K.C. Track Meet Attracts Olympic Stars

A star-studded field of Olympic, foreign, and United States athletes are expected successfully to launch the Indoor Track and Meet Season at the Nassau Veterans Memorial Stadium in Uniondale, New York on Saturday evening, January 13, 1973, commencing at 7:00 P.M. This is the announcement of James E. Foley, Meet Director, of the First Annual Invitational Indoor Track and Field Meet in the Long Island area.

An exciting start is expected in the 60-yard Hurdles, with Olympic champion Rod Milburn and former Olympic champion Willie Davenport as the main attractions. Other entries in the event promise to make this a classic.

Special emphasis is being given to offer local color to the Nassau-Suffolk area. A 1-mile Medley Relay will feature Catholic high schools from Nassau and Suffolk counties. A 1-mile Relay will star public high schools from the same counties.

Tickets are now available for public consumption. They may be secured throughout the 100 outlets of Ticketron and from the Meet headquarters in the Prince George Hotel, Suite 171, 14 East 28th Street, New York City, N.Y. 10016, (212) 889-3233.

From December 26 on, tickets will be available at the Coliseum ticket office (516) 794-9100. Tickets are scaled at $6, $8, and $10, inclusive of tax.

Special outlets are being arranged for the residents of the counties of Queens, Nassau and Suffolk. On December 26, 27th and 28th, tickets may be secured from 8:00 P.M. to 10:30 P.M. at the Knights of Columbus rooms located at the following locations:

Queens - Olympia Council, 136-49 41st Avenue, Flushing, New York (212) 463-9455; Nassau County - Corpus Christi Council, 186 Jericho Turnpike, Mineola, New York (516) 746-8643; and Suffolk County - Daniel A. Tobin Council, 1341 Fifth Avenue, Bayshore, New York (516) 669-9075.

"The prevention of birth defects can't help me... but I hope to heaven it will help others," said Mrs. Pasquale Scialdone as she accepted the responsibilities of Mothers' March Chairman for the 1973 March of Dimes.

Mrs. Scialdone will head a group of more than 15,000 Mothers' Marchers who will call upon their neighbors early in January to elicit their support in the fight against birth defects which afflict one out of every 14 children born. One in every ten families in Nassau County suffers the tragedy of having a child born less than perfect.

Mrs. Scialdone is pictured examining the March of Dimes educational flyer which will be distributed by the Mothers' Marcher at every home she visits. Pitching in with the work is 8 year old Scott, who was born with Achondroplasia (dwarfism). Scott was also born deaf but is now able to hear, and with extensive speech therapy, gives commands to his older brother Pat, who is pictured holding Tracy. Tracy was born with Down's Syndrome (mongolism), congenital heart and impaired lungs.

Mrs. Scialdone, a busy housewife, makes time for the March of Dimes with the knowledge that she is helping. Anyone wishing to give a few moments of their time and join the March of Dimes growing fight against birth defects is urged to call Mothers' March Headquarters at 248-1950.

To Speak On "Downtown Hicksville"

The Hicksville Community Council Meeting, which is scheduled for Thursday, Jan. 4, starting at 8:30 p.m. at the Hicksville Library on Jerusalem Avenue, will have as guest speakers, Mr. Kingsley Kelley, president of the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce, and Steven Saunders, Deputy Supervisor of the Town of Oyster Bay. The topic will be "DOWNTOWN HICKSVILLE - WHAT CAN WE EXPECT...AND WHEN CAN WE EXPECT IT?"

The HCC always devotes the last part of each meeting to a "Town Meeting" period at which time anyone present may bring up any matter pertaining to Hicksville.

As is customary, Hicksville residents are all urged to attend and participate in your Community Council meeting.

At The First Baptist Church

Beginning Monday, January 8th, The Hal Webb Evangelistic Team will be conducting meetings at The First Baptist Church of Hicksville. The Hal Webb Team consists of Dr. Hal Webb, evangelist, and Rev. Theron Babcock, his associate and musician. They are well known for the wide scope of their ministry, which includes not only evangelistic campaigns, but radio, recording, and missionary activities as well.

Rev. Babcock, organist, pianist, and song writer, will be playing his own large electronic organ and chimes with a specially equipped speaker system that produces a wide variety of organ music. He plays the organ and piano simultaneously, and every night will write a new chorus from an audience suggested theme. Many of his songs have been published and Rev. Babcock arranges all the music used by the team.

Dr. Webb is a graduate of Bob Jones University, and preaches with dynamic, spirit-filled fervor and agility. He has preached in The Philippines, South America, British West Indies, and other mission fields. Each night Dr. Webb uses Gospel magic illustrations for the children; and joins with Rev. Babcock to present a varied musical program that includes guitar, Hawaiian guitar, baritone horn, accordian, plus vocal solos and duets. The Team is especially loved by teen-agers, who find this ministry geared to the needs of youth.

Services will be held each night at 7:30 P.M., from Monday, January 8th thru Saturday, January 13th. The Schedule for Sunday Services is as follows: 9:45 AM Bible School, 11 AM Morning Worship, 5:30 PM Youth Groups, and 7:00 PM Evening Service which will close the week of special evangelistic emphasis. Every night features something special, and Pastor Alan D. Swaim invites the public to attend these services.

PLANS TO LAUNCH a major drive to bring about renegotiation of the Defense Department's F-14 contract with Grumman are announced at a recent Press

Offered For First Time Savate Co-Ed Classes

Plainview, N.Y. - December 15, 1972. Classes in Savate are being offered for the first time in Nassau County public schools. Also unique is the format of having boys and girls learning Savate techniques together at the grammar school level.

Louis F. Ferrara, Acting Superintendent of the Plainview - Old Bethpage School District, revealed here today that co-ed classes in Savate and Karate have just been initiated. Savate is a form of French foot fighting, he explained, and the course will offer Oriental and European personal defense techniques.

The 10 week, one hour course is being given right after regular school classes end, Mr. Ferrara said, "to provide wholesome indoor activities during the winter period." Instructor for the course is Thomas Syrett, who taught Karate at Oneonta State Teachers' College.

Mr. Syrett said that the Savate-Karate courses, in addition to the wholesome body building exercises, had moral, social and educational values. "We teach them the self-discipline to walk away from a threatened fight without fear of being called 'coward'," he said. Students are instructed "that they can use Savate - Karate kicks only when they are being attacked physically, and never just to show off their prowess."

The courses are a "healthy, safe outlet for the anti-social hostilities which are latent in many students," Syrett continued. "They offer an enjoyable alternative to drug and pill taking. They also have a strong ego building value, especially for girls. Developing physical skills to defend themselves, builds their confidence. The mixed sex classes help the shy introverted students come out of their shell, to try something new, to develop an awareness of social relations."

Mr. Syrett will be teaching such defense methods as the up-block, in which an arm is thrown above the head to block an adversary's punch. He will also be showing students how to use the double-arm cross block to protect the lower parts of their bodies.

Mr. Syrett noted that the course was also giving instruction and practice in such counter techniques as: front snap-kicks, strove chops, reverse kicks

Can't Move Into Nassau

Streetwalkers peep show operators, pornography peddlers and massage parlor proprietors will not find the welcome mat out in Nassau County should they decide to leave their "hot" city environs, County Executive Ralph G. Caso proclaimed today. "They can expect a downright inhospitable reception if they try to peddle their wares in Nassau," Caso warned. "The city's crackdown on their operations would seem like a cold wave compared to what would be in store for them here."

The county executive said he had no inside information that these types were, indeed, eyeing Nassau, but noted reports that they were leaving the Times Square district for outlying areas such as Queens and The Bronx.

Caso said he planned to meet with Nassau Dist. Atty. William Cahn and Police Commissioner Louis Frank shortly after the first of the year to assess the situation and determine if any moves were being made into the county. "I want to discuss our current laws pertaining to these activities and see where they can be strengthened to deal with situations that may arise," he said.

Caso said he also plans to call in Nassau Consumer Affairs Commissioner James E. Picken to discuss regulations to control the operation of massage parlors.

Foreign Language Greetings

The seventh annual Christmas window at Hicksville Senior High School has as its theme: "Happiness is a Greeting in: one of our Foreign Languages." Hundreds of cards made by foreign language students with appropriate messages in French, German, Italian, Latin, or Spanish hang on and surround a revolving Christmas tree or flask smiling faces on the windows themselves.

An article by Samuel A. Goldberg, chairman of the Foreign Language Department at the Senior High School, about this annual event appears in the current issue of the Language Association Bulletin published by the New York State Association of Foreign Language Teachers.

Kickoff Breakfast For CP Telethon

The Nassau Cerebral Palsy Telethon launched its "1973 Celebrity Parade of Stars" with an opening breakfast on Wednesday morning, December 6th, at Carl Hopp's Westbury Manor in Jericho.

More than 125 Auxiliary women, representing every Nassau Community, gathered to plan the recruitment efforts which will bring together 8,000 volunteers to assist in the annual telethon event, now scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, January 27 and 28, when twenty hours of continuous air solicitation will provide substantial funds for the rehabilitation of the Cerebral Palsied at the Center for Living in Roosevelt, Long Island.

Paul Peysner, Telethon Chairman, speaking at the breakfast, said: "We must depend on the Nassau public, who

Johnson: Taylor Law For RR Workers

New York State Senator-elect Owen Johnson (R-West Babylon) said today he'll profile a bill in the State Legislature this week, to include the Metropolitan Transportation Authority's 61,000 employees under the Taylor Law. Johnson, who represents the 4th Senate District which has a heavy commuter population in the Towns of Oyster Bay, Huntington, and Babylon, called the 20-day old Long Island Railroad strike, "the worst backward step for mass transportation in the past three years."

"Everyone is entitled to some form of wage increase," he continued, "but this time out, the LIRR employees are just too excessive in their demands. They're not hurting or pressuring MTA officials one bit. They're really punishing the poor commuters, who don't deserve this treatment. It's time for the State Legislature to respond and put these employees in their place."

Johnson said the controversial Taylor Law, on the books since 1967, would be the most effective way of ensuring that such public employee irresponsibility does not happen on the Long Island Railroad again. Johnson's bill would amend the Taylor Law, named after educator George Taylor (who died last week), to include quasi-public government agencies like the MTA. At present, the law only covers public employees who work for municipalities and public commissions. Justifying the amendment, Johnson said, "Actually the MTA is being supported by public funds and the railroad's employees are serving the public."

If MTA officials could invoke the Taylor Law, Long Island Railroad employees could be subject to a fine of pay for each strike day, they could be put on probation status, the representative union could be subject to a fine, the union could lose its dues check-off privileges, and the union officers could be held in contempt of court.

Johnson said if the strike is still on, he will press for immediate enactment of this bill as soon as the Legislature opens. "If the strike is allowed to continue," he stated, "the employees will have done criminal, irreparable harm to the Long Island Railroad as a mass transit system."

Dear Friends

NOW THAT 1973 is only a few days away, we'd like to thank all who have helped to make The HERALD a better weekly newspaper. We hope that you will all continue to send us the news of your organizations, (with pictures if you have them) along with your social news. We in turn will cover all the meetings such as County Supervisors, Town Board, and School Board, and as many others as possible. Together let's do just as much good as we can so that when 1973 comes to an end, we can say sincerely, "We were concerned....we worked together to help wherever possible."

WE'D ALSO like to encourage "Letters To The Editor" participation. Remember, it is a good thing to differ intelligently. If we do it is just possible that we may come a little closer to solving our problems. We do not have to berate those with whom we differ. But, thank God that we live in a country where we can still express our opinions whatever they may be.

IF YOUR ORGANIZATION needs help in preparing its publicity don't hesitate to call on us. We'll show you how. And if your publicity chairman or chairlady follows our instructions (which are fairly simple) we'll guarantee that you will all be pleased with the results of his or her year in office. So, if you haven't already done so, come on and join our team. We'd like to work with you.

In the meantime, have a HAPPY NEW YEAR!
SHEILA NOETH

Kenneth Leisenritt and Howard Palle of New Jersey, have spent three days cutting out two of the jail cells at the former Heitz Place Court House, the future home of The Gregory Museum. Kenneth and Howard are son-in-laws of Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner Gregory, founders of The Gregory Museum.

One cell has been left and the space formerly occupied by the two cells that were removed will house historical artifacts of Hicksville and neighboring areas. Mr. Richard Evers, Social Studies Teacher in the Hicksville Junior High, is Chairman of The Gregory Museum's Historical Committee. Donations of money, materials or labor are needed to convert the jail area into a historical display room. A new floor, insulation, ceiling, walls, display cabinets and heating system are needed before the room can be opened to the public. Those interested in making a donation should contact Mr. Richard Evers, WE 1-6667, or The Gregory Museum, QV 1-6641. Mr. Conrad Larsen Roofing Co., Hicksville, has installed a new roof on the jail. Local Carpenters Union 1772 repaired the roof beams, which had rotted away in certain areas. In addition the Union installed a new gutter and leader pipe on the rear of the jail. So, jump on the bandwagon and get Hicksville's Historical Artifacts on display for All to enjoy!

Cutting Property Taxes

President Nixon recently said he hoped to reduce property taxes by half before his present four-year term of office is ended. If the President can accomplish that, he will have done more to alleviate an unjust financial burden in the form of excessively high property taxes for the middle class in America than any other President.

Several proposals have been put forward. The most desirable is that to allow property taxes paid by home owners to be deducted from federal taxes - up to a certain figure.

Other proposals include one which would guarantee local communities federal reimbursement when and if they lowered property taxes. But this proposal doesn't guarantee relief, fairly and nationwide, to all on an equal basis.

The proposal to allow taxpayers an exemption from federal taxes to offset part of their property taxes would mean instant, equal treatment for practically everyone; special provisions could easily be made for those few not benefited equally.

The President's proposals will be sent to the 93rd Congress. Members should see to it this is one order of business speedily and positively dealt with. The electorate made its views more than clear on this subject in the primaries of 1972.

The Gregory Museum Long Island's Earth Science Center

It won't be long now. The Gregory Museum will be at home in the Heitz Place Courthouse in January.

It's been a steep road for us and for the beautiful old building. The Village Hall, built in 1895 and recently used as a local courthouse, was vacated by the Town and badly vandalized before it was leased to the Museum. The exterior is now being restored to its Victorian elegance; the interior renovated to house the Museum's 10,000 rock and mineral specimens, and outstanding display of butterflies and moths, and a subsidiary collection of historical artifacts designed to give our children a sense of local heritage.

This has been a community project. Every nail, every pane of glass has been installed by hard-working volunteers. Almost everything from flooring to fixtures has been installed by local individuals, merchants, and business. Funds to keep the work going have been contributed from recession-pinched pockets. Thanks to such enthusiastic cooperation, we are in the home stretch.

The same dedication and hard work characterize the operation of the Museum itself. No static exhibition, this is a teaching - research - display museum, where each visitor receives a personalized lecture tour. Founded in 1963, at the request of Hicksville teachers who wanted multi-media assistance in teaching Earth Science, it has been housed ever since in the home of Gardiner and Anne Gregory who assembled the collection, prepared the displays, and conduct both tours and instructional programs. In 1966 the Gregory Museum was incorporated and chartered by the State of New York as a non-profit educational foundation.

Each school day children arrive by the bus load for tours specifically planned to reinforce their studies. On weekends and evenings scout groups, mineral clubs, and families visit the Museum. Long Island colleges and universities use it. Classes are held for teachers, adults and children on moths and butterflies, mineralogy, and lapidary arts. Starting with 331 visitors in 1963, the Museum has welcomed over 50,000 guests; with its present facilities however, it can serve only a fraction of those who wish to see its exhibits and participate in its programs. When the Gregory Museum occupies the Heitz Place Courthouse, it will expand its teaching functions. Classes will be conducted in lapidary arts, mineralogy, geology and micro-mounting. It will be open 7 days a week, without the present restriction of "by appointment only." There will be lectures and field trips for both young and old.

We all need to be made aware of the wonders and beauty of nature and its value to mankind from both the aesthetic and ecological viewpoints. This is what the Gregory Museum is trying to do. Rocks and minerals, after all, are the building blocks of our world.

Even with the collection in its new home, community support will be essential. If you have time, or talent, or funds to contribute, won't you join in making this project a success?

PREFILING HIS FIRST BILL - Assemblyman-elect Stuart R. Levine a newly elected Assemblyman. He will officially take office when the 1973 session convenes on Jan. 3. The Levine bill would permit the amount of money expended for college tuition and books to be taken as a deduction from the personal state income tax return. Levine pointed out that the deductions would be particularly helpful to families who have more than one child attending college.

Assemblyman-elect Levine prefilled the bill in the Assembly chamber in Albany with Assembly Index Clerk Richard Bendon. The measure is being sponsored in the Senate by Senator Ralph J. Marino of Syoset.

Happiness Is Adopting A Grandma or Grandpa

The children of the Fern Place School of Plainview are adopting Grandmas and Grandpas for the holiday season. The project was originated by the School Nurse - Teacher, Mrs. Goldstein, as part of the mental health curriculum which deals with feelings and values. The third level children were asked to think about and empathize with those who could not be with family and friends during the holidays. The teachers asked the children to picture how they would feel in such a situation, and from this the project was born.

The chorus, under the guidance of the music teacher, Mr. Hardi and Mrs. Smyle, third level teacher, will present their holiday program at the Central Island Nursing Home. Afterwards the children will give their adopted grandparents small gifts which they have brought and wrapped. Hopefully new friends and pen pals will be made.

The goal of this program is to teach the children that bringing happiness to others creates happiness for ones self.

Taking Bids On Scoreboard

Nassau County Executive Ralph G. Caso announced that the county will take bids on an animated scoreboard for the Nassau Veterans Memorial Coliseum so that the installation can be completed by the end of 1973.

A resolution to approve the plans and specifications for the scoreboard will be on the Jan. 4 Board of Supervisors' calendar.

"The animated scoreboard will add an exciting new dimension to the enjoyment of spectators at coliseum events," Caso said.

The scoreboard will be four-sided and measure 18-feet across and 20-feet high, with each of the four animated sections measuring 12-by-16 feet. The top part of the scoreboard will indicate statistics of the game in progress while the bottom section, measuring approximately three-and-a-half feet around, will be for advertising panels to produce revenue. Two additional score and time indicators for each end of the coliseum also are included in the specifications.

Caso explained that the animated sections will be activated through a computer, allowing for the showing of a variety of animated characters, player pictures and messages.

MR. ABRAHAM WEINSCHENKER Plainview Fire Department was selected by his department chief to receive The F. & M. Schaefer Brewing Co.'s "Volunteer Fireman of the Year Award". Fireman Weinschenker received his award from Schaefer Regional Sales Manager Jack Coffey, (l), at an awards banquet held recently at the Knights of Columbus Post in Patchogue. The major brewer each year honors one volunteer fireman from each department in Nassau and Suffolk Counties for his outstanding contribution and devotion to duty. This year 154 men and companies were honored as was the chief of each department and the wives of both the "fireman of the year" and the chief. Mrs. Diane Weinschenker (center) was one of the wives who enjoyed seeing her man honored by Schaefer.

Appointed To Commission

New York State Senator John R. Dunne (R-Nassau) has been appointed to the American Bar Association's Commission On Correctional Facilities and Services.

The 23-member Commission, whose chairman is former Governor Richard Hughes of New Jersey, is a special public service effort by the ABA to foster improvement of the nation's corrective apparatus - prisons, jails, probation, parole, community programs and new alternatives for the rehabilitation of criminal offenders.

Other members of the Commission include former Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara, George Meany, President of the AFL - CIO, and Dr. Karl Menninger, noted psychologist and author.

Senator Dunne said the Commission "should have a significant impact upon the field of Correction because of its interdisciplinary membership and national scope." A grant from the Ford Foundation supports the program development activities of the Commission and a variety of federal and private awards contribute assistance to its several action programs, Senator Dunne said.

Senator Dunne, who is Chairman of the New York Senate Committee on Crime and Correction, has earned a national reputation in the field of criminal justice since his election to the Senate in 1965. He played a leadership role in the National Conference on Corrections

Protection For Insured Consumers

State Senator Ralph J. Marino (R-Syosset) has introduced two bills in Albany that would protect consumers from having their automobile liability insurance cancelled arbitrarily by insurance companies.

The first bill requires insurance companies to provide the state insurance department with the reasons for cancelling or failing to renew automobile liability insurance when the insured has not been involved in an accident. If the insurance holder is not satisfied that the company has adequate justification for cancelling his policy, he has recourse to a bearing following which the state may reverse the company's action.

The second bill prohibits insurance companies from refusing to insure applicants reaching the age of sixty-five solely on the ground of age.

Said Marino, "Since liability insurance is required by the State of New York insurance companies have a greater responsibility to their customers than other private industries. This bill would offer consumers a greater opportunity to maintain the coverage they need in order to continue driving."

It provides individual programs of medical, podiatry, dentistry, social service, education, the major therapies, recreation and, among others, an accredited sheltered workshop.

The honored guest of the occasion was Tracy Miller, National CP Poster Girl.

Widow's Benefits

About 1,750,000 widows who were 65 or older at the time their social security widow's benefits started will have their payments increased to 100 per cent of the retirement benefits their deceased husbands would now be receiving if they were alive, said Marvin Kovel, District Manager of Freeport Social Security.

Another 2 million Widows will receive less than 100 per cent of their husband's retirement benefits, Kovel said, because they took their widow's benefits before they were 65 and will, therefore, be collecting payments

Photographics: 1975 In Hicksville During January

CAPA (the Cultural and Performing Arts Division of Oyster Bay Town's Department of Recreation and Community Activities) will be sponsoring a display of a group of graphics by an outstanding young artist in Hicksville during the month of January, it was announced today by Town Councilman Salvatore R. Mosca.

Entitled PHOTOGRAPHICS: 1975, the exhibit is the work of James Jay Lincoln, a resident of Bayville, who is currently studying at the Kansas City Art Institute, Missouri. The exhibition will be on view throughout the month of January at the Hicksville Public Library on Jerusalem Avenue, during library hours (WE 1-1417).

In PHOTOGRAPHICS: 1975,

Mr. Lincoln brings an acutely honed sense of design to a unique and intricate photo-screening process. His deceptively simple works are imbued with sensitivity and artistry. The exhibit drew wide acclaim since it began circulating under CAPA's aegis last October, during month-long displays at Roosevelt Field, the Syosset Woodbury Park Community Center and the Valley Stream Public Library.

This is the first in a series of CAPA's YOUNG ARTISTS exhibits - one (wo)man shows by talented young people who are exemplars of today's accomplishments in art institutes. For further information call Lois Manning, CAPA's Supervisor at 921-5944.

the reduced retirement benefits he would still be receiving if he was living, Mr. Kovel said.

If she was 65 or over when her widow's benefits began, she will get 100 per cent of the reduced benefit her husband would now be receiving. If she was under 65, she will get less than 100 per cent of his reduced retirement benefit. Under the formula in the new law, that 100 per cent is reduced by 1/40ths of 1 per cent for every month that the widow lacked of being 65 when her widow's payments started. In no case, however, will a widow get a benefit less than what she is now receiving. For further information about this change, residents can call 998-7100.

High School Hockey Is Big In Oyster Bay

Oyster Bay Town Supervisor John W. Burke announced this week that the Town has again made provision for the use of the public ice skating facilities at the Marjorie R. Post, Syosset-Woodbury and Bethpage Community Parks for a Town-sponsored High School Hockey League.

The League, part of a multi-phased, Town-wide program designed to foster interest in and provide the opportunity for enjoyment of the sport of hockey, is represented by enthusiasts from eight high schools. The first of its kind on Long Island, Oyster Bay's High School Hockey League is unique in that its constitution, rules and by-laws have been developed by the youngsters themselves; self-government and discipline are maintained by the participants without the direct supervision of others.

Initiated in 1969, the High School League is comprised of eight teams, each team with a roster of approximately 20 players. There are two divisions in the League; John F. Kennedy (Plainview), Syosset, Locust Valley and Bethpage high schools comprise the Northern Division. Included in the Southern Division are the Massapequa, Farmingdale, Plainville, and Berner High Schools. With aims of instilling a positive competitive spirit and providing sufficient experience to give the players a chance at playing hockey on the college level, Division and League Championships have been established.

Many of those participating in the High School League have graduated to compete in college-level play at schools such as West Point, Cortland, Ithaca, Brockton, Brockport, St. John's and Nassau Community College. Acknowledging the success of the League, the participating high schools have recognized the teams as bona-fide extracurricular activities and accredited them in their respective yearbooks.

The schedule for the 1972-73 season will be available as soon as ice time has been arranged. Scheduling for the league will be arranged in such a fashion that the High School team scheduled will not conflict with normal public utilization of the three facilities. For further information, contact League Commissioner Charles Millner at Oyster Bay Town's Department of Recreation and Community Activities (921-5875).

The man who has two sets of moral standards, one at home and one on convention trips, has two sets of standards in other things as well.

Supervisor JOHN W. BURKE REPORTS

Once again, some 90,000 Long Island commuters are the innocent victims of a labor dispute between the management and employees of the Long Island Railroad. For over three weeks now (as of this writing) these people have taxed their ingenuity, patience and pocketbooks getting to and from their places of employment.

Although Oyster Bay and Nassau County have long since outgrown the sobriquet of "Manhattan's bedroom," there is still a considerable pool of talent considering New York City that resides here in the suburbs. It is most unfortunate that their very livelihoods ride with the whimsey of the Long Island Railroad.

But this is only one phase of the transportation problem that faces all of us in Oyster Bay. A chronically ill bus system and an exploding automobile population complete the picture of transportation in Nassau County. These also affect a much greater segment of the population than just the City-bound commuter.

Nassau County Executive Ralph Case's move to have the County take over the bus systems should result in improved transportation within the County, but the need for an improved, efficient, inexpensive mass transportation system is immediate and critical. I had great hopes this past summer with the release of the proposed 20-year Transportation Master Plan by the New York State Department of Transportation.

These hopes were quickly dashed when it became apparent that the so-called plan for the future more properly addressed the needs of 20 years ago. As I said at the public hearing held by the DOT, the plan little more than acknowledges the need for mass transportation and all but ignores such concerns as air and noise pollution, the possibility of adverse changes in land development patterns and population distribution, the preservation of our natural environment and the diversified needs of a diversified state.

Mass transit lines require only one-fourth as much land as a six-lane highway and can carry five times as many people at a fraction of the cost. In 20 years we will need the equivalent of five additional Long Island Expressways to handle the Nassau and Suffolk rush-hour traffic if mass transit is not improved.

I will continue to direct my efforts toward an effective mass transportation system that will meet Long Island's needs.

Lent's Congressional Office Moving

Congressman Norman Lent's Long Island District office, located in Rockville Centre's County Federal Building for the past two years, is being relocated in Baldwin this week.

The new office will be located in Suite 207 of the new Baldwin Plaza Building, located at 2280 Grand Avenue, between the Post Office and National Bank of North America buildings, a convenient half-block south of the Baldwin station of the Long Island Railroad and Sunrise Highway.

Approximately two miles south of the Southern State Parkway's Exit 20, the office will serve as "home base" for Congressman Lent on weekends and at other times when he is home in the District, and will serve the area from East Rockaway through Seaford on the south shore, and north through Levittown and Hicksville to Syosset, Glenwood Landing and the "estate villages" in central Nassau.

The District Staff is headed by long-time Lent aide and District Representative Robert Roman, and includes his Secretary, (Mrs.) Carolyn Lilli, Assistant District Representative Charles Weis and the Congressman's Community Relations Assistant, Richard Overgaard.

The office will serve as a "clearing house" for 4th District residents, businessmen and local governmental units seeking federal assistance or the solution of problems involving the federal government, and will be open from 9 to 5 on weekdays, and Saturday mornings from 9 to 12. The new telephone number, effective this Friday, will be 223-1616.

Winners Of Regents College Scholarships

The New York State Education Department today announced the names of those high school pupils who have won Regents College Scholarships this year. These scholarship awards are effective with the 1973-74 academic year. A list of Plainview-Old Bethpage High School Winners and Alternates is attached. All awards are subject to final verification of residence and other conditions of eligibility.

A total of 18,843 Regents college scholarships is established by law for distribution each year to graduating high school students. The law provides that the number of scholarships allocated each county shall be proportional to the relative number of residents in such county graduating from high school the previous year. However, Hamilton County must be allocated at least 16 scholarships, and all other counties must receive at least 40 scholarships each.

The basis for awarding scholarships is the score in the Regents Scholarship and College Qualification Test, a 6-hour test administered each year measuring high school achievement and general academic ability. A total of approximately 166,000 candidates in 1200 high schools in New York State wrote the examination on October 4, 1972.

In the event that a scholarship winner declines the award or is unable to accept the award for any reason, the scholarship is offered to the highest ranking alternate in that county.

Each Regents college scholarship entitles the recipient to an award of $250 to $1,000 a year, depending on family income, for up to five years of study at a college, or at a hospital school of professional nursing, in New York State. Scholarship winners may also receive scholar incentive assistance of up to $600 a year.

Questions and Answers

QUES: I'm a student getting monthly social security payments. During the summers and holiday seasons, I work part time in a department store. I heard that the recent changes in social security increased the amount I can earn and still get all my monthly checks. Can you tell me how much I can now earn?

ANS: Yes, you can earn as much as $2,100 next year and still get your full social security payments for the year. If you earn more the $2,100, $1 in benefits will be withheld for every $2 you earn above $2,100. Regardless of your total annual earnings, you can get your full payments for any months in which you neither earn more than $175 nor perform substantial services in self-employment.

QUES: I'll be 65 next August and I'm trying to keep up with all the latest information on Medicare. I read that a recent law changed the way I'll enroll in the medical insurance part of Medicare. Is this true?

ANS: Yes. People who become 65 in July or later and are eligible for Medicare hospital insurance will automatically be enrolled in the medical insurance part of Medicare. However, you'll still have the opportunity to decline enrollment if you decide you don't want medical insurance coverage.

QUES: I have a friend whose only income is her monthly social security check. She has a son who was severely hurt in an accident when he was 19. He hasn't been able to work since the accident, and there's little chance he ever will. I thought I read that the recent changes in social security make her son eligible to get monthly checks too. Is this right?

ANS: Yes. Beginning January 1973 your friend's disabled son and other people who became severely disabled after age 18 but before 22 may qualify for monthly social security payments if a parent is getting social security benefits or has died after having worked long enough under social security. Before, payments could be made to disabled sons or daughters only if the disability started before age 18. Your friend and her son may visit any social security office to apply for benefits.

QUES: Since a heart attack a couple months ago, I haven't been able to do any kind of work. My doctor suggested I check into the possibility of getting social security disability benefits. What information do I need when I apply for disability benefits?

ANS: You'll need your social security number, the date (month, day, and year) you last worked, the date (month, day, and year) you become disabled, information on the kind of disability you have, and the names and addresses of the doctors, hospitals, and institutions that treated you along with the date of each treatment. If you've received any treatment or examination by the Veterans Administration, you should also have your service serial number and your VA claim number handy.

In addition, you should bring along information about the kinds of jobs you worked at most in the 10 years before your disability began and, if you've received Workmen's Compensation benefits, you should have your Workmen's Compensation claim number available.

Finally, if you are also applying for monthly payments for members of your family, you'll need their social security numbers, dates of birth, and the birth certificates of children if applicable.

QUES: I receive both a retirement benefit from social security and a pension from the U.S. Army. Does my army pension count as earnings?

ANS: No. Only wages and self-employment income count as earnings. Other income—such as another pension, dividends, or interest—does not affect your social security benefit payments.

QUES: Before her recent death, my wife worked under social security for nearly 11 years. Even though I plan to continue working and supporting our two children, ages 9 and 12, could they get monthly social security benefits on my wife's work record?

ANS: Yes. The children may be eligible for social security benefits on their mother's record regardless of the surviving father's work situation. You should file an application for the children. Your local office is located at 1505 Kellum Place, Mineola, New York 11501. The phone number is P1-7-5470.

Caemmerer Sets Rules For School Bus Drivers

Parents who send their children to school by bus will have two things less to worry about if Senator John D. Caemmerer (R-East Williston) has his way: the qualifications of bus drivers; and safe seating on buses.

Caemmerer, Chairman of the Joint Legislative Committee on Transportation, has prefiled a bill that sets forth stringent requirements for obtaining and keeping a license to drive a bus. Simultaneously, the Nassau lawmaker prefiled other legislation that would make it mandatory for the seats on school buses to be equipped with high, padded backs and padded arm rests.

"The memory of these school bus tragedies of recent years looms in my mind as a constant reminder that continuing vigilance is necessary if we are to provide maximum protection for our children who travel by bus," Caemmerer said. "While we do not have the divine power to eliminate accidents totally, we can do something about cutting down the chances of their occurring and providing an extra measure of safety for passengers. Hopefully, this legislation will do both."

Written into the licensing requirements for bus drivers are the following provisions:

- o Investigations by each bus company of the driving and employment records of every driver it employs during the preceding three years and annually thereafter;
- o A bi-annual medical examination by a physician other than the driver's personal physician;
- o An eye test which includes visual acuity and field of vision under subdued illumination;
- o Either an one-the-road observation of driving practices or an annual behind-the-wheel driving test with particular emphasis on defensive driving ability;
- o An annual check of the applicant's past driving record and a personal interview;
- o An annual report to the bus company by each driver listing all violations of motor vehicle traffic laws and ordinances for which he has been convicted during the preceding months, other than parking;
- o The maintenance of a file containing drivers' records to be made available to subsequent employers upon request.

The result of much research and hearings held by Caemmerer's committee, the proposed legislation stipulates that a driver may not drive a bus and a bus company may not require or permit him to do so if his alertness or ability to drive is impaired by illness or fatigue. The same restrictions apply if a driver drinks alcoholic beverages or is under the influence of alcohol within four hours of driving.

Caemmerer's tough-minded legislation disqualifies a driver from operating a bus if he has been convicted of any of the following:

- o A felony involving a motor vehicle;
- o A crime involving drugs;
- o Drunk driving or driving under the influence of drugs;
- o Leaving the scene of an accident which resulted in personal injury or death.

In his desire to overlook nothing that might affect the safe transport of school children, Senator Caemmerer's bill would also require bus driver licenses for those who operate the smaller variety of vehicles for school buses. This includes carry-all or van types and station wagons.

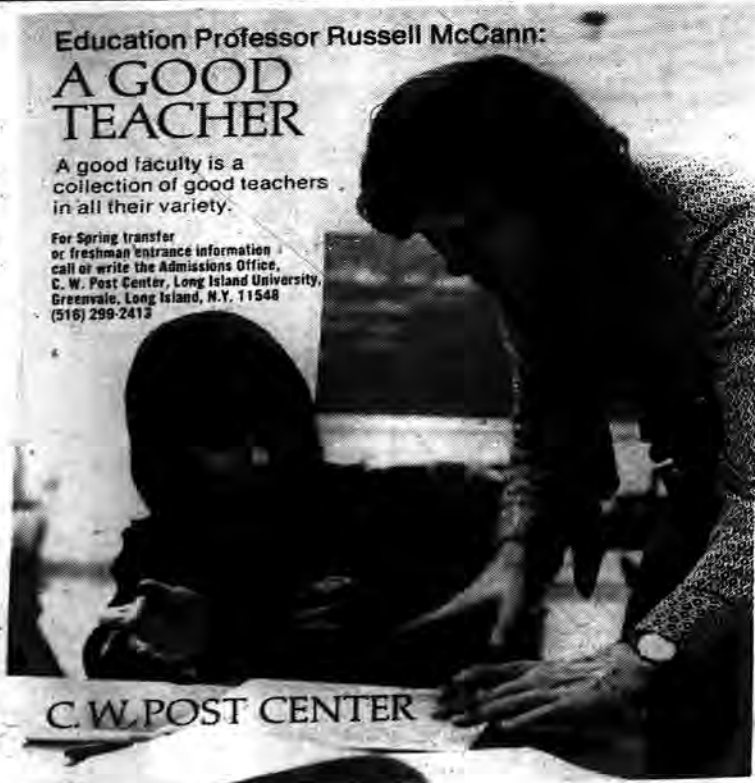

Caemmerer pointed out that his bus driver licensing proposals are in concert with standards established by the Federal Highway Safety Administration of the Federal Department of Transportation for bus drivers which allows for stricter rules. "As evidenced by the attitude of the Federal Government toward the licensing of bus drivers, this legislation is vital," Caemmerer continued. "Here we have a job that demands care, and yet just about any driver can be licensed to drive a bus in New York State. All he has to do is take a drive in a bus with a motor vehicle examiner. That's a practice that should have gone out with silent pictures."
