"If A Fire Chief Built Your Home"

By Robert M. Holmes.
Reprinted From Dec. 71 Issue
VFW Mag.

In Parts I and II we discussed some of the hazards built into homes. Improper exits, small windows etc. Part III deals with the wide open nature of most homes found today.

Three sources of trouble exists. All involve interior doors. First is the light paneled folding or louvered doors which will not withstand heat and flames as a solid core door will. Second, is the missing cut - off door from the basement area to the first floor in some homes. Third, is the doorless open stairway exit from first floor to upper stories.

Interior doors are vitally important in the early minutes of the fire. They are the first line of defense against super heated air and poisonous gases which move rapidly in advance of the blaze itself. In Los Angeles County, Calif., Sam Fineman was asleep on the second floor of his suburban home, when a barking dog shattered his rest. He awoke, smelled smoke and rushed to see what was the trouble.

The instant he opened his tightly closed bedroom door he was dead. Sam had sucked in air and gases heated to over 1,000 degrees. The fire that killed him never left the first floor. The National Fire Protection Association has found that three out of every four home fire victims die in the near bedroom areas on upper floors from fires which began on the first floor.

The reasons are simple. Most homes in America are two stories or more and bedrooms usually are on the second floor. Most often fires which kill occur at night after people are asleep and flames can burn undetected. Without doors to stop it, superheated air rises rapidly and as high as it can. Doors closing off stairwells prevent that rapid rise of stealthy killers and destroy the natural flue effect of the stairwell "chimney".

The third fire problem area involves the basic construction of the house. Often walls are made of materials which feed a fire rather than retard it. Improperly installed equipment can be the source of a killing blaze. Applying new construction standard to older dwellings the industry should try to eliminate as many possibilities of a fire by checking to see how many safety features are missing. They should be listed in the order of importance and a program set up whereby all needed changes could be made in a relatively short time. "If this would entail an exceptionally large amount of money, then I would hesitate to buy the house" said Chief Ellison of Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Fire chiefs unanimously agreed the surest protection is a fire detection system, ideally the Ion Detector - (smoke detector) sprinkler type but cheaper alternative heat detection systems are better than none, and no matter what is done to the

Hicksvill Met For Public Session

MRS. D. KLEIN
12 HICKS CIR.
HICKSVILLE, NY 11801

The Hicksville School Board met in public session, in the Board Room on Friday night, July 28. The meeting began promptly at 8 P.M. Mr. Bruno and Mr. Pirrung were absent. There were very few residents present compared to the large numbers who have been in attendance over the past few months.

Pres. Thomas Clark made 2 announcements. First: the State Ed. Dept. has requested the School Bd. to send a representative to an Aug. 2 conference in Albany to consider "Guidelines for Public Order." It was voted unanimously to send the Bd's Attorney, Mr. Goebbel. Second: The State Auditors Report has been received and is available to the public in the Library and in the Administration Office. Further, a unanimous vote provided residents with the opportunity to secure personal copies at a cost of $1.25 per copy.

A discussion followed on the interest earned by the School Construction Fund. Mr. Rosran offered the information that State Law prevents the transfer of these interest monies to the General Fund.

A request by students of a local parochial school for the use of A.V. materials was referred to the Bd. Attorney for study.

A request by the Hicksville Council of P.T.A. Units for an early meeting with the School Bd. was deferred.

The discussion requested by the Hicksville Public Library on resubmission of the Library Budget did not occur. No one representing the Library was present.

The Anti Defamation League's letter, urging a change in Board meeting nights from Friday was the subject of a few remarks by Bd. members. Pres. Thomas Clark commented that he did not see any reason to change the meeting night while Mr. McC. indicated that Fri. night meetings were not in the best interest of the community. The Board further commented on a letter objecting to a Board member's suggestion that community organizations pay for the use of schools. Mr. Clark said that the School Board had not acted on this suggestion. He continued that this suggestion was made by only one Board member.

Another letter, from Congregation Shaarei Zedek, requesting a change in meeting night, was acknowledged.

At the General Public Session, an apology was made in behalf of a portion of the community that was absent. Another request was made to change the Board Meeting Night from Fridays so that those absent could attend and participate in School District affairs.

There was a request from the audience for permission from the Board to allow the re-submission of the Hicksville Public Library Budget.

John Maniec, Storefront Director of H.A.D., urged the Board to refrain from imposing a charge on the Community Organization's use of School Buildings and Grounds.

The final comment from the audience was a suggestion that the School Board hold its meetings on Saturday nights.

The Board then acted upon the payment of a variety of bills. A number were questioned and tabled, pending further study. On the question of authorization to purchase equipment, the Board, acting upon the request of Administration, tabled, pending further study.

Approval was given for the employment of students in Curriculum Printing, Clerical Substitutes, Part Time Cleaners and Summer Grounds Personnel, and Summer Elementary School Instruction Replacements. Motions to table were made for September appointments. Opportunity High Instructors, and Clerical Personnel for Registration of Adult Ed. Programs.

The Employment of a Curriculum Writer was defeated by a 3-2 vote.

The Administration's request for an adjustment in Administrative Cabinet Salaries was tabled. A decision to join New York State School Board's Association, Nassau-Suffolk School Board's Association and the National School Board's Association was tabled.

A motion by Mr. McCormack to approve the use of Woodland Ave. School, by its P.T.A., for parent discussion groups on Family Life Education, lost for lack of a second.

President Thomas Clark gave the Board Members an opportunity to select the committee of their choice for the 72-73 School Year.

At the final opportunity for the public to be heard, Mrs. Fetta commented upon the relative cost for students to attend Hicksville's Opportunity High and the costs in their districts. Her comments indicated that Hicksville students enjoy considerably lower costs than many students in surrounding districts.

A request by the State Education Department for a simplified name for the school district was passed. The new designation is the "Hicksville School District".

A final motion, directing the Superintendent to make a full and complete Annual Report was passed unanimously.

Adjournment was 10:52 P.M.

Applications "Passport"

As a number of post offices in the County are authorized to process passport applications since July 1971, the number applying for passports in the county clerk's office for travel overseas in the first six months of this year dropped to 17,415 from last year's 23,618.

County Clerk McConnell's half-year report also reveals that aliens applying for first papers in the Naturalization process increased from 389 in 1971 to 635 in 1972. Citizenship was granted to 698 in the same six month period, 269 more than in 1971.

Dear Friends...

WOMEN'S LIB: seems to have some important and some unimportant but interesting aspects which are newsworthy...for example, although it may not be world shaking, when cute, blonde, Robin Parmelee from Buffalo applied for a job at Gurney's Inn, in Montauk, Bossman Nick Monte expected her to give up when he casually said, "The only job opening is for a Bellman...and that's a man's work!" Robin, however, took the job thus becoming the first official women's lib Bellman of record! Only thing is - many of the male guests of an age to recall that outmoded practice of chivalry, most always insist on helping Robin carry their luggage. Robin reports that her tips are about equal to those of her male counterparts, Mr. Monte is still pondering whether Robin is a Bell-Hopess, a Bell Lady, or a Bell Girl, although whatever way you put it, she is definitely a pleasant addition to this famous Inn, where President Nixon vacationed four times.

MANY RESTAURANTS are participating in a Reduced Meal Restaurant Program for senior citizens, sponsored by the Nassau County Dept. of Senior Citizen Affairs to provide full-course nutritious meals to senior citizens at reduced prices. "One of the problems of living alone," said Mrs. Adelaide Attard, Director of this Dept., "is the habit of skimping on meals or skipping them entirely. Thanks to the generosity of these restaurants who have joined our reduced meal program, seniors can now afford the luxury of dining out with friends." Those who wish to take advantage of this program, must show senior citizen identification cards before ordering. A complete list of participating restaurants may be obtained from the Nassau County Dept. of Senior Citizen Affairs, 1 Old Country Road, Carle Place, NY 11514...telephone 535-4414.

ANOTHER EXPERIMENTAL PROGRAM for our senior citizens is being introduced in two upstate counties. It is designed to mobilize and integrate community services for senior adults with an emphasis on the isolated older person who is not aware of or cannot reach local programs and services. This program will provide outreach, information, referral and counseling and is funded partially with a Federal grant, partially State and then local funding.

THAT'S ALL for this week, stay well and enjoy our beautiful Long Island.

Your Vote ... Use It!

Across the country today political candidates are skirmishing with more than the usual degree of fervor. The professionals are motivated by the knowledge that in 1972 the election process is being opened up to major new elements.

People from all walks of life—young and old—the rich and the not-so-rich—men and women of all races and creeds—are climbing into the political arena with firm ideas of their own about shaping this country's destiny. And this is their right, protected by our Constitution of 200 years.

To our traditional electorate will be added in 1972 over 11 million young adults, 18 to 20 years of age, now enfranchised by the 26th Amendment. Additionally, some 14 million Americans who have turned 21 since 1968 will be eligible to participate, for the first time, in a Presidential election.

This 25 million potential could have a decisive impact on the outcome.

Candidates are pressing hard for this vote. Party bosses who traditionally met in smoke-filled rooms and handpicked their slates are finding their powers eroded. Pollsters are having difficulty charting the political pulsebeat of this electorate. Incumbents and candidates alike are concerned over the effect of this new voting element.

These first voters comprise a massive force for accomplishment. The newcomers are turned on and their powers eroded. Pollsters are having difficulty charting the political pulsebeat of this electorate. Incumbents and candidates alike are concerned over the effect of this new voting element.

These first voters comprise a massive force for accomplishment. The newcomers are turned on and eager to become involved in many problems. Undoubtedly, many of these young adults can help the United States remedy its national and international illnesses.

As an essential first step, they should be encouraged to register and vote. If they should fall victim to the apathy which already exists among one of their elders toward the electoral process, the nation will continue to suffer.

The truth is that only 73 million citizens cast ballots in the 1968 Presidential election. Then only 60.2 percent of the 121.5 million eligibles went to the polls. 47 million stayed away. Here in the world's greatest democracy, a smaller percentage voted in a major election than in any other nation of the free world.

Of the 47 million non-voters, some 15 million who were qualified to vote passed up the opportunity. Another 10 million could have qualified but didn't bother. Many, of course, were prevented by harsh state residency requirements, or by illness or disability, or by being unexpectedly away from home or overseas on election day. Thanks to the Voting Rights Act Amendments of 1970, the right to register and vote by absentee process for President and Vice President, regardless of where one may be in the world on election day, now belongs to those who take the initiative in exercising that right.

Perhaps you are one of those who asks, "Does my vote really count among all the millions eligible to vote?" Here's your answer:

In the 1960 Presidential election, Richard Nixon lost to John Kennedy by less than one vote per precinct out

Caso Awards Contracts

County Executive Ralph G. Caso has awarded a contract for $206,600 to Amfar Asphalt Corp. Kings Park for the resurfacing of portions of six County roads in central and eastern Nassau. All pavements have either deteriorated or have become slippery through wear.

Among the roads are: Old Country Road - from Post Avenue to a point 40 feet east of Salisbury Drive, Westbury and from South Oyster Bay Road to the west side of the bridge over the Seaford-Oyster Bay Expressway and from the east side of the bridge over the Seaford-Oyster Bay Expressway to Manetto Hill Road, Plainview; and Massapequa - Woodbury Road - from Old Country Road to a point 620 feet south, Plainview.

Skid-resistant pavement containing asbestos fibers will be installed to reduce maintenance costs and improve safety.

Work is expected to get under way in August.

Social Security Question Box

QUES: My father died on the last day of the month. Why must his retirement check for that month be returned?

ANS: The check must be returned because a social security payment cannot be made for the month in which a person dies. Although your father lived until the last day of the month no check is payable for that month. In a similar manner, if he first qualified for payments on the last day of the month, he would have received a check for that entire month.

QUES: When I started working, my social security contributions were very small. They have increased a number of times since then. Have benefits gone up too?

ANS: Yes, substantially. The average monthly payment for a retired worker has multiplied almost six times since payments first began in 1940. The average retirement check in 1940 was $22.60. Today, the average is $134.00 and will be $162.00 beginning with the September, 1972 check.

Not only has the benefit amount increased, but health insurance and disability insurance have been added and many benefits can now be paid at an earlier age.

of a total exceeding 69 million votes.

In 1968, Mr. Nixon won over Hubert Humphrey by less than three votes per precinct out of more than 73 million votes cast.

Caemmerer Clarifies Regent Legislative Report

In a statement directed to his constituents, Senator John D. Caemmerer (R-East Williston) clarified a portion of his recent legislative report sent to residents of Nassau County's new Seventh Senatorial District which dealt with tax relief for Senior Citizens.

Caemmerer's statement is as follows:

"If, as the saying goes, 'To err is human', then you can surely count me as one of the most human of God's children. My July legislative report carried some incorrect information regarding a Senior Citizens' tax bill which I co-sponsored. The report erroneously stated that the new law contained provisions

Note To All Who Represent Us. . . Gentlemen - There Is A Limit!

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

I've sounded off about this before, and it concerns SAFETY. My question: Does the L.I.R.R. have any yellow paint for renewing the safety lines at the edge of the Hicksville Station? And how about the stair landings? Do you realize that the safety lines have not been retouched since our new station opened and to think Nassau County is billed for maintenance of these stations.

I know for a fact that our senior citizens have trouble walking to and from the platform on those dark stairs. Perhaps a Boy Scout or Cub Pack could perform a community service in this regards.

You have a fine newspaper.
Best regards,
Mr. John Gundel

An Open Letter To The Taxpayers of Hicksville
The Hicksville Public Library

Budget for 1972-73 was defeated by 35 votes on June 13th, 3,069 to 3,034. On several occasions since that date, the Library Board of Trustees have requested that the Board of Education re-submit a revised budget. The School Board has refused to grant this request, with no reason given and very little discussion taking place.

The Library Board is of the opinion that the Board of Education, by its action has attempted to declare itself the final authority on the library program and, has in effect, dictated next year's library budget to the taxpayers. The Hicksville Public Library Board is an autonomous body, elected separately and has complete authority to prepare a budget, submit it to the taxpayers, and control all expenditures. Believing the School Board has neither authority nor expertise in library matters, the Library Board members have decided to acquaint the general public with the facts. This is an issue going beyond the immediate fate of the Hicksville Public Library budget. It involves the right of a separately elected Board of Trustees to perform their legally stated function. If the School Board's decision is not reversed, at the next Board of Education meeting on August 11th, every school district public library in Nassau could ultimately be affected since a large number have been required to re-submit their budgets in past years.

We wish the public to be aware of the unprecedented action of the Hicksville Board of Education. We believe it is not in the tradition of the separation of powers of legally separate and elected School and Library Boards and not in the best interest of the taxpayers. In the judgment of the Library Board of Trustees a modest increase is needed to continue normal library service in 1972-73. At the very least the taxpayers should be allowed to decide, as the law intends that they should.

REPORTS

At the July 24 meeting of the Nassau County Board of Supervisors, Mrs. Mona Oppenheim addressed the Board on the need for everyone to cooperate in keeping electric power consumption to a minimum during hot summer days. Ironically, Mrs. Oppenheim had to wait about 10 minutes before making her presentation because of a temporary power loss that cut off the lifts and public address system in the Board of Supervisors hearing room.

Her point, therefore, was very well made. To many of us, a power blackout is a nuisance and inconvenience, but to others it can be a tragedy of major proportions. Lighting in hospital operating rooms and refrigeration of perishable food items are two examples that come immediately to mind.

I am calling on all of the residents of the Town of Oyster Bay to conserve electrical power wherever and whenever possible during these critical days.

Businessmen are asked to shut off all unnecessary lighting during the day, particularly outside electric signs. Air conditioning equipment should be used only under conditions of extreme discomfort. The air conditioning systems in many buildings and plants could be shut down at least one hour before quitting time without causing undue discomfort to the occupants.

Housewives can help by shutting off the air conditioners in the bedrooms during the day. Heating appliances draw tremendous current loads, so try to avoid using electric broilers, toasters and irons on hot, muggy days. You can put off your ironing chores until a cooler day with a clear conscience!

TOWN NOTES: Lifeguards from the Town beaches and community pools will compete next week in the Town of Islip's Third Annual Invitational Lifeguard Tournament at Byron Lake Pool in Oakdale on August 10. We're very proud of the men and women who safeguard our beaches and pools and wish them good luck in the tournament.

Professional tennis instructions are again being offered at the Town's community parks where registration forms are now available. For additional information, call Phil Alfino at the Department of Recreation and Community Activities at 521-5875.

Johnson Calls For "Clean-Up" Bond

State Senate Republican candidate Owen Johnson of West Babylon today proposed that the State Legislature require all industries having Long Island water shoreline facilities, or shipping firms which tank pollutant products, to post a "clean up" bond with the State Department of Environmental Conservation.

Johnson, whose district includes much beach front in the Great South Bay area around Fire Island said he was, "extremely concerned about the continuous oil pollution damage, done by various barges and tankers or terminal facilities this past year." "It has hurt our beaches and the quality of our water considerably," Johnson said.

"Too often," he continued, "there is no follow-up with cleaning after a spill or seepage. If there is a clean-up there is no special arrangement on funding, and more than likely, the public, through local government gets stuck with the tab." Johnson explained that another problem is the state or local government many times must go to court to obtain damage monies, and this is a tedious process sometimes taking months.

Johnson, an insurance executive, suggested that a $500,000 registered "clean-up" bond which could be posted by the company or a bonding firm, would be a form of public insurance against possible future accidents or carelessness. "It would be a healthy step to speed environmental restoration in the event of another Long Island oil pollution disaster," he said.

Average Family Income

Average family income was $14,632 in Nassau County, New York in 1969, compared with $10,617 for the State, according to a report on the 1970 census by the Bureau of the Census, U.S. Department of Commerce. Per capita income for the county amounted to $4,684, the report shows.

The 1970 census counted 1,428,077 residents in the county; 8 percent were foreign born and 28 percent native born with one or both parents of foreign birth.

Among the county's 1,330,088 inhabitants age 5 and over in 1970, 161,182 were living in a different county within the State in 1965, and 30,631 in a different State.

In the population age 16 and over, 81 percent of the men and 40 percent of the women were in the labor force. Among the employed, 65 percent were holding white collar jobs, and 17 percent were government workers.

About 35 percent of the married women with husband present were in the labor force, and 14 percent of these wives had children under six.

There were 468,477 persons 3 to 34 years old enrolled in school. In the 25-and-older population, 56 percent of the men and 65 percent of the women were high school graduates.

30 Million Inoculated

Latest figures reveal some 30 million children have been inoculated against German measles in a "Stop Rubella" program launched in 1969 shortly after licensing of the first rubella vaccine. In making the announcement, Harold Jay Greenberg (Hewlett Harbor), president of United Cerebral Palsy Association of Nassau County, pointed out that development of the vaccine stemmed from a collaborative research project in which the UCP Foundation participated.

Greenberg said the link between German measles and cerebral palsy is a direct one, since there is a high incidence of brain damage in children born to mothers having contracted German measles during pregnancy. The current massive public inoculation campaign is targeted at reaching some 50 million children in their pre-pubertal years so that this type of measles effectively would become a thing of the past.

Greenberg said an informative folder, "Two Kinds of Measles," is available free of charge by sending requests to the CP Center for Living, 380 Washington Ave., Roosevelt, or by telephoning the Center at 378-2000, extension 812.

TEN PERCENT MORE - That's what disabled veterans receiving compensation will get in their September checks. It's all provided for under Public Law 92-328 recently approved by Congress. The new law provides, too, for a $150 clothing allowance for veterans wearing prosthetic appliances. Man-made arms and legs are miraculous but they're rough on clothing. This allowance will help offset the extra wear and tear they cause. The law provides, too, that peace-time rates of compensation for service-incurred disabilities will be equalized with those of war-time veterans in July 1973. Presently peacetime veterans compensation rate is 80 percent of war-time rates. You can get more details on these and other provisions of the new law by contacting the local counseling center of the New York State Division of Veterans' Affairs. It's located at 320 Old Country Road, Garden City.

CHILDREN OF POW'S & MIA's are now eligible for New York State Regents Scholarship Awards. Chapter 698 of the Laws of 1972 provide for awards of $450 annually for four academic years (five, if enrolled in a five-year course) to children of servicemen listed either as prisoners of war or missing in action. Of course, the parent must have been a legal resident of New York State when he entered the service. Get complete details from your local New York State Division of Veterans' Affairs counseling center.

Welcome To Our World

Last Thursday July 27th, highlighting the opening ceremonies of the Galileo Lodge Sons of Italy No. 2253 was guest speaker Congressman Norman Lent. He presented to Venerable Joseph Giordano, on behalf of the members an American Flag with a certified certificate that the flag actually flew over the U.S. Capital. His words of good wishes and encouragement were well received by over 400 members and their wives at the Lodge on Levittown, Pk'way, Hicksville.

Many dignitaries offered their words of praise for the newest fraternal organization in Nassau County, just 10 months old and already enjoying over 400 members strong - 40 joined on opening night. Galileo Lodge is fast becoming No. 1 organization in Nassau County.

New York State OSI Grand Venerable P. Vincent Landi, Grand Deputy Venerable Thomas Burracello and National Supreme Trustee Joseph Nigro joined members in applause and appreciation as State Senator Ralph Marino said, our organization would extend great benefits to the community. Town of Oyster Bay Supervisor John W. Burke told the members he was proud to be there and join with us for such an auspicious occasion.

Councilman Joseph Saladino from Oyster Bay read a proclamation declaring Galileo Lodge No. 2253 to be the first lodge of Sons of Italy organized in the Hicksville area. Then newly appointed Judge of the Family Court, Martin Ginsberg said in truly Italian fashion, "Buono Fortuna".

Hon. Joseph H. Driscoll Jr., Second Deputy Executive, represented Nassau County Executive Ralph G. Caso, Philip Healey Assemblyman from Massapequa and the Hon. Frank Altieri Judge of the Nassau County Court rounded out the executive, Legislature and Judiciary.

One of the biggest ovations came as the Galileo Lodges "Man of the Year", big Ron Angelo "Ange" Roncallo Nassau County Comptroller was introduced. Big Ron ennobled the gathering, apparently exuberant over his coming victory in the election race for Congress in the newly created fourth Congressional District.

Among those seated at the ceremonies were many local distinguished persons. Gerald Trotta, Republican Leader of Hicksville and Lodge Trustee, Doctor Charles Artale, Republican Co - Executive Leader of Plainview, Sam Weiss, Hicksville Fire District, Pat Buffalino Mayor of Westbury and representing the Ancient Order of Hibernians were Past President George Harding along with Jim Cummings.

Fraternal Organizations and Brother Lodges paying tribute to the Galileo Lodge were Columbus Lodge (Mass.), Verdi Lodge (Syosset), Paca Lodge (W. Babylon), Glen Cove (Glen Cove), Elks, K. of C., V.F.W., A.L., Kiwanis (Hicksville & Plainview).

Also represented was the Durazzano Society Ito America (Westbury) with many other civic and fraternal societies too numerous to mention.

Refreshments, buffet style was served while the Peggy O'Connor School of Dance and Music entertained. There were acrobats, dancing girls and the Choral Group from Holy Family Church singing under the direction of Tom O'Connor.

As the American Flag was positioned in its respectful place of honor, Venerable Joe Giordano expressed the wish that, "all America extend to our Nation's Flag the same respect given by members of the Sons of Italy".

Ice Capades' Summer Show At Coliseum

BRITISH COMIC TERRY HEAD does a wild salute to all Scottish clans as he does a "Highland Thing of a Fling" in the colorful and exciting Ice Capades making a summer debut at the Nassau Coliseum in Uniondale, L.I., for 14 performances August 24th through September 3rd. The opening night performance is a benefit for the United Fund of Long Island, at regular prices.

Summer heat got you down? Relief is on its way! The coolest show in town glides into New York on August 24 when the colorful and exciting Ice Capades opens at the new Nassau County Coliseum, Uniondale, L.I. The opening performance, at regular prices, will benefit the United Fund of Long Island, which supports over ninety other, non-profit organizations in Nassau and Suffolk Counties.

Playing 14 performances through September 3rd, Ice Capades boasts a shinning array of skating stars who delight and amaze audiences with their skills on ice. Among the headliners is comic Terry Head, who has been clowning his way into the hearts of fans since he joined Ice Capades in 1964.

A former ice hockey player, Terry finds comedy skating more challenging. "It's very rewarding," he says. "I like to make people laugh. Usually 90 percent of my act will please any audience in any city, but if I know of something local, I'll ad lib a little."

Terry, whose diminutive size (he's 5'4") and long red hair are his trademarks, likes to talk as he skates. "I'm a real chatterbox; my voice is loud and clear. I talk as much as I skate because talking brings me closer to the audience."

Appearing on the bill with Terry are Julie Holmes, whose face and form are familiar to all who watched the Sapporo Olympics on TV; Michelle and Ewell, the first black professional pair skaters; Gisela; and Roy and Sandy Wagelein.

Tickets are available by mail order and from the Nassau Coliseum box office which opens August 7.

Group sales requests should be directed to the Nassau Coliseum, Uniondale, N.Y. 11550. For further information, please contact Leo Loeb or Larry Keller at 516-794-9530.

St. Ignatius Juniors Finish 16 Wins - 2 Losses

St. Ignatius Jrs. finished a long tough season by winning their last 3 games with the unbeatable combination of running, hitting, pitching and fielding.

They first took on St. Mary's of Roslyn on July 22nd and won 10-1, behind the 1 hit pitching of Gerard Stry. Stry was helped by 13 base hits and errorless defense. Collecting two hits apiece were Principe, Deluvio, Muller and Stry who led the St. Ignatius attack. Stry struck out 6 and walked only 2 in the five 7 inning stint.

Later in the day the Jrs. travelled to East Rockaway and played the strong St. Raymond's ball club. Behind the strong pitching of Frank Principe, combined with the finest display of base running and bunting, the Jrs. beat St. Raymond's 7-3. Principe pitched the finest game of his 12 wins with excellent control and complete command of his fast ball. The Jrs. were busy little ball players taking advantage of every little mistake St. Raymond's made. This victory the Jrs. knew they had to have to keep in the running for the Diocesan Championship. This win was one they could really be proud of.

This Wednesday, July 26th, the Jrs. beat a strong St. Pius X team from Plainview 6-3.

The game, marred by wildness of both pitchers, turned into a defensive battle with 9 base runners being thrown out on the base paths, with heads up fielding by both teams. St. Ignatius caught three St. Pius men between 3rd base and home and two men advancing from second to third. With the score 2-1 in the 4th inning, J. Johnston on 2nd base, G. Stry lined a double to right center scoring Johnston. Stry then scored on a double by Frank Principe. St. Pius came back to make the score 4-3 with two runs in the 5th inning. The score remained that way until the last of the sixth. Then with Robert O'Connor on 1st base, R. Muller lined a triple to right. He then scored on a single by Paul Rupp making the score 6-3. This proved to be enough to aid Principe in gaining his 13th win. Principe who only allowed two hits while walking 9. This was an unusual display of wildness for this fine young pitcher.

St. Ignatius must now wait until St. Raymond's 14-2 and St. Joseph's 14-2 play their final two games against each other. If the two teams split, St. Ignatius will win its first Diocesan Championship in 8 years. If one of the teams sweep, there will be a play-off game with the victor, St. Ignatius stands 2-0 with St. Raymond's and 1-1 with St. Joseph's of Kings Park.

National Dart League To Sponsor Party

A free Pimm's Party, sponsored by the National Dart League, will be held at The Jolly Swagman Inn, 100 West Nicholas Street, Hicksville, on Thursday, August 10, 1972 from 6 - 10 PM.

A free Pimm's Party, sponsored by the National Dart League, will be held at The Jolly Swagman Inn, 100 West Nicholas Street, Hicksville, on Thursday, August 10, 1972 from 6 - 10 PM.

All who enjoy good fun and darts are invited to attend this "practice session" for a nationwide search for an all-star three-man (or woman) dart team to represent this country in England, according to John Guilfoyle, Executive Director of the National Dart League.

Details will be given at the party on how to enter a Regional Playoff in September where darters will compete for an all-expense-paid trip to London for the winner and a guest.

Dart instruction will be provided, and Pimm's, the refreshing British cooler, will be served. Attractive TWA hostesses will be at The Jolly Swagman to help serve and sign up players for free membership in the National Dart League.

"Creation of the League and its decision to sponsor the national competition for the International Pimm's Cup Trophy was spurred by the mounting wave of interest in darts nationwide, not only as a competitive sport, but as a pleasant and relaxed social activity, especially among young adults," said Mr. Guilfoyle.

In this country, as in England - its historic place of origin - the game is played increasingly in neighborhood pubs and inns although dart boards in recreation and family rooms are becoming prerequisites for well furnished homes of sports minded families.

Following "warm-up" sessions to be held coast-to-coast during the Spring and Summer months, three regional play-offs will be staged during September in Los Angeles, New York, Chicago, and San Francisco.

The regional finalists will comprise the U. S. champion team which will represent the United States in October's British Classic in London against the English champs for the Pimm's Cup.

During the next six months, the National Dart League, Ltd. will issue newsletters to advise members across the nation regarding local area finalists, scores and other information related to this country's darts-throwing quest for the International Pimm's Cup Trophy.

Competition for places on the national team is open to all men and women, members of the National Dart League, Ltd., 21 years and older.

Beauty of Sea Shells

An interesting time was had by Friendship Club members, at a spring meeting held at the United Methodist Church of Hicksville, N.Y.

Mrs. Ruth Walker, guest for the day, gave a short lecture on the beauty of sea shells and their unity between God man and nature. On display were shells from Africa, India, China, Australia, Easter Islands and Pacific and Mediterranean areas. Also shell craft articles were displayed.

The cloth of gold pen shell is the latest gift to the Walker Shell Museum from Tom and Florence Jurzenia and family owners of Silversands Motel Greenport L.I.

These beautiful pen shells discharge slowly through pores, a sticky substance. When exposed to the air and light, this byssus is found to be formed of valuable fine golden like fibers. Some manufacturers of Mediterranean countries where Pinna Nobilis still exists, make stockings, gloves and other articles of extreme fineness from cloth of gold threads.

It has been said, during the Crusades, Crusaders wore clothing from the byssus of the Pen Shell.

Once again - this article was run to educate our residents and alert them to dangers that may exist in their own homes. It is not meant to scare anyone. If there are any questions, please forward them to me at the Marie St. Headquarters, and we will try to help you. Capt. O.W. Magree.

Hicksville Student Gains By Summer Program

Frank Policastro, of 13 Maglie Drive, Hicksville, might say he's having a highly unusual summer. Frank is one of a select eight college grads in the Town of Oyster Bay selected for the town's Intern program, designed to give young people a chance to work in government during the summer, a program introduced in 1970 by Supervisor John Burke.

According to Town Hall, the eight were selected from over 130 applicants because of their marked academic ability and their interest in scholastic and community life.

The recipient of a B.A. in Spanish from Hofstra University this June, Frank was a 1968 graduate of Hicksville High School. He plans to study for a Master's Degree in Latin American area studies at Georgetown University beginning this fall. Ultimately, he would like to work for the government in Latin American cultural affairs.

Now helping Donald A. Kehoe, Public Information Director and his staff at the Public Information office at Town Hall, Frank's job has been to capsule the town departments and their effectiveness as an aid to reporters and others seeking information on town operations. To date, he has completed a research project on housing units for families and senior citizens, and has been cataloging the effectiveness of the beach and park program.

"What I like best about the program is getting to go to the Supervisors' meetings in Mineola on Monday and to the Town Board meetings here at Town Hall," says Frank. "you really can get to know government works." Frank also appreciates the opportunity to speak with and question county and town officials on questions of government.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Policastro, Frank has a sister, Margherite, a freshman at St. John's university, and a brother, Cosmo, 17, a senior at Hicksville High School.

Frank's dad is the proprietor of Vinny's Barber Shop at 339 Jerusalem, where, according to Frank, "business is picking up" because of new hair styling techniques.

Other college graduates in the program working in various town departments are Robert Ackerman, 21, of Plainview, Joel Behar, 22, Bayville, Ellen Donahue, 22, Locust Valley; Kathy Friedman, 21, Massapequa; Robert McKay, 17, Oyster Bay; Elizabeth Weekes, 21, Oyster Bay; Martin Weisberg, 21, Jericho.

Six of the students are paid $100 a week for ten weeks, beginning June 15. Two of the students, Robert Ackerman and Kathy Friedman, who have participated in past summer programs, are paid $100 a week and help with the administration of the program.

A high-speed electronic mail sorting system utilizing ZIP Codes will be implemented in 40 major postal facilities within the next year under a continuing effort to improve mail service, the U.S. Postal Service announced today.

This will bring to 190 the number of such systems in use nationwide. When all units are operational, a greater volume of letter mail will be mechanically processed, resulting in an annual cost savings of approximately $76 million.

Each unit combines the functions of a multi-position letter sorting machine and a solid state computer, called a ZIP Mail Translator, into a single operation which permits ZIP Coded letter mail to be instantly sorted into 277 destination bin locations.

In addition to sorting by ZIP Codes, the new system can sort mail by nine other categories ranging from air mail to special delivery and from uncoded mail to letters destined for foreign countries.

The program is part of an accelerated effort to fully mechanize postal operations and will permit sorting of letter mail exclusively by ZIP Code, which now appears on approximately 80 per cent of the nation's letter mail.

The systems are being manufactured by Maxson Electronics Corporation of Great River, Long Island, New York. The corporation was awarded the $7 million contract last year as a result of competitive bidding.

Production deliveries are scheduled to begin in September 1972.

Postal facilities receiving the systems are: Baltimore, Maryland; Birmingham, Alabama; Bronx, New York; Boston, Massachusetts; Buffalo, New York; Camden, New Jersey; Charlotte, North Carolina; Cleveland, Ohio; Cincinnati, Ohio; Dallas, Texas; Denver, Colorado; Hicksville, New York;

Houston, Texas; Greensburg, Pennsylvania; Miami, Florida; Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Nashville, Tennessee; New Brunswick, New Jersey; New York City (General Post Office); New York City (Church Street); New York City (Kennedy Air Mail Facility); Northern Virginia Facility; Orlando, Florida.

Paterson, New Jersey; Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; Poughkeepsie, New York; Roanoke, Virginia; Rochester, New York; St. Louis, Missouri; San Bernardino, California; San Diego, California; San Juan, Puerto Rico; San Jose, California; Takoma, Washington; Tallahassee, Florida; Washington, D.C.; Westchester, New York; Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania; and Wilmington, Delaware.

Fourteen additional surface mail routes will be operational by July 1, 1972 to help speed surface mail across the nation, the U.S. Postal Service announced today.

The new highway and rail routes will bring to 74 the total number of service routes operating between major cities in the Postal Service's new preferential surface mail network.

The network has been implemented to improve delivery services of all preferential items which include special delivery and special handling parcels, perishables, newspapers, magazines and other time-value items.

The main purpose of each route is to reduce transit time, to provide a regular scheduled movement of mail shipments between major metropolitan areas, and to protect perishable items in transit.

The network has a computer-based traffic control system which enables postal management to monitor all mail movement by truck or rail from the time a shipment departs its point of origin until it arrives at its destination.
