Hicksville Students Meet The Press

On March 28th, twenty-nine Industrial Arts students of the Junior High accompanied Mr. Richard Sasser on a field trip to Newsday. In the past, field trips have proven to be an excellent educational experience, and this was certainly no exception. It gave the students an opportunity to actually see for themselves how a newspaper is printed and distributed.

Upon exiting from the bus, the group was met by a very cordial Tour Guide. An orientation followed describing the various points of interest. The Tour then began. The first stop was the paper room, where tons of paper are stored for use each day. Next was the production room. Here, students found themselves facing huge printing presses capable of printing hundreds-of-thousands of newspapers each day, each press costing approximately 2 million dollars. Then followed a visit to the distribution center, composing room, and library. Incidentally, the library contains over 2 million articles published by Newsday since 1942. The tour ended with a question and answer period, followed by a short film which briefly reviewed the tour. Our thanks to Newsday for a most interesting, educational, and enjoyable day as Hicksville Junior High students certainly did Meet the Press.

The ceremony at the Legion Clubhouse included: a demonstration of "posting of the colors" by the Post Color Guard under 2nd Vice Commander Frank Molinari; a short history of our flag by Americanism Chairman Richard Evers with an interesting display of many flag replicas made by Hicksville school children; presentation of the flag sets to the troop leaders and girls. Refreshments were also served. These flags are the latest to be donated by the Charles Wagner Post in a program originating years ago under Flag Chairman John Ehmann.

THE SINGING BOYS OF LONG ISLAND will present their annual Winter Concert at the Interfaith Chapel, C.W. Post College, Brookville. Sunday evening, March 26th at 7:00 p.m. Featured on the program will be the Missa Brevis, written by Benjamin Britten for boys choir and organ. The program will also include a group of Schubert songs for men's voices, a group of negro spirituals and favorite American patriotic songs.

This concert is in preparation for their forthcoming summer tour of Germany and Austria and will be the only opportunity for the general public to hear the program.

The Singing Boys of Long Island strive to maintain a rich choral tradition ranging back to the Renaissance period. Their repertoire consists of music from all periods from Byrd, Weekles, and Bach to Schubert and Britten. The choir composition is based upon the famous St. Thomas Choir of Leipzig Germany, whose renowned choir master was Johann Sebastian Bach.

The Singing Boys of Long Island is under the able direction of Mr. Gerald F. Barker.

Adult tickets are $2.00, student tickets $1.50.

Nassau County VIP's Will Spark Easter Seal Telethon

"Be in... Tune in... Call in..." Nassau County Viewers of the first National Easter Seal Telethon, to be aired on WPIX-TV from Midnight, March 25th through 7:00 P.M., March 26th will feel right at home dialing that magic number, (516) 644-9950 in response to many of our own Nassau County VIP's who will appear on television, according to the local Easter Seal affiliate, the Nassau Society for Crippled Children & Adults.

The well-loved whimsy of Ray Heatherton, VP, Franklin National Bank and Nassau Easter Seal Appeal Chairman, will be among the Nassau highlights. Former "Merry Mailman" of children's TV fame, well-known honorary mayor of Long Island and seasoned performer and orchestra leader, Ray will chat with many of the physically handicapped students who participate in Easter Seal programs in our county.

Star of the students sharing the spotlight is charming, 7-year-old Anne Marie Mulligan, of Massapequa, Nassau's Easter Seal Poster Princess for 1972. With her will be other physically handicapped children who, by their very presence and attitude, are proof of the Easter Seal philosophy that handicapped and able-bodied children are hand in hand in their hopes, dreams and capabilities.

William K. Kirkendale, Jr., noted Glen Cove insurance executive and president of the Board of Directors of the Nassau Easter Seal Society, will also be on hand, as will Daniel Sullivan, of Plainview and Long Beach, member, Nassau Easter Seal Advisory Council, a familiar face to the thousands of Nassau residents who have attended his Easter Seal public education programs.

Robert Wolin, of Roslyn, well-known in public affairs on Long Island, has rallied to the side of the handicapped as Chairman of the Special Gifts Committee, enlisting the support of a special VIP Panel, including Nick Monte, of Gurney's Inn, Montauk Pt., and Joseph Clinard, of Shearson Hammill, who will also appear on television.

The massive network of handling calls and pledges from Nassau's residents will be coordinated by approximately 700 volunteers who will maintain in shifts the 19-hour vigil for the disabled.

Coffee and refreshments for the volunteers will be supplied by the major New York area caterers, Continental Hosts, Ltd., operators of the Terrace on the Park, Flushing; the Fountainhead, New Rochelle and the restaurant FEATHERS and catering facilities at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, New York.

Emanating from the Hotel Sahara's Space Center in Las Vegas, the first Easter Seal telethon has as its honorary chairman Jimmy Durante, long time champion of crippled children and twice National Easter Seal chairman.

Other superstars donating their time and talent to the fast-paced 19-hour show are Andy Williams, Flip Wilson, Jack Benny, Robert Goulet, Sammy Davis, Jr., Buddy Hackett, Don Rickles and other top singers, comedians, actors, musicians and groups. Monty Hall, Host of TV's "Let's Make a Deal," will preside as anchor MC throughout the entire entertainment-paced show.

All Nassau County residents who call in can be assured that their help will be felt and appreciated by our own physically handicapped individuals here in Nassau County.

The Seamen's Bank For Savings Opens New Nassau Office

The billion-dollar Seamen's Bank for Savings - which first opened for business over 143 years ago in lower Manhattan - will open its first office in Nassau County at 2469 Hempstead Turnpike and Newbridge Road, in the Great Eastern Shopping Center, East Meadow, on Wednesday, March 22. This interim office will serve the community until the handsome modern permanent office, now being built, opens in the fall.

Although this is an interim facility, all savings bank services will be offered, including 6 percent Time Savings Accounts, 5 percent Day of Deposit to Day of Withdrawal Accounts and Grace Days Accounts, home mortgage and home improvement loans, and Savings Bank Life Insurance, according to E. Virgil Conway, Chairman and President. Leroy D. Runyon, Assistant Vice President, has been appointed manager of the new office. He has been with Seamen's since 1937 and is a

LEROY D. RUNYON, Assistant VP and Manager. Lifetime resident of Long Island. Chartered in 1829. The Seamen's Bank for Savings has played an important role in New York history. It has continued to cherish its maritime tradition, from the early times when most trustees were prominently identified with leading New York shipping firms, right down to the present when its offices also serve as museums to show the bank's famous collection of marine art and memorabilia. The new Nassau County office will be no exception in this respect. When the building is completed, it will have on display several of the ship models, marine paintings, scrimshaw and other examples of marine art which make up the collection.

Besides this new Nassau County Office, The Seamen's Bank for Savings has a Main Office at 30 Wall Street, and five branches in various parts of Manhattan. The eleventh largest mutual savings bank in the country, The Seamen's has assets of $1.25 billion.

A Desire To Help People Leads Roncallo Into 3rd C.D. Race

Expressing a strong belief in people and a desire to work for them, Nassau County Comptroller Angelo D. Roncallo today announced his candidacy in the Third Congressional District.

Acknowledging that this announcement was an assumption that was quite prevalent among the news media for some time, the Oyster Bay Town Republican Chairman reminded that "my reasons for running were not and have not been explained."

Roncallo noted that in all his years as a public office holder his sole purpose has been to help people - "all the people" regardless of political affiliation. He did so, he noted, because he felt it was his duty.

Now, Roncallo explained, "I seek the office of Congressman because I feel I have an obligation to render still further service to my constituency and I feel I can do it best in the House of Representatives."

This sense of duty and of obligation to serve the people and help them, he pointed out, stemmed from the help people gave his immigrant parents and the service this country provided them when they were newcomers to the United States. In this country, he said, his parents were able to open their own business and, successfully raise himself and his two sisters, one a nun teaching in Brooklyn and the other a teacher living in Massapequa.

"This country has been good to my parents and my family," Roncallo pointed out. He explained that this built in him a sense of duty and obligation to the people of this country. "I enlisted in the Army (1944) ... with the same sense of duty and obligation that I announce my candidacy today."

As he has always worked for the people in the past, Roncallo explained "I am anxious to represent my constituency and lead their fights in Congress against oil drilling in our off-shore waters; in favor of strong noise abatement legislation, and all of those programs aimed at providing a better quality of life."

A man of modest origin himself, Roncallo told those attending his press conference at the Fox Hollow Inn, Woodbury, that he is especially anxious to tackle the problems faced by families of modest means including the problem of "an inequitable tax structure which cries for reform."

In the months ahead, Roncallo said, his campaign will reveal that many of the programs for which he will press will be aimed at "lightening the load of the man now struggling to help himself." Roncallo, 44, was first elected to public office in 1965 as an Oyster Bay Town Councilman. He remained at that post until 1967 when he ran and was elected to the Office of Nassau County Comptroller. Because of the close working relationship he has developed with his constituency, Roncallo was reelected in 1970 with a plurality of more than 60,000 votes - the highest of any local county candidate that year.

The man, whose smile and natural willingness to help people has led to his being loved by those who know him, has constantly gained in popularity. He has done so by being active, not only in governmental programs but in community projects. His active membership has aided Catholic Charities, the Board of Directors of the American Committee on Italian Migration, the American Red Cross, the Waldemar Cancer Research Foundation, and Boys Town of Italy.

His reputation for bringing new enthusiasm to a job led to his being sought out to serve as chairman of the Nassau County Heart Fund Advisory Committee. He brought this same enthusiasm when he served as Exalted Ruler of the Benevolent and Protective Order of the Elks of Massapequa and as Venerable of the Columbus Lodge of the Sons of Italy.

Roncallo lives with his wife, Priscille, and their five children at 226 Toronto Avenue, Massapequa.

Professionals Seek Permits

The petitions of three Plainview dentists to practice dentistry at a residence while living elsewhere were heard by the Town Board at the regular Town Meeting on Tuesday at Town Hall.

The Board reserved decision on all three matters, which concerned Dr. Leonard W. Stern & Phyllis L. Stern, southwest corner of Country Drive and Manetto Hill Road; Eliot G. Gesner, intersection of Manetto Hill Rd. and Guild Court; and Jerome Kaufman, northwest corner of Old Country Road and Rex Place.

Attorney Myron Kantor represented all three dentists. Dr. Stern, who was not present at the hearing, purchased the property in 1959, and lived there until his family outgrew it in 1965, when they moved to Melville. Since January, 1970, he has had a partner, Dr. Sachs, and now rents the residential portion to a family of four.

Dr. Gesner, who bought his property in 1967, moved in 1970.

Dr. Kaufman continues to live at his place of practice, but he is considering moving away. He and his associate, a Dr. Gottlieb, have an agreement with the church adjacent to their property to use some of the church's parking spots, so parking is no problem, Mr. Kantor said.

Oil Terminal Hearing Postponed

Easter vacation was given as the reason for the postponement of a hearing for a major oil terminal in Plainview from April 4th to April 11th at Town Hall.

Supervisor Burke said the postponement was in direct response to requests of civic groups from the area who felt that Easter week was a bad time for attendance of residents at the Town Hall public hearing.

The petition, by Northville Industries Corp. is to build a 7,665,000-gallon oil and gasoline terminal on a six and a half acre parcel north of the Long Island Expressway near the industrial park in Plainview. Plans include two 1,680,000-gallon fuel oil storage tanks, and six 630,000-gallon and one 525,000-gallon gasoline tanks. Cost of installation, including a pipeline from Northville's terminal in Holtsville, is estimated at $2,450,000.

REPORTS

American youth rightfully wants to participate in the leadership of our country. This fact was recognized this past year with the adoption of the constitutional amendment giving 18-year-olds the right to vote. I should say the responsibility to vote rather than the right, for if neglected it will become a very hollow privilege, and the voice of young people will go unheard and unanswered.

I would also urge greater concern and participation of the new voters in local government, which has been called the great school of American democracy. It offers the opportunity to take an active role in matters of immediate concern to you and your neighbors. Your participation should not stop at the voting booth, either. Enroll in the political party of your choice so that you can have a voice in the selection of its candidates for office in the primary elections. Better yet - run for office yourself; there is a need for young candidates with the dedication, intelligence and social conscience required for public service.

You are urged to get involved. It is your Town, and its destiny is in your hands.

TOWN NOTES: Signs of spring: The Beach Department has started the annual cleanup of debris along the miles of Town beaches; the second phase of construction at Farmingdale Community Park on Heisser Lane will commence with the erection of an administration building; and preliminary funding arrangements have been made for the improvement of Theodore Roosevelt Memorial Park.

An opportunity to actively participate in Town government is offered through our intern program open to college students that will have completed their Junior year by June 1972. Applicants also must be Town residents or resident students. The deadline for applications is April 1, so call 922-5800, Ext. 305, if you are interested.

Dear Friends:

WE REALIZE that it is impossible for our elected representatives on any level of government to make every decision popular with everyone. We feel that in most cases wise decisions are made by those whom the majority have elected to such positions of trust. If you have ever attended Town Board meetings you know that everyone certainly is heard. As we have said, of course, our Board cannot please everyone when coming to a final decision on whatever matters they are deciding. It is our feeling that, after reaching decisions, it would be well for the Board to make the reasons for their decision, public. More than this, it might be wise to give detailed reasons to those who have appeared in opposition, so that they are quite clear on why their opinions cannot always be accepted by those in authority.

People who appear at our Town Board meetings are concerned citizens. A wise decision is always made after consideration by our Town Board of all that is to be said on both sides of any proposed action. Those who are concerned enough to appear must also realize that in some cases their opinions may change a decision...but at other times this may not be the case. Not that their opinions are not considered...simply that other factors may outweigh them. Then we feel it is wise for our Board to so notify those who have appeared, either individually or as a group. Such direct action may not be the most popular way to handle differences, but in the long run, an honest difference, handled wisely, will still keep lines of communication open. This is democracy in action.

So, to our hard-working Town Board and all sincere concerned citizens - we say, keep up the good work - keep communicating - don't be discouraged - and the final results can only be good even if you can't always agree.

Must close now, with best wishes to our friends of the Jewish Faith on the coming Passover season, and to all fellow Christians on the approaching Holy Week and Easter religious services.

Sincerely,
Sheila H. Noeth

From Your Congressman

James R. Grover, Jr.

Congress has approved a sharply curtailed foreign aid program. As usual, foreign aid continues without my vote, although I draw comfort from the more-than-billion-dollar slash in what the administration requested.

In addition to the unilateral foreign aid bill which has been my pet peeve for years, Congress also passed three multilateral appropriations - The International Development Association, a bank dealing with European and African nations; the Southeast Asian Bank and the Inter-American Bank. I believe we have done our share to help Europe recover, to the point where much of Europe is outstripping us in the economic race; I feel we have done more than we should have for many Asian nations and I strongly believe that we have overlooked for far too long the need for a better rapport without American neighbors. And, therefore, this year, I departed from my usual opposition to proliferated foreign aid and supported the multilateral approach with the Latin American bank.

Our future foreign aid ventures, except for humanitarian aid, should focus, I believe, on this hemisphere to encourage better economic relations not only with our immediate neighbors but with all of South and Central America. Our concentration on problems in Europe, Asia and Africa has caused many American nations to seek extra-hemispheric economic aid and political affiliation. Cuba has gone hard-core Communist, Chile is not too far from it. The Marxist influence is evident elsewhere south of our borders.

Few in Congress will deny that our foreign aid program needs drastic revision. I will continue to vote against foreign aid giveaways until the program is focused more sharply on the poor nations of this hemisphere. And if we do not soon bring some good, hard common sense to bear on this 25-year-old program, we might in the near future be waiting anxiously to find out whether Luxembourg is coming up with a foreign aid appropriation to help the United States over the economic hump

From Our Postmaster

Ralph Cascardo

Sales promotions and contests that ask people to mail items which could cause injury to U.S. Postal Workers are now banned by law.

The Postal Service says that in the past sales promotion techniques frequently resulted in the mailing of envelopes that contained "underpackaged" metal and plastic articles.

Those articles - such as bottle caps, jar tops, can lids and metal package opening strips - can injure postal employees as well as damage mail processing equipment.

A Postal Service official told a Congressional hearing that such articles were actually being projected with considerable force by high-speed mail sorting machines. Employees were also subject to injury when they reached into collection boxes to remove mail that contained sharp metal objects.

The United States Criminal Code has long barred from the mails any articles that may kill or injure persons, or damage mail or property. The new law strengthens this bar by adding a section that reads:

"Any advertising, promotional, or sales matter which solicits or induces the mailing of anything declared non-mailable by this section is likewise nonmailable unless such matter contains wrapping or packaging instructions which are in accord with regulations promoted by the Postal Service."

The law prescribes a fine of up to $1,000 and imprisonment for up to one year for each violation.

Hicksville Public Library

Hicksville is one of the five public libraries in Nassau County currently offering patrons the use of EVR (Electronic Video Recording), a newly developed system for playing cassette films directly on standard television sets. The Hicksville Library, one of the 37 Nassau libraries participating in the yearlong experimental EVR program, is one of five selected to offer the equipment at this time. The equipment and cartridges will remain at the Hicksville Public Library for six weeks and then move on to other participating libraries for a similar period until the program is over.

Ninety-eight films, recorded on 75 EVR cassettes, have been loaned to the Hicksville Library. The titles, selected from the National Audiovisual Center collection in Washington, relate to business, aviation, education, culture, health and medicine, human relations, science, safety, and many other subjects of general interest.

To play the cassette, a single connection is made from the EVR player to any standard television set. When the player is started, the program appears on the TV screen.

During this experimental period, the Hicksville Library will have the equipment installed in the Music Room with the viewing hours from 10 a.m. to 12 noon, 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. and 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. The EVR may also be borrowed by a school or organization that has their own TV set.

A report on the Hicksville Library's use of the equipment will be coordinated with similar reports from other participating libraries throughout the State.

General use of EVR cartridges at libraries and in private homes is envisaged as a possible development for the program. At libraries, cassettes may become a standard resource for play-back to fill an immediate recreational or reference need. For use in private homes, a future possibility is the loan of cassettes to individuals having their own players.

The equipment and films for the EVR program, furnished to the Hicksville Library by the Nassau Library System were purchased with Federal funds from a Library Services and Construction Act grant. Similar equipment and cassettes are being made available to other library systems in the State at this time. In Nassau public libraries, the program is supervised by the NLS Audiovisual Division Consultant, Joan Clark, who was instrumental in developing library interest in the experiment. The Nassau Library System is the service center for the 53 public libraries in the County.

The Hicksville Council of PTA Units is sponsoring an AMBLYOPIA detection training program in the Hicksville Public Library on April 26, 1972 at 9:00 A.M. This course is given by the Industrial Home for the Blind to teach non-professionals how to detect the signs of Amblyopia (reduced or dimness of vision) in

Questions and Answers

Question: Being an addict at solving crossword puzzles, I wondered how and where they originated?

Answer: The first crosswords appeared in England in the 19th century printed in children's puzzle books. However, it was in the United States that the puzzle developed into a serious adult pastime. The first modern crossword puzzle was published on December 21, 1913 in the New York World's Sunday supplement

Fun. It appeared as one of the many mental exercises but it struck the fancy of the public so favorably that the desire for crosswords stuck immediately. By 1923 they were published in most of the leading newspapers and were the most talked of form of entertainment in the United States. Within a few months the craze spread to England. Crosswords in some form are now found in every country and language.

What Is A Volunteer Fire Department

Capt. Owen Magee

Is it a place or is it a club? Some people think of the Volunteer Fire Dept as a collection of a bunch of hicks that don't know anything, a firehouse, sirens, red lights, hose, bells, lower Fire Insurance and Fund Drives. They are right in some areas but you can be wrong too.

A Volunteer Fire Dept. is made up of dedicated men of the community, all different in many respects, but with one common goal. That goal is to save lives & property, of people within their community. The members must put in many hours at different schools to learn the job. Unfortunately, many people think all a fireman does is sit around the firehouse and drink beer. How misinformed these people are, for at any time of the day or night they are ready to answer your call. Everytime they do so, they run the risk of injury or death, without seeking any type of reward. The Volunteer Fire Dept. is a non-profit organization. So naturally they must rely on a Fund Drive once a year. Thanks to the efforts of many in the community, their job is made a lot easier.

Support your Firemen, the life they save may be yours.

HICKSVILLE HIGH SCHOOL SPORTS

COMETS SPRING INTO ACTION

By: Sports Staff of the Comet
Now that the school's intramural Box Lacrosse season has ended, Coach Bill Meyer anticipates this year's Varsity Lacrosse team will be one of the best ever at Hicksville High. The Box Lacrosse season was described by Coach Meyer as a successful one. Having little snow and all around fine weather, the boys who participated in the league developed the necessary stick finesse, endurance and confidence.

Such talent like Ted Stefaniw, Rich Leary and Steve Meyers led Coach Meyer to say, "Our team scrimmaged Sewanhaka High and did very well. Overall, the team is basically very young, potentially the most outstanding Varsity team that I have ever had."

The season opens with a game against Great Neck South (away) on Wednesday, March 22nd. The Comets then tackle their toughest assignment when they take on East Meadow in the first home game of the season. This year, Hicksville will play two games under the lights at Hofstra Stadium, Saturday night April 22nd against Herricks and Friday night May 5 against Farmingdale. Tickets for these games will be $1. Come and enjoy the fastest game on two feet.

From Lacrosse, we turn to Track and find that the outlook for the '72 Comets is as bright as ever. New and tougher opponents will provide ample opportunities for Hicksville Spikemen to demonstrate their talents.

The running events, coached by Ken Kingsley will be dominated by Tom Meir (440 yard dash), Walt Staehle (880 yard dash), while Larry Casassa and Vinnie Luisi will run the long distance races.

The field events, coached by Jay Mc Cauley will be highlighted by high-jump record holder Dan Bell and many promising under-classmen who look strong in the pole vault and broad jump. Don Doherty will carry the load in the shot-put event. The first meet of the season will take place on Friday, March 24th at Bethpage. The team has its first home meet against Herricks on Wednesday, March 29th at 4 P.M.

J.F.K. High School Student Wins

On Saturday morning, March 18, 1972, Andrea Giliberto, a student at John F. Kennedy High School won the Nassau County Beginning Typist Championship Contest. Andrea competed against the best typists from public and private high schools throughout Nassau County. The championships were sponsored by The Long Island Business Education. Chairman's Association (LIBEC) and were held at Bethpage High School. The contest consisted of typing prepared material for 5 minutes, with a penalty of 10 words per minute for each error. Andrea's winning speed was 48.87 net words per minute.

On Wednesday, March 22, 1972, Andrea will represent John F. Kennedy High School and Nassau County in The All Long Island Championship Contest at the Holy Family Diocesan High School in Huntington. She and two other Nassau County students will meet the three typist winners of the Suffolk

County finals. The winners of The All Long Island Championship Contest will be honored, along with their teachers, at a luncheon on April 25, 1972 at Hofstra University, and will receive a series of special prizes and awards from Nassau County executive Ralph Caso.

Representing Kennedy High School in the Advanced Shorthand Championship Contest was Lois Cervelli and in the Advanced Typing Championship Contest, Doreen Stallone.

We would like to honor and thank these fine young ladies for their outstanding effort and skills in their shorthand and typing studies.

On Friday, March 17, 30 students from Kennedy High School presented a special program at the annual conference of the New York State Council of Social Studies in New York City. The students, members of Ms. Heather Bluestone's Woman in Society elective course, wrote, acted, and helped direct two skits on the socialization of the American Woman. Woman in Society, offered since September, 1970, was the first course of its kind to be offered in a public high school.

The idea behind the skits was that the media, education, and social pressures force females into stereotypical roles. Further the plays showed that these roles can make women unhappy and unfulfilled. The skits are amusing and utilize music, dancing, and humor to dramatize their message.

After the skits were presented, Ms. Bluestone and the students (26 girls and 4 boys) conducted a workshop on teaching and learning about women in society. Many social studies educators in the state are contemplating such a course for their districts. The teachers participating in the workshop were encouraged by the enthusiasm and awareness of the students.

Plainview - Old Bethpage High School News

On March 14th, 30 Plainview High School students took the Annual High School Mathematics Examination sponsored by the Mathematical Association of America, Society of Actuaries, Mu Alpha Theta and the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics. The content of the Examination was limited to material from elementary algebra, plane and simple coordinate geometry, intermediate algebra and trigonometry, but the questions were of a more sophisticated nature than one would find on the usual classroom type test or Regents examination. The examination aims to create and to sustain interest in mathematics among the students, as well as supplementing classroom work as it broadens and deepens mathematical concepts.

The following students were nominated to participate in the 80 minute examination: SOPHOMORES: Kenneth Bernstein, Michael Chartan, Debra Gordon, Alicia Hajdu, Kathy Ingram, Jed Kaplan, Andrew Katz, Bonnie Koreff, Dave Linn, Cliff Resnick, Janet Slocum, Ivan Wolf, and Larry Gross as alternate. JUNIORS: Deborah Cohen, Jeffrey Gorelick, Karen Irel, Barry Kaplan, Alan Levine, Bruce Morgenstern, Jeffrey Singer, Steven Snappin, David Treiman, and Wayne Zurowsky as alternate. SENIORS: John Castellana, Robert Cohen, Frank D'Anna, Judy French, Paul Goldstein, Marcia Halpern, Michael Huybenz, Robert Ostrove, Albert Tramosch.

The high scorers were Michael Huybenz, Frank D'Anna, and Jeffrey Singer. On March 21st all students who took part in the contest were invited to a meeting to discuss the test problems.

On March 17th the Home Economics Textiles class attended the Textile Exhibit at Roosevelt Field Shopping Center. The 30 foot exhibit was prepared by Cornell University, College of Human Ecology, and was on loan to Nassau County for one week. Upon arrival, some of the students expressed disappointment that the exhibit appeared so small. After half an hour of concentrated attention to demonstrations of various techniques of construction, and of looking, reading and touching, the exhibit took on larger proportions. A vast amount of information concerning textiles and their different uses, finishes and labeling was cleverly engineered in the comprehensive exhibit. The fabrics displayed were contributed by at least 50 companies. The display was unusual in that the public was invited to touch the fabrics, to feel the differences in texture, to get to know the kind of fabric.

The most popular attraction was the demonstration of how to cut, stitch, and pick out fibers of fake furs. Kathy Theiss, Cooperative Extension Agent of Nassau County, conducted the demonstration. The information she gave on making professionally finished man-made fur and leather garments was the kind of thing a person who likes to sew always wanted to know but was afraid to ask.

Hockey Champ

BERNIE "BUNGER" HERSCHBEIN of Hicksville closed out the 1971-72 varsity hockey season and his career for Rochester Institute of Technology, finishing with two goals and four assists in 20 games.

The Tigers completed the season 10-5 in Finger Lakes Hockey League action (11-9 overall) and second in the Finger Lakes Hockey League Championship Tournament.

Herschbein is a 1968 graduate of Hicksville High. The printing major was primarily a defenseman for the Tigers. A brother of Phi Kappa Tau Fraternity, Herschbein played three years of varsity hockey. He was also chairman of the 1971-72 hockey program committee.

Both snapshots and polaroid pictures may be submitted for use in THE HERALD, but they must be clear. THE HERALD deadline is Wednesday at noon.

Business Ed. Course Offerings

The Business Education Department at John F. Kennedy H.S. is again expanding its course offerings to meet the specific needs of students. These courses have been developed at the specific request of the student body. They will be offered at the beginning of the 1972-73 school year.

1. CONTEMPORARY LEGAL PROBLEMS - 1 semester

This course is specifically designed as an elective for those Juniors and Seniors who are interested in exploring current legal problems in the U.S. today. Material will mainly be drawn from current newspapers, magazines, paperbacks and letters written by students and instructor to those people or agencies directly involved in the specific problems being studied.

Topics to be covered will include, crime, court procedures, prisons and prison philosophy, student rights, civil rights and consumer law. Additional topics may be chosen by the class.

2. THE STOCKMARKET IN THE U.S. ECONOMY - 10 weeks

The purpose of this course is to introduce the student to the history, purpose, and actual functioning of the major stock exchanges in the U.S.

Topics covered will include the role of the stock market in financing modern American corporations, and the actual procedures involved in the purchase and sale of stocks and bonds. In a simulated exercise, groups within the class will research, buy, chart the progress of, and sell securities of actual corporations.

3. TAXATION IN THE UNITED STATES - 10 weeks

The purpose of this course is to explore how the government is funded through our modern tax structure. Major taxes covered will include, sales tax, property tax, social security and medicare, and State and Federal Income taxes. Some time will be devoted to governmental budgets and majority of time will go into tax payment from the individuals point of view. Students will prepare their own tax returns in class.

4. COLLEGE NOTETAKING - 1 semester

This course is designed to primarily aid college bound students to take lecture notes rapidly without resorting to any symbol shorthand system.

The system used is one based strictly on our present alphabet. It is expected that this course would enable the student to double his present normal writing speed.

Plainview-Old Bethpage Public Library Board Election

Residents of the Plainview-Old Bethpage School District will have the opportunity to vote for two positions on the Plainview-Old Bethpage Public Library Board of Trustees in the May 3 election. The first is for a 5 year term for the seat now held by Library Board President Francis X. Cullen. Mr. Cullen plans to run for reelection. The second position is for the remaining 1 year of the 5 year term to which Mrs. Grace Bass was elected. Mrs. Bass has resigned from the Board.

Any resident of Plainview-Old Bethpage who is eligible to vote (that is, is a citizen of the United States, will be 18 by May 3, 1972, and has resided in the district 30 days) is eligible to run to fill these positions. In order to run a resident must file a nominating petition signed by 25 qualified voters of the district, with the district clerk by midnight, April 19, 1972. The library has a supply of these petitions available for distribution.

Serving as a Library Board Trustee is a stimulating and rewarding way for a citizen to serve his community. The library hopes public-spirited citizens in the community will consider running for these offices.

Tobay Town Board Acts On T.R. Park Improvement Program

The first step to implement the long-range improvements at Theodore Roosevelt Memorial Park here was taken this week when the Town Board amended the 1972 capital program to include an additional $1.3 million. This will fund the construction and engineering for two of the three phases of the improvement program recommended in a master plan for the 36-acre park, plus the expansion of the boat-launching ramps.

Town Supervisor John W. Burke noted that the planned improvements were designed to meet the changes in recreational patterns since the park was deemed to the Town in 1942.

"The increase in both population and leisure time in recent years has necessitated a re-evaluation of the park's facilities to better meet the needs of young and old alike," Burke said. In addition to expansion of the boat-launching ramps, the planned improvements include:

- Incorporation of additional permanent facilities for baseball, football, tennis, handball, basketball, volleyball and a children's playground.

- Construction of a new park entrance at Larrabee Avenue.
- Relocation of the existing settling pond, thus creating more space for other uses.

- Improvement of the picnic area by expanding this popular facility and adding more drinking fountains, picnic tables and fireplaces.

- Permanent reconstruction of the westerly bulkhead of the existing Town marina.

- General lighting and landscaping improvements throughout the park.
