense will be clearly in the performance of my Congressional responsibilities and not for the purpose of making headlines or unnecessary investigations.

My constituents have first call on me at all times. All correspondence will receive quick attention, all requests a prompt response.

My Congressional votes, as in the past, will be based on careful, conscientious appraisal of legislation, and, as before, I believe that my views will be closely aligned with that of the vast majority of district residents.

You, as a stockholder in this nation, deserve to know what's happening in Washington and I make it my business to inform you regularly. This report, first in a series of weekly newsletters from Washington, is part of that effort. My reports from Washington, both written and broadcast, offer you my view on what's happening and why. Sometime in the spring, I hope to send out my annual questionnaire and you will also receive periodic reports by mail. From time to time, I will speak to community gatherings and civic groups in the district on matters of special interest.

I appreciate your decision to keep me on the job representing you in Washington. I'm going to do my very best to insure that you never have cause to regret that decision.

Hicksville Orators Gain County Finals

In two stirring American Legion Oratorical Contests this past Friday evening, students from both Hicksville high schools were winners in semi-final contests. Winning at Hicksville in a contest held at the Clubhouse of the Charles Wagner Post 421, sponsors of the local annual oratorical competition, was Mary O'Donnell of Holy Trinity Diocesan High School. Second place went to Cynthia Pauls of Massapequa while Stephen Fiamma of John F. Kennedy High School, Bellmore was third. Judging the Hicksville contest were: Robert Morgan, publisher and editor of the Mid-Island Times; Anthony Corrieri, attorney and counselor; Lieutenant Colonel Hugo Spadaro, United States Army Reserves, retired; and Past Commander George Johnson. An innovation at the oratorical contest was the inclusion of a distinguished Hicksville High School student on the panel of judges. William Meddis, a senior and last year's American Legion Boys' State representative, served as a judge this year. Richard Evers, post Americanism and Oratorical Chairman, was master of ceremonies for the contest.

In another semi-final contest at the Uniondale American Legion Post, Alison Dick of the Hicksville High School won her second victory, also, and advanced to the county finals. The Uniondale competition was chaired by Nassau County Oratorical Chairman, Richard Hochbreuckner of Hicksville. The county finals of the American Legion oratorical competition were held on Wednesday as this paper was going to press. The name of the winner and county forensic chairman will be announced next week.

NEW BOARD MEMBER: The newest member of the Oyster Bay Town Board Joseph J. Saladino, center, gets a tour of Town Hall from two of his fellow councilmen. On the left is Warren M. Doolittle of Hicksville. Councilman Ralph Diamond of Jericho is on the right. Saladino, named to replace Philip B. Healey who recently won election to the N.Y. State Assembly was sworn in on Tuesday, January 19.

Society To Preserve Our Town (SPOT)

At the SPOT meeting held January 19, the membership agreed unanimously that the organization should stay in existence; that SPOT should act as a "watchdog" regarding building and other proposals for Hicksville; that SPOT should not only be an organization to oppose, but assist in various aspects of community life to make Hicksville a better place to live.

It was agreed that SPOT should attempt to expand throughout Hicksville to better serve the community and to help to keep such members informed. If SPOT was to be consulted regarding something happening at the North end of town, the organization would expect to have membership in that area.

SPOT was formed one year ago come February. Unanimously the membership decided that dues for the new year would be $2 per family. This would cover the costs of keeping the membership informed and provide working funds. Anyone living in Hicksville wishing to join SPOT should send their dues to Mr. Anthony Cannizzaro - Treasurer, 10 Farm Lane, Hicksville, New York 11801.

Four standing committees were formed: Publicity, co-chaired by Mrs. James Casata and Mrs. Barbara Farruggio - Membership, co-chaired by Mrs. Audrey Hagemann and Mrs. Lenore Owens - Research, co-chaired by Mr. Thomas Burns and Mr. Joseph Seegar. In addition a telephone alert committee was instituted consisting of various members.

The members of SPOT also expressed their wishes that the current officers remain on the

A discussion on the problems of retarded children, presented by the "Smithtown Junior Auxiliary for the Help of Retarded Children," was the feature at the social meeting of the Joseph F. Lamb Council No. 5723 Knights of Columbus, Plainview. The meeting was held last Thursday evening, January 21st, at the American Legion Hall in Plainview.

The Smithtown Junior Auxiliary was represented by a group of three teenagers - Terri Wanser, Gregg Olsen and Larry March, all from the Smithtown area, who delivered very interesting talks and showed slides of the retarded children on a recent camping trip. Also at the meeting was Mrs. Jacqueline Mott of Commack, who is the counselor for the group. This worthy organization is composed of a group of over 90 teenagers who help the retarded children in the Smithtown area in many various activities. At the end of the program, Arthur H. Ferguson, Grand Knight of the Joseph F. Lamb Council, presented Mrs. Mott with two complimentary tickets to the forthcoming Past Grand Knight's Dinner-Dance and also presented the organization with a $25.00 check from the Lamb Council.

Jamaica Ave School News

After more than 12 years in the service of Plainview-Old Bethpage Schools during which time he has been a teacher, assistant principal and principal in several of the elementary schools, Mr. Anthony J. Cirillo, Principal of Jamaica Avenue School has put in a request for a half-year sabbatical leave of absence.

The Board of Education has approved and he is now on the eve of his travels which start the 30th of January.

Mr. Cirillo's objectives are to visit schools, museums, historic sites and places of interest in Hawaii, South America and Europe. Out of these observations and comparisons he expects to gain a better insight, understanding and appreciation of the mores, habits, customs and traditions of the several countries he will visit.

On his return in September, 1971, he plans to share his experiences in written, and oral communications illustrated with slides, with the administrators, teachers, pupils and colleagues of C.S.D. No. 4.

Mr. Norman Flaster, Assistant

Principal at Jamaica Avenue School for the past several years has been appointed as Acting Principal during his absence. He will be assisted by Mr. Milton Goldberg, who has been a teacher in this district for many years and holds a principal's license and has been appointed by the Board of Education as Acting Assistant Principal. Mr. Flaster and Mr. Cirillo have been working very closely with one another these past months. Between now, and up to the time he leaves, Mr. Flaster, Mr. Goldberg and Mr. Cirillo will be working with one another to assure a smooth transition. Thus, they are paving the way for education as usual for the boys and girls for the remainder of this school year.

At the Jamaica Avenue School P.T.A. Executive Board Meeting Mr. Cirillo was honored by the Board with the presentation of a Cross Silver Pen and Pencil Set, as well as a coffee and cake farewell get-together. The P.T.A. Board is looking forward to working with Mr. Norman Flaster, whom they know well, and with Mr. Milton Goldberg whom they will soon get to know.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Hans B. Ahlsen of 5 Spruce Street, Hicksville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Susan Jane Ahlsen to Mr. Wayne Lawrence Letizia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence J. Letizia of Newark, New Jersey. A June wedding is planned.

Susan was graduated from Hicksville High School in 1964 and graduated from The King's College, Briarcliff Manor, New York, in 1966 and from Cornell University - New York Hospital School of Nursing in 1969, where she is presently working on the post-operative kidney transplant unit.

Mr. Letizia was graduated from Dartmouth College, Hanover, New Hampshire, in 1967 where he was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and a Religion Major. He will receive his medical degree from Cornell University Medical College this June.

B.E.S.T. To Sponsor Interesting Discussion

Better Education starts today - B.E.S.T. is pleased to announce that it will sponsor a discussion on a matter of community interest, on January 28th at 8:30 at the Hicksville Public Library. The topic will be "Health Education Courses in Public Schools as Mandated by the State of New York". Among the guest speakers will be Dr. Joe Madden, Director of Recreation for Hicksville and Estelle Carver, Teacher of Health, Hicksville High School.

B.E.S.T. is a grass roots community group working toward the enlightenment of all members of the Hicksville School District on current or important matters concerned with education.

Ramblin' Rose

By Rosemary Walsh

This really has to be the craziest job in the world - one hand I am finalizing another Ski Trip for the Junior High students this Sunday, planning another for Senior High on Saturday, February 6, and low and behold the mail and telephone rings with requests for Little League fields. Not that it isn't fun to talk to my old friends (and I don't mean age wise Bill Wannen). We will soon be having our annual February meeting to distribute these fields amicably as always we hope.

From what I hear we may need more but Lord where can we get them - maybe we can build some on the roofs of the schools.

(Just a quick note - word from Florida is that my Dad is holding his own well.)

February forecasts to be a busy, busy month around here. We are very busy planning for the Madrigal Singers and Recorder Consort to attend the Music Educators Eastern Regional Convention being held in Atlantic City. Once again they have been honored by an invitation to perform before this professional audience from eleven states and the District of Columbia. In order to raise travel expenses the groups will present a concert on Monday, February 22, at 8:30 P.M. in the Senior High. The individual donation will be $2.50 for adults and $1.00 for students. The first half of the program will feature guest soloists, while the second half will be the program to be presented at the conference. Your support would be deeply appreciated, if you have ever heard these magnificent performers I need not tell you of the evening of enjoyment you will have. If you are interested please contact the Recreation Department or myself for your tickets. I will bring you further details of the trip before we depart and be assured all the praises and occurrences while we are there.

Now for other events during February - Elementary Boys Tournament will start February 6, 11 A.M. at the Girls Gym of the High School. Further news on the playoffs. The Senior High School will present "Teahouse of the August Moon" on February 18, 19, 20. That weekend you can really be recreated - see the show and then attend The Division Wrestling Tournament on the 19th and 20th, or do vice versa. This involves 7 High Schools in our Division. The Semi-Finals are on Saturday at 1 P.M. and the Finals at 7 P.M. The Gregory Museum will have a benefit performance of Fantasia on Ice at Catiague Park on February 23. The P.T.A. Council Founders Day Dinner will be held on February 25 at the Holiday Manor (honoring our beloved John McGovern). All of these dates I know you've read or will read about elsewhere. I'll alert you again but just so that you know I'm always ramblin' round - See ya!

Church Women United

The East Nassau Council of Church Women United held their annual meeting which included installation of officer, at the Hicksville United Methodist Church. The guest speaker was Mrs. Casper Jones, who recently returned from "The Third Women's World Conference" held at Bogota, Colombia, where she represented the U.S.A. and C.W.U. As a former officer, at National Level, she was able to explain the wide scope C.W.U. and inspire our 30 women from the various churches who were at this meeting. (Levittown First Presbyterian, Hicksville United Methodist, Redeemer Lutheran, Holy Trinity Episcopal, St. Martins of Tours, Bethpage Methodist, St. Francis Episcopal, St. Stephen's Lutheran, Plainview United Methodist, Parkway Community and Levittown Community).

Jean Berger, of St. Stephen's baked a beautiful cake for the 30th Anniversary of C.W.U. The women agreed also to make addition drapes for Kings Park - Nassau building and to help the Nassau County Jail with needed articles for the women there to learn how to knit and crochet. Also they have a volunteer from Bethpage Methodist Church, who teaches at the jail. The C.W.U. always welcomes newcomers to their group.

World Day of Prayer, will be the next get together on March 5 at Bethpage Methodist Church at 8 P.M. They're hoping to see you there.

Parents Invited To Narcotics Program

Cadette Troop No 428 invited 6th grade Junior Scouts and their parents along with other cadette troops to their program on narcotics. Present to speak was Mr. Steven Scaring from the office of the District Attorney.

Mr. Scaring informed the scouts of the many different kinds of drugs, and the dangers of each. He told them of a organization called DEANS, "Deputy Education Against Narcotics". Our scouts were slow getting started with the question and answer time but the hands were flying once the shyness left.

Margaret Farley, a resident of Our Lady Of Consolation Home, Amityville, died there on Jan. 24. She was 88 years old. Mrs. Farley had been a resident of the home approximately 7 years. She is survived by a son, Luke, of 10 Heather Lane, Plainview. Luke Farley is the Chairman, Board of Trustees, Plainview-Old Bethpage public library (trustee for 15 years, from inception, 1955); past Grand Knight, present trustee, Joseph F. Lamb Council Knights of Columbus, Plainview; he is a captain in Bishop Walter P. Kellenberg General Assn. 4th degree Knights of Columbus. He has been a resident of Plainview for 18 years and is former Vice President of original, but no longer existing, Plainview Civic Assoc.

Also surviving is another son, James C. Farley, who is special assistant to Secretary Romney of H.U.D. Nine grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren also survive.

She reposed at the Hicksville chapel of the Thomas F. Dalton Funeral Home, Jerusalem Ave., until Wed., Jan. 27, when a Mass was offered at Our Lady Of Mercy R. C. Church at 9:45 a.m. Interment followed in Calvary Cemetery.

Mrs. Mina Baumgardner

Mrs. Mina Baumgardner would have been 88 years old on Feb. 10, but God took her, peacefully, on Jan. 22.

There was no suffering, just a quiet departure with her husband, Charles in constant attendance. They shared 65½ years of married life and lived in the same house in Hicksville for 54 years. In front of the house is the last authentic hitching post in this area. Out in back is the well and pump still able to serve them, but in retirement, in these many years.

On July 8, this couple joined in a picnic given for the Kings Park (Nassau Division) for mentally disturbed youngsters, sponsored by Church Women United. In the early fall, she gave a duck dinner for the benefit of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church's Thrift Shop; she typed letters for donations to their bazaar in November and any other services. Mrs. Baumgardner was an Eastern Star; past matron of the Amaranth and she held the state position of asst. secretary. She was a member of the 500 club, a charter member of Nassau Chapter Red Cross, and worked diligently for the March of Dimes.

She worked for cancer care; preparing needed pads and was a member of the Rebecca Lodge a branch of the Oddfellows and also the Home Bureau.

"To me, she will always be an inspiration and one to be admired, for her spunk and fire and love of God and the life he gave her to live, which she did, to the fullest," said her friend, Edith Schruver.

Play Ball

We soon will be hearing the familiar words Play Ball and another season starts. The Hicksville Baseball Assn. will soon be holding registration for all the boys in the Hicksville district. "We that is a few women, and myself," said Marie Motylenski, are trying to revive the Women Aux. again. "They haven't had any help in a long time, and there must be some interested mothers that can spare us some time. So come on gals, lets go, and get into the spirit of Spring."

Meetings will be held at Levittown Hall on every fourth Thursday of each month at 8:00 P.M. Anyone interested please contact Marie Motylenski at 433-3297.

Officers Elected

At the Hicksville Library on Wednesday, January 20, a meeting of the Hicksville Youth Council, after a Constitution and by-laws were adopted, the officers were elected as follows: President Murray Margolis, Vice President, Mark Drier, Rec. Secretary, Ginny Agfter, Corr. Secretary, Fran Blesi and Treasurer, Mrs. Lucy Blesi.

The next meeting will be held February 17.

This past week Hicksville Volunteer Firemen worked 2 hours in bitter cold at an accident on Newbridge Rd. at Duffy Ave. Two oil tanker trucks collided. No injuries were reported, but it took two hours to wash down the oil.

A kitchen fire caused slight damage at 19 Buckner Ave. on Jan. 18. On Friday Jan. 22 a fire in the attic at 46 Arrow La. at 6:31 PM, caused considerable damage. The fire was confined to the one room. Smoke and water damage to the rest of the dwelling was minor. Cause of the fire was determined to be electrical, by the Fire Marshalls office. 10 pieces of apparatus and 80 men under Chief Voorhies responded. The owner of the house was treated at the scene by the Rescue Squad for smoke inhalation and released.

The Rescue Squad new truck was put into service this past week on a limited basis. As soon as the Resuscitator, other oxygen equipment and first aid equipment arrive the truck will respond to all Box Alarms, General Alarms and Rescue Calls.

Hicksville Bd. of Ed. Adopts Vandalism Policy

The Hicksville Board of Education took action at a recent meeting by unanimously adopting a policy enabling them to recover the cost of damage - up to $500.00 caused by vandalism. New State legislature says... the parent or legal guardian, of a child over ten and less than eighteen years of age, shall, if such child willfully, maliciously, or unlawfully damages or destroys property owned or maintained by another, be held liable for such damage. (Sec. 757, Family Court Act, and Sec. 3-112, Gen. Oblig. L. became effective in N.Y. State, September 17th, 1970. The Hicksville Board of Education policy became effective January 12, 1971.)

On The Campus

Gerald Pintel of PLAINVIEW, was on the list from Nassau College teaching faculty who has attained full professorship. George Miller, from HICKSVILLE, was on the list of those who were promoted to associate professors.

Public Invited To Hicksville School Conference Day

Interested residents of Hicksville are invited to attend a Teachers Conference Day that will be held at the Senior High School on February 11. The conference known as the Superintendent's Conference will have as its theme, "Instruction Through The Use of Multi-Media." A general session will be opened at 8:00 A.M. by Mr. Raymond Rusch, principal of the high school. Mr. Harry Kershen, President of the Board of Education, Mr. Donald F. Abt, Superintendent of Schools, and Dr. John Cadden and Frederick Hill, Assistant Superintendents will each speak briefly. Coffee served in the cafeteria at 8:50 will precede the Keynote speaker, Dr. Donald Nasca, of Brockport State Teacher's College, who is scheduled to address the assembly at 9:20.

Classroom demonstrations will start shortly after the conclusion of Dr. Nasca's talk. Dealer exhibits will be set up in the New Girls Gymnasium and will be on display until the conclusion of the conference at 1:00 P.M.

Gutter Ball Gossip

By Herb Mahler

I didn't realize you men were so sensitive. The way you tore into those pins this week: I now return you to the Men's League and all is forgiven. There were no less than five shutouts with three men hitting for Doubles, and now to the gory details.

The high-flying Milt Hoffmans continued their winning ways for their second consecutive shutout, this time over the Luckless Lew Mark's. Milt's Maulers still haven't lost a game in the second half.

In second place, 4 points behind, are the Sid Langs who creamed the Goldenbergs 11-0. Each man on the team had over a 500 series with Bernie Lieberman's 261 and Sam Saitz' 218 leading the way.

The Murray Sussmans, who are tied for second, flexed their muscles and harpooned the Robby Goldsteins 11-0. Sid "Fireball" Lowenthal exploded for a 223 backed up by Murray's great 236 to lead the sweep in spite of Fred Switzman's futile 214 for the losers.

Rothman's "Rippers" ran over the Lew Vladems 11-0 with Gil Stein's 203 not enough to stem the tide. Grandpa Horace Bernstein's 215 in the first and Capt. Fred's double 213 in the second. Third were enough to do the job. With Capt. Nat back in action, the Warrens pretended they were "Sitting Bull" and massacred "Gen. Custer" Gershen 11-0 by what, I believe, is the highest number of pins any team has ever won. The first game was by 224 and the series a total difference of 442. Ralph Diamond debated his way to a 212 in the first and, just returning from the tour, Herb Mahler, had a 214 in the last.

By far, the most improved bowler in our league so far is Bombing Bernie Kaplan who this week "Done did it again" with another double, a 204 and 223. Capt. Hay Shapiro chipped in with a 213 but their team still lost the series to the Sid Holtzmanns 5-1 with Murray Kowolwitz' fine 224 helping the cause.

Jerry Leight came on quite heavy to roll a sparkling double, 217 and 222, to help the Irv Simes crush the silent Simons 8-3.

The Sid Sachs with Dick Wolfeld's cut 219 topped the Buddy Flanders 8-3 with Burt Benjamin rolling a 200 for the losers. Not a hospitable greeting to Buddy on his return to bowling.

Now that the boys have found the range again, we can expect some exciting games in the second half. The teams have started to jell and that's what league bowling is all about. See you all at the Nevele!

NEWLYWEDS — Mr. and Mrs. Allan Lebowitz who were married in December at the East Meadow Jewish Center. Mrs. Lebowitz is the former Judy Gordon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Gordon of 22 Maytime Drive. Allan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Lebowitz of 178 Birchwood Park Drive. Judy graduated from Jericho High School in 1968, attended Buffalo State University for one year, and is currently enrolled at C. W. Post College. Allan graduated from Jericho High School in 1967 and is presently attending New York Technical Institute at Westbury. The couple resides in Great Neck.

Local Girl To Show Art Work

Joy Brodsky of 7 Flower Lane is presently starting on her Masters in Art Education at N.Y.U. Some of her art work, mixed media and ink sketch, will be shown on Saturday and Sunday, January 30th and 31st at the Rorayann Galleries, Inc., Art and Antique Auction Center, 296 East Jericho Turnpike, Huntington Station.

Joy, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hy Brodsky, is a graduate of Syosset High School (June, 1966) and graduated college with a degree of Bachelor of Science in Education (June, 1970).

Pack # 591 To Hold Meet

Cub Scout Pack 591 will hold its regular monthly meeting on Sunday, January 31, at 6:45 P.M., at the Hicksville Jewish Center. The theme of the evening will be "Lights in the Sky."

Our apologies to Bernyce Shimberg whose by-line was inadvertently omitted from the Jericho Youth Council article which appeared in last week's issue.

Teen Theatre

The Town of Oyster Bay's Teen Repertory Theatre, which has been touring the Town with a live presentation of "Aladdin and the Magic Lamp", will appear locally Saturday, January 30.

Show time is 2 P.M. at the Fork Lane School, Hicksville. For further information contact Lois Manning, Supervisor of the Cultural and Performing Arts Division of the Town of Oyster Bay's Department of Recreation and Community Activities, at 921-5944.

B.C.S. Nominating Committee Named

At its monthly meeting held on Tuesday night, January 19th, the Board of Directors of the Birchwood Civic Association selected a Nominating Committee which is to prepare a slate of officers and directors for the coming year, effective with the Annual Installation Night Dinner Dance this May.

Lotte Stein is temporary chairman of the committee and other members include Bernice Baiman, Martin Goodman, Sid Gerchick, Ralph Diamond, Lester Goldstein, Phil Roggen and Dick Wolfeld. The required ninth member of this group will be selected shortly.

The Nominating Committee will hold its first meeting in the next week or two to elect a permanent chairman and, more importantly, to choose a slate of officials. The slate will consist of: President, 1st Vice President, 2nd Vice President, Financial Secretary, Treasurer, Recording Secretary and Corresponding Secretary; and 9 Directors.

All paid-up members of the B.C.A. are eligible to hold office and interested parties are requested to contact any member of the Nominating Committee in order to have their names put up for nomination.

The Constitution of the B.C.A. does provide for other means for any member resident who desires to declare himself (or herself) a candidate. Any resident wishing to run for office, who is not placed on the slate by the Nominating Committee, needs only to file a petition with 25 names of B.C.A. members, expressing that desire and designating the particular office sought. Interested residents can get the necessary information and assistance by contacting the Editor or any Board member.

Fire Chief Guest At Directors Meeting

Chief Joseph Grillo of the Jericho Volunteer Fire Department was the principal guest of this month's regular meeting of the Birchwood Civic Association's Board of Directors.

Chief Grillo brought the Board up-to-date on the activities of his department and proved so interesting and informative that the length of time usually allocated for guests was nearly doubled.

Invitations have been extended to the 5 Commissioners of the Jericho Fire District to appear at next month's meeting of the Board, scheduled for Tuesday, February 16th, at the Syosset Public Library.

OFFICER PAL. Kindergarten youngsters at Syosset's Robbins Lane School hold a discussion with Nassau County Patrolman Joseph Gibbons on a recent visit to the school. Members of the police department were invited to meet with the children to answer any questions that they might have concerning the work of policemen. The children, from left, are: Adam Keadall, Douglas Kahn, Eve Rose, Gregg Thaler and Daniel Shinnars.

REFRESHER COURSE. Popular class in Syosset's adult education program is the secretarial skills refresher course which enables women to brush up on their office skills. Instructor Mrs. Evelyn Foy explains the margin setting operation of an electric typewriter to Mrs. Vicki Crisci, as other students practice for typing speed. Registration for the spring semester will be held on February 1 through 3.

Student Standpoint

By Danny Abuhoff

A poll jointly sponsored by the health department and newspaper of Jericho High School, to be published this week in the Jer-Echo will reveal that 42 percent of the student body has tried marijuana. This figure will undoubtedly shock some residents, especially those who may remember that a mere two years back that figure was 29 percent. It shouldn't.

When, a few years ago, the drug issue burst upon the scene few could remain ignorant of drugs' newfound popularity. Reported and exploited to the fullest by all mass media, the "narcotics problem" seized the concern of Americans coast to coast. The first reaction was toward law enforcement, with stricter penalties for narcotics possession and smuggling. This was followed by a wave of social work manifested in rehabilitation centers, government directed and otherwise. Finally, alleviation was sought through education and health courses (admittedly not aimed singularly at drugs, but sparked by their presence, nevertheless) which were introduced in a number of schools.

However, while most of these programs remain, that feeling of urgency, that strange combination of earnestness and panic that seems to grip residents whenever they collectively face a crisis, has dissipated. This phenomena of instant involvement and subsequent evaporation of interest, independent of the development of the issue in question, is a pattern familiar to American thinking. It is evident in the fight against pollution (the troops dwindle while the garbage mounts) and is even more clear on the subject of Vietnam (the war goes on, but middle class indignance is mollified). However, rarely is it so clearly documented as in the case of the drug issue where what residents have chosen to label a "major problem" fails to retain not only their concern but their attention. Apparently, peaking in the minds of residents with the first few tragedies and drug "busts," the emergency of the situation has petered out even as the magnitude of use increases.

This is not to say that community efforts would stem the tide of drug use. Perhaps as large a cause as any for the growth of "drug" use is the failure to find medical fault with marijuana (in fact, the Jer-Echo poll shows a very small percentage of marijuana smokers pursue harder drugs). This is not even to condemn the use of drugs. Merely, it is an observation that perhaps the problem with many movements and the tide of public opinion is that the reaction of many residents toward social and political problems is a visceral rather than a rational one. When one acts through the gut there is an ostensible clumsiness and, apparently, a disturbing lack of stamina.

Space Show For Fathers And Son

The hard work, cooperative teamwork and challenges that are inherent in the U. S. space program were explored by approximately 275 fathers and sons in a recent evening assembly sponsored by the Robert Seaman P. T. A. The program featured Ray Pratt, guest speaker from Grumman's Aerospace Division, and films of U. S. moon flights. Following the presentation, fathers and sons jointly participated in a question-answer discussion period.

Executive Committee and that SPOT continue as an ad-hoc committee until such time as a charter and by-laws are put into effect.

Present at the meeting were Mrs. Shirley Lang and Dr. G. Bomse who gave counsel to SPOT and advised of the Tobay Federation of Civic Association that could lend support to issues in terms of voting power. The aim of the Association is to have government respond to the people.

Some members advised of certain conditions that exist at the Lee Avenue school yard during the summer months after dark. Mr. Immesberger stated that if the members would advise the Executive Committee in writing, SPOT would look into the situation through the proper authorities.

It has recently come to our attention that a certain gas station on North Broadway seeks to have a car wash installed in a manner that could be objectionable. (see Mid-Island Herald story January 12).

We remind all current members and their friends in Hicksville that the $2 membership dues will be payable in February. Please make every effort to have your neighbors who are not currently members join SPOT. In unity there is strength.

News From Joyce Road School

During the week of January 28th, two patrolmen from the Youth Division of the Nassau County Police Dept. were in the Joyce Road School building to discuss the responsibilities of a patrolman during his working hours between 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. These responsibilities covered topics ranging from drugs and narcotics to the issuing of summonses. The patrolmen were well received by the children and teachers and spent a very enjoyable and profitable week at the Joyce Road School.

Mrs. E. Trueman and her fourth year youngsters have embarked upon an individual math program involving learning through discovery and the manipulation of math aids. This program has proved to be extremely successful and has instilled in the children a desire and a special enjoyment for the learning of math. Many teachers in the Joyce Road School have observed this program and have asked Mr. Witte, Principal and

Mr. Goldstein, Assistant Principal, if they could also be involved in such a program. Beginning January 4th five additional teachers have initiated such a program in their classrooms. At present, two teachers at every level are involved in this new math program which has been extremely well received by children and teachers.

Mattlin Survey In Progress

On Wednesday morning, January 27th, Mr. Louis F. Ferrara, Assistant to the Superintendent of Plainview-Old Bethpage Schools, spoke to the parents of Mattlin Junior High School. Mr. Ferrara explained the educational survey being made by the school district regarding the educational innovations at the Mattlin Junior High School. The results of the survey will have implications in all the secondary schools of the Plainview district.

Mrs. Dolores Englehardt, President of the Mattlin P.T.A. has pledged full cooperation with the district in this endeavor.

COMMUNITY SALUTE: Oyster Bay Town Supervisor John W. Burke, right, presents a Town proclamation to Gardner Gregory, of 207 Cottage Boulevard, Hicksville, declaring February as "Gregory Museum Month". The Town has made the historic landmark, former Hicksville Courthouse at Helts Place and Bay Avenue, Hicksville, available to the museum to house its historical treasures.

January 21 Column

Hicksville High's hopes for a playoff berth in the Nassau basketball tournament were dimmed considerably, Tuesday night, by MacArthur, 55-53.

Played before a good natured crowd at Hicksville of 500 who braved 5 degree weather the game turned on three astonishingly official interpretations in the final minute.

With 59 seconds to go Rich Berg was called for charging and Hicksville's one point lead fell to a one point deficit.

It was the foul line that told the tale. The Comets were recorded with 22 field goals to 15 for the winners but it was unbalanced 25-11 advantage on the foul line that carried the Generals in.

Hicksville had spurred from a 25-24 halftime lead to a 39-31 edge late in the third period. Three baskets apiece by Tony Di Lorenzo and Mark Weinrab sparked the surge.

Hicksville's league record now stands at 2 and 2 with a 4 and 6 season mark.

Prior to the MacArthur loss the Comets had defeated Clark 73-41.

It was the insertion of Joe Moeller and Paul Krobber that got this one rolling. Moeller had ten brilliant assists and Krobber pulled down ten strong rebounds and scored 11 points.

Plainedge furnishes the opposition this Friday night at Hicksville. The Red Devils served a warning Tuesday when they faced powerful Herricks into overtime before bowing.

Our selection: Hicksville 59 Herricks 55.

Hicksville's Jay Vee basketball team used high scoring third periods to rocket past MacArthur and Clark. The scores were 68-58 and 64-34 respectively.

Behind by three at the half Hicksville uncorked against Clark for its sixth victory against four defeats.

Bob Goldmacher used the offensive backboard to good advantage and lead the Comets with 19 points. He hit 7 for 8 from the foul line.

Bob Bischoff was also excellent with free throws connecting for 10 out of 14.

He and Joe Varecha both would up with 14 points.

Joe McHale had 7 points, Paul Lindbloom 4 and Jim Schumacher, Steve Sussman and Gary Gross had a basket each.

Hicksville converted 30 of 44 foul shots.

Working for 13 rebounds and scoring 14 points Bob Bischoff lead the rout of Clark.

Goldmacher was high up there with 13 points.

Sussman and Varecha came in with 8 and 6. John Koush, McHale, Schumacher and John Ebbecke garnered 4 points and Lindbloom had 3.

George Gramaglia and Daryl Fink each had two.

Sledding

Deputy Public Works Commissioner Richard A. Fitch announced that a sledding competition will be held at Cantiague County Park on the first Sunday remaining in January or February with sufficient snow.

The contest is open to Nassau boys and girls between 8 and 14.

Girls will compete separately from boys and contestants will be divided into three age categories. Awards will be presented for the longest run, the best time over a measured course and for the best run over an obstacle course.

For scheduling information concerning the sledding competition, call 292-4210.

Safety Councils

Deputy Public Works Commissioner Richard A. Fitch announced that a series of Young Boatman's Safety Courses will be offered at Wantagh County Park, beginning Friday evening, February 5.

In all, seven separate four-session courses will be given by qualified instructors from Coast Guard Auxiliary and Power Squadron organizations.

Fitch pointed out that youngsters between the ages of 10 and 14 who successfully complete the safety course are eligible for a New York State Conservation Department license to operate a motor boat without an adult aboard.

Further information and registration details may be obtained by calling 292-4226.

Jr. Girl Scouts Visit Ice Capades

Saturday, January 16, darned clear and cold as 517 Hicksville Junior Girl Scouts with 77 leaders and mothers assembled in orderly fashion in the waiting room of the LIRR. Listening for the announcement to proceed to the train that would take them to New York City to see the Ice Capades at Madison Square Garden, the girls chattered with excitement.

Arriving in the city all boarded the escalator to be seated. The show was great, one of the acts was about the circus, costumes were fabulous, the skating great, the clowns and the chimpanzee on skates funny.

Try to picture the Hicksville station at 2:45 PM. Parents and husbands waiting for 594 people to get off the train. In spite of the mob and the traffic jam, all the girls quickly found their parents. Within minutes it was once again a quiet Saturday afternoon at the LIRR station.

Not since those winter nights twenty years ago when Dick Aleock and Harold Manoski used Chet Jaworski's press to paralyze the opponents attack has Hicksville's Orange and Black stunned a team as the Comets stunned Plainedge.

Trailing 28-23 at halftime Hicksville opened the second half pressing. Rich Berg was the prime applicator of the steal and he dumbfounded the visitors.

Within five minutes Hicksville scored 19 straight points and had an advantage of 42-30.

Mark Weinrab, Paul Krobber and Kevin Jenkins all had a part in the offensive rush.

When the Red Devils started to get the ball up court in the fourth quarter it was Brian Pinelli who came to the fore. He hustled to pick off 12 rebounds and ignited the Comet downcourt rush.

Hicksville led, 46-35 at the quarter and wound up the winner 64-52.

The Comets league record moved to 3 wins and 2 defeats and overall on the season the mark is 5 wins and 6 losses.

Berg capped his best night in a Hicksville Uniform with a game total of 21 points. He had 9 field goals and 3 fouls.

Jenkins zipped in six baskets for 12 points and Krobber used the foul line to sink Plainedge. He dropped in 9 free shots coupled with three goals to record 15 points.

Weinrab, had 10 points and Pinelli 6.

The gym at Herricks should be filled Friday night when Hicksville visits Garden City Park.

Herricks is regarded as one of the best in the league and despite a loss to Syosset still carries a high rating.

Hicksville needs the win to stay in the Championship race as well as in contention for a Playoff berth.

On Tuesday Farmingdale comes to the Hicksville court to start the second half race.

Our Selections: Hicksville 58, Herricks 52.

Hicksville 72, Farmingdale 48.

Girl Scouts Hold 'Green Up Time'

Hicksville Girl Scout Neighborhood 3, invites mothers or fathers or both of Hicksville Girl Scouts to "Green Up Time". Come and have coffee and cake with Mrs. Jeanne Schultz Neighborhood Chairman, Organizers of Scout troops in Hicksville, along with the Consultants to the troop leaders as well as your daughters leaders.

There will be brief talks on the four levels of Scouting Brownie, Junior, Cadette, and Seniors. Special guest Mrs. David Franklin, 2nd vice-president of Mid-Island Council Girl Scouts. Camp Co-ordinator Mrs. Barbara Burd.

Where: Hicksville Jr. High School-Auditorium Time: 8:00 to 10:00 p.m.

If your daughter attends meetings at these locations the date is: Feb. 2, St. Ignatius Church, Hicksville Jewish Center, East Street School, Woodland Avenue School, Lee Avenue School, Our Lady of Mercy Church, St. Stephens Church and Senior Troop 17.

Feb. 9, Dutch Lane School, Old Country School, Holy Family Church, Fork Lane School, Methodist Church, Burns Avenue School, Willit Avenue School and Trinity Lutheran Church.

Foglia, Debbie Molloy. The second team of the 8th graders went undefeated this season. This is obvious by the expression on the girls faces.

Plainview High School Student Association Report

by Jeff Grinspan

The Student Association of Plainview High is continuing to propose, discuss and present various pieces of legislation which they feel will make this school a better and more interesting place.

During the month of December, many things were discussed. On the top of the list was the establishment of a Building Advisory Council. This council was set up to provide a direct line of communication between students, teachers and the administration. This council will act in an advisory capacity on matters of mutual interest. Any proposal that either the students, faculty or administration suggest shall be referred to the B.A.C. if the proposal concerns more than one group. No one group shall present or initiate policy affecting another group without presenting the proposal to the Building Advisory Council for reaction among the other groups.

Various other proposals were discussed. Of these, a move to abolish the cutting system got wide support from the assembly. So did a resolution concerning disciplinary action when a student is legitimately absent from school.

Highlighting the month of January was the allocation of $600 from S.A. funds to help our United Nations Club and Music Department go on various trips. Secondly, the Assembly moved to set up department curriculum committees. These would assist each academic department to help evaluate and discuss new curricula and to assist in the formulation of more relevant teaching matter. The committees should be made up of students from all three grade levels, regardless of academic standing.

Operation VFW

William M. Goure, Jr., Post No. 3211

By Lou Palladino

The new year had started and already we have something about due. The ski trip seemed so far off is now about ready. Harry Wirth reported eighty people will participate in this fun loving event. That's more than double last year's attendance. They must have had a ball, and expected more of the same this year.

We were expecting Vinnie Esposito, the county inspector, that last meeting, but Cmdr. Frank Aug was notified he couldn't make it, and hoped he be at our next. Maybe he wants to see how we operate, and what makes us tick. We may not be the best post in the state, but who knows of any better. We take a lot of pride in this order. If you don't believe it ask Frank Aug.

Incidentally, we lost money at our New Years Eve Party, but we had a grand time. How can you operate at a profit with all the goodies we had. We, that attended, all agreed to having a wonderful time. We greeted the new year in with just the right amount of gaiety. You can say that again.

Now don't forget, you have until May 18th to put in your claim for real estate tax exemption. Just go to the Oyster Bay Annex, 65 Broadway in Hicksville, and see Joe McCarthy. He'll help you take care of it.

We received a letter from County for our cooperation on the voice of Democracy. And Jim Sotille mentioned that he's already setting up a program for the next one. You have known our feeling on this subject, and the support we got. So no sense getting on a soap box again.

Ed Chwalisz made mention that our journal is moving at a pretty good pace. But he feels there is room for improvement. As long as the journal is being mentioned, Frank Loti reported on the Dinner Dance Reservation cut off will be February 6. This is our biggest affair for the year. Its our Charter Night. Help us to celebrate our birthday. Frank says the tickets are moving very well. Remember the night is Sat. Feb. 20th at the Galaxy in Plainview. With all the food and refreshment being offered how can we make anything at $5 a couple. This one is a can't miss. Oh Boy.

Uncle Frank Bless set up a schedule for bingo, but as far it hasn't worked out. Uncle Frank isn't complaining yet, but he's trying to make it a little easier for everybody who wished to help in this giant project. This is what has to help us pay for our new building, if we ever manage to get it up.

Lets not go into that again. Knowing how diligent Uncle Frank is, you expect him to work out a combination to suit everybody.

Bob McGovern reports the packages are still going out with the same regularity. Not for our benefit, but for the sake of the boy over there. Its your duty to notify him of any Vet in Vietnam or Korea. Not for our benefit, but for the sake of the boy over there. Let him know somebody is thinking of him.

Why not come out to the next meeting and get acquainted, and for your comrades that haven't been over for a while, get reacquainted.
