School Board Meeting

By Shirley Smith

At last Friday's meeting of the Hicksville School Board, Dr. Harry Kershen, former board president, was presented with a plaque in recognition of his service as a school board trustee.

A challenge of the chair by William Bruno led to a lengthy and heated argument between Mr. Bruno and Thomas Clark, board president. Mr. Bruno said certain items he requested to be placed on the September 30 agenda never appeared. He criticized Mr. Clark for deleting them (policy matters, what Mr. Bruno termed "unauthorized" expenses of board members and a book entitled, Ten Top Stories.) Mr. Clark said he had not deleted anything, but did not feel the items Mr. Bruno spoke of should appear on the agenda. The "battle" was not settled, but dissipated and the meeting proceeded with its agenda.

The twenty minutes allotted to the general public was extended to an hour, with most of the comments and questions centering on one agenda item: "The Board will be asked to consider certain aspects of the Foreign Language Program."

Mr. Joseph Giordano, representing the Galileo Galilei Lodge of the Sons of Italy, asked that more information about plans for the foreign language program be made available to the public. He said many rumors were circulating and he felt the fact should be clarified. He invited the board, administration and the public to an open forum on the foreign language program to be held at the Sons of Italy Lodge on Levittown Parkway, Thursday, October 26 at 8 P.M.

Eugene Edelstein asked if the board is planning to change the foreign language program and if so, why. He asked what criteria the board was using to evaluate the program and any proposed changes. No answers were given, but he was told it would come up later on the agenda.

A letter from Hicksville Council of PTA Units was read into the minutes. Council supports the continuation of foreign language at the first grade with continuing evaluation of the program and also a provision for entry into the program at the fourth grade level.

Mrs. Irene Gitlin said she had studied various reports on the foreign language program, primarily the Flanagan Report of 1967, which she understood the board was using in their considerations of foreign language. She brought out that this study was made for the Hackensack, N.J. School District and on checking with them, she found they now consider the Flanagan Report outdated. Mrs. Gitlin said that foreign language starts during kindergarten in Hackensack and the school district is pleased with the program. She reminded the board of the many rewards Hicksville's foreign language program has received, a report of it appearing on an Eric Sevareid program in 1968 and the money which the Ford Foundation has put into it.

Several parents from Lee Avenue School also spoke about the foreign language program and questioned whether the board plans to start it at the first grade level this year. A parent from East Street School read a letter she had received from Mrs. Vera Galante, foreign language supervisor. The letter stated that Dr. Jerome Niosi, superintendent, had advised Mrs. Galante there would be no foreign language in first grade this year, rather the emphasis would be on reading and speech.

In answer to other questions about the foreign language program, Mr. Clark said, "There is no elimination going on." The school board later voted unanimously to table any suggested changes in the program until the November 10 meeting, at which time more information will have been given to board members and they will have had time to discuss foreign language. Dr. Niosi said the schools will begin testing first graders now so there will be no delay in the program if the board votes to continue it as is. The superintendent has recommended that foreign language not start until fourth grade.

Other matters came before the school board during the public session. This reporter again asked for a report from the Superintendent Selection Committee, and was told that the information would be available at the next meeting. We also asked the board to set up policy which would allow them to purchase cafeteria foods elsewhere if the contracted provider fails to deliver or has a labor strike. There has been a problem with milk delivery in the districts' cafeterias for the past month. The board voted to send a letter cancelling the current contract with Sealtest, on advice of counsel, as of October 20.

Mrs. Barbara Rosman asked again about the Hofstra study. She requested that the board give a "more substantial answer than sometime in the future it will be brought before the public." Mr. Clark said copies of the report are in the Curriculum Materials Center. The board is still going over it in study sessions.

Mrs. Mary Carton asked why a letter she had sent the superintendent was not received by board members. Dr. Niosi said it was addressed to him and therefore was not forwarded. He added that any letter addressed to the board president or the board as a whole will be forwarded to all trustees.

During the portion of the meeting set aside for individual board members, Neil McCormack objected to memos regarding any suggested curriculum changes coming from anyone but Dr. John Cadden, assistant superintendent. He said this is his job and should not be taken over by anyone else. Dr. Niosi said these decisions are arrived at by the four top administrators and therefore memos could come from any one of them.

Mr. McCormack also questioned whether people living outside Hicksville were serving as substitute teachers here. Previously, he said, these positions were given to Hicksville residents who were qualified for the job. He asked for a list of all substitutes and their addresses. Robert Pirrung asked that the list also include those who held these jobs last year.

Mr. McCormack questioned whether new teachers are interviewed by the principal of the school where they will be working, prior to hiring. Dr. Niosi said that though this was the policy in past years, it is difficult to follow such a rigid plan, because the building principal may be on vacation at the time of hiring. He added that the principal does not determine which teachers shall be hired, unless administration concurs with his choice. In answer to another of Mr. McCormack's questions, Dr. Niosi said all individualized instruction teachers receive in-service training.

Robert Pirrung moved that Jack Meller (formerly assistant principal at Old Country Road School and now working as the district's purchasing agent) be sent to the Junior High to replace Dr. Richard Browne, who left his post as assistant principal to take a principal's job in Plainledge. Also included in the motion was that one of the assistant principals at the Junior High be sent to the High School to replace Mr. James Jones, who will be assuming a principalship in Long Beach. Dr. Niosi objected to this "direct involvement of the board with administration." He feels the district has been overstaffed in administration for years, suggesting there only be one assistant principal for each one thousand students. Dr. Niosi added that Richard Weigand, business manager, has been revising purchasing procedures and needs someone who is familiar with curriculum. Mr. Meller is so qualified. The board voted to table Mr. Pirrung's motion until they receive Mr. Weigand's report and the outcome of his interviews with candidates for purchasing agent.

William Bruno moved that the district take steps to get reimbursement from Mr. McCormack for expenses incurred by his wife at a school board convention. Mr. McCormack said the district was to have deducted these costs from his own bill (which was paid by the district) and then send him a bill for what he owed. However, the total bill was sent. Then the district's records of the expenses were lost and it took some time to figure out the correct charges. He added that he has drawn a check for the amount he owes, so the district is reimbursed. Mr. Bruno said he was not on a vendetta against Mr. McCormack, but against irregularities which have occurred in past years. Mr. McCormack said he wanted Mr. Bruno to reimburse the district (at 75 cents per copy) for all the copies of various records he has made.

Mr. Bruno moved that the district investigate all expenses of past board members and get payments owed to the district. This motion was defeated, 4-3. Voting yes: Bello, Bruno, Pappas; voting no: Pirrung, Clark, McCormack, Zindulka.

The board approved the September 28 payroll and various routine expenses of the district. A list of foreign language and language arts textbooks, new to the district, was defeated because no backup sheets (on the content, who had recommended the books, etc.) were provided to the school board prior to the meeting. The board approved an additional part-time physical education teacher and the replacement of an adult education teacher, despite Mr. Bruno's complaint that the latter is for an "illegal" program unless adult education is self-

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

At the recent School Board meeting (S.D. 17) October 13th., Venerable Joseph Giordano of Galileo Lodge No. 2253 (Sons of Italy) put into public record the following letter.

Dear Sirs:

This letter is addressed to all members of the School Board.

At a regular meeting of our Lodge held last night, it was brought to our attention that this Board proposes to discontinue teaching foreign languages; specifically, Italian, Spanish and French. The meeting was attended by in excess of 200 members. Not one person, however, had sufficient knowledge as to the details of the proposal. It is our opinion that a similar situation prevails throughout the school district. In view of the lack of information, we recommend that this proposal be tabled until the taxpayers of the district have had an opportunity to be fully informed.

In order that the members of this Board have an opportunity to provide the information and avoid further controversy over the issue, the Galileo Galilei Lodge invites each member of this Board and the School Superintendent, Dr. Jerome Niosi, to attend an open forum to be held on October 26, 1972, at 8:00 p.m. at our Lodge located at 200 Levittown Parkway, Hicksville, N.Y.

We shall also invite the taxpayers and other fraternal organizations of the district to attend in order that they may likewise be informed as to the purpose and intent of the proposal.

We shall appreciate your acceptance to participate in this forum for we believe it to be in the best interests of the entire community.

Sincerely yours,
Joseph A. Giordano
Venerable

Venerable Joseph Giordano now invites Trustees, PTA, Civic and Fraternal Organizations and Parents as well as Lodge members to attend the open house forum at the Galileo Lodge (above date and time.)

At a subsequent interview Venerable Joseph Giordano said that our lodge (Sons of Italy), has taken this step in the best interest of the children of our community.

PTA of Nassau Plans Annual Fall Conference

More than 600 PTA members representing 350 units and councils in Nassau County plan to attend the Annual Fall Conference of the Nassau District PTA to be held Thursday, October 19, at 7:30 PM in the East Meadow High School on Carmen Ave. in East Meadow.

According to Mrs. Bea Feinberg of Bethpage, Conference Coordinator, there will be a brief business meeting with Mrs. Mariel Berk of Woodmere, District Director presiding. Mrs. Muni Elin and Mrs.

Natalie Zimmerman both of Malverne, Workshop Coordinators, have arranged for 28 workshops. The workshops will be led by PTA Officers, Chairmen and Professional Advisers. Off special interest is the workshop for Superintendent and Principals dealing with the "New Look of PTA".

Mrs. Dorothy Butterman, Registration Chairman advises that pre-registration forms may be obtained by contacting PTA unit and council presidents. The registration fee is $1.00.

President To Attend Nassau GOP Rally

President Nixon will be the special guest at this year's Nassau County Republican Committee Campaign Rally to be held October 23 at the Nassau County Veterans' Memorial Coliseum, announced Assemblyman Joseph M. Margiotta, Nassau Republican Chairman.

"We are very proud to be among the very few political rallies that the President will attend before Election Day," the Uniondale Legislator said.

The rally is scheduled to begin at approximately 7 p.m. and is expected to attract supporters from all parts of Long Island. "There is little doubt that the Coliseum will be filled," Margiotta predicted.

More than 20,000 tickets for the rally will be distributed and only ticket holders will be admitted to prevent the size of the crowd from going beyond the legal limits of the Coliseum.

There will be 15 marching bands at the rally and many communities on Long Island have started making arrangements for chartered buses to transport Nixon supporters to and from the rally.

Last week the President's son-in-law, Edward Finch Cox, spent the day on Long Island speaking before Senior Citizens, Lions and Rotary Club members, a class of high school students and about 400 Young Republicans and Teen Age Republicans.

Landfill Discussed

The proposed landfill site in Plainview bordering on the northside of the Long Island Expressway came up for discussion at the Town Meeting on Tuesday, at the end of the stated agenda.

Mrs. Rose Kester, well-known East Norwich resident, addressed the Board with the opinion that it had not sufficiently pursued the acquisition of a preferred landfill site in Old Bethpage presently owned by the county.

As noted, the Town had requested permission of the County to use the property; however, the County denied the Town's request because the property had been purchased with State funds allocated for park use. It was felt that an act of the State legislature was needed to grant the Town its request.

According to Supervisor John Burke, in response to Mrs. Kester's remarks, such action by the legislature, the outcome of which is uncertain, could not take place until next year, at which time the Town would be near a waste disposal crisis.

Dinner at Roosevelt Raceway

Supervisor JOHN W. BURKE REPORTS

During the past few weeks, there have been several misconceptions reported in the press concerning the proposed landfill-park project, which is the subject of a Town referendum on Election Day, Nov. 7.

The first concerns the selection of the Plainview site. This was not done arbitrarily, nor as a favor for anyone. After considerable study and evaluation by State and Town sanitary engineers, as well as a professional consulting firm, the Plainview site was found to be the only available site that meets the needs of our solid waste disposal program.

The Nassau County Comprehensive Solid Waste Study made by Teeter-Dobbins, consulting engineers, pointed out that, even with improved incineration methods, the Town of Oyster Bay will still require 2,900 acre-feet of landfill space for inert incinerator residue and unburnable materials to meet its needs through 1985.

Subsequently, at the request of the Town, the New York State Environmental Facilities Corporation (EFC) and the consulting firm of William F. Cosulich Associates conducted a study of possible landfill sites in Oyster Bay. Their report outlined four possible locations deserving further consideration.

The first choice that met the criteria included a 43-acre parcel adjacent to the present landfill in Old Bethpage plus a supplementary 11-acre piece in Farmingdale. The 43-acre parcel is owned by Nassau County, and extensive negotiations were conducted with the County for its acquisition. However, since the County had purchased this property with funds from a parkland bond issue, it was the opinion of the County Attorney, based on holdings of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court and of the State Comptroller, that this land could not be used for landfill purposes. This, of course, also eliminated the Farmingdale site as a feasible acquisition.

This left the 65-acre site in Plainview as the only one that meets the Town's requirements. It has the necessary capacity (2,900 acre-feet) and the required amount of cover material. Its topography, with a large surface area-to-depth ratio, lends itself to efficient landfill operations. Its location is within reasonable proximity to the Old Bethpage incinerators with adequate distances from developed residential areas. It is readily accessible from the L.I. Expressway service road.

The remaining site suggested in the Environmental Facilities Corporation study was the 29-acre Izzo sandpit in East Norwich. However, it was found to have insufficient capacity, a topography that would make landfill operations extremely hazardous and inefficient, the added expense of trucking in cover material, and close proximity to residential areas. It would mean large additional expenses in man and vehicle hours and further congestion on local roads to transport the incinerator residue over the 15-mile route.

Our selection of the Plainview site was based on a thorough engineering study, careful analysis of our solid waste problem and the possible solutions available now. If the voters approve the bond issue, the price of the property will be settled by the courts in condemnation proceedings - not through negotiations with the owner. The decision was not political; it was hard-nosed and pragmatic. Recommending the expenditure of some $6 million for any project is not done capriciously, and can hardly be considered a bid for popularity. It is an action deemed necessary in the best interests of all our Townspeople.

TOB Collection Of Bagged Leaves

For the second consecutive year, the Town is offering free collection of bagged leaves to residents in unincorporated areas of Oyster Bay, according to Town Supervisor John W. Burke. The program, which began on October 1, will continue through December 1.

"Since 1967, the disposal of fallen leaves has been a problem

MRS. BARBARA WALLING AND MISS DOROTHY HUSKIEWICZ, both on the Senior High School staff have participated in the intensified "peer group" training program. This program was conducted by Mr. Jack Stebbins and Mr. Michael Koss of the Bureau of Guidance, State Education Department in conjunction with Stony Brook University along with Mr. Michael Taramella and Mr. Arthur Coccaro, Health and Narcotic Educators staff members.

The first two days of training were held on September 30 and October 1, 1972. In accordance with the response to several questions put to the Narcotic Education Specialists, the training proved to be of great value in the crystallization of the programs and techniques put before them. The remaining two days of training were held on October 14 and 15, 1972 at the Sunwood Estate at Stony Brook. A banquet followed in honor of the Narcotic Education Specialists whereupon Certificates of Merit were awarded to them.

primarily due to a pollution ordinance which restricted the burning of leaves in many communities," Burke explained.

"The bagging program implemented last year alleviated much of this problem and the Town Board felt it was worth repeating."

He added that an estimated one million plastic bags of leaves were collected last fall through the coordinated efforts of the highway, park, beach and sanitation divisions of the Town Department of Public Works.

To participate in the program, residents in the affected areas should collect and bag fallen leaves and place them at the curb for pickup by the Public Works unit assigned. On the regular garbage day, a maximum of four bags will be picked up and, on rubbish day, a maximum of eight. This will afford residents an opportunity to dispose of leaves three times a week.

Burke noted that the Highway Division will still maintain its normal clean-up of the almost 700 miles of roads in the Town. He said that in case of a drastic weather change resulting in an especially abundant amount of fallen leaves, pickups would be increased to accommodate the overflow.

LENT ADDRESSES POSTAL UNION: Congressman Norman Lent was the featured speaker at the recent meeting of the Hicksville Local of the American Postal Workers' Union earlier this month. Reviewing the group's legislative proposals with the Congressman is Seymour Shiryas, Director of Legislation for the Hicksville postal group.

'HEY—LET'S PUT ON THE BRAKES FIRST!'

Cost Cutting

There are numerous proposals being presented to Congress for "reforming" the federal tax system. Recently, the Ways and Means Committee proposed to set termination dates for fifty-four provisions of the Internal Revenue Code to ensure review of all so-called tax preferences.

Business confidence would be severely shaken by such a procedure, even if the provisions were re-enacted. Similarly, individuals would face great uncertainty in making their own plans. Tax reform consideration can be assured effectively without setting termination dates. This was done in 1969.

The real problem remains-unfettered growth in government spending. It makes more sense to set termination dates for various spending programs than for tax provisions.

Holiday Schedules At The Post Office

Hicksville Postmaster Ralph G. Cascardo announced that the Hicksville Post Office and its stations and branches will follow regular holiday schedules on Monday, October 23, 1972, Veterans' Day.

No regular window or delivery services will be available on Veterans' Day, but Special Delivery services will be provided. The Main Post Office Lobby will remain open for access to lock boxes and the Self Service Postal Unit.

Collections from street letterboxes will be on holiday schedules and will include pickups from "Air Mail Only" boxes and "Next Day Service".

PLEASE NOTE: The Self Service Postal Unit located at the Hicksville Main Office is never closed.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mrs. Noeth:
I read with interest, your editorial of October 12. For whatever it is worth, it deserves an answer.

We certainly hope the residents of Oyster Bay do sit up and for once be fully informed as to what I consider is the latest insult to their intelligence. No one in opposition to this referendum is advocating the "export" of garbage. The only "export" we do advocate is to a more logical site. We have stated all along that the solid waste disposal problem is very real. However, one of the many problems we find with this proposal is the town sticks to the archaic idea of "burn and bury."

I consider it absurd on your part and an insult to your readers to state "without a new place." There are places... as stated in the Town's own Sanitary Landfill Report of 1971 at far less costs to the taxpayers, and yet serving the same purpose.

As for your paragraph with regard to the courts deciding the price:

1. When did the Town make the final decision that the courts would determine the price? After more than 7,000 petitions were filed with the Town,

2. The courts don't always rule in favor of towns, as is the case of North Hempstead vs the Port Washington Sand Pits. The Town ended up the loser! This could happen to the Town of Oyster Bay.

I say to you, Mrs. Noeth, and your readers, you show your real lack of concern for the residents when you ask your readers to vote in favor of something that will cost them more than most could probably afford and never once will they have to use your imaginary alternatives.

Yours truly,
Mrs. Carole Fishmen President
Greater Plainview Community Assoc.
EDITOR'S NOTE: In the Oct. 12th issue of THE HERALD, three columns of page three were devoted to a lengthy report of your organization's press conference and that of Supvr. Burke, by Mrs. Gosnell, an experienced, professional writer. I consider this to be fair, lengthy and impartial.

Let us not descend to personal name calling on this matter, which is simply a difference of opinion. The facts lead me to the conclusion that we must act as soon as possible and rely on the courts of our country for a fair decision. You disagree... an opinion to which you are certainly entitled and to which much space has already been given in this newspaper. However, I still print your letter.

Now, if the facts, as they actually exist are understood by enough people to pass this referendum, we will go forward as I believe we should. If not, we will explore alternatives and "exporting" garbage will become a distinct possibility in about fourteen months, according to the experts surveying this very real problem.

Whatever the outcome, where does it say in our Constitution that we may not differ honestly, sincerely and perhaps even courteously?

Dear Mrs. Noeth:
After visiting Nevada for three weeks, I would like to have someone explain to me why there is so much difference in taxes between N.Y.S. and Nevada. For a split-level house—4 bedrooms, 3 full baths, family—living—laundry rooms, kitchen and garage, the taxes come to (hold on to your hats) $300 a year. This includes everything—school, town and county tax. There is no state income tax and only a 3 per cent sales tax. $300 wouldn't pay the taxes on a good-size doghouse in this state. The slogan, N.Y.S. Land of Taxes sure hits the nail on the head. Just stop and figure how long you have to work just to pay property taxes—three, four or maybe more months a year. This doesn't include all those so-called nuisance taxes. It's just getting almost impossible to live in this state.

Nevada has legalized gambling which probably takes care of most of the taxes. If gambling is ever legalized in this state, do you think that it would make any difference! Not on your life! By the time these politicians got finished with the money realized from same, there wouldn't be much left. Do you realize how many patronage jobs would be handed out? What happened to the state lottery? When first advertised the money was to be used solely for education. Now it's going for everything and anything. What happened to the repeal of the so-called Hot Dog tax? We will never live long enough to ever see any tax repealed. Albany has already told us there will be no reduction in state income tax next year even though there is a good possibility of a surplus. It's tough getting along on $15.00 for about six months work!

Cost of running the T.O.B. is going up, more than 1 1/2 million. We still have to hear from our illustrious county executive in regards to county taxes. Wonder what he has up his sleeve for the coming year? Maybe he will hold the line this time—he is running for re-election next year. What really took the cake was his wanting to create 600 county jobs this summer! If he could come up with the money to pay for those jobs, why should there be an increase in taxes? We read what is going on in the city concerning patronage jobs. I think it is also being done in the town and county governments.

Before going to the polls to vote in Nov., figure out what it really costs you to live in this state, and what you are getting in return!

Motel Housing Count Lowered Says Caso

KNIGHTS CORNER: Oyster Bay Town Supervisor John W. Burke, (on ladder), officiates at recent ceremonies changing Heitz Place at Bay Avenue, Hicksville to Knights of Columbus Boulevard. With Burke are Reverend William Galloway, Council Chaplain and pastor of St. Paul the Apostle parish in Jericho, John McKenna, Grand Knight and Frank Klarmann, Knight, Deputy Grand Knight. The right, Deputy Grand Knight. The special observance held during October salutes the community involvement of the Council and its more than 700 members.

Nassau County Executive Ralph G. Caso updated the results of his administration's all-out effort to reduce the number of public assistance cases housed in motels and hotels with the announcement that the caseload has dropped to 147 - the lowest since early 1969.

"Last February, our campaign to reduce the motel housing count and the resulting high cost to taxpayers hit its first plateau when the number fell below 200 for the first time in two years," Caso observed. "We have been able to continue that downward trend through the combined effort of many people both in an out of county government."

The county executive pointed out that there also has been a significant decrease in the number of hotels and motels serving welfare clients.

"From a high of 30 the year before I took office, the number was decreased to 19 at the beginning of this year and stands at 14 today," he said.

Caso noted that one of the major accomplishments of the 1972 housing campaign was the Mid-Island Project, a program to relocate 28 welfare cases living in run-down quarters at a Westbury motel. Through the efforts of a task force organized by Social Services Commissioner James M. Stuart, all the families have been relocated in suitable housing.

"Not only has the task force done an outstanding job of relocation," Caso added, "but as a result of a service approach to each family involved, not one has returned to emergency housing."

Taxpayers benefit from the relocation of the 28 families because the county will save $113,000 this year in emergency housing payments to the motel, Caso pointed out.

The county's emergency housing population reached a peak of 347 in February of 1971, leading Caso to state in his first State of the County address that it was a "disgraceful situation that must be attacked headon." The caseload has been decreasing for the past 20 months.

This year, the Social Services Department, based on a projected caseload of 200, budgeted $3.5 million for emergency motel and hotel housing. As of Oct. 1, actual expenditures for such housing amounted to $2 million.

"With less than three months left in the year and the motel caseload down significantly, I expect we will spend well below the budgeted figure," Caso stated.

"Veterans Day"

Nassau County Executive Ralph G. Caso announced today that the county would once again host the Veterans Day services of the United Veterans Organization of Nassau.

The services will be held in Eisenhower Park on Sunday, October 22. Caso, and Angelo Nicosia, the chairman of the United Veterans Organization, have invited all veterans groups, their auxiliaries and junior units of the groups to attend with their colors. Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts units have also been invited to participate in the ceremonies.

The assembly time for the services will be at 10 AM at the Veterans Memorial. In the event of rain the service will be conducted in the Salisbury Club.

proceeds will benefit the Cerebral Palsy Center for Living, in Roosevelt."

On Oct. 20 and 21 flowers are to be sold at various locations within the business sector of each community. On the following day the students will conduct a door-to-door "giveaway" of carnations for voluntary donations.

School Board Meeting

sustaining as the board had approved it.

A request to approve library books new to the district was first approved, 4-3 (voting yes: Bello, McCormack, Pappas and Pirrung; voting no: Clark, Bruno and Zindulka). But Mr. Bruno moved to reconsider the library books and this passed, 4-3 (voting yes: Zindulka, Bello, Bruno and Clark; voting no: McCormack, Pappas and Pirrung). This negated the first vote and therefore the library books were not approved. During the discussion, Dr. Cadden listed the district's library sources for the

and General Literature Index, Standard Reference Items (World Almanac, etc.), curriculum oriented items found in subject bibliographies or standard lists such as the Library Journal, current topics of high interest, basic bibliographies and teachers and students. Mr. Bruno and Mr. Zindulka felt the name of the person selecting the library books should be listed so board members would know who is responsible. Mr. Bruno felt the name of the person selecting the library book should be listed so board members would know who is responsible. Mr. Zindulka said as much effort should go into the quality of library books as into the setting up of libraries.

The board did not approve the temporary hiring of Mainard Chittendon (retired attendance officer and formerly in charge of the district census) for the annual census report. They voted instead to hire a part-time clerk to carry out this function. Trustees Zindulka, Bello and McCormack voted against the motion.

The meeting adjourned, with the agenda uncompleted, at 11:30 when Mr. McCormack voted not to continue (the vote must be unanimous). The next board meeting is Friday, October 27 at 8 P.M. in the Administration Building.

C.Y.O. Soccer News

This week we are going to talk about warm-up periods. Al Barcavage, coach of the Apollus, agrees with Peter Collins, coach of the Santos, and Tony Camarra, President of our C.Y.O. soccer program, that a warm-up period is very essential before instruction or a game.

In general the purpose of a warm-up period is to increase the circulation of blood, and to increase the suppleness or flexibility of the body. This can be accomplished by mass exercises and if done smartly, in unison, think of the psychological effect it could have on your opponent.

The warm-up should be planned by the coach. Some exercises that you as a coach might want to choose from are: 1. Walking on all fours. 2. Trunk bending forward from wide stride position with knees straight. 3. High kicking. 4. Forward roll. 5. Forward roll over one shoulder. 6. Backward roll.

There are many other exercises you might want to use. However, what ever you choose, remember, the purpose is warm-up, not fatigue.

The last important point to be brought out is that each player must be told why the exercises are given and must understand the value of these exercises.

The scores for the week are as follows:
Americans, coached by Roger Fremgen beat Newbridge 2-0. Fremgen beat Newbridge 2-0. Effect it could have on your opponent.

Oyster Bay Town Clerk Isabel R. Dodd has reminded residents that it is a misdemeanor to promote gambling and operate unlicensed bingo games. She also warned bingo enthusiasts to beware of flyers which advertise playing bingo on a bus while en route to bingo games played out of state.

Said Mrs. Dodd, "Hundreds of bingo enthusiasts run to Pennsylvania each week because of the large money prizes awarded there, but it is often advertised that the bus to and from these games will operate rolling games to "help pass the time."

"These rolling bingo games," she continued, "are illegal, as are any unlicensed bingo games. Residents must realize the strict penalties inflicted upon those who operate illegal games and must abide by the law."

Plainview - Old Bethpage Sports

BY JOE DOWD

On fourth down and 5 with twenty seconds to play, MacArthur's Paul Lombino took the handoff and raced toward the sidelines. He was tenaciously pursued by Plainview's Rich Owen and Bill Skarren who blasted the MacArthur back out of bounds. The chains were brought from across the field to the near sidelines where anxious players awaited the ref's signal. The ref pulled on the device that would surely measure the game's outcome. He placed the stick down 6 inches ahead of the ball. Plainview had held! In what was called the best defensive battle in years by Coach Sam Goldmeier, Plainview tied MacArthur 0-0 on October 7th. Bob Tomick was the outstanding defensive player with 8 tackles and 5 assists, but the entire team contributed with gutsy second-effort defensive play. Tom Finnegan, Rich Owen, Bill Skarren, and Steve Couz led the Plainview 11's "Tenacious defense."

On October 14th the Plainview Varsity Football team won its first game of the season by defeating Island Trees 8-6. Plainview's scoring play came after Rich Owen's nine yard run, Owen then plunged over from 1 yard out for the T.D. Bill Skarren then threw to Jim Rice for what proved to be the winning conversion. The touchdown was set up when junior Paul Kenul recovered an Island Trees fumble on the Bulldog 35 yard line. Kenul, an all-county pole vaulter in the spring, pressured Island Trees' quarterback, Mike Droz, by hurdling over his offensive blockers. Kenul made his biggest play of the game and the season in the 4th quarter. On 4th down and 5 to go, Droz dropped back and looked for his receiver. Paul pursued the retreating quarterback dove head-long and smothered the Bulldog signal caller before he could throw. A few plays later, Dom Gio, the Gulls' captain, punter, and fullback, faked a fourth down punt and ran for the first down yardage, giving Plainview the game. Island Trees scored in the second period after a debated 30 yard double penalty which left Plainview with its back to the wall. The Trees' conversion attempt was stopped when Droz fumbled the snap. Plainview has four remaining games.

On September 14th the Plainview Soccer team scored a double victory over Great Neck South. The J.V. won 2-1 and the Varsity won 4-2. ## St. Ignatius Bumblebees Win 13-0

The St. Ignatius Bumblebees brought its unbeaten string to 5 today as they beat St. Martha's of Uniondale 13-0. This victory was gained with a combination of a consistent offense and a solid defense.

After a scoreless first quarter, St. Ignatius took over after a punt by St. Martha's at its own 33 yd. line and marched in to score in 8 plays. The big gain coming on a pass from Gerard Siry to Paul Rupp which covered thirty five yds. to the 1 yd. line. From that point, Joe Johnston punched the score across from the 3. The Bumblebees failed to convert. After a series by St. Martha, they were again stopped and had to punt. On the ensuing play Siry hit Johnston with a pass to the 10 yd. line and the half ended 6-0.

At the start of the second half, St. Ignatius took over the kick off on its own 40 yd. line and in 5 plays they put their second touchdown on the boards with Joe Johnston carrying it in from the 4 yd. line. A Siry to Johnston pass converted the extra point.

St. Ignatius' front defensive unit of Paul Rupp, Richie Muller, Jim Hurley, Jim Schubert, Jim Santos and Jack McInerney deserve an extra congratulations for not allowing St. Martha's to gain a first down. Next week, The Bumblebees will put its unbeaten string on the line against St. Ann's at Sevanaka High School, Garden City at 1:00 P.M.

SHOE BUSINESS

Many men are told by shoe salesmen that their feet are "hard-to-fit".

It's an unwise thing to say for two reasons:
1) The customer won't appreciate it, and
2) It's probably not true

The problem is the dealer's inventory, not the man's foot. Many people, not truly hard-to-fit, need an uncommon size not in the dealer's stock.

The answer is a store like GOLDMAN BROS. in Hicksville. Their shoe department has an 8,000 square foot stockroom filled with work and service shoes (steel-toe safety shoes, too), dress shoes, casuals, sneakers, boots, slippers — anything in footwear—with a selection in men's sizes from 5 to 17, widths A to EEEEE.

And in athletic shoes (for golf, bowling, tennis, boating, hiking) they have women's sizes, too. Just as for the men—narrow and wide sizes, short and long.

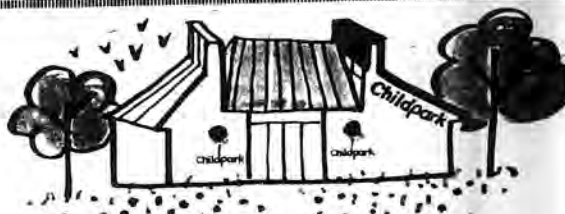

Careful attention, too, to filling prescriptions for modified, corrective, and special support shoes.

Remember GOLDMAN BROS. for the best selection, the best service, the best fit.

Jones Beach Mums In Full Bloom

Garden chrysanthemums at Jones Beach State Park are in their full glory now. Extending from Parking Field 4 to the Central Mall both sides of the walk are a mass of color and will remain so until unloving weather extinguishes the unbelievable tints nature with the helping hand of man has produced.

Perhaps nowhere is there a more vivid display of the showy Autumn flowers arranged in attractive settings with shrubbery in the background and complementing the panorama of plantings.

A Holly Patterson, Chairman of the Long Island State Park Commission, pointing out that more than 100 varieties of mums are in the collection this year, said: "The park gardeners perform a herculean task in preparing for this annual event which draws visitors from far and near. Our other seasonal displays, of course, are very attractive but so much outstanding work can be done with the large variety of blossoms in so many hues."

Beds of each type of bloom are prominently labeled for identification. While new varieties are introduced each year, the old favorites generally hold the center of attention and inspire most comment.

More than 12,000 individual plants are now in bloom. An afternoon of genuine delight is assured in a visit to Jones

Beach especially when the destination is reached via scenic state parkways which are beginning to put on a brilliant show of their own as trees and shrubs burst into color emphasizing the miracle of Autumn

"I want to thank you for your honesty and decency... I am sure that both the men and women of your District, when they know of your generous action [regarding women's rights] will bless you."

"H.A.D. Parent Groups: Its History and Its Accomplishments"

H.A.D.'s first Parent Group was initiated in May, 1971 and was an on-going group which finally terminated in April, 1972. It consisted mainly of mothers of adolescent boys and girls (one lone father braved two sessions and then resumed his Wednesday night card game). The average attendance was 8 individuals whose problems ranged from relatively simple disagreements over hair-length or mode of dress to more severe behavioral problems (including drug involvement), some necessitating institutionalization of child.

As the group progressed we examined many areas: what we expect of ourselves as parents; appreciating the impact of culture on today's generation and examining the interaction between parents and their children and ways of ameliorating conflict in that interaction.

Some of the conclusions reached at the termination of that first group were the fact that although all the major problems were not eliminated, we, as parents, learned to approach our problems on a more level-headed basis, acting after assessing our feelings and emotions in a given situation rather than reacting to that situation on an emotional level. We learned to share methods of handling problems from parents who had experienced similar problems—thereby setting up preventive methods for other parents who might face a future problem of the same nature.

H.A.D.'s second Parent Group is now in progress every Monday evening (8 p.m.-10 p.m.) are being scheduled for parents (both mothers and fathers) who would be interested in joining such a group. Please call H.A.D. at WE 5-6858, Monday through Friday, 2 p.m.-11 p.m., Saturday, 3 p.m.-midnight.

The Teen-Age Republicans of Hicksville will hold their regular monthly meeting on Friday Oct. 20 8:00 p.m. The meeting will be held at the Seaman Eiseemann Building, 167 Broadway, Hicksville.

Board Acts On Petitions

by Janet Gosnell

The Town Board took action on two petitions concerning Hicksville at its regular meeting on Tuesday, granting one, and denying the other.

The application of the Galileo Galilei Lodge for a special permit to operate as a club was granted by the Town Board, 4 members voting "aye", 2 abstaining, and 1 absent. Councilman Yevoli and Saladino abstained because of their affiliation with the Sons of Italy, whose lodge is located on Levittown Parkway. Hicksvillian Joseph Giordano presented the case for the sons of Italy at a public hearing a few weeks ago.

The Board denied the petition of Birse Corp. public hearing January 18th, 1972) for a change of zone from residence to business for an interior parcel adjacent to Roberts Chevrolet, which the company said it wished to use for parking purposes.

Opposition was expressed to the petition at the hearing by local residents. The Roberts Chevrolet property fronts on Broadway and backs up on Grand Ave.

Open House October 25

"Childpark" To Open At Mid Island Plaza

Beginning in October, Long Island children between the ages of three and eight will have a facility of their own at the Mid Island Shopping Center in Hicksville. Called Childpark, the facility will provide the youngsters with a wide range of recreational and educational programs while their mothers' time is freed for shopping, taking courses, pursuing a career or socializing.

Totally new in concept and execution, the facility is the brainchild of Dr. Phyllis Katz, a leading child psychologist and associate professor at the City University of New York.

"Childpark will offer the elements of a good school," Dr. Katz explains, "but it has a new flexibility not previously available in existing child care programs. We offer our facilities on an hourly basis. There is no contract to sign and no tuition to lose if a child is ill or busy with activities in the home."

Childpark's fee schedule is, in fact, one of its innovative features. Somewhat less expensive than nursery school, its administrators have scrapped the notion of tuition on a monthly or semester basis in favor of an hourly plan. Parents pay $1.50 for the first hour and $1.25 for each additional hour, or $10.00 for the whole day. And, as a bonus, there are special lower rates for brothers and sisters who attend Childpark together.

More unique than its fee structure, however, is the Childpark facility itself. Located opposite the Mid-Island Plaza's Long Island National Bank site, the colorful white stucco building offers easy accessibility to a great many Long Island families. And the structure was designed and built specifically for the education and pleasure of children.

Within the building, three main areas encircle a landscaped outdoor atrium. Each area has its own focus of interest, and each will be supervised by a teacher and an assistant who are specialists in their particular fields. The overall design, based on a cheerful balloon motif, makes for a bright, light-filled interior at the same time that it permits free and easy movement from one area to another.

As for the guiding concept behind Childpark, it might best be described as one that offers children a balance between freedom and structure. "We obtained a fine staff of certified teachers who share the belief that we should be concerned with intellectual stimulation as well as enjoyment," says Dr. Katz, who currently serves as the facility's head consultant. "Youngsters' needs include the desire to be both creative and competent. And adults who work with children at lower age levels must respect and foster these tendencies."

In keeping with that concept, the designers of Childpark have tried to include a wider range of activities than can be found at most nursery schools. They've also steered away from the idea of a teacher who supervises all activities and instead chose a staff of more specialized people, each of whom has particular competence in one specific area, whether it be art, music or other Childpark pastimes.

Specialization on the part of teachers, however, does not imply specialization on the part of the youngsters. On the contrary, they'll be encouraged not just to explore all of Childpark's equipment and facilities, but to meet other children as well. And through what Dr. Katz calls "positive age mixing," the children the same age as they are, given them a chance to make a broader range of friends than they might have at a more conventional school. All told, it's Dr. Katz's belief that Childpark will provide children with an environment that furnishes unique opportunities for both conceptual and social learning and for plenty of fun in the bargain.

Commenting on the importance of intellectual stimulation during the early years of life, Dr. Katz observed that "instead of getting a baby sitter simply to watch their children until they return home, many mothers today want to take a more positive attitude." Childpark, she feels, will allow mothers to do themselves a favor at the same time that they do something constructive and educational for their children.

Childpark is not a franchise operation but a one-of-a-kind facility. Approved by the Department of Social Services, it will be open six days a week from 8 AM to 6 PM and closed Sundays. Seventy five and closed Sundays. Seventy five children can be accommodated at the facility at one time.

Levine Endorsed

The 11,500-member Uniformed Firefighters Association of Greater New York has endorsed Stuart R. Levine, Republican candidate for the Assembly in the 10th A. D.

Levine received the endorsement in a letter from Michael J. Maye, association president.

Levine is on record in support of state legislation to allow town governments to establish and maintain training facilities for firemen. The present law allows counties, cities and villages to provide training facilities for firemen, but omits town governments.

"I believe towns should be allowed to supplement county facilities with local training centers more readily available to their own fire departments," Levine said. "One of my first legislative acts will be to submit legislation to amend the present law."

Levine already has been endorsed by the State AFL-CIO, the Nassau Police Conference and the Metropolitan Police Conference.
