Officials Meet With Woodbury Residents On Local Traffic Problems

Town Supervisor John W. Burke met October 18 with representatives of Mothers Against Death (MAD) of Woodbury and town, county and state traffic officials at Burke's request to discuss traffic problems in the vicinity of Woodbury Road and Piquet's Lane. Local residents are concerned with the possible increase in traffic that will be generated by the new GEICO office building now under construction in the area.

One solution proposed was the completion of the Sunnyside Boulevard extension to connect with Woodbury Road which would provide another outlet for traffic and access for both east and west-bound motorists to the Long Island Expressway.

Theodore Hoffman, traffic engineer, New York State Department of Transportation, reported that the 50-foot wide, 3,275-foot long right of way for the proposed extension had been turned over to Nassau County for future development. This was acknowledged by Paul L. Streb, Nassau County Director of Traffic Engineering, who added that his department is currently conducting a traffic survey in the Woodbury Road - Piquet's Lane area.

Burke stated that a meeting will be arranged with officials of the Nassau County Department of Public Works "as soon as possible" to discuss the feasibility of the proposed road.

Invited To Attend College

High school students and their parents from 338 Lutheran churches and 260 high schools in the New York City-Long Island-Westchester County area have been invited to attend a Lutheran College Night, Tuesday, October 26, from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m., at the King's Grant Hotel, Long Island Expressway, Exit 46, in Plainview.

Hicksville Chamber Of Commerce

The Executive Committee of the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce at its regular bi-weekly meeting approved the final arrangements for the annual installation affair on Thursday evening October 28th from 6:00 to 9:00 P.M. at the Old Country Manor. The installation will be conducted at 6:45 P.M. by Oyster Bay Supervisor John W. Burke. Cocktails and buffet supper will be provided with tickets available through the Chamber Office 358 B Mid Island Plaza, Hicksville, New York, 11801, phone 931-7170.

Also announced by the Executive Committee is the formation of a Membership and Publicity Committee headed up by Mr. M. G. Chandler of the Hicksville Pennysaver. Mr. Chandler will be assisted by Mr. William J. Pfeiffer, Vice President of the National Bank of North America and Mr. Pierre Charbonnet, Photographer. Mr. Pfeiffer will direct his efforts towards membership and Mr. Charbonnet will concentrate on publicity.

Chamber President Kingsley Kelly also announced the next meeting of the Executive Committee will be a tour of the Hicksville area to seek out sites particularly adaptable to a planned project of the Chamber.

Further information will be released if the inspection tour confirms the feasibility of the project.

LILCO To Adjust Rates

Long Island Lighting Company filed with the New York Public Service Commission, adjustments to its electric rates which would increase them by 2½ per cent or $5,958,054. The Company seeks to have the new rates become effective on November 15.

Should the new rates be allowed they would amount to an increase of about $36 a month for the average residential electric customer, and about $73 a month for the customer who uses electricity to heat his home, a spokesman stated.

The Company indicated that the heavy demand for energy and the obvious need to finance construction to meet that demand was the major cause for seeking an increase in rates.

The increase in costs of material, equipment and taxes which had become effective before President Nixon's "freeze" added substantially to LILCO's need for an improved rate structure, the spokesman added.

"It is hoped the rate increase will be permitted to become effective immediately following the end of the price-wage freeze," he said. "We point out that as a utility, LILCO is wholly regulated and operates under conditions which in fact put us in a continual 'freeze' status. The Company must always apply to the Public Service Commission for permission to increase rates, it cannot do so through its own decisions."

On October 9th last year, after a PSC review of over one year, the Company was permitted to increase its rates by $10,840,000, an amount over $2½ million less than had been sought. Prior to that time LILCO had reduced its rates five times since 1960. The October 9, 1970 increase brought the cost of electricity to its customers to approximately the level of 1959 electric rates, as compared with an increase of almost 40 percent in the cost of living in the same period. An additional increase of $2,000,000 to partially offset higher real estate taxes became effective on April 22, 1971.

LILCO serves 804,000 electric customers in Nassau and Suffolk Counties and in the Rockaway Peninsula of Queens.

Approves Center

Hicksville residents can expect in the near future to see emerge amongst the busy retailing activities of Mid-Island Shopping Plaza a new white stucco building festooned with colored balloons in the cul-de-sac area of the parking lot near Frankel's fabrics, and not far from the twin theatres, where children's amusements are located.

The building will be that of Mid Island Childpark, Inc., a day care center for young children. Its petition for a special permit used to construct the building and operate in the center was unanimously approved by the Town Board of Oyster Bay and its regular meeting on Tuesday.

The company is a subsidiary of MelvilleShoe Corp. (Miles, Thom McAn). The center will care for children under aged 3-8 years on an hourly or day basis, providing educational and creative activities for them. It will operate 8 A.M. to 6 P.M., Monday through Saturday. The director is a child psychologist, Dr. Phyllis Katz.

Millex approved

In other business the Board granted the petition of Anthony LaRocca for a special permit use to operate a "Millex" automobile diagnostic center on Broadway adjacent to Botto Bros. The auto clinic will have five bays, and waiting rooms. All operations will be conducted indoors, it was said at the public hearing on July 13th. No one opposed the petition at that time.

Dems Meet

The regular Monthly Meeting of The Edward J. Giannelli Regular Democratic Club of Hicksville, Inc. will be on Thursday Oct. 21, at the K of C Hall, Heitz Place, Hicksville, at 8:30 P.M. It will be candidates night.

"We have invited all the candidates from the Town of Oyster Bay and Nassau County to present their platform. Refreshments will be served," said a club spokesman.

The Annual Dance will be held Saturday, November 20. Tickets will be sold at this meeting and there is 50 cents discount on all tickets sold by October 31. $8.00 per person. Dress optional or costume. Prizes.

Last week the Goldiggers, Tuesday nite at 10:30 on CBS, starred CHARLES NELSON REILLY, DON MEREDITH, BOBBY MARTIN, and DAVID BRENNER as well as the pretties for which the show is named. I think that the inverse result of unsynchronized dancing, slightly contrived situations as premises for comedy and ordinary singing, is what makes the GOLDIGGERS Tuesday night outing pleasant! The pretty gals that are somehow the filling in the weave of the 30 minutes, are glad to be there. If this review is indefinite, it is because the reviewer is stunned to find every ingredient mediocre. Except the effect which is not unpleasant. Why is it good?? I don't know. But tune it in. I think you'll like it.

The second program in this year's concert series at the Hicksville Public Library is scheduled for Sunday October 24, at 3:00 P.M. This program features Patricia Rudoff, violinist and Barbara Kupferberg, pianist who will perform works by Vivaldi-Respighi, Beethoven and Franck. Mrs. Rudoff, who is making her second appearance in this series, is a well known teacher and performer in the Long Island area. Formerly a member of the Hartford Symphony and the Indianapolis Symphony, Mrs. Rudoff is now on faculty at Nassau Community College and is also assistant concertmaster of the Huntington Symphony and string coach for the Huntington Training Orchestra.

Mrs. Kupferberg is a graduate of the Juilliard School of Music. Two years ago she performed a solo recital for the Hicksville Library Concert Series. Mrs. Kupferberg has presented piano recitals at the Brooklyn Museum and Nassau Community College where she is on faculty. She has also served as Orchestra Pianist for the San Antonio and Baltimore Symphonies and has taught at the Peabody Conservatory. Mrs. Kupferberg is a recording artist on Crest Records.

The funds for these concerts are procured through grants from the Nassau County office of cultural development, John W. Maerhofer, Director, Ralph G. Caso, County Executive, and the Music Performance Trust Fund, Kenneth Raine, Trustee.

Holiday Decorations

FLAMMABLE HOLIDAY DECORATIONS ARE DANGEROUS in Stores, Restaurants, Places of Public Assembly, Schools, etc.

It is our goal in Nassau County to prevent the loss of life and property. Fire records show that such losses do occur each year during our holiday seasons because of the careless use of holiday decorations.

Evergreens, corn stalks, leaves, and other highly flammable decorations are not to be used. Only use nonflammable or fire-retardant treated decorations.

Flameproofing of evergreens should be done only by experienced persons, as such flameproofing is practically impossible when attempted by the average, inexperienced person.

Eisenhower Park Selected For Veterans Day Site

Nassau County's Eisenhower Park has been selected as the Northeastern Regional site for the observance of the new Veterans Day, October 25th.

The American Legion Department of New York has been designated the host for the occasion by The American Legion National Organization. The event is rotated among the several veterans organizations each year in the different regional observances as well as the National ceremony in Arlington Cemetery and is conducted in cooperation with the President's National Veterans Day Committee. The Legion group will have the full cooperation and participation of the United Veterans Organization of Nassau County, representing all of the local veterans organizations.

The colorful spectacle will begin at 10:30 a.m. October 25th with a concert by the 319th Army Band. At 11:00 a.m. a wreath honoring the dead of all wars will be placed at the War Memorial by The American Legion National Commander John H. Geiger, of Des Plaines, Ill. National Commander Geiger will then be escorted to the band shell by a color guard, and the massed colors of all Nassau County veterans groups.

Hempstead Town Councilman George A. Murphy of Seaford, Chairman of the Veterans Day Committee and Past Commander of the Nassau County American Legion, will narrate the proceedings, which will feature a recital of the pledge of allegiance and a rendition of the National Anthem following the invocation. National Commander Geiger will deliver a brief Veterans Day address to the assemblage.

Many dignitaries are expected to attend the event from Nassau County, surrounding counties, New York State and surrounding States.

Councilman Murphy has announced that, although he considers it fitting and proper to honor the dead of our wars on this occasion, the primary purpose of this Veterans Day event will be honor the living veteran, and particularly the young Vietnam veteran who "needs our help in so many areas."

The Nassau County veterans who are responsible for the Veterans Day event, headed by Councilman Murphy and The American Legion Nassau County Commander Michael Miller, are asking for the support of all citizens in helping make the occasion a spectacular success — a true outpouring of gratitude on the part of all Americans for those who have worn the uniform in defense of America.

From Our Postmaster

Ralph Cascardi

Hicksville Postmaster Ralph G. Cascardi announced that the Hicksville Post Office and its stations and branches will follow regular schedules on Veteran's Day, Monday, October 25.

No regular window or delivery service will be provided. The Main Post Office Lobby will remain open for access to lock boxes and the Self Service Postal Unit.

Collections from street letterboxes will be on holiday schedules and will include pick ups from "airmail only" and "next day service" boxes.

On Saturday preceding the holiday, October 23, regular Saturday schedules, including window and delivery services will be observed.

PLEASE NOTE: The Self Service Unit located at the Hicksville Main Office is never closed.

Budget Hearing

The Oyster Bay Town Board has established October 26 as the date for a public hearing on the proposed preliminary Town budget for 1972. Hearings will be held at 10 a.m. and at 8 p.m. in Town Hall. The proposed preliminary budget will hold the tax line in 1972.

Copies of the budget will be made available to interested parties in the Town Clerk's office and will be distributed to public libraries in the Town.

To Honor Assemblyman Ginsberg

Assemblyman Martin Ginsberg of Plainview will be honored by the Farmingdale Jewish Center as its "Man of the Year" at the Eighth Annual dinner dance set for Saturday evening, November 13th, it has been announced by Bernard Alexander, President of the Center. Chairman of the special event is Robert Arch of Bethpage.

More than two hundred persons are expected to participate in paying homage to Mr. Ginsberg in recognition of his humanitarian work and efforts as a civic leader. An Assemblyman since 1966, Mr. Ginsberg presently serves in the New York State legislature as Chairman of the important Health Committee. A graduate of St. John's Law School, he has championed a wide variety of legislation especially related to the physically and mentally handicapped.

In planning for the dinner dance, Chairman Bob Arch recently indicated, "through this affair we will have the privilege of honoring a man known throughout the island and the State. Through his efforts as a humanitarian and as an Assemblyman . . . despite obstacles, he has brought credit to all the people of Long Island."

Information about the event may be obtained by calling the Center at 694 - 2343.

Orientation Night

"Orientation Night" at Holy Family Grammar School took place Friday, October 15 at 7:30 pm.

Several hundred parents came to meet the teachers and learn the plans of the teachers for the coming year.

The principal, Sister Eileen McMahon, O.P., introduced the Pastor, Father Daniel J. Nelson, and the teaching staff of Holy Family Grammar School. Mr. Thomas J. Gaffney, President of the Holy Family Board of Education, also greeted the parents.

Sr. Margaret Joseph, S.C.H., Principal of St. Aidan's School presented a program concerning the Profession of Faith in today's world.

A film entitled "Trust - Stop" was viewed. Mrs. Elizabeth Dart, the guest speaker discussed the film. She explained that there should be continued adult education so that we can help our children develop their faith in today's changing world.

Vatican II changed no Doctrines—our understanding of the Doctrine changed.

The parents then visited the various class rooms and met the teachers who briefly outlined the curriculum for the coming year. Coffee and home made cakes were served by the "Class Mothers".

Auditions At Park

Recreation and Parks Commissioner Richard A. Fitch announced that auditions are now being held for the Nassau County Youth Symphony Orchestra and Concert Band.

"Some of the youngsters who were with the two groups this summer," said Fitch, "will be away at school during the winter months. We are especially interested in youths who can play strings."

Classical, semi classical and jazz comprise the repertoire of the travelling performers. The young musicians are encouraged to try their own ideas at improvisation and expression. All performances are given on evenings and weekends.

Both groups, organized in 1963, have performed at the Jones Beach Shell, The World's Fair, the Long Island Fair and many other locations where they have met with wide acclaim. Jack Berv, a 17 year veteran of the N.B.C. Symphony Orchestra, who worked under Toscanini conducts both the band and orchestra.

Youngsters between the ages of 14 and 19 who wish to audition for either group may call 292-4130.

"For the good that needs assistance
For the bad that needs resistance
For the future in the distance
And the good that we can do."

Dear Mrs. Noeth:
While I have no way of knowing what alleged remarks ascribed to me by Shirley Smith you "deliberately deleted" from her article, I deny categorically that anything I said was "absolutely untrue." Since you do not personally take the time to attend Board meetings, the kindest interpretation I can make of your intemperate editorial is that it is based upon inaccurate reporting of the substance of my remarks. For your benefit and in the best interest of the school children of this community, following is a full verbatim record of the statement with which I opened the Board meeting of October 12.

"At the outset, let me express my pleasure over noting that since this Board has assumed the responsibilities of office, attendance at public meeting (for whatever reason) has increased markedly. At the same time, time allotted for public participation has been extended so that we may hear from anyone who has a question or a message for the Board.

It can be no secret from those of you who have attended Board meetings regularly over the last several months that there has been a deplorable lack of communication between administration and the Board. A case in point is the matter of a complaint from Burns Avenue parents that the Board failed to authorize construction of a connecting door between two rooms shared by students in a program of individualized instruction. It was shocking for us to discover that though the principal had made request for this action long since, we were not informed. It is this kind of situation which has made it impossible for us to answer some of your questions.

You are all aware that changes have been made and that this Board is working hard to eliminate the problems that have bothered us in the past. Now that Dr. Niosi has assumed his duties as superintendent we are assured of a steady stream of information from central administration. It is essential, however, that you be patient and give us the time we need to get operations moving smoothly. The effects of the changes are already being felt and will become even more noticeable as we go along. It is my greatest desire that we all work together toward what is best for the school children of Hicksville."

How any reasonable person could call this an attack on a man who isn't there to defend himself, escapes me completely. However, despite the self-serving piousity of your posture, pretending to spread oil while roiling the waters, I refuse to be drawn into acrimonious debate with you on irrelevant issues. Instead, for the sake of reducing community tensions and upholding the ethics of responsible journalism, I hope you will have the decency to print my response in full. Let us, once and for all, put ill conceived partisan differences to rest.

I urge you to reflect on the old Indian prayer which says, "Great Spirit, grant that I may not criticize my neighbor until I have walked a mile in his moccasins." The Board of Education does not place itself above criticism but it does feel strongly that now is the time to stop carping and to join together in common cause. There is much real work to be done. Let us get to it.

Sincerely yours,
G. Thomas Muratore.

Editor's Note:

To deliberately create a lack of communication and then have the temerity to turn around and deplore its very existence, is the highest form of hypocrisy. But this type of action has become routine in District 17, on a Board level. I have given you this space because your letter reveals you to many more than those who attend the Board meetings. Your opinion of me is unimportant, as is mine of you. The important thing is not your ego, but the quality of the education being given to the children of this district under your type of leadership. Mr. Muratore, why not direct all your intelligence towards this admirable goal? You say you do...so, do it. People know the truth...in spite of your words. Don't persist in this type of cowardly conduct. It isn't worthy of the position to which you have been elected. Despite what Adolph Hitler stated...telling lies over and again does NOT make them the truth.

As to my absence from your meetings, I work on Tuesday evenings. However, I can trust Mrs. Smith for a reliable and intelligent report of what goes on at them. The last meeting I did attend, you read a statement that prevented any public comment then changed superintendents without giving any reason. It was one of the most amazing public meetings I have ever attended.

Sheila Noeth.

Plainview - Old Bethpage High School News

Sports by Steve Sadetsky

Plainview High School last week posted a "cemetery." There were three "tombstones" on the outside wall of the gym. Tombstone No. 1 read: "Plainview 20, Garden City 18, September 25, Rest In Peace." Tombstone No. 2 read "Plainview 14, Bethpage 6, October 2, R.I.P." Tombstone No. 3 read "Plainview 18, Island Trees 6, October 16, R.I.P." Plainview is undefeated and in undisputed first place at 3 and 0.

Although there were three tombstones, the atmosphere at Plainview High is anything but dreary. The school spirit is overwhelming, and continued support will result in more victories. The attitude and the experience of the team is a major factor in our success.

Mr. Lucien Veneziano gets the credit for our defensive team. The opposition has scored 24 points against us, while we have scored 52 points. We have played the defensive positions well, which is the reason for our 7 interceptions. Mark Liguori, George Fortmuller, Bob Mastronardi and Bruce Convisar have had consistent games, each averaging more than 5 tackles a game. Liguori has had 3 interceptions.

Head Coach, William MacNamara, has instructed his team offensively. George Keckelsen has passed for 286 yards and completed 58.5 percent of his passes. Number 17 has thrown 4 T.D. passes totaling 117 yards and made 9 tackles on defense. Bruce Convisar has a three game T.D. streak. Convisar leads the team in rushing average (5 yards a carry), pass reception average (19.4) and total yardage (287 yards). Dob DeSimone and Bob Mastronardi have rushed for a total of 247 yards. All three have the drive to give the Gulls a division title.

The last game played was against Island Trees. Formerly ranked 9th in the county, Island Trees was barreled over by the offense and held to only one touchdown by our defense.

Mr. McNamara takes each game one by one. He does not look ahead in the future; he lives in the present. Devoting his time to winning in this 1971 season, the team has brought him a 3 and 0 record. Continue to support the Gulls!

On Tuesday, October 12th the Plainview High School Cross Country Team beat Plainview-Kennedy 15-40 and lost to Clark High School 23-32 (low score wins) in two league meets. Tuesday, October 19th we lost to Island Trees 26-29 in a closely fought meet over the hills and through the sand traps of Bethpage State Park.

We are very proud of our soccer teams. On Monday, October 18th the varsity team defeated Locust Valley 2-1 on goals by Jeff Gross and Al Tramposch. The Junior Varsity team also defeated Locust Valley 2-0. It is their second shut-out this year.

Plainview - Old Bethpage High School has set up a program for juniors and seniors in conjunction with the Joyce Road Elementary School and the Jamaica Avenue Elementary School. High school students are involved in classroom activities as teacher assistants.

The Joyce Road School, which houses third through sixth grade, has modernized the elementary curriculum with an Open Classroom situation. Individualization is stressed, and students from the high school have been effectively assisting younger boys and girls to progress at their own speed.

The Jamaica Avenue School, which houses K-3 children, also recognizes that high school students can be effective assistants to teachers, especially in reinforcing a learning situation.

Much is to be gained by all. Teachers have aides to help implement individual programs, and elementary students benefit by "one-to-one" relationships with teacher assistants. Not to be overlooked are the facts that high school students are given the responsibilities of an adult; that they are able to contribute to a changing educational scene; that they earn credit toward high school graduation, and also have meaningful recommendations if they choose to go on to schools of higher learning.

Dr. Jerome Botwinick, principal of Plainview - Old Bethpage High School, released the following news on October 5th: "I am extremely pleased to announce that Mr. Jacob Brodtkin, who served as Science Dept. Chairman in our high school, was selected as Science Teacher of the Year by the Society for Professional Engineers. This award is made to only one secondary school teacher in all of Nassau County. We are proud that a member of our faculty was selected."

Editor's Note: All high schools in the Hicksville, Plainview, Old Bethpage Areas, have always been invited to send us their news. We repeat this invitation for the coming school year.

KIWANIS: Oyster Bay Town Councilman Ralph Diamond, left, accepts a certificate of appreciation from Robert Slackler, center, and Robert Warner at recent meeting of the Hicksville

Kiwanis at the Millbridge Inn, Jericho. Slackler is president of the Kiwanis group and Warner, vice president. Diamond was cited for his efforts on community service projects.

Lincoln Begins Saturday Banking

The President of The Lincoln Savings Bank, Edward S. Backnick, Jr., has announced that the bank's Nassau Branch is now open every Saturday from 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM.

The Nassau Branch, located in the Plainview Shopping Center, recently celebrated its 10th Anniversary by modernizing and expanding its facilities to serve depositors more efficiently.

Mr. Backnick, in discussing the Saturday banking hours, stated that all of the normal services offered through the week would be available on Saturday.

"Meeting the needs of the people and the community has always been the primary concern of The Lincoln", Mr. Backnick said, "and we feel additional hours on Saturday will make banking more accessible for the growing number of daily commuters in Nassau County."

Hicksville High ended its horrendous nine game North Shore Athletic League streak with an 8-6 victory over MacArthur on the Generals home field in North Wantagh, Saturday.

The anxiety for the last of the Orange and Balck faithful — a goodly three hundred in number — lasted until the final possible moment.

With just three seconds left on the clock, the home team attempted a field goal that floated to the right of the upright preserving the Comets two point margin.

Hicksville's victory was constructed on a first period safety and a second period touchdown.

A hard charge by Tom O'Reilly and George Gramaglia lead to the Comets blocking a MacArthur punt after 11 minutes of the first period. Richard Leary pursued the ball but it escaped out of the end zone for an automatic safety before he could capture it for a touchdown.

Leary did get his touchdown in the second when quarterback Bobby Daub nailed him in the end zone with a ten yard and the trouble and injury wracked sophomore laden Comets moved ahead by 8-0.

Despite some sensational running by second year men Paul Curcio and Jeff Thrope the Comets sputtered on the offense and could not cross the goal again.

It was left to the defense. It was quite a chore.

Linebackers Gramaglia and Jim Torellas stood up under the Generals attack when it was ground oriented. However once the home team took to the pass Hicksville was under constant pressure.

Long aeriels set up a four yard run for the Generals score in the third period. Hicksville upset the run for the extra points.

Lead by Walt Signey the Hicksville line continued to hold off the Generals running however a blocked punt, with four minutes left, gave MacArthur possession on the Hicksville one foot line.

On the next play crushing Hicksville charge forced the ball loose and Vic Di Marzi alertly covered the ball on the Comet three.

The Comets could not move it out and were forced to punt. Soon after came the field goal attempt that barely failed.

Hicksville fans were happy to see Shore Notskas out of the hospital and attending the MacArthur contest. He suffered a broken leg in the Farmingdale game and unfortunately is out the rest of the season.

Hicksville goes to Port Washington this Saturday to face the Number One Ranked team in Nassau County. If you are interested in comparisons Port beat MacArthur 56-0 just three weeks ago.

Our Prediction: Port 33,

Hicksville 21.

C.W. Post played Gettysburg on the Brookville campus, Saturday and the two Hicksville men were in the thick of it again. Ron Carman scored on a 1 yard run and 56 yard pass interception. Jim Cara took in scoring passes of 37 and 34 yards to swell the total.

Out in Detroit, Hicksville's Jeff Doolittle once again quarterbacked Hofstra College to an impressive win. The loser to

POLO AT BETHPAGE STATE PARK

Sunday October 17th saw the final game of the season at the Bethpage State Park Polo Field. Westbury topping Bethpage five to three to take the trophies in the Long Island Industrial Recreational Association Match. Whizzing through the first half the Westbury line-up Mike Gerard, John Gayer, Fred Braunstein and Allen Jenkins, with a one goal handicap as a starter, made it one ahead of Bethpage's Al Bianco, John Wittenmore, Paul Rizzo and John Greenleaf, the scoring four to three at the break, and holding on to the lead blanked their opponents in the second half but not without a pummeling in return. With each man determined to win this one the action never let up, the Bethpage four refusing to make way as Westbury beat a path to the goal posts, Jenkins playing a great back for the winners and Braunstein, Gayer and Gerard scoring, Braunstein on two penalty conversions. Individual trophies were presented by Mrs. Eric Siebert, wife of the Superintendent of Bethpage State Park. Mr. Siebert's cooperation played a big part in the success of polo at the park, the next season for more of the exciting action filled games at this beautiful spot on Long Island to start again in June 1972.

Fund raising for the Plainview Old Bethpage Youth Council begins on October 24th. As per last year, volunteers will go door-to-door, soliciting contributions from Plainview residents.

The Youth Council is again ready to receive matching contributions from the Town of Oyster Bay. For each dollar collected from the community, the Town will match it with one dollar, up to $2500. Last year, the Youth Council was the only council in the Town to collect the full amount, $2500.

In the past year, Plainview Youth Council organized the Youth Employment Service, the Earth Day clean-up of Plainview - Old Bethpage, and concert trips. They fought for an establishment of a youth center and hired David Endler to handle rap sessions. Mr. Endler is a trained psychologist.

This year, the Youth Council hopes to expand the Youth Employment Service, increase Dave Endler's availability, begin a community newspaper and recycling drop, sponsor local concerts, and establish a coffee house.

The Student Council has many ideas, and as soon as elections are held on November 1st and our Student Council is formulated, many of these ideas will be worked upon and hopefully completed.

For those parents whose children are running for Student Council, Elections will be held on November 1st at the Joyce Road

School, and prior to the Elections, the children will present their platforms via closed circuit television on Channel Six, the district's local station. We will be inviting all parents to come in sometime on November 1st to view their children on T.V.

Plainview Girl Receives Honors

Nancy Linda Wilson, a senior at Allegheny College, was awarded special recognition as an Alden Scholar for the 1970-71 academic year, an award which is made annually to those students who have maintained an average of 3.2 or higher. A special dinner and convocation were held September 16 in honor of the 246 students who received the award. The main speaker for the event was Dr. Lawrence Pelletier, president of the college.

Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilson, 29 Nassau Ave., Plainview, and is a graduate of Plainview-Old Bethpage High School. Recognition was also accorded Nancy as an Alden Scholar in 1969 for academic achievement during her freshman year.

'Health & Safety' Day At Bd. of Supervisors

Monday, October 18th might well have been called "health and safety" day at the Board of Supervisors meeting in Mineola, as the town and city heads of the county voted in the continuation of several health training programs; authorized the purchase of safety devices and programs for the police department; and authorized the installation of a drug abuse and addiction center in Roosevelt vocational evaluation and treatment of users and addicts.

In tune with the day was the appearance at the close of the 67-item agenda of representatives of the two poles in abortion reform, William Short, of Seaford, chairman of the March for Life committee, and Bill Baird, president of the Parents' Aid Society, who has been in jail seven times in four states for distributing contraceptive devices and preaching in favor of abortion clinics. Mr. Baird's clinic is in operation now in Hempstead pending the decision on a suit now pending against its continuance.

Also speaking for the March for Life was Father Thomas Hartman, of St. James R.C. Church in Seaford.

"Where does life begin?" was the basis of Mr. Short's argument, as he advocated the setting of open hearings on abortion, and the allocation of funds for research in the areas of pre-natal care, causes and cures of cancer. He asked for a suspension of abortions until the initial question is answered.

Mary McGuire, of Merrick, rose from the audience to speak in favor of a "Right to Life" day in Nassau County.

PROS & CONS of abortion reform were the topic of discussion between opposite poles of the question after the Board of Supervisors meeting on Monday. From left are John Short and Father Thomas Hartmann, of the "March for Life" committee, and Sue Vogel and Bill Baird, Director, of the Parents' Aid Society, a non-profit abortion birth control center which has been very much in the news, located in Hempstead.

Mr. Baird emphasized the rights of women being the sole deciders in the question of their own abortions. He said no hospital should require a permission signature from a husband before performing an abortion. He also noted that over 5,000 babies were born to "kids" under age 14 last year, and that birth control devices should be dispensed from vending machines along side candy and cigarette machines.

Among new devices and programs for which the supervisors allocated funds for highway safety, all funds to be reimbursed under the federally funded N.Y. State Highway Program, were a "highly sophisticated" telefunken radar device for four police cars at a cost of over $7,000; a police ambulance/hospital cardio-alert system; purchase of mechanical speed clocking devices and data processing equipment.

Health training programs include a nursing program on behalf of Nassau Community College and Creedmoor State Hospital, and a physical therapy program on behalf of Nassau Community College and Brunswick Hospital Center. Also approved was a skill training program for neighborhood youth corps enrollees.

Isabel Dodd No Overnight Success

There's a saying in show business usually delivered by unknowns who suddenly find themselves a household word — "It took me 17 years to become an overnight success."

In the closing days of the 1971 Town campaigns, that would appear to be true about Isabel Dodd of Sea Cliff. As a candidate for Town Clerk on the Town of Oyster Bay's Republican ticket, Mrs. Dodd has been a popular figure, though new to the business of running for elective office.

The secret of her success is that she's not new to politics. In fact, Mrs. Dodd is currently serving as Deputy Commissioner of Elections for Nassau County. She's a lady who knows the odds and the odds are good for a woman to win office. Especially when she's spent 17 years getting there.

Mrs. Dodd began her political career like every other homemaker roused by the call to service — via the route of volunteerism. She liked it so well that she signed on for a six-year stint as aide to former Assemblyman John J. Burns, then for eight years with former Assemblyman Fehrenbach, dealing with issues dear to the hearts of Long Islanders, including education, home rule and boating. She became a Republican committeewoman and now serves as GOP leader in her home town.

As avid sailors, Mrs. Dodd and her husband of 24 years, Duncan, find little time in these hectic pre-election days to spend on the waters of Long Island Sound. But togetherness is shared in other ways. Mr. Dodd is a commercial artist who has been at the center of planning, designing and overseeing the production of campaign buttons, bumper stickers, signs and all the paraphernalia that go into the making of a household word.

Mrs. Dodd's teammates on the ticket headed by Supervisor John W. Burke are delighted with her campaign performance. "They're kind of amused to see me taking on this new role as a 'tyro' after years of helping them get elected," muses Mrs. Dodd. While she confesses to occasional "mike fever", that terrible moment when her mind goes blank before an audience of a few hundred people, her professionalism takes over and she recovers quickly.

Being a woman has its advantages. Says Mrs. Dodd, "Usually, soliciting campaign contributions is a real problem for new candidates, but so far, a number of fund-raisers have been sponsored by women's groups in my behalf — without my asking. I think women are ready to take on more active roles in government."

If elected, Mrs. Dodd's purview as Town Clerk will be administering the voluminous record keeping and licensing functions of the Township, a role her working experience has well prepared her for.

Sums up her mentor, Town GOP executive leader Angelo Roncallo who put forth her candidacy, "Isabel has what it takes. She's articulate, charming, and she can do a great job in office."

Perez Calls For 10% Reduction In All Salaries Of Elected Town Officials

Conservative party candidate Roland J. Perez called for the reduction of all elected town official's salaries in order to "restore public confidence in the integrity of the present political system."

Speaking to a group of neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Amundsen, 12 Garden Boulevard, Hicksville, Candidate Perez called for untiring efforts to reduce the "back breaking burden of bad taxes" now carried by citizens of the Town of Oyster Bay.

The candidate for the councilmanic position pointed to the Conservative Party's Supervisory candidate, Lewis Yevoli as the "hope for the future of our Town". He cited Mr. Yevoli's unique contribution to the people in his role as Councilman. He also indicated the sense of indignation felt in many quarters over the Republican campaign to remove Justice Francis Donovan from a cross party endorsement. Mr. Perez called the present Board the "captive people of the Nassau Republican party."

Although he is running, as all candidates must, on a town wide basis, Mr. Perez has been an outspoken opponent of the Hicksville Triangle plan. His main criticism has been the lack of public opinion expressed in the plan and the amount of time and money the present board has spent in developing the present plan.

Fallen Leaves Are Dangerous

Nassau Police Commissioner Louis J. Frank warned motorists that fallen leaves can cause dangerous highway conditions.

"While Nassau's tree-lined streets are a joy to behold each Autumn," Frank said, "the fallen leaves, especially when wet, cause slippery road conditions, and motorists must be extra cautious."

He also warned motorists to beware of small children hiding in large piles of leaves. "There have been tragic cases where a motorist has driven through a pile of leaves in which a child had playfully concealed himself."

Frank also urged parents to warn their children against playing in piles of leaves.

"Homeowners can help remove some of the danger by spreading leaves over a larger area in shallow piles," Frank suggested. And he again reminded drivers to "drive carefully on roads strewn with leaves and avoid driving into piles of leaves."

Halloween Fun

Nassau Police Commissioner Louis J. Frank called upon the parents and youth of the County to cooperate in emphasizing the safe, sensible and fun aspects of Halloween.

Frank suggested that at least one adult should supervise small "trick or treaters" as they make their rounds and also recommended that they wear light colored clothing after sundown.

If Halloween masks are worn they should not interfere with the ability to see approaching cars.

He asked parents to caution youngsters not to enter the homes of strangers and not to eat any "treats" they receive until they first show them to a parent.

Commissioner Frank further advised parents to warn their children, especially teenagers, that Halloween is no excuse for vandalism. Intentional destruction of property may result in arrest for criminal mischief, a misdemeanor; and damaging a mail box is a federal offense.

He urged young people to attend parties and dances on Halloween and to refrain from destructive pranks.

"Every year most of our young people celebrate and enjoy Halloween without violating the law," Frank said.

"I urge all our young people to respect their neighbor's property rights and refrain from acts of criminal mischief," he continued. "Those few who engage in destructive activities not only face the legal consequences; they also injure the reputation of all our young people."

Nassau Police are distributing a brochure advising residents of safe and sensible Halloween conduct, and police will be out in force on Halloween. Youth division detectives and plainclothes units will intensify patrol operations in unmarked police cars.

No Jerry Lewis Theatre Say Plainview Residents

Powerful opposition emerged both to a proposed movie theatre on Manetto Hill Road and to the existing shopping center which would be its locale at a night hearing Tuesday concerning the petition of G. F. Theatre Corp. to put in a Jerry Lewis Theatre in the Shoprite shopping center on the corner of Country Drive. The Town Board reserved decision at the close of the two-hour hearing.

About 15 residents of the immediate area spoke against the theatre, and about the unpleasant conditions caused by the existence of the shopping complex, including unremoved debris, trespassing across private property, heavy truck traffic, and teenage vandalism.

The need for an additional theatre was questioned by several people who noted it would be the sixth theatre in a community of 45,000 people. The theatre as a safety hazard was brought up by many, including Carol Fishman of the Greater Plainview Community Association, who presented a petition containing 217 names in opposition and asked where people would form a waiting line for the theatre, the only space available being the Shop Rite trucking area or the sidewalk in front of the stores. About half the 12 store owners in the center were in opposition, she said.

The danger of Manetto Hill Road itself at this juncture was described by Alan Lopater, who said 50 accidents had occurred at the curve near Shop Rite in the past four years, not including a serious accident that very evening at 5:30 P.M.

"Family Type Operation" The petition, as presented by attorney Eric A. Roeckl, of Hicksville, called for a "family type operation", a theatre seating 300 to 350 people, as opposed to other theatres which might seat up to 1500 people. No "X" pictures would be shown - strictly "G" and "GP" pictures, he said.

The principals of the petition are Harold Fertig, a former judge, and Bernard Green, who own the Jerry Lewis Theatre franchise for Nassau County. All Jerry Lewis theatres are strictly controlled as to their appearance and operation, Mr. Fertig said, assuring a quality operation.

Mr. Roeckl also brought on a real estate appraiser, Howard R. Brower, who said the theatre would not have an adverse effect on the values of the surrounding homes, which he said ranged from $30,000 to $53,000.

One resident said a buyer for his home had backed out of the deal recently after "getting wind" of the theatre.

The cost of the operation would be about $300,000, it was said.

An extensive survey of parking at different times of the day in the center and week was reported by Mr. Roeckl, who said he did the survey in a borrowed "yellow van". After his statement that parking was adequate in the center for the theatre, Councilman Ralph Diamond read a letter from the Town of Oyster Bay Building Dept. which said parking did not comply with town standards.

Neighboring Streets Residents who spoke in opposition were primarily from Country Drive, Jeremy Avenue and Mitchell Ave., all with houses backing up to the center. Theodore Bridgewater, of Country Drive, described shoppers "hopping over the fence with groceries" and crossing through his back yard. Seymour Halpern, of Jeremy Avenue, described a constant battle with debris blowing over into his yard. Mrs. Emma Weisman, pointing out with others that drainage problems were severe in the center, said she walked in more than a foot of water and lost many trees in her backyard before the problem was settled with a low cement wall installed by the shopping center management.

A number of residents described teenagers jumping up on the garbage dumpsters and then to the roof of the Shop Rite store, leaving a trail of broken fences and debris.

Other residents who spoke were: Sandy Wilgard; Alan Lopater; Joshua Blush; Jerome Ness; George Bressler; Joseph Floriden; Ray Jaffe; Herb Nagle; Le Goldhirsch; and Henry Belmont. Mr. Belmont described Shop Rite as "an eyesore," overgrown with weeds and junk. The fixtures of a business that failed remained on the property for five or six months, he said.

In his summation, Mr. Roeckl admitted the loading area of the shopping center was "pinched," he countered that the fixtures had only stayed on the property for "five or six days," and also said he would ask the landlord to widen one of the two curb cuts into the center which cause traffic to back up in the center and on Manetto Hill road. He declined to answer the question of line forming for the customers of the proposed theatre.

FOR THE RESIDENTS AT BIRCHWOOD PARK AT JERICHO

Organizational, community and general interest news should be submitted typewritten or printed, double-spaced, in duplicate. Either drop off or mail to Editor, 13 Millpond Street, Jericho. Deadline for insertion - Monday noon. Telephone WE 6-1985.

Excerpts From Sept. Meeting

Jericho Board of Ed. Report

Among the major interests of Jericho's Board of Education monthly public meeting, held on September 30, were reports concerning:

Jericho's reading program improved Junior High School student evaluations

Upcoming Jericho Adult Education Program

Jericho Reading Program

Howard Jankowitz, President of the Board, joined fellow members Bernice Baiman, Hal Curtis Felsner and Jerry Greenberg in a reading lesson conducted by Mrs. Harriet Libstag, Jericho reading teacher.

Mrs. Libstag used various approaches, including phonics, letter and word recognition and visual aids, to help the Board members "begin to read," as is actually done by students in primary grades.

Mrs. Meryl Slater and Mrs. Arleen Henretig, reading specialists, described other activities which are included in Jericho's broad and varied program.

Mrs. Slater demonstrated reading materials programmed learning aids and machines which provide instant feedback to students for vocabulary comprehension and rate improvement.

Mrs. Henretig discussed the reading experiences in the intermediate grades which "help bridge the gap between reading and the content areas of other subjects."

Using projected selections and displays of materials, the reading teachers summarized the basic approach which focuses upon finding a child's reading strengths, the individual techniques, and the wide range of appropriate books and materials to stimulate interest and improve skills.

Student Evaluation System: Board members reviewed a proposal for improving student evaluations and reports to parents, as presented by Arthur W. Rathje, Principal, and teachers Miss Diane O'Keefe, Richard Andrew and Howard Damon. The evaluations to be used with 7th and 8th graders are based upon the accomplishment of specific skills.

As Mr. Rathje described: "This system will identify the type and quality of each student's development and the degree of progress being made in learning specific skills."

For example, the student and his parents will no longer find a "70" or "C" score in science; rather, an indication of the student's ability to "demonstrate the function of the three main parts of a nerve cell."

This more meaningful approach will be used in all academic subjects.

The objectives are selected on a flexible basis which will find 7th and 8th graders achieving some performance skills at the end of a month's unit or over a longer range period.

"A youngster and his teacher will be able to spend the necessary time to learn the skills and then move to the next level," continued Mr. Rathje.

Mrs. Bernice Baiman, Board member, commented that the new system "leads students towards reality by stimulating thinking and by removing the labels of 'underachiever' and 'overachiever' which blocked children's progress."

The Junior High reporting system was developed by the staff and used on a 7th grade trial last year. The procedure is compatible with Jericho's elementary school reporting system.

Adult Education Proposal: David Nydick, Superintendent, stated that "a community survey conducted last spring indicated strong interest in instituting an adult education program."

Mr. Nydick introduced Ray Cahalan, Jackson teacher, who will serve as Director of the Adult Education Program.

Mr. Cahalan projected plans for a program to begin in January, 1972. "Approximately 32 courses will be offered, in order to cover the gamut of interests as expressed by the community," described Mr. Cahalan.

Registration will be open to non-residents, although Jericho residents will receive priority enrollment.

A brochure listing courses, procedures and schedules, as well as opportunities for employment as instructors will be published.

Requests for offering courses should be directed to Mr. Cahalan or Mr. Perna, at OV 1-4100. Any request will be considered if a sufficient number of persons register.

Other Board matters: Diphtheria Immunization: The Board revised the policy on student inoculations, which now includes immunization against diphtheria, effective January 1, 1972.

The Public Health Law, will require five immunizations: polio, smallpox, measles, rubella (German measles) and diphtheria.

Enrollment: The Jericho Public Schools' enrollment for September totaled 3812 pupils.

Pioneer Women

The North Shore Club of Pioneer Women of Jericho will be holding a Rummage Sale on Sunday, October 24th to Tuesday, October 26th. The sale will be held on Audrey Avenue in the town of Oyster Bay, next door to the Oyster Bay Movie Theatre. Hours of operation will be from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. each day. Bag Day $1 per bag of bargains - will take place on Tuesday.

Dads Of Jericho

The next meeting of the Dads of Jericho will take place on Wednesday, October 27th, 8:30 P.M., in the Teachers' Cafeteria of Jericho High School.

"Candidate Nite" Oct. 24 A.M.

The Jericho Jewish Center Mens Club is sponsoring a "meet the candidates night," which will be held at the Temple, on Broadway, Jericho, on Sunday morning, October 24, from 10:30 A.M. to 12:30 P.M. All residents of the community are invited to attend. Come and hear (and question) the Supervisor of the Town of Oyster Bay, as well as the other candidates for his office. Representative councilmen will also be present. The Mens Club will provide coffee and cake, to insure that those in attendance will find the morning a nourishing as well as an informative one.

Conference Day For Teachers

Exploring and discovering new routes to learning were the appropriate ways in which Jericho teachers spent the recent Columbus Day school closing. A result of cooperative planning between the Jericho Teachers Association and the administration, the Superintendent's Conference Day featured workshops and special interest groups, including the following: "In the Beginning Was the Word - An Approach to Creative Writing Skills Improvement," "Outdoor Education," "Working With the Culturally Deprived," "Science Curriculum Improvement Study," "Individualized Math System," "Working With the Atypical Student," "Early Childhood Education," and "British Infant School."

The workshops and interest groups were conducted by Jericho staff members Norman H. Siskind, Joseph Verdore, Ray Cahalan, Mrs. Jean Southwick, Mrs. Mona Prenoveau, Michael Paloger, Miss Dorothy Karsch, Mrs. Harriet Libstag, Thomas Zerella, Thomas Kramer and educational consultants. Elementary and secondary teachers also had the opportunity to meet in grade level and department groups in order to discuss mutual interests and means of improving instruction and services to children.

GUTTERBALL GOSSIP

By Herb Mahler

That ominous silence you heard last night from the loudspeaker was due to the fact that only seven two-hundred games were rolled. This must come close to an all-time low.

Our chief sleuth, Buddy Flanders, was busy taking samples of the way of the alleys and he predicts an early break in the case.

Meanwhile, back at the ranch, let's see what's cooking.

The Kaplans, by beating the Sussmans 16-14, still remain in first place. Bungling Bert Benjamin hit for a fine 220 for the Sussmans as Murry was absent with the gout.

Murry's boys dropped one spot to fourth.

In a well-fought game, the Kowlowitz team took the Goldsteins 18½ - 11½; however, Robbie's Raiders remained in second place only 5½ behind.

Murry rapped a 203 to give his team that extra lift.

Jumping two spots to third place, the Vladems flunked the Flanders 27-3. It was Lew himself again with a 207 but what a help from his troops as Morris

"Twinkle Toes" Garelick, Art Rosenthal and Lou all won their three games. Billy Sussman hit for a 200 for the losers.

Now in fifth place, a jump of two, are the Rothmans as they flattened the Sachs 26-4. Sad Sid's men remain in last place. "Free loading" Freddie was aided by Irv "Rags" Neidorf and Dick Chalkin as they all, including Freddie, won their three games.

In the Battle of the Century, it was the Geyers against their arch rivals, the Brodys, and Mr. Warmth melted his opponents 26-4. Leo's 200 was a help but Herb fell asleep as he hit for a 202.

The Simple Simons got smart and left the Warrens by the wayside 19-11. Nat gave his all with a 203, winning his three games.

Killer Kellerman pulled the string on the YO-YO Hoffmans 20-10. Herb Koenigsberg won his three games for Bill's bunch. We welcome a new man to the League on Mill's team, Bernie Cohen.

It was that kind of evening as "Sam the Man" Springer finally emerged as a leader and blazed a trail through the Karbels 25-5 to leap about eight notches. Red's fine 201 and Larry Schwartz 3-game win were nullified by a well-fought victory in his three games by Sam as he squeaked past Harry Lemberg.

Last, but certainly not least was the return of Lew Marks to a resounding silence as his team lost to the Lieberman's 19-11. Lew has a hot hand with a 201 but that's it.

See you at the Nevele!

Syosset Community Invited To Assist In Ed. Format

The entire Syosset community will have the opportunity to join in planning the future educational format of their schools. The Board of Education President, C. Nicholas Penna and Superintendent of Schools, Edward J. Murphy, have invited all community residents to participate in a local redesign conference to be held at H. B. Thompson Jr. High School on Saturday, November 6, from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. The community conference - Designation Redesign:

Tomorrow's Schools - Today - which is being sponsored by the Board of Education, will familiarize residents with the current status of the Syosset schools and the possibilities for redesigning Syosset's educational system. Sessions will also be scheduled to permit residents to discuss future planning concerning elementary and secondary programs, special services and financing of education. Mr. Penna urges all residents to attend this conference and share in the planning of Syosset's educational redesign program by making known their views, comments and ideas. Details and registration information for the community redesign conference will be contained in a special bulletin which will be mailed shortly to all residents.

The morning part of the conference will include an introductory session followed by small group meetings. The afternoon session will be devoted to a summary of the individual morning sessions and the organization of citizen committees to make further studies of particular areas. These committees will report periodically to the Board of Education.

Lunch will be available for $1.50 during the noon break between sessions.

"Meet Your Board" Sessions Are Slated

As part of the Jericho Board of Education's continuing program of maintaining close communication with residents, a series of meetings will be held at each elementary school during the next two months, by arrangement with each PTA unit.

Members of the Board and Administration will meet with citizens of the district's four elementary areas, in order to share residents' interests and concerns. "Meet Your Board and Administration" sessions are in addition to the regular monthly Board meetings which are held on the last Thursday of each month at the Senior High School Speech and Drama Room, located off Route 107.

The "Meet Your Board and Administration" series is scheduled as follows:

Robert Williams School - Thursday, November 4, 8:00 p.m.
 Caniague School - Wednesday, November 10, 8:30 p.m.

George A. Jackson School - Monday, December 6, 8:30 p.m.
 Robert - Stearns, Tuesday, December 14, 8:00 p.m.

LETTERS

Dear Editor,

In a recent editorial a leading daily newspaper in our County congratulated the American Jewish Committee for joining the NAACP in its suit against the Town of Oyster Bay. In that editorial they stated that the Town of Oyster Bay should share its wealth with others.

What wealth would they have us share?

As a Town Councilman in the Town of Oyster Bay, I am very familiar with the unemployment that currently exists in our town. I am also well aware of the fact that our residents are not wealthy, but are instead, extremely hard working people, many maintaining two jobs in order to make ends meet. Furthermore, many of our wives have gone to work in order to give their children a college education.

This is not the first time that this newspaper has painted a picture of the Town of Oyster Bay as an area of the wealthy. If by sharing the wealth they mean our remaining open space, I believe that this land must be developed pursuant to the master plan which we are developing for all the people in our Town.

Regarding the American Jewish Committee involving itself in the NAACP suit, I wish to point out that this organization has left the impression that the Jewish community supports the views of the NAACP. My own knowledge of the Jewish residents of our Town indicates to me that they think no differently on this subject than any other ethnic group. Neither I, nor any other person or organization can speak out as a representative of the Jewish people. We are independent thinkers and each of us has or will reach his own opinion on this most sensitive problem.

Ralph Diamond

Breast Cancer Detection Clinic

A free Breast Cancer Detection Clinic, designed to save lives of women and sponsored by the Garden City Branch of the American Cancer Society, will be held Saturday, Nov. 13, from 9:00 A.M. to 1:00 P.M. at Nassau Hospital, Mineola. It is announced by Mrs. Robert W. Bowles, Branch President.

Breast cancer, leading cause of deaths in women today, is discovered 95 percent of the time through self-examination.

Women wishing to attend and receive individual breast examinations must make appointments in advance of the Clinic. Complete program of film viewing, instruction and examination will take one hour. Participation is restricted to those over 21. Reports on findings by physicians during breast examination will be forwarded to the examinee's family physician for follow-up.

Blasts Ruling Entitled Driver To Lawyer Before Drunk Test

"It is an extremely short-sighted, disastrous ruling that can only result in more slaughter on our highways. With all the support I can muster both now and when the Legislature reconvenes in Albany next January, I will work for a reversal of this decision."

With these words, a deeply concerned Senator John D. Caemmerer, (Rep. East Williston) attacked the unprecedented decision just handed down by Manhattan Supreme Court Justice Abraham Gellinoff in which he ruled that a drunk-driving suspect is entitled to legal counsel before the breathalyzer test. In so doing, Justice Gellinoff reinstated the driver's license of a N.Y.C. motorist who had refused to take the state-mandated chemical test to determine the alcoholic content of his blood, following his arrest by a patrolman whose car he had struck. The motorist, Robert Leopold, declined the sobriety test on the grounds that he was not represented by counsel at the time. The Motor Vehicle Department then revoked his driver's license as prescribed by law.

In a suit instituted by Leopold, Judge Gellinoff ruled in favor of the motorist saying that while prompt administration of the blood chemical test is necessary, the motorist has a legal right to confer with his attorney if it "will not improperly delay" the examination.

Caemmerer Rips Reasoning "This is sheer folly," said Sen. Caemmerer who, as Chairman of the Senate Committee on Motor Vehicles and the Joint Legislative Committee on Transportation, has led the successful legislative campaign to tighten N.Y.S. laws directed against drunk-driving.

"While a police officer waits no one knows how long for the suspect's lawyer to appear, the alcohol is fast disappearing from a person's bloodstream, and knowing this, what lawyer is going to appear promptly?" the Senator said.

The ruling is based on the consent paragraph of Section 1194 to the Vehicle and Traffic law which specifically states that any operator in N.Y. State is deemed to have given his consent to a chemical test of his breath, blood, urine, or saliva for the purpose of determining the alcohol or drug content of his blood, provided the test is administered at the direction of a police officer.

The Nassau law maker who has authored a number of statutes directed against the drinking driver, including the new law that lowers the standard for intoxication to .12 percent by weight of alcohol in the blood stream, went on to say that Judge Gellinoff's ruling "challenges and impairs the whole consent concept. It is a decision that can result in more slaughter on our highways and undermine our entire state program to remove the drinking driver from our highways."

Senator Caemmerer then cited the gory statistics: Nearly 60,000 American motorists killed annually, and another 4 1/2 million maimed and injured. "We know that one-half or more of all traffic fatalities and injuries are directly related to the drinking driver. This is a time for strong action against drunk driving, not sympathy. My deep concern following Judge Gellinoff's unprecedented decision is for the unknown thousands who will be killed or maimed if it stands."
