Solicitation Of Bids

Ralph G. Cascardo, Postmaster is soliciting bids for the operation of a Contract Station in the vicinity of Old Country Road and Newbridge Road. The term of the contract will be for the unexpired portion of a three year period ending June 30, 1972. Anyone who can offer suitable space in a business location may contact the Postmaster in Room 154, Main Post Office, 185 West John Street, Hicksville, New York 11802.

SPOT Members Vote Re Triangle Plan

In a recent poll of the members of the Society to Preserve Our Town (SPOT) 58 percent of the ballots cast were against the master plan as submitted by the consulting firm of Raymond, Parish and Pine, Inc.; 38 percent voted for the plan and 4 percent were blank.

SPOT had also sought the feelings of its members for the building of a new Town Hall in centrally located Hicksville, rather than in far-off Oyster Bay. On this question 84 percent of the votes cast favored the idea; 15 percent were opposed and 1 percent were blank.

In addition the members also submitted ideas and suggestions, some of which have been forwarded to the Town Board.

Due to the fact that many petitions are already in circulation, SPOT is not pursuing this course, but will be in communication with the Board.

Mr. Immesberger said that SPOT would support the divorce of consideration of the residential part of the plan from the business area in view of the fact that master plans have yet to be submitted for other areas of the Town of Oyster Bay that have a smaller population density than Hicksville. Also, the proposed residential area is already largely composed of homes that will not change in the immediate future.

Tempers School Board Meeting

MRS. D. KLEIN

By Shirley Smith

Tempers flared and emotions were charged at Tuesday's budget hearing. But not all the sparks were caused by dollar signs.

The $611,161 cut in the budget figure defeated by Hicksville voters in June was both praised and questioned. Bill Bruno commended the Board for its economy measures and the savings to the taxpayers. Barbara Rosman said the Board had not come across with the $500,000 cut which its newly-elected members had promised during their campaign. Most of the deletions, she said, were made possible by unexpected money from BOCES, decreases in interest rates, reduction in BOCES tuition, and would have been forthcoming without Board action. Mrs.

Rosman asked the Board where the rest of the reduction was that the community had been promised. Board president, Thomas Muratore, did not give an answer.

Suggestions were made to further reduce budget costs by eliminating all transportation, except for handicapped students, and required instruction.

The Board was asked whether any provision was being made for a winter recreation program. It was suggested that the $50,000 surplus from the 1970-71 budget be used to finance a recreation program. The Board will take this under advisement.

After the School Board voted to stop the printing of the curriculum revisions for grades 1 through 6 (effective July 28 at 8 a.m.), more sparks flew. Mr. McCormack—who was the only Board trustee to vote "no" on Mr. Pappas' motion (Mr. Bello and Mr. Kershen were not at the meeting) — pointed out that these revisions have been worked on all year and that the teachers eliminating substitute teachers. Mr. Abt said there is no state law requiring a district to hire substitutes, but 180 days of instruction is required for all students. If a teacher were to be absent and no replacement provided, some students might not be able to receive the

Drug Group Gets Funding For Youthful Drug Abuser Program

Clyde R. Collins, executive director of the Nassau County Drug Abuse and Addiction Commission, announced the first check for $1,875 has been mailed to Project Outreach-Hicksville EOC, one of the area's anti-drug organizations, under the state's Youthful Drug Abuser program. This first payment represents one-twelfth of the organization's state-approved budget of $22,500. And a check for $1,666.66 has been mailed to the Plainview-Old Bethpage Council Against Drug Abuse anti-drug organization.

We're very gratified that the close cooperation between Nassau's drug commission and local citizens concerned with fighting the drug problem has finally borne financial fruit," Collins said. "Our efforts now will be directed to helping the organization with the development of these new drug prevention and drug education programs for the under-16 population."

The County Comptroller's office issued the Youthful Drug Abuser check last week after County Executive Ralph G. Caso signed the official contract, one of 76 approved for matching funds by the New York State Narcotic Addiction Control Commission.

In signing the contract, County Executive Caso said, "I am delighted that the state commission has approved the local programs developed in Nassau County." With essential grassroots action supplemented by county drug commission resources and state financing, he indicated, "these programs will be able to mount meaningful campaigns against drug abuse," mission, which submitted more Youthful Drug Abuser proposals than any other unit of government in the state, was approved for a maximum potential of $4,715,216 for disbursement to the local groups.

Abortion Restriction Approved by Board Hearing August 10 on G-1 Zone for Hicksville Triangle

By a unanimous vote at the town meeting on Tuesday (July 27) the Oyster Bay Town Board passed the law which was the subject of a stormy public hearing a few weeks ago to ban the performance of abortions in the town except in hospitals which have been accredited and licensed by the New York State Department of Health.

The vote went as quickly as the least important item on the calendar, with no fanfare. Those convicted of violating the law will receive a fine of $1,000 or a prison sentence of 15 days.

A statement by Supervisor John W. Burke said that the law was prompted by the Town Board's concern for the health, safety and welfare of the town's 360,000 residents. Oyster Bay is the third and last of the three towns in Nassau County to enact such a law.

The law states that the owner of any building in which such illegal abortions were found to have been performed would also be liable for prosecution.

Ordinance Amended
In another resolution, the Board adopted an amendment to the Building Zone Ordinance of the town relating to mother-daughter residence, adding to the definition of same that such two-family residences are strictly for use by parents or children of the fee owner of the property.

Suburban City

A sparkling vision of bronzed glass buildings, flower-decked malls, vestpocket parks, rooftop restaurants and underground arcades comes to mind in reading the proposed amendment to the Town Building Ordinance which would create a new zoning category, that of G-1 Business District (Central Business) put forth by the Oyster Bay Town Board and to be implemented in the Hicksville Triangle area.

Whether that vision is a favorable one or not will be known on Tuesday, August 10th, when the Town Board will hold a public hearing on the proposed amendment at Town Hall starting at 10 A.M.

The new zoning category would replace the Business G zoning for most of the triangle area. The category differs from the standard G zone in that it can only be applied within walking distance (one mile) of a major transportation center, that being defined as a station being served by not less than two branches of the Long Island Rail Road and serving not less than 4,000 riders daily.

Requirements of the two zones are also different. G-1 allows a height of sixty feet or five stories per building, while G limits buildings to 50 feet. Also, while builders on Business G property can cover 80 percent of the land with a building, those on G-1 can cover a diminishing amount of land, starting at 60 percent coverage for a two-story building and ending at 35 percent for a five story building. Distances between buildings are also controlled by their height, the requirement for a tall building calling for a distance of half its height from the adjacent building.

Uses allowed in a G-1 zone are those of the urban center, ruling out apartment buildings.

Uses allowed in a G-1 zone are those of the urban center, ruling out apartment buildings. Uses listed are offices, public and private banks, with drive-in windows allowed only after a public hearing; theaters and auditoriums; broadcasting studios, except any which require visible unsightly equipment; places of worship; parish houses and convents; small retail and service shops, providing, in the aggregate, they cover not more than 10 percent of the building's total floor area; restaurants, providing 90 percent of seats are at tables. Restaurants can occupy the top floor of the building, as well.

Offstreet parking requirements include one parking space for each 250 square feet of floor area for general office buildings; one space for each 3 seats in a theater or auditorium; and one space for every 7 seats in places of worship. Not less than 90 percent of all parking must be underground or in a structure "screened by means of an architectural treatment acceptable to the planning advisory board." A parking structure above ground will be added into the lot coverage consideration.

All of this development will be kept airy and suburban, according to Supervisor John Burke, by rigorous requirements in front yard setbacks (ranging from 25 to 50 feet), planting of evergreens and shrubs, establishment of seating areas, and wide open spaces brought about by minimized lot coverage. The minimum lot size in a G-1 category is 20,000 square feet, or roughly 100 x 100.

Burke said the Board hopes, through the establishment of the G-1 zone, to encourage an orderly development of downtown Hicksville; broaden the community's tax base and provide greater job opportunities; preserve open spaces; and reduce congestion while promoting necessary traffic flow and business growth.

Public Works Improvement On Schedule In Hicksville

Town Councilman Warren M. Doolittle reported today that drainage and highway improvements have been unanimously approved by the Town Board for a Department of Public Works project in Hicksville.

Doolittle said storm water drains, curbs and gutters and pavement base are being installed on Lawnview Avenue, Henry Avenue, Roosevelt Avenue, Longside Drive, South Lawnside Avenue and Ernest Avenue.

The recommendation to award this drainage contract to the qualified low bidder, Ralph Jannotta, Inc., Glen Cove Road, Roslyn, in the amount of $194,537.35, was made by Gerard P. Trotta, Commissioner of Public Works and Harold R. Kraft, Superintendent of the Drainage Bureau of the Highway Division.

Construction of pavement and curbs on Cherry Street, in the vicinity of Latern Lane and Newbridge Road, Hicksville, was awarded to the Amfar Asphalt Corp., Old Northport Road, Kings Park, low bidder for the highway plan at $78,897.50. Sidney Bowne & Sons are the consulting engineers for this DPW plan. Work is scheduled to commence in August.

Rotarians Welcome District Governor

Hicksville Rotarians will welcome Dr. Roger P. Phelps, Governor of Rotary District 725 on July 29. The Rotary Club of Hicksville, one of 71 clubs in Long Island's District 725, was organized in 1961. Dr. Phelps, a member of the Rotary Club of Baldwin, will confer with club president Christian C. Mazur and club secretary Robert O. Walton and other club officials concerning the group's plans for service activities in Hicksville and offer suggestions on administrative matters.

Dr. Phelps, an educator, is one of 321 Rotary governors throughout the world who are serving as representatives of Rotary International in districts composed of member clubs. Each district governor is responsible for supervising the clubs in his area. Rotary, an international men's service organization, has more than 705,000 members in some 14,900 clubs in 149 countries.

Fence Approved

The plan for the installation of a six-foot fence instead of a four-foot fence on the boundaries of the property of Higbie Collision, Plainview, was approved by the Oyster Bay Town Board on Tuesday, July 27. A petition allowing Higbie to construct and maintain an auto body repair shop on Old Country Road, Plainview, was approved recently by The Town Board.

Hearing Continued On 1088-Unit Jericho Apts.

In an unprecedented action, the Town Board of Oyster Bay voted to continue the public hearing on the petition of Myron Nelkin for a mammoth apartment complex on the 68-acre Lehman estate in Jericho after an active two-and-half hour hearing at Town Hall on Tuesday evening.

The hearing will be continued on September 14th in direct response, according to Supervisor John Burke, to the request of the Jericho Joint Civic Council and presidents of the Civic Associations who comprise it because of the "magnitude" of the development have been continued in the past, he said, but never for this length of time.

The prospect of the emergence of the 1,008 Quaker Village apartment complex on the Lehman estate in Jericho was taken to unkindly by about 300 Jericho residents who were present at the hearing on Tuesday on the application for a change of zone on the property from Residence A to E-1 Apartment House District.

The apartment unit, when filled, would increase the population of Jericho by about one-third, pointed out one protester.

The apartments, said lawyer Charles Feisel, who presented the petition, would use public water and public sewage. The appearance of the apartments would be similar to another development by Mr. Nelkin in Woodbury, on the north side of Jericho Turnpike adjacent to the Seaford-Oyster Bay Expressway. Mr. Feisel said the apartment complex would produce about 200 school age children, add about $775,000 to the tax revenue and fill a need for housing in the Town. The 68 buildings proposed would provide 16 units per acre, all luxury housing. Included would be 68 efficiency apartments; 68 two-bedroom apartments, and the balance one-bedroom apartments.

III and his father, Hamilton Hadley, Jr., formerly of the Jericho Board of Education, at Town Hall Tuesday evening.

The development would have three entrances, exit roads, all on the north service road of the expressway. There would be no egress onto Route 107, and the setback from Jericho Turnpike would be 50 feet.

Eleven acres, including about 2½ acres underwater below the now existing pond on the property and the Lehman Mansion, would be set aside for recreation purposes.

Master Plan Needed

Objections to the development centered on its density; the increase in traffic and need for services to accommodate its large population; the lack of a master plan for the area, and the general aura of "wall-to-wall asphalt." In one objector's words, "About twenty people got up to protest the application, including the presidents of all the civic associations in the area. Under the leadership of Milton Mensch, President of the Jericho Joint Civic Council, each president read a statement to the Board requesting a continuation of the hearing on September 14th in order for them to prepare testimony and investigate the petition.

The Board agreed that it would make no decision on the petition under any circumstances before the master plan for the area was completed, for which the target date is this Fall.

A letter from Seaman & Gantwirth, Jericho attorneys, protesting the petition in behalf of its clients, protested such a development, with no satellite facilities provided to serve it, and estimated it would generate an additional 1,000 cars into the Honorable Action?

At 8 p.m. on Wednesday evening, when representatives of this newspaper went over to the Administration Building to pick up the figures of Wednesday's new registrants from the District Clerk, we heard that School Board President Thomas Muratore had been over earlier that same evening with instructions to Mrs. Blust to notify all the newspapers of a newly-called school board meeting for the very next evening, Thursday, July 29th, to consider the Superintendent's contract and other matters.

If you will read Shirley Smith's report of the Tuesday evening school board meeting and budget hearing you will note that at no time was such a meeting announced. Even though many present at this meeting asked directly concerning Supt. Abt's contract and what the Board intended to do about it, they were answered with a "no comment" by the board president, with a majority of this new school board present.

"No comment" is fine if you really have nothing to say. But it is an insult to the residents and taxpayers of this district, especially to those who care enough to take time out to attend these school board meetings, to refuse to answer their questions about a rumor that already has made a daily newspaper. It was a further insult on Tuesday evening to call another meeting two days later to consider this very matter and still NOT MENTION IT TO THOSE PRESENT.

The honorable thing to do was to announce the Thursday meeting at the Tuesday meeting, or, if the Board came to this decision after the Tuesday night meeting was adjourned, then the honorable thing to do was to call the Thursday meeting for a week later, so that the community could have been properly alerted. One of these actions would have been the honorable thing to do. Unless a board has something they wish to railroad through, why not encourage attendance of the voters, especially when a matter of such magnitude is being considered?

Railroading through meetings with inadequate notice is not honorable. Attacking those at the head of our district only by rumors and not by exact charge that he can answer, is not honorable.

The residents and taxpayers of District 17 are, mainly, honorable people. They expect adult, intelligent action from those who represent all of them on their various elected boards, and the school board is no exception.

Whatever is done should be done openly, honorably, and with full knowledge of all in the district.

Let us play no more games in this all-important area of our community life. We urge honorable action in all matters.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT:

Open letter to: HICKSVILLE BOARD OF EDUCATION

Your recent Brochure concerning the new budget vote on August 10th is both pleasing and disturbing.

On the one hand a reduction in the tax rate, without any diminution of the educational program is indeed welcome news to both the tax payer and those interested in education.

On the other hand some of the misleading and deceptive comments contained in the covering letter and detailed analyses regarding the ways in which the tax rate was reduced are disturbing.

First of all, it should be abundantly clear (even to the Board) that with the exception of a $150,000 "gift" from the Hicksville Classroom Teacher's Association and a $47,000 reduction in substitute teacher salaries the remaining items of tax reduction totaling $464,000 were accomplished without any action on the part of the Board of Education, i.e.

REDUCTION IN BOCES TUITION - $50,000

Determined by number of pupils attending program. Original estimate has been reduced.

REDUCTION IN DEBT SERVICE - $30,000

Original budget based on estimates early in '71. Actual interest costs now lower.

REDUCTION IN EMPLOYEE BENEFITS - $50,000

Automatically tied with HCTA "gift" and reduction in substitute salaries.

INCREASE IN ESTIMATED SURPLUS - $50,000

Again an estimate made many months ago has been adjusted on the basis of actual experience.

REDUCTION IN OPERATION & MAINTENANCE OF PLANT - $284,000

I take strong objection to your statement that "members of the Board will work with administration in maintaining a tight budget operation" to produce this reduction. It is a fact, although not even mentioned or emphasized in your brochure that this $284,000 reduction was actually accomplished thru the receipt of additional funds from BOCES over and above what had been previously estimated for this year. (References - Board Meeting of July 13, 1971 and Mid-Island Herald report of same meeting.) It is also a fact that if these monies had been received in the current fiscal year (beginning July 1, 1971) they would possibly be part of the surplus available at June 30, 1972 to reduce the 1972/73 tax rate!

To sum up -
1. I am pleased that it is possible to reduce the tax rate without impairing the educational program.

2. I am displeased to see the Board take credit for these reductions when, as indicated above, they would have occurred in spite of them.

3. I am still waiting for the newly elected members to make good on their campaign promise of a $500,000 budget reduction (less perhaps $47,000 for substitute teacher's salaries.)

4. I would find it difficult to believe that this Board of Education would purposely mislead the public. I must, therefore, conclude that since the reductions were accomplished without their help, and since, by accident, they satisfy some campaign pledges, the LIFE majority of the Board has permitted the misleading budget brochure to be published without completely understanding what actually happened to reduce the tax rate.

5. I strongly recommend a "YES" vote on August 10th.

Very truly yours,
S. William J. O'Donnell
William J. O'Donnell

Dear Editor:

Back in June, Mr. Bello and Mr. Pappas, "Life" endorsed candidates for the School Board, ran on a platform which promised a motion to reduce the budget by no less than $500,000. A new budget will be presented to the voters on August 10 and so far no such "Motion" has been made.

The budget has been reduced by $611,161.00. Of this sum, $284,161.00 is a "gift" from B.O.C.E.S. Another $50,000.00 is money we will not be spending in B.O.C.E.S. due to about 25 students changing their plans to attend. A second $50,000.00 comes to us in a reduction in debt service. The remaining $227,000.00 was reduced through the efforts and cooperation of Superintendent Abt, the Administration and our teachers.

In other words, our School Board still owes us a budget reduction of $384,161.00. This money is a gift and would have appeared as surplus no matter if the budget had passed or failed, no matter who was elected to the Board, and no matter what other action was taken by either the Board or the Superintendent. The original $500,000.00 promise has been reduced to a mere $115,839.00 - a little over 10c $100 a / v on our tax rate!

Don't be fooled - don't let our Board paint the image of themselves as heroes on white chargers. There is no Lone Ranger, Virginia - there is no real "fat" to be trimmed and this Board knows it - don't let them tell us that the "Life-Endorsers" Board has reduced our tax rate by 51c. They didn't do it!!! Ask them where the rest of the reduction is - they promised - now let's see them come across and still keep the educational process intact.

Yours very truly,
S. Barbara Rosman

Dear Friends ...

It is always important to read the legal notices for your own protection and information. This applies particularly so this week to Hicksville residents, as you will see when you read this week's legal notices. Naturally THE MID ISLAND HERALD also has covering stories to cover all such important hearings and votes, as are coming up on Tuesday, August 10...but, please read all that is available on these subjects and also, don't forget to mark your calendars because both the Town of Oyster Bay hearing and the second vote on Hicksville

School District 17 budget are scheduled for the same day. We checked this out, but the consensus of opinion was that the 10 a.m. hearing in Oyster Bay would still leave residents plenty of time to vote. We hope that all interested will not have difficulty in fitting both these events into your schedule. Maybe we should call Tuesday, August 10, 1971 HICKSVILLE DAY....

If you are not registered, you cannot vote. Wednesday, Aug. 4 is your last opportunity to do this. Registration for voting on the school budget is held at the Division Avenue Administration Building. Now, from 18 years of age up, you have the privilege of voting. Your vote is important, so, if you are not yet registered, we urge you to do so.

Town of Oyster Bay D.P.W. Commissioner Jerry Trotta tells us that recycling decals and brochures are now available to the Hicksville Library and next week will also be available at the Plainview-Old Bethpage Library. Nice work, J.

AS WE GO TO PRESS so much is happening that we will reserve personal comment until next week. But we firmly believe, whether it is what will be planned for the triangle of Hicksville, or our young people's educational system, that, if we can permit cool heads to proceed with orderly evaluation, good can result, for our town, for its business area progress and our school

JERRY BRILL

I worked for the late State Senator Ed Speno for a lot of years. I learned his moods. I knew his thinking. But that was my job. So it was expected.

Speno was a dedicated activist. He chaired nothing by default. He started nothing he couldn't finish. The 200 or so laws that bear his name, he meant. The only thing that wouldn't conform to the brilliant direction of his thinking, was death!

Of all the charities that he headed, none was more important to him than The Boys' Towns of Italy in Nassau. When it came time for the International Ball in August, the wheels were in motion in June, with him and his boys, dedicated to its success. One, on decorations, one on coordination, one on fundraising.

Mc? On writing and publicity. The infinitely dedicated Speno team would go anywhere when "himself" made the call. Clarence Geiger to Albany. Marvin Bernstein arranging the convention. Harry Grimmer to a local spot. And getting it done was the rule. Getting it done right, was the game.

Just before the International Ball about 7 years ago, "himself" had the boys off the wall with his penchant for details. This one day my job was to pick up Monsignor Carroll-Abbing at the airport and bring him to a meeting at headquarters. The Monsignor is the man who founded Boys' Town and a dedicated, sincere and straight servant of all people.

One of the many rules about remaining on the Speno team, was assurance—conveyed by a lack of questions. I sometimes thought that he authored "A Message to Garcia"—but then he couldn't have. I was the writer!

I didn't know the Monsignor had no idea of his level of English—and only with the assistance of the reliable Grimmer, who accompanied me, did I project the indigence of my image.

Monsignor got off the plane about 4 PM and with the gift of experience and the recognition factor of his description, I spotted him right away.

"Harry," I said to Grimmer, "that's him coming down the stairs, now."

"Astounding," commented Grimmer.

"Look, Harry," said I, "one of the very first things about this business is that the mind must be a steel trap at all times. Now look, the glasses, the small briefcase, the hurried walk, the pleasant smile—a guy just has to watch for these."

"Also, he's the only one with his collar turned around," said Grimmer.

I rushed out to greet the Monsignor, completely ignoring the Grimmer thought. A collar being turned around could easily mean that a guy had his head on backwards. But I said nothing. He spoke English marvelously well. He asked for the Senator and we talked and we laughed as we waited for the luggage. Unfortunately, an old friend of mine was also waiting for the luggage off of this flight from Rome; he spotted me, I introduced him to Monsignor and Harry.

"Jerry," said he, "I have a new plant opening today on the island. I'd like all of you to join me. It's on the way."

I told him we couldn't become of the Senator. But some guys don't take "no" for an answer. I called and left word with the Senator that we'd be an hour late due to fogging conditions. I didn't tell him that the fogging conditions would be under my hat. This guy was a drinking buddy. I knew what was playing if he had another plant opening.

We went to the party.

An hour led to two—and I called frequently—and we got to about 7 PM. Monsignor was enjoying it immensely. Making many friends. We couldn't leave.

At 7:15, I walked Speno and the five others who were to attend his meeting.

Speno wore his big ruddy smile. Everyone greeted him. The host asked him to say a word. Which was not unlike one putting one gallon of gasoline in your car. He said many and finished with:

"Our meeting will be held in that little room over there and we'll take about 20 minutes. That is, if Minister Brill and Minister Grimmer can spare the time. Don't go away. Keep the party going and we'll join you in 20. We missed enough of this party now."

We went inside for our huddle, and the first order of business was the presentation of a check in a substantial amount to The Boys' Towns of Italy by the host of the party, in appreciation. He would turn out to be a good supporter of the Senator's campaign. After our business, we all returned to the outer room and the party which went into the early hours.

So now, when I see that August 22 is the Boys' Towns of Italy International Ball at Roosevelt Raceway, I know that they must be thinking as I, what a loss was Senator Speno's death—not only to Boys' Towns or the American Cancer Society or even New York State—but what a loss to humanity. For Speno's strength was in a rare congruency with his compassion and understanding. I somehow think—as no doubt

When our loan man says "yes," he gives you an auto loan fast. If he says "no," we give you a different loan man.

At Chemical Bank, our loan people have a couple of firm rules, designed to help you get rid of your old klunker as painlessly as possible.

Rule #1: Any time a loan man approves a car loan, that's it. Nobody else to see, no fooling around. Which means you can get your money on the spot.

Rule #2: Any time a loan man feels he might have to refuse an auto loan, he calls in another loan man and they go back over your application right away. And they try very hard to put your loan through.

If you can still start up the old bucket of bolts, there are nearly 150 Chemical Bank branches you can rattle up to. If not, phone (212) 770-1823 and ask us to send you an auto loan application.

Polo at Bethpage

The finals of the Bothean Invitational Tournament will take off at the Bethpage State Park Polo Field on Sunday August first, two of the elimination games leading to the finals to be held at the Hickox Field in Old Westbury on Tuesday and Thursday the 27th and 29th of July. In the first of these two mid-week matches Aiken will play Westbury; Aiken lining up with Frank Mortimer Tom Monaco, G. H. "Pete" Bostwick and Fred Zeller against Westbury's Ted Brinkman, John Cayer, Russell Corey and Tony Cappolo and in the second game the Brookville winners in the initial try on July 25th-Bob Lubash, Ted Shapiro, Alan Corey III and Peter Daly, will meet with Bethpage's John Whittemore, John Greenleaf, Dave Rizzo and Fred Braustein. Brought into play last year by Burt Bacharach's restaurant, Rothman's East Norwich Inn, the coveted Rothman trophy is a prize each team will fight to the finish to win.

A hotly contested game, marked by hard riding and bumping, put Brookville in line to try for the finale in the Rothman Tournament on August first. Teaming up for Brookville on Sunday July 25th Bob Lubash, Ted Shapiro, Alan Corey III and Peter Daly advanced to a four to two lead in the first half against Oyster Bay's Kurt Rosche, Mike Gerard, Fred Guest and Allen Jerkens, the green light never going out for them. Bob Lubash, sparked by his teammates expert maneuvers, chalking up seven goals in Brookville's ten to three total. He matter what the opposition dished out, and Guest and Jerkens played a superb six chukkers, it just wouldn't click. Always an exciting afternoon for everyone at the Bethpage State Park Polo Field, tournaments add dash and color to the action of horse and man as they make a bid for the trophy. Gametime is 3:30 P. M. and admission is free to youngsters under twelve accompanied by an adult, the regular charge $1.50 to others. The park is always cooler, always a delight, the polo area a place where one can relax and enjoy a few hours and where children find just as much fun as anyone else, a boon to grown-ups especially on a hot muggy Sunday.

Tips Regarding Mail

As the 1971 vacation season reaches its peak, the U.S. Postal Service offered suggestions and tips regarding mail for postal customers who will be away from home for extended periods.

For example, vacationers are urged not to allow their mail box to become overstuffed in their absence. This might tempt thieves to take their mail or enter their homes while they are away.

As a precaution against the possibility of mail theft, the Postal Service advises postal customers to ask a friend or neighbor to empty the mail box daily and hold the mail until return.

Or a customer may ask his post office to hold his mail until he returns from vacation. Upon written request, mail will be held up to 30 days, unless the sender has specified that it be returned sooner if delivery cannot be accomplished within a certain time limit.

For the vacationers who will be away for a considerable period of time, the filing of a forwarding order with the local post office is advised.

MRS. THOMAS RAE: St. Ignace Loyola Church of Hicksville was the setting for the marriage of Christine Grace Chwalisz of Hicksville to Thomas Rae of Bethpage on July 11. Father William R. Karvelis performed the ceremony.

The bride daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Chwalisz is a graduate of Lakeland College, Sheboygan Wisconsin. The Maid of Honor was Carolann Chwalisz, sister of the bride, other attendants were Carolyn Rae, Barbara Phipps, Sheila Horan and Patricia Bennett. Two Jr. attendants were Linda Kalsky, and Donna Drzewicki. Cousins of the bride, Flower girl was Marie Elena Kalsky.

Mr. Thomas Heller served as best man. Ushers were Edmund Chwalisz, Carmine Esposito, Steve Krapos, and Frank Schudde. Ringbearer was James Esposito.

Following a Honeymoon trip to the Poconos, the couple will reside in Hicksville.

"Wizard Of Oz" Tours Oyster Bay Town

A special adaptation of the classic fairy tale, "The Wizard of Oz", the second production of Oyster Bay Town's Teen Repertory Theatre, opened this week at the Syosset-Woodbury Community Park. The troupe, under the direction of Marilyn Rosen, recently completed a highly successful tour of community parks and other civic centers with its production of "The Emperor's Daughters". Town Councilman Sal Mosca reported "They drew standing-room-only audiences at almost every performance". Mosca added:

In addition to appearances at the Town's four community parks, performances have also been scheduled for other community centers including Faith Lutheran Church, Syosset, Klein's department store in Mid Island Shopping Plaza, Hicksville, and libraries in Syosset, Bethpage and Plainville.

The Teen Repertory Theatre, sponsored by the Cultural and Performing Arts Division of the Town's Department of Recreation and Community Activities, provides a free training ground for talented teens residing in Oyster Bay Town. Those chosen at auditions attend a two-hour class twice weekly to study acting, stage techniques, speech, body movement, improvisation, make-up and costume design.

The following performances are scheduled:

Wednesday, July 28, 2:00 PM Plainview Old Bethpage Comm. Park; Thurs., July 29, 2:00 PM Bethpage Community Park; Wednesday, August 4, 2:00 PM Haypath Community Park; Friday, August 6, 10:30 AM Faith Lutheran Church, Syosset; Monday, August 9, 2:00 PM Syosset Public Library; Tuesday, August 10, 10:30 AM Cantigue Park, Hicksville; Thursday, August 12, 2:00 PM Bethpage Public Library; and Friday, August 13, 2:00 PM Kleins, Mid-Island Shopping Plaza, Hicksville.

From Your Congressman

James R.

President Nixon received much anticipated praise for his initiative in opening doors to an understanding with mainland China. But mingled with the applause was bitter criticism from many persons who continue to look upon the Chinese behemoth with misgivings and outright distrust.

Actually, the criticism of President Nixon's planned journey matches the continuing barrage from his foes over the Nixon policy with regard to Viet Nam. Although our troops are streaming out of Viet Nam and our casualties are spiraling down, the cry continues that Nixon isn't doing enough and isn't acting quickly enough. But this sort of attack, from both the left and the right in our nation, doesn't take into account the fact that Nixon has shaken our foreign policy from the doldrums into which it had fallen over the past decade. Not since the administration of Dwight Eisenhower has this nation faced such solid prospects of peace and international stability. I have had called to my attention a quote attributed to Teddy Roosevelt which very much suits this situation. I think it might provide some food for thought.

"It is not the critic who counts; not the man who points out how the strong man stumbles, or where the door of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly; who errs, and comes short again and again, because there is no effort without error and shortcoming; but who does actually strive to do the deeds; who knows the great enthusiasms, the great devotions; who spends himself in a worthy cause; who at the best knows in the end the triumph of high achievement, and who at the worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who know neither victory nor defeat."

Emergency Bus Transportation

Acting under directions from Nassau County Executive Ralph G. Caso, the county's Department of Transportation has developed plans for emergency bus transportation in the event of a strike against the Long Island Railroad.

In addition to increasing service along existing routes, the plan features establishment of three strategically located park and ride centers, the use of school buses and cooperation by the county's police and parks personnel.

"It would be impossible to completely solve the problems resulting from a strike against the railroad, but we have devised a plan that offers commuters the maximum amount of help," caso said.

The county's Department of Transportation will supervise separate "park and ride" express bus centers, to be serviced primarily by approximately 75 idel school buses presently standing by. Buses will take commuters to and from subway stations in Queens. The fare will be $1.50 each way. It is estimated that 5,000 commuters can be serviced by the school buses.

Among the centers will be Mid-Island Plaza, Hicksville - in the southwestern section of the shopping center. Parking for 1,000 cars. Service to and from Flushing. (The Hicksville Railroad station will supplement this center as an express pick-up point.)

Commissioner of Transportation Andrew G. Schiavone said that personnel from the county's Department of Redreation and Parks will supervise parking at all park and ride centers. In the event of a long-term strike, the police department will set up and control "no Parking" lanes for exclusive use of buses wherever necessary. The police helicopter will provide the transportation department with emergency information.

If the strike takes place on Wednesday afternoon, Schiavone said that a limited number of school buses will go to the Flushing and Jamaica subway stations to pick up passengers and take them to the park and ride centers.

The principle bus carriers will augment service on all existing routes, particularly during peak hours, to carry extra passengers to subway stations in Queens. Schiavone estimated that approximately 10,000 additional riders could be accommodated by the increased bus service. Extra service also will be provided on the existing direct service bus to Manhattan.

Finally, TRIP, the bus information center, will be fully staffed to handle the anticipated load of calls requesting information. The phone number is 626-3900.

Recreation Roundup- Second Week

Oyster Bay Town community parks were a sea of activity this past week as the summer recreation programs swung into high gear. There was something for everyone, as can be seen in the following roundup of activities for the week:

HAPPATH PARK (BETHPAGE) - One win and one loss marked the opening of the softball season. In dual games against Bethpage Park, the 9-12 year olds pulled one out of the fire with an eight-run rally in the last inning for a 13-9 win. The 12-16 age group team was less fortunate, dropping the opener 10-0 to Bethpage. Coach Steve Davis expects changes in strategy to produce a winning season. Performances of "The Emperor's Daughters" by the Teen Repertory Theatre and the "Punch and Judy" puppet show each drew audiences of about 200 people. Youngsters also enjoyed

Sue Kahn's Sing-a-Long. Rock and shell collecting and sand casting were on the agenda for third-through-sixth grade girls at Roosevelt Beach, with the kindergarten set scheduled for a costume parade.

PLAINVIEW - OLD BETHPAGE COMMUNITY PARK - Hundreds of tiny fingers made it a very colorful day - in every way - when the children took part in a "fingerpainting happening". Considerable creativity and imagination have been displayed by the more than one thousand children who have registered to date in such arts and crafts as puppets, hot plates, bird houses and "Fun Film" flowers. A winning season is predicted for the softball teams who have beaten Syosset in two games.

BETHPAGE COMMUNITY PARK - Registration passed the

1,000 mark here last week. A record crowd of 450 saw the Nassau County Puppet Theatre performance of "Once Upon a Time". The defending championship softball team showed its winning ways with a 10-10 victory over Haypath Park and a 37-6 drubbing of Massapequa Park. An upcoming highlight is the "Little Folks Festival" in which the 4-7 year olds will sing, recite and dance.

SYOSSET-WOODBURY COMMUNITY PARK - The New York Nets basketball clinic triggered a tremendous response with both boys and girls demonstrating various skills and styles of play with the assistance of New stars Ollie Taylor and Manny Leaks. Folk singer Sue Kahn had the younger crowd singing along with great zest, if not always in the same key. The softball team's spirit has not been dampened by its opening day loss, and they look forward to a successful season. Enthusiastic audiences have greeted both appearances of the Nassau County Puppet Theatre, and a record turnout is expected for their July 29 performance. Hundreds of balloons were released by an equal number of children in the annual contest to see which one would travel the farthest.

Battle Of The Bands Finals

County executive Ralph G. Case announced that the finals of the annual Battle of the Bands, presented in cooperation with the towns of Hempstead, North Hempstead and Oyster Bay, will be held Saturday evening, August 7th, at the Lakeside Theater in Eisenhower Park. Ray Reynolds, WGBB radio announcer, will be master of ceremonies.

The winners of preliminary contests in the towns will compete for the title of Nassau County champs.

First place winners will receive an all expense paid recording session at Ultra Sound Studios, and a $500 gift certificate also from Sam Ash Music of Hempstead. Second prize will be $500 gift certificate also from Sam Ash.

The program will begin at 8:30 p.m. and in the event of rain, will be held the following evening, August 8th. The event is sponsored by the Long Island Lighting Co.

Tobay Offers Professional Tennis Instruction

Town Councilman Ralph Diamond announced today that professional tennis instruction will again be available to Oyster Bay Town residents at their respective community parks under the guidance of tennis instructor Hal Ross. Registration for the lessons, which are restricted to residents of the park districts, will be open from August 2 through August 20. Forms are available at the community parks and recreation centers. The fee for the course of 10 one-hour lessons is $25.00.

The program, which will begin the week of August 30, and run through the week of November 1, will offer classes for beginners, intermediates and advanced players. The classes will also be grouped according to age and limited to 12 students per class. Students must supply their own racquets, shoes and tennis balls. The curriculum will range from basic strokes, service and ball control for the beginners to singles and doubles strategy and shot variations for more advanced players.

Interested Town residents can obtain more information on the program from Phil Alfino, Assistant Director, Department of Recreation and Community Activities, at 921-5875.

Silent Film Classic At Hicksville Library

Every Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. during the month of August the Hicksville Public Library will present a Silent Film Classic. The first presentation on August 4 will be a Mack Sennett Program, consisting of "Comrades" (1911), "Mabel's Dramatic Career" (1913), "The Surf Girl" (1916), "His Bread and Butter" (1916), "The Clever Bummy" (1917) and "Astray from the Steerage" (1920). There will be almost two hours of comedy in the style that Sennett originated that many later directors tried to emulate, but not as successfully.

The second film on August 11 will be the romantic team of Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell in their greatest hit, "Seventh Heaven." This is truly a classic piece of "schmalz" that most of us have only read about, and now the Hicksville Public Library is able to bring this 1927 delight to all the community.

The third offering will be shown on August 18. It is "The Iron Mask" with the fabulous Douglas Fairbanks playing the lead. Starring with him are Marguerite de la Motte, Belle Bennett and William Bakewell. This film was made in 1929 and is one of Fairbanks' last pictures in the "swashbuckling type" role.

The last of the Silent Great Series will be presented on August 25. The piece de resistance of the season is "Blood and Sand" starring Rudolph Valentino with Lila Lee and Nita Naldi. This is a very early Valentino film, having been produced in 1922.

These films are available only from the Museum of Modern Art Film Department and are not shown on commercial television or at movie theatres. We feel this is a great opportunity for film buffs or serious students of cinema art to be able to view these perfect examples of film making at the very beginning of the Hollywood era.

Children's Room At Hicksville Library

Plays, parties and a bus trip will be highlights of the Hicksville Public Library in August. Children who have completed their readings may now pick up a permission slip so that they may go on the bus trip to the Suffolk Museum and Carriage House on Thursday, August 19 at 9:30 a.m. The fee for the trip is $2.00 and parental approval is mandatory. Caso went on to thank the hundreds of donors who have contributed more than 30,000 items to the museum's collections.

Since its opening in 1961 over 1,000,000 people have visited the museum, which is located in Eisenhower Park, East Meadow.

Activities Continued During Summer By Pioneer Women's Club

The North Shore Club of Pioneer Women of Jericho is continuing its Fund and Fun Raising activities during the summer.

The beginning of July saw a moonlight bonride around Fire Island. Those attending ate and danced the evening away on the water.

A few weeks later, the Annual Pool and Card Party was held at the home of Phyllis Horowitz.

In August, the club is planning an evening hayride which should provide plenty of employment for the Pioneer Women and their husbands.

This past year, the North Shore Club donated sizeable sums to vocational schools and nursery schools in Israel.

HICKSVILLE AMERICAN LITTLE LEAGUE INC.

Well so ends another season of Little League baseball. At the beginning of the season I mentioned that the seed had been sewn and we have to wait until it blossoms. Well I believe this year has been the greatest ever. I have seen plays that any big league scout would give his eye teeth to see. I have seen hitting and team work that far surpassed anything I had hoped to see. And what made this all possible, I will tell you, it's that we have the best darn managers and coaches in any league. These plays and events have been brought to life by the power of the press by reliving those wonderful moments over again of the past season. I have been very fortunate to be allowed to spread a little joy into the game. But without the advice and understanding of Mrs. Noth the Editor of The Mid Island Herald, I couldn't possibly have made this column a success.

I want also to thank Bob Willis the president of the league and Dick Eaton Vice President for their tireless help thru out the season. And to my two able assistants Mike Pakaluk and Bob Cassagne, a job well done. To all the wives, mothers, etc. who have helped during this season especially my wife Gloria, without whom there would be a lot of mistakes I SAY "Your The Greatest." Last but not least the boys, no matter what league you played with, Thank you for making this my best season with Hicksville Little League.

The Major League

by Mike Pakaluk

Many adjectives can be used to describe the game held between Hicksville American and Westbury All-Star teams on Tuesday, July 20. A few choice ones used by all who saw the competition were "close", "exciting", "well-done", "great team work", "competitive"; the list runs on. For those hundreds of fans who were there, the true meaning of Little League shone through - competition at its highest, and team work at its best.

The final score of the game was Westbury 2, Hicksville 1. Tom Slome and Kenny Branham both collected 2 hits, Tom Hogan, John Poggioli, Mike O'Connor and Bob Schairer contributed one hit to the effort - Mike O'Connor's being a double.

The game lasted a lengthy 8 innings with the score deadlocked 1-1 after 6. The lone Hicksville run was scored in the third inning. Consecutive singles by Kenny Branham, Tom Hogan and John Poggioli put Hicksville on the scoreboard with John Poggioli earning an RBI.

A rally to win the game was made in the bottom of the sixth. John Poggioli's leadoff single was duplicated by a custom made Tom Slome hit. With men on 1st and 2nd, Bob Schairer reached first base on a fielder's choice getting John Poggioli at third. Two more outs left Tom Slome and Bob Schairer stranded.

In extra innings, Westbury was put away neatly in the seventh inning. In the same inning, K. Branham's single was the only Hicksville hit. In the 8th inning, with a Westbury man on second, Art Kappel made an amazing grab on a liner to deep centerfield. A single by Westbury scored a run, giving them the lead going into the bottom of the eighth. Tom Slome singled with one man out putting the tying run on, but his efforts were in vain. The team failed to produce a hit and Westbury gained a victory.

Jimmy Pakaluk went the full 8 innings for Hicksville. He allowed only 4 hits and 1 earned run.

The overall pitching performance for both teams was exceptional. Only 2 earned runs and 2 men walked in 8 innings - plus a total of 22 men were fanned.

I was proud to see that fans had literally flocked to lend their moral support to our budding athletes. I also wish to express my appreciation of a fine coaching job done by Mr. Poggioli and Mr. Branham.

I would also like to say a closing "Thank You" to all loyal Little League fans who attended season games and who have stood by their favorite team, rooting until the final out has been made.

Hicksville Colt Tournament Team Wins L.I. Championship

The Hicksville Colt Tournament team, which is sponsored by the Hicksville Baseball Association and local businessmen, won the Long Island Championship by defeating Farmingdale 1-0 in a pitchers battle last Sunday evening at MacClaren Field, Levittown. Steve Conte pitched a 3 hit shutout for Hicksville while Tom Palumbo took a 3 hit 1-0 loss. The winning run came in the second inning when Charlie Broussard got on with a fielders choice and was moved to third base on Tommy Bergin's single and scoring when Steve Conte singled. By winning its fourth straight game and no losses Hicksville now has the opportunity to compete for the Metropolitan Championship commencing Friday August 30 at 1:00 P.M. at Newburgh, New York where they will be in a three day play-off with upstate and New England teams.

Hicksville started the tournament with its first win over East Meadow at Hicksville last Wednesday evening July 21 at Hicksville with Steve Conte pitching for Hicksville and Lee for East Meadow. After a shaky first inning when East Meadow scored 3 runs Conte settled down to keep them in check for the rest of the game while the Hicksville batters took over to score 6 runs to win the game. Don Kopf led the attack with three hits with Bobby Daub, Ricky Doolittle and Frank Pace each getting two hits apiece. Hicksville winning 6-3.

The second game was played at Mineola the next evening July 22 where Hicksville played Farmingdale.

Farmingdale, Frank Pace was pitching for Hicksville. Tom Palumbo pitching for Farmingdale, both pitchers going the whole game in a pitchers battle. Farmingdale scored its lone run in the first on an error and one hit. Hicksville scored the winning run in the fifth inning when Ricky Doolittle got a base on balls and scoring on Charlie Broussard's long double. Broussard crossed the plate with the winning run when Steve Notskas came through with a smashing single. Each team got 4 hits. Hicksville winning 2-1.

Hicksville showed its power in the third game when they played Levittown Saturday July 24 at Bethpage State Park. Steve Niemczyk started for Levittown and Richie Gluckert for Hicksville. Gluckert never got by the second inning when Levittown got 4 runs on two walks and an error and one base hit by the opposing pitcher Niemczyk. John Portschy came on in relief in the second inning and didn't allow a hit for the rest of the game. Levittown one man as far as second base on two walks in the fifth inning but Hicksville stopped the threat with a double play. The Hicksville defense was faultless after the second inning lapse. Niemczyk was pitching fine ball but the Hicksville power got to him in the fourth inning. Steve Tedesco and Steve Notskas both walked. Frankie Pace came through with a two run single. Charlie Broussard got up and hit a two run game tying 385 foot home run into the bushes in right field. That was all for Niemczyk. Tom Padgett came on in relief for Levittown in the fifth inning. Hicksville went ahead with a run on two singles in the fifth. Hicksville got four singles in the sixth but couldn't score with one runner thrown out at second and another cut off at the plate. However Hicksville was not going to be held down as they came back in the seventh with four more hits and scoring two runs to win 7-4 Hicksville getting 14 hits to Levittown's 1.

gave us something else to be proud of. However finishing first isn't important, but to us, the youth activity is. But we're still proud of you.

area. A letter from Howard Jackowitz, president of the Board of Education, requested a postponement of the application until after the master plan was completed.

George Pratt, Mineola attorney, and his client, Hamilton Hadden, Jr., former member of the Jericho Board of Education and a resident with his family of the eight acres abutting the subject property on the west, were among many who deplored
the loss of this rolling "green belt" area of Jericho. "In terms of what might be done with this piece of property," Mr. Pratt said, "this is an abortion."

Asking for an outright denial on the petition were Robert Guthell, of Syosset, a democratic candidate for Town Supervisor,
Linda Abraham, a resident of W.
Birchwood, and Bernice
Weisman, a resident of Princeton Park, who also deplored the existence of so many office buildings in Jericho.

Extension Granted

In a split vote, the Oyster Bay Town Board agreed on Tuesday to grant an extension of time on the application of We're Associations, Inc. for submitting satisfactory building plans for an office building for which it was granted a special permit use some time ago on Duffy Avenue in Hicksville.

Councilman Lewis J. Yevoli voted nay, Salvatore Mosca abstained, and the remainder of the councilmen voted in favor of a six months extension of time for We're.

have to have something to go by in September. Mr. Clark and Mrs. Pappas stressed how much material the Board has to study and review - this responsibility, they said, should not be delegated to Administration. They wanted time to go over this matter before any more is printed. Superintendent Abt agreed that it is the Board's responsibility to make the decisions; Administration can only recommend action. He also stated that the district is not going to rush into changing the curriculum. He wants to have plenty of time to acquaint the teachers with the revisions. This cannot be done by September. Mr. Abt emphasized again, that the curriculum revisions are not a new type of program, but the traditional teaching we now have in the district. He reported, of the $60,000 allotted last year for curriculum revision, $28,000 has been spent so far.

There were comments on the Board's action to stop printing the curriculum revisions. Several people were concerned there would be no program for the children when they return to school in September. A parent of one of the High School students hired to help with the printing (their pay coming from the money set aside for curriculum development) said the boys had been guaranteed six weeks employment and if the School Board terminated this, he would take legal action. Mr. Pappas responded that the hiring had been done before the Board was notified. But the Board had since approved all personnel and printing at its last meeting, July 13.

Mr. Abt later announced that the Board and Administration will study the curriculum during the next few weeks and will then decide what action to take.

The Board was asked about the report in Newsday that Mr. Abt had been asked to resign and if so, on what charges. When Mr. Muratore responded, "No comment," this aroused a great deal of vocal disapproval from the audience. Mr. Muratore said he would not respond if the meeting was going to turn into a three-ring circus. Those present were concerned about the rumors and showed their support for the superintendent by an enthusiastic and prolonged ovation. Mr. Muratore said the Board may have some information later.

The Board of Education took no action on suggested new books for language arts. An agenda item on differential staffing was postponed until the Board can have some study sessions about this proposal.

Mr. Pappas was appointed public relations liaison and Mr. Bello, head of the policy committee.

The next Board meeting is Tuesday, August 10 at 8 p.m. in the Administration Building. The final day for registration is Wednesday, August 4 from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Voting is August 10 from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.

LEGAL NOTICE

PUBLIC NOTICE
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a public hearing will be held by the Town Board of the Town of Oyster Bay, on Tuesday, August 10, 1971, at 10 o'clock A.M. prevailing time, in the Hearing Room, Town Hall, Oyster Bay, New York, at which time citizens and parties interested will have an opportunity to be heard upon the following proposed amendment to the Building Zone Ordinance of the Town of Oyster Bay:

AMEND said Building Zone Ordinance by adding thereto a new Article IX-A, as follows:

ARTICLE IX-A "G-1" BUSINESS DISTRICT (CENTRAL BUSINESS)

Section 1. Criteria Governing the Establishment of a "G-1" Business District

It is the intent of the Town Board to encourage the economic development of such portions of the unincorporated area of the Town of Oyster Bay as are located within walking distance of major transportation centers, so as to maximize use of public transportation facilities by persons employed in the town, and thereby reduce congestion in the streets caused by excessive public reliance on private automobiles, and to accomplish same, the "G-1" Business District (Central Business) is hereby established and shall be mapped only in areas meeting the said criteria and all of the other provisions of this Article IX-A.

Section 2. Use

For purposes of this "G-1" Business District, a "major transportation center" is defined as a railroad station served by not less than two branches of the Long Island Railroad and serving not less than 4,000 riders daily; and the term "walking distance" is defined as a distance of not to exceed one mile from any entrance to the platforms of such railroad station or to any building through which access to such platforms may be had.

Section 3. Permitted Uses

In a G-1 business district, no building or premises shall be used, and no building shall be hereafter erected, except for one (1) or more of the following uses:

(d) Churches, synagogues and similar places of worship, parish houses, and convents.

(e) The following uses shall be permitted but only incidental to the use of a structure for any of the uses permitted in paragraphs (a) and (b), above, provided that:

(1) such incidental uses shall not, in the aggregate, occupy more than 10 per cent of the total floor area of the structure; and (2) except as provided hereinafter, such incidental uses shall be located only on the ground floor of such structure:

(i) Shops and stores for the conducting of retail business, only.

(ii) Personal service shops, including barber shops and beauty parlors, photographic studios, interior decorator, custom dressmaking, tailor and shoe repair shops, watchmaking and repair shops, and like services.

(f) Any other uses which, in the opinion of the town board, after a public hearing, (1) are similar to and compatible with the uses specifically enumerated in paragraphs (a) through (e) hereinafter; (2) will not have an adverse effect on property values; (3) will not cause undue traffic congestion; and (4) will not constitute a fire hazard.

Section 4. Site Plan Review

This section requires approval of a site plan prior to the issuance of a building permit and sets forth the procedure for reviewing the site plan and provides for safeguards to further the expressed intent of the ordinance and the accomplishment of particular objectives regarding adequacy of traffic access ways; provides for adequate loading spaces to prevent trucks parking in streets; provides for safe accessibility to loading bays and building services; provides for reasonable screening of service areas throughout the year; provides for "retaining of trees of certain size; provides for the type of pavements to be used in plazas and other areas; provides for the nature of outdoor lighting to preclude glare; sets forth the required size of the site plan map for adequate review and lists the elements appropriate to the proposed development or use and sets forth required information as to Legal Data, Natural Features, Existing Structures and Utilities and Proposed Development, and states period of time for which approval of site plan to be valid.

Section 5. Loading Space

In a G-1 business district, except as set forth hereinafter, no building shall hereafter be erected or added to, unless such building shall be provided with loading spaces either as a part of the building or accessory thereto on the same lot, as set forth in Table I below:

LEGAL NOTICE

20,000 - 39,999	Three
40,000 - 59,999	Four
Each 50,000 over 60,000	One additional

Any building housing a use conforming with the provisions of this ordinance, which has no loading space and has an aggregate floor area of 4,000 square feet or less, may be expanded to an extent not to exceed twenty-five (25) percent of its floor area without providing any loading space.

A loading space shall be not less than twelve (12) feet in width, thirty-three (33) feet in length, and fifteen (15) feet in height.

Section 6. Minimum Lot Area and Maximum Lot Coverage

Section 7. Floor Area Ratio and Required Open Space

In a G-1 business district, except as set forth hereinafter, the floor area ratio of any building or group of buildings on any lot shall not exceed 1.0. As the coverage of the lot by buildings decreases below the maximum permitted in Section 501, hereinafter, the maximum permitted floor area ratio shall be modified as shown in Table II, below:

TABLE II

MAXIMUM PERMITTED FLOOR AREA RATIO AS MODIFIED BY REDUCED LOT COVERAGE	Maximum Permitted Floor Area Ratio
Lot Coverage	Floor Area Ratio

In all instances where the floor area ratio of any building or buildings on any lot exceeds 1.0, the required open space on the said lot shall, as far as possible, be an extension of the required front yard along that street having the greatest width of all streets on which the said lot has any frontage. All open space, except such as may be devoted to vehicular access to the front entrance of the building, any loading spaces, or off-street parking to the extent permitted in Section 507, hereinafter, shall be occupied by lawns, landscaping, walks, decorative plazas, sitting areas, reflecting pools, or similar features.

Section 8. Height

In a G-1 business district, no building hereafter erected or altered shall exceed a height of sixty (60) feet, or five (5) stories, whichever is less. Elevator or stair bulkheads, air conditioning equipment, water towers, and similar installations may exceed the maximum height by not more than fifteen (15) feet, provided that: (1) the aggregate area covered by such installations shall not exceed twenty (20) percent of the area of the roof of the building of which they are a part; (2) such installations shall set back not less than twenty (20) feet from the outside face of any exterior building wall; and (3) such installations shall be screened by means of architectural treatments acceptable to the planning advisory board.

Section 9. Front Yard

(a) In a G-1 business district, except as set forth hereinafter, the required minimum front yard depth shall be twenty-five (25) feet.

(b) If the street frontage on the same side of the street between the two nearest intersecting streets shall have been improved with two or more business buildings, or in the event building permits shall have been issued therefor, not less than the average front yard depth as so established by such existing or permitted buildings shall be maintained; provided, however, that any such front yard depth shall not be required to be more than fifty (50) feet.

(c) In the case of a double front lot or corner lot, the required front yard shall be provided on both streets, except that the provisions of paragraph (b) herebefore, shall only apply along one street, as designated by the town board, following review by the planning advisory board.

Section 10. Rear Yard

In a G-1 business district, there shall be a rear yard having a minimum depth of twenty (20) feet. The required rear yard may be used for the purpose of loading space or for off-street parking to the extent permitted in Section 507, hereinafter.

Section 11. Distance Between Buildings

In a G-1 business district no building shall be located nearer to another building on the same lot than a distance equal to one-half (1/2) the height of the taller building. In reviewing the site plan the planning advisory board shall make every reasonable effort to achieve a similar relationship between buildings across lot lines.

Section 12. Off-Street Parking

In a G-1 business district, no building shall be hereafter erected, or altered, or added to, unless a minimum provision for off-street parking shall be made as follows:

(a) One (1) parking space for each two hundred and fifty (250) square feet of gross floor area in any structure devoted to purposes other than those set forth in paragraph 507 (b), hereinafter.

(b) One (1) parking space for every three (3) seats in any theater or auditorium, and for every seven (7) seats in churches, synagogues and similar places of worship. This requirement shall apply to each part of the total area within the building as is or may be made available for the installation of seats.

Not less than ninety (90) per cent of all required parking spaces shall be provided under ground or within a structure wherein they shall be screened by means of an architectural treatment, acceptable to the planning advisory board. Any parking spaces located in any structure which projects above the ground shall be considered to add to the aggregate coverage of the lot.

Any outdoor areas devoted to parking within the limits set forth hereinafter shall be landscaped in a manner acceptable to the planning advisory board.

Section 13. Fences and Screening

This section requires installation and maintenance of an evergreen planting screen or other fence on premises contiguous to or abutting residential property or where the rear or either side line of such premises abuts upon a street separating it from residential property.

A copy of the complete proposed Article IX-A "G-1" Business District (Central Business) is on file in the Office of the Town Clerk, Town Hall, Audrey Avenue, Oyster Bay, New York, where the same may be viewed daily (except Saturday, Sunday or Holidays) between 9:00 A.M. and 4:45 P.M., prevailing time.

Central Council Of Teachers Filed Charge Against BOCES

The Central Council of Teachers recently filed an unfair Labor Practice charge with the Public Employment Relations Board against the Nassau County Board Of Cooperative

Educational services (BOCES) Jerry Schmidt, the Teacher Association President said we were forced into it by the BOCES' refusal to bargain in good faith. Suddenly on July 13, 1971 the BOCES substantially and adversely deviated from their previously presented counter demands and informed the Teacher association representatives that the board now proposed to totally eliminate teacher increments heretofore enjoyed for many years past. The board had initially, in their proposals No. 50 and No. 56 stated that, No. 50 No teacher shall advance beyond step 5-10-14 without a superior rating as a teacher. No. 56 No teacher shall get a raise in salary at steps 5-10-14 if attendance is poor and sporadic. The teachers from such proposals understood that increments were to be continued. It is contended by the charging party that this belated change in the BOCES position upon such substantial matter.

It is contended by the charging party that this belated change in the BOCES position upon such substantial matter constitutes a refusal and a failure to bargain in good faith.

To date, after several months of negotiating the BOCES has not offered their teachers a money offer for next year. With no money being offered and in face of the BOCES unilateral announcement of change in the current conditions of employment the teachers had no other choice but to file the charge.

We as teachers are deeply concerned that the BOCES attitude may delay the opening of school in September. Our 800 teachers teach 3000 Special Students (Emotionally Disturbed, Mentally Retarded, Brain Injured etc.) and 3000 Occupational Education students from all over Nassau County.

Breakdown On Financing Of Summer Programs

Nassau County Executive Ralph G. Caso today announced the breakdown of a $50,000 allocation to finance special summer programs run by the Nassau Economic Opportunity Commission.

The county executive also released figures showing both the money and summer jobs allocated during the months of July and August to communities where the EOC has local community action programs.

"There have been charges that my administration is insensitive to the needs of the disadvantaged," Caso stated. "The facts and figures, however, prove otherwise. This administration has provided more money and jobs for the disadvantaged than any prior one."

"We also are doing one other thing that never was done before," he added. "We're checking how the money is spent and making sure it actually reaches the people for whom it's intended. This, apparently, is the cause for rumor among some individuals."

Among the community breakdown for July and August is as follows: Hempstead - $5,500 for special summer programs; $33,319 for local drug prevention programs and 85 summer jobs for disadvantaged youth.

Levittown - $16,748 in Youth Board funds; $6,475 for drug prevention and 28 summer jobs for disadvantaged youth. Hicksville - $7,387 for drug prevention and 36 summer jobs for disadvantaged youth. Plainview - $3,333 for drug prevention.

East Meadow - $6,070 for drug prevention and six summer jobs for disadvantaged youth. In addition, the communities of Levittown, Hicksville, Plainview

Youth Advocacy For Elderly Project

Nassau County Executive Ralph G. Caso announced that next Oct. 1 will be the kickoff date for a new county project in which youth in the community will play an active roll in services and programs for the elderly.

The one-year pilot project, known as the Youth Advocacy for Elderly Project, is being sponsored by the county's Office for the Aging. It is the only one of its kind in the state, providing assistance to senior citizens with special emphasis on the direct involvement of young people.

This unique project will be 75 per cent federally funded, with the state and county each contributing 12.5 per cent. Caso noted that the project will serve two purposes. "It will help the establishment and expansion of new and existing services and programs and it will be an opportunity for many of our young people to become actively involved in community affairs."

Mrs. Adelaide Attard, director of the Office for the Aging, said that the project's estimated budget for the year is $54,000 and that the paid staff will include a full-time coordinator, a part-time training and information specialist, six senior citizen aides and six student aides. Project headquarters will be in the county's Office for the Aging, 33 Willis Ave., Mineola.

The project will be conducted in cooperation with Project SCOPE (Senior Citizens Outreach and Procurement Effort), a division of the Nassau Economic Opportunity Commission. The latter will make desk space and telephone service available in Garden City, Inwood, Long Beach, Rockville Centre, Freeport, Hempstead, Great Neck, Port Washington, Glen Cove, Hicksville and Roosevelt.

"Our staff people will move into areas of greatest need at first, then into all other areas throughout the county, to help each community organize a volunteer corps of senior citizens and young people whose primary function will be to find out what can be done for the elderly and to help solve any problems, if any," said Mrs. Attard.

Caso expressed confidence that the project will go a long way to serve the needs of the elderly in the county and, "most important, it will be an opportunity for youth and senior citizens to work together."

Any groups or organizations interested in participation in this project should call the Office of the Aging at 535-4414.

Major Expansion Of Topic House

A major expansion of Topic House, Nassau County's residential drug treatment and rehabilitation center at Mitchell Gardens, becomes a reality tomorrow when addicts begin moving into 12 new mobile homes, County Executive Ralph G. Caso announced.

The mobile homes, at the site of the present facility, were purchased to meet the pressing need for additional space to house addicts in the program. Topic House presently has 120 addicts residing in World War II Air Force barracks buildings.

Caso said the mobile homes will be able to accommodate 70 persons, while one of the homes will be used exclusively as a medical facility.

Clyde Collins, director of the Nassau Drug Abuse and Addiction Commission, said the mobile homes will allow addicts already on a waiting list to be brought into the program and, for the first time, enable more extensive on-premises medical care.

The first unit - the medical facility - will be opened by the county executive at 1 p.m. tomorrow.
