Council to Hear Experts

Hicksville Postmaster Ralph Cascardo, Hicksville Fire Commissioner James Taxter and Water Commissioner Harry Borley, have been invited to speak at the February meeting of the Hicksville Community Council, which is scheduled for Thursday evening, Feb. 3rd, at the Hicksville Library, starting at 8:15. A question and answer period will follow each speaker. As usual, the second portion of the Council program will be devoted to audience announcements and discussions on any Hicksville events, or problems. Town of Oyster Bay Councilman Warren Doolittle is expected to attend.

All Hicksville residents and business men and women are cordially invited to attend.

School Board Proceeds As Usual

By Shirley Smith

A well-mannered, orderly group of Hicksville residents, teachers and students filled the High School cafeteria Tuesday night. Although some of the more than 200 in attendance were standing, the room was not stifling nor completely smoke-filled. Perhaps this accounted for the lack of the public's emotional displays, so much a part of the last meeting. But the absence of over-crowding, excessive heat and smoke did not seem to quiet the emotional storms of all the School Board members.

Board president, Thomas Muratore's opening announcements of appointments to committees aroused the first rumblings. Mr. Muratore named Mrs. Mary Carton as his "personal representative to the rank and file PTA," to be present at all PTA meetings. He then named Bill Bruno, former School Board member, to head a budget information committee. His last appointment was that of Dr. Harry Kershen, present Board trustee, to review personnel and staff of the district. Mr. Muratore stipulated that all committee reports should be presented to him by March 15.

Dr. Kershen wanted to know if the other appointees had been contacted about their willingness to serve. This was the first he had heard of his appointment. Mr. Muratore said he had the right as president of the Board to make such decisions. "But not to impose these on others," Dr. Kershen replied, stating he would "reserve his decision" about accepting.

Mr. McCormack reminded the Board president that the law states the Superintendent shall review personnel needs and recommend to the Board, not the reverse.

Other comments came from the public. Omy Maiera asked what the duties of the appointees would be but he was not given any specific information. Mrs. Carton accepted the appointment. Muriel Schwartz, president of Hicksville Council of PTA said Council's by-laws stipulated that a liaison to PTA Council could be appointed, but it must be a Board member. Frank Zinkulka was then named to this position by Mr. Muratore. Mrs. Schwartz added she could not accept Mrs. Carton's appointment as a representative of the Board president.

Mr. Muratore continued with his announcements. He was happy to see so many people at the last meeting, but did not feel their conduct did credit to Hicksville.

Dr. Nicol, Superintendent, added that "the Board does not and has not acted without my recommendation. A simple phone call to the central office would have avoided what happened at the last meeting." He explained that a study of the High School schedule shows an imbalance in the teacher-student ratio—some classes are very small, others at contract maximum. He estimated this is costing the district $167,500, based on $18,750 as the average salary of Hicksville teachers.

The question of teacher replacement at the High School was resolved by replacing the teachers who resigned.

As part of a general review, revision and improvement of the reading program, the Board voted to hire three reading consultants from Hofstra University to conduct a training program for classroom teachers (grades 1-3) and remedial reading teachers. The program will be held in three central locations in Hicksville for ten Mondays, 9 to 10 a.m. On these days, the students in grades K-3 will start school at 10:15—transportation will be arranged accordingly. Eighty teachers and some Title I personnel will be involved. The consultants will receive $125 per hour (they may come from federal funds ($900) and funds budgeted for curriculum revision).

During the discussion of this item, Dr. Cadden, Assistant Superintendent, suggested the Board devote one public meeting to an explanation of the reading program in Hicksville.

The Board passed a resolution allowing the building principal to suspend a student for a period not to exceed five days. This is state law and is being practiced in the district, but the Board wanted it officially authorized.

The Board also approved bills for routine expenses, awarded bids for various supplies and equipment, approved personnel changes and curriculum writers for the Junior High Curriculum revisions, and approved reading and library books and filmstrips new to the district.

Having proceeded through most of its business with few snags, the storm clouds began to reappear with an item near the end of the agenda—"Special Consultant on Community Affairs." Dr. Kershen had tried, at the beginning of the meeting, to remove this item. But his motion failed, as only he and Mr. McCormack voted for it.

Mr. Pappas prefaced the discussion by explaining that he had been appointed Public Relations chairman for the Board last July. He felt, however, that he and the Board had been unable to get information out to the public. The publication of the Bulletin Board had not been successful enough either. "We will continue the Bulletin Board but we need more," he stated. Because of this lack of communication with the people of Hicksville, "we asked Administration to recommend a professional, public relations man." The recommendation—Daniel Frank, to be hired at the rate of $200 per month, for the remaining five months of this school year.

Mr. McCormack objected to the methods used. "We have had no previous interview with this man and know nothing about him. You're selling me things that have happened."

Mr. Muratore said memos had been exchanged between Board members.

Dr. Kershen questioned who was the "we" that asked Administration to recommend a PR man—not the Board as a whole, but the Board president. What was his rationale? He reminded the Board that an outside PR firm may have been hired in the past but at that time there was no public information officer as we now have with Mrs. Levandov.

Dr. Kershen said he would continue to object to actions that don't involve the full School Board. "Why are some Board members privileged to information?" he demanded.

When voting on the recommendation to hire Mr. Frank, Dr.

Office Bldg. Denied Merchants Oppose Grumman Gas Station

At its regular meeting on Tuesday, January 25th, the Town Board of Oyster Bay voted to deny the petition of John W. Merenda for a change of zone from Residence E to Business F for a parcel of land on Old Country Road and Underhill Avenue Hicksville.

There was a small but staunch opposition to the petition at its public hearing at Town Hall on May 11th, 1971, comprised of residents of the immediate area who complained that traffic was difficult and waste material in the area high from nearby restaurants.

Town Councilmen questioned the petitioner's attorney as to the feasibility of the parcel for office building use, since it was not of the size required by town ordinance, nor was there sufficient parking space or definite plans for flow of traffic in and out of the property.

The proposed widening of Route 107 South of Old Country Road by the New York State Department of Transportation figured importantly in opposition to the petition of Grumman Aerospace Corporation for a special permit use to install a gasoline station at the intersection of 107 with South Oyster Bay Road in Bethpage.

It has been known for some time that the state plans to widen the road. Original plans were to take the land from the frontage of several small businesses on the west side of 107. Opposition of merchants prompted a hearing, date not yet known, as to which side of the road would be condemned for highway purposes, the merchants' side on Grumman's.

According to the attorney for the petitioner and experts, the gas station, to be leased to a major oil company who was not named at the hearing, would be well planned, attractive and suited to the area. The total subject parcel of 4 acres is presently zoned industrial, some of it proposed to be developed into the gas station, the remainder in some other form of development which would take place soon.

According to Grumman's attorney, the aerospace corporation is one of the largest land owners on Long Island, and paid $3.7 million last year along in school and town taxes, with government contracts falling off.

it is looking to lease much of its land.

Opposition Speaks
Heading up the opposition to the petition was Stuart Ain, attorney for Inland Discount, directly opposite the subject property. Coupled with the statement that there were at least 10 gas stations on Hicksville Rd. south of Old Country Road was his second point, that unimproved land, such as is now the case with the subject parcel, would be taken for the widening

Restaurant Petition

A petition for a new restaurant on Old Country Road in Plainview will be heard by the Town Board of Oyster Bay at its public meeting next Tuesday, February 1st at Town Hall, Audrey Avenue, Oyster Bay.

According to the petition on file with the Town Clerk, petitioners Herman Kanfer and Sidney LaBelle propose to erect a 102-seat restaurant at the corner of Old Country Road and Garden Gate, with rear frontage on Violet Lane. Dimensions of the property are 50 feet on Old Country Road, 190 feet on Garden Gate, and 50 on Violet Lane.

Public hearings start at 10 a.m. each Tuesday. All interested persons will be invited to address the Board.

Special Training For Two Hicksville Men

Town Councilman Warren M. Doolittle announced this week that two Town employees from Hicksville have been named by the Town Board to participate in the 23rd Annual Building Inspector's School scheduled to be held in New York City next month.

The two men are Bernard Bruns of 3 Gables Drive and John Hill of 5 Waters Avenue.

Mr. Bruns and Mr. Hill are employed in the Town Building and Zoning Department which, among its many duties, issues permits for construction in the Town in accordance with the Town building and zoning codes.

Kennedy Band Sponsors Pop Concert

The John F. Kennedy High School Band is sponsoring a Pop Concert on Saturday, February 5, at 8:00 p.m. The program will feature the JAZZ FOUNDATION OF KENNEDY, the TWIRLERS AND EAGLETTES, as well as two rock bands, BEFORE THE RAIN and BLUES BAND. Tickets can be purchased from performers before that date and also at the door for $1.00. The purpose of the event is to help raise funds for the band trips to the Berklee School of Music's annual Stage Band Competition and the exchange concert series with Winthrop, Massachusetts High School Band, and other similar activities.

The JAZZ FOUNDATION OF KENNEDY will play some exciting new stage band arrangements, two of which have been written by students of Dr. Jolly's Theory II class. Mike Maisel has arranged a Lennon-McCartney tune for the group, Norwegian Woods. Eliot Semel has arranged Lucretia McEvil, also a Beatle selection. Both of these arrangements are fine examples of first efforts by both young men and they should continue to provide the group with manuscript original arrangements in the future.

Both the "Eaglettes" and Twirlers are working on new routines for their performance at the Pop Concert. This is the first year that they have operated on a full year basis. The newly elected twirling officers are: Wendy Gavin, Captain, and Maureen McGinley and June Bleich, co-captains. The Eaglettes also have elected new student leaders: Judy Weinberger, Captain, and Judy LaPayover and Connie Cicchese, co-captains. The Pop Concert provides an opportunity for many of our Plainview students to perform music of today. If this program is successful more "Pop" programs will be planned for the future. Come out for an enjoyable evening of entertainment by the Kennedy students.

BAND PATRONS ASSOCIATION DANCE - THE LINDY "HOP"

The annual fund raising dance held on January 15 was a social and financial success again this year. The red, white and blue decorations set a festive mood and the danceable music provided by the Jazz Foundation of Kennedy and the Mattlin Junior High School Dance Band was enjoyed by all. The student conductors trained by Dr. Jolly did a fine job and Mr. Soskin filled in for Mr. Shaw with the Mattlin group.

Doctor Gets Tobac Permits

The request for a special permit use to practice at a residence while living elsewhere was granted Tuesday to Dr. Howard Berger, who last September moved out of his professional residence at the intersection of Marilyn Boulevard and Plainview Road.

Hicksville Community Council Minutes

The January meeting of the Hicksville Community Council was called to order at 8:15 p.m. by Sheila Noeth, president. Emil Immesberger led the group in the Pledge of Allegiance. Then followed an introduction of the members present.

Program Chairman, Elery Bean, introduced Julian Acers, Manager of the Audit Division of the Internal Revenue Service office in Mineola. Mr. Acers explained various parts of the individual income tax return for 1971.

The primary project of the IRS, said Mr. Acers, is to teach compliance to rules and to enforce U.S. laws. The IRS does not make any laws regarding income tax, merely enforces those laws enacted by Congress.

Mr. Acers stressed that all people filing a 1971 income tax form read the instructional pamphlet which was mailed with your forms. Most questions you have will be answered in the booklet.

Mr. Acers said the most common mistakes made each year in filing forms are omitting the name and address, Social Security number, and failing to sign the form. Out of 190,000,000 forms filed last year, 18,000,000 forgot their name and address. An additional 5,000,000 didn't sign the form.

There are very few changes in the 1971 form. One notable change is an allowable $675 per person deduction.

ness.) Blindness must be certified by a doctor.

Mr. Acers answered various questions. Question: What about exemptions for sales tax?

Answer: There is a table in the pamphlet included with your tax form. For large items, list the tax separately.

Question: How do you estimate the fair market value of clothing given to charity?

Answer: Don't overestimate the value of the clothing and be sure you have proof that the items were given to charity.

Question: Are there any automatic audits of the sale of property?

Answer: No, only an automatic audit if there's a partnership or a corporation return has a questionable distribution of dividends.

Question: If someone has filed incorrectly in the past and has had to pay more, is that person's return watched closely after that?

Answer: No. Local IRS centers only get returns for audit when machines (at regional or national level) select them.

Question: How much must you support someone to claim him as a dependent?

Answer: The law says over 50 percent of the support (food, lodging, medical, etc.) There is such a thing as multiple support-persons contributing to an individual's support, with no one person giving more than 50 percent. It is possible to sign an agreement so that just one of these taxpayers will claim the individual as a dependent (may take turns each year).

Question: How do you differentiate between service charge and interest on bank cards?

Answer: Get statement from bank and request them to show the different amounts.

In answer to further questions, Mr. Acers explained that there is no need to file a return if you have received no income for the year. But minors who have worked part-time and not earned sufficient amounts to pay income tax, should file a return so they can receive what was withheld from their pay.

After Mr. Acers' presentation and discussion, the meeting proceeded to the public portion. During the first half many questions were asked of Councilman Warren Doolittle. Mr. Doolittle said the Town of Oyster Bay has applied to HUD for 500 additional units for Senior Citizen housing. He doubts we will get

Dear Editor:
As President of Hicksville Senior High School-PTA I feel I must reply to Mrs. Carton's letter regarding the School Board meeting on January 11.

To begin with, it is a gross insult to call these young people "children". They are not. Their behavior that night was more adult than many of the grown-ups present. The high school students were quiet and attentive and sat on the floor in order to allow us "older folks" to have whatever seating was available. The two students who spoke before the board spoke eloquently in their pleas.

Our Hicksville teen-agers are, on the whole, among the best young people I've known and I'm proud to number many real friends among them. To put them down, to regard them as "children", to take away rights and privileges as responsible citizens, are the attitudes that lead to today's rebellious youngsters. We are fortunate in having students in Hicksville of their caliber.

To blame all our Hicksville teachers for worrying solely about "job protection" is, to say the least, demeaning. Perhaps these teachers are also concerned about education and care a little about the future of our children.

Yours very truly, s/
Mrs. Benjamin Roseman,
President
HICKSVILLE HIGH SCHOOL
PTA

Dear Mrs. Noeth
Dear B. Rosman 1 24 72

Your letter stating that the Hicksville School Board is about to destroy education (because two teachers leaving the high school... will not be replaced" was not in the best taste.

Especially since you are the H.S. PTA President, you should accept the duty to officially verify rumor before attempting to pass it on as fact. It is this type of misinformation, and reckless accusation, that has caused the PTA to lose support over the years.

Your above information cannot possibly be factual until the Board rules Jan. 25, or thereafter, when the teachers, in fact, have left!

In the future, let us not becloud facts and issues because of our mutual desire for the best education possible for the children. Let us accept the hard, and elementary, fact that neither you nor I may have the correct formula, but certainly can contribute wisely toward that goal.

Therefore, please allow the current Board an opportunity to make those decisions, that only a Board can make after all suggestions, contributions etc. pyramid with that Board alone.

Surely, we should have a minimum amount of faith in this dedicated group of men, because as you and I both know, very few (that are able) step forward for this much, but the Town hopes to get some. The town would like to buy the Giese property on Lee Avenue for a park and recreational area. If the property on Old Country Road, behind Redeemer Lutheran Church, could be sold to a developer who would work with HUD on Senior Citizen housing for this area, then the town may be able to afford the Giese property. Both areas cover about six acres.

In answer to the possibility of a traffic light at the rear entrance of Mid-Island Plaza (on John St.), Mr. Doolittle explained this must be purchased by Stackeler-Frank. The cost is approximately this non-compensatory position.

S. Charles Fetta, President,
"Life in Hicksville", &
PTA member, 80 Smith St.

Dear Editor:
Mrs. Rosman's near hysteria would be quite comical if it weren't for the fact that she is quite serious.

The statement to the effect that "we want more than the 3R's for our children" is the heart of the problem. It's always what "we want" for our children instead of what they really need. We're trying to shove college material on them while they're still in our schools. It's no wonder many of them are growing up frustrated, rebellious, spaced-out on drugs, and dropping out. We're robbing them of the best years of their lives, their childhood, by driving them to work more and harder at more things, under the catch-all phrase, "rounding them out". Many of us want more of the 3R's and less of the "frills and luxuries" (yes, Mrs. Rosman, the frills are there!) Then the reading and math skills will come up.

In our local elementary school, we have a science program for elementary graders, and it was obviously written for Junior High School students. Before the teacher can teach them the science, she has to explain the meaning of the words in the text, words like "factors" and "variables" to nine year old children. So we teach them science in elementary school. They'll forget it all next year and have to be retaught it in high school where it should be taught in the first place. My youngster asked me if the lights in our house worked the same way as the flashlight battery they experimented with at school. What if they experimented on their own to try to find this out? This is a pre-printed program put out by Xerox, and if it isn't a "frill", I wish someone would tell me just what "frills" are.

Mrs. Rosman doesn't speak for me, nor for a lot of others in Hicksville. We think intensifying the 3R's is the best thing we can do for our children, and we think the School Board is working toward that end. Support them! S. J. J. McCarthy
P.S. Mrs. Rosman suggests we let the Board know how we feel about them, so I'm sending them a carbon copy of this letter.

Dear Mrs. Noeth:
The Board of Education meeting of January 25, was an insult to the intelligence of the majority of Hicksville citizens and taxpayers who attended that meeting. Supposedly, in the General Public position of the meeting anyone in the audience should be permitted to speak to the Board members and have their questions answered. This does not seem to be the case in Hicksville these days.

As a parent I am thankful that my children have not seen this rudeness and undemocratic process in action.

The new P.R. man certainly has his work cut out for him. It should be very interesting to see what he can do to improve the image of the Board members which they themselves have created.

Sincerely,
Mrs. A. Boyle

Dear Mrs. Noeth:
I was extremely insulted after reading Mrs. Carton's letter last week. Her adjectives (e.g. ill-mannered) were unjustified and I'm happy to say that no other adult commented similarly. Many parents and administrators commended me on the behavior of the students.

Most of the students at the last Board meeting were seniors. I feel that in labeling us "children" Mrs. Carton places us in the same category as elementary and junior high school students. When are we no longer children? Do people listen to us only after we've reached majority? I'm sorry, Mrs. Carton, but the adage "Children should be seen and not heard" is anachronistic.

Elected officials should be given respect according to their performance in that capacity. This, however, should be reciprocal. In return, the community is entitled to direct and honest answers to their questions.

The students and parents organized themselves last week independent of the school. We did not attend as "bidders" or "protectors" for teachers' positions. We went as concerned citizens trying to insure the quality of our education.

Underestimating a person according to his age is a form of prejudice. The students have made an effort to inform themselves about local politics but there are still those individuals who insist on ignoring us.

Sincerely,
Ailise Kreditor

Dear Editor:
School District No. 17 has hit a new low. A school board president who takes upon himself dictatorial powers, making appointments and recommending the hiring of new district officers without consulting the rest of the board is taking upon himself powers not vested in him either by the state or the people.

But when a citizen is denied the right to speak by the president of the board, to this body, because of an alleged personal affront, this is un-American and undemocratic. Our right to speak is guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States of America and Mr. Muratore does not have the right to deny this, or any other, liberty to anyone. This was certainly a beautiful lesson in civics for the students who attended the board meeting.

Remember, Hicksville, you elected this man and those others on the board who follow him. Don't forget. Yours very truly,

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:
Mrs. Thomas Carton, in the last issue of the Herald, accused the students who attended a certain board meeting of being "rude" and working for the "job protection" of the teachers. We attended this same meeting and tend to disagree with Mrs.

Carton's conclusions. There were many people at the meeting, and it was held in a small room; there had to be some disorder. But the students were not rude. There was not one student sitting in a chair, for example; they all got up to allow adults to sit. The students who spoke were very respectful. The other students present were just as polite.

The students attended because they heard rumors and wanted to find out the truth. How can they be accused of being misled by teachers when they went to the board meeting to ask questions about their educational future?

We think that it is very admirable that students care enough about their school and their community to attend school board meetings. Concern, not teachers, spurred the students to go. However, there is nothing wrong with teachers motivating students to participate in public affairs. One of the goals of education is to instill citizenship in pupils. A good citizen is not apathetic.

Respectfully,
Stephen Gottlieb
Glenn Wolfson

Dear Editor:

I am writing this letter to the people of Hicksville, through you, in response to the letter from Mrs. Thomas Carton, which was in the January 20 issue of the "Mid-Island Herald." I will answer in the order in which the letter was written.

First of all, since I was not at the January 11 School Board meeting, I cannot say first-hand who was responsible for the behavior problems of the meeting. However, everyone I spoke to said that everyone was screaming at the same time, and it seemed impossible to tell who was the cause. I must also say that we, as students, do not enjoy in the least being called "children" in the sense Mrs. Carton seemed to be using the word. While I am on the subject, I agree that children are sensitive by nature, and are easily set into motion when fear is planted in their minds. But remember, we are not children, therefore are not easily set into motion, unless something drastic comes up, as I and all the other students feel this sponsored by the St. Ignatius (CYO) Catholic Youth Organization recently at the Hicksville High School. Joining Doolittle are, Rodger Fremgen, of Lee Avenue, Hicksville, coordinator of the event which featured 20 teams, and Peter Collins, President of the CYO organization. The MVP plaques were donated by Councilman Doolittle.

Most Valuable Player

action, or non-action, of the Hicksville School Board is.

Most of us were informed of the problem that is facing us by our teachers. But I believe sincerely that we were informed because most of the teachers are "as dedicated to the "children" as they would lead you to believe." We do not need the teachers to petition the Board on our behalf, as we are capable of doing it ourselves. The teachers are involved. A number of them were at the January 11 meeting. If we as students are doing anything, we are doing it on our own.

The "privilege" of speaking at the Board meetings belongs to everyone. At least it should. It seems that some people think that students should not have this right. They must be the ones we think that keeping up with the payments on the new car, or having enough money to buy that new sofa is more important than their child's education. Anyone who can defend this Board of Education must feel that way. They have done nothing for the students of Hicksville.

I hereby declare myself a candidate for the 1976 Board of Education. That is, if I can stand this place much longer and if there is a School District No. 17 in 1976.

Sincerely
Thomas A. Serrell

Tax Preparation Is Big Business

Over seven million American families had H & R Block prepare their income tax return in 1971. This year H & R Block, America's largest tax service, expects to prepare taxes for some 8 million individual taxpayers, or approximately 12 percent of all individual returns filed. For this service Block will charge the average taxpayer under $12.50 which includes both his Federal and one state return.

"It has been our experience," says Henry Block, President of the Company, "that the majority of taxpayers who come to us for the first time have actually been overpaying their taxes. Most of them save far more than our fee."

"This year we are expecting to do a volume of over $100 million from the more than 6,000 offices we operate throughout the United States, Canada, Australia, West Germany, Puerto Rico, Guam, and New Zealand. At the peak of our business we will employ about 30,000 people, 20,000 of them actually preparing tax returns, and 10,000 in clerical positions to back them up."

Across America, literally thousands of lawyers, accountants, bookkeepers, school teachers, even barbers and beauty shop operators are in the business of preparing income taxes. It takes no investment, just a pencil, a supply of free government forms and a little knowledge. Thus, the question of how H & R Block was able to become a Goliath in just sixteen years is a valid one.

Part of the answer is quality work, nominal charges, free parking, and year 'round accessibility. But it goes way beyond that, into Block's understanding of the psychology of the average wage earner. Instead of emphasizing the "fear" aspects of our complex tax system, Block tries to make a visit to any of its offices a pleasant experience.

A company policy makes it mandatory that a client is greeted with a smile and a handshake. He is offered a cup of coffee and soothed by soft music. The chairs are comfortable, the office is bright and clean. "I feel courtesy has built our business as much as quality," is the way Henry Block phrases it.

From its inception, Block felt that the company should stand behind its work, and pioneered a written guarantee whereby the Company assumed the responsibility for every return. In addition, the Company is glad to accompany any client to an audit at no additional charge if and when such a procedure becomes necessary.

The fact that Block experiences better than a 75 percent repeat of the previous year's clients is testimony to the success of this policy. In addition, this multitude of experience has made Henry Block one of the country's foremost experts on the filing habits of the average American taxpayer.

"We know that only 5 percent of all returns will be filed in January," says Henry Block. "The average taxpayer is like a clock and apparently no amount of advertising, pleading or cajoling will get him to change his filing date."

Many of those who file early are retired or self-employed. Most have refunds coming. They keep meticulous records. They also come to have their taxes prepared in the morning or early in the day. Unless the weather makes the travel impossible, nothing seems to deter them from their self-appointed dates with their income tax.

As the tax season wears on, the character of the taxpayer changes with it. The most notable decline is in the quality of the tax records kept. An attitude of, "Oh, well, let it go" begins to pop up. Fewer people get refunds. More have to dig deeper into their pockets to pay the Federal piper. And the "rush hour" gets later in the day until, during the final two weeks of the filing season, you would almost think that some taxpayers were afraid of the sun.

"Believe-it-or-not," says Mr. Block, "we have had quite a few taxpayers who have actually volunteered to sign a blank check and some blank tax forms just so they could get it over with as quickly as possible. We meet all types of people in this business. It's a wonderful feeling to know that we can make a good living out of helping them, and have fun besides."

Both snapshots and polaroid pictures may be submitted for use in THE HERALD, but they must be clear. THE HERALD deadline is Wednesday at noon.

Kerшен would not "dignify it with a vote." Mr. McCormack voted against the recommendation, but due to the affirmative votes of the other five school board members, Mr. Frank was hired.

The action was questioned by this reporter. How many applicants for the job were interviewed? Only one. Was the job advertised? No. What will be the working relationship with our present public relations personnel, Claire Levandov? Mrs. Levandov will continue to put out the Bulletin Board, under Mr. Frank's direction. This reporter objected to the district employing two public relations personnel. Following this agenda item, Dr. Kerшен was granted a point of personal privilege. He strongly objected to the methods of this Board. "The way to function effectively is not like this. There are certain procedures to follow. Mr. Muratore, if you accept recommendations without investigating, then you are party to the hypocrisy that you objected to with the last Board."

Then the storm intensified. Mr. Muratore declared a five-minute recess, ignoring Mr. McCormack's point of order.

Following the recess, the Board took up the matter of retroactive pay for salary increases delayed due to the wage freeze. Mr. Goebel, School Board attorney, said he needed further clarification before he would recommend granting the retroactivity pay. Dr. Hill, Assistant Superintendent, recommended that the Board vote on the matter now and then when Mr. Goebel receives answers from Washington, immediate action can be taken instead of having to wait for the next Board meeting. With Mr.

Clark abstaining, the Board approved Dr. Hill's suggestion. It was now time for the final public session, limited to fifteen minutes. Pam Shapiro, a student, asked the Board to consider the statistics on class size given earlier by Dr. Niosi-Track III classes should be small so that the students can receive the special help they need. She also asked that the Board not treat the matter lightly.

When Mrs. Barbara Rosman got up to speak, Mr. Muratore reminded her that she had not yet apologized, publicly, to the Board for "calling them anti-American names." (Mrs. Rosman, after the meeting relieving Donald Abt of his duties as Superintendent of Schools, stated "this is a perfect example of a fascist state in action." She was quoted in one of the daily newspapers.) Mrs. Rosman said she would not apologize. Mr. Muratore then refused her the opportunity to speak. This action enraged the audience and Mr. McCormack said, "You don't have the right to do this." Mr. Muratore remarked that "we are playing to a select community," and moved on with the meeting.

The public session continued. Mrs. Carton questioned one of the reading books and the cost of producing TLUs for the individualized instruction classes.

Bob Pirrung asked if the Board was planning to charge organizations for using school facilities. There are no plans for this. Mr. Pirrung commented that you improve a School Board's image by School Board actions, not a PR man.

The public session was stopped at the end of the fifteen-minute deadline, although two people were still waiting to speak. This, too, was stormy. Charles Fetta, one of those waiting, asked Mr. Muratore to extend the time. When he refused, Mr. Fetta appealed to one of the Board members to overrule the chairman's decision. This was not done and a recess was declared.

But there was a rainbow following the storm. The meeting resumed and the Board approved a resolution to establish the Robert H. Levy Memorial Scholarship Fund. In memory of their son, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Levy are donating funds for a sustaining scholarship. The recipients will be chosen by a committee of teachers and guidance personnel in the High School, using mutually agreeable criteria.

Mr. Pappas requested that all information on the evaluation of individualized instruction be submitted to the Board by February 11. Dr. Niosi said more time is needed, until March 1. The last meeting in March the information will be presented to the public.

Dr. Niosi also stated he is planning on an early May budget vote.

Next Board meeting: February 8 at 8 p.m.

Bd. Of Trustees To Meet

By Fred Schlesinger

In a game which pitted two lesser teams against each other, Grumman's Gremlins (2-5) just got by the Grinding Gears (2-5) 31-26. Big man in the scoring department for the winners was Bob Brunner with 12. Larry Blum was high man for Grinding Gears with 8 points.

The Rascals (6-1) who are a surprise team in the I.B.A. rolled right past the Spoons (4-3) 50-25. Seba Krumholtz led all scoring with 13 points. The Rascals broke the game wide open after the second quarter. Peter Thompson was high Spoon with 9 points.

In one of the big exciting games of the night the Brewers (7-0) and the Golden Conspiracy (5-2) went to battle. The game went all the way down to the wire. Finally Joe Butindari and Bob Turello led the game for the Brewers by hitting field goals late in the fourth quarter. High man for the Golden Conspiracy was Rick Fishman with 11 points. Final score was Brewers 24 - Golden Conspiracy 18. In the highlight game played on the big court, the first rated Gollywaggles (7-0) remained undefeated in a close game against fifth rated Bears (5-2). The lead changed hands many times and at the end of three quarters the score was tied 24 all with Bears' Fred Schlesinger hitting a free throw with no time on the Waggles were Dave Hutner and Robert Lustig with 13 points. Alan Diamond was big scorer for the unfortunate Bears with 11 points. Final score: Gollywaggles 42, Bears 32.

STEPPING INTO the gymnasium at the Dutch Lane School in Hicksville to observe "Gymnastics in Action" a unit of the physical education elementary curriculum was indeed a treat. Soft music provided a background for the youngsters who were going through their balancing, jumping, climbing, and swinging paces. Mr. Ernest Falton and Mrs. Phyllis Rubin, the physical education teachers were, in addition to teaching the students that physical fitness through gymnastics can be fun, were also stressing safety factors. Every child working out on gym apparatus had several spotters surrounding him.

Merchants Oppose Grumman Gas Station

before improved land. For that reason, his client wanted it left vacant.
Also speaking was Stanley Amelkin, attorney for Jerry Lazarus, owner of 20 stores and offices on the west side of the road. He said his client does not oppose the gas station, but would like decision reserved until definite plans are made for the road widening.
Also voicing the same opinion was the attorney for Jerry Spiegel, owner of the Farmer's Market.
Gilbert Oest, 14-year owner of the Getty Station 200 yards from the subject parcel, says that his business has suffered a 40 per cent drop in volume since the Grumman layoffs began. He said the situation in the Grumman area was at an economic low, and additional facilities, such as the proposed gas station, were not needed for fewer people.

Norman Smoak, of Smoak & Sons, owner of the Shell Service Station on the West Side, asked that decision be pending the road widening announcement.
In his rebuttal, the Grumman attorney protested it would not be fair to wait the possible five to seven years the state might take to make a decision on the widening.
Before the Board reserved decision, Councilman Yevoli noted that he had proposed a moratorium on new gas stations with a half mile of an existing gas station in the Town of Oyster Bay. It didn't get anywhere he said.

ON TARGET!

If you were going to design a lawn mower, where would you put the grass catcher?

On the right side, so it humps into whatever's sticking up on your right? On the left side, so it does the same there?

The fact is, most grass bags are afterthoughts. They stick out to one side. They weren't designed to be a part of the mower.

The Snapper V21 or 18 has its grass bag between the handles. You can close trim on both sides and vacuum your lawn of pine straw, leaves and light litter while you're mowing. We made the grass bag extra large, too. For less emptying.

In fact, all the good things about Snapper V21 or 18 are logical. The result of sound design and planning by people who make lawn equipment and only lawn equipment. Not afterthoughts.

Snapper has developed a great attachment for vacuuming grass, leaves, pine needles and light litter.

We call it the grass catcher attachment. But it takes care of a lot more than just grass clippings.

And it's mounted in the back, to offer easier handling and greater maneuverability as you vacuum clean your lawn.

- Optional grass catcher fits all 26" or 30" Comets.
- Holds six bushels. • Unloads in seconds.
