Vol. 24 NO. 34 Thursday, September 2, 1971 COPY 10c

School Re-Opens On Wed., Sept. 8

The first day of school, in Hicksville, for the 1971 - 72 school year is Wednesday, September 8th.

BUS TRANSPORTATION for all eligible students - attending PUBLIC, PAROCHIAL, and PRIVATE schools - will be provided each school day starting SEPTEMBER 8th.

Bus passes are being processed and should be received in the mail before SEPTEMBER 8th.

HERALD REPORT SCHOOL DISTRICT 17 HICKSVILLE

By Shirley Smith

The School Board voted unanimously (trustees McCormack and Zindulka were not at the meeting) to appoint Dr. Jerome Joseph Niosi as Superintendent of Schools for a three-year period. The Board selected Dr. Niosi from 49 applicants. Salary and other details of the contract were not disclosed because the Board said negotiations have not been completed. Although he will not officially assume the duties of superintendent until October 1, Dr. Niosi will speak to the teachers' orientation next Tuesday.

Edward Bello, chairman of the screening committee for the new superintendent, said his report on applicants, qualifications for the job, etc. would be included in the Board minutes and Hicksville residents would be able to review it.

The Board also voted to extend Donald Abt's vacation to October 1. At that time, Mr. Abt will become professional educational Consultant for the district for the remaining two years of his contract.

School Board trustee, Harry Kershen, asked the one hundred people present at the meeting and everyone in the community to welcome the new superintendent and give him confidence and cooperation.

In other action, the Board granted use of the Burns Avenue field to the Hicksville Fire Department for their Labor Day tournament. Opportunity High School for 1971 - 72 was unanimously approved and Mrs. Marge Giannelli will continue as its principal. Mrs. Mary Blust's contract as district clerk was renewed.

The School Board's architectural advisor reported that work at the Junior High was progressing slowly and there were some difficulties. It will probably be November before the addition is finished.

In answer to a letter from HAD, School Board attorney, Harry Goebel, listed a number of legal reasons why the Board will not grant any of HAD's seven requests. There are the requests:

1. Cooperation with the district's Guidance department
2. Representation on the School Board's Health Curriculum Committee
3. Possibility of presentations by HAD during the school instructional day
4. Policy permitting full usage of public relations avenues of the school
5. Consideration of modified use of the Administration Annex on Newbridge Rd. for the benefit of the community, the high school student body and HAD
6. Possible financial aid from School Board for HAD
7. Use of duplicating machines

President Nixon's recent wage freeze caused some disagreement and discussion. Board attorney, Harry Goebel, felt the freeze applies to all employees who have not received any pay at the 1971-72 salary, thirty days prior to the President's ruling on August 14. Dr. Fred Hill, Assistant Superintendent, disagreed and felt the Board should pay employees at the new rate until the district hears differently from the State Education Department. Harry Kershen also felt the Board should wait for a ruling from Albany. The Board voted unanimously to pay the cafeteria workers at last year's salary until they get a ruling from Washington.

No decision about teachers' salaries was reached, however. Since the guidance counselors worked during July and were paid at the 1971-72 rate, the ruling on the wage freeze stipulates that

Hicksville Fire Dept. To Hold 43rd Annual Parade, Drill

The Hicksville Fire Department Labor Day Parade will start at 9:30 a.m. sharp (rain or shine) in front of the East Marie Street Firehouse. It will proceed down Broadway to Herzog Pl., down Herzog Pl. to Jerusalem, left on Jerusalem to Old Country Road, then up Carl St. to Broadway, left on Broadway to West John St. - then to Newbridge Rd. - right onto Newbridge Rd. and to the Plaza.

Honorary Chairman is Joseph Eisemann who is an Ex - Captain of Company No. 2. Mr. Eisemann, who has seen 49 years of service in the Hicksville Fire Department, has been a resident of Hicksville for the past 65 years.

Lt. Walter Nygren of Hicksville is the Parade Grand Marshal.

More than sixty fire departments will participate on Labor Day, not only from Long Island but from as far away as Hennecker and Hillsboro, New Hampshire, Quenton and Westbrook, Conn., Levittown, Pennsylvania, Wayne Township, New Jersey, Arlington F. D. from Poughkeepsie, New York and Mamaronek Village, New York. Many Auxiliaries will also participate.

It is expected that many fire departments will bring displays of old fashioned fire fighting equipment with them for the occasion.

After the parade, the tournament will be held at 1 p.m. at the Plaza. However, in case of rain the tournament only will be held on the following Saturday, Sept. 11th, at 1 p.m. at the Plaza.

The Tournament will include approximately seven events such as Motor Hook and Ladder Class B; Motor Hook and Ladder Class C; Motor Hose Class C; Motor Hose Class D; Motor Pump; Efficiency and Bucket Brigade.

Trophies will be awarded for each event. Many trophies will also be awarded for various types of participation in the parade. Next week's MID ISLAND HERALD will bring you the winners of all the events and trophies.

A Message From HAD 19th Annual Ball Set New Site

H.A.D., Inc. (Help, Aid, and Direction), located at 75 Broadway, Hicksville, has been open to the young people of Hicksville since October of 1970. We have expanded our activities at the storefront to a point at which we now have seven rapid-discussion groups, under the guidance of trained group leaders. These groups are held Monday through Thursday nights of each week. In addition to these rap groups, we have already started various crafts such as a photography workshop, boutique crafts workshop, improvisation-theatre group, literary magazine, music lessons, etc. Any youth in our community may get involved in anything we offer and of course, all of our activities are free. H.A.D. also has started parent/adult rap groups which meet once per week in the evening at a location outside the storefront.

These groups are designed to give adults a better understanding of themselves and aid them in communicating with their own children.

H.A.D. is funded by the State of New York through the Nassau County Drug Abuse and Addiction Commission. However, in spite of the fact that we have been allocated $21,824, the actual dispersment of the funds is on a "matting basis;" the State will match, up to $21,824, any monies or volunteer services on which a monetary value might be placed. Furthermore, the monies allocated to us by the State does not cover the cost of the storefront rent, insurance, heating, electricity, crafts materials, etc.

We find ourselves in a rather serious financial situation and we are turning to the community for assistance. Any donations to our organization in terms of money, volunteer time, donated furniture, or donated space for some of our craft/activity meetings would be of tremendous aid to us. May we furthermore make the observation that such aid would be of tremendous assistance to the community for it is for the first place. We would be most grateful for your help.

Finally, we would like to extend our invitation to both the youths and adults of our community to come up and visit our storefront facilities and meet our staff on any Friday or Saturday night from 8 p.m. to midnight. During the other parts of the week, young people are welcome to drop in at any time we are open. We would greatly appreciate it if parents/adults would call first for an

Hicksville Public Library

Summertime is a time for vacations, relaxation and a general tune-up. It is also the time your library plans new services and programs for the Fall. The library staff with the help of volunteers have been busily planning since June.

An old-fashioned country fair will be held at the library on September 24-25. Entry blanks are available for exhibitors at the library through September 10. You may show your skills in arts and crafts, baking, needlework, sewing, woodworking and in many other categories. Ribbons will be awarded to the prize winners. The Nassau County Home Maker's Council of Hicksville has given us considerable assistance and advice in planning this affair.

Once more the Fine Arts Committee of Hicksville have arranged for a series of Sunday concerts in the library to be held throughout the year. Dates will be announced shortly. These musical programs, highly successful in the past, are to be largely financed by the Music Performance Trust Funds, the Nassau County Council of Cultural Development under the direction of Supervisor Caso, and, hopefully, we may again get a contribution from the New York State Council on the Arts.

The film program offered next year is also largely financed by the State Council on the Arts, a result of a grant made to the Nassau Library System and shared by all the public libraries in Nassau. We are presenting eight films through December beginning with the Bergman classic "Wild Strawberries" on September 22. Other titles include "Anna Karenina", "King Kong" and the Marx Brothers' "Night at the Opera".

Among the services to be developed next year, the program to serve the homebound has a very high priority. The Hicksville Public Library in cooperation with public libraries in Nassau is making an intensive effort to locate and encourage homebound people to use their library. We have offered delivery service for some time and will initiate mail service in October. We ask all who know of an infirm person who cannot reach the library to apprise them of this service and contact the library with their requests. This service will be offered to both temporarily and permanently disabled.

Finally the library is in the process of developing a collection of 8mm films for loan. We plan to purchase and circulate both standard and super 8 films beginning in the Fall. This collection, which will eventually include a considerable range of subject matter should entertain or educate the sports fan, the student, the lover of comedy of the Chaplin era and film buffs generally. Watch for the announcements.

Do not neglect our directory for 1971-72 now in preparation. Be prompt in sending us information about your meeting dates and officers. It is now in preparation, but we still need information.

Holiday Schedule For Post Office

Hicksville Postmaster Ralph G. Cascardo announced that the Hicksville Post Office and its stations and branches will follow regular holiday schedules on Labor Day, Monday, September 6.

No regular window or delivery services will be available on Labor Day, but special delivery services will be provided. The Main Post Office Lobby will remain open for access to lock boxes and the Self Service Postal Unit.

Collections from street letterboxes will be on holiday schedules and will include pickups from "airmail only" boxes.

On the Saturday preceding the holiday, September 4, regular Saturday schedules, including window and delivery services, will be observed.

PLEASE NOTE: The Self Service Postal Unit located at the Hicksville Main Office is never closed.

Explorers At Labor Day

By Reeve Conover

Everyone come out to the Hicksville Fire Dept. Parade and Drill on Labor Day, Sept. 6. The Parade starts at 9:30 A.M. with the Tournament starting at 1:00 P.M. The Hicksville Explorers Club will be marching in the parade and working at the Tournament. Please Respect the jobs of the Explorers working in the food stands and the Entrance Gates.

On Thursday, August 26, the Hicksville Fire Dept. answered a call for Mutual Aid to Farmingdale for a fire call at Bethpage State Park at 11:30 A.M. The Hicksville Explorers responded with a total of three boys: Gene Pietzak, Reeve Conover, and Greg Hudson, and helped battle the stubborn fire with many Fire Departments and the Bethpage Junior Fire Dept. until around 6 P.M. The Boys at the Fire wish to thank Kieth Grant of the Wantagh Fire Dept. for his assistance at the fire.

All boys between the ages of 14 and 19 who wish to join the Hicksville Explorers Club come to the meeting at the Main Fire House on E. Marie St., September 2, at 7:30 P.M.

Everyone please remember - every year Firemen's lives are lost because of thoughtless boys who pull false Alarms. The Fire Alarm Box on your corner is in case of an emergency, not for the use of people who wish to cause trouble for the Fire Dept., their families, and themselves, as a large percentage of the culprits are found out in the long run.

GOP Chairman Margiotta To Be Honored

Governor Rockefeller will head the list of state and Long Island officials attending the testimonial "Salute to Joseph M. Margiotta" to be held on September 11th in the Grand Ballroom of the New York Hilton Hotel.

Some 1,800 persons are expected to be on hand to honor the Chairman of the Nassau County Republican Committee and to thank him for his many years of hard work which has helped the County Committee to become one of the most potent organizations in the state.

It was under the leadership of Assemblyman Margiotta that the County Republican Committee conducted a successful campaign to return a Republican to the County Executive office of the nation's most populous suburb. Honorary chairmen of the testimonial dinner are former County Executive A. Holly Patterson and former Assembly Speaker Joseph Carlini, both former chairmen of the Nassau County Republican Committee.

In addition to the Governor, those paying tribute to Margiotta include Assembly Speaker Perry B. Duryea, Jr., Senate Majority Leader Earl W. Brydges, State Secretary of State John P. Lomenzo and County Executive Ralph G. Caso.

Ticket information can be obtained from Michael J. Afrunti of Alberson, dinner chairman, and Tomas DeVivo of Uniondale.

Children's Room At Library

The Children's Room of the Hicksville Public Library wishes to announce a new arrival. A Bell & Howell cassette player has been available at the "Listening Post" since August 23 for all children to use in the library. As many as eight children can listen simultaneously to an individual cassette with our newly acquired headphones. Additional cassettes have been acquired for this event which will bring the grand total of children's titles to sixty three. Students in grades five and above will now have the privilege of borrowing our cassettes for one week if they wish to listen to them on their home players.

Industrial Nurses To Meet

The Long Island Association of Industrial Nurses will hold its monthly meeting Thursday, September 16 at 8:15 p.m. at Grumman Aerospace Corporation, Plant 28 Auditorium, South Oyster Bay Road, Bethpage. All industrial nurses are invited to attend. Refreshments will be served. Business meeting 7:30 p.m.

Concert At Park September 3rd

The great Lionel Hampton, "King of the Vibes," will appear in concert on Friday, September 3, at the Lakeside Theatre in Eisenhower Park, County Executive Ralph G. Caso announced today.

Beginning at 8:30 P.M., the program is part of the "Big Name" summer series sponsored by Nassau County. Residents are asked to bring their own lawn chairs or blankets. Admission is free.

Additional information may be obtained by calling the Office of Cultural Development at 535-4044.

Hearing On Rezoning Apartments In Jericho Is Rescheduled

Town Councilman Ralph Diamond said that the Town Board has decided to reschedule its public hearing on an application by Myron Nelkin for a change of zone that would permit construction of apartment units in Jericho. The new date is November 23.

"The original hearing of July 27 had been continued, until September 14th, to allow civic associations time to study the Nelkin application and prepare their views," Diamond said.

"We have taken the initiative of rescheduling the hearing to November 23rd. By that time the Board will be presented a plan for Jericho by the Planning Advisory Board and the professional planning consultant and we and the civic associations will be better able to review the rezoning within the framework of the planning recommendations.

Diamond said the November 23rd hearing would be held at 10 AM and continued at 2 PM to allow all interested parties to comment.

The Nelkin application seeks a rezoning to allow construction of approximately 1,100 apartment units on a 68-acre site presently zoned two-acre residential. The land is located on the north side of the north service road of the Long Island Expressway, about 1,000 feet east of the intersection of the Expressway and Jericho Turnpike.

Hicksville Welcomes Foreign Student American Field Service

For the first time, Hicksville High School is host to a foreign student selected by the American Field Service. The AFS program was approved by the Hicksville Board of Education two years ago.

Edwin Isleta is a 17 year old young man who comes to Hicksville from Rizal Laguna, Philippines. He and 35 other students representing all high schools in the Philippines were selected from many applicants to take part in AFS's program wherein young people from all over the world are given the opportunity to learn about Americans and American customs.

It is expected that Edwin will be invited, sometime after Christmas, to speak at AFS Chapter meetings and other high schools in the New York area as well as at local Hicksville service clubs. He was told during his orientation stay in San Francisco that AFS'ers had in the past received as many as 100 invitations.

Edwin will be another "son" to Mr. and Mrs. William O'Donnell of Hicksville who already have three sons and two daughters. Four of the O'Donnell youngsters have graduated from Hicksville High. The young visitor will have no trouble adjusting to the comings and goings of his active and popular new family as he is one of seven children at home in Rizal Laguna.

The O'Donnell family have only recently become interested in the AFS program through the efforts of Mrs. Eli Greenstein, this area's representative, and they were delighted when they were notified of their acceptance as host family. Mrs. Greenstein's efforts also aroused the interest of many other people in Hicksville and thereby brought about the formation of a local AFS Chapter. (Mr. Harold Satran and Mrs. John McManus are President and Vice-President respectively) and a student AFS club in the senior high school. Mr. Robert French, Hicksville High School guidance department chairman is serving as the liaison person between school and the AFS and as Edwin's guidance counselor. The entire Hicksville school system extends a warm welcome to our new student.

Sweet Adelines To Hold Open House

Can you carry a tune? Interested in singing? The Central Long Island Chapter of Sweet Adelines, Inc. is having an "Open House" on Thursday, Sept. 16th, at 8:30 P.M. at the Plainview Methodist Church, 992 Old Country Road, Plainview. We will demonstrate our barbershop-style of singing. Refreshments will be served. For further information, call Mrs. Roni Reilly, WE 8-9681. Come on down!

Gutheil Petition Upheld

An attempt to knock the Gutheil team of candidates off the Democratic primary ballot in Oyster Bay failed today when the attorney for Lewis Yevoli, Gutheil's opponent, dropped his case.

The Gutheil petition was challenged on grounds that two pages of it were not sequentially numbered.

According to Gutheil's attorney, Saul Roth of Garden City, "It is my opinion that the case was withdrawn because their attorney realized the question of non-sequential numbering would be upheld by the court as a minor variance and would not affect the validity of the entire petition."

Speaking for his slate, Gutheil said, "We refused to play the 'petition challenge-counter challenge game.' It's an ancient legal-political maneuver and in recent memory, no major party candidate has been knocked off the ballot as a result of such a suit. Our opponents have a right to be on the ballot and we welcome the opportunity to challenge them on real issues."

Burke Orders Budget Director To Sharpen Fiscal Knife

Supervisor John W. Burke today took steps to guarantee that the Town's fiscal posture in 1972 will be one that gives full recognition to the Town's ability to maintain essential services under a tight budget.

Burke ordered his budget director, Joseph Macedonio, to commence a careful line-by-line review of the funds requested by the department heads to determine where reductions can be made in their 1972 budget requests. He said the budget, resulting from Macedonio's analysis, must meet the following test:

"The final budget document must provide for the continuance of essential Town services while bearing in mind the constant economic pressures that weigh upon our homeowners." The Supervisor tightened the Town's fiscal belt in the Spring when cut-backs in State aid reduced State assistance by more than $1 million. "I am determined," Burke said, "to keep that belt as tight as possible. We must be fully cognizant of the effect on our taxpayers of the wage freeze and the present economy as we develop and ultimately adopt a Town budget. I intend to give to the Town Board for its consideration a budget that recognizes the need for local government to keep Town expenditures in line with existing conditions. I will also continue the vigorous fiscal effort instituted last year which enabled us to avoid deficit financing of the operating budget."

REPORTS

In light of some recent comments in the press regarding the proposed G-1 Business District zoning for the Hicksville Triangle area, it might be well to review the development of this phase of the master plan and correct some apparent misconceptions.

The new G-1 zoning is the result of modifications to the proposed plan developed by the Town Planning Advisory Board in conjunction with our professional consultants. The modifications are the result of the two well-attended public meetings held in Hicksville by the Planning Advisory Board for this very purpose. As has been often said—but apparently not often enough—maximum citizen participation is the most essential element of the planning process.

The proposed G-1 zoning is the first step toward the adoption and implementation of the master plan for Hicksville. It not only represents the needs and desires of the community's residents, but also embodies all the objectives established through many months of study and planning. To reiterate them briefly:

Encourage an orderly development of downtown Hicksville.

Broaden the community's tax base and provide greater job opportunities.

Maximize the use of transportation facilities.

Preserve open spaces.

Reduce congestion in streets while at the same time promoting necessary traffic flow and business growth in the Hicksville Triangle area.

But, most importantly, a plan must reflect the needs and desires of those it is designed to serve, otherwise it becomes a self-serving tool of special interest groups.

TOWN NOTES: My sincere apologies: a typographical error in last week's column turned what was meant to be a community service into a personal headache for one of our Town residents. The correct telephone number for reporting an abandoned vehicle for pickup is 921-7347.

Dear Friends ...

INTERESTING TO NOTE....Plainview, whose school budget was defeated by a resounding vote on three different occasions, have, by presenting was termed a "fragmented" budget, been authorized to spend a total amount which brings this district's tax rate up to $15.24. Even if these voters had passed the first and highest budget presented on May 5th, their tax rate would only have been $15.99! The "fragmented" budget was brought to the voters of this district in two separate votes, the last of which took place on Aug. 31st, when the same transportation proposition which was voted down on Aug. 5th, was approved!

ALTHOUGH WE ARE GLAD to see the voters approve these matters which of course are for the benefit of their children, we must say at this point that we definitely do not approve of the practice, that so many schools districts have adopted in the past few years, of resubmitting budgets time and again. It is an unnecessary expense to the school districts, where money is needed so desperately for educational matters. We feel that the original budget should be cut to the bone (in today's economic climate) to begin with. If this budget is defeated, just one "fragmented" budget, (that is broken up into several propositions) should be submitted, so that the voters may decide which, if any proposition they wish to approve, that is all the voting that should take place. Come to think of it, perhaps a cut-to-the-bone, "fragmented" budget should be the only one presented, instead of taking it in two steps. Perhaps you think that this is a turn-about-face for someone who has always worked to see that our children get the best possible education that we can afford. I haven't changed, but to be realistic as long as we are permitted to vote on school budgets at all, they should not be constantly repeated. Many times I have said that I do not believe that it is realistic to vote on these budgets at all because we actually only control about 10 per cent of the amount we are voting on. However, if we are still permitted this ineffectual vote, at least let's not play expensive games with the methods by which it is approved.

NEEDLESS TO SAY, we are pleased to see the State of California taking the lead in removing the complete burden of school taxes from the shoulders of the home owner. We believe that here in New York State, as well as throughout our Country, school taxes should be apportioned on one's income, rather than on a home that many couples have worked hard to own so that they can adjust to a naturally limited retirement income. We have mentioned this to you, also, on several occasions. And I know that many of you agree with this method of taxing for the education of our young people.

SINCE WE DON'T KNOW WHY our previous, dedicated superintendent of schools in District 17, Hicksville was released from his duties by the present Board of Education, we do not know whether to congratulate or commiserate with Dr. Jerome Niosi the gentleman whom this Board has selected to replace him. For the sake of the children of District 17, we hope that he does well....we know that Mr. Abt will do well whatever he decides to do in the future, for he has a really great school district to prove his worth.... but we will miss his wise guidance...and always pray that

from Your Congressman
JAMES R. GROVER, JR.

2nd CONGRESSIONAL Dist.

Within the past two months, President Nixon has staggered the nation and the world with two major actions on the international and the national scenes. His announcement that he would visit mainland China and his firm action to fix wage and price levels stand out as the most courageous and innovative actions of any President over the past decade.

It is no secret that President Nixon is no favorite of the major newspapers and networks. He has been painted as reactionary, as a man bogged down in the sands of the status quo, as a political leader who considered each situation and each challenge in the light of political advantage.

But he wasn't playing it cool in his recent diplomatic and economic thrusts.

To my way of thinking, the Nixon moves of recent months mark a turning point in an administration which came to office under the twin burdens of Great Society economic mismanagement and international involvement. The President has shown through more than two years in office that he refuses to be stamped by problems but — once his mind is made up — he provides the sort of action seldom seen at the White House.

He has shown his willingness to perform radical surgery on this nation's serious economic affections, just as he moved decisively to sever our active involvement in Vietnam and to reach some sort of acknowledgement that mainland China's millions are an undeniable factor in our world.

I am encouraged by President Nixon's decisiveness and by the general support his recent actions have received in Congress. We lawmakers return to Washington after the summer recess with important Presidential proposals to consider and hopeful prospects for action. The atmosphere in the nation's capital is more optimistic than it has been for some time.

Diamond Announces Cleanup Drive On Shopping Centers

Shopping centers throughout the Oyster Bay Township have been declared a prime target in a townwide cleanup drive, according to Town Councilman Ralph Diamond, chairman of the Town Board Committee on Environmental Control.

"Many of the shopping centers in our community have deteriorated to the level of a landfill project because of the negligence and carelessness of the property owners," Diamond declared. "Such areas are not only eyesores, but also, in many instances, dangerous and unsanitary," he added.

The announcement followed a recent tour of inspection of several shopping centers by Diamond and Edward J. Gaynor, director of the Town's Building and Zoning Department. Conferences have been held with the property owners involved and, in most cases, full cooperation in a cleanup campaign has been promised, Diamond reported.

"For example, the owners of the Birchwood Shopping Center in Jericho, Messrs. Sosnow and Schwartz, have implemented an improvement program to eliminate the objectionable conditions we uncovered in a recent inspection," Diamond said. Major problems existed in the areas of refuse disposal, parking and traffic flow. In the parking lot, parking lanes have been marked, traffic flow lanes have been defined, resurfacing is underway and an improved lighting system is being installed. Additional refuse containers will be placed behind the store area to remedy sanitary conditions there.

"Two other suggested improvements will require the approval and cooperation of the New York State Department of Highways," Diamond noted. These are the widening of the entrance to the shopping center and the planting of trees and shrubbery along the street line boundary. "I have already contacted the State regarding these items, and have the assurance of the Birchwood Shopping Center owners that they will be glad to pay for these improvements," Diamond added.

"In order for these new traffic patterns to be effective, we must have the cooperation of the shoppers," Diamond pointed out. "Otherwise Birchwood Shopping Center will have to resort to the placing of violation stickers on offending cars." The shopping center has been requested to defer such action until the people have a chance to familiarize themselves with the changes, he added.

Diamond reported that he is working closely with the various civic associations on the Townwide beautification program. "We expect the shopping center owners' voluntary participation in this cleanup campaign," Diamond said, "but, if necessary, I will not hesitate to ask the Town Building Department to issue a summons to any owner who is reluctant to clean up his property."

our district does not go too far afield....for what do we have to offer to the future of our country, if not well educated young people?

The next regular meeting of the Friendship Club will be on Sept. 7 at 11 a.m. at the United Methodist Church, Old Country Rd., Hicksville.

Congratulations are in order to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hoegl, of Centerport, upon the birth of their second daughter, Raina, who arrived at the North Shore Hospital on Wednesday, Sept. 1, at 6:30 p.m. Her sister, Heidi, 4 was delighted to hear of this beautiful new addition to the family, as was her grandmother, Sheila Hoegl Noeth of Hicksville, Raina's maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Luther Honeycutt of Pigeon Roost, North Carolina, who were also delighted to hear the news.

Mrs. V. Welster of Sarasota, Florida, and also of the Clyde Beatty Circus, is staying at her sister's house, Doris Hoberock of HICKSVILLE while recuperating from a broken leg, that she received while feeding one of her pet elephants on the circus when the show was playing in Syracuse at the time.

The elephant "Frieda" grabbed her arm and flipped her in the air. Moral — stay away from elephants.

Webster-McGee

The St. Ignatius Loyola Church, Hicksville, was the setting, recently of the marriage of Miss Patricia Ann McGee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. McGee of Hicksville, to Dennis Kent Webster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leland K. Webster of Lockport. Father Schineller, S.J., officiated at the 5 o'clock ceremony. A reception followed at the Royal Viking Restaurant in Woodbury.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an ivory-colored gown of silk organza over silk with reembroidered alencon lace and pearl beading. Her illusion veil had a matching camelot-shaped headpiece. She carried a bouquet of miniature white roses and baby's breath.

Her maid-of-honor was Carol Mead of Red Hook. The bridesmaids were Melissa Webster, sister of the groom, Tami Steinberg and Mrs. Robert Saltzman of Hicksville.

Her attendants wore gowns of pink crepe with embroidered lace and carried bouquets of pink sweetheart roses and carnations with matching tiaras.

Michael Freyer of Copiague, was best man. Ushers were: Kirk Webster, brother of the groom, Paul Fiocco of Binghamton, N.Y., and Robert Cobb of Lockport.

The bride and groom are 1971 graduates of the State University College at Cortland, N.Y. and have received a Bachelor of Science degree in elementary education. The bride was corresponding secretary for Sigma Rho Sigma Sorority. The groom was a member of Lambda Phi Delta Fraternity. Both have accepted teaching positions in the Whitney Point Central School District, N.Y.

The couple will reside in Cortland.

Comptroller Roncallo Urges "Tree And Shrubbery" Incentive

Nassau County Comptroller Angelo Roncallo suggested today that in view of the large amount of damage done to the Long Island landscape by this past weekend's (August 27th - 28th) rain-and-wind-storm, Nassau County's towns and villages should provide its residents with a tax incentive which would enable them to restore any trees, shrubbery, or natural land scene in their home surroundings.

"This tax incentive would come in the form of a deduction on the property tax that is paid to the towns or villages," Roncallo explained. "I don't think that the amount of money involved would break the backs of the municipalities. At the same time, it would urge the homeowner to rehabilitate and reinstate the landscape, thus enhancing the beauty and property value in the community."

Roncallo surmised that if such a step was not taken, many of the trees and shrubs that were damaged or destroyed from the weekend storm would only be removed, but not be replaced.

The 43-year-old Long Island public official noted that, "As I traveled throughout the County this weekend, I could see the heavy toll the weather took on our landscape, in areas like Floral Park, Garden City, Roslyn, and the Town of Oyster Bay. The beauty of trees and shrubbery is what Nassau County is made up of. That is what we came out to live in the suburbs for. And with the constant concrete sprawl in Nassau that I've previously spoken about, we must take some steps to replenish the precious greenery in our community. You only have to travel across the County-line, into Queens to understand what I'm saying—where the scant greenery that's left, is in such a precarious state. We must not let that happen out here."

Roncallo noted that many towns and villages had codes and ordinances about tree and shrubbery planting already in effect, but that "some form of municipal action should, emphasized as a result of this weekend."

The Brillboard

JERRY BRILL

I always thought that a waterbed was for bed wetters! Now, I know differently because lately I needed a "serious bedding alternative" so I decided to go along with the trend. And the trend is to waterbeds!

"Hi," I said to the waterbed man in the waterbed store, "got one that doesn't leak?"

"What size?" asked he.

"About 30 gallons," I told him.

"Did you want an environmental graphic or a regular?" he asked.

"Well, I do a lot of water skiing so give me the best one for that," I said.

The store was filled. I looked around at the pillows and stuff. He showed me another waterbed.

"I can't really swim. Especially when I sleep. Got a throw in the form of a life preserver?"

He smiled. "We'll provide lifeguards, if you're afraid!" he told me. Smart guy. Probably passed his canoe test and all, so what did he care?

"Is this a winter and summer item?" I asked.

"Of course," said he.

"Uh, does it ice up in February?" I asked him.

"No, sir," said he, "nor can you surf on it in July."

I fidgeted in my chair. "My cleaning woman. She drinks, sir. Any chance she'll drink my mattress?" I questioned.

He grinned a grin of impetuosity. Fortunately he was patient. "Where is your bed located in your room?"

"On the starboard side," I answered, "with portholes that give double exposure."

"Well, if you're looking for a relaxed sleep, this is for you."

"Is it possible to stock the mattress and go fishing at vacation time?"

"Only at low tide," he answered, "only at low tide."

I thought about it. Yes, I'd get a waterbed when I raised the money. But first, I'd cravatette the bedspread, waterproof the blanket and get an economy size jar of dramamine!

Then all I could do is hope that Morpheus wouldn't meet Neptune in the early morning hours and keep me awake all night!!!

Veterans Job Training Approval Granted

Nassau County Executive Ralph G. Caso announced that Veterans Administration approval has been granted to the Nassau County Vocational Education Extension Board (VEEB) for a program of job-training and upgrading of skills for local veterans. The New York State Dept. of Education has also approved the course of instruction.

"Because we recognize our responsibility to veterans, we are pleased to be able to assist them in opening this educational door to opportunity," the county executive stated.

Tuition reimbursement and assistant will be available to veterans as well as widows, wives and children of deceased or disabled veterans who qualify. Tuition fees vary, but no course is priced at more than $1.25 per hr.

Job training courses include air conditioning, refrigeration; auto body repairmen, automobile mechanic; clerk/typist; domestic oil-burner servicemen; high school equivalency; household appliance repairmen; licensed practical nurse; metal fabricator and welder; stenographer /typist and TV service and repairmen.

Applications are available at local VA offices or through VEEB's veterans coordinator, Alfonso N. Fleri, at 286 Old Country Rd., Mineola, N.Y. 11501, (516) 535-4778.

Diamond Warns Professional People Of Impending Amendment Of Ordinance

Town Councilman Ralph Diamond this week reminded professional people maintaining offices in residential areas while residing elsewhere that the time they have in which to petition the Town Board to continue legal operation of their practices is running out.

Diamond, senior member of the Town Board, said he has written numerous professional organizations asking them to alert their members that the Town may soon act on an amendment to the Building Zone ordinance which is designed to prevent the operation of professional offices in residential areas after the practitioner had established his place of residence elsewhere.

"We held a hearing on this proposed amendment on July 27," Diamond said. "I am now urging my fellow board members to adopt the amendment and make it effective January 1, 1972. This means time is short for those interested in petitioning the Board for a special permit to continue their office operations in their former residence."

Diamond said that many physicians, lawyers, dentists, architects, music teachers, etc., who established offices in their homes had changed domiciles while continuing to practice at their former residence.

"This was legal," Diamond explained, "as long as the practitioner petitioned the Town Board for permission to continue the business and the Board granted such use after a public hearing."

"However, too many abuses have taken place and many professionals expanded their offices after the moved. The expansion frequently meant chaos to the neighborhood traffic pattern and parking facilities."

"The proposed amendment will not allow professionals to seek special permission from the Board for continuance of their offices if they move."

"If their practice becomes too big or their home unsuited and they move elsewhere, the practice will have to move too," Diamond said. "There are many office buildings and shopping center locations available that are ideally suited for professionals operating in this Town."

Diamond said any professional contemplating change of residence while allowing his business to exist in his former home should immediately seek permission from the Board before the proposed amendment to the ordinance becomes effective.

Seek Boatmen For CD Auxiliary Police

The Nassau County Civil Defense Office is seeking to establish a Marine Unit as part of its voluntary Auxiliary Police organization. To join the proposed new unit, applicants must have completed the basic CD Auxiliary Police course, completed a Coast Guard or Power Squadron course, and participated in the instruction course given by the Nassau County Police Marine Bureau.

Gen. Otto C. Van Exel, Nassau Civil Defense Director, said that persons interested in joining the proposed new unit should write his office at 140-15 Street, Mineola, L. I. Owning a boat is not a pre-requisite for joining the unit, but is desirable. Those who own boats should advise CD headquarters what kind of boat they own, what type of radio equipment they have, and where the boat is normally located.

Civil Defense Auxiliary Police are volunteers and members of local Civil Defense organizations who are trained in police procedures by the Nassau County Police Department. They perform various public safety functions in their home communities.

Make your reservation early by calling Ruth Hanneman, Chairlady at WE8-9272.

Candidates will also be there to welcome you and new members are also welcome.

Items From Historical Museum On Display

On display in the lobby showcase at the Hicksville Public Library until October 1 is a collection of items on loan from the Nassau County Historical Museum pertaining to homecrafts done on Long Island during the 19th century. A sampler embroidered in 1812 by Sarah Whitson is the focal point of the display; a coverlet woven in 1851, but uninitialed, is in the foreground. We also have Helen Hicks' woven wicker lunch box from 1873-75. There is a crazy quilt and a crazy-quilted coverlet, donated to the Museum by Mrs. Henry Eisemann, of Hicksville; soda bottles from the Hicksville Bottling Company; Mason jars from 1858 (some still having the original cover-sealers); spectacles for doing close work, including a double-lens pair (used instead of bifocals); beaded pin cushions and pin holders, large cooking tools, a Turk's head angel-food cake mold made of glazed clay, wooden bowls for mixing and/or serving, a toy coal stove made in the 19th century with the pans and implements used for cooking (a replica of the one mother used to provide the Long Island families with their hearty meals, and many other authentic home items. Most of the display are objects to be used at the Old Bth-page Village Restoration when it is completed.

The Long Island artifacts are being shown in conjunction with the Old Time Country Fair that the Hicksville Public Library is having on Friday and Saturday, September 24 and 25. Mr. Joseph Bowra, of Hicksville, will display antique cars on the lawn of the library on the days of the fair.

Since the Mineola Fair is not in operation any longer, the Hicksville Library thought they would try to bring back a little of the rural atmosphere that our predecessors knew here in Hicksville and the rest of Long Island before it became a suburban area.

MEN IN SERVICE

Stephen J. Caracappa, 12 Richard Ct., PLAINVIEW, will be commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the New York Army National Guard and Army of the United States following graduation exercises Friday, August 27, 1971 at 4 p.m. at the Empire State Military Academy, Camp Smith, near here.

In civilian life, Caracappa is a research analyst for Royal-Globe Insurance Company in New York City. He is also a member of the Headquarters 42nd Infantry Division, New York City.

Theodore G. Stallone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore S. Stallone of 33 Diamond Drive, PLAINVIEW, is one of 1,249 freshmen cadets who have entered the U. S. Air Force Academy class of 1975.

Cadet Stallone was accepted into the cadet wing after completing seven weeks of basic training, including field training at a simulated frontline combat base near the academy, strenuous physical conditioning and survival instruction.

The cadet now begins a four-year course of study leading to an Air Force commission and a bachelor of science degree with an academic major in one of 27 fields of interest provided in the curriculum.

Cadet Stallone is a 1970 graduate of John F. Kennedy High School where he lettered in soccer and track. He attended Northwestern Preparatory School, Minneapolis, Minn., prior to entering the service.

Army Specialist four Robert W. Matz, son of Charles Matz Sr., 1 Clarissa Drive, HICKSVILLE, is serving with the 45th Finance Section in Germany.

He holds the Combat Infantryman Badge.

On The Campus

Among the 420 freshmen who will enter Lawrence University this fall will be Richard D. Weber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew R. Weber, 4 Avery Lane, PLAINVIEW.

Patricia A. Kurtz of 109 Tenth

Street was among those other students who arrived at Bucknell University's campus for a three-day orientation program prior to the beginning of classes and the formal opening of the University's 126th academic year.

Howard J. Finnegan

Bruce Cerone, one of the most gifted and respected athletes in Hicksville, all but locked up the Nassau County open Slo-Pitch softball league championship with a seventh inning homerun for Fred's Inn.

That made an exciting final score of 13-12 over persistent New York Life.

Cerone wasted little time in unloading the winning clout. He nailed the second pitch and it soared over the right-center fence in Cantiaque Park.

Previously another local standout, Billy Luft, had cleared the center fence for a home run.

As a result of that game Fred's Inn had reached a mark of 21 wins and 6 defeats.

If Fred's won their last scheduled game the Cantiaque Park race would be all over—A defeat would still keep the door open for the Nassau County Police who would then have the assignment of winning its last four contests to gain a tie with Fred's.

This would be a second major championship for the happy little Inn on Woodbury Road.

On Sunday Fred's defeated Leo's Place to capture the Levittown Sunday morning league. It went down to the wire as Fred's won two of the same days three playoff games.

It becomes more and more apparent that Fred's will become a top-notch power in 1972 and just could have the best team on Long Island.

It is our understanding that many on the softball team will stay together as activity is expanded to the fast growing sport of touch football and then on to basketball in the winter.

That Hank Bjorkland the New York Times touted Sunday as a candidate for the Heisman Trophy is none other than the lad who starred for Hicksville Junior High and then moved to North Shore for his varsity seasons.

As stated in the Herald seven years ago his departure was one of the biggest blows Hicksville football ever received.

His projection as the possible best collegiate player in the nation is based on his brilliant running for Princeton University where in 1970 he gained 135.6 yards in each game. That ranked him third in the country for total yards gained rushing.

One casualty of Hurricane Donna was the Hicksville Alumni

Electric Football scoreboard at H.H.S.

The gift from the Alumni and community in honor of the schools undefeated 1966 Nassau County and New York State Champions.

The actual working parts were purchased as separate units and were stored in the school. It was the standing frame which bent in the strong winds.

Principal Raymond Ruseh has stated that he hopes to have the board in operating order for the first game.

Hicksville High has a Soccer scrimmage game with Massapequa at home this coming wednesday, September 8.

Mogavero, Ted Stefanw, Jim Hugger, Paul Kamen, Saladino, and coaches Terry Wallace and Peter Dizinno. The league, threatened this summer with cancellation due to cut backs in state aid, was rescued by a fund drive organized by Town Councilmen Diamond, Doolittle, Saladino and Mosca.

Jericho, Long Island To Visit Jericho, Israel

More than 3,000 years ago, Joshua, the successor to Moses, led the Israelites army against the City of Jericho. The Israelites blew their trumpets and the walls of Jericho, "came tumbling down."

In November of this year, another new group will descend on Jericho, but their intent is not to conquer Palestine but to remind themselves of their heritage and covenant with God.

The group, under the guidance of Rabbi Stanley Steinhart, will make the pilgrimage from Jericho to Jericho, starting from Long Island on November 1. The tour has as its theme: "Jericho, Long Island, Visits Jericho, Israel."

Rabbi Steinhart, the spiritual leader of the Jericho Jewish Center, said that 25 people have already signed up for the 17-day tour, which will cost $850 for members of the center and $875 for non-members.

In addition to Jericho, the group will visit Old and New Jerusalem, Tel Aviv, Haifa, Eilat, Sinai, Sharm El Sheikh, Safed, Tiberias, Golan, Arad, Caesaria, Ashkelon, Massada and Acre.

But the highlight of the trip for the people from Jericho, Long Island, (population 14,340) will be Jericho, Israel, which now has a population of about 10,000, and until the Six-Day War was under the control of Jordan.

Jericho, Israel, rests on top of several past civilizations, most of which have been partly uncovered by archeologists. The original Jericho, which fell to Joshua, is believed to have dated from 6,000 B.C.

But its significance to the people from its namesake on Long Island is not limited to ancient civilizations. For it was at Jericho that Joshua began the conquest of Palestine, after which he united the Tribes of Israel and bound them in the covenant with God.

Information Symposium Scheduled

Assemblyman Martin Ginsberg (R), Chairman of the Assembly Health Committee, has scheduled an information symposium to help village, town and county anti-drug organizations obtain answers to their questions concerning eligibility for receiving state financial aid.

The session will be held at 9:30 A.M. on Thursday, Sept. 2 in the Plainview-Old Bethpage Public Library, Old Country Road, Plainview. The speakers will include representatives of the State Narcotics Addiction Control Commission and the Nassau County Drug Commission, who will field all questions and come up with necessary answers.

Ginsberg said the meeting, which will be open to all local anti-drug abuse organizations, has been called because these groups have had a great deal of trouble getting answers concerning fund eligibility from the state and county commissions.

Under a present state law sponsored by Ginsberg, the state grants funds to volunteer anti-drug programs if the local organization raises a certain amount of matching funds or provides adequate volunteer in-kind services.

"This information symposium," said Ginsberg, "will help these local organizations, who are fighting a tremendous uphill battle to overcome or ameliorate the narcotics scourge, make sure that they qualify for necessary and available state financial aid."

Caso Moves To Give Coliseum Official Name

Nassau County Executive Ralph G. Caso moved to give the county coliseum under construction at Mitchell Field its official name.

The county executive, following a tour of the coliseum area this morning, said he will recommend the name Nassau Veterans Memorial Coliseum as a fitting designation for the multipurpose sports arena and exhibition hall.

"It states quite simply this county's gratitude to the thousands of young men who sacrificed their lives to make possible everything we have today," Caso said.

"I intend to work with the veterans organizations in Nassau on a plan for a fitting memorial at the coliseum's entrance," he stated. "I feel it would be appropriate and colorful to have the entranceway lined with flags representing the various veterans groups in the county."

Caso added that construction of the coliseum, as well as work on the roadways, parking areas and utilities, is proceeding on schedule. The official opening of the coliseum is scheduled for early next April.

The recommendation that it be called the Nassau Veterans Memorial Coliseum will be presented to the Board of Supervisors for approval.

Volunteer Firemen's Day In Town Of Oyster Bay

Town Supervisor John W. Burke proclaimed the following:

WHEREAS: Many residents of the Town of Oyster Bay have served and continue to serve in the various volunteer community firefighting organizations, and

WHEREAS: these dedicated individuals actively support their membership status in the Volunteer and Exempt Firemen's Benevolent

Association, and

WHEREAS: our Township has thoroughly trained volunteers and modern equipment for fire fighting, and

WHEREAS: in the event of an emergency additional reserve fire-fighting units from other parts of the Town, other portions of Nassau and Suffolk, city and state, are enlisted as a community service,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JOHN W. BURKE, Supervisor of the Town of Oyster Bay do hereby proclaim and designate Labor Day, September 6, 1971, as in the Town of Oyster Bay as a fitting tribute to the members of the volunteer fire organizations and its auxiliaries for their dedication to duty.

TOBAY EMMY: Virginia Ann Frederick of Plainview receives plaque for her performances with the Oyster Bay Town Teen Repertory Theatre this summer from Councilman Warren M.

Open Letter From The Plainview Methodist Church

Dear Members and Friends:
Last year we started something new which became an instant success. We called it "Back-to-Church Sunday." This year we will again celebrate "Back-to-Church Sunday" on September 12. These are the main events that will take place on this day. Let me outline them for you.

1. The resumption of our regular schedule of two (2) services of worship at 9:30 and 11 A.M. The 9:30 service on the 12th will be a Family Service with a children's sermon as well as the adult sermon.

2. The start of Church School for the 1970-71 year. With the world in such a chaotic state and our children being bombarded from all sides with temptations, it becomes increasingly imperative that they learn of God's plan for life and of His sustaining love. Let's get them started the first Sunday in this important learning experience and keep them coming each week. They should come with you on the 12th to the Family Service. After the children's sermon, they will go to their classes to begin their lessons for the year.

3. There will be a coffee hour between the 9:30 and 11 A.M. services where we can renew acquaintances and get to know one another better. We hope all those attending the 9:30 service will remain with their children for the coffee hour and that those attending the 11 A.M. service will come at 10:30 to be a part of the sociability also.

4. In the afternoon, beginning at 2 P.M., we will have our annual church picnic at Bethpage State Park. There will be baseball games, ice cream and much more. Details of the picnic will be in the September Newsletter which you should receive in about a week.

Set aside that date now - Sunday, September 12th, for "Back-to-Church Sunday." Let's all get back to church then and keep the church - going habit throughout the year.

Yours in Christ,
Richard N. Ryley
Pastor

AT THE SERVICES: Held last week for the late Mr. William E. Koutensky, president of the Long Island National Bank, who passed away after a long illness at his home on Lenox Avenue in Hicksville.

Mr. Koutensky, a product of the Hicksville School System was honored by the bank in July of 1970 for 50 years of devoted service, with the establishment of the William E. Koutensky Scholarship Award. His association with the Long Island National Bank began in 1920 as an Assistant Cashier. He attended the American Institute of Banking, rose through the ranks to Cashier in 1933, became a director of the bank in 1939, Executive Vice President in 1951, and three months later was elected president; serving in that capacity until his death.

Always active in banking circles, Mr. Koutensky was a member of the Nassau Chapter of the American Institute of Banking, and served as Chairman of the Long Island Bankers Association.

Mr. Koutensky's devotion and service to the community was succinctly summed up by a close associate, who described him as a "man for all seasons." He served as Honorary Fire Chief in the Hicksville Fire Department, President of the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce, President of the Hicksville Kiwanis Club and was a much honored community leader. He received awards from a diversity of organizations including a Gold Medal for Citizenship from the American Legion, a B'nai Brith Award from the Anti-Defamation League, and an award from the Congregation Shaarei Zedek, etc.

In addition to his activities in community affairs, Mr. Koutensky was also active in fund raising for the March of Dimes, Nassau County Boy Scouts and Catholic Charities. He found time to become an active member of the Joseph Barry Council of the Knights of Columbus, where he received his Fourth Degree, and later became both Grand Knight and District Deputy of the Long Island Chapter.

He also participated actively as a member of the Holy Name Society of Saint Ignatius Loyola Roman Catholic Church. His strength of character was epitomized in the criteria which he established for the Scholarship Award given in his name. They included community citizenship, perseverance, and application.

L.I. Jobs Go Begging

More than 175 jobs in the $10,000 to $17,000 income category in Nassau and Suffolk counties are unfilled. This information was developed by the Long Island Professionals during the less than eight weeks that the self-help volunteer group has been in existence.

LIP said their solicitation of Long Island industry has developed hundreds of requests they are unable to fill. Included are jobs for middle and top management executives; mechanical, electrical, chemical, cryogenic, safety and reliability engineers; sales engineers; purchasing agents; shop foremen; manufacturing engineers and marketing managers.

"While some employers establish unnecessary job qualification requirements," Vincent V. Oliva, Director of LIP said, "most of our problem is just round holes and square pegs. We need more members. More members will generate more job vacancies for our pool. An expanded membership will provide us with a greater diversification of personnel from which to fill industry requests."

The group is an organization of professionals displaced by the current recession and particularly by cut-backs in Long Island's aerospace industry. All unemployed professional, semi-professional and technical personnel from all segments of industry are admitted to membership without charge. Calling themselves "The Long Island Professionals", their only requirements for membership are that applicants formerly worked in Nassau or Suffolk

Simon-Gaft Team Wins Summer League Crown

Last Monday night at Syosset Lanes, Sid Simon's 205 led the Simon - Gaft team to a 609 - 590 triumph over the Simes - Geyer aggregation which gave the winners the overall championship of the B.C.A. Mixed Summer Bowling League. The championship was the third for the victors who have bowled together as a team in the league for the past eight years.

As is customary in the league to decide an overall champ, a one - game roll - off was utilized. It was nip and tuck until midway when the ultimate winners took what appeared to be a commanding lead. Then, the Simes - Geyer quartet rallied, slowly chipped away and went to a 2 mark lead going into the tenth frame.

The outcome of the game hinged on the performance of the two anchor men as Simon - Gaft got one mark from its first three bowlers in the final frame against three misses by Simes - Geyer. Irv Simes then spared but Sid Simon, who had a strike in the ninth frame, threw two strikes and tacked on a nine to pull his team to victory. Simes wound up with a 178 to lead the losers.

Both teams had won the championships of their respective divisions

OVERALL CHAMPS: Gaft, Lorraine and Sid Simon.

earlier in the evening. Each needed to win only one game in the 3 - game sets with the respective runners - up. Simes - Geyer clinched the championship of Section A in their first game while Simon - Gaft were extended to the second game before clinching the Section B crown.

The league's annual trophy award dinner will be held on Saturday, September 18th, at the Golden Meadowbrook. Festivities are scheduled to begin at 9 P.M.

A Sisterhood Encounter

The Blahs! the Blues! Uptight! In a bind? Apprehensive about the new term, the long winter, the car pools, social commitments, the homework and college applications? Come down to the pre-first day of school night meeting of the Sisterhood of Temple Or-Elohim on Tuesday, September 7th at 9 P.M. Guaranteed, it will be one of the most exciting, stimulating nights of your suburban life.

It is always difficult to drag yourself out, especially the hectic night before school begins. But drag yourself out. Be where the action is. The Sisterhood of Temple Or-Elohim has invited an intelligent, handsome, bachelor to lead an encounter group. Feel inhibited already? Group catharsis not your thing? Come to browse, perhaps you'll even participate.

Our speaker is a professor of psychology, who is presently employed at Behavioral Consultants, an organization which is primarily psychotherapeutic in function.

Sensitivity is a technique to make a person more aware of himself and how he affects and is affected by others. It has an increasing use in school, industry, government, and in many other community oriented groups. By beginning with a study of our behavior and our uninhibited inner most feelings perhaps we can learn more about ourselves and our relationships with others.

All husbands, friends, relatives, who might be interested in sensitivity and group encounter, are invited to join the women for the evening. This is an involvement, a discussion, a discovery, an exploration. It is not an evening's entertainment.

Friends Of Library Step Up Activities

The impossible dream is becoming a reality. The long-awaited Jericho Library will soon be built.

The FRIENDS OF JERICHO PUBLIC LIBRARY has been active group for about 5 years. Their activities have included Book Talks, Book Sales, Annual Book and Author Luncheons and Art Tours.

With the advent of the new Library with its Meeting Room and expanded facilities, the FRIENDS will be busy thinking up new and stimulating activities to benefit the entire community.

The FRIENDS' officers for the coming year are: Ruth Koppelman, President; Muriel Green, Vice President; Rec. Sec'y, Maria Genna; Corr. Sec'y, Maxine Zwiebel; Treas. Selma Constant.

The FRIENDS are looking for more friends. To become a member and a supporter of the Library, send your check ($3.50) to Sidelle Feinman, Membership Chairman, 23 Merit Lane, Jericho.

Important Dates Set By JJC Sisterhood

Jericho Jewish Center will have its annual sisterhood - Art Auction on Selichot Night, Saturday, September 11th. This will be an all Israeli Auction, under the direction of Brian Kahn, with viewing to start at 8:30 PM and bidding to begin at 9:30 PM.

The Art Show will be followed by Selichot Services conducted by Rabbi Steinhart and Cantor Goldstein and choir.

The first Sisterhood meeting of the season to be held at the Jericho Jewish Center on Tuesday, Sept. 14 at 8:15 P.M. will be a cocktail party. The program for the evening will be a Book Fair featuring Steven Birmingham author of "Our Crowd" and "Grandeers".

Make plans to join us on Thursday, October 7, for our first Theatre party of the season at Westbury Music Fair for the Totie Fields Show. For more information, call OV 1-1584.

years which will stay with you indefinitely.
- You can relocate and your business will follow you.
- You can be your own boss and set your own hours.

INCOME figures are high... be they part-time or, if you so desire on a full-time basis. But they are more than adequate to keep up with today's inflationary cost of living and then some. There is no other business like this in America today.

your hand at building a business and are willing to set aside at least one evening a week that would insure financial independence,

County, or live in either of those

the work of the organization.
Their office space and telephone service has been allocated by the New York State Employment
Service at 300 Old Country Road in Hicksville.

Organized as one would expect of people at the management level, industry is solicited by telephone and personal contact for job vacancies by one group.
Another interviews applicants to establish job qualifications. A third group makes personnel and job evaluations, matching people to job requests. No charge is made to employer or employee for the service.

In the eight weeks since the group banded together, its ranks have grown to a volunteer working membership of 250 men and women.

POLLUTION CONTROL: Oyster Bay Town Supervisor John W. Burke, left, and Superintendent of Sanitary Services James A. Gildersleeve inspect water wash system designed to remove entrained solids and fly ash from flue gases at the Town Incinerator in Old Bethpage. System meets all requirements of the Nassau County Pollution Control Act, said to be one of the strictest in the nation.

DISPLAYS AWARD: Nassau County Comptroller Angelo Roncallo (second from right) of Massapequa, displays the award recently given to him for his efforts as the Dinner Chairman of the 1971 International Summer Ball for the Boys' Towns of Italy, recently held at the Cloud Casino on Roosevelt Raceway. Looking on at the award include: Oyster Bay Supervisor John Burke, of Syosset (right), Oyster Bay Town Councilman Joseph Saladino (left) of Massapequa, and Mrs. Audrey Speno, widow of the late State Senator Edward J. Speno, of East Meadow. Over one thousand attended the occasion, which was more successful than any previous efforts.

Social Security Questions And Answer

Ques: I am 66 and out of work right now. However, I may start working again within a year or two. Could I apply for monthly social security retirement benefits and, if I start back to work again, have my checks stopped?

Ans: Yes. You may start and stop your checks as often as necessary. And, depending on how much you earn when you do go back to work, you may be able to get checks for some months. Regardless of how much you earn you can get a check for any month you don't earn over $140. Remember, too, that when you reach 72, you can get your check every month no matter how much you earn.

Ques: I am 64 years old. I retired when I was 62 but did not sign up for social security retirement benefits because I wanted to wait until I was 65 and could receive a full benefit. I have now decided to go ahead and apply for the reduced benefit. Can I get my checks all the way back to the month I was 62?

Ans: No. An application for social security retirement benefits can be retroactive for no more than 12 months.

Ques: I am 30 years old but unable to work because of a job injury. I am receiving disability compensation from another program due to my injuries but I have been denied disability benefits under social security. How come?

Ans: Your eligibility benefits under another disability plan means that you met the qualifying conditions of that plan. Every disability plan has its own eligibility requirements. Eligibility under one plan does not assure eligibility under another. Your claim under social security was not severe enough to meet the requirements of the social security law.

Ques: My husband was killed in an automobile accident recently. I was severely injured in the same accident and my doctor says I will be disabled for the rest of my life. We were married just a year before the accident. Could I be eligible for any benefits?

Ans: Even though you were married only a year before the accident, you could be eligible for disabled widow benefits at age 50 that's provided your late husband's earnings were covered under social security. If you have a young child in your care, you could be eligible for benefits if you're under 50. Please call us at the social security office as soon as possible—our number is 747-5470.

Long Island Emergency Rescue

At Roosevelt Raceway

In July of 1966 several citizens of New Hyde Park met at the home of Jim and Kathy Caggiano to discuss the need for supplemental first aid emergency teams on L.I. That night the Long Island Emergency Rescue was born. Its original officers were Captain: Edward Rippon of New Hyde Park; First Lieutenant: Jim Caggiano of New Hyde Park; Second Lieutenant: Jeffrey Small of Little Neck. The main purpose of the team (as its members affectionately refer to it) would be to foster American Red Cross practices in instructing and administering First Aid, and to form a Red Cross trained Emergency Corps.

During its first year of operation the teams' time was devoted to organizing and it saw little action. On its first anniversary elections for new officers were taken and a stronger and more efficient operating procedure was adopted. The next year saw amazing growth of the young organization.

During the 1967-1968 year the L.I.E.R. won the support of the Red Cross, County Executive Nickerson, Assemblyman Farrell (Floral Park), Congressman Wylder and received commendation by the Congress of the United States.

The present affiliations of the L.I.E.R. are: Disaster Action Team, part of the Nassau Chapter, American Red Cross Disaster Program; Nassau County Community Radio Watch; and International Rescue and First Aid Association.

Nearly two years ago, through the help of the Lynbrook Rotary, the team purchased its first ambulance. The ambulance was a 1965 Cadillac that had been retired from the Nassau County Police Department. The ambulance is run and manned by members of the team. In order to be accepted as a member in the L.I.E.R. a person must be at least 18 years of age and hold a valid Red Cross Advanced First Aid authorization. Team training, before acceptance as a member, includes 8-10 weeks of extensive training in such areas as inhalation therapy, emergency childbirth, disaster action, traffic control, public relations, and several other areas.

Activities of the team are by no means limited to ambulance calls only. L.I.E.R. provides volunteer first aid set-ups at public events where such services might be needed. An important note: All services provided by the L.I.E.R. are volunteer and free of charge. Money from donations and house to house canvassing just barely keep the team afloat.

Hicksville Members:
2nd Lieutenant Robert G. Dubester, 58 Langern Rd.
Secretary Gordon R. Jenkins, 12 Croyden La.
Paul Albert, 34 Cliff Dr.
Joseph Egan, 11 Amherst La.
Richard Holmes, 32 Sleepy La.
Thomas Lang, 162 Fifth St.
Thomas McManus, 62 Lehigh La.
Wayne Sternberger, 229 Princess St.

On August 29, 1971 at 3:35 P.M. the ambulance operated by Long Island Emergency Rescue, a volunteer ambulance corps, was involved in an accident which has completely immobilized not only the ambulance, but the entire rescue team. The ambulance was in collision with a private car at the intersection of Lakeville road and Lowell Ave. in New Hyde Park, while en route to answer an emergency with lights and siren, call at the Franklin General Hospital.

Driver at the time of the accident, Ralph Prisco, sustained minor lacerations of the arm when the ambulance was hit broadside on the drivers side. Prisco was himself treated at Franklin General Hospital as were the occupants of the car involved.

The L.I.E.R. team, which has just celebrated its fifth anniversary, is in desperate need of funds to replace or repair its ambulance. In the past, the team has been in poor financial condition because of the cost of vast repairs on the former county ambulance. Other large expenses have gone toward the recruitment and training of new members so that the team would not slowly dwindle into nothingness. Contributions may be made to Long Island Emergency Rescue, P.O. Box 162 Floral Park, N.Y. 11002.

Note to motorists: A flashing green light on the front of a car indicates that a volunteer ambulance corps member is one an emergency call. Please yield right of way.

Long Island Fair Oct 1-3

County Executive Ralph G. Caso announced today that the Long Island Fair will be held Oct. 1 through 3 at the Old Bethpage Restoration Village.

The fair, being held in cooperation with the Agricultural Society of Queens, Nassau and Suffolk, will place emphasis on agricultural and handicraft displays.

Long Island farmers will have a chance to compete for a total of $5,000 in prizes and residents of Queens, Nassau or Suffolk may enter any of the several hundred contests.

Pre-registration is necessary and applications along with contest categories may be obtained by writing Long Island Fair, Nassau County Museum, Muttontown Road, Syosset, N.Y. 11791 or calling 364-1050.

The fair will feature the complete range of Long Island-grown food products from fruits and vegetables to giant pumpkins. Craftsmen may compete in culinary, needlework, hobby and floral departments. A special hobby contest will determine the best Long Island macrame work, a recently revived craft of knot tying from the early 1800's. Hobbyists may compete in all types of contests including actually demonstrating their craft techniques.

Friday, October 1 will be children's day at the fair with special athletic and children's contests in the afternoon. Since entries for some categories are limited, early registration is urged.

HERALD REPORT

all teachers must be paid at the new rate.

Robert Sklarz, Hicksville High teacher and resident of Hicksville, said he was upset at the attorney's misinformation. It was his opinion that all teachers should be paid at the new rate, because some teachers (the guidance counselors) had already received payment on this scale. He added that the Board has the power to pay all employees at the new rate if any have received it.

John Petrelli, Hicksville High teacher and a member of the Hicksville Classroom Teachers Association Board of Directors, asked the School Board for clarification on the wage freeze before school opens next Wednesday.

Questions about the continuation of individualized instruction and the tracking system were raised by several people at Tuesday night's meeting. Dr. John Cadden, Assistant Superintendent, said both systems remain unaltered. If there were plans for classes of

The nation's top aged pacers will gather at Roosevelt Raceway on Saturday night for the 26th edition of the $50,000 National Pacing Derby at a classic one and one-quarter miles distance.

Roosevelt Racing Secretary Larry Mallar hopes to attract the likes of Laverne Hanover, Rum Customer, Steady Star, Horton Hanover, Super Wave, Keystone Andy, Frank T. Ace and possibly Keystone Pat or Kentucky for the elite eight horse field.

Horton Hanover, a six-year-old horse by Star's Pride - Highland Lassie who is bred to trot, is the defending champion in this race. Last year Horton, expertly reined by Joe O'Brien, toured the Roosevelt rubber strip in 2:30 1 5 for the distance, second fastest Derby to date only topped by the Irvin Paul 1962 record setter of 2:29 3 5. But the Armstrong Brothers stallion has had his problems this year as he is yet to win.

O'Brien has a stablemate for Horton Hanover in Steady Star. This is the speedball that time trialed in 1:54 at Lexington last fall. This year Steady Star, a four-year-old, has proved that he not only packs plenty of speed but the ability to race against class horses. He proved that with a 1:58 1 5 mile at Yonkers. He also established a five-eighths track world record of 1:56 3 5 at Brandywine on June 5.

Super Wave is also a season's leader this year. He has raced faster than any aged stallion this year on both small and large tracks. He owns a 1:58 3 5 clocking at Roosevelt and a 1:57 3 5 mile at Brandywine.

The five-year-old bay son of Shadow Wave-Savilla Song is owned by Dr. George K. Boyce of London, Ontario and trained and driven by Jack Kopas. Super Wave has already picked up over $100,000 in earnings this year raising his lifetime total to over $300,000.

individualized instruction at any of the schools, these plans will go into effect next Wednesday. Erwin Roznan, Administrative Assistant, said the use of the tracking system has been largely a decision of each principal—his decision based on making the best use of his teaching staff.

Mrs. Mary Carlton said the students attending Lee Avenue (going into the sixth grade) had been informed last June that they would not have tracking nor departmentalization. Neither the Board nor Administration could verify this, but Board president, Thomas Muratore, asked for a memo from Administration and Richard Jennett, Principal of Lee Avenue School, to clarify the issue. Mrs. Carlton has been trying to find out since June if the tracking system will be in effect at Lee Avenue this fall.

The Board voted to postpone discussion of the proposed Health Education Curriculum, Strand II (dealing with alcohol, drugs and smoking) until the next meeting. Mr. Kerahan voted against this motion.

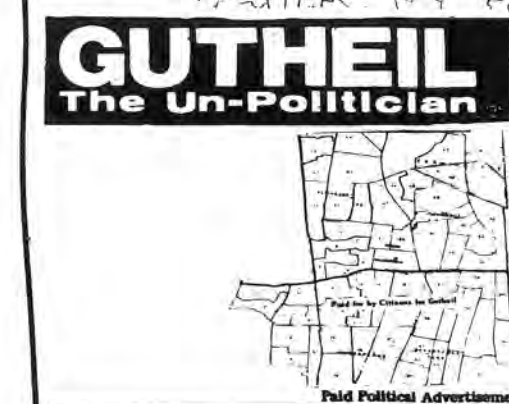

The next School Board meeting is Tuesday, September 14 at 8 p.m. in the Administration Building.
