School Dist. 17 Board Meets

By Barbara Rosman

Flashbulbs popped as several members of the local press photographed the presentation of a New York State Flag to the Hicksville Board of Education by Assemblyman Martin Ginsberg at the school board meeting held on Tuesday, November 9. The board has requested such a flag from Albany, since school boards are a state function. Assemblyman Ginsberg stated that this particular flag flew at Albany and that he was pleased that a school board should make this kind of request.

Mr. Zindulka was absent from the meeting and both Mr. Bello and Dr. Kershen arrived late. During the public portion of the meeting Mr. John Petrelli, representing the HCTA, questioned the code of ethics to be presented by the board later in the agenda. He particularly took exception to the lack of 48 hours notice of resolutions which, according to the contract, the board must give HCTA. Mr. Bello apologized that this had been an oversight.

The district clerk has asked for permission to dispose of obsolete records which are more than six years old. On the motion Mr. Pappas and Mr. Clark abstained for lack of detailed information and the motion failed. After a short executive session Mr. Clark moved to dispose of these records with the exception of budget and finance materials which he would like to review. The motion carried.

The board then approved new curriculum in elementary English, Math, Reading and Science. On policy matters, Mr. Petrelli withdrew his previous objection and the board passed on the code of ethics.

Mr. Muratore asked Dr. Niosi to give information regarding Auxiliary Security. Dr. Niosi noted that vandalism in Hicksville amounts to about $100,000 a year from various causes and that professional security would cost the district $184,000. Auxiliary Police, who are uniformed, trained and certificated, would patrol the schools (from 7:00 p.m. to 11:30 p.m. and sometimes until 2:00 a.m.) at a cost of $2500 a year. It was brought to public attention this force had patrolled the schools on Halloween and Election Eve. Dr. Kershen questioned the district's liability in a 3rd-party suit if any of these Auxiliary Police should cause physical harm to any alleged vandal. Dr. Kershen asked that administration do some further research into other districts using these police and to question the district's insurance carrier as to liability and possibility of coverage against 3rd-party suits. He then moved to table the question until this research was complete. This motion carried.

The meeting was then open to the public again. At this time the board was asked how many men would be patrolling the 10 schools, for how many nights during the year and what weapons they would carry. At this time the probability is four men in two cars (possibly more in the future) and the men will carry nightsticks, handcuffs and radios. Mr. Muratore interjected that he would be happy to lend them his gun.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:00 p.m. and re-convened almost immediately due to new information acquired by Dr. Niosi in regard to the Auxiliary Police. A telephone call to the Chief of this force revealed that the Auxiliary Police are covered through National Civil Defense. Dr. Kershen suggested this does not solve the problem of 3rd-party suits. Mr. Muratore asked for a motion to allow these men to patrol the schools this Saturday, since, he stated, the board had given approval for the two previous nights of voluntary patrol. Dr. Niosi corrected Mr. Muratore saying that the board did not give approval. It was finally brought out that the approval had been "informal" rather than officially done at public board meeting. Mr. Clark moved to authorize use of this auxiliary patrol for the following two weeks, pending final board approval, and after a study session regarding liability. This motion failed to carry and the meeting was adjourned for a second time.

Winterizing Your Car Is Winterizing Yourself

The Automobile Club of New York suggests a complete pre-winter conditioning for your auto — to protect both of you when chill winds blow and temperatures start to plummet.

Here is the Auto Club's checklist of major winterizing items:

- Check your car owner's manual for suggestions on changing oil and oil filter.
- Test battery and adjust voltage regulator and generator. Check battery cables for cracks and corrosion. Apply water-proofing solution to all exposed ignition wires.
- Drain and flush radiator and refill with antifreeze, unless an all-year coolant is used. Check the hoses, connections and fan belt.
- Examine the exhaust system and muffler for possible carbon monoxide leaks that could seep into the car.
- Tune engine. Check the spark plugs, ignition timing, distributor points, carburetor and air filter.

- Check automatic choke, a frequent cause of "can't start."
- Test and adjust brakes, including the emergency. Check brake fluid level.
- Get snow tires on before likelihood of first snow. Have them examined for cuts and breaks. If you use chains, be sure they are serviceable.
- Check and adjust the wheel alignment and balancing, steering apparatus and transmission. Tighten body. Check shock absorbers and springs.
- Check heater, defroster, windshield wipers and lights, including tail and brake lights.

It is astonishing that in a field so busily surveyed, researched, analyzed and criticized, in short, so RELEVANT as is that of Education, that there has been no one authoritative comprehensive reference source providing encyclopedic coverage.

This lack has now been remedied with the publication of the new 10-volume ENCYCLOPEDIA OF EDUCATION, published by Crowell Collier and Macmillan, copyright 1971.

In more than 1,000 articles, supplemented by current bibliographical references, this encyclopedia deals with the "history, theory, research, and philosophy, as well as with the structure and fabric of education."

It provides a basic reference from which the professional, the student, or the layman can start his search for information and enlightenment on any aspect of Education.

A set of the ENCYCLOPEDIA OF EDUCATION is available for use in the Reference Department of the Hicksville Public Library.

Roncallo Becomes Epilepsy Board Member

Nassau County Comptroller Angelo Roncallo has been elected as an Associate Director of the Board of Directors of the Nassau County Chapter of the Epilepsy Foundation of America. The announcement was made by Samuel M. Levine of Elmont, Board President. In his appointment of Roncallo he stated: "We are elated over Angelo Roncallo becoming a Board Member in one of the foremost and important chapters of our organization in the country. We are sure that he will share his commitment, dedication, enthusiasm, and abilities to help us, as he has given of himself for so many other public organizations, so successfully, in the past."

Roncallo remarked: "I am delighted and pleased to become affiliated with the work of this organization that aids some 30,000 patients in Nassau County alone, and affects approximately 100,000 families. On a national level, there are three million patients, affecting ten million family members. I'm certain that my efforts in this area will prove worthwhile."

Other groups and fraternal organizations that the 43 year old Long Island public official belongs to include: the American Committee on Italian Migration (National Board Member), the American Red Cross, Catholic Charities (Board of Directors), and the Nassau County Heart Fund Advisory Committee.

FOR THE THIRD TIME, Hicksville High School had Nassau County Police Officers in the building for a full week. They were not there to enforce the law, but to explain the law, and give information to the students about those things which most concern our youth. All the history classes were visited and informal group discussions were encouraged. The officers are members of the Nassau County Police Department Speaker's Bureau trained to answer the questions most frequently asked by young people. From the amount of student participation it is felt that the program was met with enthusiasm. Mr. Nicholas Muratore, 12th grade history teacher here introduces the visitor to his 4th period class.

LI. Water Conference's Annual Legislative Dinner

Legislators from the bi-county area of Nassau and Suffolk will attend the Annual Legislative Dinner of the Long Island Water Conference to be held Monday, November 22 at the Westbury Manor, Westbury. A cocktail reception starting at 7 p.m. will precede the dinner.

According to the announcement by Richard Lauman, Water Conference chairman, invitations have been extended to New York's two United States Senators, Jacob Javits and James Buckley, as well as to the Congressional delegation representing the bi-county area of Nassau and Suffolk and the entire legislative delegation of the two counties.

Chairman Lauman said that one of the principal aims of the Legislative Dinner is to maintain closer liaison and communication with the area's Congressional and Legislative delegations, especially at this time when the maintenance of a "pure and plentiful water supply" is so critical.

"As we are the experts in the field of water supply, we have some important legislative proposals of vital concern to the people and communities we service which we expect to discuss with the legislators and congressmen," Chairman Lauman said.

"Each year our Legislative Dinner has attracted most of our legislators and Congressmen, and we have all profited immensely from the exchange of views."

The Annual Legislative Dinner of the Long Island Water Conference has grown steadily in importance since its inception. This year's affair is expected to be the most successful, according to Michael Zihal, legislative committee chairman and chairman of the dinner committee.

The Long Island Water Conference is comprised of representatives from 50 public water suppliers in Nassau and Suffolk Counties who pump 90 billion gallons of water annually to a population of over two million. Among its members are water commissioners, superintendents, managers, operators, engineers and attorneys from the water supply organizations on Long Island, along with representatives of the Health Departments of Nassau and Suffolk, State Water Resources Commission, and others associated with the water industry.

County Budget Unveiled SALES TAX INCREASE WILL SAVE PROPERTY OWNERS IN '72

By Janet Gosnell

The good news that county property taxes at least will go down - not much but still down - was the important word to come out of a special press conference called by County Executive Ralph G. Caso on Monday to unveil the new $426 million, six pound budget for 1972.

The drop of about 19 cents per $100, of assessed valuation on the general fund tax rate comes despite an increase of $65 million in the budget, and because of the addition of one cent to the retail sales tax, effective March 1st. Without this increase, and depending on the property tax set-up of this year, county property tax rates for residents would go up about $1.04 per $100., the county executive said.

In unincorporated areas, the decrease of 19 cents is offset by an increase of about 16 cents on the police district budget, and 3 mills on the supreme court budget, bringing the net decrease for about 72 per cent of the county to around 3 cents.

"Nassau County property owners are reaching a saturation point as to what they can afford to pay in property tax," County Executive Ralph G. Caso said. "We prefer the broader based sales tax as a means of raising revenues because it is more equitable, and also as a strategic move."

The stratagem concerns the fiscal uncertainty in Albany after the defeat of the transportation bond issue. The added penny will bring the sales tax in Nassau County to its legal limit (seven per cent); the state, therefore, would not be allowed to levy any further sales tax here to solve its financial difficulties.

The present county sales tax of

THE UNVEILING: Nassau County's $426 million budget for 1972, reflecting a decrease in property taxes and an increase in the sales tax, was discussed with newsmen on Monday in Mineola. From left above are: Deputy County Executive Harold Collins; County Executive Ralph G. Caso; Fiscal Administrator Thomas De Vivo and Richard Camp, Budget Officer.

2 cents on the dollar brings in $68 million annually, said Thomas De Vivo county fiscal administrator. Combining this figure with a $7 million growth expectancy, $2 million restaurant tax, and $34.2 million expected to be raised in 10 months by the added penny sales tax, total sales tax revenues will amount to $111 in 1972. Added to this is $3 million revenue from the transfer tax (.5 per cent on sales of $25,000. or more). Other revenues come from state and federal aid, licenses and other sources.

While Mr. Caso described the budget of an austerity type, in view of the fact that $53 million budgetary requests from County departments was turned down, he said there is still room for growth and expansion in the county within the framework of this budget.

About 62 per cent of the budget is in costs mandated by state or federal regulations, further restricting the county budget-makers.

Uncertain part of the budget package was the amount for civil service employees salaries, pending settlement of the CSEA contract. County Executive Caso would not reveal the figure projected on the basis that it might jeopardize negotiations.

Percentage of expenditures in the budget are: Health Conservation and Promotion, 27 per cent; social benefit, 23.6 per cent; fixed expenses, 24 per cent; public protection, 13.3 per cent; general support, 4.1 per cent; recreational and cultural, 3 per cent; legal, fiscal management, 2.5 per cent, education 5 per cent.

The amount spent for welfare will increase, Mr. De Vivo said, reflecting a 14 1/2 per cent increase in caseload for next year.

County Receives Additional Funds

Nassau County Executive Ralph G. Caso announced that the county has received an additional $1,089,630 allocation under the federally enacted Emergency Employment program.

The funds will be used to create 153 public jobs in school and library districts throughout the county. In September of this year, the county received a grant of $3,596,800 to be used to establish 436 jobs in county, town and city governments. Persons hired under the new grant must come from those communities with the most severe unemployment problem.

Nassau County was declared eligible for the additional funds because it was chosen as a special impact area. To qualify for this designation an area must have an unemployment rate over 6 percent for three months or more.

The positions to be created will include: teachers, teacher's aides, security guards, clerks, administrative assistants and custodians. Of the 153 jobs, 27 will be professional. "I expect this federal program to be a success in Nassau County because of the ability shown by our own Office of Manpower Development in gearing up to administer it," Caso said.

Around Our Towns

By Linda Noeth Scotti 796-1286

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Maiorino of 3 Moeller St., HICKSVILLE, is a very busy one during the month of November. They celebrated their 13th anniversary on Nov. 9 with a small dinner party. Red Cross Volunteers

Volunteers who can read to, play with, give a little Tender Loving Care to the children at the Family Court Nursery are urgently needed, according to Mrs. James Estabrook, Chairman of Volunteers for the Nassau Chapter. "All the women who serve at the nursery find it a most rewarding experience," she said. "These little ones, whose parents have business with the Family Court are often just the ones who need the little extra love and attention a warmhearted volunteer can give. The nursery is open from 9 till 1 o'clock, five days a week and if you can give a morning - once a week, twice a month - or however it fits into your schedule, we'd be happy to see you."

The children, who are referred to the Nursery by the Intake Department of the Family Court, are infants to six years of age. The Nursery was set up by the Red Cross at the request of judges who found it difficult to carry out their business with the parents when infants and children had to be in the same room. Any woman, with a loving heart and a few hours to spare is asked to call the Red Cross Office of Volunteers, PL 7-3500 for an interview.

Hicksville H.S. Music Students To Perform

Nine Hicksville High School Orchestra members have been accepted to membership in the festival

Supervisor
JOHN W. BURKE.....REPORTS

It's time for a recap—a look back at what we set out to do, as assessment of what has been accomplished to date, and a re-evaluate of our goals and programs to guide us in the months to come.

Our major concern has been and will continue to be the preservation of the suburban character of Oyster Bay Town. This encompasses a broad scope of responsibilities that touches on all facets with which your Town government is involved, ranging from balanced land development to a concerted attack on the drug abuse problem.

Our planning Advisory Board, working with the Town's professional planning consultant, is well into the final phases of the Master Plan to guide the future of our Town.

Earlier this year we were forced to go on an austerity budget when some $1.1 million was cut from expected state aid. Through the concerted efforts of the Town budget director and department heads, a budget was formulated that holds the line on taxes while continuing to provide all essential services for Town residents.

This past year we saw the dedication of the first two senior citizen housing projects in the Town, and similar projects are under construction in four other communities that have a demonstrated need for such housing. In looking to the future, the Town is seeking Federal funding for a substantial number of additional units to be located where the needs of our senior citizens are most acute.

Concern for the preservation of our environment has resulted in the creation of an Environmental Control Division headed by a recognized authority in the field string orchestra sponsored by the Long Island String Teachers Association. On NOVEMBER 21, 1971 Lorraine Heuer, Peter Matzka, Nancy Sarstedt, Elliot Jacobson, Christopher Hogan, Lorrie Gumanow, Myra Greenstein, Hilda Chow, and Nancy Jackson will represent Hicksville High School in a select group of Nassau County string students.

The Long Island String Festival Orchestra will be under the direction of the violinist, teacher and conductor, Renato Bonacini. Mr. Bonacini is concertmaster of Hartford Symphony Orchestra at the Hart School of Music in Hartford Conn. The performance will be at Massapequa High School.

Photographs By Rachel Hicks On Display At Hicksville Library

Evocative scenes of the past, the photographs taken by Rachel Hicks in the late years of the 19th century, will be on display at the Hicksville Library during the month of November. Fifteen photographs of Long Island subjects constitute the display, which County Executive Ralph G. Caso has made available to the Nassau Library System. The exhibit was prepared by The Nassau County Museum under Director Edward J. Smits.

Titled "Rachel Hicks: Photographic Compositions of Long Island in the 1880's and 1890's," the show depicts the Long Island of the period. The pictures are noteworthy both for composition and content. The subjects, which are grouped as "structures," "settings," and "activities," include the following: the Hicks - Seaman Homestead in Westbury, called "The Old Place", probably built in 1695; a barn on the former John D. Hicks property, now part of Old Westbury Gardens; and workers loading hay in Old Westbury.

Rachel Hicks, was a member of the family long associated with local history. Her life, from 1857 to 1941, encompassed the unique experiences of her time. Before the Civil War, her home was a station on the Underground Railway by which slaves escaped to the North. Later she became interested in modern causes, including woman suffrage; she was instrumental in bringing

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, President of the National Woman's Suffrage Association, to her area. She was a photographer of stature, and also devoted to painting, music and gardening.

Her original glass plates for the photographs on display were donated to the Nassau County Museum Library Historical Archives by Mrs. Frederick J. Seaman.

The Nassau Library System, the cooperative Service Center for the 53 public libraries of the County, is circulating this show to the libraries requesting it. For information on the showing in Hicksville, contact the Library.

"Common Cause" Founder To Speak on L.I.

John W. Gardner, ex-Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare during the Johnson administration, and founder and chairman of Common Cause, the "citizen's lobby" which is just over a year old, is making his first public appearance in the New York metropolitan area on Friday evening, November 12, in the gymnasium of Hofstra University, Hempstead Turnpike, Hempstead. The evening meeting, set for 8 p.m., is for Long Island friends of Common Cause, according to the group's New York headquarters.

Conceived by Gardner last year as an outgrowth of the Urban Coalition Action Council, Common Cause is non-partisan in political affiliation. It prefers to be called "a third force." Gardner, a liberal Republican, launched the citizens' organization with a mailing sent to a selected list in September, 1970, asking the recipients to join him in "forming a new, independent, nonpartisan organization to help in rebuilding this nation...not a third party but a third force in American life, deriving strength from a common desire to solve the nation's problems and revitalize its institutions of government." A month after its first birthday, Common Cause has 230,000 members, more than double its first year's goal.

The group has been credited with being largely instrumental in the passage of the Constitutional Amendment giving the vote to 18 to 21 year old youth, has lobbied for change in the seniority system which predetermines the chairmen of Congressional committees, for reform of political campaign financing, and for a pullout of American troops from Indochina, as specified in the Mansfield Amendment.

John Conway, recent past president of the Center for Community Change, a non-profit organization, joined Gardner as president of Common Cause last March. In his earlier career Conway was chief assistant to the late Walter Reuther, having begun as an auto worker.

Common Cause has fifteen areas of interest to which it is committed, including, besides "revitalization of government," a change in foreign policy, specifically in regard to Vietnam, equal job opportunity, conservation and enhancement of the environment, decent housing, better education, justice reform, urban transportation and planning, family planning, and others.

The group is funded primarily through memberships, with annual dues of $15.

Current Long Island memberships in Common Cause are estimated at 7,000 families.

Seating for the meeting, for which there is no admission charge, will be on a first-come basis.

Sixth Annual Benefit Concert

For the sixth consecutive year, the American Bible Society will bring to Philharmonic Hall an historic and inspirational musical work. The Sixth Annual Benefit Concert, scheduled for Wednesday evening, November 10, will feature still another "first" in the Society's growing roster of innovations. The past five years, concerts have seen New York and American debuts of musicians and their music.

This year is no exception. For the first time on the American stage, the Benjamin Britten edition of Bach's "St. John Passion" will be performed. Translated by Peter Pears and Imogen Holst, this work is the most notable and distinguished interpretation to appear in modern times. On the podium, making his New York debut, Maestro Meredith Davies will conduct members of the New York Philharmonic and the Westminster Choir. Soloists under his baton will include Ernst Haefliger as The Evangelist; Richard Best as The Christus; Helen Boatwright, soprano; Helen Watts, contralto; Charles Bressler, tenor, and Thomas Paul, bass.

Ticket information for the Sixth Annual Benefit Concert is available from The American Bible Society Concert Office, 1885 Broadway, New York, 10023.

L.I. Orchestra's First Concert

The Long Island Youth Orchestra announces the first concert of its 1971-72 season. The concert, which will be held on Sunday evening, December 5th at Mineola High School, will feature as soloist the world renowned soprano, Miss Eleanor Steber will be soloist in the evocative song cycle "Les Nuits D'Ete" by Berlioz, as well as in famous arias from Puccini operas. The balance of the program will consist of the "Overture to a Classical Tragedy" by Professor Albert Tepper of the Music Department of Hofstra University, the Schubert Symphony No. VII in C major (the "Great"), and the Sibelius Symphonic Fantasy "Pohjola's Daughter."

Subscriptions to the series of four concerts are available at $8.00 for adults and $3.00 for students.

For information please call 883-2242.

Members of the orchestra from Hicksville are: Richard Holly, Percussion and Jeffrey Schlegel, French Horn, Leader of Brass Section.

Living Bible Translator Wins Laymen's Award

The annual award of the Laymen's National Bible Committee will be presented this year to Dr. Kenneth N. Taylor of Wheaton, Illinois for his efforts in paraphrasing the entire Bible. He honors will be bestowed upon theologian Taylor during a luncheon November 19 in New York City.

The meeting serves to launch National Bible Week (November 21-28) which is sponsored annually by the Laymen's National Bible Committee.

According to former Supreme Court Justice Arthur J. Goldberg, National Chairman of the organization, a certificate will also be given to Pearl S. Buck for her recent book, "The Story Bible."

It took 16 years of research and writing for Dr. Taylor to complete "The Living Bible" which was published September 1 of this year. Already "The Living Bible" is in its fourth printing with 1,200,000 copies in circulation. In several major cities "The Living Bible" is now on the top ten best seller list, ranking as high as third place on some.

"The Living Bible" is called a "paraphrase" by Dr. Taylor. He explains that "a paraphrase is a thought-for-thought translation while a literal translation is done word-for-word." The 54-year-old Taylor paraphrased the Bible to make it more easily read and comprehend as he feels literal translations are excellent but difficult to understand and do not easily communicate the word of God.

The theme of National Bible Week this year is "One World-One Book," thus it is appropriate that Dr. Taylor and his work, "The Living Bible," be selected and recognized. According to Goldberg, the "One Book" refers to the Bible and Dr. Taylor's labor now makes the "One Book" more easily understood, thereby being more meaningful for all people. In addition, to encompass the "World" aspect of this year's slogan, "The Living Bible" is now in the process of being translated into 43 foreign languages utilizing Dr. Taylor's paraphrasing techniques.

Co-publisher of "The Living Bible" is Doubleday & Company along with Dr. Taylor's firm, Tyndale House Publishers of Wheaton, Illinois.

Tobay To Request Federal Funds To Study Waste Recycling

Town Supervisor John W. Burke announced the adoption of a Town Board resolution to seek a federal grant to support a study of the economic feasibility of broad-based municipal recycling and to construct a pilot plant for a new system of processing and recycling solid waste.

The system, known as the Nitrocell Process, is a development of Environmental, Inc., a division of Instrument Systems Corporation of Jericho, N.Y. The process reduces cellulose-based materials into a series of marketable and products, such as paper pulp and rayon, plus the extraction and recovery of other valuable chemicals for industrial use.

"We hope to be able to demonstrate the economic feasibility of this process in our continuing battle against the solid waste problem," Burke said. "It has the singular appeal of not only providing a non-polluting means of solid waste disposal, but also a return on investment in the equipment can be realized through the sale of the recycled end products."

The application is based on the Resource Recovery Act whereby the Federal Government would assume 100 percent of the cost of the pilot plant. The recycling study portion of the grant would be funded on a 2/3 - 1/3 basis, with the Town's 1/3 share being contributed by in-kind services in the form of the project director's salary.

"In this fashion," Burke pointed out, "the Town can obtain, with no expenditure of public money, the construction and development of a new pilot system for recycling solid waste and practical guidance on the sale of recyclable materials."

HICKSVILLE AMERICAN LITTLE LEAGUE INC.

Message From The President

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of you for helping to make our dinner awards night a big success. I would like to give a brief background of our invited guests, who, we feel have made it possible for little league and other youth projects in our community to operate successfully.

We were honored with the presence of Supervisor John Burke and councilman Warren Doolittle. Both have done much to improve the recreational facilities of Hicksville. I feel we are very fortunate in having two community leaders such as Mr. Burke and Mr. Doolittle in Hicksville. From my own experience as president of our league, I feel I can call on John Burke and Warren Doolittle at any time. I was very impressed at the sincere effort that both have taken to help solve the youth recreation problems in our community. As you know, both were re-elected to office and I wish to congratulate them for the fine work they have done here in the town of Oyster Bay.

Mrs. Rosemary Walsh, Coordinator of Public Relations for the Hicksville School District, is responsible for the distribution of the school baseball fields. Rosemary has the job of satisfying all of our demands and complaints, but still manages to maintain her wonderful disposition. I even went to Mrs. Walsh for advice on how to organize the format for our awards night. Thanks again Rosemary.

Also present was Peter Collins, Director of the St. Ignatius C.Y.O. I could write a book about Pete. If it meant moving a mountain to help one of our children, Pete would move that mountain. I believe that Peter Collins main interest in life is the concern of all of the children of Hicksville, regardless of what organization the child belongs to. Incidentally, Pete is currently organizing a basketball tournament, which will be held Christmas week. He has invited all of the various Church and Synagogues to participate. Keep up the good work Pete, the community needs you.

We wish to thank Mrs. Sheila Noeth, publisher and editor of the Mid Island Herald for attending. Mrs. Noeth who is very active in community affairs, had to attend two other functions, but still found time to attend our dinner. Mrs. Noeth gave us the opportunity to publish the highlights and standings of our 1971 season.

Unfortunately many of our sponsors were unable to attend. We in the Little League feel our sponsors are an important part of our organization, and an asset to our community. We would like to mention those who were present. Representing the VFW was Commander Ed. Chalwiz and Mr. Mike Montleone; Hicksville Firestone was represented by Mr. Cliff Freitag; Malvese by Jim Orr (also one of our team managers); Mid Island Plaza by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shadel and Mr. Steve Fineluck represented Geta.

Our special guest was Met first baseman Ed. Kranepool. Ed signed autographs, presented the awards, and held a question and answer session after dinner.

I am happy to announce that Charles Rollins, who was in charge of our sports writing department this year will be

Director of Publicity and Public Relations in 1972.

As most of you know, we are forming a Senior League next year. Any boy between the ages of 13 and 15 will be eligible to play senior league ball. Please contact me at G-2-9329 or fill out application.

Sincerely,
Bob Willis
President

Quarterback Jeff Doolittle made a singular effort to get a victory for Hofstra College over Kings Point but he was rebuffed, 17-7.

He presented valid credentials in the game however with 29 completions in 51 passes attempted for 274 yards. The Flying Dutchmen just found many ways in how not to get the Ball over the goal line.

The heavily dominant Hicksville involvement with Post College's 1971 grid success was evident again Saturday.

In support of quarterback Gary

Richard, the highly publicized quarterback, were ex Orange and Black stars Tom Cora, Ron Carmen and Brian McAuley.

What was supposed to be a tight battle at Ithaca, New York the Post legions rampaged for a 62-0 victory.

Cara was on the end of 40 yard and 22 yard passes from Wichard while Carmen ran the ball for 42-yard a 4-yard scores.

After the heralded Wichard retired Hicksvilles Brian McAuley pitched 9 and 22 yard scoring aeriels. McAuley apparently is being groomed to carry the 1972 football hopes of Post College.

That is if the liberal wing can be beaten back and the school continues to play the game.

McAuley is the place kicker for extra points most of the away games with freshman, on the non-traveling team, doing the hoating at home.

Wide Receiver, Hicksville's Little All American, scored twice as the Long Chiefs routed the Connecticut Vikings Saturday night at Freeport Stadium.

That made his 1971 Eastern Football Professional League total 20 touchdowns.

The New York Giants are still looking at Bruce but have not made an offer sufficient to lure him from the Chiefs. Paid and the overflow benefits incurring for his Hicksville Floor Covering Business. The publicity he is getting has helped his developing business greatly.

The Second Annual Catholic High School invitational Ice Hockey Tournament will take place December 7 and 14 at Town of Hempstead Rink, Newbridge Road, Bellmore. The four clubs involved include Chamaine, St. Dominica, Holy Family and Holy Trinity. Admission is one dollar. Tickets may be secured by calling George Karmon on WE 1-4837 or SU 5-5663.

As fifth place finisher in North Section one Hicksville has drawn Plainview Kennedy as its opening round play-off opponent.

The game will be played at Plainview Kennedy, Saturday at 1:30 p.m.

Plainview finished fifth in Division Two. The winners of this game will play the victorious winner of the Fifth place game between representatives of Section Three and Four.

All this will tell us who is the best Fifth place team on the North Shore.

Paragon Awards

Hicksville Sr. H. S. has named Richard Wayne of 164 Fifth Ave., Hicksville, as its top student.

Dr. Charles W. Laffin, Jr., president of the State University at Farmingdale, who is chairman of the Paragon Oil Student Incentive Awards Committee, reported that 119 high schools in Nassau and Suffolk Counties, named 60 girls and 59 boys to receive the 1971 awards for top scholarship achievements during their first three years in high school.

Plainview-Old Bethpage H. S. has named Judy French of 95 Knickerbocker Road N., Plainview as its top student; and John F. Kennedy HS has named Howard Telson of 97 Round Tree Drive, Plainview, as its top student.

Dr. Charles W. Laffin, Jr., president of the State University at Farmingdale, who is chairman of the Paragon Oil Student Incentive Awards Committee, reported that 119 high schools in Nassau and Suffolk Counties, named 60 girls and 59 boys to receive the 1971 awards for top scholarship achievements during their first three years in high school.

Last year, at the 13th Annual Paragon Oil Awards, sponsored by Texaco Inc., 59 girls and 57 boys received Certificates of Honor and U. S. Savings Bonds for their academic accomplishments.

Dr. Laffin pointed out that during the first 12 years of the "Paragon Scholar" awards, boys always outnumbered the girls award winners by about 10 percent. While girls assumed the lead by two in 1970, the boys have narrowed the margin to one in 1971.

This year's awards will be presented at ceremonies in the Roosevelt Theater at the State University in Farmingdale, at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday, Nov. 13th. More than 300 award recipients, their parents, educators, and governmental officials are expected to attend.

Assn. of Women To Meet

Among the topics under discussion will be: A report on the International Federation of University Women Convention which took place in Philadelphia, Pa. in August, 1971.

Speakers: Mrs. Naomi Gutheil-Mid-Island (Levittown) Branch Rep. will speak on Education. Ms. Ellwyn Wallace-Huntington Branch Rep. will speak on Public Health.

All women holding Baccalaureate or higher degrees from approved colleges and universities are invited to attend. Please call 921-3265 or 333-4734 for additional information.

Plainview-Old Bethpage High School SPORTS REPORT

SPORTS by Steve Sadetsky - The GULLS are headed for the playoffs. After losing to Kennedy 14-12 on Saturday, November 6th, the Plainview football team finished with a first place 5 and 1 record. Plainview Gulls take on Farmingdale on Saturday, November 13th. The Dalers are rated number one in the county by Newsday and boast a 6-0 record. The J. V. team lost a heartbreaker to Kennedy 12-6 on Monday, November 8th. The highlight of the game was a minus 30 yard punt by Rick Owen of Plainview - Old Bethpage.

At the Plainview - Old Bethpage and Kennedy game on November 6th during halftime the parade of the Musical Corps and the football queen and her court was sponsored by the Band, Senior Class, and Football team. Ginny Gervasi had been elected Football Queen, along with her court consisting of Barbara Fichtelman, Jan Komminos, Kathy Kirschner, Lisa Peikon, Candi Topper, and Jeanne Valentine.

The girls Field Hockey Team played in a Sportsday on Saturday, October 30th in which seven schools participated.

Plainview won from Sewanhaka, tied St. Mary's and lost to Cold Spring Harbor. On November 8th and 9th Plainview-Old Bethpage played Kennedy and won both games. This season was a great beginning for the girls Field Hockey Team considering this is the first year that they ever played hockey. The team's outstanding scorer was captain Joanne Shirelli while Debbie Carney and Betty Jean Gessner also scored goals. Goalie Michele Lalancette played a big part in helping the defense of the team. Congratulations to all the members of the Field Hockey Team and Special Thanks to the coach, Miss Rose Parisekian.

Alan Bender, Student Association president of the Plainview-Old Bethpage High School, was guest speaker at the Wednesday luncheon meeting of the Plainview-Old Bethpage Rotary Club held on November 3, 1971 at the Andirons Restaurant in the Morton Village Shopping Center, Plainview. President Roy Fuchs chaired the luncheon meeting.

Alan, in his presentation, projected the concern and involvement of today's young people with the problems of the nation and the world. He emphasized that youth did not have the answers, but that they were striving for amicable solutions. He also explained the structure of Student Government at Plainview-Old Bethpage High School with tremendous pride. Further, in rebuttal to a statement by a Rotarian, he emphasized that, as far as he was concerned, the so-called "generation gap" existed, but that "Youth" (Young People) was trying to close it by means of communication - really listening to what the other person had to say.

A number of students enrolled in French, German and Russian had the opportunity to visit the countries whose language they are studying.

Mrs. Wallock took 15 students to Paris during the last Easter vacation. In addition to seeing the well known monuments and sights of the "City of Lights", such as Notre Dame, Sacre Coeur and the Louvre, the students made an all day excursion and picnic to Versailles and to the medieval town and Cathedral of Chartres.

During their stay in Paris, Mrs. Wallock and her group attended a traditional Seder during the Passover holidays, where they met many French youngsters. The interaction with their peers and the enthusiasm of the new acquaintance made this trip "a dream come true" for all concerned.

While Mrs. Wallock's group enjoyed a deluxe vacation off the Place de l'Etoile, Mrs. Lustgarten and her students visited Munich, Vienna and Salzburg on a shoestring budget. Sightseeing in and around Munich was done by streetcar. Then followed a ten hour train trip to Vienna where they spent a week. During their stay in the "City of Dreams" they visited the castle of Schonbrunn, heard "Tosca" at the State Opera, saw the famous Spanish Riding School and got lost in the Vienna woods, when Mrs. Lustgarten decided to take a short cut.

Many side trips were taken to the surrounding countryside, the highlights of which was a chairlift to the snowcovered mountains at the foothills of the Alps.

From Vienna, they went to the ancient city of Salzburg, visited the Altstadt and the medieval castle of Hohensalzburg and spent an evening at the famous Marionetten Theater. Sidetrips were taken to nearby Berchtesgaden and Konigssee.

The weary travelers went back to Munich where they boarded a plane for their flight home.

Via Rome, Paris and London, Mrs. LeMay and her Russian Students arrived finally at Leningrad, formerly St. Petersburg. Strolls along the famous Nevsky Prospect and the avenues lined with palaces, museums and churches afforded the group an impression of Imperial Russia. The famous Hermitage Museum and Art Gallery introduced them to famous paintings and other masterpieces.

The students spent 28 days in Leningrad where they took courses at the University of Leningrad. Students and Teacher stayed at the October Hotel where they met with young people from other countries. Unfortunately they did not encounter any Russian students and could only speak with the people on the street. A "Cultural Evening" culminated their stay in Leningrad. While in Russia, they spent 5 days in Moscow and travelled as far East as Tashkent and Samarkand.

These activities afforded our students the opportunity to utilize the acquired foreign language skills and to experience the culture of the foreign countries.

Our students were not the only globe trotters last year. Mrs. Karpink, Mrs. Ros and Mrs. Lustgarten visited Argentina and other Latin American countries. Mrs. Sussman visited France and Switzerland.

Red Cross Volunteers

Volunteers who can read to, play with, give a little Tender Loving Care to the children at the Family Court Nursery are urgently needed, according to Mrs. James Estabrook, Chairman of Volunteers for the Nassau Chapter. "All the women who serve at the nursery find it a most rewarding experience," she said. "These little ones, whose parents have business with the Family Court are often just the ones who need the little extra love and attention a warm-hearted volunteer can give. The nursery is open from 9 till 1 o'clock, five days a week and if you can give a morning-once a week, twice a month-or however it fits into your schedule, we'd be happy to see you."

The children, who are referred to the Nursery by the Intake Department of the Family Court, are infants to six years on age. The Nursery was set up by the Red Cross at the request of judges who found it difficult to carry out their business with the parents when infants and children had to be in the same room. Any woman, with a loving heart and a few hours to spare is asked to call the Red Cross Office of Volunteers, PL7-3500 for an interview.

"Anonymous Analysis" Program

Nassau Police Commissioner Louis J. Frank reminded county residents to continue to utilize the Department's "Anonymous Analysis" program.

"Last year our police laboratory analyzed 603 substances which were left at Nassau Police Precinct station houses or Police Headquarters by persons who, without revealing their identity, had these substances analyzed, and 284 of these substances turned out to be dangerous drugs," Frank said. "We know Anonymous Analysis has helped many people by eliminating the guess work and determining whether a substance is a dangerous drug. If you should ever have a need for this service, don't hesitate to use it; you won't have to answer any questions and you don't have to identify yourself," he added.

If a parent finds a substance in the home or elsewhere and suspects it to be a narcotic or drug, he can have it analyzed by placing it in an envelope or suitable container addressed to the narcotics bureau and leaving the envelope or container at any one of the county's eight station houses or Police Headquarters. The envelope or container

Temple Or-Elohim Initiates New Educational Concept

by Iris Press

Since Sesame Street innovated the education of the very young for the three to seven population, parents and educators have realized the fantastic learning potential of the young child. More and more are we beginning to realize how much a young child can absorb in an interesting and exciting way. Practically every child now attends nursery school before the age of six, and yet at this highly motivated and extremely retentive age we neglect the entire field of religious education. Because of this the school board of Temple Or-Elohim has decided to initiate an experimental program in their religious school for children in kindergarten, first and second grades. This board feels that education started young is an enrichment in the growth of the child and his potential as a fulfilled individual.

This exciting new instructional theory is being offered to all the children of the congregants of Temple Or-Elohim and to all other children who are anxious to participate in a meaningful expression of their Jewish heritage. You do not even have to be affiliated with a Temple to be interested in your child's Hebrew education. These classes will be given every Sunday morning at 11:15 and will last for two hours.

Any parent who wishes to have his young child exposed to the joys of the Jewish holidays, Hebrew as a spoken and living language, Yiddish and Hebrew music, and Israeli dances are cordially invited to attend an educational roundtable on Thursday November 18, at 8:30 P.M., at Temple Or-Elohim, 18 Tobie Lane in Jericho. There will be coffee, tea, cake and information for all. If you are unable to attend this discussion, please feel free to call GE-39587 for any further information.

Bicycle Riding Boom

Statistics prove that our nation is fast becoming bicycle enthusiasts. The Nassau Long Island District PTA is particularly concerned, that with the increased use of the bicycle by children and adults, will come an increase in the number of accidents and fatalities.

Many children and adults are not aware that when riding a bicycle they must obey all traffic laws which apply to all drivers, whether motorists or bicyclists, and special laws which apply only to bicyclists. Some of their offenses are: riding on the wrong side of the road, not obeying traffic regulations and signals, riding without reflectors and lights at night, not looking before crossing intersections — these are only a few — there are many more.

PTA's have long earmarked bicycle safety one of their priorities. Local PTA's are presently evaluating their present bicycle programs in order to make sure that all youngsters are adhering to the bicycle regulations. The program proving most successful is given by the Nassau County 4-H and the Nassau County Police Accident Prevention Bureau, with the cooperation of the school administration, teachers, and of course PTA — they must work together. There are films, literature to study, lectures, a written test, and finally, a bicycle equipment inspection and road test. According to Mr. Ted. Jenkins, Director of the Nassau County 4-H, "14,000 youngsters of Nassau County have taken this program in September and October compared to 7,000 at the same time last year."

Bicyclists, Pedestrians, Motorists beware — there is more to cycling than keeping your balance!!!!!!

To Speak On Parapsychology

Mrs. Eleanor Touhey Smith, author of "Physic People" and an authority on the occult, will speak on parapsychology at the Undulade Public Library on Thursday, November 18.

Mrs. Smith will discuss ghosts and poltergeists, miraculous healings, precognition, and reincarnation. The lecture will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the library's meeting room. Admission is free.

Announces Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Newborn of Jericho announce the engagement of their daughter Beth Ann to Steven Alan Rosenthal of Hicksville. A summer wedding is planned.

Miss Newborn is in her senior year at Russell Sage College. Her fiancé, a senior at Windham College, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rosenthal.

"Old Hicksville" On Slides

On Wednesday, November 17 at 8 p.m. the Hicksville Public Library will present "Old Hicksville" on slides. This will be the third time that the Library is offering this program. The other two showings were seen by capacity crowds, and this repeat presentation is by public demand from those of you who were unable to attend the other showings and/or for reminiscence of time past.

The slides were made by Gardiner Gregory, of the Audio Visual department of the Hicksville School District, and also the founder of the Gregory Museum. Mr. Gregory, from many sources in the community, obtained the originals and made slides from them. Some of the pictures date as far back as 1900 and all the newcomers to Hicksville can see what Hicksville was like in their parent's time.

The program will be held in the auditorium and everyone is welcome to attend.

A SPECIAL MESSAGE ABOUT MEDICARE

"Many people who could receive payment of some portion of their medical expenses by Medicare lose money because they do not file their claims within the time limit," stated Sydney Savrin, the manager of the Mineola Social Security Office.

Anyone age 65 or over who is enrolled in Part B of Medicare is urged to check all of his medical bills now to be sure he has not overlooked any old ones.

Savrin said that claims for medical expenses incurred between October 1, 1969 and September 30, 1970, must be filed no later than December 31, 1971.

Savrin stated that those claims should be sent in immediately to avoid the usual year-end rush and the resulting long wait for payment. A free booklet explaining how to submit claims to Medicare is available at the nearest Social Security office. Simply call PI 7-5470 and ask for booklet SSI-50.

"Remember," he said, "the time for sending in claims is very important. Don't lose money waiting too long."

Acting For Children

The Plainview-Old Bethpage Public Library introduces children to Show Biz on Saturday, November 20 when it presents "Adventures in Acting" with Shelley Pazer. Mrs. Pazer will bring a trunk full of costumes and some great tips on how to act, and before you know it the audience will be on stage putting on a show. The program for children in Kindergarten through 3rd grade is at 1:15 PM, the program for 4th through 6th graders at 3:00 PM. Free tickets will be available at the library November 13.

You will be issued a social security card with the same number you have now, but with your married name on the card.

Town DPW Reports Abandoned Vehicle Removals in High Gear

Town Supervisor John W. Burke has announced that a recent study compiled by Gerard P. Trotta, Commissioner of the Department of Public Works, indicates the success of procedures recently instituted for the removal of abandoned vehicles from the Town's highways and streets.

Burke said that since the outset of the program more than five hundred (500) abandoned cars, trucks and buses have been removed and disposed of. The Supervisor added that the effectiveness of the program continues despite a recent cut-back in State services which now requires Sanitary Service Division personnel to also remove abandoned vehicles from the Long Island Expressway.

Wantagh-Oyster Bay Expressway and other designated State roads. Even with the added responsibility of environmental control on these roads, the Town forces maintain a twenty-four-hour pick-up.

The Town's new emergency tow truck provides quick service to Town Residents upon reporting abandoned vehicles to Richard Jones, Automotive Maintenance Coordinator, at 921-7347. Once a vehicle is removed by a local salvager for recycling.

The accelerated program provides for the prompt pick-up of abandoned vehicles in dangerous or isolated areas, where they could provide an "attractive nuisance," causing possible injury. A New York

State Traffic and Motor Vehicle law approved and adopted in May of last year states "any person causing a vehicle to be abandoned is in violation of the law and punishable by a fine of up to one hundred dollars."

given by Yehudi and Hephzibah Menuhin at C. W. Post College in Brookville, Long Island, on February 5, 1972 are moving very well and reminds fans and other music lovers that only a limited number are available.

"We know," says Mrs. Gummersall, "that many Long Islanders are anxious to see the Menuhins during this local appearance on their first American tour since 1961. There are only a limited number of seats available for this concert and it would be a shame if those wishing to attend delayed making their reservations now and missed the opportunity to see and hear, in person, two of the finest artists on the concert stage." Tickets are $15 per person or two for $25.
Checks or money orders for them should be made payable to The Salvation Army Benefit Concert and mailed to 111 Wallis Avenue, Mineola, N. Y. 11501. For further information, call (516) P1 7-4902.

Born in New York of Russian parents in 1916, Yehudi has been capturing the hearts of world lovers throughout the world since his debut with the San Francisco Orchestra at the age of seven.
Hephzibah made her debut at a piano recital in San Francisco at the age of eight. Together, the two child prodigies went on to receive international acclaim. In later years, Hephzibah retired from the concert stage to raise a family, but now, with her children grown up, she is able to join her brother, once again, in thrilling audiences everywhere.
As the London Times once declared, with Yehudi at the violin and Hephzibah at the piano "...the degree of unanimity they achieve is beyond the scope of any pair of celebrities."

Festival Dance For Young Dancers

Nassau County Executive Ralph G. Caso announced that The Jeffrey II Ballet Company will highlight "Festival Day for Young Dancers" Nov. 21 at Holy Trinity High School, Hicksville.

The festival, sponsored by the Nassau Office of Cultural Development, is being coordinated by the Nassau County Dance Committee. It will include workshop sessions in both modern and ballet, a special teacher observation class, as well as a warm-up, demonstration and public performance by the Jeffrey II.

Festival workshops will begin at 10:00 a.m. Master class sessions, open to 10 year-olds through college-age students, will include modern dance and ballet. The ballet group will be headed by James Jamieson, co-director of the Academy of the Dance in Delaware.

A special class limited to twenty students (10-14 year-olds) will be taught by Bonnie Bird. Miss Bird has developed numerous projects throughout the United States in music and movement for the young child. She will work with these younger dancers on improvisation. All students and teacher observers must register in advance for workshop sessions. Registration fee is $2.00.

Workshop activities will culminate with a 2:30 p.m. warm-up and demonstration by the Jeffrey II Ballet Company. At 3:00 p.m. the company will give a public performance. "Help Leukemia Society"

"Leukemia is no game" says, Ralph Baker, Linebacker, with the N.Y. Jets Football Club who will help make a touchdown for the Leukemia Society of America (Long Island Chapter) by serving as Chairman of their Coin Board drive.

Too many are being tackled by this dread disease which takes the lives of more children than any other, kills more adults than children, and will go on taking lives until research finds a cure.

Merchants are being elled upon to provide the team-work needed for the "Victory's in Sight" Coin Board drive. About 15,000 Long Island proprietors will display the Leukemia Society of America Coin Board on their counter to help support the Long Island Chapter's Research, Patient-Aid, and Educational programs.

Ralph Baker asks the youth in the Hicksville area to be "good sports" and help him prepare these Coin Boards for mailing to

Youth Consumer Survey

How do you rate yourself as a spender?: A) Tightwad B) Moderate C) Thrifty D) Diamond Jim.

This and other questions are contained in a youth consumer survey being conducted by the Nassau Office of Consumer Affairs, County Executive Ralph G. Caso revealed today.

"Statistics show that Nassau teenagers spend approximately $133 million annually and it is estimated that as much as 40 percent may be mispent," Caso said. "Because of their inexperience and because vendors frequently attempt to take advantage of the young, the need for consumer education is ever more pressing."

The survey is designed to provide information about the spending habits of young people and identify their major consumer problems, according to Consumer Affairs Commissioner James E. Picken. The questionnaire is attached to the latest issue of "Teachers ClipSheet," a newsletter sent out by the Consumer Affairs Office to 300 consumer education teachers in Nassau public and proclial schools.

The survey is part of an overall county program to educate young consumers. Speakers from the Consumer Affairs Office address approximately 500 students each month and the county's Consumermobile has been visited by more than 2,100 students in the last seven months.
